Meeting Begins At Christian Church

The First Christian Church of this city is beginning a summer evangelistic campaign Monday night, June 30th.

The preacher for the meeting is Dr. P. C. McCord from the First Christian Church, Brownfield, Texas. It is of immense interest to note why he moved to the church of Brownfield.

Dr. McCord had been advised by his doctor to move to a higher and dryer climate on account of a lung ailment. He was barnstorming about the country holding meetings when he was enlisted by the Texas Christian Missionary Society and the Laymen's League of the Christian Churches to hold a meeting at Brownfield. As was his custom, he preached a sermon on Stewardship in which he made the statement, "If I ever find a church whose membership will pledge to tithe with no exceptions, I want to be the pastor regardless of its size." Well, an amazing thing happened that night. Much to the preacher's surprise they held a congregational meeting after church and each of the 23 members promised to tithe. They then issued a call to Dr. McCord to become their pastor.

He had preached that same sermon so many times and had issued that same challenge so often and received no results that he was completely dumbfounded. Under the shock of such a small group promising to do such a big thing, he asked for time to collect his wits. He came back with his answer a few nights later. His answer was that he would accept the call.

The church has more than tripled its membership in the months that followed. They have a budget of more than $6,000.00 per year from a church of less than 100 members.

You are all cordially invited to come out to the services which will begin at 8:00 p. m. each day. After song services Dr. McCord will deliver the following messages:

- Monday, June 30, "God's Way." Tuesday, July 1, "Believe, Ask, Receive." Wednesday, July 2, "Effectual Prayer." Thursday, July 3, "How Lost and Found." Friday, July 4, "Soul Searching Questions." Sunday, July 6, "The Peculiar Christ."

Free Fireworks To Be At Buffalo Lakes July 4th

Mr. W. H. Rodgers, manager of the Buffalo Lakes Rodeo is the fact that one fish has been caught the second time by a fisherman who has landed his second prize fish. Fish No. 66, on which was a $250 bounty, was caught again last Sunday. R. L. Cruse, who lives 17 miles northwest of Abertathy, caught it Friday, June 13, before the rodeo opened and had to throw it back. Buster Hicks, Lubbock, who caught a catfish No. 32 on opening date, landed No. 66 about a half mile from where it was brought out by Mr. Cruse. This time No. 66 remained on the land and brought in the bounty for Mr. Hicks, who now has $270.00 in prize money.

Farm & Ranch Says Judge Smith Is A Very "Crooked Row Farmer"

Most everybody in this section of Texas has known for many years that Judge C. Smith is not only a progressive and influential agriculturist but is also a man who is continually working to improve and use new and better methods to produce better crops out here in West Texas. That his fame is spreading to all parts of Texas and the great Southwest is proven by an article published in the latest issue of Farm & Ranch. The Slatonite has been given permission to reprint the copyrighted article about Judge Smith. Here it is:

By H. L. GANTZ, Associate Editor

Farming, to Judge C. Smith, is a form of optimistic adventure. He works with a feeling of assurance and the flush that goes with it, and is never regarded as a doubt-filled and repressed individual. He is especially fond of his five-gaited saddle horse, his Hereford hogs, his sheep and his rose garden, for they seem to create a gentle flow of warm happiness on the farm.

Since Judge Smith is a large-scale cotton farmer, he was pleased to humorously describe how he started as a "one-sled" tenant farmer when speed and ease were only a chapter in a dream book. However, in later years he acquired considerable acreage and established economy in operation through use of tractor power.

Boil down this West Texan of Lubbock county and you will find a fellow who farms because he likes it. He does not practice showmanship or engage in exhibitions, that prove unprofitable. He desires to be referred to as just a dry-land cotton farmer whose only distinction is that he has been able to live in his community for 21 years and still cannot farm a straight row. "I am a crooked farmer," he said, explaining that he did not have a straight row on his own 965 acres or on the 800 acres that he is renting.

Judge Smith states that he cannot afford to handcuff himself and then hope for the best through failure to cooperate with Nature's laws. It is his opinion that many farmers have bogged down in hopeless despair because of the (Continued on page 3)

Check Forgers Operate in City

In a small city like Slaton where everyone feels that he knows almost everyone else, people seldom stop to consider that forgers and swindlers exist.

On June 9, two forged checks on the local bank were cashed in Slaton, one at Piggly-Wiggly and one at Drive-In grocery. Each check was for $28.00, was payable to Joyce M. White, and was signed by H. W. Morgan, both names being fictitious.

Approximately a week later the culprits were caught in Abilene where they admitted having cashed similar checks over the area from Lubbock to Abilene. The couple gave as their real names Bessie and Raymond Gryder.

Seagraves and Slaton Teams To Play Here Sunday at 3 P. M.

Last Sunday at Seagraves the Slaton Tigers took a hard fought Oil Belt league baseball game from the Oilers to the score of 4 to 3. Lefty Faulkner pitched one of the best ball games keeping 5 hits well scattered, allowing one hit in the fourth, two in the eighth and two in the ninth while striking out 8 batters and getting four for four hits at bat. Left fielder Cracker Carr got three for four including a triple.

Slaton scored three runs in the fifth inning when Faulkner got his second single and short-stop Gray beat out a bunt. Weaver hit a single over the short stop and Carr got his second hit driving in Faulkner and Gray but was thrown out at second trying to stretch it into a double; then McCoy hit one to left field scoring Weaver. Gray was the outstanding defensive player for Slaton handling 11 chances with one error, while Bunky Guinn played an outstanding game at third base handling five chances without an error.

Next Sunday these same two teams play here at Slaton (June 29), with Lefty Faulkner on the mound for Slaton. Don't miss the game beginning at 3 p. m.

This week the Slatonite is carrying the second of the safety series of the President's Highway Safety Conference sponsored by public spirited firms of Slaton.

The problem of traffic safety is vitally important to every citizen of Slaton and is certainly a problem for the individual.

According to H. G. Stokes, the Slaton Motor Company definitely has more wrecked jobs than last year, even more among their own customers. Mr. Stokes gives the fundamental cause as speed. First, the driver "tries out" his new car; second, the driver of the old car tries to keep up with the new car. The old car just can not take the speed.

Mr. Stokes says the minor accidents, as dented fenders, etc., occur in towns, but the serious accidents, the turn-overs and deaths, occur primarily on the straight stretches of the highways. It is here that speed is the contributing factor.

Another interesting thing mentioned by Mr. Stokes is that women figure primarily in the minor mishaps, such as dented fenders, etc. In the serious traffic accidents of the highways, in which people are killed or maimed for life, the men drivers seem to be the chief offenders.

Mr. Ernest Ward reports that there have been no serious wrecks or traffic deaths in Slaton in a number of years. He says that many Slaton citizens, however, have been in serious car wrecks elsewhere.

De Molay News

The Slaton Chapter Order of De Molay had a stated meeting on June 25. Plans were made for a picnic to be held on July 7. It was decided that it would cost each member seventy-five cents to attend and the same sum if a date was brought along. The activities committee is to make a report on further plans for the next meeting to be held July 2.

Plans were also discussed about a tennis meet between Slaton and Lubbock De Molays. It was decided to have an elimination tournament among the Slaton Boys to whether they played in the Novice or championship division. The date for the tennis meet has not been decided yet.

A motion was brought before the house to have a plate placed beside the register and for anyone that wished to put in anything in the way of change that wanted to donate. This fund will go to the Alamoner.

The meeting was then adjourned.

Don't Let Something Like This Maim You or End Your Life

The driver who killed himself and also the driver of another car in this shambles had stubbornly persisted in driving when he was tired after too many hours on the road. As his car came over the bridge, his weary brain blanked out for a split second, his hands slipped on the wheel. His car grazed the bridge abutment, skidding across the road, and crashed into an approaching automobile. Motorists for their own safety, and for the sake of others on the road, have no right to drive when overtired. National Conservation Bureau safety specialists advise: don't wait until you are tired; pull off the road at intervals; drink a cup of coffee, take a few moments' rest.

A. & M. Advises Poison Formula

Latest recommendations for the use of DDT to kill cotton insects have been released by the entomologists of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. To control flea hoppers, the entomologists recommend a mixture of five per cent DDT and sulphur. Applied at the rate of 12 to 15 pounds per acre, one application is usually enough to get the hoppers.

The bollworm takes a 10 per cent DDT and sulphur mixture, consisting also of 75 per cent sulphur. Ten to 15 pounds of this mixture per acre at five day intervals is the recommended rate of treatment. Stink bugs and plant bugs can be controlled, the entomologists say with the same poison mixture recommended for bollworms. Thrips, another cotton pest, are controlled with a five per cent DDT and sulphur dust, applied at 10 pounds an acre.

Electric Roaster Is Kitchen Handyman

A large chicken, vegetables and dessert may be cooked at once in a roaster. The lid of this model has a glass panel in the top. When roaster is being filled lid may be hooked into handle at end to be out of way.

Whether it's hot dogs, steaks or chops, they can be broiled to a turn in a roaster with a broiler attachment. Lid of this roaster has sliding-cover vents to control the air circulation for broiling fowls, roasts and broiling other meats.

AN ELECTRIC roaster is a "little range" in itself, according to the Rural Home Editor of nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer. In it, with the use of attachments, food may be steamed, roasted, baked, pan-broiled, boiled or fried. "A whole meal may be prepared in a roaster," she writes in the magazine read by 1,300,000 farm families. "This might include a roast, vegetables and a hot dessert. Cakes, pies, rolls and bread may be baked the same as in a range oven. Or a large quantity of food such as baked beans to be served to a group may be prepared at one time. It is also useful for canning when using the boiling-water bath method."

on any ordinary electric outlet, but not with drop cords and extension cords, it is convenient to use in any home supplied with electricity. For the woman who generally cooks with coal or wood it is especially handy in summertime. Sound construction is as important in the roaster as in a range. A strong body, heatproof handles, perfect-fitting joints, heavy plating and enameling, all indicate good construction. Insulation on sides and at bottom should be thick enough to retain heat as well as to protect surface on which roaster is placed. A thermostatic control on a roaster makes it possible to hold temperature at point desired. A timer clock to start and stop cooking is an additional feature with some models.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Christian Science" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 29.

The Golden Text is: "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give" (Matthew 10:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Another parable spake he unto them; Thy kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened." (Matthew 13:33)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Ages pass, but this leaven of Truth is ever at work. It must destroy the entire mass of error, and so be eternally glorified in man's spiritual freedom." (page 118)

Crazy Hat Wins Refrigerator!

One of those "Breakfast in the morning" radio shows came to Capitol City last week, and Sarah Carey won first prize for wearing the craziest hat in the audience. It was a full-sized refrigerator! (The prize, not the hat.)

"Glad them hats of hers paid off at last," says Ed, treating the whole thing like a joke. But you could see he was proud of Sarah.

From where I sit, there's another thing Ed can be proud of: the way he's put up with those hats of Sarah's, with never a criticism; just as she's put up with Ed's pipe and the other little freedoms he enjoys. They've got that refrigerator home now, stocked with beer; and we're going over tonight to drink a toast—not just to Sarah's hats taking first prize... but to a happily married couple, who've learned to live with one another's differences in tastes—whether it's a taste for hats or beer!

FARM AND RANCH . . .

straight row and the failure to keep the land thoroughly mulched before planting. He is convinced that rows on the contour save water, decrease the damage of wind erosion, and protect growing crops from wind and sand.

Closely linked to the practice of contour planting and tillage is that of mulching the land. This is done by listing with the mold boards removed so loose soil can fall back and cover up what Judge Smith refers to as "that beautiful, shiny furrow."

Land is then knifed at least twice before planting, even if it is in the vegetation. This operation is done and maintains a deep, dark mulch which proves effective in retaining moisture for the planting season. Such practice is in line with the homespun comment of R. E. Dickerson of the Spur (Texas) Experiment Station: "Don't pray for rain if you don't conserve what you are given."

While there is very little statistical information on production available, one is impressed by the fact that many people have visited this farm to observe yields in excess of those on farm land not similarly treated. The difference justifies approval of Judge Smith's methods. One of his best records was in 1937 when 485 bales of cotton were produced on 500 acres. Cotton grown on land planted to peas also showed a marked increase in yields. "It might be a good thing," he said, "if we were forced to do as well as we know."

Although cotton production is the chief enterprise on the farm, the family table is almost independent of markets. Meats, milk, vegetables and poultry products are produced for home consumption and in sufficient quantity to meet the standards of good living. The production of wool is also for home use. The spring clip of last year from sixteen sheep was made into nineteen 5-pound bed blankets 72 by 90 inches in size and of varied color designs. The cost of manufacture per blanket was $5, plus a nominal charge for transportation from Utah. This spring's clip will be used in the manufacture of floor rugs or a carpet for home use.

Overhearing a whisper, "Just got a very few seed left," in the county agent's office in 1943 aroused his suspicion. The whisper referred to sweet Sudan. A few precious seed were obtained. These seed, with only a few additional ounces, were planted in eight short rows under instructions that helpers were to drop only two seeds in a place. From this planting, 460 pounds of seed were harvested, 400 of which were heavy seed for which Judge Smith was offered $1 per pound.

Then the Sudan business got out of control. The next year the 400 pounds of seed were planted on 60 acres and produced 46,000 pounds of good seed. In 1945, the production of sweet Sudan on 75 acres reached an average of 733 pounds of seed per acre without rain during the growing season. Sweet Sudan, therefore, has established itself as a permanent part of the farm program, furnishing grazing and straw in the stack for cattle that are bought and sold.

The achievements of Judge C. Smith would have been only a pipe dream to the early pioneers of the Plains—but certainly not today.

MARKET NEWS

As of June 23

Many southwest farm markets showed considerable easiness last week, but some held firm, and corn and milo rose to even higher levels, according to the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Eggs held firm last week, but poultry showed slight easiness at some places. Eggs brought 37 cents per dozen at Denver, Amarillo, and Austin; 37½ at New Orleans; around 38 at Fort Worth, Dallas, and San Antonio; and 44 at Houston. Dallas bought fryers at 35 cents per pound, and heavy, hens at 24 and 25. Fort Worth paid 33 to 35 for fryers, and 21 to 23 for heavy hens. New Orleans look fryers at 33 and hens 26.

Cotton prices fluctuated widely, but closed a little lower. Extremely light offerings and demand for only special qualities sharply restricted trading.

Lambs dropped from 50 cents to $1.00 at San Antonio to around $3.00 at Wichita last week. Aged sheep and feeder lambs remained steady at Fort Worth, but sold generally lower at other markets. Good spring lambs closed at $20 to $21.50 at Fort Worth; and medium to good $17 to $19 at San Antonio, and $18 to $22 at Oklahoma City.

Cattle markets weakened materially on practically all classes, with the better grades of cows, steers and yearlings holding up best. Good cows closed the week at $15.50 to $16.50 at Houston; $16 to $17.50 at Fort Worth; $16.50 to $18 at Wichita; and up to $18 at Oklahoma City. Medium to good cows brought $17 to $18 at San Antonio; and common to good kinds $15 to $17.50 at Denver. Medium to good steers and yearlings moved at $17.50 to $23.50 at Fort Worth; and steers $21 to $24.50 at Oklahoma City.

Butcher hogs closed the week steady at Oklahoma City, but fell mostly 25 to 50 cents or more at other southwest terminals. Sows sold generally 50 cents to $1.50 lower, and feeder pigs dropped at San Antonio. Late high price on butchers was $24.50 at San Antonio and Fort Worth; $24.75 at Oklahoma City and Wichita; and $26 at Denver.

QUARRELS

People don't always see eye to eye. We have differences of opinion . . . clashing aims . . . conflicting views. And what can we do about them? Primitive man settled his quarrels with a club or spear. And modern man isn't above using tanks and planes and battleships to settle his. But there is a better way! It involves sacrifice, forgiveness, and a large measure of brotherly love. But it leads to happiness and peace. Yes, it's about time the world began using this better way. By going to Church this Sunday you won't solve every problem the world faces. But you will find a better solution to your own problems. And you'll find God . . . Who alone can show all humanity the Way to peace and lasting happiness. Choose your Church—and use your Church—regularly!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

POSEY ITEMS R. L. BOYD

Rev. Ray Cox, the new Methodist pastor from Lubbock, preached Sunday morning from the 5th chapter of Matthew. He was accompanied by Miss Dorothy Apple of Claude, to whom he is to be married July 12th. He is now a student at Texas Tech and is a former service man who had active service in France. His parents now live in Haskell County.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Wichita Falls spent the week-end with the T. A. Johnson family. She is a former resident and has been visiting other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sain went to Lake Sweetwater, Friday on a fishing trip.

Wesley Gentry of Floyd County has been visiting relatives here.

The good rain of Friday morning aided growing crops but some farmers had to work hard Saturday to protect their crops from the sand.

Mr. Loren Johnson of Exeter, Calif., is spending the summer with his uncles, T. A. and A. L. Johnson.

Pete Respondek has been serving on the Lubbock County District petit jury.

The L. K. Hart family recently visited Mrs. Hart's sister, Mrs. Aldson of Odessa. Also, Mr. Hart's uncles, the Mac Carleys of Andrews. While at Andrews they inspected the large, new County High school.

Paul Stolle is again attending the summer course of the Lutheran Sunday School.

T/S James Howard Johnson is now located at Camp Stoneman, Calif. He does not expect a furlough until he is assigned to another camp. His discharge is not expected for several weeks.

Because of the scarcity of grain on the farms some of the farmers who harvested wheat are keeping it for feeding purposes. The acreage planted to feed this year is considerably smaller than formerly.

Visitors Sunday in the S. N. Gentry home were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson and Jimmie and Elmer Johnson of Hockley county.

Among those who attended the softball games at Slaton Monday night were: Mr. and Mrs. George

CHICK CHATS
by Robert Huser of Huser's Hatchery
Birds Must Have Grit For Chewing
The expression "scarcer than a hen's tooth" is well founded because, as any poultryman knows, the chicken actually has no teeth whatever. Instead of teeth, the fowl uses grit or gravel to grind up the feed it consumes.
Since chickens are toothless, yet consume large quantities of hard grains and dry grasses.
Nature has given them a different kind of equipment with which to grind food—the gizzard.

Grinds the Feed
This is the tough, muscular organ in which the grit or gravel is retained to crush and grind the feed. When it is loaded with feed, the gizzard begins to expand and contract causing the hard grain to be crushed and ground by the pebbles or grit.
When the feed is reduced to finer form by the grinding, it passes on into the intestine.
Of course, if there is no grit in the gizzard, no grinding can be done. Impacted crop or gizzard frequently results when the bird does not have access to grit or other grinding material.
Eventually, the grit grinds itself into powder, then passes on through the intestine. Grit should always be kept before the birds so that they may replenish their supply.

Danger of Gorging
With baby chicks and poults, it is a different story. While the youngsters are receiving all-mash rations, there is no real need for grit, and so it is recommended that it be withheld for a few weeks. The danger in giving grit to very young chicks or poults, particularly the latter, lies in the fact that the little birds may gorge themselves on the substance, filling up their gizzards so completely that the regular movement of feed through the digestive tract is blocked. Of course, after the birds are old enough to eat whole grain, grit should be available at all times.
Grit should be rather insolua-ble. Soft material such as marble or ordinary limestone powders quickly, and the birds must eat large amounts of the material for replacement.

Texas Editors
Eat Turkey Steaks

AMARILLO, TEXAS, June 19.
—Texas Editors in annual convention in this Panhandle City lunched here today on turkey steaks, a new taste treat, which is in the process of development in order to make turkey a year round instead of a seasonal delicacy.
The editors, members of the Texas
Press Association and the Texas Newspaper Publishers Association were guests at a luncheon at the Amarillo hotel.
Arrangements for the turkey steak luncheon were made by Ralph E. James, president of the National Turkey Federation, and C. S. Pryor, manager of the Ama-
Oswald Wolf of the Alvin East Produce Co., of Austin, who processed the steaks.
Turkey steaks are boneless and there is no waste. The steak was developed by Texas A. & M. College, the Luling Foundation, and officers of the National and Texas turkey federations.

The biggest Texas wheat crop in history, estimated to be more than 112,000,000 bushels by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics, is now being harvested.

Texas Tech News

Texas is apparently headed for another milk shortage this fall, L. G. Harmon, professor of dairy manufactures, predicted following a meeting to dairymen from West Texas and other points over the state held at the college.

Worst shortages will probably be on the north and south plains areas and in south Texas along the coast, he said.

Twenty-one persons from West Texas and New Mexico received certificates June 20 for successfully completing the annual two-week cotton classing short course at Tech, according to L. E. Parsons, college textile engineering department head, who was in charge of the school.

Enrollment at Texas Tech has increased almost six hundred percent during the 22 years since the college opened, a check of comparative enrollment discloses.

Plans are in final stages for construction of a large Naval armory on the campus, to be built and equipped at a cost of about $250,000, the local Naval Reserve office has announced.

The Navy's application to build on the campus has been approved by the college directors, who last month executed a release on a plot directly south of the old stadium.

Dr. Waldo S. Glock, associate professor of geology, has received a $550 research grant from the Smithsonian institute of Washington and a $512 grant from the American Philosophical society of Philadelphia. Both grants will be used for paleo-climatology research during the academic year 1947-48.

The reserve football team will play four games next fall, three of them away and one at home, Morley Jennings, athletic director, has announced. The team in the main will be made up of freshmen, augmented by some upperclassmen.

Mrs. H. H. White left Sunday for Los Angeles, Calif., where she will visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Berry and son, Lyle, left Sunday for San Francisco, Calif., where they have tickets for the Tom Brenneman show Wednesday. They will be gone about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Faulkner and Mr. and Mrs. Travis Hendrix left Saturday to visit relatives in Garden City, Kansas.

JUST TALK by A.M.J.

There is one thing about a railroad schedule that I like. It still gives you an element of doubt as to when any one of the trains is going to arrive. There is something very monotonous about any schedule if it works, but the railroads have always realized that value of keeping the public confused. When the recent changes in schedule were announced I griped considerably because I thought that it would take all of pleasure away from me of going to the Post office three or four times in the day time to see if I had gotten any more duns, circulars from some chain stores or circular letters about barn paint at $2.33 per gallon. But I seem to have gotten my blood pressure up in vain for the engineers seem to be running their trains on the same old schedules.

Last week I inquired from Cecil Scott why my box was filled with mail at midday when all the trains were supposed to arrive at night and I accused the Post office boys of holding up the mail and not putting it in the boxes.

Cecil said, "Ypu think all the mail is supposed to arrive at night, well, you are not paid to think, you are supposed to write without thinking."

Admitting that I have made very little money from my efforts of thinking, I told Cecil that I was throwing that little bit of effort in free of charge for what it was worth and Cecil then laid the trouble right back on the railroad and said that the 7:00 a. m. train had arrived at 10:00 and I'm still going to the Post office three and four times each day and most every time I get more mail, at what time it arrives or how it gets here I have no idea.

The Weather—there is one thing about prophesying weather; if one keeps on predicting the same thing it will eventually happen and now I am getting considerable praise from some sources for predicting rains. Having done so well, I will keep my neck out and say that we will have more rains; I feel absolutely sure that it will rain on the 4th of July, this, most anyone will admit it is a sure bet for who can remember when it did not rain on the 4th of July, even during the dryest years. Better catch a few ants, let in the flies, drag in a few rocks, to sit on, and have your 4th of July picnic dinner on the kitchen floor.

It seems to me that the traffic situation in Slaton has become most dangerous. Not only are the drivers ignoring the traffic lights but a great many are ignoring the common courtesies that most any one should have for the other fellow. Double and triple parking in the business sections are common practice even when there is plenty of room to park in the regulation way, big trucks do not hesitate to block our nice wide streets until they are hazardous even as one way streets and the confusion seems to me to be worse than at any time since I have lived in Slaton.

On first consideration it would

It's a fine reflection on your own good taste if you bring your guests here for luncheon or dinner. The excellence of whatever we serve—plus the graciousness of our service and charm of our atmosphere is inviting!

seem that the fault lies with the enforcement of the town regulations on traffic but it seems to me that the automobile drivers are the ones at fault. Several very expensive accidents have occurred on the streets of Slaton recently and with new automobiles as hard to get as they are it would seem that those who own cars would be more careful. With a limited policing force it is impossible to watch all of the traffic centers and it would be a very expensive proposition for both the city and for the individual to greatly increase our present force. The best thing is for those who drive automobiles to obey the common courtesies that we should have for each other. Of course there will always be some selfish people who never did and never will have the proper consideration for other people, we will have to put up with them and if possible become familiar with their cars so that you can expect them to cut across to the wrong side of the street without looking back or making any kind of signal, to park in the middle of the streets and to stop and chat with folks of their own kind who are in cars while both of them block the thoroughfares, but if those of us who still value our lives and property will follow the ordinary rules of traffic we should improve our chances of safety a great deal.

The credit manager of a Seattle firm was having difficulty in making a collection from an account in northern Washington. He finally wrote: "Dear Mr. Jones: What would your neighbors think if I came to your town and repossessed your car?"

A week later he received his letter back, and under his signature was scrawled: "Sir: I took the above matter up with my neighbors and they think it would be a lousy trick."

In a Minneapolis drugstore, a 17-year-old, buying a lipstick as a present for his girl, was at a loss

WHERE THOUSANDS DIE!

91 killed—3,150 injured! If that were the report of an explosion, wreck or other disaster, it would be front page news. People would be horrified! But worse—it's just one day's automobile casualty list in the United States. It happens every day, week in, week out. Four deaths, 131 injured—every hour. At year's end 33,500 lives snuffed out, over a million injured or maimed for life. That's what happened last year. This year's record threatens to be even higher.

Speed—reckless, wanton speed—drunken driving—defiance of safety rules and regulations—and careless, jaywalking pedestrians, top the list of causes for this grim toll.

What can you do about it? Will the speeding wheels of your car add one death to this mass murder of the highways? Not if you, the driver—and you, the pedestrian—take your individual responsibilities seriously. Drive carefully at all times, under all conditions, and be alert when walking.

Don't be one of the thousands to kill, or be killed. Drive safely—and live!
