English Bride Says She Finds America And Texans Fascinating

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to do and how strangers would treat you if you were a girl from a strange land. To a great extent that is just what Mrs. Louis Smith, Jr., is in Slaton, as she is one of the English girls who arrived recently in this country to marry one of the American boys who served in the last world war, Louis Smith, Jr., one of Slaton's returned soldiers. Even though she speaks English, she is still in a strange country, with strange customs and finds difficulties quite often.

Mrs. Smith was born in London and educated in a convent and a high school of Essex. During the war she served four years in the Women's Auxiliary Air Force, working in the maintenance department and issuing supplies.

She found her voyage to America quite pleasant. She and four other English girls came over as brides-to-be on the Polish boat, M. S. Batory. She landed in New York where she had nine hours which she spent in shopping and sight seeing. From there she traveled to Chicago and to Amarillo, where she was met by Louis Smith, Jr.

One difficulty she had in leaving England was that no new things can be brought from England into the United States; therefore she had to make all her linens, etc.,

ELEMENTARY PRINCIPAL TO LEAVE SLATON

Mr. R. C. Goodwin, formerly elementary principal in the Slaton Schools, and his family are leaving Slaton about June 1. Mrs. Goodwin will attend Texas Tech this summer to work on her Master's degree, while Mr. Goodwin will attend Texas Christian University where he will receive his Master's degree.

Mr. Goodwin will be principal of the elementary school of Seagraves next year. Mrs. Goodwin will also teach in Seagraves.

BUD BRACY CATCHES IN ROCKING CHAIR

Slaton Mexican Tigers will play the Lubbock Black Hubbers Sunday June 1, at 4 p. m. at the local Mexican ball park.

An unusual part of the game is that Buddy Bracy of the Lubbock nine will catch for two innings seated in a rocking chair.

These teams are evenly matched and the game probably will be packed with action.

Prices are 60c and 25c, tax included.

Mr. Young was a member of the First Baptist Church of Slaton, an employe of the Santa Fe railroad for 20 years, a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, an active Mason, and a past patron of the Order of the Eastern Star.

Booster Pump Is Delivering Water

The new booster pump recently installed near the Ray C. Ayers & Son Grain Elevator, is delivering better than 200 gallons of water per minute. According to all indications this will help the pressure considerably.

The project in the southwestern part of the city will start the first of June, as the contract calls for.

This pump will be added as soon as possible, and a third may be added before the summer is over.

Six Run Afoul Of Law Last Week

Three were charged in City Court over the past week in various law-breaking activities, according to law-enforcement officers.

In City Court two were charged with traffic violations and one with drunkenness.

In County Court were one liquor case, one drunk driving, and one aggravated assault.

The previous week there were twelve cases in City Court with four fighting, four drinking, and four gaming charges.

Poppy Sales Net Nearly $150.00

The Legion Auxiliary and VFW poppy sales Saturday netted nearly $150. The Luther Powers Auxiliary sold a total of $85 from which expenses will be deducted. The VFW sale netted 62.22, reports Cecil Scott, manager.

Mrs. C. Smith, Aux. Pres., Mrs. J. D. Holt, Treas., and Mrs. J. M. Carter directed the sales of the Auxiliary Patsy Holloman, who sold a total of $34.50, Josephine Shepard, May Belle Pember, Dorothy Brunson, and Geraldine Maxey sold.

Mrs. Arthur Bentley had charge of the VFW sale and was assisted by Peggy Tudor and Billie Marie Taylor of the Sub-Deb Club and by DeEtta Pohl and Nita Carolyn Sanders.

The window display poster for the Auxiliary was printed by Mrs. A. R. Keyes for the chairman, Mrs. Geo. Green.

LOCAL BOY ESCAPES INJURY AT TEXAS CITY

Last month a report was made through the Slatonite that Edward Bussell was feared lost in the Texas City catastrophe and that his mother was suffering great anxiety because her son had written that the ship on which he was a sailor was scheduled to dock at Texas City at about the time that the explosion occurred.

A letter dated May 27 to the Slatonite from Mrs. Bussell, who lives on Route 2, Wilson, said that she had received a letter from her son who had landed in Galveston. The ship on which he is a sailor was docked at Texas City when the city was so badly damaged, but he escaped uninjured and is no worse for his experiences.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer E. Jones are the proud parents of a son, Homer E. Jr., born May 20 at Mercy Hospital.

A son, weighing 7 lbs. 9 oz., was born May 2 to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Henzler.

ABC OF LUBBOCK SPONSORS RODEO

Members of the American Business Club were in Slaton May 28, selling tickets for the Worlds Championship Rodeo which will be held in Lubbock, June 11-14. The rodeo features Gene Autry and his horse, Champion Junior. Proceeds go to the capital fund of the Lubbock Boys Club.

Everett Colburn, manager of the rodeo, with headquarters at the famous Lightning C Ranch, Dublin, Texas, has the most outstanding aggregation of cowboys and rodeo stock in the world. South Plains fans will see such outstanding examples of wicked horses as Kickapoo, Hell Diver, Star Bright, Whiskey Gap, Bear Park, and Conclusion.

Steer wrestlers match their skill against wiry Mexican steers brought into the United States from below the Rio Grande. The brahma calves and brahma steers used in the calf roping and bull riding events are brought up to the Lightning C from the Texas Gulf Coast.

One of the more interesting features of the show is the herd of Longhorns owned by the ranch. These once proud rulers of the Plains are the largest single collection of the type now known.

New Building And New Department Store To Be Ready By Next Fall

John Berkley and Ed Haddock, owners of the building site on the west side of the square where the building burned last winter, announced this week that they have contracted to build a modern store building on the property, to be occupied by the C. R. Anthony Stores.

A contract was signed this week by the C. R. Anthony Company and the construction will start as soon as possible. The plans for the building have been drawn by the architect and accepted by the C. R. Anthony Company. It is expected that the new business will be open in the fall.

The C. R. Anthony Company is one of the most active chain stores in the Southwest and is expanding rapidly. They do business in Oklahoma and West Texas and carry

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Zimmerman went to San Marcos Tuesday, May 20, to attend the graduation of their son, John Lord, from San Marcos Baptist Academy, Friday, May 23. Graduating in the same class was Ura John Skelton, formerly of Slaton, but now of Christoval. The Zimmerman family spent the week end visiting in Christoval and returned to Slaton Sunday. Mrs. George Marriot, who had been visiting in Christoval, went to San Marcos for the graduation and returned to Slaton with the Zimmermans.

Appeal Made To Business Firms To Improve Business District

A letter written last week by Max Arrants, manager of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce to the business men of the city suggesting a cooperative move by all of them to improve the exterior and interiors of the business buildings in Slaton said, in part:

"Not long ago a man was in this office conducting some investigation looking toward the possibility of making a substantial capital investment here. It being his first visit, he was asked his impression of the business district. The reply was that his first glance around made him believe the town was on 'its last legs'. While we all have a great affection for our home town, it sometimes takes an outsider to see defects we often let go by unnoticed, and to stimulate a true appraisal of how we look to people coming into town.

"Is there some way that you could improve the front of your place of business at not too large an expense? And in case you are leasing, won't you please contact the owner of the building and see if he will make an effort to improve? Repair expenses are fully deductible on the year's income tax return and many business men are making repairs now while income tax rates are extremely high."

The day is fast approaching

Slaton WOW Has Called Meeting

Slaton Camp, No. 2871 of Woodmen of the World met in a special called meeting May 23, 1947, at the Club House.

Council Commander C. D. Willis called the house to order and turned the meeting to W. D. Chapman, District Manager of Northwest Texas.

The following program was given: Presentation of colors and singing of America by the Boy Scouts; Invocation by J. Lloyd Moyer, who also spoke on Fraternalism; address, The Importance of Financial and Secretarial Duties by Sovereign Troy Howton, Council Commander of the Littlefield Camp. Quartette by Gilbert Self, and J. Lloyd Moyer. The secretary was presented with a fountain pen.

Refreshments were served to approximately seventy-five including a large delegation from Littlefield.

when competition and a more abundant supply of merchandise will make it imperative that both the individual business building and the aggressive town be made more attractive and the Slaton Chamber of Commerce manager says that he hopes Slaton will be in position to take advantage of the opportunities that the next six to ten years will bring.

It is reported that the Slaton Laundry will start soon on remodeling the front and interior of their building, the Slaton Implement Company will soon have new canvas awnings in front of their new building on South 9th street, and the old wooden awning that was in front of the Slatonite office will soon be replaced by a new slat awning.

In commenting on the general appearance of Slaton, Mr. Arrants and other business men of the city have stated that the old warped awnings that still adorn the fronts of many of the buildings in Slaton give the town an out of date air and it is hoped by Mr. Arrants, and others who are interested in the improvement of Slaton, that the property owners will soon have the old awnings removed or replaced by modern ones.

If there are any firms or individuals who will help in improving the general appearance of the business houses in Slaton and are planning on doing so in the near future the Manager of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce would like to have them get in touch with him and this paper would like to have the information so that the public can be told about it.

Over the Wire

C. W. Walter, an executive in the Civil Engineering Department of the Santa Fe Railroad, with headquarters in Amarillo, was a visitor in Slaton last week. Mr. Walters is said to be the man who laid out the town of Slaton and he did not deny it. His chest was not protruding with pride over the fact, for Slaton has not followed out the plans he had in mind when the town was laid out. A few marked streets and properly numbered houses would make a lot of difference to the lost souls who wander around in Slaton trying to find out where they are.

After five or ten years residence in Slaton most of them lose interest in where they are and live in complete darkness ever afterwards.

The spectators at the soft ball games are now getting more exercise swatting mosquitoes than the ball players are in swatting and catching flies.

Two new firms report that they will be ready for business in about two weeks, another within the next three weeks, and Mr. Emmett Kidd, who is constructing a large new building on East 10th Street, says that he has had many business men to make applications for rentals in the new building.

T. H. Duckett, local manager of the Leon Theatres, has been in a big dither all week supervising and getting in the way, while a new projecting machine and sound equipment was being installed; it is the best that can be bought and the reception of pictures should be much better at the Palace.

Study of Cycles May Enable Man To Peer Into 'The Future

Scientific study of cycles can come pretty close to predicting how your investments will fare, whether your fishing trip will be a success, and even the kind of fashions your womenfolk will become ecstatic about in the future.

Visionary though it seems, this new study has engaged the serious attention of scientists associated with the Massachusetts Institute of technology, the Rockefeller Foundation, the Universities of Moscow, Melbourne and Toronto, Smithsonian and Carnegie Institutes, the Radium Institute of Vienna, Bell Telephone Laboratories, Westinghouse Electric, Hudson Bay Company, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, National Bureau of Economic Research and the governments of the United States, France, Great Britain and Russia.

Thus far, predictions based on a scientific study of cyclic patterns have given scientists a glimpse of a world to come in which the future may be discerned just as clearly as the past, according to an article by Alan Hynd in the April issue of Cosmopolitan magazine.

"Today, science, industry, business and the professions are becoming increasingly aware of a unique scientific organization known as the Foundation for the Study of Cycles," Hynd's article states in part. "In its headquarters at Riverside, Conn., the Foundation has accumulated a compact but important mass of scientific data looking into cyclical behavior. The data, gathered from every nook and cranny of the globe, supports the theory that great natural cyclical laws influence animal, vegetable, and human life, and that there is as little chance of changing these laws as there is of changing the tides or holding back the fall of night."

If progress in the study of cycles is as great in the future as it has been in the past, your children, or possibly even you, will live in a world in which many aspects of the future may be predicted with scientific exactitude.

"It is possible that in the not-too-distant future, the cycle detectives will succeed in tying all their clues together and discovering great, now-unsuspected truths." The article continues, "If diseases, animal populations, plant life, fashion trends, commercial activity and even our very moods are proved to be subject to continuing periodic fluctuations, then in those fields, man will be at the very core of predictability."

"Life could be governed accordingly. We do not try to change the weather when the forecaster tells us it is going to rain, but we do get out our rubbers and umbrellas. If we knew for certain that a bad depression was coming, we could prepare for it by stabilizing employment on a long-range basis, with untold benefits to labor and capital alike."

Hardin-Simmons Graduates 104

The fifty-fifth class of Hardin-Simmons, the second largest in size, will be graduated on Monday, June 2, it is announced by President Rupert N. Richardson. One hundred and four students will receive diplomas, six less than the record of 110 in 1929. The August graduates, however, will raise this year's class to 172, with 68 being scheduled to receive degrees then.

Edward F. McFaddin, associate justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court, will give the commencement address at 10:00 a. m. in Behrens Chapel.

TEXAS SHRINER IS GIVEN HIGH OFFICE

Galloway Calhoun, of Tyler, a distinguished lawyer and leading churchman, was today unanimously elected Deputy Imperial Potentate of the Shrine of North America at its 73rd annual convention, its session at Atlanta City, N. J.

Born in Athens, Texas, 53 years ago, Mr. Calhoun was educated in the public schools and at the University of Texas, receiving his LLB at Cumberland University in 1915 and, the same year, was admitted to the Texas Bar. He holds an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Centenary College.

NEW NAVY JET PLANE DOES OVER 600 MPH

The Navy Department today announced successful flight tests of its newest and most powerful fighter, the 600 mile per hour BANSHEE. It was designed and built by the McDonnell Aircraft Corporation, St. Louis, Missouri, under contract with the Bureau of Aeronautics.

Officially designed as the XF2D-1, the Banshee bears a marked resemblance to the McDonnell Phantom, the Navy's first carrier based all-jet fighter. Production deliveries of the Phantom are now being made in St. Louis.

The Banshee is powered with two Westinghouse 24-inch diameter axial flow turbo-jet engines installed in the wing roots. These engines, the culmination of a long range turbo-jet development program, make the Banshee the most powerful single seat fighter flown in the United States to date.

The McDonnell Banshee was built to conform to the exacting requirements of carrier operations, and to meet the ever increasing demand for higher speeds and increased rates of climb. Even though carrier based, it is in the 600 mile per hour class and climbs at a rate of over 9,000 feet per minute.

In addition to its fast speed and rate of climb the BANSHEE, has unusually long range. Five self-sealing internal tanks carry its large fuel load. It is capable of normal take-off from aircraft carriers or landing fields, and is also fitted with catapult hooks, should this type of take-off be desired. The arresting gear is a conventional Navy type hook, housed in a well in the lower rear part of the fuselage. All these components, such as wheels, catapult hooks, arresting hook and wing flaps completely retract in flight, and are covered by flush type doors, giving the jet plane a sleek, compact appearance.

Want to Run a "Collective" Farm?

Was reading the other day about "collective" farms they have in Europe. It seems the folks run them have plenty of help and hours... and the best equipment.

We're willing to work hard, but we like to farm the land our own way, put our own value on the crops, and relax as we like—if only with a temperate, companionable glass of beer.

Sounds pretty nice—till you learn that the "farmer" doesn't own his land, or even farm it, in our sense. He takes orders from the state; produces whatever they want him to produce, at prices they set. Even his off-hours are spent according to state regulations.

From where I sit, collective farming may produce results. But the American way—freedom to work and relax as we see fit—is what makes this country a great place to live. So let's not change it!

No, that would never go here.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

'Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism. Denounced' is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, June 1.

The Golden Text is: "Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt serve." (Matthew 4:10).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand stretched out, and who shall turn it back? (Isaiah 14:27)

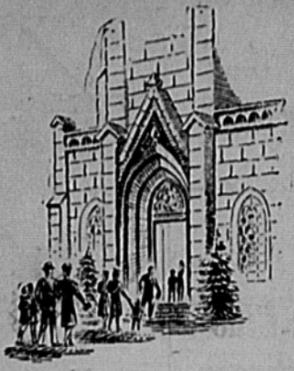

Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Science textbook, 'Science with Key to the Scriptures' by Mary Baker Eddy: "The truths of immortal Mind sustain man, and they annihilate the fables of mortal mind, whose flimsy and gaudy pretensions, like silly moths, singe their own wings and fall into the dust" (page 103).

BUTTERFLIES—When the Fashion Fair opens in Madison Square Garden June 12, one of the advanced jewelry styles shown by Coro will be this pinch-on butterfly pin set modeled here by Vicki Vain, who plays Miss Miller on NBC's "Mr. District Attorney." The clips are of pastel simulated stones with matching earrings in a classic semi-circular design.

Lord,

TEACH US TO PRAY

When Jesus taught His disciples the now familiar words of what we call the Lord's Prayer, He placed in their hands the most powerful spiritual weapon ever devised.

This material age, engrossed as it is in the things that can be touched and seen, but vaguely comprehends the dynamic power of prayer.

PRAYER gives direction to life. There is nowhere a greater waste than in the realm of misdirected human energies.

PRAYER gives perspective. How difficult it is always to give first place in life to those values of first importance, and to treat as trivial, things that are really trivial! Yet, earnest sincere prayer helps us do just that.

PRAYER releases spiritual power. It may not always remove the burden or sorrow, but it gives power to bear and overcome.

Nor is prayer just a one-way street in which we ask something of God. One of its principal values is that through reverent listening, we hear God speak to us.

The Church has been called the House of Prayer. And so it is. The one business of the Church is properly to relate the individual to God. And the chief means of achieving this end is Prayer.

When in the right spirit we go to Church, we give God a better chance to speak to us, and we, in turn, may the better talk with Him.

Won't you go to Church this Sunday?

The Church needs you.

YOU need the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the Church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake of his community and nation. (2) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to Church on Sunday.

CHICK CHATS

Huser's Hatchery
LABOR-SAVING IN POULTRY RAISING

To the average poultry raiser, one of the most important considerations should be the amount of time and labor expended on flock care. Since most U. S. poultry raisers are also engaged in other kinds of operations (agriculture, livestock feeding, dairy farming, etc.) they must be careful to give only the proper share of their time to flock management.

Here are a few general labor-saving tips to part-time poultry raisers:

1. Good poultry housing and good furnishings (equipment) are necessary to efficient management. A well-planned house that provides plenty of space for the birds is essential. Litter should be kept clean and dry as possible. Feeders and waterers should be present in sufficient number and should be carefully arranged, both for the bird's sake and for yours. There should also be plenty of roosting and nesting space.

Mix New and Old Mash

2. In your feeding methods, fill the hoppers about two-thirds of the way with clean mash. Push the old mash to one end, add the new, and stir well, so that the birds will eat both old and new. Some poultrymen prefer to line up the hoppers, end to end, so that they save time and labor in feeding. However, there is much to be said for placing feeders at right angles to windows, so that light will fall on feed. Feeding a little hard or scratch grain in the litter each day helps keep the flock active and helps keep the litter stirred.

3. Be sure to keep layers supplied with clean nesting material. This practice helps avoid soiled eggs, and this, in itself, represents a considerable saving of time and effort. Cleaning dirty eggs takes a great deal of time. A deep layer of nesting material also is helpful, as it prevents broken eggs.

4. Finally, keep simple feed consumption and egg production records. These help you foresee slumps in production and also help you locate pens that aren't up to snuff in their production.

WESTERN MARKET NEWS

As of May 24

Late-week easiness in spot cotton markets partly offset earlier advances, and Friday closed only $1.50 to $2.30 higher. Spot offerings decreased, but numerous inquiries came in for the medium and higher grades. Crop prospects varied widely by areas.

Light offerings of most grains encountered rather slack demand last week, but the market held firmly to early-week advances of around seven cents per bushel on wheat and corn. Other grains netted no more than a penny or two of difference one way or the other. Wheat closed Friday around $2.87, and white corn $2.04, at Texas markets.

Some poultry eased off a little last week, but fryers held firm. Fully steady early-week egg markets developed an easier undertone later on. At midweek, Fort Worth and Denver paid 37 cents per dozen; Fort Smith 36; Dallas 37½; New Orleans, Oklahoma City, and San Antonio 38; Topeka 39; El Paso 40; Carlsbad, Houston and Shreveport 45.

Most cattle markets paid steady to higher prices last week, but Fort Worth held up only on beef steers and yearlings, while cows showed some weakness at Wichita. Good cows brought $11 to $16 at Houston; and $16.50 to $17.50 at Wichita. Medium to good kinds moved at $14 to $17 at San Antonio; $14.50 to $17.50 at Fort Worth; and $15 to $17 at Oklahoma City. Denver bought common to good cows at $14.50 to $17.50.

Hog markets showed spots of weakness at all southwest markets, but some classes held steady or netted slight gains for the week. Closing bulk of good and choice butchers sold at $23.75 at Fort Worth. Practical closing top was $23.75 at Oklahoma City; $24 at Wichita; and $25.25 at Denver. Week's top at San Antonio was $23.

Howdy Folks; We found the secret of gardening. We don't plant more ground than the missus can manage.

We like to garden, but by the time our back is used to it our enthusiasm is gone.

We have also found out how to tell the difference between weeds and vegetables in the garden. Cut them all down and the ones that come up again are weeds.

You can live off a garden but to accomplish this, you have to live in it. The best way to raise cabbage is with a knife and fork.

And as for spinach, about the only nice things we can say about it is that it has no bones.

And we make no bones of the fact that new customers are always welcome here. We will treat you nice like we do the old ones, too.

R. L. BOYD

Rev. W. R. Fleming held regular 4th Sunday services. The Methodist pastor, who is now a senior at Texas Tech, stated that he is to marry in Fort Worth in July.

Mrs. J. M. Shafer is recovering from an operation which was performed in Dallas. She is now at home of her daughter, Mrs. M.

A. L. Johnson and Mrs. W. A. Gumm recently returned from a house, New Mexico.

Hart recently spent two weeks visiting her aunt at San Antonio.

L. A. Wittkamp, Fred Stolle and R. B. Boyd attended a baseball game at Amarillo a few days ago.

A group of young people enjoyed a picnic and outing Sunday afternoon at MacKenzie Park. Those attending were Oscar Lee and Ella Belle Johnson, Frances Hart, Earl Johnson, Guy Gentry, and a few others.

The rains since Thursday, May 22, have made hardships for the farmers who have planted cotton. It is now believed that most of the acres will have to be replanted, as the soil has been packed hard. Very little feed has been planted. There will be some night planting. L. K. Hart is now driving a late model Chevrolet automobile.

Weldon Gebert and O. E. Patterson caught catfish and bass weighing about two pounds at Buffalo Lakes, Friday.

Delwin Jones, who attends Tech, has rented about 100 acres of land and is now working it.

Mr. R. C. Schulte of Fort Worth recently visited his brother, Pastor C. F. Schulte. He is the older brother of the Lutheran preacher and lives in Alexandria, Va., about five miles from Washington, D. C.

The Posey Luther League met Monday, May 19th, with Earl Foerster. The Lubbock Federation news letter was distributed and commented on. The local League will publish the May issue.

As May 25th was the Sunday for Rev. Schulte to preach in the forenoon at Littlefield, there were no services here.

M. P. Gentry and Rev. Bill Fleming plan to attend the Methodist Northwest Texas Conference at Amarillo, which is to last from Wednesday through Sunday. Rev. Fleming says that he may not be pastor here again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bailey Pate, former residents who now live in Hockley county, were in the community Saturday trying to buy cotton seed.

Jimmy Hansen, second high honor student of Slaton High School, plans to enter Tech this fall.

Bud Johnson, who is a Tech student, spent Monday visiting relatives here.

Mrs. W. M. Cox will entertain the Home Demonstration Club at the next meeting, which is June 2.

THINGS ON THE FEMININE SIDE

By Dorothy Collins
NBC Fashion Editor

Ray Jackson, NBC photographer, likes the new long length of the ladies skirts this season. He says it gives added grace to tall women, but . . .

And that is where the short girls are going to get into trouble, say Mr. Jackson, who has photographed all of radio's famous women.

"If the five foot girls and under don't watch out," says distinguished Mr. Jackson, "they are going to be long skirt casualties. Long skirts on short women make them look dummy."

Higgly-Piggly Lines

What else makes women look dummy?

"That's a simple question," responded the photographer. "Bad line is the chief contributor."

He went on to explain that women buy clothes with "higgly-piggly lines that don't follow anything, emphasize anything, beautify anything."

A good clean line in a frock, he said, can do more for a woman's figure than all of the $50 girdles in town. He pointed out that clever design can emphasize a small bosom, minimize large hips, give the illusion of height to a small woman.

Oh, But the Hat

But ladies, one last warning from a man whose business it is to glamorize women.

"Many women," he asserted, "buy well designed clothes and then ruin the whole effect with one of those flamboyant hats that captures your entire attention, so that you never get around to seeing what the woman who is wearing it looks like."

SLEUTHING ROGUE — Barry Sullivan, former "pro" football player, will play hard-hitting Detective Rogue in NBC's "Rogue's Gallery" summer series. The program will begin June 8 in the "Bandwagon" time spot.

HELPS ON HANDLING PUPPY IN NEW HOME

"Paper Breaking" During Winter Weather Urged by Dog Research Center

Every year tens of thousands of people, especially children, receive puppies as gifts. The following suggestions by the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, are intended to simplify and facilitate the establishment of a puppy in his new family circle.

Before planning a dog or puppy as a gift, the donor should assure himself that it is wanted; that it will have a good home; that it will receive proper care; that there is someone in the household willing to take full responsibility for the animal's welfare.

The giver should also consider the type of dog most suitable for the recipient. For a lively child, a sumptuous, frisky dog is indicated, whereas a little girl might prefer a small, quiet dog. The environment in which the prospective pet is to live should also be considered. For city apartments small or medium-sized dogs are best, but in a country home a large dog would not only have room for exercise but would also furnish welcome protection.

When a puppy is purchased from the breeder or original owner it is wise to ask for instructions which tell in detail how often the puppy should be fed, what type of food he is accustomed to getting, and directions for preparing any formula he should have. Another useful thing which should come along with the puppy is an instructive book on the general care of dogs. This will be especially appreciated by the prospective owner who has had no previous experience with a dog.

A check-up should also be made with the breeder or raiser on whether the puppy has been wormed or not and if any further treatment will be necessary. If worming is in order, it is a job for the veterinarian. Medicine which is drastic enough to eliminate worms is of necessity a potent drug which may prove harmful to the puppy when administered by an inexperienced dog owner.

It is well for the recipient to remember that a young puppy is really a baby, often a timid baby. Children should not be allowed to handle the puppy or play with it until they have learned how easily its small body can be injured. The puppy should have plenty of rest and sleep. Loud noises around the pup should be avoided, and feeding of delicacies should be forbidden.

The puppy should have a warm, dry box of his own to sleep in, out of drafts, with an old blanket or shredded newspapers in it for bedding.

Housebreaking during winter weather is a risky business, for sudden changes of temperature frequently cause illness. Rather than put the puppy outdoors in the snow or rain, a good procedure is to spread a double thickness of newspapers in some out-of-the-way corner of the house and teach the puppy to go to "do his duty" there. Few puppies can be completely housebroken much before six months of age, and "paper breaking" eliminates the dangers of exposure to cold. As a matter of fact, this method is considerably less trouble than taking a puppy outdoors every two or three hours, as the only labor involved is that of picking up the soiled papers and putting down fresh ones.

Young dogs should not be bathed or allowed to become wet before they are one year of age. A brushing every few days with an ordinary hair brush will keep the puppy clean. A thorough combing before the brushing will keep long-haired dogs' coats in good condition. A weekly sprinkling with 5% DDT powder will effectively eliminate fleas, should they appear.

If the puppy cries the first few nights in his new home, it is because he misses his litter brothers and sisters. Often a loud-ticking alarm clock placed near him will console him for his solitude and spare his new owners and neighbors an unwelcome midnight serenade.

Mrs. W. H. Dawson and son, Glyndon, left last Thursday for California and Oregon, where they will spend about three weeks visiting the families of Mrs. Dawson's brothers. They were joined at Muleshoe by Mrs. Dawson's mother, Mrs. Nickel of San Angelo, who was visiting another daughter.

Dr. Parks, Sr., of Breckenridge, is able to be around his home on crutches.

Mrs. W. J. Walker received word recently that her nephew, James R. Cox, of Sheffield, Ala., died suddenly of a heart attack.

LOCAL MAN TO ATTEND POULTRY COURSE

Jack Dickson will leave soon for College Station to attend a National Poultry Short Course sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which will cover improved blood testing and the culling of chickens and diagnosis of poultry diseases and treatment.

Miss Jolene Tate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Tate, leaves May 31 to enter Mary Hardin Baylor at Belton, Texas.

Mrs. Dolly Payton, daughter of J. W. Payton left May 24 for Austin, Minnesota, where she plans to enter training to be a nurse.

Clyde T. King, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. King, recently bought a variety store in Dublin, Texas. His family will move to Dublin in the near future.

Plans for summer school are under way. Students interested are asked to report to the high school at 6 a.m. Friday, May 30.

Mrs. Bob Teague has been ill at her home in South Slaton but is improving now.

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

Not until recently have I realized how important the marriage of a daughter is to the brides mother but now I know the event is far more important to the older woman than it is to the one who is supposed to be made so happy.

For the past three weeks our presses have been going likely split pounding out invitations to showers and marriage announcements and it's not the brides who seem to be all in a dither about the coming events, it is the mothers, in fact they are far more starry eyed than the brides and they engineer the events with vim, vigor and dash.

As for poor old Dad I can see right now the marriage of a daughter could very easily put him back six months in the payments on the family mortgage.

Yes, sir after some girl has crept up on a prospect and allured him for months and months to get him in the proper condition for being a husband the mother steps in and takes all the credit and I sincerely believe most of the mothers would gladly don the wedding ARMOR AND PRANCE UP TO THE altar for a second slice of pie. Women are funny folks.

Along with the idea of raising rabbits, frogs, chickens and tomatoes I have for many years toyed with the idea of a small pool stocked with bass where a man of my disposition and good qualities could go out and without too much exertion catch a fair size fish or two in an evening, and I envied Sug Robertson several years ago when I saw him loading fingerlings to take out to the Robertson ranch to stock his private fishing place and I have been tempted to sneak out and trespass onto the Robertson ranch and try to catch me an illegal fish and I was greatly disappointed last week when Sug told me after planting several thousand young fish that should be twelve to fifteen inches long by now, he has never caught a single bass in the pool where he turned them loose. It must be that they were all washed away or that Sug is a mighty poor fisherman. I've still got that beautiful dream about building my own fishing pool because I never will get money enough to build it anyway and I catch more and bigger dream fish this way than I could ever catch anywhere else.

Jackson Weather Forecast . . . . exclusive with the Slatonite.

My head is getting water logged and my pride is so great that my wife is beginning to say "don't get too swelled up over your rain, if you keep on predicting rain and it really does keep on raining the farmers in this section may make us pack up and leave West Texas and you'll never get in another town where they will put up with you as long as they have in Slaton" but being a true weather prophet who must carry on regardless of results I must follow the dictates of my conscience and predict more rain. If you are a farmer and have not planted your seed you'd better do so the first chance you get and hope you get a good stand before the real rains come for its going to rain and rain and rain.

There will be hail storms here and there, but none will do much damage right around Slaton, the farmers are going to gripe and howl and the merchants moan and groan but we are going to have the biggest and best fall and winter that we have had in years and years and Slaton is on the threshold of substantial growth and prosperity and I hope that the property owners here will do something to make Slaton look as prosperous as it really is.

Mrs. T. N. Bickers says that the Slatonite is the busiest place in the town as we all seem to be jumping around like the devil were after us with a pitchfork and it does seem to me that my life is one continuous climax after another, I have high blood pressure, weak eyes and my hair is fast going the way of the dodo, but one thing where Mrs. Bickers was wrong was when she figured we are getting rich. She has no idea how much paper costs, nor how much the water, light and gas bills are at our place, and she overlooked the fact that even an overworked newspaper man and his wife have to pay grocery bills and that it costs to get ink out of shirts, dresses, hats and off the skin.

It is with deep sympathy for myself that I often look into the mirror and see the weary wrinkles that adorn my forehead, the stooped shoulders and the ink smeared nose and my wife is beginning to show signs of wear, she snaps at me occasionally, she also gets ink on her nose and when I give her the horse laugh she gets huffy and I sometimes wish I were in the drug business but when I go into a drug store and see the druggist tearing around like they were on roller skates and I smell the queer smells that are turned loose in a drug store I decide that perhaps the newspaper business is not as bad as some other kinds even if it is a tight fight to keep the pay roll, expenses and income somewhere near the low water mark.

Now we are in a spot at the Slatonite. I had the old awning torn down last Saturday, the price of a new one is more than a new building used to be, the sun makes our office so hot one could fry an egg on the floor and I'm out of money, it's all Max Arrant's fault.

COUNTY AGENT URGES JOHNSON GRASS FIGHT

County Agent D. W. Sherrill, while working this part of the County last week said that now is the best time of the year to fight Johnson Grass with the salt method. Here is the way it should be done:

Common salt is very effective in the eradication of Johnson Grass when it is used 1 to 1 1/2 pounds to the square foot on a flat surface, applied by hand during any period of the year. Salt can also be used in a wheat drill along fence rows, turn rows and bar ditches where a flat surface can be had. About 2 pounds per square foot should be used on ditch banks, terraces and irrigation ditches where surface is not flat. Salt is recommended for small patches only where land is being cultivated. Crops will not grow for 3 years on spots treated with salt.

Other effective methods are Aldicide, Sodium Chloride, Distillate or Kerosene and by cultivation.

It's a fine reflection on your own good taste if you bring your guests here for luncheon or dinner. The excellence of whatever we serve—plus the graciousness of our service and charm of our atmosphere is inviting!

In another move to raise safety standards, the City of Brownfield recently erected 50 stop signs at a number of street intersections. More of the signs will be put in the near future, Mayor Frank Jordan said Wednesday.

As nearly as possible, the mayor said, the new signs were located in a manner to make driving safer and at the same time be of convenience to traffic.
