TEACHERS SALARY AND SCHOOL TAXES TO BE RAISED NEXT YEAR

One of the most important meetings of the Independent School District in many months was held Monday night when the trustees voted to increase the school tax, raise the teachers pay and install two members and elect officers for the coming year.

Of major importance to the instructors, was the increase in pay which will be set by the State Equalization Board. The plan now under consideration, which if passed will be $2,000.00 per year for teachers with four year college work with increases for advanced college work and for experience as it is gained. This will mean considerable advance pay for the teachers in the Slaton Schools who can meet the requirements.

Ray Ayers was installed as a new member of the board, as he was elected to the office in last Saturday's election, and Fred Stephens was installed for a new term. Both terms are for three years.

Officers of the board elected at the meeting are Roy Mack, president; B. B. Castberry, vice-president; and W. H. Dawson, secretary, to succeed C. E. Willis, whose term expired.

The school tax rate for 1947 was set at $1.25 per $100 assessed value.

PRESBYTERIANS TO HAVE SERVICES SUNDAY

Rev. A. B. Haynes of Canyon will deliver the sermon at the First Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 7 p. m. Public is invited.

Slaton VFW Post Wins Membership Award for 1947

Commander Cecil H. Scott has received a letter and a check informing him that the Slaton Veterans of Foreign Wars Post has won the highest award of all Texas posts.

Twenty posts of the Department of Texas have received a total of $346 in prize money for having equalled or exceeded their 1947 membership goals, according to announcements from department headquarters in Austin. The contest closed the night of February 28, 1947.

The largest single award of $31.65 went to Post No 6721 of Slaton, which had a quota of 107 and had reported 132 paid memberships for 1947 through the final day of the contest.

LUBBOCK COUNTY GIRL GOES TO NATIONAL MEET

Eloise Woodruff, 16, Shallowater, Lubbock County, and Elnora Miller, 16, Valley View, Cooke County, will represent Texas' 46,306 4-H club girls at the National encampment in Washington, D. C., June 11-18.

Both girls have compiled outstanding records in 4-H club work and in school and community activities.

Eloise Woodruff, Lubbock County Gold Star girl for 1944, has been gardening, yard and home improvement, and food preservation demonstrator for her club, has twice served as its president and, in 1946, was elected district chairman. She helped give a team demonstration on the value of buying eggs on a graded basis at the 1946 4-H Club Round-up at Texas A. & M. College. She was also a delegate to the 1946 National 4-H Club Congress.

ation will be 55 per cent of the 100 per cent value as worked out by the Southwestern Appraisal Company and the local equalization board.

The teachers were re-elected at a previous meeting, and in addition the board hopes to be able to employ a full time science teacher for next year.

Airport Hangars Now Being Built

The municipal airport is rapidly shaping up with work on the hangars progressing satisfactorily. A small Quonset hut has been bought to be used for an office building.

Earl D. Eblen brought his plane down last Sunday and took a number of persons for rides. He has the airport under lease.

Contributions to pay for the building of the hangars now totals a little more than $400. The amount needed is $1,000. Anyone who would like to contribute to this fund may leave his name and the amount to be donated at the Chamber of Commerce office in the City Hall. Donations will be solicited personally as soon as the workers have time to see individuals. Many have already been contacted but a number have not been contacted to date.

Over the Wire

The Daughters of the Pioneer Study Club have had all the drapes and curtains at the Slaton Club House repaired and laundered and if you have not noticed how fresh and clean they are you should check up on this matter. The Ladies in the Club have been holding cake sales at the Southwestern Public Service Company on Saturdays to keep their treasury in funds for purposes of this kind. They expect to have another cake sale soon but not tomorrow.

A. C. Strickland reports that he has had more inquiries concerning gardening, spraying fruit trees and flowers than he has ever had. The folks seem to be more interested in flowers and lawns this year than they have since before the war and if the seasons are favorable and plenty of water available, Slaton should be a very attractive place this summer and fall.

Mr. Rogers at Buffalo Lakes says that the fishermen are increasing in numbers every day and that some nice catches have been reported, particularly of crappie in the first lake.

The pickets in front of the Telephone Company have had rather chilly work and so far as known there has been no interference with them. While the stoppage of calls over the lines have inconvenienced folks to some extent it does not seem to have interfered greatly with the operations of business.

Doc Crow, Lee Wootton and Shorty Wicker were all set for a fishing trip to Borden County but the weather kept them in a dither up until Thursday, they may or may not have left and a lot of folks would like to know what kind of fish one could find in Borden County.

JEANNETTE REISSIG WINS FIRST PLACE AT DISTRICT SCHOOL MEET Jeannette Reissig, Slaton High school student, won first place in shorthand in the recent District Inter-scholastic League Meet held at Andrews. The ribbon was awarded to her for her proficiency at a high school assembly last week. She is a pupil of Mrs. E. P. Naah, high school commercial teacher.

LOCAL COUPLE ATTEND FUNERAL OF RELATIVES KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Holtman attended the funeral in Childress last Sunday for his sister, Mrs. O. C. Gardner, and her son, Odus, who were burned to death in the crash of their gasoline truck in which they were riding.

The truck swerved to avoid collision with a passenger car which failed to stop at a red light at a street intersection in Quanah, overturned and burst into flames. Mrs. Gardner was thrown clear of the wreckage, but burning gasoline ignited her clothing before she could escape. The boy, aged 15, was pinned in the truck cab, and firemen were unable to extricate him.

Last rites were read in the Church of Christ in Childress at 2:30 p. m. and interment was in the Childress cemetery.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD OF SPECTATORS SEE LIONS CLUB GAME

What the crowd lacked in size it made up for in enthusiasm at the Lions Club Basketball game last Friday night in the high school gymnasium. The "girls" went after the ball with enthusiasm, and toward the end of the game they evidently went after each other with hammer and tongs, as several evidenced blackened eyes and scratched faces after the game. The masculine hair cuts probably prevented hairpulling in true feminine fashion.

The costumes showed great ingenuity as to style, variety, and color. Rouge and lip stick was applied with a lavish hand, and other feminine aids to beauty were very much in evidence.

NO VIOLATION OF LAW REPORTED IN SLATON OVER PAST WEEK-END

Although Slaton has had several "Quiet Week-ends," in so far as the law enforcement officers are concerned, but over this past week-end activity was down to zero. No arrests were made and everything was very quiet, according to Chief of Police Ernest Ward.

Perhaps it was because it was a beautiful day Sunday, and every one was in a law-abiding mood; and if explanations are necessary for Slaton citizens and visitors being 100 per cent law abiding, the sand storms of Friday and Saturday perhaps kept people indoors except when going out was absolutely necessary. Whatever the reason, it is much nicer to report no cases of law-breaking than to report a certain number of arrests on various charges. May we have other such week-ends to report!

The present officers of the Club are Allan J. Payne, president; Nat Heaton, vice-president; J. J. Maxey, secretary-treasurer; and L. L. Lively, sergeant-at-arms. The Directors at the present time are Rev. Luther Kirk, J. M. Roddy, Roy Mack, and T. P. Kendrick.

Ex-Soviet Official Exposes Attempt To Steal Atom Bomb

"Yesterday our allies, today our neighbors, tomorrow our enemies."

That was the toast directed at the United States proposed by Colonel Zabolin, then chief of Soviet military intelligence forces in Canada at an embassy celebration on V-J Day, according to an article in the February issue of Cosmopolitan magazine by Igor Gouzenko, cipher clerk in the Soviet embassy in Canada, whose disclosures of Soviet espionage in the Western hemisphere rocked the world.

Gouzenko's disclosures, backed by irrefutable evidence, have already resulted in the conviction and imprisonment of nine persons, and have been made the subject of a 733-page document prepared by the Canadian Royal Commission.

Because much of Gouzenko's disclosures concern Russia's efforts to obtain the secret of the atom bomb, the 733-page report has been studied in detail by Major General Leslie R. Groves, head of the wartime Manhattan Engineer District, which developed the atom bomb. General Groves fully endorsed the report and recommended it be carefully read by Americans.

Relating Russia's efforts to obtain the secrets of the atom bomb, Gouzenko declares:

"I heard no mention of the hope of international control of the atomic bomb. All the higher ranking officers said the same thing: 'Now that the Americans have invented it, we must steal it!'"

For the past eighteen months—or since he made the disclosures—Gouzenko has been living in secrecy with his wife and their two children, under a 24-hour-a-day guard of Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

For the first time the complete details of why and how he decided to warn the western democracies of their peril is told by Gouzenko in his own words in the first of four installments in Cosmopolitan magazine.

As a trusted cipher clerk in the Soviet embassy in Ottawa, Gouzenko had to code and decode the most confidential messages between Moscow and Ottawa.

In that position he learned that months before the world at large heard of the atom bomb, Moscow had detailed reports on it, as well as samples of uranium 233 and 235.

Notes carried from Ottawa to Moscow in a diplomatic pouch of the Soviet embassy—a pouch that, according to international diplomatic procedure, was inviolate.

Convinced of the superiority of western civilization, and determined to warn the western powers of the Soviet menace, Gouzenko decided he would file irrefutable evidence from the embassy secret files and turn it over to Canadian authorities.

When he decided to brave everything, including the safety of his and his wife's parents still in Russia, Gouzenko had to plan and move with clock-like precision in order to avoid detection by Soviet officials before he could convey his information to the highest Canadian authorities.

"During the three weeks after V-J Day, I made careful mental notes of the structure of the Soviet spy rings and the identity of their fifth-column agents," he states. "I selected from the secret files telegrams, notes, memorandums, that named persons and described plans. I marked the documents that I wanted by folding and creasing each upper right corner. This would enable me to pick them out quickly when the time came, and when even a few moments might matter."

At first everything went according to his carefully-laid plans, but when Gouzenko tried to place the evidence before Canadian newspapers and later, Canadian authorities, he was met with stony looks of disbelief.

While Gouzenko was still trying vainly to interest Canadian officials in the world-shaking story he carried on his person, his actions were discovered by embassy officials.

Rebuffed by Canadian officials and Ottawa newspapers, Gouzenko's plan to arouse the western democracies to their peril was in danger of imminent collapse when a friendly Royal Canadian Air Force Sergeant interceded for him with the Canadian police.

Help came none too soon. A few hours after Canadian police afforded Gouzenko and his family protection, and while they were hidden in the apartment of a neighbor, a group of high Soviet officials stealthily forced an entrance into his home. Caught red-handed by Canadian police, the Soviet officials took refuge in their diplomatic immunity.

In subsequent installments, Gouzenko tells in the fullest detail of Russia's efforts to weaken the western democracies through infiltration tactics and espionage and thus to master the world.

The result of the school trustee election shows that Monroe Brieger and S. N. Gentry won and a tie was obtained by J. C. Gentry and Wallace Cox. It seems that another election is to be called to decide the third trustee. Fabian H. Stahl was election judge and C. E. Birdwell was clerk; the judge's assistant was B. Boyd. This change was caused by the absence of M. P. Gentry, the regular election judge who was in a Lubbock hospital. Fred Stolle was called to Vernon this past week by the illness of his mother. He returned Sunday. Rev. C. F. Schulte went to Sequin to attend a Lutheran conference. He expects to be gone for 5 days.

There have been several fishing parties lately at Buffalo Lakes. The largest catch reported was that of a three pound fish. August Stolle of Portales, N. M. visited his brother, Fred for three days this past week. Rev. C. F. Schulte, the new Lutheran pastor, came here from Eaton, Colorado. He also holds a pastorate at Littlefield.

Mrs. W. T. Gentry, who died last Thursday at Slaton was buried Friday afternoon. She was 62 yrs. old and is survived by her husband, five daughters and four sons, one of whom is Raymond Gentry, store owner of Posey.

The time of meeting at the Lutheran church has been changed. Sunday School starts at 9:30 and preaching at 10:30. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lourance spent the Easter Holidays visiting relatives in Knox County. W. M. Cox visited his mother, who lives in Oklahoma, this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Johnson and daughters of Lubbock were Sunday School visitors. A. L. Havis has been building a car and tractor garage of cement tile.

Dewey Willis and son George have recently been on the sick list. One farmer said that he sold a hog this past week for $167.20, the weight being 880 pounds.

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid Society is collecting wearing apparel to be sent to needy European people. There will be a collection box this next Sunday at the Lutheran Church.

Visitors of relatives have been Ernest Stolle formerly of here and Portales, N. M. but now of Williamson County and Mr. Stocke of Vernon.

The Pease party telephone line will have eight members. They are L. B. Kitten, Alton Russell, F. H. Stahl, Mac Klattenhoff, F. C. Schulte, Jack Sumrall, Raymond Gentry and Mrs. O. R. Patterson. There is also a telephone at Buffalo Lakes but it has a Lubbock connection.

The Wild Cat softball team scheduled a game with Pleasant Valley Friday afternoon but the game was cancelled.

W. E. Lourance has had charge of the school census this year. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Johnson of Lubbock visited their parents Monday afternoon.

"Wonder if he can tell that now's the time to change to Phillips 66 Motor Oil!"
PROVED BY 66 BILLION MILES OF SATISFACTORY SERVICE.

I Announces Details of $20,000,000 Price reductions
Details of the recently announced International Harvester policy of making price reductions to save users of our products approximately $20,000,000 a year have now been worked out. We have reduced prices on 163 models. These cover 12 basic models of farm tractors, 123 basic models of farm machines, 16 basic models of industrial tractors and engines, and 12 models of motor trucks, as well as certain motor truck attachments. The new lower prices are effective as of March 10, 1947. These reductions were made not because of any decline in demand, but because we believe nothing is more important to this country than to lower the prices of the goods people buy. While prices have not been changed on all products, we have made reductions wherever possible, in the amounts possible. Prices of many of our most popular products have been substantially lowered. Altogether, more than half of the company's customers will be benefited by the reductions, which range from 1% to 23.8% and from $2.50 to $300 per item, based on list prices, F.O.B. Chicago. Since the people have demanded that the government withdraw from price control in peacetime, the responsibility to keep prices in check is back where it should be—in the hands of business and industry. The business outlook makes it possible for us to move toward the goal of lower prices, and we have felt a duty to act as promptly as possible. Our ability to maintain these lower prices will depend on the supply and price of materials we buy from others and on uninterrupted production at reasonable wage levels. The prices listed here carry out our announced policy that "Any price is too high if it can be reduced."

JUST TALK
by
A.M.J.

One of the hottest contests going on in town is being staged by Ray Ayers and Lloyd Tucker and the question is whether it is better to be the grandfather of a daughter or of a son.

Pete Pearson says Ray Ayers talks the loudest about the care that a granddaughter will take of grandparents in the far distant future and Lloyd is banking on the money his grandson is going to stack up. Both men have their blood pressure up so high over the past weeks events that they are shaking hands with even their worst enemies and one would think that they are running for office perhaps Ray is still working in a little politics in his good fellowship as he was a candidate for the School Board.

While I have complained a lot in the past about the general delapidated appearance of many of the business houses in Slaton I have said little about some of the outstanding improvements that have been made, the most striking example being that of the Slaton Motor Company.

Harry Stokes has made his establishment like a big City concern and his building, show windows and neat arrangement of his offices makes his place look like an oasis in a desert. If some other places in town would follow suit, even in a minor way, it would make a lot of difference in the looks of Slaton. The buildings on the North and West sides of the square have had practically nothing done to their exteriors since I have been in Slaton.

T. H. Duckett over at the Theatre brought me as a special favor, a weather forecast gotten out by some fellow in California and he has the best system that I have ever seen. It is a map with numbers of the alphabet and curved lines all over it, there are little squares colored in red, blue, and white and predictions of wet, dry, cold and moderate printed down the side. It looks real pretty and when I asked T. H. how in the world he read the thing he admitted he does not know, and under pressure, he also admitted that he signed a contract to pay $5.00 every three months for the service. That was when his blood pressure was down and he did not have much resistance. After spending three hours trying to figure out what the colored squares, the numbers and the letters meant he gave up and brought the thing over to me.

Now I am as woozy as he is and I am making my this weeks weather predictions by closing my eyes, jabbing a fountain pen at the weather prediction chart and making my guesses according to where the pen point hits.

According to the Duckett-Jackson weather system we will have warm weather today, high winds this afternoon, cooler tonight, rain the first part of next week, another sand storm the middle of the week, and high temperatures the end of next week. Better get out your long handles, summer clothing, electric fan and limber up your broom and dust rags and don't forget your umbrella, rain coat and hip boots for the Post Office is going to be almost submerged real soon.

Some Motivation Necessary
The Lometa Reporter tells the story of the little boy who went to the opera for the first time. He watched the conductor in the pit waving his baton, and when the famous soprano started to sing he asked his mother, "What's the man shaking that stick at the lady for?" "Shhh," his mother whispered, "he isn't shaking his stick at the lady." "Then what's she hollering for?" he demanded.

WASTED EFFORT
A metropolitan symphony orchestra had given a special performance in a small new England town. It was a new experience for many of the inhabitants. The next day some of the old-timers, gathered around the stove in the general store, were expressing their opinions of the concert.

"Well, all I got to say," commented one old character with finality, "is that was a long way to bring that bass drum only to bang it wunst." Bi-City Letter, Summer-Trion, Georgia.

CO-OWNERS
A soldier parked an Army jeep in front of a parking meter, got out, and started to walk down the street. A policeman saw him and called after him: "Hey, buddy, drop a nickel in that parking meter."
The soldier yelled back: "Put it in yourself—that jeep belongs to you as much as it does to me."—South Dakota Hiway Magazine.

NO USE
"It's no use," said the director to his colleague, "I'll have to get a new typist."
"Pity," said the colleague. "Miss Brown always seemed a nice, obliging sort of girl."
"Oh, she's all that, but she will keep interrupting me when I'm dictating to ask how to spell words."

"That certainly is a great waste of time."

"I don't object to that," explained the director, "but it looks so bad to have to keep saying, 'I don't know.'"—Rotary-Pep, Frankfort, Indiana.

Easter Tea Given In Hanna Home

Mesdames Bevis A. Hanna, Haskell Lasater, Henry Jarman, and Dudley Berry entertained with an Easter tea Friday, April 4, from 3 to 6:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Hanna at 110 North Sixth Street.

The entertaining rooms were decorated with potted hydrangeas, and Easter lilies. The refreshment table was laid with a white Italian cutwork cloth and was centered with a large bouquet of white snap dragons. Crystal candelabra with white tapers were at either end of the table. Punch was served from a crystal punch bowl.

Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Hanna, and directed to the refreshment table by the other hostesses. Mrs. J. B. Huckabay, Mrs. H. T. Hord, and Mrs. W. S. Parks Jr., served.

Approximately 200 guests called during the receiving hours.

Daughters of Pioneer Study Club Have Chuck Wagon Supper

Members of the Daughters of Pioneer Study Club entertained their husbands and friends with a Chuck Wagon Supper Monday evening, April 7, at the Club House.

The serving table was covered with a red checked cloth centered with an arrangement of pussy willow blossoms. Small tables were covered with bright cloths, and place cards were covered wagons of bright colored cardboard.

Mrs. V. J. Johnson was in charge of the entertainment. Guests played bingo for white elephant prizes.

Members and guests were Messrs and Mesdames Oree Glascock, Harmon Thompson, Cecil Scott, Earl Reasoner, Edwin Forrest, J.

LARGE NUMBER IN THIS AREA ARE HOLDING ON TO G I INSURANCE

Charles F. Dvoracek, Veterans Administration Itinerant Contact Representative, serving our area, said today that veterans in the Slaton area are responding to the advise "hold on to your G I Insurance," as evidence by the great number who are flocking to the VA Contact Office located at 703 Lubbock National Bank Building in Lubbock, to reinstate or convert their G I Insurance.

To veterans in this area who have missed payments on their G I Insurance Mr. Dvoracek said, "It's not too late to reinstate."

By converting, the veteran remains his National Service Life Insurance and simply changes it from term insurance, the kind issued in the military service, to a permanent plan of National Service Life Insurance, Mr. Dvoracek said.

REPORTS ON LIVESTOCK AND CROP CONDITIONS

American farmers received 25% more cash income during the first three months of 1947 than in the same period of 1946, but the Bureau of Agriculture Economics expects income for the entire year to be about the same as last year.

Corn, alone, isn't enough to enable sows to produce strong pigs, Iowa State College research shows. "Balanced rations are required, with proper proportions of proteins, minerals, vitamins and, if possible, good green hay."

Cotton planting time brings encouraging word from many informed sources that 1947 offers the best opportunity in a long time to "cash in" on cotton. Higher yields on more acres should pay big dividends this year.

Sweet potato meal, increasingly popular Southern livestock feed, is good for poultry, too. Louisiana Experiment Station had good results using it as 20 to 25% of the mash mixture to replace other carbohydrates in chick rations.

Cull vegetables, vines, leaves, tops, peelings and other waste on farms and in processing plants offer promise as livestock and poultry feeds, says U. S. Department of Agriculture. Many of these waste are rich in vitamins and other feed values. Speaking of wastes, a Kansan has suggested that grasshoppers might be dried and fed to livestock!

American cotton textile exports during 1946 were the second largest in history, and the 1947 export outlook is good which is more encouraging news for cotton farmers.

One hundred pounds of cottonseed cake fed with silage to stock cattle at Kansas Experiment Station increased gains 60 pounds over silage fed, alone. Calves fed one pound of cake daily made more than twice as much daily gain as those fed only silage. Discussing costs, the report says there is seldom, if ever, a time when it would not pay to supplement low-protein wintering rations with a protein concentrate.

Is 1,529 pounds of lint cotton on one acre a world's record? That's what Jack Belk, 17-year-old 4-H club member, Union County, North Carolina, produced in 1946; and he paid him $521.10 for income for his labor, after paying other costs.

Soil fumigants may be the best way to get rid of nut grass, Mississippi Experiment Station tests indicate.

Fertilizer consumption increased at the rate of about a million tons a year during the war, reaching a peak of more than fourteen million tons in 1946, compared to the 1935-39 average of about seven million. Midwestern states, especially, are using more fertilizers.

R. W. CUDD VISITS IMPLEMENT FACTORY

R. W. Cudd spent several days the week of March 30 in Minneapolis, Minn., and Moline, Ill., visiting the home offices and the various plants of the Minneapolis-Moline Power Implement Company and conferring with officials of the company.

Following the Minneapolis conference, he spent the latter part of the week in Moline, Ill., observing work carried on there and discussing with officials the problems of meeting the unprecedented demand for modern farm equipment.

LLOYD MEURER OPENS THE O. K. MATTRESS AND AWNING COMPANY

He has new equipment and is prepared to do the best quality work in making over old mattresses or in making new ones. He has a large line of mattress tickings in a variety of colors and patterns from which to choose the covering of mattresses. He is also equipped to make and recover awnings. Horse Is Hero of "Gallant Bess," Exciting Attraction In Cinecolor

A horse almost steals the picture from his human co-players in the new M-G-M drama, "Gallant Bess," being shown at the Palace Theatre, Sunday and Monday.

It is the nationally famous show horse, "Silvernip," called "Bess" in the current film narrative, and it is the devotion of Marshall Thompson for the mare which gives the story both its warmth and mounting excitement.

Marshall is seen as the young orphaned rancher Tex, whose dream is some day to own a horse ranch. "Bess," an intelligent little mare, is the basic for the continued growth of the ranch. The two great friends are separated, however, when Tex is high-pressed into joining the Seabees and during the youngster's basic training the mare dies in foal.

It is an inconsolable Tex who ships out for a South Pacific atoll until circumstances bring him a successor to "Bess." It is a horse who has been pinned beneath a fallen tree during battle and Tex takes her for his own. Later wounded in a skirmish with the Japs, Tex is hospitalized home, wounded in a skirmish with the though he will have to leave his beloved horse behind. But after a heartbreaking scene in which the new "Bess" swims after the boat carrying Tex, the horse is transported to America with her master. Back home, "Bess" has a foal and Tex's lifelong dream of owning his own horse ranch is on its way to reality.

younger players on the M-G-M lot, proves himself worth watching and gives an appealing naturalness to his performance as the young rancher. George Tobias and Jim Davis, as his Seabee buddies, are also good, and Clem Bevans adds a nicely etched characterization in a homespun role as owner of a general store.

The picture filmed in the new Cinecolor process, captures the full beauty of its outdoor backgrounds in the picturesque Mount Shasta region of Northern California where most of "Gallant Bess" was filmed on location.

For those who are touched by the intelligence and beauty of animal actors—and they are legion—as well as those who like a fast-paced adventure tale, "Gallant Bess" may be recommended as superior entertainment.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

And That Ain't Hay -Or Is It?

I guess all of us secretly hanker, from time to time, for the good old days and the good old-fashioned pleasures. Leastways, Buddy Richards done a thriving business reviving the old-time hayride.

With a team of horses, and a stout straw-bedded rack, Buddy can take as many as thirty adults—at fifty cents a head!

Two or three times a week they start from Town Hall, and go out along the river; stop for a friendly glass of beer at Shoreside Tavern;

and come home by way of I

Ridge... nine miles in all. Not very exciting, you might say. But from where I sit it's not excitement that we need these days—but those simple country pleasures that are part and parcel of America—the old-fashioned hayride, with its song and jollity; the horseshoe games; the friendly glass of beer; and the good companionship that they engender.

What They Write

Slaton Slatonite,
Slaton, Texas.

Much has been said in this great and free democratic nation about the subject Peacetime Compulsory Military Training, the advocates of which desire to call Universal Training. I, for one, desire to speak of it by its true name (Compulsory Military Training) and to make a few remarks in opposition to such a repulsive system.

There are those among us who point out how near we came to losing every war since the American Revolution, but the facts in the case are that we have never lost a war, and this can be attributed, in great part, to the willingness of a free and unregimented people to submit temporarily to inconveniences when it is apparent that the safety of their nation is at stake. Conscription should be resorted to only during war or during an approaching crisis. At the present time Congress is providing well for a sizable defense force of volunteers and there is no need of snatching 18 year old boys away from their schooling and home ties for even a day's forced training.

The founders of this Republic were determined opponents of European oppression and internal encroachments on the personal liberties of its citizens, and with these great objectives in view the Constitution and Bill of Rights were written and amended as a guide and admonition to future generations to forever guard against all encroachments on all liberties, and especially personal liberties. Until a boy reaches the age of maturity, it is the duty and privilege of his parents to provide him with schooling and a vocation of his and their choosing instead of having his career interrupted by an AGENCY of the Government's leaders of which he had no part in electing.

An 18 year old boy's mind is immature, and militaristic or any other ideas are more easily impressed upon him than on older people. Who knows but after a period of say 15 or 20 years, the citizens would become militarized and our land of the free and home of the brave become a nation ruled by a military hierarchy? We have merely to turn the pages of history from ancient times to the present in order to be reminded of what occurred in nations which vested too much power in the military. Twice in this century we have been called upon to defeat Prussian Militarism. Now there are those among us who would lay the foundation for a similar system in this country. A person of Hitler's stripe could not have gained control in Germany without the approval of the military caste of Prussia.

It has been suggested that we give the system a trial and if it proved unsatisfactory it could be discontinued. I wish to point out that a law is more easily passed than repealed.

Those of us (and there are many in the land) who have had experience in military camps are fully aware of the many temptations which confront a boy away from home, religious, and school influences.

We should not oppose an adequate defense force of volunteers, consisting of a sizable army, strong navy, very very strong air force, and group of scientists. Physicists are the people who provided the means for the speedy termination of the recent war and they will play an even more important part in the winning of any future wars if it become necessary for us to resort to this means of settling disputes between nations.

It should be the duty of all of us to back to the limit those who are striving to perfect a United Nations organization with teeth in it to outlaw war.

Signed

EGGS A DOLLAR A DOZEN?

LAGGING CHICKS SALES POINT TO SHORTAGE OF EGGS AND POULTRY BY FALL AS EXPECTED SURPLUSES FAIL TO DEVELOP.

How much money could you make next fall if eggs were selling for a dollar a dozen? It could happen. In fact, in New York last week, the President of the Butter and Egg Merchants' Association said it may happen.

IT MAY HAPPEN! WHY?

Because every sign today points to a shortage of eggs and poultry next fall.

Two months ago—even 30 days ago—nobody would have believed such a prediction. Folks were talking of an egg surplus. The Government said it would support the price of eggs. But what has happened - - ?

THERE IS NO SURPLUS. Eggs are disappearing as fast as they are being laid. And far too few baby chicks are being started to meet the demand for poultry and eggs next fall.

Poultry experts don't need a crystal ball to predict this coming shortage and high eggs and and poultry prices. They just look at these cold facts of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture which tell the story:

These Facts Point to High Egg and Poultry Prices

1. At the season when eggs would normally be moving into storage in great volume, stocks of shell eggs are dwindling.
In February this reduction amounted to 70,000 cases. On March 1 there was only about half an egg in storage for every American. A year ago there were 1 1/2 million cases—about 7 times as many.
2. Frozen eggs in storage decreased by 7 million pounds in February as compared to an increase of 6 million pounds in February a year ago.
3. Egg production in February was 4% below a year ago due to 6% fewer layers.
4. Americans are eating eggs at a record rate, because of high purchasing power and high meat prices.
5. There were 55 million fewer chickens on farms January 1 than there were a year ago.
6. Virtually all signs point to an excellent grain producing season in 1947 which normally means lower feed prices. A record wheat crop and another 3 billion bushel corn crop are forecast.

IT'S A GOOD YEAR TO START CHICKS

Yes eggs may sell for a dollar a dozen next fall, but you'll have to start chicks this spring—to cash in on this golden opportunity.

Our advise is to buy good chicks and start them right. Feed them Purina Chick Startena to get them off to a flying start. It's America's Favorite Chick Starter for Life and Growth and this year it's the BEST Purina EVER made. We have a good supply in stock. Come in and see us for chicks and all your chick raising needs.

HUSER HATCHERY

Opportunity knocks for the cotton grower to cash in on cotton in a big way in 1947. The acute shortage of cotton goods, livestock feed, vegetable oils and fats can be remedied only by greater production. This means a vast market for cotton and cottonseed products. It means strong prices for a long time to come. Farmers will do well to plan a substantial part of their farm program around cotton for high returns.

THIS WEEK'S LESSON

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 13.

The Golden Text is: "Art thou not from everlasting, O Lord my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. . . Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity" (Habakkuk 1:12-13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases" (Psalms 103:2,3).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Sin, sickness, and death must be deemed as devoid of reality as they are of good, God" (page 525).

Finding

WHAT WE LOOK FOR

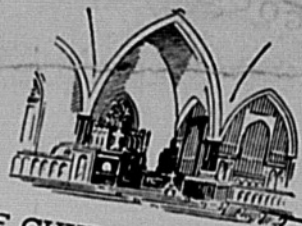

You and I usually find in life what we look for. And what we find is often a reflection of what we are.

A man who looks for trouble can find it in abundance. The person who looks for truth and beauty somehow seems always to come upon it.

One of the remarkable qualities of Jesus was that insight which enabled Him to see men not only as they were, but also as they might become. He saw Matthew, the successful business man. He also saw Matthew, the loyal disciple, writer of a Gospel story that would never die. And, He said, "Matthew, follow me." And Matthew left all and followed Him.

There is much of evil and wrong in the world about us. Much that is discouraging! Much that is cruel! Much that is unkind! God needs men and women through whom He may work to help make right the wrong things of earth. He has given us His Church through which we may work effectively.

Go to Church next Sunday and enlist your services in this great endeavor. The Church needs you even as you need the Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
 ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

WEST TEXAS ROUNDUP

Andrews as well as other south-west Texas counties as a whole would benefit to a greater extent from the $55 per capita or Blankenship bill now pending in the Legislature than would the state as a whole. With a need of $3,355 to meet the $2,000 minimum salaries to degree teachers, the counties would receive $14,720, or an excess over the need of $11,365.

The building of the First State Bank of Wilson was practically completed last week and the bank moved back into the building recently.

Workmen are making rapid progress on the new William Lumsden building on the second lot south of the bank and it will be ready for occupancy soon.

Work is just starting on the Pat Campbell building to be re-erected between the other two mentioned above.

In addition to these rebuilt structures, an entirely new building is to be erected just south of the Wilson Post Office, to be occupied by a picture show. Wilson had a picture show years ago but has not had one for several years now.

What They Write

Juanita Elliott, who is working as a legal secretary in Chicago, and studying court reporting, wrote a most interesting letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elliott, describing the International Flower Show she attended. Excerpts from the letter are printed below.

The arena was landscaped fountains and gardens, rows and rows of every color tulips. The dark red ones the prettiest. The rows of pink and blue hydreangeas along the sidewalks were beautiful.

On one side of the arena banking a stream, was a house with background of pines interspersed with red buds and pretty colors found in a forest. In one spot was a blending of yellow, red, and blue (grapes of some kind) that was beautiful.

Then upstairs were exhibits all around the sides, in booths, and in the center more landscaping.

The albino rose was yellow with stems and leaves cream colored. In the center was a basket of roses just like a tree and valued at $1,000. It took 8 months to grow them. There were several hundred, some with 10 foot stems. The pink ones were 5 feet.

One pretty exhibit was a waterfall; the water was made of long stalks of blue flowers and the rainbow at the foot of the falls was made of flowers of every color. Angel's hair was fixed to look just like the spray from falling water.

Then there were flowers in table arrangements and still life. And an exhibit of miniature flower arrangement, petals and twigs
