Boy's Ranch Has Chance To Learn Various Trades

CHARLES YANCY, 12, of Mineral Wells, Texas, hesitatingly submits to a haircut given by Charlie Purviance, 17, of Wichita, Kansas. Both boys are hands at Boy's Ranch, Amarillo, Texas.

When it comes time for a man-trimming session at Boy's Ranch in Amarillo, Texas, the job usually falls to one of the boys in the vocational department of the Ranch vocational school.

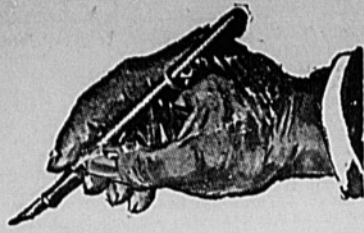

Several of the older boys are learning the barbering trade, and with over 120 victims to practice on, they are becoming quite proficient. Only the art of shaving is neglected at present because no staff member is willing to risk an ear or Adam's apple.

In addition to barbering, the boys at Boy's Ranch have the opportunity to learn carpentry, automobile mechanics and shoe repair. The list of trades being taught now is small, but it is hoped that a vocational school can be built in the very near future where 12 or 14 trades can be taught.

With a properly-equipped vocational school, each of the more than 100 boys can learn a valuable trade he will be able to use when he leaves the Ranch. This will give him the chance to step into a good job and make a real hand.

The boys also have their own grade and high school with seven teachers, a full sport program, that includes football, softball, basketball and wrestling, and plenty of opportunity for other recreation such as fishing, swimming and riding.

But it's not all school and play. The boys raise much of their own vegetables, beef and pork, and have their own particular jobs such as milking, hoeing in the garden, and clean-up details.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

His Punch is His Signature

Was on the train up to Central City the other day and when the conductor came around, I asked him why their ticket punches make such odd-shaped holes in the ticket.

"Every conductor in the country has a different design for his punch," he tells me. "Some even show up a fellow's preferences. Now take mine. The hole it makes looks like a beer goblet."

Sure enough! Then he went on to say that the punch is just like the conductor's signature. Makes it easy to trace tickets . . . to check up if something happens.

From where I sit, even though your ticket is punched differently from mine, it still gets you where you're going. Just like people with their opinions. You might like coffee, another person, tea—and I'll settle for a temperate glass of beer. But what does it matter, so long as we respect the right of the other to have tastes and opinions? We're all trying to go in the same direction — towards a friendlier, more pleasant world for all of us.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's Union to put an additional fireman on diesel locomotives has been CONSIDERED TWICE!

Fact Finding Boards appointed by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman have said these demands were "devoid of merit" and they were REJECTED TWICE!

Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain

FEATHER-BEDDING!

LEADERS of the Firemen's union have called a nationwide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The union claim that a second fireman is needed on grounds of safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in an unsuccessful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this union, a Presidential Fact Finding Board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an extra fireman on diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the union leaders' demands, a second Board reported to President Truman that: "there presently exists no need for an additional fireman . . . upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency and economy of operation."

Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good

Although the railroads accepted the Board findings, the union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety" reasons. Here's what the Board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good . . .

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding." The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands.

"The Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good . . ."

PRESIDENTIAL FACT FINDING BOARD REPORT

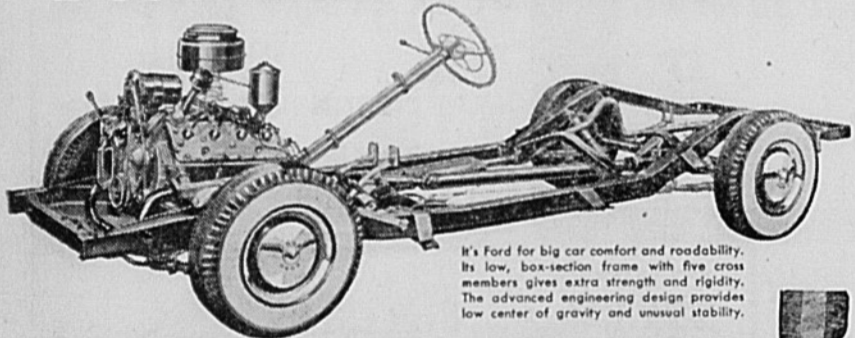

Read these excerpts from official report of Presidential Fact Finding Board:

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-electric locomotives operated under current rules indicate that Diesel-electric operation has been more than steam locomotive operation."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's Fact Finding Board after spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.

"Check Your Car," "Check Accidents"

"Check Your Car, Check Accidents." With this as the slogan, Chevrolet is urging its 7,000 dealers to get behind the National Safety Council's drive to promote safety in May.

By the use of newspaper advertisements, banners, window posters and special displays inside dealer showrooms and service departments, and direct mail announcement to the homes of Chevrolet owners, dealers are expected to draw attention to the importance of mechanical inspection.

Chevrolet proposes a 10-point program for safer cars. Checks cover brakes, steering gear, tires, wheel alignment, exhaust system, windows and windshield, rear vision mirror and windshield wiper, horn and lights.

"If every motorist will see that his car gets this ten-point check-up during May it will be a definite contributing factor toward safety on the highways and streets," said E. L. Harrig, director of the service and mechanical department, Chevrolet Motor Division. "We believe that Chevrolet dealers will do their part in promoting this worthy drive of the National Safety Council."

THIS And THAT FROM HERE And THERE

IT SEZ HERE—Our Garza county correspondent informs us that in a small town below the caprock is a post office that has a sign above the wastebasket: "Don't spit in here—all the mail some people in this town get is out of this basket." And we are also indebted to him for a new definition of a bootlegger—a person who sells whiskey at a fabulous price to people in a dry county who don't want whiskey at any price.—The Ralls Banner.

Good Lord was more or less responsible for what kind of year it would be. But I guess rain-making is just like giving blood transfusions.

But the problem in Post—and this is a good one for the Chamber of Commerce to tackle—is where to get the clouds to drop the dry ice on? It's been so long since I've seen a cloud here, I don't know what the underside of one looks like.—Post Dispatch.

STRICKLINLY SPEAKING—Well, yes, kids can be quite inquisitive. But they must learn somehow. The family of four had driven out and viewed the houses in which both pop and mom were born. Then the two kids wanted to see the one they were born in. You were born in a hospital they were told. Then of course the small fry wanted to know if they were sick when born?

Speaking of family life, Claude Callan, a feature writer and a native Texan, says that when Mrs. Callan and he were "sparkling," a dime's worth of stick candy and a few gum drops, and a bit of mint candy with love messages printed on them was a great treat for the girl friend.

But now, continues Claude, daughter is very different. She wants a thrill, and nothing less than a pint of whiskey and a car wreck will entertain her.—Terry County Herald.

OUT ON A LIMB—I read where they decided to not try to make rain up in New York and I guess that is just as well. I don't think they would have the problems there we'd have here anyway. Maybe they are just trying to get tough.

During their water shortage it may be that New York will outrank Washington, D. C., in the amount of alcoholic beverages consumed. However, I haven't noticed the bootleggers doing any worse around here during wet years. On the contrary. We've had wet years and dry years and I used to think the KILROY WAS HERE—Jack Anders who always has a good story ready to tell, unloaded a good one Monday. He said his mother, who lives at Littlefield, has a flock of pigeons, and from somewhere a pigeon wearing a band on one leg appeared and took up with Mrs. Anders' birds. Naturally, she was curious about the significance of the band. She told Jack about it and he became just as curious as his mother. So he went up to his mother's home one night, took his flashlight, blinded the pigeon and caught it. When he took the band off he found the following message: "Kilroy Has Been Here."—Anton News.

LOOKING AHEAD—The wise men who look into the future and tell us what to expect, come up with some predictions that look far-fetched although, occasionally, some of the unexpected things actually occur.

Recently, Dr. Gerald Wendt, who was science director of the New York World's Fair, predicted that by 2000 A. D., interplanetary travel will be available, electronic thinking machines will work for people and there will be plenty of free time for everybody to fill with culture, recreation and sports.

So far, we can follow the doctor within measurable distances, but when he assures us of an era of easy money, average incomes of $12,000 yearly and a life span of 85 to 90 years, we just pause long enough to wonder what difference it will make to us, in the year 2000 A. D.—Sunday (Hereford) Brand.

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

First we must correct a mistake made in last week's recipe for chocolate ice box pudding. The ingredient list should have read: 8 well beaten egg yolks, and 8 stiffly beaten egg whites—rather than whites in both places.

This week's recipe is one which has been recommended to us by several as being especially good, although Mrs. Claud Porter, who gave it to us, says, "It's just plain ordinary Devil's Food Cake."

- Ingredients call for:
3/4 cups oleo
2 cups sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
1 tablespoon vanilla
2/3 cup sifted cocoa
1 cup sweet milk
3 cups sifted flour
1 package dry yeast
1/4 cup lukewarm water
1/4 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 cup warm water

Cream oleo and sugar and add beaten eggs, vanilla and cocoa. Next, add portions of the milk and flour alternately. Mix yeast in 1/4 cup luke warm water with 1/4 teaspoon sugar and allow to stand five minutes until soft, then stir yeast into above sugar, flour, oleo, etc., mixture.
Cover batter and let stand overnight in cool place. Next morning dissolve baking soda in remaining 1/4 cup warm water and add to cake mixture. If batter is too thick add a little more warm water.

Bake at once in a moderately hot oven, about 350 degrees F., for twenty-five minutes or until done. Put the layers together with soft white or fudge frosting.

The following fudge frosting was suggested by Mrs. Porter as very good for this particular cake.

- Ingredients call for:
2 cups sugar
2/3 cup milk
1/4 pound butter
4 ounces chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup nuts finely chopped

Melt butter and add chocolate, cooking until chocolate is thoroughly melted. To chocolate and butter add milk and sugar and boil until soft ball forms in cold water. Remove from fire and place pan in larger pan of cold water and beat until frosting thickens. Stir in vanilla and nuts and pour over cake while still warm.

Everyone who has ever met or seen Mrs. Porter, better known to many as Idella, says she is one of the most attractive women they have ever known; and if you are fortunate enough to be living in her particular territory, she will be coming around before long to take your census—and from her you don't mind.

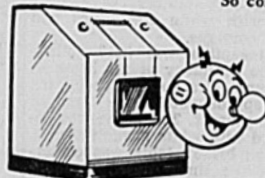

The Porters have two children, Kay, who is a High school freshman, and Jim, who is a freshman at Tech. They live at 550 West Garza, and Mr. Porter is a Santa Fe employee.

Slaton O.E.S. Has Meeting Tuesday

A meeting of the Slaton Chapter of Eastern Star was held Tuesday evening, April 25 in the Masonic Hall with Mrs. F. A. Drewry and Mr. R. L. Smith, Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, presiding.

Prior to the formal meeting, a dedication service for Jacqueline Sue Thomas, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Thomas, was made.

During the meeting, the OES charter was draped in black in memory of Mr. J. W. Chenoweth, a former member, who died Monday in Dallas.

A report was later given by Mrs. W. R. Lovett of a visit made to a Mississippi chapter by both Mr. and Mrs. Lovett and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Drewry.

Two dozen tea towels were presented to the chapter by Mrs. Virgie Hunter from the Past Matrons' club. The presentation was made in a humorous fashion, as Mrs. Hunter entered the hall without introduction dressed in hobo clothing.

Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Moody from the Ballinger chapter.

Crosbyton Works Toward New Dial Telephone System

Work on the new telephone cable system for the city of Crosbyton is progressing rapidly, according to a statement in the April 20 issue of the Crosbyton Review by C. D. Shelley, district manager of Southwestern Associated Telephone company.

Practically every telephone line and cable in the city is being replaced with new cables, the release said. Additional switchboard capacity was installed last year to care for approximately 300 more phones. As soon as the new cables are finished, every person in the city wanting a telephone can have it.

No definite date of the installation of a dial system in Crosbyton has been made, Shelley said. The original order called for the system to be set up immediately after the completion of the outside cable system, but this has been necessarily postponed for several reasons.

An unmanned automatic exchange will be installed on company property there, Shelley stated, when the changeover to the dial system is made. This exchange will take care of all local calls. A central office, with long distance operator, will be set up in Falls.

SS Representative Will Visit Slaton Wednesday, May 3

How much life insurance do you have? John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock office of the Social Security Administration, says that several thousand families in this part of Texas have more life insurance than they realize.

For instance, one young carpenter added up his life insurance policies and told his wife that he had $9,000 worth of life insurance. His wife smiled and said, "You're wrong, dear... counting your Federal old-age and survivors insurance, you have about $20,000."

She was right, too. She had figured out the amount of social security benefits she and her two children would get from the Social Security Administration in case of her husband's death. Of course the amount could be less, depending on the age of the children and the husband's earnings.

According to Hutton, your social security account is like an insurance policy in many ways. When your social security tax is taken from your pay check, you are paying in advance for retirement insurance or protection against part of the financial loss your family would suffer when you die.

Further information about Federal old-age and survivors insurance can be secured at any social security office, Hutton said. A representative of the Lubbock office visits Slaton monthly. He will be at the Red Cross room of the City Hall at 11:00 a. m. May 3, 1950, or you may write direct to the Lubbock social security office, 1311 Texas Avenue.

Oilers Take Loop Opener Sun. 13-5 From Slaton Nine

Behind after the top half of the fifth inning by a two-run margin, the Seagraves Oilers spoiled the Slaton nine opener, 13-5, here at Lions Park Sunday afternoon.

Five Slaton errors helped the winners. The visiting team banged out 11 hits off the offerings of Richards, McCabe and Harvich. The Lions collected five hits from Faulkner and Bullington, with Harvich being credited with the only home run of the game.

In a Thursday night exhibition game, the Lions slugged out a 13-4 decision over the Post Millers. McCabe and Richard held the Millers to four hits. McCabe, starting pitcher, got off to a shaky start, giving up three runs in the first inning and a single in the second. In the five innings that McCabe pitched he gave up only two hits but issued 11 free passes.

This coming Sunday the Lions go to Levelland for an afternoon match with the Refiners.

The guidance program has a two-fold purpose. It is designed to acquaint students with the opportunities of the various trades and professions of today and to aid them in the selection of a field most suited to their talents.—Levelland Sun-News.

A petition urging the Post Office Department to reroute mail coming to Seminole from Dallas and Fort Worth terminal points in order for it to reach here several hours earlier each day was circulated by the Chamber of Commerce this week.

Under the present schedule mail from Dallas and Ft. Worth to Seminole is taken off an early morning train at Sweetwater where it is reworked and sent to Post. At Post it is reworked again and then sent to Brownfield. There it is reworked a third time and brought to Seminole, arriving sometime after 1 p. m., each day.—The Seminole Sentinel.

Action designed to halt continuous violations of the sewer and plumbing ordinances was taken at a meeting of the city commission Monday night.

Declaring that the sewer and plumbing ordinance was being violated almost every day, the commission instructed City Secretary W. G. Street and Ralph Douglas, city engineer, to see that in the future all phases of this ordinance are rigidly enforced, and to file complaints on violations if found necessary.—County Wide (Littlefield) News.

Reports last week from Reese Air Force base Lubbock, said that $80,000 will be spent to improve runways at the auxiliary field four miles east of Abernathy.

The 809th Aviation Engineers Battalion from Warren AFB, Cheyenne, Wyo., arrived at RAFB last week to start rehabilitation work there and at the base here.—Abernathy Weekly Review.

A Boy Scout Camporee for the south half of the Haynes district was held southeast of Crosbyton on the L-7 ranch, April 21 and 22.

Scouts from all towns in the half district attended, including Lorenzo, Crosbyton and Ralls, from this county.

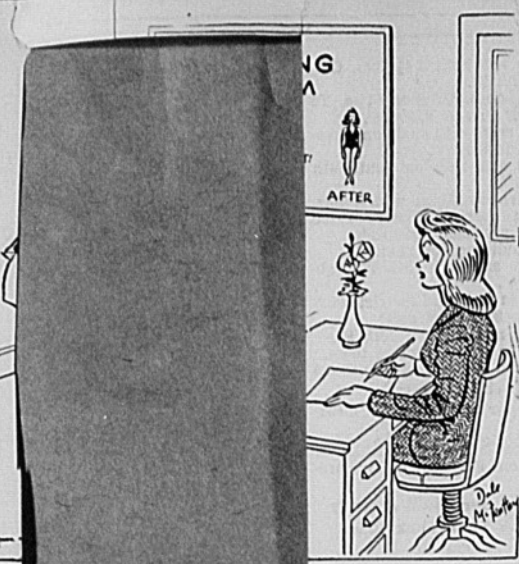

The night of April 21, Ralls Scouts demonstrated proper methods of setting up camp. There was a Court of Honor at which advancements were given in hiking, wild life, tracking and bird study.—Ralls Banner.

Mrs. Lillian Ferguson Crowder, formerly of the Robertson community near Slaton, and now of Ft. Worth, was one of the 3,500 delegates from every state in the Union attending the quadrennial national assembly of Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church held April 18-21 in Cleveland, Ohio.

AT SELF'S SERVICE STATION

Hoody Folks: We read a report from California quoting fishermen that the sardines that stayed away all last year have returned.

As far as that is concerned, we have noticed that fish usually go on a vacation about the same time we do.

The California report just about proves that fish are brain food, because they travel in schools.

In fishing, caution is very important, especially if you are the fish.

Fish are like guests, they begin to stink after three days.

We're just kidding. We like guests and fish, too.

So let's fish. Take the old rod and reel and hie to the fishing hole and then just bait and see.

But before you go, come by and let us put your car in peak-efficient running order.

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

You'd never think to look at him as he sprints from counter to counter at the Slaton Pharmacy, that J. D. Holt is a fish fanatic. If you want to see his face light up and his hands twitch, as he fingers an imaginary fly rod just ask him when he is going fishing. If you will notice I said fly rod instead of a fishing pole. A fishing pole is very low class fishing equipment and I'm sure J. D. uses a fly rod when he is fishing for trout and a casting rod when offering bass some choice bait or viscous looking plugs.

Last Sunday when I went to the Post Office I stopped in to waste a little time with J. D. and mentioned fishing. He stopped waiting on a good customer to tell me how to snag the big ones at Creede, Colorado, and I went right along with him. We stumbled up a deep ravine where the water spraddled over a wide flat place in ripples and boy did we get the trout. Most of them were twelve and fifteen inches long. My legs are still aching from the strain. Just as J. D. caught the third one over the legal limit he had to answer the phone and I'm still wondering how he got away from the game warden. Maybe I can tell you in next week's edition.

Folks it won't be long before the Post Office Lake will be over the banks. This is the only weather prediction I'm going to make for some time.

Most everyone who is in business will tell you that the Government is taking all of the money they are making.

Stop and talk to the folks who are building new homes, are riding in new cars, have expanded their business and wear the newest fashions in clothes and whose wives and children look fat and happy and you'll hear some very sad stories on how the Government is mistreating them.

If I felt that many people would be interested in the things that I believe are wrong with the country today I'd list them right here but every one of us have a different list of grievances and our remedies would all be different and probably none of them workable.

The first thing that is suggested is to pass some law to cancel taxes, or a law to keep this, or that from happening and when it all boils down we are right back in the spot where we started from.

Let's all get some leopard skins, dig some caves and start all over again. This fast life is surely getting on my nerves.

What do you eat for breakfast? It is said that breakfast should be the biggest meal of the day and I can honestly say that I enjoy it more than any other but I'm getting into a rut. Two slices of toast, two slices of bacon and a cup of coffee is my standard breakfast and I'd like to eat more but my wife says my jowls and my belt line are beginning to look like the prize parts of a FFA prize hog and I'm having to put up a stiff fight to hold onto the two slices of bacon.

Most of the women claim that they eat no breakfast at all, or they eat one piece of toast and drink a cup of coffee, but if you are a close observer you'll see a lot of them ducking across the streets to the neighbors houses at around ten o'clock in the morning and I'm told that what they do to a big pot of coffee, plates stacked high with sweet rolls with an occasional plate of eggs and bacon, is something close to a catastrophe.

We all know several men who have made considerable money and who make no great show of having any more than the ordinary person, and you ask, "what do they want with so much money, they never spend it except for the necessities of life?" and some one will answer, "they say that his only pleasure is in making money."

Perhaps this is true but it seems either untrue or impossible to me. If money could not be spent to make life easier, to get the things that you do not need, but find pleasure in owning, then you might as well be saving up little rocks or pieces of string.

Has any one got a Brooklyn Bridge or a fifty room mansion to sell? I'd buy them on credit.

While I believe women these days are spending a lot too much money and time on having things done to their hair to make it look like most everything except human hair, I believe that men do not give enough attention to what the barber is doing to their gold-en, black, or gray tresses. It has been my habit, for the past three or four years to ask, beg, plead and demand of the barbers that they not cut my hair clear down to the bone but every time when they have gotten through I have come out looking like a picked chicken. All except the last time when Butch fixed me up. My main reason for wanting my side hair to be let alone is because my top growth has been getting mighty scarce and I have been having a very hard time finding something worth while to comb and I like to have something to run my fingers through when my wife gets me cornered or when it is time to pay income taxes. My hair is now sticking out past my ears and when I wake up in the morning and have to go look at myself while I am shaving I get frightened. If I can possibly do so I am going to get my side hair left intact at my next shearing. That will be soon or I'll have to go to plating my side hair and let it hang down the sides, which might be kinder cute at that.

WILL TIGER TOWN WORK? . . .

Now that the Slaton Youth Center, known as "Tiger Town," has finally had its formal opening, another problem arises—that of making it a real and working success. This of course can be done with the complete cooperation of parents and students alike.

First of all, parents of teen age youngsters should realize the important role a successful youth center can play. It is only natural for young people to want to be with others of their own ages and to have a place to meet, chat and have fun in general.

Teen age youngsters cannot be entertained with childhood games, and still they are not ready to take up the more stable and less energetic life of adults. And for this reason they are happier when they are together doing the things which might appeal to them at the moment whether this happens to be talking together, playing dominoes or cards or ping pong, or merely drinking a coke and listening to the latest record of Harry James.

In order for a person to grow up normally and happily, he must learn how to get along with other people, and he must be accepted by them. In short, he must be liked; and to be liked he must be around many, many people and learn how to act, how to talk courteously yet without shyness, and how to express his personality and sense of humor.

Young people have a tendency to place themselves in one particular group of friends, and from here they often become cliquish and sometimes snobbish without even meaning to be. But if Tiger Town is patronized by most of the teen agers, it will help break down this barrier and it will help more youngsters grow up without having felt left out of school activities.

But the complete success of the youth center will not be determined entirely by whether or not parents approve of their youngsters going to Tiger Town. A lot of it will depend upon each individual student himself. Unless the student is interested and wants to be friendly when he goes to the center, he can't expect people to beg him to have a good time.

Yet the teen agers should caution themselves against being over aggressive. A person who is too loud, too boisterous is neither cute nor impressive.

Often times youngsters are so anxious for attention and so anxious to be noticed that they will go to any extreme to find it—even to the extent of damaging property. Slaton students should remember that obtaining a youth center has taken a great deal of work, effort, planning and hard-to-get money; and a lot of people have worked hard to get it for them. Much of the furniture in the building is used furniture, and unless it is taken care of it will not last long.

It must be remembered that Tiger Town belongs to Slaton youths. They must develop a sense of responsibility toward it, and must have the desire to keep it a place to be enjoyed.

Slaton Needs More Industries . . .

What would happen to Slaton should the railroad shops close down and the Division headquarters be moved away is a question that has been coming up at intervals ever since the town was founded.

It is probable that the Santa Fe would have a tough time moving the Division headquarters if they should want to do so however there is no indication that any such plans are being contemplated. With building materials at the present prices and real estate equally as costly there is little or no danger of such a thing happening, however the closing down or practical closing down of the shops is another proposition. With diesel engines coming more and more into use the type of shop that is in Slaton will become more and more obsolete and should diesels become universal in use then the shops here will likely become inactive. To some extent the diesels have already had marked effect on the shop here.

It is estimated that from a fourth to one half of the business activity in Slaton is dependent upon the Santa Fe. It is admittedly not a good thing for any town or community to be dependent entirely, or to a major extent upon any one industry and Slaton is dependent upon the Santa Fe railroad. True not as much as at one time but still too much to be able to easily stand a set back that could come from any radical changes in the operation of the railroad here.

Slaton has an excellent farm market, several big industries that are built upon cotton production, but the town needs still more to be self supporting and not at the mercy of the railroad and the business interests of the town should endeavor to interest one or more industries to come to Slaton or if this cannot be done the business men of the town should band together and investigate the possibility of investing in something that would keep the business activity of the town up regardless of other activities.

Good Produce Can Be Raised Here . . .

It would seem that the South Plains and the Panhandle with its prolific land would be in a position to produce much if not all of the better quality vegetables that are consumed in these territories but this does not seem to be the case.

There are no better onions grown that can be raised on the South Plains but most of the onions consumed in this area are brought in, carrots grow prolifically on the South Plains, but our carrots come from the valley, Irish potatoes are raised commercially on the South Plains but most of these items draw better prices than the same items do in other sections. We do not get the top grade in these items and they do not come to us at all when the market is short on vegetables.

Either there is more money in raising cotton and grain or there is too much work in truck growing in this area. This condition will not likely be so always and some day this section will be a vast truck garden. This may come before most people think it will and when it does folks out here will get far better fruits and vegetables than are now available.

SLATON ROTARY CLUB CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Way back on February 19, 1925, a group of men joined together to organize a Rotary Club to be known officially as "Slaton Rotary Club Number 1925."

Numbering twenty-five in strength, the charter members included Allan J. Payne, the only remaining charter member with the club, Roy McCurtid, John Davis, Robert H. Tudor, John J. Ross, Floyd C. Rector, Frank Lanham, Will Abbie, Alex DeLong, Tom Overby, Jim Wood, Sam E. Staggs, Roy A. Baldwin, Arch Owen, Jack Calloway, Ben Smith, Harry McKirahan, Frank Miller, John W. Hood, Harry G. Stokes, Pitt Pittman, Joe Teague, Jr., Fred Anton, Bob Murray, and Bill Clark.

The group first met in the I. O. O. F. hall, with R. J. (Bob) Murray as the first president. From there they moved to the basement of the Methodist church, and finally to the club house where they are now meeting.

During these past years, many civic undertakings have been accomplished by the club. For example, they have supplied hospital beds, sponsored various types of Boy Scout work; they took part in acquiring and equipping playground facilities, and innumerable times they have joined with other civic clubs to work on projects benefiting the town. And aside from the organizational aspect of the club, many of its members have individually sponsored civic projects and have done a great deal of charitable work for which recognition was never attained, nor desired.

Past Rotary Presidents include R. H. Murray, 1925; W. H. McKirahan, 1926; Floyd C. (Reck) Rector, 1927; Sam E. Staggs, 1928; John W. Hood, 1929; W. H. (Bill) Smith, 1930; L. A. Wilson, 1931; T. E. (Rod) Roderick, 1932; R. A. Baldwin, 1933; Claud F. (Andy) Anderson, 1934; R. G. Loveless, 1935; W. E. (Everett) Payne, 1936; W. M. (Bill) Cates, 1937; J. A. (Jim) Elliott, 1938; J. H. Brewer, 1939; Charles W. Taylor, 1940; C. C. Hoffman, Jr., 1941; Carl Evans, 1942; Leonard H. Harral, 1943; Odie A. Hood, 1944; W. T. (Bill) Cherry, 1945; Roy A. Mack, 1946; Allan J. Payne, 1947; Nat D. Heaton, 1948; and Bruce Pember, 1949. J. M. Roddy is the present president. Serving as the club's secretaries have been Floyd C. Rector, 1925; Sam E. Staggs, 1926; Claud Miller,

Neal Wright of the Lubbock Rotary Club is known as the "Daddy of Slaton Rotray Club," as he came to Slaton in 1925 to help the charter members begin the local club.

SLATON ROTARY NOW HAS FIFTY MEMBERS

The Slaton Rotary Club now has fifty active members and several whose names are up for consideration for membership. On several occasions the membership has been over seventy, and it has dropped as low as fifteen.

The Rotarian With Perfect Attendance

This week the members of the Slaton Rotary Club are celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization, the club having been organized in 1925 by 25 charter members. Of these 25 Allan Payne is the only one who is still a member of the club, having been faithful and active throughout these many years.

Mr. Payne is not a native Texan. He left St. Louis, Michigan, with his parents when he was 13 years old to make his home in Texas at Colorado City. Mr. Payne tells the story that at 4 o'clock in the morning of November 20, 1881, they arrived in Colorado City, and they were greeted by a blinding sand storm from the north.

The family went from the train to the Grand Central Hotel to spend the remainder of the night, only to find the hotel full of transients; so they made their beds on the floor along with a group of cowboys dressed in their boots and chaps. Among them was Winfield Scott, an American lieutenant general. Payne attended the Colorado High school until he was 16, and then he went to work for a certain Uncle Pete Snyder, who went broke during the 1885-1888 drought. After this he accepted a position as Clerk in the Rendrebrook Hotel, and from there he went to clerk for J. S. McCall, a grocerman.

Later Mr. Payne and a Mr. S. N. Hardy bought "What they wanted of the Harper & Colvin Book & Stationary business."

On June 3, 1891, Miss Annie Laurie Stonerod of Sweetwater and Mr. Payne were married. Their children are Forrest L. Payne, now of New York, and Mrs. P. V. Burns of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Mrs. Payne died in 1939.

A short time after Mr. Payne and Mr. Hardy went into business together, Mr. Payne bought Hardy's share, and to the book and stationery business he added dry goods, clothing and shoes. In the early 80's Colorado City was noted as being the fastest growing city in the west. Supplies were sold to the stock men as far north as Amarillo and south to San Angelo. The city boasted of having a population of 6,000 and a street car system extending from the Court House to a park located two miles east of town.

Mr. Payne can tell many interesting stories about these early days. For example he tells of when buffalo bones were brought to town by oxen from the plains and piled high along the T & P tracks for shipment East for various types of commercial use. Always civic-minded, Payne served as Secretary of the School Board for a number of years, and he and his wife were active church people. He tells of how they joined the Methodist Church during a revival held by Abe Mulky at which time they stood in line with 125 other converts. In May, 1917, the late A. B. (Gus) Robertson asked Mr. Payne to come to Slaton to manage the Robertson Dry Goods Company. He sold his business and he and his wife and family began their Slaton residence. He worked with Mr. Robertson until Mr. Robertson's death in 1921 at which time he bought out the heirs' interest and continued the business known as the Payne Dry Good Co.

Since coming to Slaton, Mr. Payne has been busy in civic affairs, having served as Mayor, President of the Slaton Ind. Schools, President of the Retail Merchants Association, President of the Slaton Chamber of Commerce, and Vice President of the Business Men's organization. He was Secretary-Manager of the Chamber of Commerce of Slaton, from 1931 until 1938 when he resigned, to take his wife to Florida for her health.

The Paynes lived in Florida only one year, and shortly after returning to Slaton Mrs. Payne passed away—December, 1939.

Mr. Payne bought out the Thompson Ready to Wear business, changing the name to Payne's Ready to Wear as it is still known today.

Known locally as an accomplished pianist, Mr. Payne's hobby naturally is music. He is often called upon to pinch-hit as song leader and pianist, requests which he always fills both graciously and willingly. In 1925, twenty-five Slaton men formed the local Rotary organization; and during this past quarter century Allan Payne has served as President from July 1946 to July 1947, and he has served twice as secretary—first term lasting from October 1, 1926 to August 25, 1938, and serving the second time between the years January 1941 until 1945. He was also the editor of the Rotary Slatary.

Payne is a 100 per cent Rotarian. No matter where he happened to be, Slaton or Florida, he always found a Rotary Club to attend; in fact, during twenty-five years he has never missed a meeting. It is quite obvious from the above account of his life that Allan Payne has been a decided credit not only to the Rotary Club, but also to Slaton. And for this reason The Slaton Rotary Club gives tribute to Allan Payne, the only active charter member of the Slaton Rotary Club.

THE STORY OF THE ORIGIN OF ROTARY

On Feb. 23, 1905, at the invitation of Paul P. Harris, an attorney, four men met in an office in the Unity building in Chicago, Ill. — Harris, Silvester Schiele, a coal dealer, Gustavus E. Loehr, a mining engineer, and Hiram Shorey, a merchant tailor. It was agreed that evening that these men would organize a club which would be based on the idea that Harris had been developing for the past five years—that men in business could be and should be personal friends.

The following day, Harris interested Harry Ruggles, a printer, in the proposed club. Ruggles in turn interested Will Jenson, real estate dealer. Within a very short time, the club organization was completed at a meeting in Schiele's office, with election of Schiele as the first President, Jenson as corresponding secretary, Shorey as recording secretary and Ruggles as treasurer.

Paul Harris modestly declined any office in the new club, and did not become its president until two years later.

Of the founders of this great international organization, only one members remains alive—Harry Ruggles.

At one of the early meetings a name was suggested—Rotary—by the founder, Harris, and was adopted. The name, Rotary, was prompted by the continued practice of meeting weekly in the offices and places of business of the members until the cycle had been completed by the rotation in regular order.

At these early meetings papers on business were read. Harry Ruggles introduced the idea of community singing, which practice is followed by many types of organizations throughout the United States and is universal in the Rotary International today. Paul Harris frequently suggested stunts to enliven the meetings. At the first Rotary convention in Chicago in 1910 there was formed an organization as The National Association of Rotary Clubs, and Paul H. Harris was elected the president, and thus became the first to serve Rotary in a capacity more than president of the club of which he was a member.

The official motto: "Service Above Self—He Profits Most Who Serves Best," was adopted at the Portland, Oregon convention in 1911. Rotary that year had the amazing number of 28 clubs with 2500 members.

In 1912 Rotary dropped the title of a National association and became International in scope and officially adopted the title of Association of International Rotary Clubs and once again Paul P. Harris became the first head of the International organization.

It was in this year that the official magazine of Rotary was adopted and assigned the name of "The Rotarian."

Percy Hodgson of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, is the present President of Rotary International. He rules an organization of more than 7,000 clubs located in 83 countries throughout the entire world.

"DADDY OF ROTARY" AT BIG BANQUET

Neil Wright, well known business man of Lubbock, is familiarly known as the "Daddy" of the Slaton Rotary Club. Mr. Wright was very active in the formation of the Slaton Rotary Club when the Lubbock Rotary Club sponsored the establishment of the Slaton organization. Mr. Wright was present at the 25th Anniversary Banquet last night where he made a brief talk.

Equine Sleeping Sickness

Young horses appear to be more susceptible to equine encephalomyelitis (sleeping sickness) than older ones.

Testing Dairy Cattle

Brucellosis testing of dairy cattle in the future may be done by checking the milk rather than the cow. This method, known as the ring test, is now being studied by the U.S. department of agriculture.

Poultry Note

Large pens are one way a poultryman can save time and labor. They permit the operator to place the dry mash feeders in line, to use an overhead carrier, to concentrate the nests in one or two locations or to arrange a nesting room.

Women and Inventions

Although the greatest number of inventions by women are concerned with the home, recreation and beauty, women have branched out into fields once occupied solely by men. For example, a woman is the inventor of a device to lessen the noise of elevated trains and an appliance to consume smoke and odor from locomotives and factories.

Washington's Cherry Trees

George Washington may have chopped down his father's cherry tree but it's unlikely that the trees George himself planted at Mount Vernon will suffer any such fate. They are even wired for protection against lightning.

For Paint Removal

When paint-and-varnish remover has been used on a surface to remove the old coating entirely, the surface should be cleaned thoroughly with turpentine, mineral spirits or wax remover and subsequently treated as a previously uncoated surface.

Horn Fly Control

The use of DDT spray for control of horn flies on beef cattle is an approved practice. Spraying should be performed often enough to prevent annoyance of animals by flies.

Alfred Russell Wallace
A completely independent theory of evolution, paralleling Charles Darwin's, was simultaneously developed in 1858 during an Indonesian research journey by Alfred Russell Wallace, another great British naturalist.

Coconut Palm
Date and coconut palms are sources of food, and houses in tropical countries are thatched with fan-like palm leaves. By-products of the coconut palm include oil for soap and margarine. Sago starch is made from roots of the palm tree, of which there are more than 1,500 varieties.

Rotary Charter Found At Last

While planning the 25th Anniversary program and banquet the question of where the Slaton Rotary Charter had been stored came up for considerable discussion.

After quite a search, President of the Club, J. M. Roddy, found it in a frame on the wall of the Slaton Club House, where it had been hanging for many years. President Roddy made a pitiful pleas that this incident be not brought before the club.

Twenty-Four Men Were Charter Members Of The Slaton Rotary

The first meeting of the Slaton Rotary Club was held on the second floor of the Teague building in April, 1925, and this was the place for the meeting for several years. A number of other places were used, but when the Slaton Club House was built the meetings have been held there ever since. The charter members of the Slaton Rotary Club, as recorded in 1925, were as follows: Roy McCurdy, John J. Ross, Frank Lanham, Jim Wood, Allan J. Payne, Jack Calloway, John W. Hood, Fred Anton, John Davers, Will Abbie, Alex DeLong, Sam E. Stagg, Arch Owen, W. H. McKirahan, Pit Pittman, R. H. Murray, R. H. (Bob) Tudor, F. C. Rector, Tom Overby, R. A. THE SCOPE OF ROTARY IS INTERNATIONAL

Rotary International is the world-wide, united organization of all Rotary clubs and has responsibility for the establishment, encouragement, assistance and administrative supervision of its member clubs and for the propagation of the objects of Rotary. It serves as a clearing house for the study of their problems and by helpful suggestions but not compulsion aids in the standardization of their practices and of such community service activities as have been widely demonstrated by many clubs as worth while and within the objects of Rotary.

Slaton Rotary Is Active In Civic Work And Plans

The Slaton Rotary Club and its members, both individually and as a group, have sponsored a wide variety of activities such as securing purebred hogs for breed stock for FHA boys, a plan that was carried out by A. C. Strickland, sr.; the Club sponsored a Boy Scout troop and Bruce Pember, one of the past presidents, was Scoutmaster for a number of years. Hundreds of excellent educational and informative programs as well as musical programs have been brought before the club members; the school teachers are entertained once each year by the Club and the Rotarians wives, known as Rotary Anns, are entertained at regular intervals. The Slaton Rotary Club meals are served each week by Mrs. J. E. Eckert. The choice food she serves has been a drawing card to bring many out of town visitors to the Club each week. Mrs. Eckert was presented with Rotary Club recently and every member of the Slaton Rotary Club sings the praises of Mrs. Eckert.

Rotarians Have Novel Programs

One of the features of the regular meetings of the Slaton Rotary Club is, "Thoughts of the Day" given by different members each meeting.

from an old Chinese proverb: "There is so much good in the worst of us and so much bad in the best of us that it behooves none of us to speak ill of the rest of us."

This idea is the essence of the Rotary movement and in keeping with this slogan, "He profits most who serves best."

What Rotary Clubs Endeavor To Do

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located—in the U. S. A. or the Union of South Africa, in Sweden or Switzerland, in China or Chile, in any of more than 70 countries and geographical regions—the activities of Rotary Clubs are based on the same general objectives.

True, Rotarians meet and they eat at weekly luncheons or dinners—but their activities go far beyond these meetings. Rotarians find many outlets for their activities, both in committee work and as individuals. Rotarians are active in civic work, in community welfare, in leading boys and girls into good citizenship, in the betterment of rural-urban understanding, in helping boys clubs and youth movements, in giving counsel in occupational guidance, and in many other useful activities.

The Rotary Club does not endeavor to promote civic activities rightfully belonging to other organizations, but every Rotarian, as an individual, is urged to participate in all activities which make his community a better place in which to live.

Rotarians are active in raising the standards of their own businesses and professions, and of their entire vocation.

Throughout the world, Rotarians of diverse nationalities and races are working together through correspondence, personal contacts at Rotary International Conventions and in their travels, and through study of the history, economy and culture of other countries, for the advancement of international understanding, good will and peace.

CHANUTE, KAN. — Mrs. Bell Leighty is getting the "feel" of a rifle as she looks forward to a big game hunt in Africa. She is 73 years old and the mother of Osa Johnson, world-famous hunter and explorer, who will lead the first helicopter expedition into Africa in a few weeks. Mrs. Leighty, who always dreamed of such a trek when her daughter and her husband Martin were setting off on Safari, will join Osa in June. After explorations in Africa, she plans a trip around the world.

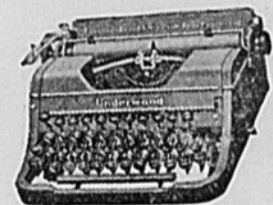

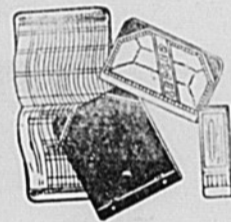

AFGHANISTAN — Named Russia's top secret agent in the United States by Senator McCarthy (R. Wis.) Owen Lattimore (above) cables that McCarthy's charges are "pure moonshine." He further says he'll be in the United States in a few days to answer the Senator's charges.
