Opening Of Baptist Educational Building Scheduled For March 18

Barring any unforeseen complications, the new educational building of the First Baptist Church will be formally opened on March 18, less than one year after construction began. The opening of the building will be a fulfilled dream of the pastor, Rev. J. T. Bolding and his congregation, who have worked diligently for several years to make possible the building of the $94,000 brick structure.

The three story building is located directly south of the old church, at 255 S. 9th Street. A new sanctuary is to be built "sometime within the next five years" onto the east side of the education building. When plans have been completed and it is possible to construct the sanctuary, the east wall of the educational building will be torn out, which will join the choir with the sanctuary. Big, double door entrances are located at each end of the east side of the building.

The third floor of the building, to be used as the young people's department later on, will be used now for primary work. There are two assembly rooms, each surrounded with four classrooms, and joined by another classroom for a passageway. The south end of the floor will be occupied by the young people's classes and the north end will be for the Junior Adult classes. A dressing room is provided on each side of the Baptistry, with stairs leading down into the Baptistry. A large study is located on the southwest corner for the pastor.

The church office, with a heavy glass window containing small cut out places for communication to keep traffic out of the office as much as possible, is located on the second floor. It will be used by the church secretary to keep all records of the church. At the present time, the secretary shares a small office with the pastor, in the old building. Also, on the second floor are two large nursery rooms to be equipped with several cribs, and other nursery furniture. A robe room is located on each side of the choir. Until the sanctuary is built, the choir will be used by the young people as a meeting place.

The basement will be the meeting place of the Junior and Intermediate departments. The large banquet hall can be divided into two separate assembly rooms by a Modernfold, leatherette, sliding door. The banquet hall is large enough to accommodate from 150 to 200 people. Four large classrooms are equipped with the modernfold doors, so that two classes can meet there without disturbance.

The kitchen in the basement is a large, all white room with cabinets built almost all around the room. A large serving window, with sliding doors, opens onto the banquet hall. A new refrigerator, cooking stove and food warmer have been purchased and are ready to be installed as soon as the kitchen is completed. All silverware and dishes have been donated by various organizations in the church.

Each floor is equipped with separate heating units. The basement and third floor each have one heating unit and the second floor has two so that each end of the floor may be heated separately.

The rooms in the new educational building will be painted with light, two-tone shades. For many years the local Baptists have been overcrowded in their present church building. It has been necessary to have Sunday School classes in the balcony, overlooking the main floor of the sanctuary, without any means of separating the classes. There has been no convenient place in the church for social functions. Some of the younger groups in the church have been meeting in temporary Sunday School rooms which have been erected to the north of the main building.

Approximately $4,000 has been spent on new furniture for the new educational building.

The construction committee for the new church unit includes J. J. Maxey, J. C. Smith, and R. C. Patton. O. O. Crow is serving as finance chairman, with various members of the church helping him.

TEACHERS IN DISTRICT 4 TO MEET IN LUBBOCK

The District 4 unit of the State Teachers Association will meet in Lubbock March 9 and 10. Classes will be dismissed in the Slaton Schools on Friday, March 9, so that the teachers will be able to attend the meeting.

HOME BURNS IN THE FLATS

Fire destroyed a small home in the flats last Wednesday morning. It was occupied by a colored family. The cause of the blaze was not given by the fire department.

MAIL SERVICE WILL IMPROVE

The new arrangement for bringing first class mail and newspapers, by mail truck from Sweetwater, has not worked out as well as it was hoped it would, said Postmaster Scudder this week. However the service is improving and will eventually be much better than it has been in the past.

Whether or not the new arrangements on the truck between Slaton and Sweetwater is a part of the new plans for mail service for the entire nation was not known by the Postmaster. He said that the reason the service, now in operation, has not been as good as it was hoped it would be is because the mail clerks and men who are endeavoring to render the service have not been able to get the kinks worked out yet.

One Act Plays To Be Presented By Speech Students

Mrs. J. B. Caldwell, instructor of speech in Slaton High School, has announced that a group of one-act plays will be presented in the High School Auditorium the evening of March 2. A group of local people will judge the plays to select the best one to represent the school in the Interscholastic League meeting which will be some time in March.

The plays to be presented are "On Vengeance Height" with Shirley Smith, Paula Maxey, Russell Keys, and Ezra Corley; "The McIntosh Sisters" with Betty Dodson, Luna Lee Bain, and Lyle Berry; and "The Late Mrs. Bunker" with Peggy McKaughan, Doris Bartlett, Bess Ann Parker, Bonnie Taylor, and Teddy Fondy.

There will be a small admission charge to attend the plays, to pay the royalties due on them.

In addition to the one-act play, Mrs. Caldwell hopes to be able to send Bobby Norris, as a declamation student, to the Interscholastic meet.

Lions To Sponsor Show For March 30

President of the Slaton Lions Club, Bland Tomlinson, said this week that the club has signed a contract to sponsor a Magician's show to be given here on the 30th day of March. The performer is known as the Great Gabel and reports are that he is top amusement.

The Lions Club is planning on stirring things up around Slaton before long.

Claude Davis, Santa Fe Roadmaster, is home recovering from a severe attack of flu.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Johns have gone to San Benito for an extended visit with her daughters.

Vardy Attends Administrators Meeting In N. J.

SUPT. LEE VARDY

Superintendent Lee Vardy was among forty-one school administrators from the South Plains-Panhandle area leaving Lubbock and Amarillo last Thursday to attend the annual meeting of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, N. J.

The group, laden with Texas souvenirs, went first to Chicago and New York, arriving in Atlantic City Monday for the first day of the convention. The souvenirs were to be passed out in the "Texas Room" in the Traymore Hotel in the convention city.

Supt. R. W. Matthews of Lubbock was reservations chairman for this district and was one of the hosts in the Texas Room on February 22.

Season Finished For Miss Tigers

The Slaton Tiger Girl's basketball team played their last game Monday night, February 19, at the Lovelland Tournament and were defeated by Cooper 32 to 19. This score closes out the season for the Miss Tigers with 13 wins and 8 losses.

Miss Eva Jo Reid, the Miss Tigers' coach, stated Tuesday that the lettermen for this year had not been decided upon and would probably be announced either this week or next week. Also, it has not been decided upon about the sweaters for the lettermen as yet.

Miss Reid announced, too, that volleyball workouts would begin next week. Those known to be coming out for the team at this time are Ruth Punkoney, Joyce Voigt, Kay Porter, Reta Neuf, Betty Sue Clack, Arlene Tefertiller, Alice Neuf, Linda German, Jerry Short, Joyce Mann, and Patsy McCormick.

Mrs. I. C. Tucker and Mrs. E. E. Culver returned February 13 after a two weeks visit with their sons, Pfc. Joe T. Tucker and Pfc. Tipton M. Culver, in San Diego, Calif. While in California Mrs. Tucker and Mrs. Culver with their sons, visited relatives in Brawley and Los Angeles.

TAX RECEIPTS ARE GREATER

Collector of State and County taxes for the Slaton area, F. A. Drewry, reported that 837 poll taxes for 1950 were paid during the collecting season. This is considerable more than the number paid for the previous year. This is unusual as a number of state elections were held last year and there are no elections scheduled for this year except the election for mayor and two commissioners and a school board election.

Mr. Drewry also reported that the payment on auto licenses is coming along nicely, there have been 219 passenger licenses and slightly over 100 commercial licenses taken out so far this year. It is expected that the local office will handle over 3400 licenses for 1951.

The exact number of poll taxes and auto licenses handled through the Slaton office for last year is not on record here, but Mr. Drewry says that he is sure that both classifications are much heavier this year than they have ever been in the history of the county.

Heart Fund Drive Ends Next Week

Heart diseases kill more people than all other major diseases together, has been proved by a survey conducted by the American Heart Association, and until 1948 there was no organized research into the causes of the various heart ailments. There was no known cure for such illnesses. A few scientists had probed briefly into the problem on their own, but their discoveries were known only to a few. In 1948 the American Heart Association, backed by other organizations including the American Legion, began an extensive campaign for funds. Now, three years later, the situation has almost reversed itself. Better treatment is available to sufferers of all three major heart afflictions, survival is higher, and in the cases of rheumatic fever, actual prevention is occurring.

Funds for the Heart Association must come from John Q. Public. That is why in February of each year, you see red, heart-shaped boxes in the stores of Slaton, placed there by the local American Legion Post, so that you may make your donations to this worthy cause. The campaign will end next week for this year, and you are urged to support the research to find the cause of this killer of millions, and to eventually bring about a cure for it.

Part of the money raised in Slaton will be kept in this local area to fight the disease here, and part will go to the Texas Foundation, and the rest to the National Heart Foundation.

Heart disease is no respecter of persons—someone in your family may be stricken—so have a heart, and give generously to the Heart Fund this week.

WEATHER REPORT

The West Texas Gas Co. reports the maximum temperature since last Wednesday to be 82 degrees last Saturday, and the low was 12 degrees on Thursday.

Allan Payne, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. P. B. Burns, in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, was expected to return home this week end.

Mrs. Kirby Scudder is confined to her home with an attack of flu.

Prizes To Be Given First Person To Name Date For First Inch Rain

Players Going Into Service May Keep Slaton Out Of The Oil Belt League

Missionary Will Speak In Slaton

OTIS GATEWOOD

The speaker for the Sunday morning service at the Slaton Church of Christ will be Otis Gatewood, a missionary who has recently returned from Germany. Mr. Gatewood has been serving in Germany for about eight years. He is in charge of a Home for Boys in Frankfurt, Germany.

Spring Practice Starts In March

Spring football practice will start the latter part of February or the first of March, Coach Tony Poulos announced Tuesday. The exact date is not certain as yet, however. Immediately after the spring football practice is over, track training will start and possibly baseball. However, Coach Poulos seemed doubtful as to whether or not the Tigers would have a baseball team this year as most of the schools in this area are trying to do away with this particular sport.

Coach Poulos has been in Houston for the past several days attending a Drivers Training School at the University of Houston, where he observed the Cougars' spring football practice. The Coach said that the Cougars' plays and formations are very similar to those used by Slaton, and that he hopes to put some things he noticed while in Houston to use when the Tigers' spring practice starts.

News Of Slaton Men In Service

Pfc. William Wilson is stationed at Keesler Field in Mississippi. He reports that he may be there until June. He is in Radar School. Pfc. Wilson has been in the air corps since August of 1950.

Pfc. Tipton M. Culver has recently finished his course in field telephone at San Diego, Calif., where he is stationed with the Marines. He has been transferred to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for further training.

Harley Patterson, local high school boy, received a letter from Jerry Lovelady last week in which he stated that he was going to spend last week end sight seeing in New York City. Jerry is stationed in North Carolina with the Marines. He says he is having a much easier time now than he did in boot camp.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Buxkemper have returned from Colorado Springs where they visited their son, Pvt. Leon Buxkemper, who has just finished his basic training and is now on advance Engineer Construction Training in Camp Carson. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Strube and Roy and Martha Ann.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Barnes and daughter, Glenda of Killeen, Texas spent last week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brookshire.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Browder, treasurer of the P. & S. F., spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Wagner enroute to Amarillo after visiting in Houston, Texas.

Due to the fact that a number of the Oil Belt League players who were on the Slaton team last season, have been drafted, and because other former members are likely to be taken into the armed forces, it is very doubtful that Slaton will have a team in the league this next season. In fact, says Bland Tomlinson, president of the Slaton Lions Club, it is likely that there will not be an Oil Belt League this next season.

The Lions' Ball park still has a considerable indebtedness and the directors of the club have decided that the lighting system for the park should be sold in order to reduce the indebtedness as the equipment would likely not be used for several years and would be useless if allowed to stay out in the weather and allowed to deteriorate, it is also a target for vandals.

The park will be rented to any ball clubs that want to use it, and the grand stand, fences and other equipment, at the park, will be kept in repair so that it will remain a public amusement place for the future.

First Showing On South Plains Of Western Thriller

The picture is an historical thriller filmed to excite you as no other picture of its type has ever done. The Slaton Theatre is proud to present to the Slaton audiences this great epic of the true, rough West on the screen before any other South Plains theatre audience has a chance to see it. To bring you added enjoyment and thrills, the movie has been filmed in Technicolor.

For an enjoyable evening for thrills and excitement as well as an educational picture, don't fail to see "The Great Missouri Raid."

OFFICIALS MAKE INSPECTION

E. P. Dudley, Assistant General Manager of the Western Lines, and J. W. Walter, District Engineer of the Western Lines, both of Amarillo, with Superintendent H. O. Wagner and R. D. Bisbee, Division Engineer, of the Slaton Division of the Santa Fe, made an inspection tour of the new construction work that is in progress between Slaton and Snyder this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Church accompanied by Mrs. S. S. Forrest, are leaving this week for the valley where they will join Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Legg. The party plans to do some fishing and also to take a trip into Mexico.

Week's Question . . . . .

Slaton Women Applaud Practical, Conservative '51 Spring Fashions

Spring is just around the corner, and with spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love, while a woman's fancy turns to thoughts of clothes. There is always a feeling of anticipation just before the spring season makes its grand entrance. And each spring the styles have changed, bringing a new outlook to all women.

Wondering what this year's spring fashions will be, we interviewed some of the ladies in Slaton who are well informed on the subject, "What do you think of the new spring fashions?" Here are their comments:

Mrs. Tom Turner, dressmaker, said, "I think they are very pretty." She especially likes the length of the skirts, which she describes as the nicest we've had in a long time. All in all she is very pleased with the spring styles. She likes their simplicity and versatility.

Lois Conner, at C. R. Anthony's Department Store, firmly believes that this year's fashions are much better than they were last year. She agrees with Mrs. Turner that they are not as extreme as in

Slaton Firms Want To Know When The Drouth Will Be Over

It's time folks should take more interest in the weather and the publisher of the Slatonite is offering a prize of five dollars or as the dollar is familiarly known these days, five Truman nickels, and six months subscription to the Slatonite, to the person who names the date on which an inch or more of rain will fall in Slaton or within five miles of the town.

Other prizes that will be given the winner will be a pair of galoshes, for a man, woman or child, by the C. R. Anthony Co., a rain hat for any member of the family by the Clay Oates Department Store and a one month pass to the Slaton Theatre by the Childress Theatre Co.

The following rules are to be followed: the prediction must be made at least two days before the rain occurs and the person who comes nearest to the exact time of the day that the rain starts will be awarded the prizes. The predictions may either be mailed or brought to the Slatonite office, any one anywhere may enter the contest but remember the prediction must be in the Slatonite office two days before the rain occurs so those who wish to enter should send in their predictions right away, there is no telling when the rains may start.

Only two predictions per person per month will be allowed. The rain must fall to the amount of one inch within a period of eight hours time and the measurement of the amount of rain to fall must be witnessed by at least two other people. All that will be needed will be a statement from some one in the immediate vicinity that as much as one inch of rain has fallen in that area within 8 hours time.

This contest has no strings to it, it's done in fun and with the hopes that some one will win the prizes real soon.

If there are any other business firms that want to offer prizes to make the contest more interesting and help the little game along the Slatonite will be glad to have them join, phone 20 and tell us to add your prize to the list of premiums to be given.

FYI—Recently, H. L. McElroy reported that Gaines County now has more than 300 irrigation wells. Counting each well to irrigate 100 acres, that adds up to 30,000 acres of irrigated land. Plans are being made to put thousands of extra acres in crops here this year. McElroy estimates that if conditions are favorable, at least a hundred thousand acres will be planted in cotton in the county in 1951. That's nearly triple the amount planted last year.
 —Gaines County News

Side Views—The farmers in this area are beginning to worry over prospects of the 1951 crop since we have had very little moisture. We usually receive a fair snow-fall each winter, with a few showers. However, this year and the latter part of '50 we practically received nothing in the way of moisture. Most of the old-timers believe that it will rain yet. Could be they're right! Let's hope so.
 —The Lorenzo Tribune

Editorial—If some good mass psychologist could figure out a way to get a genuine "peace scare" trickling down the grapevine, you would see many of the "scarce items" disgorge from the public warehouse over the nation, the "tightness" would disappear overnight. There would be a rush to get out from under automobiles, newsprint, refrigerators, television sets and many, many other things that now bulge the walls of the warehouses. People, and it's human nature national peril or not, are holding on to such things in the hope of a profit as the war scarcity takes firmer grip on the nation's vital supplies.
 —The Floyd County Hesperian

Trends—We noticed this week where some writer was lamenting that we do not have statesmen like Abraham Lincoln anymore. We still have them, brother, but the trouble is—we don't elect them.
 —The Crosbyton Review

Drifting Sands—We've never seen anything catch fire like the street paving once it got started. Couldn't get any one to sign on the dotted line at first, now everybody is trying to get in on the project. We can't blame them. There's nothing that makes a town look better, than paved streets. It adds a degree of permanency that nothing else does.
 —The Andrews County News

Sketchbook—One local businessman who tells an impressive story about catching little fish with bigger fish for bait also impressed city officials with the enormity of his water bill. Of one thing he can be sure, even the mayor will grant that $3.18 is a large water bill for a house—during a depression.
 —The Olton Enterprise

Annegrams—Stalking, around last week, bundled up in everything we possessed, in an effort to keep warm we couldn't help but think of our servicemen in Korea. Practically every letter has mentioned the extreme cold. Robert Weed said, "we freeze all the time." The awful part is they aren't out long enough to get from our warm homes to warm offices and vice versa.

 —The Morton Tribune

Off the Keyboard—Terry county schools will join in the statewide observance of Public School Week, beginning March 5, with lodges and civic groups cooperating with the schools in the program.

Out on A Limb—Valentine boxes always charmed me in school. They are always decorated up with red and white and silver crepe paper, as dainty as an angel square. Some kids make Valentines of the same type, but not me.

I always thought it was much more fun to drop in small snakes dead beetles or even horned frogs if I could save one until February. Of course, if the class didn't have a Valentine box, it was even better to put a small garter snake in the teacher's top drawer. I always did like to give presents.
 —The Post Dispatch

Drifting Sands—Quite a contrast between this Thursday and last. Last week the Weatherman was predicting that the mercury would skid to 15 below. We wrote our story to that effect and kept a thermometer out in front of the building until 3 a. m. Friday and the lowest was four above.

This Thursday afternoon it must be way up in the 70's. Just like Spring, and all that word implies. Women are getting a gleam in their eye as they look at the new spring finery, and the men pad up and down the street with a sort of a restless expression on their faces. Some are coming right out with it, "betchya they're bitin' down on the Concho."

With thoughts like that, Spring cannot be far away. Old Mother Nature is a grand old Dame. She knows her many children like a book. She does out the cold weather until you think you are going to freeze to death, and then warms you up until you smile and say, "ain't it fine?"
 —The Andrews County News

Editorial Comments—The Panhandle scored another victory in Austin during the past week when the State Highway Commission awarded a contract to pave the road in the Palo Duro State Park. It was not an easy victory. Senator Grady Hazlewood stood by the Park and in standing for the paving, performed another great service to the Panhandle.

No one ever questioned the necessity of the road. Perhaps the contract is a little high, but let it be remembered that this road is no ordinary road. The construction is technical, over rough terrain. The landscape will be wonderful when the road is completed.

Let's all get busy and plan for the biggest event that has ever been pulled off in the Palo Duro when the road is completed. Folks from all over this area should be on hand to ride down the new pavement when the road is completed. Instead of getting their gizzards thoroughly jolted from the ride, they will view with pleasure the beauties of the landscape. Watch for the opening date and be on hand!

When the electric power goes off in an emergency, auxiliary power for the milking machine is available from the tractor, truck, or car. I. E. ## Slaton's A Good Town, But . . .

The minister of the Church of Christ in Lubbock made a talk before the Rotary Club at the meeting of the organization Thursday noon, February 15. The minister began his talk with the observation that Slaton makes a different impression upon him than do other communities of the same size or of greater population. Slaton, said Minister Spain, has an air of progress and activity, he has the feeling, when visiting in Slaton, that the people here are endeavoring to build a sound, God Fearing community where the home life is of chief importance and he predicted that Slaton would continue to progress as a community, of people who prize clean living and a faith in the future.

These are not the exact words he used, but one had the feeling that Slaton impressed him as the kind of town most folks believe a town should be.

Some of these compliments are due Slaton, and we as citizens might accept them, but there are some things that are being overlooked and will eventually keep Slaton from being the kind of town that it should be unless something is done.

There are not likely to be many opportunities for great expansion in either large homes or in impressive business buildings, but the people who own homes and business buildings, that are already built, can and should keep them in top repair as long as possible. There are more old awnings swaying in the wind in Slaton, that remind one of the early nineteen hundreds, than there are in most any West Texas town. There are more old, faded signs on buildings that were put there by firms now long out of business than one would likely find on the walls of the ghost towns in the mining districts in Nevada and Colorado, and the need for naming the streets so that strangers can find their way around, is most distressing.

Unless the entire community is kept abreast the weak spots will stand out more and more and be harder and harder to rectify as times goes on.

Slaton needs a planning board for the future while there is still time to work towards a worth while end and to keep from making errors that many other towns have made at the stage of growth that our town is now.

It's Not Easy To Loaf . . .

The Slaton American Legion is sponsoring Heart Week in Slaton and the spotlight is on the danger of heart trouble. Dr. W. H. Gordon, of Lubbock, who has devoted a great deal of time to the national campaign to do something about heart trouble, says that the fact that most men and a great many women are neglecting the duty of taking vacations at least once each year are doing themselves a great injury and are contributing to the increase in heart trouble in the United States.

This is probably good advice. Some folks find it possible to take regular vacations, but most men feel that the cost of taking time off is too great under present day circumstances.

The actual cost in dollars and cents so far as the vacations are concerned might not be so great, but it is getting so that more and more of the work of operating the businesses fall upon the shoulders of one individual and when he leaves loss in production is greater than the cost of vacations. If the good doctor could work out this problem for the business men then he could help the heart campaign a great deal.

To be a good loafer takes a lot of training, and the man who has spent a large part of his life in active work seldom wants to quit, regardless of financial standing.

There is no middle ground for most folks, they must work long and hard or do nothing. Its easy to believe that travel or some light hobby can take the place of active work, but those who try it soon are the scourge of their former friends, a misery to themselves and a trial to their family.

It could be that a lot of research should be made as to how to make people happy, particularly in their middle and later life. The old heart gets troubled in more ways than one and the kind of medicine it needs is something that will take worry off the mind and nervousness out of the old system.

Do Readers Want Editorials?

Do weekly newspaper readers appreciate their editorial pages? Lowell Nye, editor-manager of the Harvard Herald, knows—now.

Two weeks ago, in a despondent spell, he wrote: "If little or no comment is received on this subject, the editorial page is likely to be dropped. That's the way we feel about it."

He has changed his mind. Letters to the editor flowed into Mr. Nye immediately. Typically, they read:

"Please do not drop your grand editorial page. Whether we agree with you or not on all topics, we are glad of a chance for open discussion. It's a great thing for our town . . ."

"It is no easy job to write good editorials but I think it is a public service which a good newspaperman should be willing to give to his community. Editorials need not be dogmatic, and should not be, but if they are the result of careful study they will help many people to clarify their own thinking even if the same people do not always agree with the editor's conclusions. I think you should continue this feature as a live part of a live newspaper . . ."

"Editors usually are targets for criticism. You are doing a good job for my old home town. Carry on . . ."

"It would be tragedy for you to discontinue editorials. They are the most important part of any newspaper. They represent the freedom of speech which should be more precious to us now with so many of our enemies wanting to deprive us of it . . ."

"What's this I hear about you discontinuing editorials? What does your fair city want to do—crawl back into its small town hole?"

"A community newspaper with an editorial policy and an editor who writes what he sincerely thinks is as indispensable to a community as the air it breathes . . ."

Snowed under by the reader's protests, Mr. Nye decided he feels "more at liberty to go ahead with our discussions."

If you, as a reader of the Slatonite, have reached this point, the editor of this paper would appreciate a post card, a phone call or a personal comment on whether you are interested in the editorials in the Slatonite. It's no small task to grind them out and he finds himself in the same mood that prompted Editor Nye in Illinois. Your comments will be appreciated.

Well, sir, the time has come for you to take to heart these three words of sensible advice—"SMART BUY'S BUICK."

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

This week's recipe is for a Date-Nut Cake which sounds simply scrumptious to your humble reporter. It was obtained from Mrs. J. W. Bagby, who got it from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Bagby says she has never had a failure with it, and feels sure that it will become a favorite of anyone who tries it.

Here are your directions:
 Pour 1 cup of boiling water over 1 cup of chopped dates and let it set. Gather the following ingredients:

1 cup dates
 1 tsp. White Karo
 3 cups sugar
 1 cup sweet milk
 1 tsb. butter or oleo
 1 tsp. vanilla
 2 cups nuts
 pinch of salt

Put ingredients in sauce pan and cook until the mixture forms a firm ball. Add vanilla. Beat until icing will spread good.

Mrs. Bagby used to bake Devil's Food more than any other cake, but since she has started using the Date-Nut Recipe above, her husband insists that she bake nothing else. It is so rich, she says, that a little of it goes a long way.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Bagby came to Slaton when just children and have "grown up with the town." He is Chief Clerk to the Superintendent at the Santa Fe.

Mrs. Bagby has little time for hobbies, as her time is spent trying "to keep the family filled up." They have two children, Janis Kay is 13, and Ronald is nine years old.

SEW AND STITCH CLUB HAS MEETING FEB. 14

The Sew and Stitch Club met Wednesday, February 14, in the home of Mrs. James Cole at 385 E. Panhandle.

Cake and cokes were served to Mesdames Arthur Romines, David Hawk, Roy Hodges, Keith Price, Ira McCarver, James Bollier, and Ray Miller.

The next meeting was scheduled for last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Romines.

On February 19, some members of the club attended the Brunch-club in Lubbock to celebrate the birthdays of two members, and the anniversary of another.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. White spent last Monday with their daughter, Mrs. O. E. Houschin and family of Hale Center.

Miss Haire Named Shower Honoree

Miss Dian Haire, bride-elect of Bobby Connor, was honored at a tea-shower in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Davies, Southland, Tuesday afternoon, February 20. Receiving guests at the door were Mrs. Howton Haire, the honoree, and Mrs. Ray Connor. The serving table was laid with a lace cloth and an arrangement of daisies and red roses. A complete crystal set was used for serving. Miss Zoe Sims presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Jack Myers registered the guests in the bride's book. Mrs. T. H. Basinger and Mrs. Mildred Lokey displayed gifts.

Others in the house party were Mesdames Tom Sims, Jack Burress, Nobel Wynn, Paula Gatski, L. A. Haral, J. H. Brewer, J. S. Walker, Sr., O. O. Crow, Claude Bailey, W. R. Lester, J. R. King, and Sam Martin, and Miss LaVonne Ferguson.

SEED TREATMENT helps turn this into thriving yields.

As a cotton planter, you can expect four-way benefits from one simple operation you can perform on your own farm, or have done for you. It consists of planting seed that has been treated with an organic mercury dust. Its results include:

1. Control of most of the seed rot or decay that reduces your stands before the seeds can sprout.
2. Control of seedling blight caused by bacteria in your soil or seeds that attack the tender seedlings.
3. Control of anthracnose or pink boll disease, another germ-caused ailment that results in smaller crops of poor-grade, spotty cotton.
4. Control of bacterial blight or angular leaf spot that kills your cotton plants or stunts their growth.

Experiment Station figures show yield increases of 5% to 40% as a result of seed treatment. This means up to $12 per acre added to your income. Cost of the chemical amounts to less than 10¢ per acre.

Those who recommend seed treatment stress the fact it should be correctly used—applied to the seed according to directions, and in the right amounts. The cotton planter has too much at stake, they say, to risk cutting corners on the use of less than recommended amounts, or skipping any steps of the fairly simple seed-treating process.

The treatment can be done by many ginners and deliners. Ask your County Agent about the value of seed treatment and where you can get this service in this vicinity.

Sen. Corbin Charges Graham Bill If Passed, Would Harm West Texas

AUSTIN—Passage of the Graham Bill, now the subject of a House of Representatives fight, would cost the counties in the 30th Senatorial District more than $600,000 next year, Sen. Kilmer B. Corbin of Lubbock and Lamesa charged today.

"This bill is mistakenly labeled by its backers as a 'rural roads bill,'" Corbin declared. "Actually it is nothing but a buck-passing bill to make the counties increase property taxes, so the State can avoid passing a natural resource tax bill which would be paid largely by non-Texans."

The Graham Bill, Sen. Corbin explained, would divert from the counties their share of one cent of the State gasoline tax, amounting to more than $8,000,000 next year, and force the counties to raise property taxes so they can keep up rural roads and keep paying on county road bonds.

Sen. Corbin said that figures from the County and District Road Indebtedness Board show that the 24 counties in his district road bond assumption fund and that this year they would receive $620,348. The money must be used in some cases to pay off county road bonds, but most of it goes into actual rural road construction or upkeep, he continued.

"If the Graham Bill passes, then the counties won't get that money, and they'll have to dig it up somewhere," the Senator declared. "And the only place a county can raise money is from property taxes."

to get the names of the boys, and so they say, intended to send them something nice, some home-made candy or something, but the boys would not tell who they were. According to the three women the boys were all regular Lord Chesterfields and we husbands should all emulate them. But I'm warning all women right now that if they expect me to get out on a zero day and fix odd flats up and down the road they should not go out trying to find tea parties here and there, for I'm not going to be out running around. I'm going to be at home by a warm fire worrying about taxes, slow business, and how I'm going to pay the grocery bill.

J. D. Holt, who is the main empty doody over at the Slaton pharmacy reports an unusual incident on which he says there is moral but he was unable to put a finger on it at the time he told of it.

One day last week a portly man, bearing the manner of Nat Heenan and of the general build of the Great Mo, came into the store and wanted to borrow a City Directory. J. D. hustled one up and explained to the man that it was of recent publication date and could not be depended upon for accurate information. In legal sounding words, the man thanked J. Holt and retired to a back booth with the Directory. He ordered the publication for a considerable time. Seeing that the man was distressed, Mr. Holt asked him if he could help him in any way. The Pharmacy was filling up with coffee drinkers and oft drink sippers and he did not want the man to occupy the lovers' most popular booth all morning.

"I have a list of folks who I thought were well known here," said the man, "but I cannot find a single one of them listed."

"That directory, is not only one of Slaton people, but also of folks who live on farms near here," explained Mr. Holt.

"Do you mean to tell me that his is not Lubbock?" exclaimed the man.

"No, you are right in the middle of Slaton," said Mr. Holt. The man grabbed his hat and lit out as if the sheriff were after him.

"That's just like a lawyer," I told J. D. "They do everything the hardest way, especially when they go to write anything down." To wit, to be known hereinafter as the party of the first part and the party of the second part, witness my hand and seal, etcetera, etc.

The man may be lost in the outskirts of Lubbock right now trying to find Slaton.

I'm walking almost straight again after taking off the long handles that used to fit me before I moved to Slaton ten years ago. My wife dug them out of a trunk that has been in the back room since that time. As I remember the garment it had ample room in it when the barbed wire fence between Amarillo and the north pole used to blow down, but it has shrunk up a lot since then and when I put it on I had to decide to make the day in a crouching position or split myself half in two.

There is a right interesting article in the recent issue of the Reader's Digest. The caption is "Why Not Worry." The author has some worthwhile suggestions. He says why pass up the opportunity to worry when we have such magnificent opportunities to worry these days. Everyone owes it to himself to do a little worrying now and then. You should cross a bridge each day even if its only a culvert. He says never put off worrying until tomorrow when you can worry today while you can do a good job of it.

There are folks like Reverend Herring, of the Methodist Church, who are neglecting their duty in this line and it bothers me to see them going around as if the world is not about to get blown to bits, and the nation comes to a dead stop on account of high taxes, labor strikes, blizzards and floods. They do not seem to give a whoop whether the Slatonite gets published each week or not, and I often wonder what would happen to Mrs. Herring if the Parsonage should catch on fire.

Mrs. Kirby Seudder, K. C. Scott and Mrs. J. H. Brewer, as well as T. A. Worley in the bank should read this article and get some points on how they are missing the greatest opportunities of their lives by not doing as much worrying as they should. If any of them need any help I will be glad to tell them how most any small item like a broken down linotype, a shortage of newsprint or a shortage of cash, either in the bank or in the pocketbook, can be used to keep one awake most of the night. No one should go around without a full share of worry, and I have a big stock of all sizes, come get your share.

ROUTINE CALL—Bonzo, film-land's gift to female chimps, wants to assure his fans that smoking in bed is not a habit of his. The foreign star—his family tree is in Africa—felt that the cigar in bed was the only unusual element in this picture. He is shown here as he made a routine phone call from his New York hotel while on a personal appearance tour.

FROZEN IN HIS JOB—One man to remain unperturbed by all the recent talk about "lids" and "freezes" was Chicago Fire Lt. Thomas Ryan. His lid was frozen when sub-zero temperatures turned hose spray to ice on his battle hat. Fully resigned to the hazards of being a smoke-eater, Ryan calmly "clamped down" on a cigarette after the blaze was subdued.

Sometimes Good Intentions Aren't Enough

That fire at the Griffin place didn't do much damage last week, but Volunteer Chief Murphy was pretty angry about it. Spoke to some of us over dinner and a bottle of beer.

"Griffin's farm is a good mile from town," he said. "And by the time we'd dodged all the people on the highway who were going to watch, we hadn't a minute to waste.

"Then blamed if those sight-seers hadn't parked cars right in Griffin's driveway and there was a mob of people milling around the house—just gawking. Joe, tell folks a fire's no sideshow. Ask 'em to think of the other fellow!"

From where I sit, some of us need to be reminded occasionally that even though our intentions are good we may be unfairly interfering. Whether it's blocking the right-of-way of fire equipment or criticizing a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer now and then—the American Way is to give way, and give the other fellow his fair "share of the road!"

CHICK CHATS

Presented By Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories

USE CARE WITH HATCHING EGGS

What about those hatching eggs? Are you handling them carefully? If you are, then you have a good start towards a successful hatch. If not, you may be in for trouble—and an extremely poor hatch.

Poor hatches are many times the result of careless egg handling. Without proper care, the percentage hatch of eggs may be considerably reduced.

Whether eggs are produced on the farm, and used on the farm, or sold to a hatchery or an individual, the care and handling of hatching eggs will have an important influence on them.

Selection of Eggs

When selecting eggs for the incubator or for sale, use good judgment and choose only those eggs that are of normal shape and good size. Discard poorly shaped and undersized eggs, as well as any that may be unusually large. Select eggs that weigh at least 2 oz. each, but be careful not to use thin-shelled eggs.

Since both extreme cold and extreme heat will destroy the fertility of an egg, it is important to keep hatching eggs under regulation temperatures. Excessive chilling will eventually kill the embryos. High temperatures hasten preincubation development and weaken the embryos before the eggs are set. As a safeguard, you should maintain proper storage temperatures between 50 and 60 degrees.

Humidity is also important. Because an egg is about 60 per cent water, the humidity outside the egg should be 60 per cent, too. This helps prevent evaporation and does not deprive the embryo of water for growth.

Additional Pointers

Here are some other suggestions that may prove helpful in caring for hatching eggs:

1. Place freshly laid eggs in a tray where they can cool immediately.
2. Remove dirt from eggs with warm water, or a solution warmer than the temperature of the eggs.
3. Store eggs in clean cases with small ends down. A moist atmosphere is desirable in storage room.
4. Gather eggs frequently so that there will be a minimum of dirty, cracked, broken, or frozen eggs.
5. If eggs are shipped, label crates plainly and protect them against breakage and chilling.

Heraldry

"A lion rampant on a field gules" sounds strange to us today. This is the terminology of heraldry, the science of coats of arms. Translated, it means "A lion standing on a shield etched in red." The Herald's college, established in England in the late 1400's, still exists, but heraldry is now known as "the science of armorial bearings."

The veteran, William P. (Pink) Johnson, was married Sunday afternoon to his former nurse, Mrs. Agnes Hess.

Pink's bride is the young widow of a World War II veteran who died several years ago of a service-connected disability. She has five children. —County Wide News

The announcement was made Tuesday night by Harry Mann, campaign drive chairman, at a meeting of team captains in the City Hall.

All civic clubs, women's clubs and other community organizations are being asked to aid in making the drive a success.

The Levelland Jaycees have already earmarked $500 as the kick-off contribution. The money was derived from the Jaycee-sponsored junk car races held here last summer. —The Hockley County Herald
