

Now Freedom needs you!

175 years ago our forefathers risked their necks and all their earthly goods to put together history's greatest declaration of a free people . . . Since then we've enjoyed a big package of freedom "for free" . . . And now Freedom needs us, lest in time to come she become no more than a worn-out word in a dog-eared dictionary . . .

How would you like to roll out of bed some dark morning and have a big palooka tell you where you're going to work that week, what your wife's going to wear, and what your kids have to do?

Don't shrug it off, sink it in—it can happen here!

The point is, we're more likely to toss Freedom away ourselves—unthinking as with an old cigarette butt—than lose it in a fight.

Over the years we have tended to become a nation of spectators of the things that keep us free, just as we are at baseball games, movies, or our TV sets. In government, we have tended to become a nation of Monday-morning quarterbacks, grandstand umpires and sideline sophisticates. Haven't we?

We watch a few others vote, then gripe because the wrong man gets in, and moral standards suffer.

We look on while the community discusses a project, then kick like steers because the new school didn't get built.

We view with alarm prices going up but don't stop to think of putting some of our excess change into Defense Bonds and other savings.

Here are four short words to think about:

WORK • SAVE • VOTE • PRAY

It takes doing things like that to keep Freedom solvent—and America needs 150 million people in the act. Doesn't it?

Now--Freedom needs YOU!

The Declaration of Independence was signed at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, in 1776. Here will gather the Delegates of Freedom on July 1, 2, 3 and 4. They will come from all over America and from freedom-loving countries.

This is the year of re-dedication throughout America. Take a new look at Freedom, think how it works for you in your community, and help it along today as it has helped you in the past.

What Happened In Slaton Last Year

Taken from the June 30, 1950 issue of the Slatonite:
Saturday, July 1, Forrest Lumber Company will hold the formal opening of the concern's newest store located on South Ninth in Slaton. The new building features a modern, angle-window design, with a 35 sign tower on top, visible for several blocks. The sign is outlined in neon.

Actual construction of the new Methodist Church building will begin as soon as the structure plans are completed, local church officials reported this week. All preliminaries leading toward the construction are now complete, and concluding blueprints are being prepared by the architect.

Precautions Should Be Taken To Avoid Polio In This Area

Dr. W. E. Payne, City Health officer says that there have been no polio cases reported in the Slaton area since last summer but warns that all precautions to avoid the appearance should be taken.

During the first five and one-half months of this year 283 cases of poliomyelitis, polio for short, have been reported to the Texas State Department of Health. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued the following suggestions concerning the disease and its control.

"All the methods of transmitting the disease may not be known however, sufficient information is at hand to demand certain precautions and these include personal hygiene and campaigns for sanitation improvements.

Stringent efforts should be made to eliminate house-flies, mosquitoes, and rodents and to destroy their breeding places. Every effort should be made to institute approved garbage collection systems, and secure safe water supplies. Where adequate municipal sewage disposal systems are not in operation, it is necessary to install and maintain sanitary septic tanks and outdoor privies.

All raw foods and vegetables should be washed thoroughly before use and protected from filth and insects. All food handling establishments should adhere strictly to the State law concerning the sterilization of dishes and utensils. Those restaurants with insufficient personnel to maintain approved sanitation, should close one or two hours a day so that employees can assist in maintaining cleanliness and high sanitation standards.

Over-exertion in children should be avoided. Children should not visit homes where there is illness. Early symptoms of infantile paralysis are headaches, fever, vomiting, drowsiness, followed by stiffness in the neck and back. When suspicious symptoms appear, a physician should be called immediately.

Sgt. J. C. Burton and family of San Antonio left Thursday for Brookfield, having been here for the funeral of his grandmother, Pfc. Edwin Burton left Thursday for Ft. Sill, Okla. He also was here for his grandmother's funeral. Both Sgt. Burton and Pfc. Burton are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton of Slaton. Mrs. W. O. Porter of Atlanta, Ga., and Joe Burton of Los Angeles, Calif. were here for their mother's funeral and have returned to their homes.

JUST TALK

by A.M.J.

Between thunderstorms, earthquakes, tornadoes, Frontier Days square dancing and fleas on our house, we have a pretty full time at our house. Of course we do not know until the next day that we have had an earthquake, but just to know that one has rocked the dishes on our shelf and that a tornado has hit within fifteen or twenty miles of Slaton is enough to keep ones blood pressure at the danger point and as mine has a tendency to run up and down like the stock market did in 1929, I keep myself in a terrible mess.

To some folks the fleas on our red cocker might not seem very important, but to Sandy and me the fleas are as much a problem as the investment of the money I hope to have when I start getting my Social Security payments. As I am what the Government calls self employed I have not been paying Social Security payments on myself, but now the rules and regulations say I must start doing so.

There might be some argument as to my being self employed as it quite often seems that there is not going to be anything left after the months expenses are paid. All my friends say that I should leave things to my employees as they turned out a better paper while I was in the hospital than was ground out before I got in hock, and I persuaded a doctor to advise me to rest more, so if I finally end up doing nothing I may be able to get along without paying Social Security. If the Government dogs me hard enough I may just quit, get me a rocking chair, a palm leaf fan and lots of lemonade and draw down Social Security instead of paying it.

To look at Charley Guy, editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, one would not suspect that Charley had ever stooped so low as to have worked on a weekly newspaper but in an unguarded moment Charley admitted to me, last week, that such has been the case.

Not only has Charley suffered the pangs of having to poke wrap in printing presses, help wrap newspapers for mailing and get out and try to choke advertising down some protesting merchant, but he lost his last fifty dollars trying to keep a struggling weekly going at a time when cotton was five cents a pound and eggs three dozen for a quarter.

In my opinion there is not a fairer minded newspaper man in business than Charley, he has high ideals and does his best to live up to them and he'll put the heat on every one else to do the same thing. Charley, through his public speaking and his editorial efforts, has done as much, or more, for the South Plains than any one I know and he can throw the English language around in a manner that is original, entertaining and right up to the rules and regulations in grammatical construction. Charley is a "Right Guy."

When I sit down to a typewriter I go at it hammer and tongs, I slam down a few words or sentences and find out that they are not going to make any sense at all, I xxxx it all out, start over again and end up with a mixture of thoughts that makes me dizzy and probably get my customers in a fog that does not clear up for hours after the paper comes out, but I have lots of fun, suffer the tortures of the damned, and, so far, have earned enough to keep my wife on the verge of luxury and myself in a race trying to pay my monthly debts.

Someday I'm going to go up to Charley's office and get some instructions on how he gets out "The Plainsman." Up to now I have never caught him in the act of writing on his typewriter and I have been in his office a good many times. And incidentally I'd like to know how to arrange it so that I can get myself a desk with about an acre of stacking space, like he has, and an easy riding chair that does not squeak and a grinning skull to put on top of a filing cabinet so that I can remember to "eat, grin and be merry for tomorrow I may be like it."

For the last week I have been sleeping part of the time in half my pajamas and even then I have gasped for breath until midnight taking showers and just letting the water stick on it certainly it cooling but I have been as stiff as a giraffe with tonsillitis and my wife says it serves me right for acting so foolish, but getting cooled off when the hot blasts blow has certainly felt good.

Mrs. Bland Tomlinson opened her refrigerator door, and a rabbit was sitting there. She said, "Well, What are you doing here?" The rabbit said, "This is a Westinghouse, isn't it?" "Yes," said Mrs. Tomlinson. Then the little rabbit said, "Well, I'm westin'."

B. G. Guinn, Doctor W. E. Payne and I, in a Post Office lobby conference, have decided that a lot of young fellows, who would have made good farmers, have been ruined by higher education, that things have just about gone to the dogs and that the world might blow up in our face at most any time.

B. G. contends that he likes everything quite and conservative, Doctor Payne says if you don't like things as they are, better make a great big howl about them. I agree with both of them.

Under the circumstances it might be out of place to call attention to the fact that B. G. owns some of the most startling shirts on the South Plains and wears them right into the Citizens State Bank. He parades around in these shirts that would illuminate Carlsbad Caverns when the moment comes when the lights are turned out and the choir sings "Rock of Ages," but when B. G. goes to church he gets on the back seat and does sing too loud.

On several occasions I have seen Doctor Payne in action on things that did not suit him exactly and he really goes to town, but he cannot cover up the fact that he is a soft-hearted kind of fellow and that after he has gotten the load off his chest, he's willing to let bygones be bygones.

Personally I'm for anything that will break the monotony even if it's a good explosion of wit, dignity or anger, that is, if the anger does not get out of hand.

B. G., the Doctor and I came to some positive conclusions and I'm sure that if things were turned over to us we could get the Korean War, inflation, and the price of T-bone steaks under control, but it might be hard on President Truman and Congress.

Forrest, Jr. of Lubbock to Lamesa Monday to attend funeral service for Eddie Nie Mier, aged 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nie Mier, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Billingsly of Lamesa. BROTHERHOOD ON THE BATTLEFIELD—A negro medic at a Korean aid station gently lowers his canteen to the parched lips of a GI wounded in battle. Litter bearers carried the GI four miles through rugged hill country to the nearest road, where a jeep-ambulance awaited them.

WHAT MAKES COMMIES RUN in Korea is evidenced by the picture above, a dramatic display of the power packed by Uncle Sam's warbirds. The above shooting gallery-on-wheels is a B-26 light bomber. Its arsenal consists of 28 100-pound bombs, four tanks of napalm and enough ammunition (about 6000 rounds) to feed 14 forward firing machine guns and two turret fifty's. The two Japan-based crew members are Lt. Col. Joseph Belser (left) of San Antonio, Tex., and Sgt. Alfred Head, Seymour, Tex.

Local Topics

The proposed soft ball games at Slaton are not likely to be held at the Lions Club Park as the Lions Club members do not wish to have lights for night games. The destroyed most of the light globes that were left in the sockets last season and the expense of replacing them is too high for the Club to undertake unless there were considerable revenue for doing so.

Farmers who have been waiting for better moisture conditions for cotton planting have about given up hope for a crop of cotton this year and now are waiting for enough moisture to put enough seasoning in the ground for a grain crop.

Merchants in Slaton report business as being quiet but no more than at this season of the year last season. Many lines of merchandise are still scarce even if demands are not rushing.

Weeds and grass have left the heat and our crop of weeds on vacant lots and on the sidewalks down Texas Avenue will not likely be as heavy as usual but the fire hazard will be worse than usual.

Something is wrong with the West Texas Gas Co. thermomter here in Slaton or the one that the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal is using for temperature references. On Wednesday, June 27, the Lubbock paper reported that the highest point of the day was 102 degrees while the graph for the thermometer at the West Texas Gas Company in Slaton showed 108 degrees. Perhaps Slaton is a hotter place than Lubbock, but its not that much hotter. Most folks believe the one at the Gas Company is correct.

Progress on the construction of the addition to the First Methodist Church has slowed down considerably because of the shortage of some building materials and also because workmen have been difficult to secure. It is hoped that the building will be completed by early fall.

Water Superintendent Davis reports that the pumps are going night and day, but it has been nip and tuck to keep enough water in the mains to supply the demand.

Doctors report that there has been quite a number of cases of people suffering from muscular cramps. The ones suffering from the trouble have fears of polio, but the trouble is not of a serious nature, and is partly due to the weather.

Real estate agents say that there is still considerable trade in homes and that there would be a good traffic in farm lands if land prices were not so high. There is a bigger demand for homes to rent than the supply and houses are renting for more money now than they have ever done in Slaton before.

Aniline Dye

Sir William Henry Perkin (1838-1907), English chemist, discovered, in 1856, the first aniline dye (aniline purple), founded a factory to make it, and thereby established the industry in England.

Largest Opal

The largest known opal, found in a Hungarian mine in 1770, weighs one pound and five ounces. It is in the Imperial Museum at Vienna.

Posting Of Beef Prices Postponed

LUBBOCK—The Office of Price Stabilization announced that the requirement that retail meat sellers publicly post ceiling beef prices by June 25 would be postponed until August 1.

In view of the fact that mechanical difficulties had forced a delay in the intended June 18 posting date, and that August 1 is the end of the present price level based on the first 10 per cent roll back of live cattle prices, it was decided to delay posting of the charges for the brief period of time before that date. On August 1, new lower price levels at retail are scheduled under the present regulations.

In addition OPS officials said, continued study of the operation of the program indicates that a few adjustments in prices of some cuts may be necessary, to bring them in line with others in the same region.

Meantime, it was pointed out, the order requires that all prices be posted on the tray in which the beef cuts are displayed, and that these prices must be at or below ceilings prescribed in the regulation.

Kosher beef retailers, who were required to post their prices on June 11, will continue to display their charts, OPS said.

Also, any other retail dealers who desire to post their prices for the benefit of their customers, may prepare their own from the prices in the regulation and post them, it was pointed out.

Mrs. Hugh Smart, Cora Ann and Patricia arrived Tuesday from Duncan, Okla., to spend a few days with Mrs. Smart's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smart.

Mrs. W. V. Leet and Mrs. Charles Hubbard of St. Paul, Minn., who have been visiting with Mrs. M. A. Pember the past few weeks have returned to their home. Mrs. Leet is Mrs. Pember's sister, and Mrs. Hubbard is her sister-in-law.

HOW TO PREPARE A GOOD SCHOOL TEACHER

Select a young and pleasing personality, trim off all mannerisms of voice, dress, or deportment. Pour over it a mixture of equal parts of the wisdom of Solomon, the courage of young Daniel, the strength of Samson, and the patience of Job.

Season with the salt of experience, the pepper of animation, the oil of sympathy, and a dash of humor.

Stew for about four years in a hot classroom, testing occasionally with the fork of criticism thrust in by a principal or superintendent.

When done to a turn, garnish with a meager salary and serve hot to the community.

—Arthur Unknown

Guests of the Edwin Haddock family last week were Mr. Haddock's niece, Doris June Haddock of Carlsbad, N. M., Mrs. Haddock's brother, Jack G. Favor of Arlington who was a judge at the ABC rodeo in Lubbock, and another brother, Joe M. Favor and his wife and children of Jayton.

Mrs. Florence Berry of Merkle, visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Miller, last week. Sunday guests of the Millers were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Morgan of Brownfield.

Mrs. R. G. Hodges and children visited with her sister, Mrs. Ben Petty, in Lueders last week while Mr. Hodges went fishing at Abilene Lake.

Keats' Genius

Mr. Truman would probably find considerable consolation in the following passage from the biographical sketch of the immortal English poet, John Keats: "Had the critics only seen it! But no, they looked at his faults alone. They were blind and deaf to his genius. One disappointment followed another. He strove to succeed, but the reviewers knew no pity . . ."

"I got the story on 50,000 Miles-No Wear and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says W. R. Abel
Traveling Salesman
El Paso, Texas

"I travel 40,000 miles a year," says Mr. Abel. "Since I've changed to new Conoco Super I never have to add a quart between drains, and I've had no engine trouble."

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence: in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

SHOP FOREMAN
"I have 80,000 miles on my Chevrolet, using Conoco Super," says Nick Maerner, Shop Foreman, Twin Falls, Idaho. "The motor has never been torn down, oil consumption is at a minimum, and gasoline mileage averaged 23 miles to the gallon."

TAXI OPERATOR
"I've had a decided decrease in maintenance costs and gasoline consumption since changing to Conoco Super," reports Goddard Langlinais, Taxi Fleet Operator, Lafayette, La. "I only wish all my cabs had been broken in with Conoco Super."

THIS and THAT FROM HERE and THERE

It Seems To Me—
The judge looked sternly at the young man in front of him and said in a gruff voice: "You are charged with habitual drunkenness. What excuse have you to offer?"
Offender: "Habitual thirst your honor!"
—The Anton News

Ramblin' With Royce—
A small boy was leading a donkey down the road through an Army camp. Some soldiers, thinking to have some fun, attempted to engage the kid in conversation. He would not respond. Finally, one of them asked, "Why are you holding onto your brother so tightly?"
And then the kid came right back. "So he won't run off and join the Army," said he without blinking an eye.
—The Olton Enterprise

Stricklinly Speaking—
Yep, Mom had a letter from Jr. over in Korea, stating that "he had been wounded but was able to get about some with a Jeep, whatever that is," she confided to a neighbor woman.
"Why that's just a small car," the neighbor informed her. "Oh, thought it was one of those female Japs," Mom replied.
—The Terry County Herald

Party Line—
Little two-year old Miss Judy Foust has been hard at work learning the alphabet under the watchful eye of her grandmother, Mrs. Vernon Eagan. Trouble developed early in the game, however, when Uncle Don Eagan came here from Dallas to be best man in the wedding of B. D. Garland and Elsie Kloiber. As a result, with all the talk about the wedding that was flying around the house, all Judy has been able to learn is, "A, B, D. and Elsie."
—The County Wide News

Edlines—
ARE YOU ONE OF those people who is always considering how gullible we are? Are you one of those people who considers it a big shame that we Americans are so easy going that "someone is always lipping something over on us?" Well don't be. Gullibility, if you want to call it that, is one of our real blessings. Consider all the weird things we read about in the paper each day that show just how gullible we are. And then, consider how important this "gullibility" is in a free country.
—The Hockley County Herald

Editorial Comments—
A banker remarked last week at a convention of bankers that his institution would go broke if it spent more money than it took in. He pointed out the fact that every other bank in the nation was in the same fix—bankruptcy unless it could make a profit.
Every person knows this fact, except a few around Washington

Hidden Creek
Although the Schuykill River is about 130 miles long, the Dutch meaning of its name is "hidden creek."

Trim Shrubs
Now is a good time to cut branches from plum, cherry, pussywillow, forsythia, spirea, and almost any woody, flowering shrub. The nearer to spring you cut them, the more quickly they'll burst into flower. Pick a day when the temperature is above freezing.

Shoe Workers
More than 350 skilled workers have a part in constructing the average pair of leather-soled shoes, from the time the hide is removed until the shoes appear on retailers' shelves.

Welt Shoes
Welt shoes, which account for about one-third of all shoe production, derive their strength and sturdy appearance from the fact that cattleshide leather is used for insole, welt and outsole.

Mica
Mica is a mineral having the property of "perfect cleavage," so that when it is struck it splits cleanly along parallel lines into flat sheets or layers. It can be split so thinly that 1,000 sheets make a pile only an inch high.

Growth
The peanut, "the nut that is not a nut," is a legume like a pea or bean. The plant is strange, sending its seed pods under the surface of the soil to develop and mature. So to harvest peanuts, they must be dug. After that the plants and nuts are well dried before a threshing machine separates out the nuts.

Handling Sweet 'Taters
Sweet potatoes are easily bruised, so they should be handled with extreme care if they are going to be stored for any length of time.

THE PROM?
... OH, I'D LOVE TO GO

A "big moment" in a young life . . . a telephone call "out of this world" in value . . .

Whether or not you go along with the teenager's standards of value, one fact remains. Every telephone call, important or ordinary, is a real bargain.

For the average cost of each local call, including tax, is about 2½¢.

In this day of vanishing bargains—what else gives so much for so little?

EVERY HELLO IS A GOOD BUY

A REAL BARGAIN. More of your friends and neighbors have telephones than ever before. You can call more people, more people can call you.

"WATER" PREDICAMENT—What is so rare as a regatta without one mishap? The victim of a race on Berlin's Wannsee Lake was this young chap, who spent an unhappy 15 minutes in the "drink" before rescuers reached him. Later they towed his ill-fated craft ashore.

West Texas Roundup

Okay, so now the kids are going to get psychoanalyzed and spend part of their school days on a couch remembering how they came to hate their mothers! A high school counselor has been employed on a cooperative basis by the four high schools of the county. He is A. M. Johnson of Petersburg, who is attending summer school at Tech. Johnson will work directly with students, advising them on school and vocational problems, administering tests and assisting students who are maladjusted. —The Lorenzo Tribune

Arson charges were filed today against J. S. Rogers for the Gosnell hotel fire late Saturday night. Leroy Lewis, hotel porter, is charged as an accomplice. Seventy-two jars of gasoline and other inflammables were found scattered throughout the hotel, police say. Holes had been bored in floors and ceiling in several rooms. Rogers, owner and manager of the hotel, and Lewis were arrested at the scene. They are held in county jail. Rogers' bond has been set at $15,000. District Attorney Eldon B. Mabon said. Bond has not been set for Lewis. Hotel guests were aroused at 11 p.m. by choking clouds of smoke which swirled through the building. The fire apparently started in the basement, but witnesses reported the building was aflame on an upper floor soon after the original blaze was discovered. —Colorado City Record

Gaines County voters approved the $425,000 hospital bond issue Saturday, but only by the slim majority of eight votes, 294 to 286, an official canvass of the ballots by the county commissioners court Monday revealed. Seagraves voters, however, turned down the proposition by a six to one turn out, casting 136 negative ballots to only 23 favoring the issue. No active force had come forward late this week in opposition to the vote, although much talk here indicated that voters were at least considering the possibility of a contest of the election. —Gaines County News

The Treasure Hunt at the Palo Duro State Park is postponed due to the wet weather of the past two weeks. John McCarty states that 800 valuable prizes are offered by business firms of Canyon, Amarillo and Hereford toward this annual event. Sixty firms in Canyon are giving 94 prizes to the finders of lucky coins. There were approximately 400 cars at the Park last Sunday, 95 per cent of the owners having never before visited the Palo Duro. High waters in the creek which did so much damage to trees, shrubbery and roads had gone down Sunday, but was still high in places. While many persons ventured before crossing No. 3, the water at this point was still high and a few cars were stalled at this point. —The Canyon News

Paving is to get underway in Post June 25. Bob Phillips, superintendent for Holland Page contractors, called Mrs. Lorene Benson, city secretary yesterday and informed her that the workers would move in June 25. He is coming to Post today or tomorrow to look for a location. Twelve blocks of paving have been signed for. Most of it is around the hospital site, Mrs. Benson says, with four blocks on Eighth Street. —The Post Dispatch

Burton Hackney, Brownfield attorney, was elected commander of the Fifth Division of the American Legion at a Sunday afternoon business session which closed the Legion's two-day convention in Plainview. Charles Gibson, Amarillo newspaperman and incumbent division commander, was endorsed by convention delegates as the Fifth Division's candidate for the next department commander of Texas. —The Brownfield News

At 6 o'clock yesterday evening a twister that threw plowed dirt a mile or more into the air put on a show for R. J. Hinsley and his wife, who live five miles southwest of Dougherty. The disturbance was no larger than an automobile when it first began, said Hinsley over the telephone last night. It didn't move at all for five or six minutes then slowly to the northeast where it hit his plowed land made a terrible fog. It seemed to be headed right for his house, he said, and he and Mrs. Hinsley jumped into their car and ran south to get out of its path. After it traveled on northeast a piece it seemed to widen out and the funnel pulled back up into the cloud. —The Floyd County Hesperian

Vernon Brewer, superintendent of the Tahoka Public Schools for the past five years, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the school board on Tuesday night, effective August 31. Mr. Brewer had another year remaining on his present contract. He told The News he could not yet announce his future plans. He is attending the Texas Tech summer session mornings and expects to receive his Master's degree in August. Mrs. Helen Ellis, school district secretary, told The News that so far as she knows the board had no one in mind to replace Mr. Brewer. —The Lynn County News

CHICK CHATS

Presented By Dr. Salsbury's Laboratories

WORMING NEEDS OF YOUR FLOCK

How early do chicks get worms? That is a question which poultry-fairsters in every part of the country often ask. And the answer cannot be final, since the occurrence of worm infections in chicks varies with the climate, weather, and other growing conditions. Usually, however, growing chicks are not troubled with worms much before six or eight weeks. This is because it takes 4 weeks for a large roundworm to mature. A bird infected at 3 weeks of age would not begin to show signs of infection until about 6 weeks old.

Worm Damage

Again, in the matter of virulence (or strength) of the worm infection, there arises a question: How much damage do worms do? They may do considerable physical damage to the fowl, if allowed to progress to the heavy-infection stage. Poultry can tolerate a few worms, but when the parasites start sapping the birds' strength, ruining feed utilization, and causing stunting, it is necessary that they be eliminated.

The examples of progressive poultry-raisers in areas where such worms as the large roundworm (Ascaridia galli) and the ceecal worm (Heterakis gallinae) are prevalent provide a good guide as to what course to follow. These raisers usually treat their flocks at an early age—six to eight weeks—and they maintain regular worming programs throughout the growing period.

Flock Wormers

Various chemical wormers have been used for many years on wormy poultry. The best of these (and the most widely-used) seems to be the nicotine-phenothiazine combination for large-roundworm and ceecal-worm removal. Nicotine has been used for many years against large round-worms, and phenothiazine is an unbeatable drug for removal of the ceecal worm. These two drugs are obtainable either straight or in commercial combinations. They can be easily mixed in the flock's mash to provide a quick, convenient, economical worming treatment.
