Slaton Has Eighty-One Fire Alarms Only One False Alarm During Year

According to Fire Chief Wilson, the Slaton Fire Department has had 81 alarms during the past year, from June 1950 to June 1951. There were 8 country fires outside the city limits, 10 grass fires, and 1 false alarm. On all the other fires there was some damage.

The total loss for the year was $14,935.00, and 15 credits were gained on the insurance rate because of the low loss.

There are 18 men in all who work with the fire department. One is a regular paid employee, Mr. A. C. Etheredge. The Etheredge family lives at the fire station. Volunteer firemen are: Elbert Wilson, Fire Chief; Grady Elders, Assistant Fire Chief; Vilas Tudor, Secretary-Treasurer; Bart Jones, Hose Captain; and Forrest Davis, Milton Jochetz, Jess Burton, Hoyt Meador, C. C. Kenney, Dave Sanders, Jeff Ritchey, Carl Sartain, Walter Smith, James Bollier, R. R. Gentry, Clyde Doherty, and Curtis Dowell. These men are on call any time of the day or night. They receive a $1.00 fee when they are present at a fire and free water. The Volunteer Fire Department expects to entertain its members and the City Commission in the near future.

O.P.S. Specialist Arrives Tuesday

A price specialist from the Office of Price Stabilization will be here next Tuesday morning, Sept. 25 to remind business men whose firms are covered by Ceiling Price Regulation 7 of a new amendment which requires a supplementary filing with the district office not later than September 29.

That amendment to the regulation which covers sellers of wearing apparel, furniture, variety store merchandise, sporting goods, jewelry and hardware, now requires the filing of a pricing chart which includes toys, games, Christmas decorations, laces, yarns and ribbons.

Price Specialist Alton Taylor, who will visit Slaton next week to help merchants of this immediate area, will be able to answer questions concerning all types of businesses who seek information regarding compliance with regulations.

While here, he will maintain offices in the Chamber of Commerce. The clinic is under the co-sponsorship of the District Office of Price Stabilization and local Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sikes of Rivermore, Calif., have been visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Delma Hodge, W. A. Sikes, and with his grandfather, W. O. Sikes.

Listen for a call from the Caprock Drive-In Theatre's "Tell-the-Title" man.

Week's Question . . .

'The People Can Afford Higher Taxes,' Says Secretary Snyder. Do You Agree?

Secretary of the Treasury Snyder said in a recent radio talk that the "people of this country are pretty well off these days." He says that our economy can absorb the burden of the additional tax program now pending in Congress, with a good margin left over for profits and incentives.

Is this one man's opinion, or do the people agree with Secretary Snyder? Our question this week was, "Can the American people afford to pay higher taxes without upsetting our economy?" Slaton people gave these answers:

Mr. F. T. Longtin. "Hell, I can't tell you. Can you? I read what Secretary Snyder said about it and I think he must be misinformed."

Mr. A. B. Gustavus. "I believe we can. We're making more money and things are on the uprise. I believe we can carry it all right."

Mrs. M. L. German. "I hardly know how to answer that question. It seems like the big companies could, but they're taking it out on the little fellows. From my experience I find it all falls back to the ordinary, common people. They have to bear the burden. I suppose we'll all keep living and not starve even if taxes are raised." She says she doesn't know too much about the tax situation, but she knows many people are finding that even though they are getting a raise in salary, the increase in income tax is coming first and will more than take the raise.

Mr. J. H. Brewer. "I might be sticking my neck out, but I'm pretty well satisfied. I'm paying more taxes, but I'm making more money." His gripe is that too much tax money is spent foolishly, not for what it was intended. He says the only way to stop this

LIONS CLUB GIVES PARK TO SCHOOLS

At the regular meeting of the Slaton Lions Club last Tuesday night the members voted to donate the Lions Club Athletic Field West of town to the Slaton Public School District. It is understood that the school trustees will accept the property.

Superintendent Vardy of the Slaton School district said that the park would be used for school baseball games in the spring and for American Legion sponsored games in the spring and summer. He feels that the additional recreational and athletic facilities will fit in well with the school uses and that the park will be a most useful asset in the near future.

The property was bought with funds from the Slaton Lions Club and from individual donations and the fence and grand stand were constructed by the members of the Lions Club. It was used several seasons as a soft ball park and for the games played in Slaton by clubs in the Oil Belt League but the games were not patronized well enough to bring in expense money for operating the park.

Members of the Lions Club feel that the property will benefit the local schools and believe that the undertaking was worth while even if the original plans did not work out as well as they hoped they would.

SLATONITE HAS SAND

We have sand at the Slatonite office, and we're not referring to that which blew in during the sand storms last week and covered furniture, supplies, and the editor.

The sand we mean is white sand from White Sands, New Mexico. Mrs. C. L. Ellis brought in a pint jar of the sand, which looks very much like coarse salt. She also left a colored post card showing stretches of white sand dunes.

Mrs. Ellis was very much impressed with the White Sands, and the sample she brought to the office has aroused a lot of interest. If you'd like to see it, stop in at the Slatonite office.

Those eligible to vote are persons who have paid the current poll tax, who have rendered property in the district for taxation and who reside in the proposed district.

Three propositions will appear on the ballot:

PFC. JOE TUCKER WRITES FROM SHIP USS CAMBRIA

Mrs. I. C. Tucker has received a letter from her son, Pfc. Joe Tucker, USMC, which was written when he was about in the middle of the Atlantic, 5 days out at sea aboard the USS Cambria in a convoy of nine ships, which was to be increased to many more.

Joe says he didn't get seasick, just a little dizzy the first two days. They were to hit Gibraltar about the 13th of September, but their first liberty was to be Oran, French Morocco, in Africa. They will be there three days and are scheduled to make a landing in Sardinia, an island near Italy. Beyond this their schedule is not known to the men.

Everett Hodge has returned from visiting in California and Arizona and will start to school at Tech Friday.

What's Going On At The Civic Clubs

The Rotary Club was given some of the details on how Seismograph crews work and how the information is used at their regular meeting, Thursday, September 13th, by Bill Lechtenburg, party chief of the Magnolia Petroleum Co. seismograph crew working in this territory. He would make no statements concerning oil in this area.

The Lions Club devoted the time at their regular meeting last Tuesday night to the ceremonies of donating the Lions Club Athletic Park to the Slaton School District.

There are more panhandlers and vagrants traveling over the country now than have been since the depression, says Chief of Police E. A. Gentry, and the problem of keeping them moving is getting more troublesome each week.

Many of them are young men who could do productive work, but as soon as they can get a little money they buy bayrum, flavoring extract, or some other household product that has a high percentage of alcohol. None of them want work and many are petty thieves.

The jail is just a good place to sleep and eat for them when they are arrested, they have no money and about all that the police force can do is to put them up for one night and take them to the edge of town and make them hit the highway.

The Chief of Police will not venture any reason for the phenomenal increase in such characters but says that lately there is hardly a day passes that from one to three are not found on the streets. The same conditions are present in Lubbock, and the police there send them out on the road just as the officers do here. Most of them are disgusting examples, and the Chief of Police says that hand-outs of small amounts of money serves only to supply them with more bayrum or similar substitute for alcoholic products made for human consumption.

TB X-Ray Survey Important To All

Miss Virginia Grenwaldt, executive secretary of the Lubbock County TB Association, gives the following important facts regarding the TB survey to be held in Slaton on Saturday, Sept. 29 and Monday, Oct. 1, in the Southwestern Public Service Building from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

1. The X-rays are free.

2. It is not charity—it is tax supported.

3. The unit comes to the county upon the invitation of the County Medical Society.

4. Reports are confidential—the individual is notified.

5. No physical embarrassment—you do not have to undress.

6. All persons 15 years of age and above may be X-rayed. The reason for the age limit is that the facilities are limited, therefore we stress X-raying the age group in which tuberculosis is most prevalent. Everyone should have an X-ray once a year—it is a good health measure.

Tuberculosis causes more deaths in the United States than all other contagious diseases combined. It is a communicable disease, spread by persons who have the disease in active form. It is not inherited. If it seems to run in families, it is because one person passes it on to others. Tuberculosis can be cured, but there is no "short cut" to recovery, no drug which will cure the disease. Treatment usually requires months, and the earlier the treatment is begun the better for the patient.

Since signs of tuberculosis can be detected by means of a chest X-ray before there are outward symptoms.

X-ray examinations of large groups of people, even of whole communities, are being made in the search for unknown TB. You may say, "I don't have time to get an X-ray." It takes only about 1 minute and it may be worth a million dollars to know you are all right.

"HOLY LAND" PICTURES TO BE SHOWN AT IDALOU

"See the lands where Jesus walked; see the streets where Jesus taught; see Mt. Sinai, the sea of Galilee, the river Jordan and many other places of Bible land," says Bro. Joe Motesbocker, pastor at Idalou, who will show his pictures of the Holy Land at the First Baptist Church, Thursday evening, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Santa Fe News

Santa Fe Railway, the only railroad entering Grand Canyon National Park, on September 20, will commemorate a half-century of through train service to the south rim of Grand Canyon.

The railroad, which today transports thousands of visitors to Northern Arizona's greatest wonder annually, ran its first train to the south rim on September 20, 1901, replacing stagecoaches which operated from Flagstaff and Anita Mine.

During the Gay Nineties, Santa Fe Railway promoted travel to Grand Canyon's south rim by way of Flagstaff and stage beyond. By the turn of the century, Santa Fe partons also could avail themselves of connections to the Canyon out of Williams. This service consisted of taking the Santa Fe and Grand Canyon Railroad from Williams to Anita Mine, 19 miles from the south rim, and a stage beyond.

The Santa Fe & Grand Canyon Railroad was built by Eastern investors to serve copper mines near Anita, 45 miles north of Williams. It opened to Anita in April, 1900 and to a point eight miles farther north in July, 1901.

An 11-mile gap between the end of the line and the south rim still existed when the railroad failed that same year and was taken over by Santa Fe in its entirety.

Santa Fe completed the line, and for 50 years Grand Canyon has been ranked as one of the leading scenic attractions in the railroad's 13,000 mile territory.

Hotel El Tovar, managed by Fred Harvey, was built in 1904 and has entertained royalty and other world notables for the past 43 years. In addition to El Tovar, Fred Harvey today operates Bright Angel Lodge, Phantom Ranch on the Canyon floor and the Grand Canyon Cabin Camp, employing more than 500 workers in summer and more than 300 during the winter months.

Santa Fe now has approximately 60 employees at Grand Canyon during the busy season, including a station force under Agent S. E. Turner, bridge and building and water service employees, and power house workers.

Contrary To Opinions

American boys entering employment at age 18 have 66 chances in 100 of living to the retirement age of 65. For their grandfathers who started work around the turn of the century the chances of attaining age 65 were only 51 in 100.

Shirley Ball And Jonell Lamb Appear In Swan Lake Ballet

MISS SHIRLEY BALL

Two Slaton girls, Miss Shirley Ball and Miss Jonell Lamb, members of the Theatre Dance Group of Lubbock, danced in the Swan Lake Ballet by Tschalkovsky, Act Two of the Group's program last week. The program was sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the benefit of the Cerebral Palsy Clinic.

Shirley Ball, who has been a member of the dance group since its recent organization, joined the cast for Swan Lake late and had only two weeks in which to learn the dance, which was performed by the rest of the cast for the Spring Recital. At that time Shirley was busy with the Slaton Recital. Shirley says this was her first time to dance on her toes in a recital.

She started dancing lessons two years ago under the Larimore Dance Studios and studied under Janice Blake, who taught in Slaton last year. Shirley, a junior in high school, is now studying under Eugene Bandzevicus, dance master and choreographer with the Theatre Dance Group. She enjoys her work with the group and is happy to have the opportunity of working with a man of Mr. "Band's" standing. She would like to make dancing her career and has tentative plans for further study in Dallas or St. Louis after her graduation from high school.

Jonell Lamb, 13 year-old high school freshman, has been studying ballet for 2½ years under Joan Hale, Janet Schlick and Eugene Bandzevicus. She joined the Theatre Dance Group about 3 months ago and likes it very much. She is enthusiastic about the chance to work with "Mr. Band", and like Shirley, she would like to make dancing her profession.

California Trip Is Enjoyed By The E. Wilsons

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Wilson have returned from a twelve day vacation in California. They visited Mr. Wilson's brother and family in Los Angeles. Their granddaughter, Carol Sue Walston accompanied them on their trip.

The Wilsons saw many points of interest. They visited Long Beach and the Zoo at Los Angeles. Mrs. Wilson says the zoo is nice, but she doesn't believe it is as large and nice as the zoo in San Antonio. However, one point surprised the Wilsons very much. At the playground in the zoo a Merry-go-round and the rides are only 5 cents. Mr. Wilson, like many of the rest of us, had thought the day of the nickel was gone. But at that one place children can still get a thrilling ride for only 5 cts.

A shopping trip in some of the larger Los Angeles stores consumed the better part of a day, and gave much pleasure to Mrs. Wilson. That evening they visited the Pike at Long Beach, which they reported as a beautiful sight at night.

The highlight of the trip was a visit to Catalina Island. The party took the steamship over to the Island. They spent some time sightseeing on the Island. One particularly beautiful sight was the Wrigley home, (the Wrigley of Wrigley's chewing gum).

Carol Sue especially enjoyed the trip to the bird farm. They reported so many different kinds of birds, many of them vividly colored. Looking at the bright colored birds among the green plants was like watching a huge rainbow with a background of greenery.

The tour in the glass bottomed boat left the whole party thrilled and excited. They went over the underwater garden, with the sea plants and coral and shells and different kinds of sea life. Then the deep sea divers walked around under the boat, they fed the fish, and did some fancy diving before surfacing. After they came to the surface they gave a very interesting lecture on sea life. The party unanimously agreed that the trip in the glass bottomed boat was a thrill they will always remember.

On the trip home, the Wilsons and Carol took the Southern route. They drove along the beach and through San Diego. Driving on through Cloudcroft, New Mexico, they enjoyed the scenery very much. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson stopped in Artesia, New Mexico for a short visit with a cousin, then returned to Slaton tired, but very happy over their interesting vacation.

Slaton Pioneer Leaves To Make Home In Dallas

One of Slaton's Pioneers has taken leave of us. Mrs. Joe Teague, Sr. sold her home and she and her granddaughter, Myrtle, left Sunday, September 16 to go to Dallas, where they will make their home together. Miss Teague is employed as bookkeeper for the Guberson Corp. there.

Mrs. Joe Teague, Sr. was born in Bedias, Texas in 1873. She married the late Mr. Teague in 1891, when she was sixteen. They traveled to Big Spring from East Texas in a covered wagon. They came to Slaton from there on June 15, 1911. The town, then, had just been founded. It consisted mostly of shacks which served as temporary living quarters until better homes could be built. Mrs. Teague stayed in a room in Lubbock until her husband completed a two-room house at 255 So. 3rd.

Mr. Teague was the first marshal of Slaton. He also was a commissioner, and he served as Mayor from 1939 to 1945. He passed away May 1, 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. Teague had one son, Joe Teague, Jr. He opened a confectionary here in 1915 and later extended into the drug business. He is now retired and lives on a farm near Slaton. The drug store, the oldest on the South Plains to retain its original name, is now operated by his son, Joe Teague III.

Besides Myrtle, Mrs. Teague has two other grandchildren, the above mentioned Joe Teague III and Mrs. Courtney Sanders of Morton.

COUPLE ENJOYS TRIP TO WHITE SANDS IN N. MEX.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ellis and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jessie, Jr. have returned from a 15 day vacation trip to Alamogordo, New Mexico and other points in Texas and New Mexico. They visited White Sands, and Mrs. Ellis says she thinks it is the most beautiful place she has ever seen. The sands are about a 10 mile drive from the highway, and the day was cloudy and misting. Mrs. Ellis said they could see no natural color earth, just the brilliant white sand stretching into the distance.

She brought a sample of the sand to the Slatonite office for anyone who wishes to see it. They visited in Deming and Tyrone, N. M., where they enjoyed the mountains. They visited a nephew, Gilbert Gardner, who lives on top of a mountain and works in a copper mine. They found the mine very interesting. They visited their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ellis in Belen, N. M., and they visited Mr. Ellis' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Williams in Fort Worth.

Slaton Women Give Their Favorite Tested Recipes

Several weeks ago, Mr. Jackson mentioned his wife's orange pie in his "Just Talk" column. Since that time a number of women and several men have asked for the recipe. One of the men says he sees no reason why Mr. Jackson should be the only one to enjoy this tantalizing specialty, and insists that the recipe be published for all. Here is Mrs. Jackson's Orange Pie.

Cream 3 egg yolks, add 1 cup sugar, 2 rounding tablespoons of flour, 1 cup orange juice, rind of one orange and a pinch of salt. Cook on top of stove until thick. Pour into pie shell and cover with meringue made with the 3 egg whites and brown in the oven. One recipe makes six individual pies.

Now Mr. Jackson will have to stop being bitter because he does not get orange pie as often as he'd like. He can clip this recipe from the paper and make orange pie for himself whenever the fancy strikes him.

Mrs. A. M. Jackson, who was a Home Economics major in college and who loves to cook, has a wonderful collection of recipes. She says that the readers of the Slatonite already have her life

MRS. HISBEE TRAVELS IN U. S. AND CANADA

Mrs. R. D. Bisbee has returned from an interesting vacation trip which included stops in Pittsburgh, New York, Boston, Portland, Montreal, Quebec, Ottawa, Toronto, Windsor, Detroit, Chicago and home. She spent about two weeks in Pennsylvania in the Pittsburgh area. In New York City she was lucky enough to get a ticket for "South Pacific", which she thought was excellent. She also saw, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" and "Affairs of State".

She found Boston interesting because it is rich in early American history, especially of the Revolutionary period. But the most interesting city she visited was Quebec, Canada. It is the only walled-in city in North America. The walls of the fortress are in excellent condition. Mrs. Bisbee found the citadel over-looking the St. Lawrence River has kept much of the early French and old world atmosphere. Many of the salesgirls do not even speak English and have to transact business with the help of an interpreter. On one of the conducted tours, the guide told her that in 1659 another fort was built on the St. Lawrence because an invasion from the U. S. was feared, but the invasion didn't come until the U. S. got rich. All but two in the group making the tour were from the States.

Mrs. Bisbee saw and heard the famous bells in the administration building on the capitol grounds at Ottawa. The bells vary in size from 3 lbs. to 3 tons. She enjoyed the trip so much that she'd be ready to take it again if she could eliminate the problem of transferring luggage from train to hotel to train again, but she'd had enough of "lugging luggage" after six weeks of traveling.

HELEN BAILY'S ADVICE ON Human Relations

Dear Helen:

My father died several weeks ago and my sister and I have been urging my mother to sell the old house and come live with us. It is not a matter of money, as mother has an income sufficient to live on, if she continues to live in the old house. She is usually so reasonable, and she could spend a third of her time with each of us. We would not be worried about her staying alone if we knew she was always with one of us. But, she seems determined to stay where she is and has asked an unmarried cousin of ours to live with her.

Don't you think she would be happier with us than with a distant cousin in a big lonely house. C. T.

Answer:

I think your mother is a very wise woman. She will be happier in her own home where she has been mistress for so many years, than she would anywhere else. She will be free to go and come as she pleases, have whomever she chooses to visit her, and do as she pleases. She can get up any hour without disturbing the in-laws, and she will not be forever staying with Johnnie or Suzie when their parents wish to go gallivanting.

There would be much more worrying about it, believe me, if your mother sold her house and moved in with her daughters. After a while it would make you unhappy to see how much she missed her familiar surroundings.

It is good that she has someone to live with and I'm sure you need not worry about her being lonely. If she lives in the same town you can see her every day and if she is not so near, you can write to her often, and visit her occasionally.

HELEN

Dear Helen:

We are two girls, aged 17 and 16. One of us has another year to go in school and the other two years. Both of our boy friends joined the Marines shortly after Korea and both are stationed in California now. We'd like to get married and go out to California, but our parents just laugh when we mention it to them and say we'll get over it. Both our boy friends want to marry us and say what are we waiting for. How can we convince our parents?

M. B. L. and J.S.

Answer:

You probably won't care too much for this advice but here it is, take it for what it's worth.

You should definitely finish school. Your letter was badly phrased and had many misspelled words. I'm inclined to agree with your parents that you will, as you put it, "get over it," in time. By "it" I mean your desire for marriage at so young an age. I'd judge that both of you are unhappy for some reason or another and long for marriage as a means to escape whatever it is that's troubling you. Anyway, to wait a year or two would change nothing if all you are truly sincere.

Slaton People Worth Knowing

Elbert Wilson was born in Commerce, Texas in 1896. He spent his boy hood there. One of his schoolmates in 'the little red school house' was Grace McDaniel. In 1915 with school days behind them these childhood sweethearts were married. They lived in Commerce for three years after their marriage, then moved to Plainview, where Mr. Wilson began working for the Southwestern Public Service Company. He was transferred to Slaton in 1923, and the Wilson family have made their home here since that time.

They have two daughters, who were reared and attended school in Slaton, Mrs. Troy Biggerstaff (Vera) of Topeka, Kansas, and Mrs. D. W. Walston (Rebecca) of Slaton. There are three grandchildren, Dick Biggerstaff, age 9, Carol Sue Walston age 5, and Elbert D. Walston, 4 months.

Mr. Wilson had been Slaton Fire Chief for sixteen years. He is a member of the Lions Club. He attends the Methodist Church. The Red Cross is another interest and he has served as Chairman of the local unit in the past. The first man to receive the "Outstanding Citizen Award" was Elbert Wilson. He has been recognized for his outstanding work for Southwestern Public Service Company, and was given an award and a diamond pin on his thirtieth anniversary with the

Former Resident Is Honored At Dinner

Mr. Louie Welch, a former resident of Slaton, was honored Friday, Sept. 7, in Houston at a testimonial dinner in Burbank Junior High School. Mr. Welch has completed eight successful months as councilman-at-large. He had never run for office before and had little confidence in his chances of winning the election. He later recalled, "And I guess that I was the most astonished person in the crowd when I learned I had won." The honor shown him Friday night proves that the Houston people's confidence in him was justified.

Louie Welch was born in Lockney, Texas, in 1918, attended public school in Slaton and graduated from Slaton High School. He graduated from Abilene Christian College in 1940, and went into business in Houston in 1944.

His wife is the former Iola Faye Cure of Vernon. They have three sons, nine-year-old twins, Guy and Gary, and Gil, two.

Glenna Kenney, Betty and Patty Oates, Jolene and Tate Fondy and Vysta and Miles Beard spent the day in Fieldton, Texas, Tuesday, September 11 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Traugott and Shannon. The Traugotts have just recently moved to Fieldton from Slaton. Mr. Traugott is principal of the grade school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Oates, Jr., entertained Monday night, September 10, with a dinner party. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. John Fondy, Jr., and Tate, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Scroggins and Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Lindolf Beard and Miles and Patty Oates.

Heavy Toll

According to medical researchers, an estimated 800,000 persons in the United States are totally or partially disabled by arthritis.

Mr. Wilson's spare time is limited; however, when he does have a few free hours, he enjoys working in his yard. If there is no yard work to be done he is content to relax with some reading material, be it newspapers, magazines or books he is easily satisfied.

Conscientious and unassuming, Elbert Wilson is truly a good citizen and a person worth knowing.

TIGERS vs. SEAGRAVES THERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Harold Cunningham? Slaton Tigers Can Tell You About Him

Slaton fans had heard vaguely of Harold Cunningham, Abernathy quarterback, but after the first quarter of last week's game they were asking for more about the big Antelope pivot-man who led his mates to a startling 21-7 victory over the Slaton Tigers.

The 205-pounder was the whole show for the Abernathy team, personally accounting for two of the Antelope touchdowns and providing a sparkling offensive-defensive showing.

Cunningham: Set up Abernathy's first touchdown threat by passes, then fed the ball to speedy Verlon Barron who scored on the first play of the second quarter.

On a quarterback keeper ran the ball over for the extra point. Intercepted a Slaton pass on the Slaton 42-yard line and galloped down the right sideline behind a covey of red-shirted Antelope blockers for the herd's second tally.

On the Slaton 33 yard line in the fourth stanza, calmly pitched a perfect pass to half-back Wayne Rogers for Abernathy's final score.

The Class-A Abernathy crew after receiving the opening kick-off were in control of the ball for the most part of the game.

Slaton's lone score came in the second quarter soon after Abernathy had scored. Taking over on downs on the Abernathy 31 yard line Slaton drove to the 10 yard line where two running plays failed to gain. On third down R. A. Thompson dropped back and flipped a pass to Duane Sooter who scrambled over. R. A. kicked the extra point.

Both teams drew plenty of penalties in a hard, rough game. Tiger center Lee Ray Dillard was ejected in the fourth quarter for roughness. Abernathy drew the most penalties, however, 120 yards total lost.

Both Dillard and quarterback Glen Aiken of the Tigers were jarred up in the last half, although neither was hurt seriously.

Coach Toney Poulos switched from the usual wing-T formation

Wilson Mustangs Trounce B-Team; Play Here Thurs.

The Wilson Mustangs will be out to make it two in a row when they meet the Slaton B-team here on Thursday night. Wilson defeated the junior Tiger eleven 32-14 in a game played at Wilson last Thursday.

R. J. Bednarz led the scoring for Wilson last week, scoring three touchdowns with team-mate Joe Stone contributing the other two tallies. The game was the season opener for Wilson.

The Mustangs started off with a bang, scoring three times in the first quarter and adding two more in the third and fourth stanzas. Slaton scored their two in the second quarter.

Wilson starters: Ends, John Mark Stoker and Freeman Smalley; Tackles, Cordell Hagens, Gilbert Steinhauser; Guards, George Lambright and Claude Phillips; Center, Harold Preston; Backs, Joe Stone, R. J. Bednarz, Thomas Autry and John Mason.

In the second and third quarters playing, instead, a single wing spread. In the fourth the Tigers switched back to the T.

Abernathy, who had beaten Morton 20-7 the previous week in a game in which Cunningham also starred, led in the statistics department. They racked up 14 first downs to Slaton's 6 and gained a total of 278 yards while the Tiger's garnered a total of 151.

Cunningham completed six passes out of 14. Slaton's R. A. Thompson and Glen Aiken between them completed four passes.

The Tigers go on the road this week and the following week, meeting Seagraves and Littlefield.

Coating Has Gleam
Most varnishes dry with a high gloss. If a flat finish is desired, the varnish must be rubbed, or a special flat-drying varnish used.

Coach Toney Poulos takes his Slaton Tigers to Seagraves this week meeting the Seagraves Eagles Friday night in a non-district battle.

Poulos, who says, "If we can win that first game, we should be all right," has shifted his line-up somewhat after last week's loss to class-A Abernathy.

Ezra Corley, a pass-snagging end, has been shifted from left to right end. Donald Bownds, has been moved up to the first string as left end and Raymond Turner, a tackle, has been switched to guard. Backfield changes made this week saw Joe Sparkman, who shone in last week's game, moved to half-back in place of Bill Butler.

These changes were made in practice sessions this week but may be changed when the Tigers line-up at Seagraves Friday night.

This week the Tigers will be meeting a team that has won its first two games by lopsided margins although it's opposition has been a lower class.

Coach Leo Field's Eagles knocked off Hermeleigh in their opener and followed up with a win last week over Meadow, 39-0.

Quarterback Nelson Smith is the offensive spark of the Eagles. He scored on an 80 yard run last week against Meadow. Smith, a good passer and runner, added two of the Seagraves extra points.

Despite Slaton's tie and loss in their first two games, the Tigers will be favored Friday night, over the smaller Seagraves team.

This will be Slaton's first road game of the season and will be followed by another trip to Littlefield next week. The Tigers have three more games before opening district play against Spur here on October 12.

The Tiger band and pep squad will make the trip to Seagraves. A large crowd of Slaton boosters are also expected to see the Tiger-Eagle game.

Ticket prices will be the same as Slaton home-games, $1.00 for adults and 30c for students.

Home Ownership

More homes were owned by their occupants in 1950 than ever before in history, says the National Association of Home Builders. Owners totaled 19.5 million, as against 17.1 million units occupied by renters. This is an increase of 71 per cent in the last 10 years. Renter-occupied units increased by only 5 per cent in the same period.

Sport Page

UNOFFICIAL FOOTBALL championship of the South Plains will be at stake when West Texas State and Texas Tech meet in Lubbock this Saturday night, Sept. 22. Slaton to do some of the tossing, if the Red Raiders take to the air, is quarterback John Moughon (above) who hails from Weatherford, Texas.

4-AA Teams Drop 3 Games; Win 2 In Last Week Card

District 4-AA teams failed to break even in the win-loss column, winning two and losing three. Tahoka and Spur joined the Slaton Tigers in dropping games to outside opponents.

Post and Ralls continued their winning ways by coasting to easy victories.

DENVER CITY DROPS TAHOKA

The Mustangs of Denver City jumped off to 20-0 start in the first half, then held off a last half rally by Tahoka, which scored 13 points for the victory. Denver City's Jerry Trenary ran 58 yards for a touchdown in the opening minutes of the game.

TULIA TAKES SPUR

In a hard-fought game at Spur the Tulia eleven squeezed by a driving Spur team to win 13-6. The two teams, evenly matched, in the statistics, fought each other up and down the field, but two scoring chances missed by the Bulldogs spelled the difference.

POST EASES BY FLOYDADA

Scat-back Jack Kirkpatrick ran 15 yards in the final stanza to give the Antelopes a one touchdown victory over Floydada, 6-0. The Antelopes out-pointed the Whirlwinds in statistics but the aggressive Floydada eleven kept them from scoring.

RALLS BLAST MORTON

The Jackrabbits of Ralls ran all over the much lighter Morton Indians, walking off with a 27-6 victory there last week. Fullback Alvin Rovinsky of the Ralls team was the star of the game, scoring three touchdowns and adding an extra point to wind up with a total of 19 points for the night.

How to "Dodge" Lightning

Summer takes a larger share of the annual toll from lightning than any other season. To those who would better their chances of avoiding the lethal bolt during an electrical storm, safety experts offer advice: Never seek shelter under a tree, particularly an isolated one. One third of all the victims lose their lives this way. Don't remain in a small boat during the storm. Taking refuge in a small, isolated shed, especially one in an exposed area, also is dangerous. Never stay in swimming through the storm; not only do you become a target for a direct hit, but you also can be electrocuted by a charge carried by the water from a bolt striking at some distance.

Life Expectancy Up

The expectation of life at birth among American wage earners and their families rose to an all-time high of 68.2 years in 1950. This is a half year higher than in 1949. The expectation of life has increased 2 1/4 years in the past four decades and has doubled in little more than two generations.

New Star Patricia Neal Gives Sage Advice To Screen Hopetuls

Hollywood's most sensational newcomer, Patricia Neal, is learning one lesson in her first year in the land of make-believe—there is no bed of roses along the path leading to a crown of film glory. "If you are going to succeed, you must be prepared for work and long hours," Patricia says. Patricia is the gifted young lady who was selected by Warner Bros. for the role of the tempestuous Dominique in "The Fountainhead" with Gary Cooper, Raymond Massey, Kent Smith and Robert Douglas.

People who come to the screen industry from the stage, as Patricia did, are not accustomed to getting up with the chickens.

"The first month when you are rehearsing for a play can be fairly rough, but after that, except for the two days on which there are matinees, your working hours are confined to the nightly performances."

Now Patricia gets up at 6 a.m., every day except Sundays, and likes it.

"It takes that much time to have breakfast, and then have your make-up put on and your hair dressed, in time to be on the set at 9," she added.

"Except for lunch, we're shooting steadily until 6 p.m. Then you look at the rushes for the day, go home, have dinner and study your script."

"By 9 p.m. you've put in a mighty busy 15 hours."

Author Gives OK To Star Bette Davis

Warner Bros. "Beyond the Forest" is a film adaptation of the popular Stuart Engstrand novel. Unlike the tempestuous heroine of his book, Engstrand lives a quiet ranch life with his wife and daughter in California. Only under the persuasions of Bette Davis and Joseph Cotten who star in the film, would he even visit the set when the picture was being filmed.

"What do you think of Miss Davis in the role of Rosa Moline?" asked producer Henry Blanke. "I can think of no one in Hollywood I would rather see in the part," replied the novelist.

Cindy Lydick, 3-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Lydick, Jr., of Fort Worth, arrived in Lubbock by plane last Friday. She was met by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans, and by her aunt and cousin, Mrs. Joe Greenfield and Myran. Cindy will spend 10 days with the Evans and Greenfield families and with her great-grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Robertson.

Floyd county cotton farmers, some of whom think they have to have Mexican nationals to harvest a crop, may find solution this year in some other manner.

Earl Crow, vice-president of the First National Bank, and Mayor James F. Patterson attended a meeting in Lubbock called last week-end by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, to discuss the labor problem. They returned home in the belief that a farmer who hired Mexican nationals would have to undertake a rather onerous load financially and that many cotton raisers would balk at the restrictions.

Alleged discrimination and ill treatment in prior years resulted in tight rules agreed to by the U. S. federal government and the Mexican federal government in permitting the Mexicans crossing the boundary line to work in the United States. Among these is a contract which must be signed by the employer.

Crow and Patterson said it was stressed at the meeting that some counties are on the blacklist, due to ill treatment of the Mexican workers.

The "flying whatsits," so dubbed by a Lubbock Avalanche-Journal writer, were observed zooming over Abernathy sometime between 9:15 and 9:45 o'clock Saturday night. The Floyd Prathers, 412 Eleventh St., and their next door neighbors, the E. G. Thompsons, 408 Eleventh, were visiting in the yard when Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson came by and jokingly asked if they were looking for the "flying whatsits." A few minutes later, the "things" zoomed across the Abernathy sky as the three couples watched in amazement. Mrs. Prather says the objects they saw resembled those in the photos appearing in the Lubbock papers.

A warning to beware of a brand of silver polish being sold here from door-to-door was issued local residents by Bill Cox, sanitarian with the South Plains Health Unit.

Cox said the polish contains either potassium or sodium cyanide, both of which are highly dangerous and quick-acting poisons.

He said the bottle showed the poison warning in very small letters. He emphasized that the polish should be handled with extreme caution.

It was a fight this week to determine whether a huge crop of careless worm would destroy the Crosby county cotton crop before farmers could destroy them. Every conceivable means is being used to spray and dust the crop in an effort to take care of the biggest plague of worms ever seen in this county.

Results of from good to bad are being reported in the poisoning. County Agent Bill Kimbrough said Wednesday. Some farmers who have poisoned with DDT report the mixture seems to have little effect on them.

A new shipment of instantaneous killer was expected to arrive here today, Thursday, and this will be used by many in an effort to halt the damage by the worms.

The worms hatched out by the hundreds of thousands beginning last Wednesday, the agent said, just as most farmers were beginning to believe they had the insects under control. The careless worms first ate up every careless weed they could find, then jumped over on the cotton, eating leaves, squares, and the foliage around young bolls.

They also invaded the city, eating fruit and leaves, climbing the walls of houses and even getting into the houses.

Total enrollment in the Brownfield schools Wednesday afternoon was 1,880 students, and at least 120 more are expected to enroll in the near future, according to O. R. Douglas, superintendent.

In the high school there is a total of 415 students; Junior High, 318; Hest Ward, which includes the fourth, fifth and sixth, 496; Jessie G. Randal, the first three grades, 564; and Gomez, 97.

—The Terry County Herald

Many homes and gardens in the Brownfield area are being invaded by a greenish looking worm about a half inch long. This worm is a destructive little pest in the vegetable and flower garden and is known as the Garden Web Worm. Its scientific name is Loxostege similalis, according to John H. Happ, Sanitarian at the South Plains Health Unit.

Reports have come in that the worm or larva has taken over many gardens and has done considerable damage to a wide variety of both vegetables and flowers.

The infestation of this worm is said to be the result of great numbers of the moths that were present in the Brownfield area earlier this summer.

Testifying before the House Banking committee in opposition to price controls, Ray S. Paul, vice-president of the Rath Packing Co. brought out a situation not hitherto discussed in the control hearings.

He told the committee that the nation will be "robbed" of such vital drugs as ATCH and cortisone as a result of beef controls regulations. Controls will drive beef, or a great portion of it, into the black market, he warned, where the drugs—byproducts of beef—will be lost.

TURN LAYERS INTO PAYERS
If you own a laying flock that comes from good breeding stock, you have a right to expect profitable results. But your layers will not produce good results unless you, their manager, provide the right kind of feed, good housing, good sanitation, and good care to keep them healthy and productive.

With today's birds capable of long production records, it is more or less up to the raiser to keep the flock performing well. Through good management a raiser can contribute greatly to the overall production record of his birds. He can guide them to the production and profitability which can be rightfully expected from good stock.

Intensity - Persistency

Birds which come from good stock have what is called high intensity and long persistency. Intensity may be defined as the number of eggs the birds lay in one cycle without missing. In some flocks, hens have been known to lay more than 200 eggs in that many days before missing a day. Persistency, on the other hand, means the ability of the hen to continue to lay eggs through the full calendar year or longer. Today, the best hens may lay for 15 or 18 months, and sometimes longer, without interrupting production for more than just a few days at a time.

A raiser must exercise careful management to get the most out of his layers. In doing this, there are many details he must consider. As a brief reminder, or refresher, here are some of the more important ones:

Management Rules

1. House birds in a tightly constructed, yet well ventilated house. Have enough windows for good light in the house.
2. Provide ample floor space (not less than 3 sq. ft. for each Leghorn, and not less than 4 sq. ft. for each dual-purpose bird).
3. Provide general sanitary conditions for birds. Clean and disinfect equipment regularly.
4. Use good feed and provide a balanced mixture. Use hoppers to keep feed clean, fresh, and palatable. Have plenty of hopper space.
5. Keep water fresh and clean and have it easily available to the birds.
6. Provide plenty of clean nesting space.

News Of Slaton Men In Service

Pfc. Thomas R. Hughie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hughie has been home on a ten day leave from Terminal Island in Long Beach, Calif. He was with a guard detachment there. He is to report to San Francisco, Calif. at Treasure Island for further transfer to the Marine Islands, either on Guam or Slaton. He will spend 18 months overseas with a guard detachment as a Military Police. He has been in the Marine Corps for 14 months.

The family last heard from Cpl. Floyd R. Hughie, Thomas' brother, the last of July. He was in Japan on rest before being sent back to Korea.

Cpl. Jimmy Lovelady, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Lovelady reported to his parents that they were bringing in a huge amount of Marines at the base at Yokosuka, Japan, and most of them seem to be from Texas. He said now all he had to do was convince the boys from East Texas that West Texas was the best place in the world.

Captain Louis Sanders wrote his parents on September 6 that he had received his replacement and would sail for the states in "a day or two." Captain Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sanders. He has been in Korea fifteen months.

Wallace Sanders, ADE2, of the Navy, is an instructor at the base at Kingsville, Texas. He and his wife and son Larry could not find a place to live in Kingsville, so they rented an apartment in Alice and Wallace has been driving back and forth to the base. Last week, when Mrs. Sanders heard about the flood at Alice she began trying to call her son. There was only one wire in order Friday, but she finally managed to get through. However, the messenger sent to call her son couldn't get out to his apartment because of water five and six feet deep. All day Saturday, and Saturday night Mrs. Sanders continued to try to reach her son either at Alice or at Kingsville. Finally, Sunday, she talked to him. He reported that they were safe, and since they have an upstairs apartment, they were dry. He hadn't been to the base at Kingsville since Tuesday the 11th, since all roads were closed. He and the other servicemen of the Kingsville base who live at Alice had been helping evacuate families and doing rescue work. He reported the water had gone down some, but he didn't know when he would get back to Camp, since Kingsville was flooded Saturday.

Lt. Cmdr. Clyde A. Williams, USN, of Slaton, Texas, has reported for jet pilot training at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Kingsville.

Lt. Cmdr. Williams was commissioned in the Naval service in 1941.

He resides with his wife and two daughters at 228 East Kennedy St., Kingsville.

August 28 on the General Muir, and landed at Bremerhaven, Germany September 9. By train they went to Ellevegen where they are to be stationed.

Davis, a former mail carrier of Slaton, says that Germany is a pretty and very clean country, but that he had rather be in Slaton carrying a mail sack.

Sgt. Davis enclosed the following clipping from 'The North Atlantic Signal' the newspaper of the General Muir:

"There's a little bit of everything in Texas." At least, so claims one of the many songs written about the Lone Star State. One of the biggest contributions Texas has made to the General Muir shipment is the 411th Transportation Truck Battalion. The 411th, a reserve outfit headed by Major Harvey C. Bowdle, was organized at Lubbock on Sept. 11, 1950. Shortly afterwards it went to Fort Eustis, Virginia, for training. The unit called Fort Eustis home until it was sent to Camp Kilmer to join the Muir shipment.

The members of the 411th on the Muir are the men of HQ and HQ company, the nucleus of the organization. The battalion will be brought to full strength in EUCOM.

The esprit de corps and state pride of Texas units is by this time proverbial. One of the men of the 411th had this comment on the subject: "I'm not a Texan at all. I'm from Michigan. Many in the outfit are from outside 'The Empire'."

On Germany we got at Kilmer? Well, on page 9 there was a statement that Germany is slightly smaller than Texas. So for days all we got was, 'Have you seen page 9?' These guys have really got state pride!"

It seems fitting, in view of these statements, that the Lone Star Banner presented them by the VFW post in Slaton, Texas, is definitely the 411th's pride and joy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCain received a letter from Jack the other day. He has asked them to thank everyone who sent clothing in answer to his request. He said it's beginning to get cold over there now and that if the people here could see how much comfort and pleasure the clothing they sent is affording the orphans there, he knows they would feel as happy as he, that Slaton people can help those in distress.

William R. Sanner, Communications Technician 1st Class, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Sanner, now serving his second tour of duty in the Aleutian Islands at Adak, Alaska writes that he expects to be home some time during the coming spring for a few weeks. In 1948, Billy served 18 months at Adak Post and will have served another 15 months by next March. He writes that this summer and winter Adak Post has enjoyed extremely mild weather conditions compared to other years. Adak is 860 miles from Kodiak, Alaska and 850 miles from Vladivostok, U.S.S.R. His address is W. R. Sanner, Box 10, U. S. Naval Communication Station, Navy No. 230, care Postmaster, Seattle, Washington.

How Canyon managed to be placed upon its present location was answered in typical fashion a short while back. It happened like this: Two young fellers were walking up the street. One of them stopped for a moment, scuffed his worn boot along the concrete pavement and looked up to his buddy and said, "no wonder they put a town here, this ground is so hard, it wouldn't even grow cockleburrs."

You have to be a mathematical wizard to tell time here in Littlefield. Most every electric clock is fast, or slow, or maybe isn't even running at all. At KYOV, where the CWN newscast emanates every Thursday morning at 11 ayem (listen in - dot), we must remember to subtract four and a half minutes from the clock pecking out of the boss' office.
Our favorite tho, is over Walters durg. When we report to work in the mornings, we feel so good because no matter how late it is, the clock always says 6:30 and we know we can relax over a cup of coffee with a free conscience.

Then, too, if we're hungry, we can look on the opposite side and leave for lunch—that one says five seconds to noon. It's much nicer than if it really ran!

50,000 Miles-No Wear and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil"

says E. M. Markl, Sr.
Buick Dealer
Kansas City, Kansas

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence: in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

GARAGE MANAGER

"A mechanic dreams of working on a clean engine," says Lewis Stoddard, Garage Manager, Blackfoot, Idaho. "My dream came true when customers started using new Conoco Super. It cuts down trouble, but I'm a loyal booster of Conoco Super."

RANCHER

"I'm sure glad you converted me to the '50,000 Miles-No Wear' oil," writes Albert E. Lentz, Rancher, Delta, Colorado. "I really barreled my Mercury over the highway on a recent trip, and all I could hear was a motor purring like a kitten."

Old King Cotton Is Tough . . .

Is this section of West Texas getting hotter and hotter as time progresses? Most old timers will tell you that there has not been a real blue norther in this country in years. No longer do the winters hold the dread for the South Plains folks as it did in Dad's time when he got caught with the wagon and team out on the lone prairie with nothing but some horse corn and a plug of tobacco to eat.

There has not been a heavy snow on the South Plains in ten years, the thermometer has broken no low records but on a number of occasions it has topped all the high readings that have ever been kept.

The milder climate may be inductive to the cultivation of many species of plants and flowers that have never been adaptable to the South Plains before. It was not until the early twenties that cotton was attempted in this part of the state, now there is more cotton grown on the South Plains than any other part of Texas. While cotton has made West Texas prosper, it is one of the most treacherous crops of all. The price can fluctuate more and the demand change quicker than on any crop grown in the nation. Sooner or later the sections of the country that depend upon it too much will come to grief.

The growing of unusual crops such as cator beans, soy beans and blackeyed peas have brought prosperity to many farmers who have abandoned the common crops in other parts of the nation, and sooner or later the South Plains will be forced to depend on other crops besides that of cotton.

How well the farmers of this section will meet this problem, when it comes, will be decided by how much development and experimenting on new crops for this section, is being done now. It will take a big over-supply of cotton, a drop in the price before many of the cotton producers will change, but old King Cotton is a hard man to serve when he gets too overpowering.

Wisdom Of The Bureaucrats . . .

Back in the early thirties, when the Federal Government was buying the cows and calves from four to ten dollars a head, and feeding them to the buzzards, who would have believed that in 1951 the same authoritative source would tell you that you couldn't slaughter an animal and put it in a deep freeze locker. The OPS now rules that the slaughter of beef animals for home consumption must operate a farm on which he must reside for at least six months in the year, or he must have actually superintended the raising of the beef animal on his own premises for at least ninety days immediately before the time of slaughter, or, if the animal is less than ninety days old at the time of slaughter then it must have been raised on the consumer's own premises from its birth. That's socialism for you, and it's the price the nation must pay for the foolhardy notion that the bigwigs at Washington can give you something for nothing. —The Maybank Banner

Wardrobe From Oil . . .

Dr. Gustav Egloff, noted chemist, has a whole wardrobe made from petroleum—except shoes, and they are 40 per cent oil. He attended ceremonies of the American Chemical Society at this garb of synthetics using petroleum—a suit of dacron, a hirt of dacron, socks and ties of nylon, underwear of dacron and nylon.

To Texas, it may come as good news. We're an oil state, aren't we? But what about cotton? It is not the best apparel fiber yet devised, and must it continue to look to the government for sustenance instead of standing on its own stalks?

Artually, there will be more invasions of cotton's privacy because cotton is political. While the politicians pet cotton, the scientists replace it with oil and wood fibers.

The cotton farmer needs 40c cotton, he says, to break even. Forty-cent cotton is too high for mills to pay for clothing material. So science intervenes, through necessity, and supplies raw material for suits and socks which is cheaper than cotton. If it is better and cheaper than cotton, clothiers will use it.

Dr. Egloff's dacron shirt is never ironed and will go two days without showing dirt. The suit, of dacron, feels like a mixture of wool and silk and needs only one pressing a month. That is what science, not politics, does for a raw material. —The Dallas News.

Mental Case Load . . .

Despite all the hue and cry for state hospital reform, the system of institutions dedicated to housing and treating mental cases and other unfortunates is being sorely taxed by a patient overload. The state hospital board is speeding up plans for a building program during the next two years as an initial phase of reform.

The population increase in Texas and the stresses of modern times inevitably lead to more mental cases. More and more seniles as a result of the prolongation of life have been added as responsibilities of the state hospital system. Provision for colored seniles will necessitate an $800,000 building at Mexia. The recently assumed task of caring for cerebral palsied children will require a $500,000 building at Moody State School in Galveston.

Overcrowding of patients militates against rehabilitation so that they can be restored to society. Larger staffs and other improved facilities are sorely needed in practically all the state hospitals. If curse or restorations are not affected, the case load on the state institutions will steadily increase to necessitate still more costly buildings than otherwise would be the case.

Presentation of the state hospital problem to the people should be a continuous process as the prerequisite to sustained reform. If the hospitals are limited by inadequate facilities to their old custodial function, the cost will become prohibitive and Texas will have failed to practice humanitarianism toward its mental and other unfortunate wards. —The Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Notes . . .

As it is with many mothers, this one disliked hearing her sons' names shortened. Edward, naturally, was "Ed," and Arthur was "Art." She resolved to give her next child a name that couldn't be abbreviated.

Dwight. You couldn't shorten that. But you could give him a nickname like "He"—probably the most famous nickname in the world. —Alice Hauley.

The proprietor of a Mexican inn made it a practice to have his guests inscribe some appropriate sentiment in his guest book. An American woman held her pen and gazed thoughtfully and fruitlessly into space.

"Perhaps madam can best express herself," suggested the proprietor, "with some famous remark of a countryman of yours."

The suggestion bore fruit. The women nodded, smiled and penned her message: "Quoth the raven . . ." —Dorothy Melles

Maybe you're missing something BIG

WE know how you feel when a car has given you faithful service. You like it. You're loyal to it. And that's only human.

But just suppose you found out that some other car could make familiar roads seem a lot smoother.

Suppose some other car had more thrilling power—steered like a dream—held its course like an airliner on the beam—and let you finish a long day's drive feeling daisy fresh.

Wouldn't you feel you're missing something big unless you tried it out?

There is such a car. Its name is Buick.

It has big soft coil springs on every wheel. It has a Fireball Engine. It has a "front-end geometry" that does miracles with steering. And it has Dynaflo Drive.*

JUST TALK

by
A.M.J.

The new high school journalism instructor, H. A. Cox, and I, had a discussion last week about why so many high school graduates and college students these days are such poor spellers. I quoted an article that stated that if a child is a poor speller when he, or she, gets out of high school they will always be poor spellers.

"That may be right," said Cox, "but it's not going to keep me from trying to teach the students how to spell."

That's the kind of spirit I admire, and I wish I had the determination to try to lick all the problems that face me but I find it a lot easier to side step them, try to forget them, or to go ahead and do things and let the chips fall where they may.

If the journalism instructor ever finds a good way to teach folks who are getting a little old, to learn how to spell, I'd like to enter one of his classes for I'm one of the worlds worst spellers. Anybody want to contest me?

Doctor W. E. Payne got himself all upset the other day when he drove over to the Post Office to get his mail. As he turned the corner at Garza and the Square he came up behind another car headed toward the Post Office, there was a great big, juicy parking space immediately in front of the Post Office and Doctor Payne began muttering about big road hogs who grabbed all of the parking spaces. He felt sure the man in front of him intended parking in the very choice location. The driver even wobbled a little toward it as he approached. While Doctor Payne was shaking his fist at him and the other fellow drove right on past. The letdown was terrific, said Doctor Payne, and he is not going to pass up any good parking spaces from now on whether he intends to stop or not because he does not want anyone to get up as much steam as he did and have the other fellow cheat like the man did in this instance.

About once or twice in an ordinary person's life time there comes an occasion where he, or she, find themselves with a big fish that someone else caught and does not know how to prepare it for a meal.

This has happened to us once or twice and we went ahead and fixed it so that it tasted like strips of old rubber tires, and I'd like to tell you how Mr. Rodgers, manager of Buffalo Lakes, cooks big fish so that it tastes good enough for me to even eat it.

The reason I believe most women do not fry fish good is because they are too stingy to use enough fat, and this suggestion will not do the women much good, but if you want to fry a big fish right, cut it into strips a little larger than a piece of french fried potato, fry it in a lot of shortening like you would a french fried potato, and it will be as crisp and delicious as you could ask for. I know, for once upon a time Mr. Rodgers had us out to Buffalo Lakes to a fish fry and I ate so much that he has never held a fish fry since.

Even though there are times during the day in the fall of the year when things seem just right it is the time of the year that gets me all balled up. In the morning I get up with goose bumps standing out on me like bee stings. I stumble around and knock all the skin off my shanks against the furniture until I can find a match to light the heater and in fifteen minutes the house is hotter than it was in the middle of July. At night when I go to bed I get under a sheet and a light cover, by midnight I am so cold I'm shaking like an aspen tree in Colorado, at three o'clock I can stand it no longer so I get up in the dark, crack my toe against a chair, crash into the wall and wake up my wife who has to turn on the light and find me some more cover. We usually stay awake until five before either can go back to sleep and at seven, when I usually get up to prepare to go to work, I'm so sleepy that I can hardly find my mouth with a piece of burnt toast. The problem is whether one should go to bed with a couple of blankets and smother until twelve or one o'clock or sleep until twelve or one and wake up at that time and try to get warm before breakfast time.

Lately my hearing has been pretty foggy either because my hay fever is affecting my ears or because time is telling on me. When I was in the hospital a doctor came in the room one day and put a little cone shaped drinking cup in one of my ears, he also stuck a little light down in them and he said that my ear drums and outer ears were o.k. and invited me to come up to his office after I got out of the groaners paradise, but I'd had enough so I'm going around saying "huh" to most everybody. Not hearing too well has some advantages especially where some long winded guy is making a speech or when one has to go to a piano recital with his wife. The speech sounds kinder like the distant rumble of a train and a piano like the buzzing of a bumble bee. Most of the time the noises are not disturbing and I can sit and think of some of the nicest things. One should think twice before getting one's hearing fixed too good, not being able to be bored has some advantages.

A sample of what folks are going to have to go through when the new laws concerning automobiles goes into effect was given me this week when I finally had the foot brake fixed on our car. Having forgotten that I had the mechanic tighten them up I slammed them on in my usual casual manner and our cocker that was asleep on the back seat landed with all four feet on my head, three sacks of groceries turned over and I knocked all the skin off my knee.

When I got home I forgot to tell my wife and she squashed a new fall hat against the wind shield and told me what she really thinks about me at times. The dog won't get in the car anymore, my wife is going to get a new hat and I'm figuring out a new set of expenses. Do you suppose such items can be counted in your income tax?

Children Remember

Children remember more about motion pictures than adults, and for a longer length of time, according to tests reported by Childcraft books. Action is remembered best, especially when it is connected with types of activity that are familiar to the child. All children tend to accept as true everything seen in the movies, unless it is clearly shown to be false.
