

Mules face Graham Thursday at Snyder

Area contest slated for 7 p.m.

The Muleshoe Mules will take on Graham Thursday at 7 p.m. in Snyder in the Class 3A Area baseball playoffs.

The Mules, the District 2-3A champions; advanced to the area round last Tuesday, battering Perryton 11-6 in a bi-district playoff in Amarillo.

Graham, the District 3-3A runner-up, advanced to the area round Friday in Wichita Falls, slipping past 4-4A champion Boyd 2-1 in a bi-district contest played at Wichita Falls. Graham improved to 13-10, while Boyd ended the year 15-7.

In other Class 3A bi-district games, 6-3A runner-up Eastland (17-4) beat 5-3A champ Brownfield (15-6) 5-2.

More games were scheduled for Saturday, including 2-3A runner-up Floydada taking 1-3A champ Sanford Fritch in Canyon. Also on Saturday, Iowa Park, the 3-3A champ, was to host 4-3A runner-up Aledo in a three-game series played both in Wichita Falls and Fort Worth.

The victory over 1-3A runner-up Perryton gave the Mules a 20-6 overall record for the season. They finished the district race with a 9-1 mark, winning the title outright.

The Mules will be home team against Graham. Senior Andy Perez, who improved to 11-4 on the season with the victory over Perryton, is the likely starter for the Mules against Graham.

Storm damage

The home of Bub Hudson, northeast of Muleshoe, suffered damage from what was believed to be a tornado that literally bounced through the area Tuesday night, May 16. Leaving a trail of damage to trees and 19 or more sprinkler systems, the storm was tracked from west of town to Easter Grain, six miles northeast of Lazbuddie. Fortunately no homes or lives were lost.

System creates disincentives for environmental cleanup

By Senator Teel Bivins

State regulatory agencies spend a lot of time and money policing companies and industrial operations to ensure they're not polluting our air, water and land. Ironically, one of the biggest disincentives for businesses to clean up environmental problems is the very system established to correct them.

The problem arises when a company itself discovers an environmental problem and reports it to the state in an effort to clean it up. Simply by calling attention to the problem, the company opens itself up to fines by the state and lawsuits by environmental groups.

Consequently, the reaction often is to cover up problems or correct them as much as possible and forget about them. Often companies simply don't bother to conduct environmental audits on themselves and just hope they're in compliance. Why risk painting a target on yourself?

Even when companies report

these problems to the state, the information they supply is often purposefully scant and shallow. In-depth environmental reports that companies conduct on themselves are not privi-

Former exchange student finds former Muleshoe host mother

By Martha Toles Frost

Helene Bekaert, who lives in Merelbeke, Belgium, was a foreign exchange student in Muleshoe during the school year 1961-62.

She wrote a letter to the Muleshoe Journal asking for help in making contact with her host mother, Blanche Lenderson.

They had been out of touch since 1992, and the phone numbers in Muleshoe have changed since then.

The letter from Helene follows:

Bekaert Helene

J. Hebbelynck Straat 13
9820 Merelbeke
Belgium
Sir:

My name is Helene Bekaert. I was an exchange student (American Field Service) in 1961-62. I stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lenderson, 1818 W. Ave. D. I went to Muleshoe High.

From then till now we saw each other a few times — we wrote — we exchanged news. The last time I got in touch was in 1992 — by phone — so I know that Jack died.

Since then I wrote several times — no answer; I called — wrong number (I was told by the Belgian Phone Co. that her number became private.)

I had a Spanish-speaking lady on the phone who promised me that her husband (who speaks English) would get in touch with Blanche and ask her to write or to call me — no reaction.

My problem: I don't have any contact in Muleshoe. I don't

Magermans takes home memories of Muleshoe

By Martha Toles Frost

When foreign exchange student Nicky Magermans came to Muleshoe from Belgium, she stayed the first week with her counselor Buck Johnson and his wife, Carolyn.

She spent the first semester with host parents Terry and Debbi Hutto and the second semester with Larry and Wanda Hooten.

About Muleshoe, Nicky said, "It was a great place — I'm glad I came here. I had a lot of fun and a lot of first experiences."

Wanda Hooten said the Rotary Club selected Nicky to come to Muleshoe and that Muleshoe usually hosts a Rotary foreign exchange student.

Hooten said the Rotary Club tries to send a student from this district to the same home of the student who comes to this area, but this isn't always possible.

When asked what she will miss about Muleshoe, Nicky said, "Friends, my host families, the sun, the temperature and the stuff I've done here — the school prom, graduation, tennis and band (percussion)."

Nicky's "other" parents are Lisette Moureau from Andrimont, Belgium, and Roger Magermans from Verviers, Belgium.

Belgium is bordered by Germany, France, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and the North Sea, Nicky said.

About Belgium, she says she has missed the food, the scenery, friends and family. Nicky has a 14-month-old sister named Flammand.

Before returning to Belgium to see her family, Nicky will be treated to a 35-day Rotary tour of the United States from East coast to West coast from June 25 through July 31.

Some of the places she will visit are Niagra Falls, Chicago's Sears Tower, Yellowstone National Park, Lake Tahoe, San Francisco, Yosemite National Park, Disneyland, the Grand Can-

After her trip, Nicky will spend one more week in Muleshoe. She plans to go to college and study law after she returns to Belgium.

Pioneer Days keeping cowboy tradition alive

Since 1971, the Curry County Mounted Patrol has been keeping the cowboy tradition each year with the Pioneer Days Rodeo.

The Mounted Patrol has been known for bringing entertainment to Clovis and Curry County for years through the sport of rodeo. However, sponsoring the Pioneer Days Rodeo has not always been the first agenda for the Mounted Patrol.

The Curry County Mounted Patrol was first organized in 1941, through the personal efforts of J. R. (Jack) Hull. At that time, the main objective of the organization was to serve as an auxiliary law enforcement body. The Mounted Patrol would be called upon mostly to help locate missing or lost persons. Occasionally, they would stand by when there was a threat of trouble.

Other than being a stand-by law enforcement group, the Curry County Mounted Patrol began sponsoring and producing western entertainment such as rodeo. For many years prior to 1971, the Patrol sponsored a World Champion Roping on Labor Day. The first rodeos were held behind Marshall Junior High where Norman leged and can be used against them in court.

This is a quirky system, and it's not working. The law should encourage companies to clean up environmental difficulties and to work with the state to prevent additional occurrences.

The purpose of fines and penalties is to discipline companies that don't care whether they pollute. The state should not penalize companies for doing what they can to keep clean.

Perhaps change is on the way. State Rep. Warren Chisum (D-Pampa) and state Sen. Buster

Brown (R-Lake Jackson) have introduced bills to protect businesses from civil and administrative penalties resulting from voluntary disclosures. The intent is to develop an atmosphere of cooperation between businesses and the state.

Under their proposal, a company's environmental audit would be privileged and inadmissible in a legal action, rather than allowing the information to be used as evidence in court against them. The privilege would apply only to information contained in audits the companies themselves conduct.

Vohs Stadium is now.

After World War II, the Mounted Patrol purchased the land where the Curry County Fairground, rodeo arena and milk plant now are. Each member of the Mounted Patrol signed a note for $100 to help purchase the land. The land was later deeded over to Curry County for the fairgrounds and some was sold to the milk plant.

In 1971, the Curry County Mounted Patrol built the present arena and grandstand facilities. That year, the Mounted Patrol presented the First Annual Pioneer Days Rodeo. To this day, the arena is acclaimed by many in the business to be one of the best around.

The 1995 rodeo is the 25th Pioneer Days Rodeo for the Mounted Patrol. A Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association Event (PRCA), the rodeo features some of the world's best athletes vying for prize money and point rankings.

The Curry County Mounted Patrol invites everyone to come out this year on June 1, 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. for the nightly entertainment of the American Cowboy Sport - Rodeo.

know where to turn to — that's why I'm writing this letter to the paper.

Please show this letter to Blanche or publish it in the paper. Somebody I know will react — I'm sincerely worried. What is happening out there?

Last week I got an invitation from the Muleshoe Ex-Students' Association to attend the student reunion on July 1st.

Of course, I would love to come and meet my former friends — after all those years, that would be quite something!

But it isn't easy to find a way. I am a teacher and school isn't out yet. To fly from Brussels to Amarillo or Lubbock is very, very expensive (to New York or L.A. or San Francisco, it is cheap.)

Anyway I hope that one day

my wish comes true. I hope you can interfere for me to make Blanche react.

I spent a wonderful year in Muleshoe with this family. I always will be grateful for the love and kindness this family, the school, the community gave me.

It would be a shame to lose contact. (I made so many efforts!)

Thank you for the attention you will grant this letter —

Sincerely,
Helene Bekaert
Merelbeke, Belgium

Representatives of the Muleshoe Journal took Helene's letter to Blanche on Wednesday.

The two women were able to make contact by phone that day.

Looking Back: A look at the past from the files of the Journal

By Holly Millsap

Well folks here it is May, and I'm behind, as usual! So what else is new? Anyway I've been at it again, so here goes!

1935

It was reported in the May 2nd edition of the Journal that the Western Drug Store was remodeling, enlarging and rearranging the store to better serve their customers.

Sibyl Coker was announced as valedictorian of the 1935 MHS class and Gerald Dean Reynolds was salutatorian. Among the class members names I recognized were: Twila Farrell, Hazel Nelson (Gilbreath), Melzine Rockey (Elliott) L.S. Barren Jr. and Arlo Ferrell.

The 1935 Junior and Senior banquet was held on May 9 with approximately 60 attending.

Cotton checks totaling $21,815. were received by farmers in Bailey County.

The Muleshoe schools received $1,778. of State funds, with more to come. This represented $2 per pupil.

Specials at the St. Clair Variety Store included dresses for $1.00. Mens' and boys hats were 25¢ to $1.49 and fabric was 10¢ a yard.

Showing at the Valley Theater was "This Mans' Navy", starring Wallace Berry.

Sunday, May 13, was declared a day of prayer by president Harry Truman.

The 1945 paper is full of news of servicemen from the Muleshoe area, some who came home and some who didn't. Lots of these young men I remember, even though I was only 10 years old. I probably knew relatives or heard my dad talk about them. I had several cousins on Mother's side of the family that served in WWII, and I can remember them coming by to see us or seeing them at Grandmother's when we were visiting her.

Several fires plagued Muleshoe residents, the worst being the Starkey Packing Company with a loss of building, equipment and merchandise.

The class of 1955 named Darla Myers salutatorian and Elizabeth Farley valedictorian.

At the annual MHS athlete banquet, Doyle Henry and Jean Montgomery received the "Fighting Heart" awards.

Interest in the Muleshoe Motor Co. was purchased by Mr. D.G. Smith from L.H. Jones and Raymond Maynard.

1965

A 12-year-old Muleshoe boy took top honors at a Junior Rodeo in Muleshoe, sponsored by the Muleshoe Roping Club. He was also named all around cowboy, the boy was C.L.

Myers.

Bula High School's top students named were Linda Grusenday as valedictorian and Pat Risinger as salutatorian.

Lazbuddie High School's top students were Linda Gleason, valedictorian and Marsella Mayfield, salutatorian.

MHS graduated 91 students in 1965; Jana Stevenson and Linda Dement were valedictorian and salutatorian.

Some of the specials at Perrys were ladies shifts for only $1.44 and nylon hose, 2 pair for 66¢. Specials at Anthonys were straw hats for only $2.98.

Santa Fe Railroad donated a bell from an old steam engine to the Muleshoe Immaculate Conception Catholic Church. It had been retired from engine # 2005, when the engine was converted to diesel. The pastor at this time was Father Clifton Corcoran.

Among the specials at Gibsons was a 54 oz. box of Spic and Span for 99¢.

The theme for the Junior and Senior banquet and prom was "Garden Party." The American Legion Hall was transformed to a beautiful "Garden" for the prom, and the cafeteria was also transformed with beautiful decorations and flowers for the banquet.

Dan Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellis, was named All-Around Cowboy at the Dalhart Rodeo. He came home with a beautiful trophy saddle.

The First Baptist Church of Muleshoe has a new pastor, the Rev. J.E. Meeks. Bro. Meeks, his wife and son, Jeffery, came to Muleshoe from Big Spring.

Specials at Anthonys for Mothers' Day included ladies' handbags for $8.00.

Snell, Kopf wed in ceremony at Muleshoe Heritage Center

Terie (Wilemon) Snell and SSgt. Mark W. Kopf were united in marriage, February 17 at the Muleshoe Heritage Depot with Bailey County Judge Marilyn Cox officiating.

Terie is the daughter of Claud and Ina Wilemon of Muleshoe. Mark's parents are retired MSgt Gary and June Kopf of St. Cloud, Florida.

The bride was attired in a red A-line dress with matching long-cut Indian fringe beaded in gold, with a white, long-cut, Indian fringe collar laid on top of the dress, which was also beaded in gold.

The groom was attired in a white western-cut shirt, trimmed with black collar and cuffs, with black, grey and red abstract print, which he wore with black jeans.

For something old, the bride wore pennies, minted in both of their birthdates, attached to her garter.

Something borrowed was the bride's dress. Something new was the bride's rings; something blue was the traditional garter, trimmed with red and white, with doubled beaded hearts attached.

The wedding was held in the Gwen Room of the Depot and the reception followed in the Depot dining room. Those who helped with the reception were Mary Ann Ramirez and Nelda Merriott of Muleshoe; Linda and Steve Watson of Clovis and Sue and Eric Johnson, also of Clovis.

The bride is a 1979 graduate of Muleshoe High School and is currently an associate with Wal-Mart in Clovis, NM.

The groom is a 1981 graduate of Eau Gallie High School in Melbourne, Florida, and is currently serving in the United States Air Force, stationed at Cannon Air Base near Clovis.

Just Thinking About "Time in a Bottle"

What is a grain of wheat?" Paul Tournier asks. "It contains a whole plant you cannot yet see. What is a silkworm? You cannot define it without seeing in advance all its metamorphosis. What is a child? You cannot describe him without thinking of the whole life of the man, with all its unknowns, for which he is preparing."

Focus On Faith
Curtis Shelburne

As I first read those words years ago, I sat at my desk and examined the little Christmas present I had just received from my mother. It was a very simple little thing—a small bottle with a glass stopper. Inside were ten or fifteen marbles. A little blue ribbon was tied around the small bottle.

Once it was a vitamin bottle, but now it was a very special paperweight. I remembered the marbles every one. They were mine—or at least they once were. The bottle? The bottle once sat by my aged grandparents' bed. It had held just enough water to use to take a pill or to wet a dry throat.

Dr. Tournier writes of the metamorphosis that changes caterpillars into butterflies and blond-headed boys into graying grandfathers. That little bottle is for me an appropriate symbol of the process. Nestled inside the glass bottle of the aged are the glass trinkets of childhood. Encapsulated by a marble-filled bottle is the whole spectrum of life from spring to winter, youth to old age.

With each tick of the clock every one of us is being transformed. No one is immune to the metamorphosis wrought by time. Dr. Tournier is right. We see a small boy and wonder what the man will be like. We wonder about the many unknowns life holds for the graduates walking across the stage—and for each of us as we remember what we ourselves have been and wonder what we may become. How quickly the present has become the past! The future races to meet us.

But Christians needn't be frightened of the future. All of us will be changed, but for God's man or woman the transformation may be a source of joy and hope as God works in our lives changing us "into Christ's likeness from one degree of glory to another" (2 Corinthians 3:18).

Curtis Shelburne is minister of the 16th & Avenue D Church of Christ in Muleshoe.

Peace Run to hit Muleshoe Tuesday

MULESHOE—A relay run across the length and breadth of America, which is dedicated to the cause of world peace, will pass through Muleshoe on Tuesday, May 23 at 5:10 p.m. The runners will be running Northwest on Hwy 84, and will arrive at the center of Muleshoe at 5:10 p.m.

Runners in the 50-state relay will hold a flaming Peace Torch to symbolize their goal of peace through sports. The emphasis is on racial harmony and peace in our cities as the building block for world peace.

In support of the Peace Run, the Heritage House Inn has provided complimentary accommodations for the runners for their stay in Muleshoe.

"We're targeting our efforts toward America's young people," says Shambhu Vineberg, director of Peace Runs International, the non-profit organization formed to manage the event.

"Our runners are meant to serve as role models, who will try to inspire a broader vision in today's youth. By meeting with young people throughout the country and bringing them together in a national relay, we hope to make a positive impact."

The 11,000-mile U.S. Peace Run is part of the 70-nation Sri Chinmoy Oneness-Home Peace Run, which has been held every other year since 1987.

The Peace Run includes simultaneous running events in the U.S., Canada, Eastern and Western Europe, Latin America, Asia, Africa, the Middle East and Australia. The international portions of the Run — highlighted by a 45-nation European relay and a special run linking Middle Eastern countries — will emphasize a more global theme of international peace and multicultural understanding.

The non-profit Peace Run was inspired by world peace ambassador Sri Chinmoy, who has dedicated his life to promoting the cause of peace. He has written and lectured extensively on peace, offered hundreds of free peace concerts and met with many world figures to advance the cause of international harmony.

The Run is sponsored by the Sri Chinmoy Marathon Team, an international running organization that puts on hundreds of athletic events worldwide each year — including several world-class ultramarathons, marathons and triathlons.

The global Peace Run, as well as its U.S. segment was kicked off April 15th with a relay run through all five boroughs of New York City.

The New York event was the first of several city-wide events that will be held in connection with the Peace Run in major cities around the country — including Washington, D.C.; Seattle; Chicago; and Providence, RI.

The 1995 Peace Run will conclude in New York on August 14.

Three-wheeler roping not a healthy activity

I've always sorta figured the reason there is more cowboy poetry than there is farmer poetry has to do with horses. Most cowboy poetry is about wrecks. One person plus one cow equals a wreck now and then. One person plus one cow plus one horse equals a wreck every time.

But if you substitute one three wheeler for one horse, a farmer can increase his chances of starring in a cowboy poem.

Kelly was workin' for John, his brother and his dad. They were farmers who ran steers on wheat pasture in western Oklahoma. They didn't use horses. They used three wheelers but they treated them like horses.

John had spotted a snotty nose, so he picked up Kelly and they drove back out to find the critter. Kelly sat in the seat behind John as the three wheeler sailed over the sandy wheat field. John pointed to a brockle calf with a little ear. He was a tad wasty and looked to weigh about 600 pounds.

"Rope him!" directed John as he goosed the tricycle and snapped Kelly's neck. They flew across the field toward the fence. John followed the racing calf, swerving from side to side. "Rope him!" he screamed.

Kelly was half standing, tears streaming from his eyes, sand stinging his face and trying to swing a loop over the top of Kingfisher county's answer to Evil Knivel.

"Git on the other side" hollered Kelly, swingin' his left-hand loop at the steer on the wrong side.

"This is as close as it gits," yelled John, "Throw it!"

Kelly fired a bullet of a loop. It looked like a monkey ropin' a gnu off the back of a galloping triceratops. He caught the steer!

Now what? Kelly was gatherin' slack as John hazed the steer. John grabbed the tail

Letter To Editor

Dear Sirs;

Sitting here in Lubbock reading paper. (Lopez-Marr) and it brought back memories of my grandfather in (minutes. I was just a little girl, (I'm 63 now), and he was so angry. He was puffing away furiously at his pipe and his rocking chair, creak, creak, creak! He always believed in neighbor helping neighbor, friend helping friend. "Men together, helping one another can get something done," he'd say. "But once you give a man a title (pover) he becomes a politician - and not worth a tinkers damn, because then he starts believing and acting as if he's above the common grand law. I used to think my grand dad was so funny. I can't remember what he was so upset about now, if I ever knew.

I guess, as my mind wanders around, the thought occurs to me, that if we had more people like Officer Lopez, who just did this job, who made no allowances for titles/positions, we'd have fewer and fewer politicians who thought themselves above the law of the land.

It's a shame, really, that many of us "fall into the habit of thinking, this is just a little liberty I'm taking — just bending the rules once or twice, here and there. Nothing really wrong with it. And we tell ourselves, everyone is doing it. But I've noticed that once you start — where does it stop?

I must hasten to add that I don't mean to malign Mr. Marr. It was just the memories that this article evoked, of a good man I miss very much.

Sincerely
Donna Kirkpatrick
 6025 Orlando Ave.
 Lubbock, Texas 79413

P.S. In reading my letter over I realize it applies to ALL of us — not just politicians. So I guess the bottom line is — if we want good goat - it has to start in one place — ourselves. If we allow ourselves to "cheat here and there," it's easiest to overlook it in others.

of the rope and tried to dally to the handlebars.

The steer stumbled at the fence. Kelly bounced over the pilot, hit the dirt and managed to take a wrap on one of the creosote posts. When the steer hit the post the post broke off, catapulting Kelly into the tangle. He clung to the post till the steer slowed to a crawl.

Over the horizon came John's brother Steve and their dad. They were pullin' the fishtailin' stock trailer behind the careening pickup. Kelly was plowing a furrow and poundin' his pockets full of sand when Steve leaped out.

He dropped the tailgate and, just like it was choreographed, the steer jumped toward the trailer.

"Let go of the post, you dummy!" shouted Steve. "You'll get hurt."

Kelly did. Like a slingshot, the post left his grip and whacked Steve square on the butt. His head hit the crossbar above the tailgate and he executed a complete backflip. John and dad slammed the tailgate on the steer and whacked Steve who hung like a gutted white tail from the highest slats.

That's a pretty good cowboy story, don't ya think?

So, who says you can't have fun without horses?

Built to Last

Steel framework is a symbol of massive strength. On these beams thousands of tons will rest and be supported with ease. Even the brick exterior will actually rest on the steel frame. No wind or storm that comes will threaten this structure — it is built to last.

Some lives are like this building—they have a core which supports the whole and which the storms of life will not threaten. The really good news is that you can have this solid center to your life too. It is a center based on total trust in God. Your nearby church can tell you why and how to trust in God. Go there and let your life be built to last.

Is something wrong with your life — an inner restless dissatisfaction? The answer to every human problem comes only from God our Maker. He alone can forgive and restore.

Through the church God has committed the provision and proclamation of His forgiveness and redeeming love. Without a church relation no one is securely related to God. Everyone should be in the Church and the Church should be in everyone!

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH. THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE.

NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE REQUEST RELATING TO IRRIGATION INTERRUPTION CREDIT AND RECOVERY OF POWER COSTS
 Notice is hereby given that Lamb County Electric Cooperative, Inc. (the "Utility") intends to change rates for electric utility service by implementing an irrigation interruption credit applicable to irrigation customers who agree by contract that their service may be interrupted and by revising the Utility's power cost recovery factor ("PCRF"), effective May 8, 1995 or as soon thereafter as may be permitted by law. The proposed changes are not expected to have any effect on the revenues of the Utility. The changes are applicable to all electric utility services, all areas served by the Utility, all customer classes, and all customers.
 Copies of the proposed revised tariffs, schedules, and supporting testimony and other pertinent data may be inspected in the office of the Utility located at 2415 South Phelps Avenue, Littlefield, Texas 79339, and at the office of the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78757. Inquiries should be directed to Mr. Delbert Smith, (806) 385-5191.

The Utility's wholesale power supplier currently allows a credit on the Utility's wholesale power bills in exchange for the ability to interrupt a portion of the Utility's irrigation load. The Utility's existing retail rates, which were established before the wholesale interruption credit became available, apply the interruption credit to all customers of the Utility regardless of whether such customers have agreed that their service may be interrupted. This occurs because the Utility's wholesale power supplier and the reduced level of power cost is flowed through to all consumers through the PCRF.

The rate revisions are proposed for the purposes of: (1) establishing a tariff authorizing payment of an interruptible credit to irrigators who agree by contract to allow their service to be interrupted, and (2) allocating the irrigation interruption credit received from the Utility's wholesale power supplier to the irrigation customers who have agreed to allow interruption of their load in the event the Utility's wholesale power supplier. The proposed changes will not increase or decrease the revenues of the Utility, however, the proposed changes are expected to increase the revenues derived from all customer classes other than irrigation and industrial (Plains Cotton Cooperative Assn).

Persons who wish to intervene in or comment upon these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, as an intervention deadline will be imposed. A request to intervene or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission's Public Information Office at (512) 458-0256, or (512) 458-0221 for text telephone. The deadline for intervention in the proceeding is May 18, 1995.

Minding your own business

By Don Taylor

I doubt that any criminal serving life without parole started his or her career with that objective in mind. Nor, do I believe any drug addict consciously decided to become a whimpering derelict when faced with a day without drugs. And, I'd guess that not even the most chronic alcoholic ever intended to end up in the gutter.

There are those in our country who sadly wag their heads in pity as they view those they think are unfortunate. They call our criminals, addicts and derelicts "victims of society." These "victims" they say, have been cast aside by our country. They've had no chance for success and need government help to reconstruct their lives.

I agree with the "victims" part. They are indeed victims. However, it is not the fault of our country or society. They are victims of the decisions they have made. Perhaps, they did not know that all decisions carry consequences along with them.

There has never been a life-without-parole criminal who didn't make some wrong decisions. Nor has there been a drug addict who believed that having a little fun or getting a little high would lead to personal destruction. No alcoholic ever became one without taking that first drink. We are all victims of our decisions.

The good news is that as bad decisions have had consequences, good decisions carry positive consequences. And, as certainly as a life of crime will lead you to prison or death row, good decisions will lead you to success.

Most of us make bad decisions. Usually, we get another chance. However, there are those unfortunate few who take one wrong turn and never have a second chance.

Tommy (not his real name) was one of the unfortunate ones. When he turned 16 he had two goals: To get his driver's license, and to get drunk. He accomplished both, three days after his 16th birthday.

Tommy almost got lucky. He nearly beat the train. Just a half second more and he would have cleared the crossing. The community mourned Tommy's death. The citizens also mourned the deaths of the other three teenagers Tommy took to the grave with him. Tommy's decisions carried eternal consequences.

Making The Right Choice

For most of us — the lucky ones — decision making is a continuing, life-long process. Seldom does any one decision ruin our lives or guarantee our future successes. Usually, we influence our destinies one day at a time by our day-to-day decisions.

Here are four quick tips for making the right decisions. First, remember even seemingly unimportant decisions. Often lead to critical consequences. A small decision to put off working on a project, or spending an evening in front of the TV can lead to procrastination and lethargy. Soon it becomes a time consuming habit.

Second, realize that quick decisions can often lead to undesirable results. For example, a hasty purchase often leads to regrets, and has on-going financial consequences, too. There is an old adage that says, "Decide in haste, repent in leisure." Take time to consider all decisions carefully.

Third, ask yourself if the decision is fair to everyone. Most of the decisions we make do impact the lives of those around us. Consider the fairness and courtesy issues before you choose a course of action.

Finally, keep your goals in mind when you make decisions. Ask yourself whether this decision is in your best interest in the long term. Too often we make "feel-good-now" decisions that may cost us dearly later. Stay focused on the most important elements of your life and your decisions will be consistent with your goals and value system.

The Texas 4-H Food Show is also conducted during 4-H Roundup week. Senior 4-H members, who have won at the county and district 4-H food show, qualify to prepare their favorite recipes in one of four categories: nutritious snacks and desserts; fruits and vegetables; breads and cereals; and main dish. Each first-place winner receives a $750 scholarship from the Morrison Milling Company.

The state event is also a time for recognizing 4-H adult leaders, alumni and sponsors. Awards are given to outstanding volunteers and other supporters of the Texas 4-H Youth Development Program.

"We are very proud of these young people," said Kandy McWhorter and Curtis Preston, of the local Texas Agricultural Extension Office.

Roundup, the biggest 4-H event held each year, gives 4-Hers an opportunity to gain educational experiences that support 4-H projects, demonstrate skills and practice leadership at the state level. Outstanding 4-Hers compete in 44 contests in which they showcase their speaking abilities, decision-making skills and talents.

This year, more than $920,000 in scholarships, sponsored by the Texas 4-H Foundation, will be awarded. Texas has the nation's largest 4-H scholarship program, which receives tremendous support from private donors.

The young people applying for scholarships are judged on their 4-H experience, leadership skills projects, community service, personal needs and other qualifications pertaining to high school academic performance; and college entrance exam scores. Scholarships are granted in agriculture, life sciences and unrestricted categories.

For the second year, 4-H members will have a chance to participate in the Teens of Texas Acquiring Leadership
