People Are Talking!

by
Eddie P. Richardson

We are hearing much talk about the new kid on the street — The Black Chamber of Entrepreneurs, which is not true. The Black Chamber has been around since the 1970's which was borne out of a need to fill a void. The Lubbock Black Chamber of Commerce was formed in early March, 1981 officially. This was done because of inadequate funding a full time staff. The organization has been crippled in its efforts to provide the kind of adequate assistance needed by the Black business community. However, the need and financial support for Lubbock's Black Chamber's daily operations has been proven time and time again. Concern for the lack of economic assistance for Blacks in the Lubbock community was the primary motive for a number of concerned Blacks to begin forming LBCE. These concerned citizens with various business and professional backgrounds organized LBCE for the sole purpose of improving the predominantly Black community which is now spread all over Lubbock economically.

The group realizes that to engender Black unity through economic activity and subsequent stability that aggressive networking was needed. In addition, LBCE recognizes the necessity of bringing a greater degree of pride and prosperity to Lubbock's Black community. People are talking and a lot of whites are asking why a Black Chamber. Letter to the local daily newspaper constantly condemn the ideas of a Black Chamber. Our answer to them is you are very misguided, misinformed, and under-sensitive. As the song says: "Walk a mile in my shoes and then you can understand why I sing the blues." Most white people take for granted the rights, privileges, and freedoms that Blacks and other minorities have to fight and struggle for. Very few whites have been discriminated against because of race, color or by legislation. Unless you have been there, you cannot know the feeling!

Most of the talk is why more than one chamber? Well, here goes the story book — the ideal, the All American Way is to have just one chamber! The local chamber, unfortunately, has proven it doesn't work out that way. There is no one special to blame, but it has not and is not working out equitably. Blacks have never been truly reflective of the process. One letter asked the question: "Was Lubbock setting the stage of Black Chambers? NO! Oakland, California has one of the finest chambers in the country. Dallas, Texas has one of the oldest Black Chambers in the country. Across America, Black Chambers are playing vital roles in obtaining Black convention dollars, business retention and recruiting, and other vital activities to support their cities, along with the regular chambers. The LBCE's overall program will support and supplement, rather than supplant activities of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, Board of City Development and COMA as well as other businesses, organizations, and programs. Supplemental activities will be designed to increase business opportunity, provide insight to economic trends, awareness of new tax legislation and regulations, set asides and their implications as they relate to Black business, industry, governmental agencies and bodies as well as economic development and business organizations to create new equity and ownership opportunities within inner city development where public funds are used. Our immediate goal is to move from the aid station to the trade station, and then aid plus trade. Here's the formula: Aid plus trade, less aid and more trade and finally, all trade, no aid. And then, maybe, just maybe, there will no need for a Black Chamber, and maybe we can gather under the massive big tent downtown and share the American Dream, and the economic activities equitable collectively together, but until then, there's a dire need for a Black Chamber!

By the way, wonder why a Black has never — to our knowledge — been hired by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, nor the recent re-organized Board of City Development. Surely, there are some young Blacks who could fit within the program.

Nuff said! Why not??

Tony Brown Announces New Movie

It's The Love Story You've Been Waiting For

Tony Brown, winner of numerous awards for his national television series on PBS, TONY BROWN'S JOURNAL, has announced his first major feature-length movie.

Principal photography on "The White Girl" will begin this summer and the movie is scheduled for release in theaters across the country in early 1988. It is a love story with an anti-drug message: "He loved her. She loved The White Girl."

"The White Girl" is a "double entendre. It's the street name for cocaine and, in the movie, the way a young Black woman sees herself. In this case, self-hatred contributed to the drug addiction. Both are problems. One leads to the other," Brown explains.

"That's why it's a love story with a love yourself theme," says Brown, who wrote the original screenplay and will direct the movie.

The filmmaker says the movie will provide Black actors with some of the best dramatic roles in years. However, final decisions on the leading characters have not been made.

From financing through production and marketing of videocassettes -- the picture will be controlled by Tony Brown Productions, Inc., which also owns a videotape duplication facility.

The movie will also serve as a vehicle for Black economic development. Brown, an exponent of self-help and chairman of the Buy Freedom campaign, a national network of Black-owned firms, says the production will also create a "movie-making opportunity" for Black entrepreneurs, promoters and non-profit organizations.

"The average Black movie is earning about $15 million. And Blacks spend $1.5 billion on movie tickets or one-half of the $3 billion earned by the movie industry. However, they never share in these enormous profits. For the first time, Black entrepreneurs and organizations will be offered a role in the marketing of a movie in their own locality or state," the multi-media entrepreneur explained.

That's why it will be the first Buy Freedom Movie," Brown announced.

The producer for "The White Girl" is James Connolly and the executive producer is Cheryl Connolly. Some of the best skilled Blacks in the filmmaking business are being recruited as chief crew members.

Interested actors can send pictures and resumes to Tony Brown Productions, 1501 Broadway, Suite 2014, New York, N. Y. 10019.

OUR GIANTS SPEAK

The Role of the Black Woman in Education
Septima Poinsetta Clark

The important role of Black women in the periods of slavery and reconstruction has received only a part of the attention which it so richly merits. Black women have played a major historical role in the life of Black America and of our nation as a whole. In this article, we show the determination, creativity and courage of our unsung heroines, from whence, many believe, has sprung our strength.

SEPTIMA POINSETTA CLARK describes her experience as a teacher during the Jim Crow period.

A Beginning Teacher

Here I was, a high-school graduate, eighteen years old, principal in a two-teacher school with 132 pupils ranging from beginners to eighth graders, with no teaching experience, a schoolhouse constructed of boards running up and down, with no slats in the cracks, and a fireplace at one end of the room that cooked the pupils immediately in front of it but allowed those in the rear to shiver and freeze on their uncomfortable, hard, back-breaking benches...

I had the older children, roughly the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The other teacher had those through the fourth. But my pupils in the seventh and eighth grades...were most erratic in their attendance, for they were old enough to work in the fields. They didn't come in until the cotton had been picked, and often it was Christmas and sometimes even January before all the cotton was gleaned. To add to this difficulty, most of these children had to stop school in early spring to begin preparing the fields for the new crop. Naturally, the attendance varied greatly from day to day.

We tried as best we could to classify these children. But it was difficult. Some subjects I was able to teach most of them at the same time, and so was the other teacher; we could make better time that way. But there were subjects that required almost individual teaching. Another problem was the lack of textbooks. There were so few, and what we had were not uniform. In the spelling classes, I remember, I often wrote out lists of words to be studied...

In those days the state financed the schools, but sometimes the counties provided small supplements and Charleston County was one of them. Soon I was getting a supplement of five dollars, which made my salary $35 a month. But right across from me—it happened that the white school and the Negro school in the community were not far apart—was the white teacher getting $85 a month and teaching three—yes, three—pupils.

It wasn't fair, of course; it was the rankest discrimination. That, however, was more than four decades ago...

The Thirteenth Summit Conference

"I can tell you that this year's economic summit in Venice was not only a success on a number of specific issues but that the spirit of consensus shown by world leaders there was particularly strong," said President Reagan in his televised address about the recent thirteenth summit meeting. These leaders were from the United States, Canada, England, France, Italy, West Germany and Japan.

Mr. Reagan said discussions were about the growth of personal freedoms throughout the world, how to encourage economic development in the less affluent nations and to help the people in the developing countries achieve a higher standard of living and more productive economies. They talked about the interdependence and reliance of those seven countries on each other. Mr. Reagan said, "they know that the economic progress we've made together has enabled the democracies to rebuild their defenses, keep peace in the world and strengthen our alliances."

Mr. Reagan stated that the Summit participants agreed on the pressing needs for an arms agreement between the United States and the Soviets; that more progress is needed in human rights in the Soviet Union and progress is needed in solving regional conflicts.

The summit leaders were disturbed over the United States' deficit and Mr. Reagan reiterated his same old theme of having reduced inflation, taxes, and having created new jobs. He said that real family income has increased and that there is a decline in poverty. As is his usual custom, he blamed the deficit on those who constantly say "tax and tax and spend and spend."

The President said the executive branch and Congress must work together to reform the budget process. He stated that the balanced budget he sent to Congress was ignored, and again he called for a balanced budget amendment and a line-item veto. Sensing his conflict with Congress on these issues, he has planned to take them to the people.

Mr. Reagan received only weak support from some of the Summit leaders for U.S. flagging of the Kuwaiti ships in the Persian Gulf.

For thirteen years these same countries' heads have met in a Summit meeting where they have discussed economic needs and improvements for Third World countries, freedom for the oppressed peoples and world democracy. All of this has been done without any representation from Third World countries. Democratic principles require participation of some Third World people.

For thirteen years these Summit participants have talked about promoting peace and reducing arms, but not one weapon has been reduced; instead there has been a constant weapons build-up. The Center for Defense Information stated in its 1983 report, "conflicts, violence and international tensions have increased in nearly every region of the world. There are 40 conflicts going on in the world, involving 45 of the 164 nations. Four million soldiers are engaged in combat with the loss of lives around five million." It stated that these conflicts may have a political, economic and humanitarian interest to America, but they have no defense impact on the United States. While this was a 1983 report and the Center is in the midst of completing its '87 report, they note there has been no decrease in the '83 findings.

While human rights in Russia was found to be reprehensible, the Summit leaders failed to adopt a resolution by Prime Minister Mulroney of Canada to condemn apartheid. This proves that the group has a selective human rights policy. This shows that their human rights compassion ends when Whites are oppressing Blacks. The Black world and right-thinking other world people can only view these five White males, one White woman and a Japanese as racists.

Representative William Gray, Chairman of the House Budget Committee, said the President did not tell the truth in his televised address about the budget. He stated that the President's budget had been discussed on the floor of the House and it only got 27 votes, in the Senate it received only 18 votes. Mr. Gray said Mr. Reagan did not send a balanced budget to Congress.

While the President talked about having reduced poverty, according to the Census Bureau there are around 140 million people in the U.S. and 33 million are on the poverty level. It reports that the gap between the rich and poor has widened. Mr. Reagan has not dealt with structural unemployment and unemployment among Blacks has continued during his administration to be twice as high as that of Whites.

Many congresspersons have serious doubts about flagging the Kuwaiti ships. Senator Moynihan, D-N.Y., said, "this faithless, doomed U.S. conspiracy with Iran has reached far beyond mere disgrace. It has threatened the balance of power."

On Meet The Press, Henry Kissinger expressed doubts about flagging the Kuwaiti ships. He stated that he did not know what we want in the Persian Gulf. He isn't sure if we want freedom of navigation or to protect the Kuwaiti tankers. As of now he disagrees with the President's actions. On the same program, Senator Sam Nunn, D-Ga., was for delaying the Kuwaiti action. He said, "I'm not saying the Kuwaiti vessel is not important. It is important. I'm saying that is not the critical issue. You're not going to protect the Persian Gulf until you end the ground war, and you're not going to protect it simply by flagging."

Senator Joseph Biden, a Presidential candidate, opposes flagging the Kuwaiti ships, calling it the most recent example of the President committing U.S. resources without articulating a sound reason for so doing.

These Summits have done nothing to decrease world hunger. The Committee On Hunger reports that there are five billion people in the world and half of them suffer from severe malnutrition.

To report that any of these Summit conferences have improved any world conditions is nothing more than committing a fraud upon the peoples of the world.

A Mountain Top Experience

Have you ever had a spiritual mountain top experience? Is it possible for us to have an experience with God where He walks and talks with us? When we read Matthew 17:1-8, we are reminded that it is possible for us today to have an experience with God that brings enlightenment and encouragement as we journey in the midst of the wilderness of crisis and face the uncertainties of tomorrow.

Jesus felt the need to go pray (Luke 9:28) and commune with God. He took with him three friends from His inner circle (Peter, James and John) for this experience of prayer and fellowship with God. As He prayed there was an inward transformation that expressed itself in an outward transfiguration of His face. Jesus' face shone like the sun and his clothes became radiant with dazzling light.

In this prayer experience upon the mountain top, Moses and Elijah, surrounded with heavenly brightness, communicated with Jesus. A voice from heaven that uttered identification and commendation was heard by the disciples. By this experience Peter, James and John came to a new recognition of Jesus' unique person and His divine authority.

Yes, through prayer we can have a "mountain top" experience. Jesus will speak to our hearts and bring comfort and peace.

We Thank God For Jesus

"Why Don't 'U' Read Your Bible Folk?"

Part I

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? And hear what God's word says. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's food for the soul everyday.

Matthew 11:29 -- Jesus said, take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I'm meek and lowly in heart; and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's the abundance of life, why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's for children, husbands and wives.

John 10:10 -- Jesus said, the thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy; I'm come that they might live, and have it more abundantly.

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's "The Blessing" of God. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's the words of the Lord.

Matthew 5:3-5 -- Jesus said, blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are the meek; for they shall inherit the earth.

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's the way through "Christ." Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's the way to new life.

John 14:6 -- Jesus said, I'm the way, the truth, and the life. No man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's light for the day. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? You won't stumble on your way.

Matthew 4:19a -- And he (Jesus) said unto them follow me. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It cleans "evil" hearts. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It will give you a new start.

Mark 2:17 -- Jesus said, they that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

Mark 7:21-23 -- Jesus said, for from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, and evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness. All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It's "food" for the soul. Why don't 'U' read your Bible folks? It shows you the way to go.

John 6:26-27 -- Jesus said, verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for the meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you; for him hath God the Father sealed.

God is not through with us yet. Let's pray for one another always. Amen.

LISD Board Will Compete State Effort

The Lubbock Independent School District is proud to announce that the Board of Trustees of the Lubbock Independent School District has been chosen as one of four boards to be selected as 1987 Honor School Board of Texas by the Texas Association of School Administrators.

Nomination of the LISD Board was made during the spring of 1987 and was based on the Board's willingness to politics dealing with AIDS and with drug testing, with privatization of transportation and food service, and in seeking unitary status in addition to the normal, routine matters handled by school boards.

One of the four boards will be designated as the outstanding School Board of Texas for 1987 at the Awards Dinner Sunday, September 20, during the annual convention of the Texas Association of School Boards and Texas Association of School Administrators in San Antonio.

BAPTISMAL REGENERATION VERSUS BLOOD REGENERATION

BY: CHARLES W. BAKER

I recently read an article which referred to the man of Ethiopia and Philip in Acts 8:26-39 which said that the Ethiopian "was baptized for the forgiveness of sins". This is a false teaching by the Church of Christ denomination, Catholics and others who believe that the waters of baptism brings about the salvation and forgiveness of sin for a lost sinner. This is a false doctrine called "Baptismal Regeneration" or "Salvation by Baptism". The reason that these false religions of our day use sprinkling as a mode for baptizing infants is that they believe infants and everyone else must be baptized in order for them to have salvation. It is not the traditions of men who determines the salvation of the human race but it is the authority of the Word of God that will judge the whole world. Acts 5:29 tells us that "We ought to obey God rather than men." The forgiveness of sins or washing away sins by baptism is not found in Acts 8:26-39 or any other scriptures in the Word of God. On the contrary in Acts 8:35 it states that Philip "preached unto him Jesus" and after the man "believed with all his heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God," Philip baptized him after the man "believed" and his sins had already been forgiven.

The only way that the sins of a lost sinner can be forgiven or washed away, is by the precious "BLOOD" of Jesus Christ. Hebrews 9:22 says "without shedding of blood is no remission." The word "remission" in Greek means to receive a pardon; be delivered and have forgiveness of sins. Leviticus 17:11 says "It is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul." The word "atonement" in Hebrew means: to cover; cancel; cleanse; forgive and pardon the sins of a lost soul. Jesus said himself in Matthew 26:28 "this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for the remission of sins." God's Word says in I John 1:7-10 that "the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." The Bible says in Revelation 1:5 that Jesus Christ "washed us from our sins in his own blood." Colossians 1:13-14 says that the Father "hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: in whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins." The word "redemption" in God's Word in Greek means: a ransom paid in full, salvation and deliverance from sin.

The Word of God says in Luke 3:3 that John the Baptist came "preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins." The word "of" in the term "baptism of repentance" means in English: baptism as a result of salvation or because of salvation. The word "for" in the term "for the remission of sins" also means in English: baptism as a result of salvation or because of salvation, that a person has repented of their sins and have "brought forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance" as it says in Luke 3:8. The Greek meaning for the word "repentance" means that God changes a lost sinner's mind and direction toward God only for salvation and God turns us from our sins and God transforms us and makes us into a new creature in Christ. 2 Corinthians 5:17 says "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; behold, all things are become new." In Acts 2:37-38 we have another passage of scripture which means the same as in Luke 3:3 which reads: "Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost." Please notice that Repentance comes always before Baptism. Also notice that the word "for" in verse 38 means that baptism was a result of salvation or because of salvation and were to be baptized because they had already received salvation. They were commanded to "repent" of sins or perish in hell as Jesus says in Luke 13:3-5. All must believe in the finished work of Christ on the cross at calvary, that Christ died for our sins, was buried and rose again the third day according to the scriptures and shed His blood for the remission of our sins. Acts 10:43 says "To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins." Acts 13:38-39 says "that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins; and by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses." The word "justified" in Greek means: to be made holy; just or innocent; free from sin and made righteous in God's sight. Acts 2:41 says "Then they that gladly received his word were baptized;" and in Acts 2:47 says "And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Those that "gladly receive" the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Saviour should then submit to baptism as a result of salvation and because of salvation by the GRACE of GOD only, through the "BLOOD" of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness and remission of all sins. Salvation by BLOOD REGENERATION.

Letter to the Editor

Great Things Are Happening At Parkway Elementary School

Dear Editor:

We the Parkway Parent Teachers Association would like to express our thanks to Mrs. Billie Caviel for her effective role in helping us to acquire the many improvements at Parkway School.

Billie Caviel has been active in insuring that the quality of maintenance of school facilities and of educational programs offered in East Lubbock are maintained while at the same time she shows an interest in the total educational community. She has been especially active in improving the quality of home-school relations by suggesting home liaisons which have been added at Parkway, Bean, Harwell, and Ramirez Elementary Schools. She was also instrumental in obtaining the replacement of old Texas Instruments Computers with new Apple II Computers in all Chapter I schools.

We would also like to commend the Lubbock Independent School District for their active role in fulfillment of these projects, and their concerns for all students.
