

ANOTHER CANDIDATE FOR PRECINCT 20

Dr. J. A. Chatman became a citizen of Lubbock more than twenty-seven years ago, and immediately opened a two bed hospital.

Although he was never a scout himself (there were no Negro troop in his home town) he became deeply interested in its work. He built a train to advertize his "Albamba Bound" minstrel. It was a financial success! Our troop purchased for the first time many "snake bite" kits and other scouting materials, and was the first and only troop to buy war bonds.

The Veterans returning from World War II complained of no restricted residential section for them to purchase. They got what they wanted! It came from him. He purchased (what then was a pasture) all land between Globe and Juniper and including East 26th and what could have been East 27th, approximately 32 to 36 lots. (It is shown today on the city map as Chatman addition) and was the first restricted area in Southeast Lubbock.

As president of the Commonwealth Club and at one of their meetings, one of its members, the late Dr. C. H. Lyons, suggested a Boy's Club. Before he expired Dr. Chatman promised Dr. Lyons he would try and carry on. He did!

A show called "Down Yonder" minstrel was organized and less than three years almost $1000, enough to make a down payment on the acreage now known as the Negro Boy's Club, was raised. There now stands a beautiful building on the largest site of all the Boy's Club of Lubbock costing more than $65,000. Thanks to everyone and all clubs assisting! There are only two such boy's clubs (as of 1965) in Texas and this is the only one constructed for a boy's club. Now these have paid big dividends.

Both the scout troop and Negro Boy's Club have produced many teachers, many high school coaches, at least one or two college football coaches, a dentist, and many, many more that are making a name for themselves, their schools, these organizations, their parents, and their God. The end is not in sight yet!

He is the father of four sons, a mason, Knight of Pythias, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, civic and religious worker, corresponding secretary of the Lone Star State Medical Association and one of its ex-presidents, Medical examiner for several insurance companies, and an author of two books, "History of Negroes From Slavery to 1939" and "History of Negroes in Medicine, 1894 to 1965".

He was one of three adults appointed by Governor Price Daniels to attend the "Presidents' Conference on Youth" in 1960 and again in 1962 on the "president's Conference on Aged". Three years ago, Gov. John Connally appointed Dr. Chatman to the Board of Directors of Texas Southern University, our largest school, and he is now secretary of a three-man building committee that has spent more than four million dollars in the last three years.

He has just recently returned from the East (which included Philadelphia, Penn., etc.), a business trip for the university.

The Royal Ladies Club met with Mrs. C. E. Fair, 2007 Date Avenue, on last week with president Heddie Lee in charge.

One member who had discontinued her membership from the organization re-joined the club. She was Mrs. Mattie Linsey.

The club will meet with Mrs. Gould next week.

The club is climbing for higher progress this year. Meeting was dismissed with the closing motto.

A very tasty meal was served by the hostess. The club members hope to see all of you who did not attend the next meeting.

The members of Alpha Phi Alpha have planned a dance which will be one of the major social events of the year. It will be given at the American Legion Hall in Yellowhouse Canyon.

Music will be furnished by the "In Card". A television will be given as a door prize. Anyone who has a ticket for the dance is eligible for the prize.

This is neither a closed affair, nor is it formal. Tickets are now in the hands of each member for sale.

COUNCIL MEETING ATTENDED BY SCORES

The quarterly meeting of the Northwest Texas Council of the Past Exalted Rulers Council, #130, was attended by Bills and Daughters from Dallas, Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, and Lubbock, Texas. State President of Elks I. B. P. O. E. W., Felix Lister of Wichita Falls, was happy to express that this council meeting was an astounding success, and that the State convention which will convene here in June of this year is sure to be a great one.

At the opening council meeting held at 6:00 pm Saturday, February 26th, many plans were made for the remaining calendar year for the council.

The dance was superb. Bobby Williams and his combo entertained the scores of people who attended the affair.

Over sixty Bills and Daughters converged on Bethel A. M. E. Church for their Sunday worship. Rev. A. W. Wilson, pastor, delivered an inspiring message to the group from Elksdom. Dr. West, State Director of Medical, presented an encouraging chat to the many people who filled the pews of the church.

The council meeting was concluded on Sunday afternoon with the joint meeting of Daughters and Bills. At this time a confirmation was given on business discussed in the previous meeting. After business was taken care of, the officers of Caprock Lodge #1540, were installed by the State Deputy from Amarillo.

The delicious meal prepared by Daughters and Bills of Caprock was enjoyed by all. The remainings of food from this most enjoyable meal was given to the Carver Day Nursery.

'Around the Hub City'

The political fever is still booming in the "Hub City" with much suspense expected during the final days of filing. There has been much talk about the race for precinct chairman in box twenty and six. It was learned that recurrent rumors about the filing of Dr. Heenan Johnson, a local dentist, as a candidate for city council, are just that so far, rumors. He was reported to have said, "I have come to no definite decision." Dr. Johnson has also stated that he has been urged by a number of city residents to seek one of the council seats.

The 'feller on A' is saying that there is going to be a terrific change in the weather of city politics.

Mrs. Eva L. Love and her grandson were victims of an automobile accident last week end. They reported to have been taken to the hospital for treatment.

MORE JOBS AVAILABLE NOW

It has been revealed by one of the Civil Service Commission chairmen, that there will be more career opportunities in government for college graduates this year than in recent years because of the defense buildup and staffing needs in new and expanded domestic programs.

It should be reminded to college seniors and recent graduates that March 19 is the deadline for receipt of applications for those who wish to take the written examination.

The Federal-Service Entrance Examination is one of the Federal Government's primary means for recruiting new graduates for careers in Government. It is used to fill a variety of career-entry positions with starting salaries at $5,181 or $6,269 a year, depending on the qualifications of the candidate.

The examination is open to college seniors and graduates, as well as to others with a combination of experience and training equivalent to a bachelor's degree. It is used to examine people with high potential for positions in sixty major occupational fields, ranging from personnel management and general administration to tax collection and social security work. It is given at more than 800 examining points throughout the country.

During the year of 1965, Federal agencies hired 8,100 persons from this examination. A substantially larger number of positions are expected this year. Since the Federal Service Entrance Examination was introduced ten years ago, it has been used to recruit more than 70,000 persons from among more than a million who have taken the test.

Two other test dates are scheduled this school year. Applications must be submitted by March 16 for the written examination scheduled on April 6, and by April 19 for the test to be held on May 21.

Additional information about the Federal-Service Entrance Examination and how to apply may be obtained from college placement offices, many post offices, Civil Service Commission regional offices, and the Commission's central office at 1900 E. Street N.W., Washington, D.C.

BIRTHMARKS

It was once believed that birthmarks were caused by something that frightened the mother during pregnancy. We now know that they are caused by hereditary influences.

There are three kinds of birthmarks -- the so-called port wine stains which are flat, the strawberry marks which are slightly raised, and the hemangiomas which are deep seated and consist of a mass of distended veins.

Many parents fear that birthmarks may become cancerous but such fears are baseless regardless of which type of birthmark a child has.

The same cannot be said for the brown-pigmented moles which appear later in life. Even these rarely become cancerous, but if they start to enlarge or become darker, immediately, steps must be taken to rule out cancer.

Birthmarks do, however, create a cosmetic problem when they are located on the face, neck, or other exposed parts. The treatment of the three types are different.

For the port wine stain, irradiation with thorium X (a radio active material) or Grenz rays may help. Skillful tattooing will also camouflage these birthmarks but all victims cannot be treated by this method.

For the strawberry mark, freezing with carbon dioxide snow is recommended. For both of these types of birthmarks, some doctors now prefer skin grafting.

Oddly enough the most alarming birthmarks, the hemangiomas, often disappear completely without any treatment during the first two years of life.

If the lesions seem to be getting larger, however, they should be treated promptly

EASTSIDE TIGERS REPEAT AS CITY CHAMPS

Wichita Falls--For the second straight year the Tigers of Eastside Junior High School are champions of Wichita Falls Junior High Schools. February 24, will be marked as red letter day at Eastside for the loyal sons of this newest Junior High School had proved themselves worthy of being called champions. No other school in Junior High circles has won the city Championship two years in a row.

The Tigers this year finished in a tie with the Barwise Bobcats and had to rise to the occasion and tree the Bobcats and bag them good.

The Bobcats scored first and at 5:38 of the first quarter the Tigers were off and running for they were never taken out of the lead. Curtis Davis, took over when the Bobcats placed two guards on Frank Donaldson, and found the range for 7 field goals and 5 free throws for 19 points and high producer of the afternoon.

The Bobcats tried to make a go for a strong finish, but the Tigers lead was too great and in spite of a 15 point last quarter, the game ended with the Tigers over the Bobcats by 10 points, 52-42.

Hats off to a grand bunch of boys from Eastside, who are coached by Tommy Williams and Bill Freeman. Congratulations!

Would you believe it, but it was done last week, an unknown burglar entered the Avenue A Recreation Center and took an undetermined amount of change from the cigarette machine. Mitchell Toliver told police that the place of business was loosed on the night before the burglary and everything was in order, but when he returned to work the following morning he discovered that the cigarette machine had been pried open.

The door on the south side of building had been pried open, and it appeared as though the unknown person's exit was made by the same route.

30th Street, told police that someone had done just that, borrowed for an indefinite period of time.

Ferguson will not agree that someone had borrowed his properties, but will agree that someone has stolen what belongs to him. He reported that someone had taken a three hundred foot 1-0 copper cable, fifty foot 6-3 insulated cable, and a fifty foot 10-3 insulated cable. The total amount of these cables will be approximately $425.00.

It was also learned that some copper tubing was taken from under his trailer house.

FAMILY FIGHT

We all know we're having a tuff time keeping peace over in Viet Nam, but right here in the "Hub City" some families have hard times performing the same task.

A young female told police that her husband had been mistreating her. She said that she had an argument with him about keeping food in the house for the children. She went on to say that her dear beloved husband hit her with a metal chair.

Due to her physical condition the blow proved to weaken her a great deal, so she was taken to a local hospital. By the way, she is an expecting mother.

The majority of us will have disagreements with our beloved wives, but don't be like this naive gentleman, those kind of wars should exist in Viet Nam, not around our children.

TEENAGE BOYS SHOPLIFTING

The amount they shoplifted wasn't a great deal, but the point was they shouldn't have been in a position to be caught in the act.

NAACP Plans
5-State Meet

Houston -- NAACP representatives from Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico held an all-day conference in Houston last Saturday to lay plans for the Southwest Regional Conference to be held at the Hotel America March 17-19.

E. M. Knight, General Conference Chairman, in announcing the Regional Conference, stated that the conference is designed to assist NAACP leaders and workers to expand their knowledge of NAACP policy, procedure and programming.

Rev. Emerson Marcee, State Conference President and Chairman of the Region presided over the all-day session.

Miss Althea T. L. Simmons, National Director of Training of New York City and Miss Carolyn Quilloin, Youth Field Director of Memphis assisted the advisory committee in its deliberations.

Others in attendance at the session included: Marion O. White, President of the Louisiana State Conference, Miss Mary Jamieson of Opelousas, Mesdames Erma D. LeRoy, Opal Anderson, Lillie Mae Diggins, Pauline Kelly; Messrs. Richard Diamonds, and M. J. Jones.

The value, only one dollar and thirty-nine cents, but this small amount could lead to a hundred times itself.

They were caught in the act at Brook's Super Market and turned over to the Juvenile Department.

VANDALISM

Now here is a good one... Fred Amaya, 3405 East 13th Street, told police that a teenager, male, had thrown a rock through his glass storm door. The damage was only seven dollars and fifty cents.

A next door neighbor of Fred's saw the young man create the damage.

TEENAGE TRAFFIC UNNECESSARY

Although the information below is not a "Police Beat" item, yet, there is the possibility of it becoming such an item.

It has been learned, by this reporter, from the manager of the Coronado Washeteria that teenagers in the area are responsible for a great deal of disorder.

Parents, you should teach your children one thing, to respect all properties that do not belong to them.

According to the manager of the washeteria, the teenagers are using the building as a meeting place for their courtship. If any of you are responsible for letting your children go and wash for you, then be careful about how they conduct themselves, because they too, can be a part of the "Police Beat", if they are not supervised now.

FIGHT

A 56 year-old man refused to be arrested by police last Sunday morning at approximately 1:30 am, after he and another man had been responsible for disturbing the peace.

Upon arresting the man, he used vile language toward the arresting officers and refused to be apprehended. It didn't take much talk to convince him that he needed to go quietly with the officers.

TWO INTEGRATED JURIES IN DIXIE RETURN GUILTY VERDICTS

Washington-NPI-While efforts were being made to abolish jury discrimination against Negroes, two integrated juries convicted persons of crimes. Another jury-not integrated-freed a white man in a charge of killing.

As President Johnson pushed a bill through Congress to outlaw the barring of Negroes from Southern juries, attorneys for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund asked the federal district court in Birmingham, Ala. to end racial discrimination in the selection of Bessemer, Alabama juries.

A complaint, filed in behalf of four Bessemer Negroes, charged that although Negroes comprised about 52 per cent of the population, the names of only a token number of Negroes have been included on the jury lists.

In Memphis, an integrated jury returned a verdict of guilty against eight young Negro men, who were charged with raping a white teenage girl.

The jury, made up of 10 white and two Negro men, recommended that five die in the electric chair and three receive 99-year prison sentences.

Lubbock --- The Chamber of Commerce has appealed to its members to contact members of Congress urging the defeat of the bill which provides for the repeal of Section 14(b) of the Taft Hartley Act, known as the Right-to-Work Law. The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Governmental Affairs Committee, adopted a resolution calling for the retention of 14(b). The measure was under consideration by Congress several weeks ago. Letters, telegrams, and phone calls were to be directed to Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen and to all members of the Texas delegation expressing views on the matter.

Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Law reads as follows: "Nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing the execution or application of agreements requiring membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment in any State or Territory in which such execution or application is prohibited by State or Territorial law."

Nineteen states, including Texas, now have right to work laws. These laws protect the public by requiring a labor organization, like other private groups, to sell itself on merit rather than by force. The employee's freedom of choice is also protected by allowing him to join a union if he wishes, or to decline membership if he feels the union is unnecessary, or if he disagrees with its aims or leadership.

Criminal Court Judge Preston Battle sentenced the defendants immediately after the verdict was announced.

Two others who stood trial with them were acquitted. The defendants were accused of raping two girls, aged 14 and 16.

In Ellaville, Ga., a jury of 11 Negroes and one white man convicted a Negro teenager of voluntary manslaughter in the slaying of a policeman.

The jurors set the sentence of Charles Hunter, 15, at six years' imprisonment.

Hunter was charged with shooting Ellaville policeman John Harden, 46, on November 15, after a wild car chase. Hunter testified he shot Harden to stop him from beating his brother, Willie Hunter, 15, with a billy club.

Selection of the predominately Negro jury was believed to be unprecedented in the South since Reconstruction days.

An Anniston, Alabama, all white jury found Johnny Ira Defries, 25, not guilty in the night rider slaying last July of Willie Brewster, a Negro foundry worker.

Brewster was shot to death from a speeding car while returning home from work.

In Lynchburg, Va., U.S. District Judge Ted Dalton denied a petition to have a rape trial transferred from Lynchburg Corporation court to federal court.

The petition was filed by Thomas C. Wansley, 20, who is accused of raping an elderly white woman. Wansley, a Negro, had claimed he could not get a fair trial in a state court.

Throughout the United States, the number of executions was on the decrease. Only seven Americans were executed in 1965, the Justice Department reported.

Four states--New York, Iowa, West Virginia, and Vermont--did away with the death penalty, except for special crimes. The death penalty has now been wiped out in 13 states.

All seven of the men executed in 1965 had been convicted of murder. Four were executed in Kansas, and one each in Missouri, Wyoming, and Alabama.

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLE ENJOYS LIVING IN CRESTHAVEN

Man and wife must have a place to live, and this is certainly true in the case of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Jr., of 2223 Quirt Avenue, Apartment A, who have only been married several months. George, a 1965 graduate of Dunbar, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Sr., of Lubbock. He has been employed by the Lubbock Public School System for over eight months in the maintenance department. Immediately after completing his high school education, he decided to enter Draughn's Business College in the field of accounting. His lovely wife, the former Shirley Walton, is a native of Floydada, Texas. She received her secondary education training at Floydada. She enjoys home-making and admits that she loves to do many things around the house. In asking the reasons why they preferred the Cresthaven Homes to live, they both agreed that you can't find a better place for a young married couple to live. During the short span of time they have discovered that the city of Lubbock provides you with a beautiful 40 acre front yard (Mae Simmons Park); the best and most convenient location, near a bus stop; a nice fresh breeze; a quite place to live; good neighbors; no upkeep; no additional city taxes; no high utilities; no plumbing repairs; no lawn problems; and an ideal location for a young married couple.

Why not take a tip from this young couple, Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis, Jr., and consider living as an institution within an institution of "Fine Family Living" at Cresthaven Homes.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mrs. Struggs and I have known Mr. William C. Young, principle owner and builder of Cresthaven Homes, as a personal friend for over 30 years. First, he was a poor West Texas country boy from Ralls during the depression, working his way through Texas Tech College in a Firestone Filling Station, servicing cars and sleeping there on a salary of 50¢ a day. He was a star Red Raider football player.

He became a school teacher and invested his savings in some better rent houses nearby some of my own here in Lubbock. Out of that early investment has come the Modern Cresthaven Homes.

Mr. Young is now President of a large Insurance Company. Our long time friendship brought him to finance the construction of our church where he came and preached a dedicated sermon from our pulpit. He and his company have financed other property among our friends in Lubbock.

Mr. Young is a fine down to earth Christian Citizen and deserves our respect, and we hope that the quality of this new property will merit the respect among the tenants to maintain the good standards where good families can live and raise their families respectively.

This letter to whom it may concern is to recommend Mr. William C. Young to you.

E. C. Struggs

P.S. In all my years in Lubbock there has never been a rental section set aside for young married couples to rear their children decently. Mr. Young is to be complimented for dedicating this new property to these young folks plus the high class single career men and women who want to live decently as well as the elderly folks, which will help solve a dire need here in Lubbock.

New Cresthaven Remodels Brick One-Two Bedroom and Single Apartments

Believe it or not, two can live so beautifully at Cresthaven, for only $5.00 each per week! Imagine all brick apartments, tile bath and kitchen for couples or two singles for $5.00 each, per week.

There's "Nothing like it in the city of Lubbock with such quality", and residents also have ideal bus location for services to work all over the city. From 24th Street and Quirt on Mae Simmons Park, which is a 40 acre front yard maintained by the city of Lubbock. So conveniently located within a block or two of schools, churches and the new shopping center. Cresthaven is exclusive with its spacious view from the rim of the canyon.

EASTSIDE TIGERS REPEAT AS CITY CHAMPS

Wichita Falls--For the second straight year the Tigers of Eastside Junior High School are champions of Wichita Falls Junior High Schools. February 24, will be marked as red letter day at Eastside for the loyal sons of this newest Junior High School had proved themselves worthy of being called champions. No other school in Junior High circles has won the city Championship two years in a row.

The Tigers this year finished in a tie with the Barwise Bobcats and had to rise to the occasion and tree the Bobcats and bag them good.

The Bobcats scored first and at 5:38 of the first quarter the Tigers were off and running for they were never taken out of the lead. Curtis Davis took over when the Bobcats placed two guards on Frank Donaldson, and found the range for 7 field goals and 5 free throws for 19 points and high producer of the afternoon.

The Bobcats tried to make a go for a strong finish, but the Tigers lead was too great and in spite of a 15 point last quarter, the game ended with the Tigers over the Bobcats by 10 points, 52-42.

Hats off to a grand bunch of boys from Eastside, who are coached by Tommy Williams and Bill Freeman. Congratulations!

LINK ROBBERY WAVE TO 'THE ISRAELS' - NEW NEGRO CULT

Chicago--NPI--A series of robberies, shooting assaults since last November have been traced to a new cult known as "The Israelis," police authorities revealed last week.

Existence of the alleged subversive organization, currently under investigation by the FBI and local police recently came to light after four alleged members were arrested by robbery units.

The four, protesting when police attempted to list them as Negroes, that they were members of "a superior race," and refused to name their leader.

Two gave their names as Judah Israel, 22, and Benjamin Israel, 22, their real names are Rosco Hanna and Scott Brown. Hanna reportedly had a record for robbery.

Two others arrested were James Felder, 20, and Anthony Thomas, 21. The former originally gave his name as Simeon Israel. Thomas identified himself as Abed-nego Ben Israel.

All were implicated in a robbery of a laundry. Bond was set at $20,000 for each.

Dunbar Coronation A Success

"A Roman Holiday" was the theme of the elaborate coronation which was presented by the student council Friday evening, February 18th, in the Dunbar auditorium.

Highlights of the coronation were the presentation by the principal, George Scott, Jr., of Mr. and Miss Dunbar, who were Damon Hill, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Damon Hill of 1831 Manhattan Drive; and Patricia Moore, vivacious daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Moore, 2219 East 19th.

First runner-ups were Norvell Hutchinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Hutchinson, 2915 Beech Avenue, and Antionette Roberson, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Roberson, 2405 East 28th Street. Second runner-ups were Argonne Wheatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymon Wheatley, 2938 East 29th Street, and Rose Pillow, an attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R.A. Pillow of 1822 Manhattan Drive.

Damon is president of the student council and City HiY, Young Texan of the Month of September, member of the "A" band, National Honor Society, HiY, tennis team, science club, and he attends Mt. Vernon Methodist Church.

Miss Dunbar, Patricia, is secretary of the student council, member of the "A" band, Dunbar Combo, stage band, F.F.A., and an active member of the Greater St. Luke Baptist Church.

Each candidate had to be a member of the senior class, have a grade of "B" in scholarship and citizenship, and have not more than five demerits in order to be qualified to run.

The candidates presented their talent during the program. Damon Hill played a clarinet solo, "Theme From Summer Place"; Patricia Moore played a vive solo, "Dave's Tune"; Norvell Hutchinson sang a popular tune, "Hey Girl Don't Bother Me"; Antionette Roberson added an extra feature with a solo of "Love Makes You Do Foolish Things"; Argonne Wheatley played a horn solo; "A Quartet From Mozart"; and Rose Pillow topped the pudding of talent with creative skit.

Ninety students participated in the coronation. They carried out the theme by wearing Roman costumes.

BOND WINS AGAIN - STILL FACES OPPOSITION TO SEAT IN NEW RACE

Atlanta--NPI--By now, Julian Bond must think he's on a merry-go-round. Last week, he emerged victorious in the special election for the seat which had been denied him, and thus, to all intents and purposes, is the Georgia representative from district 136.

But, it just might be that he lost the war, while winning the election. This won't be conclusive until the U.S. Supreme Court has given its view on the situation.

Whatever the outcome, there is definitely a precedent in the making, and both sides are sharpening up their guns for a showdown battle.

The kibitzers and skeptics are predicting that Bond will never be seated in the legislature, despite his special election victory. They list these strikes against him:

--A federal court ruling failed to uphold him.

--His seating was being contested by Rep. Jones Lane of Statesboro. The contest of the election would move the House Rules Committee to act on the challenge. Lane's recommendation was originally responsible for Bond's ouster from the legislature.

--Bond must run again in the September primary and November general election to be seated in the 1967 assembly session. He has no chance of serving this year, as the assembly has already adjourned. And he faces possible opposition in the other elections.

--The American Civil Liberties Union has withdrawn from Bond's case before the U. S. Supreme court. The withdrawal came as Bond hired two attorneys, Victor Rabinowitz and Leonard Boudin, over reportedly strong objections by ACLU officials. The two lawyers have been identified with litigation to protect the legal interests of Communists Cuba in the United States.

Bond got into trouble with the Georgia legislators for opposing the war in Viet Nam and expressing admiration for the courage of draft card burners.

The representative-elect showed that he stood by his originally expressed convictions as he called for "an organized movement of Negroes to avoid military service on racial grounds."

"Why fight for a country that has never fought for you?" he asked.

Bond said he would "like to see" an organization that would be sanctioned by the courts to oppose the recruitment of Negroes into the service.

While Bond's chances of ever being seated appeared to be dim, his efforts were at the same time arousing residents of his district to fight for their right to be represented.

Residents noted that they had twice expressed their preference for Bond without his taking office. They charged taxation without representation and denial of voting rights in the predominantly Negro district.

The issue could result in the denial of Georgia's seats in the U. S. House of Representatives under the provisions of Section 2 of the 14th amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

That section provides that denial of voting rights in elections of members of a state legislature and other officials shall result in corresponding denial of seats in the U. S. House of Representatives.

This section of the Constitution has, until now, never been enforced.

News to Veterans

Veterans who sell their GI homes and permit the buyer to assume their GI homes and permit the buyer to assume their GI Loan remain liable in case of subsequent foreclosure unless they obtain a release of liability.

This can be obtained upon request to Veterans Administration if VA approves the buyer as a good credit risk, an official of the VA made clear last week.

A release from liability, however, does not restore the veteran's eligibility for another GI loan.

This can be restored only when the VA is no longer liable to the lender on the guaranty, and if the veteran:

(a) is forced to sell his home through no fault of his own, for reasons of health, employment, etc.,

(b) has his property taken by a Government agency for public use, or destroyed by a natural hazard; or,

(c) is in military service and must dispose of his home because of military transfer.

JACKSON OPTIMISTIC ABOUT BIG EIGHT TRACK MEET

Norman, Oklahoma--Dunbar's pride and joy of the track and field events, James Jackson, is sharpening himself into good condition for the Big Eight indoor track meet which is less than one week off.

Jackson, a powerfully assembled junior, zipped to a pair of 60-yard dash victories of Oklahoma University in dual meets at Kansas and Kansas State several weeks ago.

The ex-Dunbar Panther led Kansas' Bill Hanson and teammate, James Handwick, across the finish line with a 6.2 clocking at Lawrence, Kansas.

Two days following this meet he flashed across pay-dirt to another 6.2 recording, clipping Kansas State's Don Payne and Handwick.

Jackson holds the official Big Eight 60 record with a six-flat time. He set the mark in the preliminaries of the conference indoor meet at Kansas City last winter.

Jackson, a social studies major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Haney, 2620 Globe. He told a West Texas Times' reporter during the Christmas holidays, "I'm going to give it all I've got." Judging from the big start, he'll do wonders in the Big Eight this year.

Spotlight on Sports

By Charles J. Livingston
NEGRO PRESS INTERNATIONAL
WAY TO STARDOM

Since the days of former heavyweight boxing champion Joe Louis, modern-day Negro athletes have found a painful but sure way to fame and stardom. The recipe: crack the race taboo in a sport hitherto closed to their race.

Jackie Robinson did it in baseball and won immortal fame, fortune and a niche in the sports-hallowed Hall of Fame.

Hard-driving Charlie Sifford battled almost singlehandedly to break into the Professional Golfers association, and won a place of eminence among the game's premiere golfers.

Arthur Ashe had the unique and testing experience of having to follow in the footsteps of the great Althea Gibson, who rose from paddle tennis on the sidewalk of New York City's Harlem to become the first Negro woman tennis champion.

But Arthur scored his own mark by becoming America's "first" tan Davis Cupper and is now ranked number 2 among the nation's tennis stars.

Now it has come about that another Negro is about to climb to the pinnacle of a sport in which Negroes are virtual strangers in national and international competition.

The newest taboo-buster in sports is a 14-year-old ice skater named Atoy (pronounced AY-toy) Wilson, the toast of Hollenbeck Junior High school in East Los Angeles. Wilson is cut from the same cloth as the Negro pioneer greats since Louis.

He is doggedly determined; settles for nothing less than excellence, and is willing to make the necessary sacrifice, a la Jackie Robinson, to reach the top.

This combination of determination, hard work, perseverance, and willingness to battle against trying odds, is already paying off handsomely for Wilson, who has been riding the silver skates since he was 7. The only Negro to compete in the nationals (he was 2nd in 1965), Wilson is the newly-crowned novice men's figure skating champion.

But is Wilson content to be a national champion? Certainly not. He wants international stardom, and therein lies the sort of drive that is carrying him to the top. The kid is a perfectionist.

Wilson's goal, although he is modestly not saying it out loud, is to win the Olympics men's figure skating championship, quite a task for a youngster his age. But, he is determined to succeed, and wants to be ready when the grand moment comes.

His target: the 1972 Olympics. "I don't think I'll be ready for the '68s," he says. But in the meantime, he'll be shooting for as many national honors as possible.

As a performer, Wilson moves with the featherlike precision of a Sugar Ray Robinson in the ring, meaning that he is a picture of grace and poise. His moves are effortless, except for one tricky maneuver which he hasn't quite mastered yet.

This is a 2 1/2-spin called the "Double Axel", named for Axel Paulsen, a Swede who first executed the dangerous but beautiful maneuver. But Wilson is confident he'll soon master that, too.

Yet, had Wilson been campaigning in a sport that is already thronged by other tan stars, his rise to the top would not have been as spectacular or noteworthy. He is in a sport that is nearly novel to Negroes, and therein lies his bid for immortality.

In this respect, he is like Jackie Robinson, who switched from football to baseball, to storm the race barrier in that sport. Wilson's other sports specialty is mountain climbing, and he is good at that, too.

Slim, trim, and quick on skates, Wilson works hard at his craft. He is up at 4:30 each weekday morning so he can begin practice skating at the Culver City ice rink at Caprock Lodge #1540 since its beginning. Bill Flewellen will undertake a great task in as much as the State Convention will be on tap for June.

5:00. Then its' off to school and back again to the rink in the afternoon for two more hours of practice skating.

But he is not alone at the rink, and this is another straw in his cap. There are other eager youngsters (white) there, too, and so he has a chance to technically compete against them and compare style. But he stays ahead of the field in finesse and agility and intends to maintain the advantage. So when he enters formal competition, he does so with more confidence than usual.

There is still another factor working big for Wilson. He has the cooperation of those nearest him. Like "Chappie" Blackburn, who worked feverishly to help Louis win the heavyweight crown, so are Wilson's parents determined to see him "go to the top."

When Mrs. Thelma Wilson and her husband, Atoy, Sr., a foreman with the Los Angeles Parks and Recreation Dept., first noticed that their boy had an inclination toward skating, they didn't try to turn him away from the sport with the stereotype warning that "it doesn't hold much promise for a Negro." Instead, they encouraged him.

"We told Atoy: This has to be an all-or-nothing activity for you if you're going to compete. There's no sense going at it half-way and expecting to win", Mrs. Atoy recalled.

And so it has been with young Atoy, an all-or-nothing activity. Watch this boy, Atoy. He may all the way to the top.

NAACP Plans 5-State Meet

Houston -- NAACP representatives from Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico held an all-day conference in Houston last Saturday to lay plans for the Southwest Regional Conference to be held at the Hotel America March 17-19.

E. M. Knight, General Conference Chairman, in announcing the Regional Conference, stated that the conference is designed to assist NAACP leaders and workers to expand their knowledge of NAACP policy, procedure and programming.

Rev. Emerson Marcee, State Conference President and Chairman of the Region presided over the all-day session.

Miss Althea T. L. Simmons, National Director of Training of New York City and Miss Carolyn Quilloin, Youth Field Director of Memphis assisted the advisory committee in its deliberations.

Others in attendance at the session included: Marion O. White, President of the Louisiana State Conference, Miss Mary Jamieson of Opelousas, Mesdames Erma D. LeRoy, Opal Anderson, Lillie Mae Diggins, Pauline Kelly; Messrs. Richard Diamonds, and M. J. Jones.

The value, only one dollar and thirty-nine cents, but this small amount could lead to a hundred times itself.

They were caught in the act at Brook's Super Market and turned over to the Juvenile Department.

VANDALISM

Now here is a good one... Fred Amaya, 3405 East 13th Street, told police that a teenager, male, had thrown a rock through his glass storm door. The damage was only seven dollars and fifty cents.

A next door neighbor of Fred's saw the young man create the damage.

TEENAGE TRAFFIC UNNECESSARY

Although the information below is not a "Police Beat" item, yet, there is the possibility of it becoming such an item.

It has been learned, by this reporter, from the manager of the Coronado Washeteria that teenagers in the area are responsible for a great deal of disorder.

Parents, you should teach your children one thing, to respect all properties that do not belong to them.

According to the manager of the washeteria, the teenagers are using the building as a meeting place for their courtship. If any of you are responsible for letting your children go and wash for you, then be careful about how they conduct themselves, because they too, can be a part of the "Police Beat", if they are not supervised now.

FIGHT

A 56 year-old man refused to be arrested by police last Sunday morning at approximately 1:30 am, after he and another man had been responsible for disturbing the peace.

Upon arresting the man, he used vile language toward the arresting officers and refused to be apprehended. It didn't take much talk to convince him that he needed to go quietly with the officers.

30th Street, told police that someone had done just that, borrowed for an indefinite period of time.

Ferguson will not agree that someone had borrowed his properties, but will agree that someone has stolen what belongs to him. He reported that someone had taken a three hundred foot 1-0 copper cable, fifty foot 6-3 insulated cable, and a fifty foot 10-3 insulated cable. The total amount of these cables will be approximately $425.00.

It was also learned that some copper tubing was taken from under his trailer house.

FAMILY FIGHT

We all know we're having a tuff time keeping peace over in Viet Nam, but right here in the "Hub City" some families have hard times performing the same task.

A young female told police that her husband had been mistreating her. She said that she had an argument with him about keeping food in the house for the children. She went on to say that her dear beloved husband hit her with a metal chair.

Due to her physical condition the blow proved to weaken her a great deal, so she was taken to a local hospital. By the way, she is an expecting mother.

The majority of us will have disagreements with our beloved wives, but don't be like this naive gentleman, those kind of wars should exist in Viet Nam, not around our children.

TEENAGE BOYS SHOPLIFTING

The amount they shoplifted wasn't a great deal, but the point was they shouldn't have been in a position to be caught in the act.

IT WENT LIKE THIS: BURGLARY AT RECREATION CENTER

Would you believe it, but it was done last week, an unknown burglar entered the Avenue A Recreation Center and took an undetermined amount of change from the cigarette machine. Mitchell Toliver told police that the place of business was lcosed on the night before the burglary and everything was in order, but when he returned to work the following morning he discovered that the cigarette machine had been pried open.

The door on the south side of building had been pried open, and it appeared as though the unknown person's exit was made by the same route.

THEFT

Now here is an unusual type of theft to take place in our community, but wherever there are valuables around, well, someone will know about them and therefore decide to borrow them for an indefinite period of time.

TWO INTEGRATED JURIES IN DIXIE RETURN GUILTY VERDICTS

Washington—NPI—While efforts were being made to abolish jury discrimination against Negroes, two integrated juries convicted persons of crimes. Another jury-not integrated-freed a white man in a charge of killing.

As President Johnson pushed a bill through Congress to outlaw the barring of Negroes from Southern juries, attorneys for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund asked the federal district court in Birmingham, Ala. to end racial discrimination in the selection of Bessemer, Alabama juries.

A complaint, filed in behalf of four Bessemer Negroes, charged that although Negroes comprised about 52 per cent of the population, the names of only a token number of Negroes have been included on the jury lists.

In Memphis, an integrated jury returned a verdict of guilty against eight young Negro men, who were charged with raping a white teenage girl.

The jury, made up of 10 white and two Negro men, recommended that five die in the electric chair and three receive 99-year prison sentences.

Lubbock --- The Chamber of Commerce has appealed to its members to contact members of Congress urging the defeat of the bill which provides for the repeal of Section 14(b) of the Taft Hartley Act, known as the Right-to-Work Law. The Board of Directors, upon recommendation of the Governmental Affairs Committee, adopted a resolution calling for the retention of 14(b). The measure was under consideration by Congress several weeks ago. Letters, telegrams, and phone calls were to be directed to Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen and to all members of the Texas delegation expressing views on the matter.

Section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Law reads as follows: "Nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing the execution or application of agreements requiring membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment in any State or Territory in which such execution or application is prohibited by State or Territorial law."

Nineteen states, including Texas, now have right to work laws. These laws protect the public by requiring a labor organization, like other private groups, to sell itself on merit rather than by force. The employee's freedom of choice is also protected by allowing him to join a union if he wishes, or to decline membership if he feels the union is unnecessary, or if he disagrees with its aims or leadership.

Criminal Court Judge Preston Battle sentenced the defendants immediately after the verdict was announced.

Two others who stood trial with them were acquitted. The defendants were accused of raping two girls, aged 14 and 16.

In Ellaville, Ga., a jury of 11 Negroes and one white man convicted a Negro teenager of voluntary manslaughter in the slaying of a policeman.

The juryman set the sentence of Charles Hunter, 15, at six years' imprisonment.

Hunter was charged with shooting Ellaville policeman John Harden, 46, on November 15, after a wild car chase. Hunter testified he shot Harden to stop him from beating his brother, Willie Hunter, 15, with a billy club.

Selection of the predominately Negro jury was believed to be unprecedented in the South since Reconstruction days.

An Anniston, Alabama, all white jury found Johnny Ira Defries, 25, not guilty in the night rider slaying last July of Willie Brewster, a Negro foundry worker.

Brewster was shot to death from a speeding car while returning home from work.

In Lynchburg, Va., U.S. District Judge Ted Dalton denied a petition to have a rape trial transferred from Lynchburg Corporation court to federal court.

The petition was filed by Thomas C. Wansley, 20, who is accused of raping an elderly white woman. Wansley, a Negro, had claimed he could not get a fair trial in a state court.

Throughout the United States, the number of executions was on the decrease. Only seven Americans were executed in 1965, the Justice Department reported.

Four states--New York, Iowa, West Virginia, and Vermont--did away with the death penalty, except for special crimes. The death penalty has now been wiped out in 13 states.

All seven of the men executed in 1965 had been convicted of murder. Four were executed in Kansas, and one each in Missouri, Wyoming, and Alabama.
