'Around the Hub City'

It won't be long before school will be out once again. The little tots, as well as the larger ones, will be looking for a three month vacation. It sorta gives them a relief to know that they will have an opportunity of getting away from the reading, writing, and arithmetic.

For those kids who are teenagers and are looking for something to do this summer, well, there may be an outside chance for them to do just that. It is the hope of many agencies for this to really happen; This includes the program to be sponsored by the Community Action Board.

As many of you may recall, last summer this organization sponsored a work-recreation program which involved over 400 young energetic people. It is the hope of this agency that a similar program will be active this year. At present, plans are being made to include a ten week program which will be of a great benefit to these young people. At this point, more emphasis is being placed on the total week of activities for these young people to include nothing but work. This will be a great asset for these young people to make monies for the oncoming school year.

Our young people will need all our help this summer and those to come. If you have any suggestions for you young people, why not let "AROUND THE HUB CITY" know of them and perhaps they could be used this summer to help make our young people better Americans. True, they are our leaders of tomorrow, and we must start today making this possible for them.

Nineteen young Dunbar Seniors left here Monday via bus for Austin, Texas where they took the State of Texas Cosmetology examination. These young people returned to the Hub City last evening. Mrs. Odessa Long, Dunbar instructor of Cosmetology, accompanied the young ladies to Austin.

"AROUND THE HUB CITY" would like to remind YOU that Sunday, May 10th, is MOM'S Day. Why not give her the time of her life. I am sure she'll appreciate it. One good way of making MOM happy is by merely being with her. You know, WE all have something to be proud of, this pride of our MOTHER.

The Mary and Mac Parents Teachers Association will present its annual King and Queen Coronation Friday, tomorrow evening, May 10, at the Booker T. Washington American Legion Hall in Yellowhouse Canyon beginning at 8 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to come out and watch these young people in action. I'm sure they'll be as good as ever.

Follows Job To Missouri

here last week for St. Joseph, Mo. where he will continue his services with the Armour Meat Packing Company.

He has been employed by the company several years and recently the company terminated its services here. Douglas was given the chance and opportunity to retain his seniority by continuing his work at St. Joseph. He went by car and arrived safely.

His wife, Mildred, is a vocational nurse at Methodist Hospital. Their daughter, Mrs. Vera Sedberry-Kirvin, arrived here from Louisville, Ky. and will live with her mother for awhile.

Douglas is not sure how long he will remain at his new location. He is a member of the Messiah Presbyterian Church, Rev. John L. Walker minister, and a very effective soloist.

Y.A.P.C. Honored With Visitors

Club meeting was called to order last Sunday afternoon at the regular time by vice president, Miss Shirley Moore.

The club members and counselors had attended a beautiful desert party at 2 p.m. at Furr's Cafeteria. Twenty-four young ladies were in attendance.

The members would like to express their deepest appreciation to Jesse Hamanes and D.C. Fair, Sr. for aiding the club members in

FINAL RITES READ FOR BRIGHTMON

Final rites were read for Willie M. Brightmon, 49, of 1707 Cornell Avenue last Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at the Church of God in Christ, 16th, and Quirt Avenue. Bishop J. E. Alexander officiated the services.

Burial was held in Peaceful Gardens Cemetery under direction of Jamison Funeral Home.

Survivors of Brightmon, who died last Tuesday, include the widow; four sons and seven daughters; one brother of Wharton, Texas, and five sisters, including Mrs. Mary Simmons and Mrs. Inez Johnson, both of Lubbock.

Promoted At First National Bank

Mrs. Lillie Von Cross, who has been a resident of Lubbock three years, received a promotion at the First National Bank here Friday, May 3, where she has been employed the past 11 months in the Book keeping department.

She was promoted to paying and receiving teller and will begin serving in this new capacity as soon as she trains another lady for her present position. She will also receive training for her new position.

Her husband, Leslie W. Cross, Sr., is an instructor at Martin Elementary School.

The family came from Seminole, Texas where he worked in the public school system there. His native home is Mineral Wells, Texas and Mrs. Cross is a native of Homer, La.

The couple resides in their home at 2310 Birch Avenue and have two lovely children, a son, Leslie W., Jr., and a daughter, Karen.

This is the first time a job of this nature has been offered to a member of the Negro race. We are proud and sincerely grateful, because we feel sure that Mrs. Cross is competent and will serve in a way that will be a credit to her and us and will be a stepping stone for others who are prepared for this type future. Thanks Mrs. Cross and congratulations.

In a 6:30 a.m. meeting of the board of trustees of Lubbock Public Schools at Johnson House Restaurant, an approval to move the Dunbar High School attendance line west to Ash Avenue south of 42nd to Slaton Highway in a compromise with the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare to achieve further desegregation.

The move takes a small L-shaped section from Lubbock High School attendance zone between 42nd and 50th Streets. Aside from this, it takes a large but sparsely populated section from Monterey High zone south of 50th Street to Slaton Highway between Ash and the school district line on the east.

Boundary changes made at this meeting were in addition to changes made by the board last week to comply with HEW guidelines on desegregation.

However, junior high school and elementary schools attendance zones were not affected by this action and the changes in these zones made by the board last week.

PIANO WORKSHOP AT TECH SET FOR JUNE 3-12

The 1968 Texas Tech piano workshop for teachers and students from the sixth through the 12th grades will be held June 3-12. It was announced last week by Thomas Mastroianni, chairman of keyboard studies.

A highlight will be a June 7 concert of children's music presented by Jane Ann Henry, an Iowa State University music faculty member.

Teacher's sessions are scheduled for June 3-5 with an invitation for them to observe other sessions. The student portion of the workshop will take place June 3-7 and 10-12. Housing can be arranged on campus.

Mastroianni holds the bachelor's and master's degrees from Julliard School of Music and has done doctoral studies at Indiana University. He has performed concerts in Europe and Mexico as well as in the United States, on stage and television. He is active as a teacher, adjudicator and performer.

Dr. Redcay also is noted as a concert artist. He debuted in Carnegie Hall in 1963. He earned three degrees in musical arts from the Eastmen School of Music and is a former Fulbright scholar to the Royal Academy of Music in London.

Tuition for the Piano Workshop is $20 for students (plus a $1 health fee) and $25 for teachers. Applications should be sent to Thomas Mastroianni, Summer Piano Workshop, Texas Technological College.

Elected to Presbyterian Center Board

The Lubbock Area Presbyterian Council last week placed in nomination T. J. Patterson, assistant director of Community Action Board and reporter to West Texas Times, for a position of a three year tenure to the Presbyterian Center Board. He was unanimous elected to this position which will expire in 1971.

Dr. Art Onken is chairman of the Board.

FASHION SHOW HERE

The Fashion Show which is sponsored by the newly organized Student Organization for Unity and Leadership (SOUL) scheduled for Mother's Day has been cancelled for Sunday, May 19, at 4 p.m.

This show is to feature the latest fashions and will carry with it the theme: "Soul Presents College U.S.A." The background will be accen-

This recommendation was made by Supt. Nat Williams following a meeting in Dallas last Friday afternoon with regional officers of HEW.

Last week trustees moved Dunbar's attendance line west to Ash from the railroad tracks at approximately 27th Street, south down Ash Avenue to Slaton Highway.

HEW also advised that "cross-over teachers" are not to be limited to schools where there are significant numbers of their race or national origin—even if these numbers are in the minority.

Cross-over positions, according to Williams, should be made so ultimately "staff assignments will be, in effect, without regard to color or national origin."

The newly installed president of the Lubbock Classroom Teachers Association and a teacher at Dunbar, William Powell, was present at the meeting and was asked by the trustees what Negro teachers in his school thought about "crossing-over" to teach in white schools.

Powell said a number of teachers at Dunbar felt that the cross-over should be new teachers in the system, not those already assigned to schools.

He said many Dunbar teachers want to remain there because they bought homes in that neighborhood. At least two teachers should go together as cross-overs at the same school, Powell suggested. "A teacher needs someone (of his own race) to talk to."

Trustees present for the meeting were Doyle Justice, Charles L. Waters, Bill D. Tucker, Dr. Reynolds and Watson Carlock.

Representing the administration in addition to Williams were Dr. Ishmael Hill and Linus Wright. Powell, president of LCTA, and Clay Henderson, outgoing president of this organization.

tuated with scenery from the Bahamas.

This event sponsored by the organization will mark one of its first functions for the general public.

Most of the members of the club will model some clothes in their own wardrobes. Some of the leading stores in Lubbock will also provide the latest in fashions for the style show.

Tickets are on sale now for $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. There will be a $1.25 charge at the door if you fail to get your ticket. Students of this organization who are attending Texas Tech are selling tickets.

Notes from Norm's Notebook

I spent the most enjoyable three hours the last Thursday afternoon with the League of Women Voters at the Johnson House Restaurant. As the reader might have by now guessed, I was asked to attend the meeting of the League where the local city officials spoke concerning civil disorders, riots and etc. Some very good information came out of the meeting, and should be considered very seriously by the members of the city population. One of the most important things I feel that I heard was the concern voiced in the meeting by the various members present concerning the many rumors that continually circulate that are not so very true. This is one problem that should and must be met head on here in Lubbock if we plan to keep from having problems that we don't want, and don't plan to tolerate. The rumors must be kept down and at the same time dis-credited when it is possible.

Incidentally, the League of Women Voters would like very much to have more women from our area join their ranks and participate with them in their endeavor to inform themselves and the public as to the many issues they study each year. If any young women in our area are interested in becoming members of the League, please feel free to contact me and I will gladly get you in touch with the people necessary to get you signed up.

Just setting here working on this column this week when I received a phone call from Miss Willie Sparks informing me that the Mount Vernon United Methodist Church is having their corner stone laying ceremonies this coming Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p.m. Most of the citizens who read this paper and don't live in the immediate neighborhood probably still have noticed the new church at the corner of Cedar Avenue and 23rd St. Incidentally, the public is invited to attend these ceremonies.

*****

I am as sure about my feelings concerning the local and state-wide political scene as all the rest of the readers. Surely, we need to have some rest in the very near future from the tremendous onslaught of campaigners, the many, many interruptions on TV and radio, and the great amount of space devoted to politics in the newspapers, but fear not dear reader, it will soon be over, for a while, and we can all go back to our regular, natural form of life.

*****

I hope I haven't done so much rambling the last few weeks in my personal, "paternal" attempt to wake up the citizens that read this paper that they no longer wish to listen to or read the paper. It's true that I take a great deal of time to go fishing, but it is also true that I take a great deal of time, and have taken a great deal of time in the last six years to also study the problems, good things, and fine things that have been accomplished for the people of this area. Granted, I enjoy myself, just as anyone else, and granted I don't and haven't put all of my time in on this newspaper, but I tell the reader this much, I have put in a lot more time on this newspaper than anyone else has done in the last six years. For this reason I am going to say

Remember Mother

She probably never did amount to very much, always in the way while you were young, between the ages of twelve and twenty one, always reminding you of what you had or had not done right or wrong when you were very young, between the ages of seven and twelve, and reminding you how "I told you so" about every little mistake you made between the ages of twenty one and forever.

She probably was more trouble than she was ever worth, needing the trash carried out, wanting you to see about the water sprinkler, asking you if you would check on the smaller children, requiring you to answer to someone you didn't want to speak to, demanding "yes mam'n" or "yes sir" everytime some fool older person ask you a question, looking for a ride to bud's place since you were't busy this week-end or something else of the one million and one things that she could think up when you were probably the busiest in your life.

She probably had more ailments than anyone you have ever known or probably will every know for the rest of your life—Everyone knows that for sure she had more problems, the old man, pop that busy body down the street or her stomach, that was bothering her just because her children didn't love her.

Which was probably true, surely you could not have loved her anytime during the last 100 years enough to make your stomach hurt as much as much as you were always assured her stomach hurt her—no more than you could have loved her as much as she always assured her, that she loved you because of all of the many things she had given up for you. Nor could you have loved you near as great as she loved you every time she went to the trouble to let you know that you couldn't possible care for her or you would have or have not done the things that she always found to complain about.

Of course you knew, every once-in-a-while when you looked into her eyes, she might not have always been proud of you, but this time—just this time—you were the only person on this earth as, far as she was concerned.

She is the only person who could get by with correcting you one minute and the next minute making you feel that there was only purpose in living.

She is your mamma, man! She is the only person in this world who is probably still laying somewhere wondering if you are ok. She is the only person in this world who would like to hear from you this week-end just because it would be you on the other end of the message just because it was you. Not because it was the president of the United States, or the true messenger of God, because to her you were sent by God. She would really like to know where her little boy or girl was tonight—why don't you let her know on Mother's Day?

Chelsea Brown: Fresh Image For Hollywood

Dreams do come true.

Just ask a pretty young woman named Chelsea Brown if you want living proof. For a couple of years ago Chelsea was a cheer leader at Los Angeles' Washington High School (the first of her race) and today she's cast as a dancer in Universal's multi-million dollar production of "Sweet Charity".

Refreshingly young, vibrantly talented and intently aware of national and international situations, Chelsea is a classic example of the emerging generation of show business personalities.

Barely out of her teens, Chelsea exclaims that "the stereotype of the dizzy, self-centered actress loaded down with makeup and studied affectations who pastes on a coached smile and giggles at everything is all but completely gone.

"All one has to do is look at a newspaper or television set and see at once that show business people are totally involved in crucial issues, whether it's John Wayne or Eartha Kitt or Ronald Reagan".

For Chelsea, such outspoken statements are not at all out of character, though she isn't at first glance a rebel. With a slight, lithe figure and impelling, liquid eyes behind a caressing voice, one's initial impression is of a cute and cuddly doll.

But the doll also thinks.

One of the things she thinks - and speaks - about seriously is the black entertainer's role in the social change sweeping our country.

"Hollywood is a whole new scene these days," says Chelsea, "and you can paint part of that scene black. And I don't just mean black actors. It's true that we're seeing far more black faces on our television and movie screens these days, but by and large the image they project is one constructed by white writers and aimed at white audiences.

"Though I'd be the first to admit this is a step in the long overdue direction films must go if they are to represent reality, it would also be shortsighted to gloat over 'great strides' made.

"The image on the screen will really change when a lot more shuffling behind the screen is done; when more black writers are brought into the industry and more black directors and producers are given a chance to guide films. This is finally being started by men like Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby, who have formed their own production companies."

Chelsea's own career is progressing exceptionally well, especially when one considers her extraordinary young age. She has already toured the U.S. and Europe as the only dancer in Ray Charles' troupe and is up for lead roles in both a TV series and major movie.

Her boundless enthusiasm and seemingly endless energy have made her the favorite of everyone in the "Sweet Charity" cast. Sammy Davis, Jr., who sings and dances one of the movie's biggest numbers, exclaims that Chelsea's quick smile and winning personality are nothing less than infectious. Shirley MacLaine says she's one of the "grooviest people I've ever worked with" and Chita Rivera enthuses that Chelsea is marked for success.

When she can affect people like that, it's no wonder her dreams are coming true.

Lucky Us, We Live In Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Lubbock, WE have something to be really proud of this week. As if you didn't know, WE are lucky that Health, Education and Welfare (better known to some as HEW) didn't CLOSE Dunbar High School.

LUCKY US: We were able to communicate with this government agency and work peaceful at the table to correct the situation.

We should be proud of the Lubbock Public School administration for the job they have done to erase the discrepancy which have been existing in our school system.

Thanks again, also, to our school board trustees for the splendid job they have done in working with the regional office of HEW.

LOSING A GOOD OFFICER

This reporter learned this week that come May 15, the Lubbock Police Department will be losing a good police officer. This being Lawrence Fury who has been with the force for several months. This young man has exemplified the qualities of an officer protecting his community.

I will admit, without any doubt, that the cause for which he is resigning is of high merit. He is going to serve in the United States Armed Forces for his country. Instead of serving a growing community as ours, he will have an opportunity of serving a nation of over 200,000,000 omhabitants.

Good Luck to you Fury, you have done a splendid job. I hope that the example you have set for our community will be copied by some other young person.

A tenant of 1700 Avenue B told the Lubbock Police Department that a lady come into his apartment and told him that she was going to kill herself. She went into the kitchen of the party and took a handled knife and stabbed herself in the abdomen.

Police found the lady lying on the kitchen floor bleeding from the self inflicted stab wound.

She was taken to Methodist Hospital by a local ambulance. The Police were unable to find the knife which was to have been used in the incident.

BOYS FIGHTING

E.J. Gerlick, 3405 59th Street, told police that several young boys were fighting at 1602 Avenue C. He said that because of this fight, over $150 worth of damage was done to a local service station in the area.

A 11 year old youth was held in connection of the incident.

Wipe Out Home Accidents

There's no place like home—for accidents. The National Safety Council estimates that in 1966, home accidents killed 29,500 persons and incapacitated 4,400,000 others for a day or longer.

Studies indicate that 9 out of 10 home accidents are preventable. You can take the first step in prevention right now by inspecting your home, room by room, eliminating hazards as you go.

Appliance controls and medicine should be kept well out of children's reach, and pot handles should be turned away from the front edge of the stove.

To prevent falls, provide strong handholds and a rubber mat for the tub, and be sure all throw rugs have a non-skid backing.

Disconnect all electric appliances before putting your hand near "live" elements or moving parts. And make it a habit to pick up all objects which might trip someone, and to wipe up all spilled liquids promptly.

Also make it a habit to keep first-aid supplies on hand.

If a burn, cut, or abrasion breaks the skin, cleanse the injured area thoroughly. An antibacterial ointment to cover the wound is often required. One such—Neo-Poly-cin antibiotic ointment—has a special, nongreasy base and combines three of the most effective antibiotics. It is stable, can mix with oils and skin tissue without losing effectiveness; will not stain clothing, and is easily removed by washing.

If bleeding cannot be controlled, or if a burn covers an extensive part of the body surface, call a physician at once.

For further information, write to the National Safety Council, 425 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. 60611. A 100-page study of accidents, called Accidents Facts is available for $2.40.

You see, August Benson, 1314 East 15th Street, told police that someone unknown threw a rock through his 64 model automobile glass.

SAFETY '68

Detroit—Want to win an easy bet?

Challenge a friend to tell you how many safety features are offered on a 1968 automobile. Let's take a 1968 Dodge Station Wagon as an example.

Then sit back and smile as your friend begins to count: 1. breaks; 2. Padded Dash; 3. Safety Belts...is he stymied already? He won't come anywhere close to the right total if his first guess was a dozen or so.

4. Cushioned sun visors. 5. Turn indicators...now he's struggling...6. Inside rear view mirror; 7. Outside rear view mirror... getting real tough now, eh?

Well, even if he mentions back-up lights, tail lights and defrosters, he'll probably be stumped after he gets those first ten.

He'll probably mention windshield wipers and washers and tailgate washers and wipers. He'd still be far from getting them all.

There are so many unobservant safety features in your car a person is apt to skip over them almost as quickly as you can say "Ralph Nader."

For instance, if your friend dwells a bit longer on the brakes, he could increase his count by recalling the dual brake system, front and rear, in case either fails on the road. Power brakes increase efficiency and control in stopping. There is an automatic warning light for a locked parking brake or brake system failure.

The lighting system has over a dozen safety features itself. Multiple rear lights give extra protection and cover you in event of bulb burnout. There's a hazard-warning flasher system to turn on when you're stopped on a highway at night. An automatic reset circuit breaker gets lights and wipers going again temporarily after a short circuit.

Park-lock gears provide security on hills. Power steering reduces road fatigue, improves control. Safety-rim wheels help prevent separation of tire from wheel in case of a flat tire or blowout. High performance engines facilitate passing. A double hood latch system protects against the hood flying up.

Safety engineers even thought of the little man by designing an adjustable steering wheel, and adjustable seats, to provide better visibility.

There are many other features built in just to help minimize injury in event of a collision. Recessed instruments and controls, fuel tank sealing and retention to reduce fire hazard. Head restraints help guard against whiplash. There are child-guard rear door locks, front seat latches, interlocking door latches.

The dealer will probably remind you too, that safety equipment won't do much good unless it's used and maintained properly.

Then you throw your friend your curve after he has been made aware of all these safety features. Ask him if he can name another.

Every car should have one. It's a safe driver.

Mollie D. Curry, 1619 Avenue E, reported to the police that someone broke into her residence and took over $150 worth of knives; $50 worth of radios, and a $95 television set.

Retirement Test Sees Revision

One of a number of changes in the social security act which will affect many area residents involves the retirement test, according to John G. Hutton, District Manager, Lubbock, Texas.

"Effective with 1968 a person receiving social security checks may earn as much as $1680 in a year without losing any benefits. If he earns more than that amount, Hutton explained, one dollar in benefits will be withheld for each two dollars of earnings between $1680 and $2880. But for earnings exceeding $2880 a dollar in benefits will be deducted for each dollar earned."

Hutton also pointed out that regardless of how much a benfi-

No evidence was found to lead to the person who was responsible for the break in.

Destruction Of Property

A young lady who was at one of the recreational areas in the city last Saturday night told police that she saw a youth throw a rock through the windshield of a 60 model car.

It was learned that the cost of the windshield would be at least $50. The owner said that he would definitely file charges.

ciary earns in a year, he will receive a social security benefit check for any month in which he does not earn over $140 or work to any extent as a self-employed person.

The precious limit was $1500 for a year, $125 in a month. Only two types of income are considered as earnings for this purpose. One is wages, the other self-employment income. Income from rents, interest, dividends or retirement payments would not be considered.

So you are mad at Social Security. You became disabled before age 31, but didn't have five years of work. You were turned down on your disability claim. Well, be glad. The law has been changed and you might have enough quarters of coverage now. You will need to have worked one-half of the time from age 21 until you became disabled.

New York (NAPS) - Your message may get through faster—saving you needless worry about not getting a prompt reply - if you heed some expert tips on how to send mail to servicemen in Vietnam.

Put wings on your letters. Postal authorities estimate that Air Mail gets to Southeast Asia in about five days as against 29 to 33 days by ordinary First-Class Mail. Domestic air postal rates (10¢ per ounce) apply here.

Be sure to use the APO or FPO number! Postal officials stress that, in addition to your serviceman's name, rank, serial number and unit, you must also include his unit's address and the correct five-digit APO (Army Post Office) or FPO (Fleet Post Office) number. And don't forget the all-important return address - just in case the letter is found to be undeliverable. While he may be "Chic" or "Chuck" to you, to this man's Army he's "Pfc. Charles C. Smith," so be sure to use his full name. Write all this information (and

Boxes of goodies will get to their destination faster if you know and use the several available classes of mail. Packages of up to five pounds sent by Parcel Post, if marked "Sam" ("Space Available Mail") will go by air if there is space available on a flight to your serviceman's outfit after regular Air Mail has been put aboard. For Parcel Post packages of from five to 30 pounds and not exceeding 60 inches in combined length and girth, put "Pal" ("Parcel Air Lift") on the label, add $1.00 additional postage and they'll fly from the APO or FPO, too.

For guaranteed through air service, and the fastest assured delivery, send your packages Air Parcel Post and they'll fly all the way. A free booklet elaborating on these services is available at your local Post Office.

Books and magazines may be sent Fourth-Class Mail for 12¢ for the first pound and 6¢ for each additional pound. Make sure the package is clearly marked: "Special - Fourth-Class Books." Such parcels go by ship and delivery is within a 29 to 33 day period.

All of the rules for addressing letters apply to packages with one added caution: address the package on one side only - the Post Office may believe you have forgotten the postage if they happen to look in the addressed side that does not contain the stamps.

What to send. Practicality is the key word in selecting gifts. A heavy or cumbersome item may be more of a bane than a boon to him. According to the U. S. O., included in many servicemen's "Want List" are: shaving equipment, after - shave lotion, razor blades, face towels, soap, deodorant, foot spray, shampoo in plastic bottles, insect repellent, writing materials, penlites, foam insoles for combat boots, small jigsaw puzzles, small crossword puzzle books, 1-inch paint brushes (for cleaning rifles), a subscription to his home-town paper, pictures of families and tobacco.

Save on sending smokes. You can airmail tax-free cigarettes, at less than 13¢ a pack, to servicemen in Vietnam or other areas of the Far East. For complete details on tax-free cigarettes and/or cigars, write to "Tax-Free Shipments," P. O. Box 1880, Grand Central Station, New York, New York 10017 for your order blank.

Parcel packing pointers. The Post Office tells us to: "Make sure you use containers strong enough to hold and protect their contents during the course of handling. Such containers should be the proper size to hold and protect their contents during the course of handling. Such containers should be the proper size to hold the shipment and give enough space for cushioning material. Do not overstuff carton." Translated, that means using common sense in packing, realizing that your box of goodies is going to go a long way and will be handled many times before it reaches its ultimate destination.

Be sure you enclose a slip of paper with your serviceman's name, address and a list of the package's contents, in case the outer wrapping goes astray or becomes unintelligible. For added protection, wrap with sealing tape and strong cord.

You can send cookies, and they'll be less likely to crumble in transit, if you wrap them individually, or a few at a time, in foil, for extra protection and fill in the empty spaces in the box with tissue. A good rule of thumb for any package is that, if you can hear the contents rattling around inside, it's improperly packed.

You may enclose a letter with don't forget to mark the envelope "Air Mail") as legibly as possible - in indelible ink!

Make your letter a morale booster. Do keep it newsy, but save any bad news, if possible, until he gets home. Don't complain about his not being home or tell him how much you worry about him. Do try to keep him posted on what's going on, but be careful not to keep reminding him of what a great time you're having here at home and what he's missing. Enclose snapshots of family and friends.

CITY OFFICIALS APPEAR BEFORE LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS HERE LAST THURSDAY

In a meeting before the Lubbock County League of Women Voters, Police Chief J. T. Alley, Mayor Dub Rogers and City Manager Bill Blackwell reported on their recent trip to Washington, D. C. to attend the Attorney General's Conference on Civil Disorders.

Chief Alley stressed the important feature that "good communications with minority groups is one of the best keys to helping prevent civil disorders within a community." "After all," he went on to point out, "we are all citizens of the same city, even one section of the city is still a part of the city".

Mayor Rogers opened his remarks with the comment that the city of Lubbock is "blessed with a fine, fine Negro community", and that the things that may happen other places might happen here but only if the city and the citizens fall down on the job of trying to prevent rather than just control riotous actions.

Rogers went on to say that there were several points covered at the recent conference that seemed to point themselves out more than others they were, rumors, disrespect for law and order; problems with all phases of the news media, lack of Negro leadership; problems on campuses; latent criminal elements that take advantage of protest movements to commit crimes; the lack of some segments of the community to understand and adjust to minority group cultures; being able to maintain impartiality in police functions; the lack of understanding of the law on the part of minority groups; racial violence in public schools; lack of cooperation from criminal courts in prosecuting the law-breakers and means of reaching the troubled youth of an area.

Mr. Blackwell went on to add in his presentation that it had been brought out in the conference that many of the riots were spontaneous, but some people had been observed in different riot areas at different times, in different areas of the country. Blackwell went on to explain that prevention was important, but control is necessary in order to allow authorities to have a plan of action, immediate mobilization of law enforcement officials, and to be able to quickly assume control of trouble areas; in case trouble breaks out.

More than fifty members of the League were on hand to ask questions and offer comments during the 3-hour session last Thursday afternoon at the Johnson House Restaurant.

Clapp and Mackenzie Pools Opened This Week

K. N. Clapp Swimming Pool, the city's first heated pool and Mackenzie Pool opened to the public Saturday, May 4th.

The Park and Recreation Department has announced that the water at K. N. Clapp Pool will be kept at 80 degrees or above for all swimmers comfort.

K. N. Clapp Pool will be open from 1:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on week-ends and 3:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. on week-days until May 29. Mackenzie Pool will be open on week-ends. Mackenzie Pool will be available to school groups during the week.

Another change at K. N. Clapp is the addition of an automated locker system which has eliminated the use of baskets for clothing and valuables.

The Park and Recreation Department is expecting a big swimming season this summer.

Clergymen Covered Under New Social Security Laws

Social Security coverage has been extended to thousands of clergymen through a recent change in the Social Security Act.

Although formerly excluded from coverage by law, clergymen were allowed to request credit under social security for their earnings if their request was filed within a specific time limit. Because of the time limit, many clergymen wanting such credit could not get it.

Hospitalized Over 90 Days, Still Eligible for Medicare

Medicare beneficiaries who are hospitalized longer than the 90 covered days in a spell of illness now have an extra benefit to fall back on, according to John G. Hutton, manager of the Lubbock, Texas district office.

Recently enacted amendments to the Social Security Act have provided for a life-time reserve of 60 additional days hospital care, Hutton said. This reserve is for use where the patient exhausts his covered hospital care but is not out of the hospital or extended care facility for 60 days so that a new spell of illness can begin.

This in effect provides the patient with up to 150 days' hospital care either fully or partially paid for by Medicare. After the first $40 deductible, which the patient pays when he enters the hospital, Medicare pays all the normal hospital costs for the first 60 days, all but $10 a day for the 61st through 90th day, and all but $20 a day during the 60-day reserve period.

The 60-day reserve is now available to all medicare beneficiaries.

NEW NOTE: COPYRIGHT REVISION A LONG BUT NECESSARY PROCESS

New York (NAPS)—Congress, to its credit, has enacted a joint resolution extending until December 31 of next year copyrights which otherwise would expire this year on more than 57,000 songs ranging from the classical to many of the mainstays of that great American institution—the barbershop quartet.

Certainly no American who sings or listens to such folk classics as "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now", "Down By The Old Mill Stream", "Alexander's Ragtime Band", or "Shine On Harvest Moon" would want to see their talented composers go unrewarded for commercial performances of these great bits of Americana.

Performance rights almost everywhere else in the Western world bring the composers or their heirs royalties for life and a substantial period thereafter. Presently in the United States a copyright is valid for only twenty-eight years and must be effectively renewed for another twenty-eight years — the maximum term for a copyright in this country.

For twelve years Congress has been endeavoring to enact a general revision of the copyright laws to replace archaic provisions enacted in 1909 before the advent of electronic reproduction. This measure, on which the House has already voted favorably, would extend the period of copyrights to the life of the composer plus fifty years so that heirs may enjoy some of the benefits of his talents as they do the benefits of talents of other professionals and of businessmen.

Today, moreover, composers receive no royalties for use of their works in another American institution — the jukebox. This, too, would be corrected in the long overdue general revision of copyright laws.

While many commend Congress for the interim extension, there is reported to be widespread hope that the general revision bill will receive urgent and early consideration in the second session of the 90th Congress. For those who contribute so significantly to our American heritage and culture are fully as entitled to modernization of the laws affecting them as are other important segments of the American economy.

Liberalization of the Social Security Law now provides automatic coverage for clergymen for taxable years after 1967. Only those requesting exemption on religious grounds will not get social security credit.

Clergymen, considered to be self-employed, pay their social security tax with their income tax if their yearly profits from the ministry are $400.00 or more. They must complete a Schedule "C" with each income tax return, indicating their ministerial gross income, expenses and net profit.

AMONG STARS'

Los Angeles can be a very pretty town; especially on a sunny Saturday afternoon. Although I have been cautioned about the fierceness of smog prevalent on some days, I've never seen any that would mar the beauty of this fabulous West Coast city.

A Saturday afternoon can be a beautiful thing; especially if you have a potential movie star to show you the sights. You can then imagine how wonderful I felt, tooling along the various freeways in the company of one Edith Corlette.

Walter Burrell, syndicated Hollywood reporter, had planned on giving me the grand tour but was tied up with official duties at Universal Studios. I didn't mind, though, because Edie is so much prettier and so energetic.

In fact, she's so proud of her position with the Rand Corporation in Santa Monica that I was afraid she was going to put in a couple of hours on her day off just to let me see what a mathematician is hired to do.

And though I seriously considered finding employment there as maybe a janitor just so I could be near here, I relaxed and let her do all of the driving and the talking. You'd be surprised how much you can learn when you keep your mouth shut!

Edie and I had a good look at the grandstands being erected in front of the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium where the 40th Annual Academy Award presentations were held the following Wednesday. Then, holding on for dear life, we rode the outside elevator leading to the Gate of Spain where we indulged in refreshments and conversation.

The Pieces of Eight, in Marina del Rey; the Sunset-Vine Towers, and the mere Spanish-influenced atmosphere of Los Angeles is enough to drive any person daffy; especially if you like things of beauty.

And Edith takes a backseat to none of the inanimate landmarks. Walter Burrell should be the star of "Fiddler on the Roof"—and this is our own personal in-joke for 1968.

Charming and lovely is Enola Burrell, who hosted an Academy Award-winning supper for Edie and I in her Willow Crest digs while Walt worked. I am glad that I'm not an entertainment writer!

I didn't get a chance to talk to any of my business associates and

I later found that I really didn't feel like conducting any business in the balmy air of Los Angeles.

I plan to sneak into LA, talk with O. C. Smith for a minute have a banana split with Edie, then call Walter from the airport as I am about to board a jet for parts unknown. This is the only way that I can repay him for interfering with my miserable, but uncomplicated existence.

See you Among the Stars . . .

ing with the presence of Mrs. Rochell of the Texas Employment Commission, Mrs. Margaret Weeks, grooming specialist, and Mrs. Liz Tankersley, also a grooming specialist.

Mrs. Rochell gave the club members several helpful pointers on the proper way to walk, talk, sit, stand and dress. She stated, "You cannot be happy around other people until you are happy with yourself."

"A beautiful personality starts at home," she added. "You should always put your best foot forward, for you may not get an opportunity to express your personality traits in the same situation again."

She also gave the girls pointers on how to obtain a beautiful figure and how to keep them.

Mrs. Tankersley is talented instructor in grooming and personality traits, and she, too, has mastered these traits in her own grooming status and personality.

Mrs. Weeks made the club members very happy when she remarked that she would help the club in every way she could. She also made a step in this direction. She had spoken to representative of a make-up company that will be willing to give the young ladies a make-up demonstration.

The demonstration will be given at a future date.

Mrs. Kathleen Curry, a member and officer of our organization, received honors from Austin after participating in the annual contest of the Vocational Industrial Cosmetology Association.

All young ladies who are interested in becoming a member of this organization may come and meet with us.

HELP KEEP AMERICA BEAUTIFUL

The fashion planners have come up with designs for a more beautiful America. Their recommendations can be seen in the New York Designers' Collection Plus and they want to change the picture by putting a prettier you on the scene!

Larry Aldrich emphatically advises that when you head to town you display civic chic in a sleeveless dress with round neck and hidden front pockets. With pattern #1032, Misses' 8-16, done up in a linen, gabardine, shantung or double knit you are ready to meet the press!

Donald Brooks is an indispensable aid, especially when he makes it his job to uncover possibilities for a more beautiful you within the confines of a limited budget. Try his simply elegant skimmer with shirred neck and highly dramatic full sleeve. If you're building a wardrobe, pattern #1030, Misses' 8-18, should be the foundation in crepe, wool or broadcloth — and to fool the public (which you should do some of the time) — turn out this same dress in a wild print. It looks totally different!

Geoffrey Beene is a founding father on the new fashion frontier. He insists there will be a renewal of urban sophistication with his high-neck, deliberately slit, halter — inspired nighttime dress. Pattern #1031, Misses' 8-16, is definitely not innocent — and is devastating in crepe, printed silk, surah or jersey.

Jacques Tiffeau goes to two lengths at least to beautify your image and make you feel great in society. His softly belted, square-necked, ultra-feminine dress is pattern #1033 from the New York Designers' Collection Plus, available in Misses' 8-16 wherever McCall's patterns are sold. And if you plan to do a lot of lobbying for your favorite cause make this your dress uniform in printed silk or cotton, crepe, wool, jersey, linen or pique.

It's your patriotic duty to be a beauty!

CITY RUNOFFS

With perhaps a record turnout at the Primaries here in Lubbock County and the State of Texas, the citizens of Lubbock will be looking forward to the City Runoffs to be held here Tuesday, May 14th, when they will be voting for Mayor and three City councilmen.

Last Saturday over 32,000 voted in the primaries here in Lubbock County and the same type of a turnout is expected for the city runoff.

Those seeking positions this Tuesday are incumbent W.D. "Dub" Rodgers and Ray Diekemper for mayor. Diekemper vacated a city councilman position to seek this spot. In place 2, L.H. Hollingworth and Gene Anderson are seeking the post while Deaton Rigsby and R.H. Brown are looking high in place three. And finally, in place four, incumbent W.E. Medlock and Morris Turner are awaiting the final tallies.

This should prove to be one of the most interesting races in the history of our city and a lot of interest is planned to be seen before the final vote is cast Tuesday.

In looking at the turnout in Precinct Box 20, perhaps the traffic will be heavier since this election will determine who will be in charge of our city government for another term. No doubt about it, the voting fever is here and this election Tuesday is no exception. Lubbock voters must go back to the polls on June 1st to choose their choice in a runoff election for several opponents.

The stakes are high in this City run-off election and lots will be lost for the incumbent and lots to be gained for the neophyte if they are able to concentrate their efforts to persuade the votes to their direction. Tuesday, May 14, is for real and a record vote is expected to be seen. It really is about time all the people who registered got out and used their vote to express their opinion.

FORT WORTH VISITORS HERE

A MAN WE WANT YOU TO MEET

Our Community House Neighborhood Service Center, located at 1444 N.W. 20th Avenue, Amarillo, Texas, wishes to announce the hiring of Mr. George D. Parrish as director. Mr. Parrish is a native of Clarksville, Texas, and a graduate of Texas College, Tyler Texas. Prior to coming to Amarillo Mr. Parrish worked at Jarvis College, Hawkins, Texas and as Resident Manager of the Coronado Apartments, a Two Million Dollar project sponsored by the Masonic lodges of Texas, located in Lubbock, Texas.

Mr. Parrish is married to the lovely Mrs. Dorothy M. Parrish. Mrs. Parrish is employed at Texas Tech where she is Production Manager in the food department, she is also a graduate of Texas College with further study in foods at Jarvis College. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Marilyn and Diane.

Mr. Parrish started his tour of duty in Amarillo on April 1, 1968, and it has been said that he hit the ground running, that is, he has been very active. He is on the Executive Committee of The Forward Amarillo program, where he serves on the Survey of Human Resources Committee, he is also on the Parks and Recreation Committee. He likes his work because he likes working with people and in the War on Poverty program there is a lot of work to be done.

I don't know what will happen during the next two years and the next four years if something isn't done within the next three weeks concerning the issue of Negro citizens in this city, voting. This no longer became a laughing matter when I was told by a man this week not to come to him concerning advertising since the people in this area that were registered to vote did not do so — and since they weren't going to vote, why should any merchant in town be interested in advertising for their business, they couldn't stick together at the polls, they couldn't elect one of their own to the school board, they couldn't even get a show of strength at a simple little thing like voting.

And do you know what, dear reader, the man was right! He was just as right as rain! He could just as well as told me that the next time a group of Negro citizens go to City Hall and ask for something that is needed for the area of town that we live and work in, we will not even be able to find an audience, much less a politician that is even interested in taking the time to give the Negroes in this city the benefit of "lip service."

This is all too true, as far as we here at the Times are concerned, we have been here a long time now and will be here a long time more, quite possibly longer than some of the good citizens that have chosen not to go and vote, not to go to their appointed places and receive their position of basic citizenship, but let no one of the Negro citizens of this town be fooled, the Times and what it represents will probably be here longer than a lot of the citizens who don't care, or don't wish to be recognized or heard!

Granted, it will not be easy for us either, we will from now on be forced to show what we can or will be able to do before we will convince anyone that their dollar is well spent with us, but at the same time, what we have invested is only money, time and the idea that the Negro citizen of West Texas is entitled to a newspaper, the thing that the people of our community has invested is their lives, and the lives of their children.

All we can say is good luck!!

Dunbar Captures 3-AAA Track Title At Austin

Those Dunbar Panthers have done it again!! This being their first year in UIL competition and they have come through with their colors flying high. First, football; second, basketball and now track. This is definitely a phenomenon for any school to merit this type of debut to any league.

Coach Prenis Williams left here Thursday with the idea to bring the bacon home. This was done with only seconds to go.

With less than 18 inches, Dunbar won the Class AAA state track championship at Austin last Saturday with sunny conditions.

This was to have come Friday, but an unforecast thunderstorm flooded the track and forced the delay until Saturday.

When the final contest was over, the Panthers, favorites for the championship, just made it in time.

They needed to finish at least third in the mile relay to win, and Wayne Davis, Panther speedster, pulled them into third by a measly 18 inches over Ector. The 12 points lifted Dunbar to 43, with San Antonio Wheatley winding up with 40. Wheatley scored all its points Friday night and watched that deciding mile relay from the grandstands. This was a heart breaking watch for the fellows from the Almo City.

The Panthers had too, and they did just that, call on the best in Wayne Davis to achieve their first Interscholastic League state brown. Wayne looked up and found three runners from San Marcos, Brownwood and Ector in front of him when he got the baton on the anchor leg.

San Marcos was out of range, but Wayne caught Brownwood and Ector Matta on the back stretch. It was a case of Davis getting by one of them enroute to the throne-room. He got ahead of Matta and held off down the stretch to get third by 1 1/2 feet.

The victor climaxed the Panthers' first year in the University Interscholastic League, a season in which they won district in football and finished second in the Big State of Texas.

This victory gave Coach Williams the distinction of being the first coach to win state track crowns in both the UIL and Prairie Vies, or Negro, Interscholastic League.

The opportunity for doing mischief is found a hundred times a day, and of doing good once in a year.

WHAT ARE THE ISSUES IN THE MAYOR'S RACE

Up to now, only Mayor W. D. Rogers Jr. has conducted his campaign on issues that are vital to Lubbock . . . the decision that the voters make on May 14th is much too important to deal in petty personal differences . . .

• THE INDUSTRIAL PARK

Mayor W. D. Rogers Jr. has been actively working toward securing an Industrial Park for Lubbock . . . and he feels it is a must if Lubbock is to continue to grow. His opponent has opposed the Industrial Park (regardless of what he says now) and he has put stumbling blocks in the way of its creation for the past two years!

• A BETTER LUBBOCK

Mayor W. D. Rogers Jr. has actively sought safer streets and better traffic systems. Mayor W. D. Rogers Jr. headed the group that secured a "AA" rating on Lubbock's bonds, while his opponent stayed at home not concerned with the high interest rate for Lubbock. Mayor Rogers worked with three of the Council to beautify University Avenue, while his opponent voted against it.

• PROGRESS OR STAGNATION

Mayor Rogers has worked hard and long for Lubbock, with no thought to personal gain or petty differences . . . his opponent served only half his term on the Council . . . and he spent a month and a half of that on vacation in Europe.

The election of Lubbock's Mayor for the next two years is simply this . . . Do you want a full-time, working Mayor with the interests of all the citizens . . . or . . . do you want an indecisive man whose record indicates he is against progress and a growing Lubbock?
