Well Whatta know!!! It couldn't come at a better time... The November 2 bulletin sent out by Texas Press Association says farmers, newspapers, and businessmen can take heart in current predictions that farming will soon become a booming, more profitable operation. The explanation is that food shortages are causing big changes in national policies. One change is that farmers will be encouraged to grow more and will be paid more for it. A booming economy will be indeed welcomed in the Earth-Springleake Area.

Ninety-two people from the local Springlake-Earth School District gathered Monday night shortly after 7 p. m. for the school board meeting which began around 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria.

The meeting was called to order and secretary of the Board, Guy F. Kelley, read the policy regarding the approach to, and the handling of problems within the school District. He read the following:

"Parents and all citizens in the community as near as possible that have complaints will be referred to the superintendent. If the superintendent cannot make an adjustment that is satisfactory to the parent or parties the complaint will be presented to the Board. Persons who wish to appear before the Board for a hearing should contact the superintendent and ask to be placed on the agenda. The board, however, is not obligated to act on these complaints or requests unless it has been submitted in writing and until it has had time to collect and study the pertinent facts."

James Busby, president of the Board, took the stand and said that this has been the policy of the board for several years and is in the handbook and available to anyone that wants to read it. He continued, "There seems to be a misunderstanding on the Board's policy, but that's the way it stands and that's the way it's carried in the book."

He then called Mrs. Phil Haberter to the front saying, "I believe you are next on the agenda." Mrs. Haberter came to the front and asked if the other ladies who visited lunchrooms in other schools could gather in the center of the room so they could be heard. Busby replied, "It won't make any difference to us."

The approximately 12 or 14 ladies seated themselves in the center of the cafeteria as Mrs. Haberter moved forward to the stand saying, "I did not like to pack lunches, and I wanted my children to eat up here. I didn't get into this thing to hurt anybody, which seems like it has. I am here to suggest that a snack bar be added and would like to present this to you, and I think each of us have something we would like to add."

"Would you mind if the other ladies had a chance to talk?" Busby replied, "We prefer to take them one at a time. It will be a lot simpler. You can go ahead and tell us what you like and the other ladies will have a chance to talk later."

Well, we visited other lunch rooms and we asked the same questions and if the supervisors were dieticians, what the charges were, and how much they paid their ladies for working in the lunchroom and by the way they did say that they charged their visitors and teachers more than the children, from 75 cents to $1. We didn't feel that that was out of reason because the food is here for the children, and personally I feel guilty if I come over here and eat for 35 cents. The other lunchrooms have gone 5 cents higher this year due to the price of food, which we all know has gone up. When Mary Jones and I talked to Mr. Mann we suggested perhaps that we might have better meals if we did go up a nickel, and we asked also how many did each lunchroom serve, and we estimated the amount of Mexican children and Negro children and perhaps the ones who would have free lunches and also the requirement. By now, perhaps you know there is a requirement that is to be met by the State to receive the commodities, which includes 2 ounces of meat daily or meat substitute, on the plate. It also includes the milk, it includes 2 vegetables, 1 vegetable and 1 fruit. It also includes whole wheat bread or rolls and a certain amount of protein. It includes 2 ounces of butter, which can be used either on the table or in the preparing of the food."

In addressing the ladies, Mrs. Haberter asked, "Did I leave out anything?" "There are daily requirements for each student, the state requires that we found, each place they had to make a daily report and send in from that a monthly report, and from that you get your commodities. And the commodities now are mainly flour, meal, rice, and shortening, now of course there have been some chickens and some of the schools have received some turkeys. Also they have received some peas, apricots, pears, some fruit, but of the commodities the flour, meal, rice, and shortening they can get all they need. Now, last year they did have cheese and butter, but this year this has been cut out. Also we asked if there was a difference in the size of the school as far as commodities were concerned and there is no difference in the 4A Schools and 2A schools except in the manner of there being more children and therefore you receive your amount of commodities per child, so much per child.

"We also asked if there was a separate banquet fund and how their books were kept and we found that each place did have a banquet fund that they could not carry on without separate funds. We talked to each one of them, for instance about the hamburger buns, which a hamburger is just not a hamburger without a hamburger bun, and each of them said that it was not worthwhile for them to make the buns even though they did get the flour and shortening from the government because the children did not eat them well enough to put out the work and labor it takes, that the expense of buying the buns, they felt was far beyond what they could save, because the children would eat them better. We asked all lunchroom ladies and supervisors questions and they asked us questions, and we felt there was a chance for improvement and we wanted to present it for improvement."

"Now, Dimmitt and Muleshoe both have snack bars, and I understand these are mainly put in for reasons that children might be allowed to go home or to visit the dairy queen across the road or

Local Band To Participate In Contest

Springleake-Earth's Wolverine Band is preparing to participate in the Region I Inter-scholastic League Marching Contest, scheduled for Tuesday, November 22, at the Texas Tech Stadium in Lubbock.

The local band is expected to perform beginning at 11:24 a. m. They will be in competition with approximately 12 other Class A Bands. Dean Foshee, local band director said the Wolverine Band has around 85 members. Most of the other class A Bands have around 60-70 members. Therefore, Springlake-Earth should have the advantage.

Under the supervision of Foshee, Springlake-Earth has won three sweepstake awards in succession. Marching is the first event of three contests included in competition for the sweepstake award. A superior rating is required in marching, concert playing, and sight-reading to qualify for the coveted sweepstake award. The concert and sight reading contests will be held in the Spring.

The local band is facing the challenge with great enthusiasm. They are hoping to win sweepstakes again this year, therefore bringing home the sweepstakes title for the fourth year in succession.

Fifth Grade Band Being Organized

The 6th grade and Junior High Stage Band will present a concert at 7:30 p. m. on Thursday, November 17, in the High School Auditorium.

At this time the fifth grade band will be organized, and the instrument drive will begin.

All parents are urged to attend in order to get their children started in fifth grade band.

Virgil Lewis Receives Burns

Virgil Lewis received second degree burns on Thursday, November 10 and was rushed to the Littlefield Hospital for treatment.

Lewis received the burns when gasoline exploded as he attempted to dispose of it after having cleaned his paint brushes with it.

Lewis said he poured the gasoline into the laboratory and when it failed to drain out, he turned the water on and it still failed to drain. He then picked up his stillson wrench to work on the drain, as he began to use the wrench the explosion took place.

Lewis remained hospitalized for two days before being dismissed to return home where he is believed to be improving.

Friday Breakfast Is Kickoff For Boy Scout Financial Drive

A breakfast at 6:30 a. m. Friday in the community building in Earth will officially serve to kickoff the drive to finance the Boy Scouts of America.

An operating budget of $149,577 in 1967 was adopted unanimously by the Executive Board of the South Plains Council, after careful analysis and study by representatives of its 7 Districts.

"The Boy Scouts of America is what may be characterized as a 'character-building' organization which while probably accurate enough, it in no way imparts the tangible value of such an organization to the community. Scouting is essentially an educational program giving boys incentive to achieve, recognizing achievement imparting skills, trains for participation citizenship, teaches democracy and group action, place tangible goals before curious and ambitious minds and stresses moral values."

Who pays for scouting? The boy pays an annual national registration fee of fifty cents. This maintains the national work. He pays for his advancement literature, his personal equipment, basic camp costs, earned awards, special unit activities, and his unit's dues from his personal funds, thus learning the lesson of self-reliance.

From members' dues and approved money earning projects that teach lessons of group responsibility, the Scout unit pays for unit meeting equipment program supplies, leadership tools and literature, camping gear, special unit needs and its special events.

Behind every Scout and his unit stands the chartered institution and there are 85,000 such local institutions sponsoring 129,000 units. The representatives of these institutions constitute the majority of voting power in the local Scout Council.

These institutions - churches of all faiths, parent-teachers associations, service clubs, veterans groups, organizations of many kinds, use Scouting in serving their people and communities.

They furnish meeting place facilities, heat, light, leadership tools, special unit needs and recognition awards.

But after the boy, his unit and the chartered institution have done their part to make Scouting possible there are still some basic needs to be met to provide a total Scouting program for each unit in every community.

A local program can not be operated by volunteers alone. The overall direction of the Council program, training of leaders, scheduling and coordination of functions in keeping the unit active, well-informed, and organized requires the services of professional Scout leaders - most of whom started as Boy Scouts themselves.

Local people on the committee are Leory Wilkerson, M. B. Baldwin, Ross Middleton, Roger Haberter, Henry Lewis, Norma Hinchliffe, Neil Pounds, George Laing, R. E. O'Hair, Alvin O'Hair, Fred Welch, M. H. Been, James Littleton, Jr., Hugh Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Lewis, Claude Holder, Cecil Slover, D. H. Koeninger, J. J. Davis, Doug Parish, Jimmy Bitner, W. A. Hatfield, Alvin Pittman, and M. E. Kelley.

School Trustees Vote to Intervene in Tax Suits

Monday night immediately following the public meeting in the school cafeteria, the school board met in the high school library and took care of routine school business.

The first item taken care of on the agenda was a review of delinquent tax policies. It was agreed that the school would intervene on taxes that are delinquent, two years or more, with the county and city on tax suits.

To intervene on tax suits in conjunction with anyone else is to file suit simultaneously with those of the county and city.

The board reviewed the bond schedule and voted to ask permission from the bond holders to retire one of the original bond issues of 1929. They also approved the textbook committee consisting of Mrs. Gladys McCord, Mrs. Lovelle Morris, Mrs. Mary Alice Gaston, Mrs. Ann Higginbottom, Mrs. Gladys Parish, Mrs. Roseva Ford, Mrs. Monarae Cummings, Charlie Dvorak, D. H. Koeninger, Mrs. Modena Hawthorne, Eva Rae Hawkins, Mrs. Evelyn Winders, Dixie Huffman, Don Ray Ford, Danny Smith, Marvin Sanders, Jr., Juel J. Davis, and W. L. Mann.

It was disclosed that the current daily average attendance is 912 2/3 students.

The board discussed the many defunct records that are kept at the school and agreed to request a state auditor to audit the books as soon as possible.

If the state auditor is unavailable, they agreed to contact two competent citizens and instruct them to contract a qualified certified public accountant to audit the books.

Present for the meeting were James Busby, Guy Kelley, Bob Armstrong, Norman Hinchliffe, Orville Cleavinger, board members, Bill Mann, superintendent and Ross Middleton.

Area Children's Pictures To Be Taken Wednesday, November 30

Winston B. Lucas, photographer from Irving, will be in Earth to take area children's pictures again this year.

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world our nation and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publisher of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work will be here Wednesday, November 30.

Pictures will be taken at the community room from 2 p. m. until 6 p. m.

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, or even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with

Sonny Hitt Hospitalized

Sonny Hitt, co-owner of the Earth Electric Company was involved in an accident Thursday evening that seemingly almost proved fatal.

The accident occurred when Hitt accidentally touched a hot wire measuring 440 volts which surged through his body, as he was wiring a well near Muleshoe for Earth Electric Company.

Hitt was momentarily knocked unconscious, as he revved he got into his pickup truck to return to Earth, though he was having considerable difficulty in breathing. Mr. Wilhite, owner of the well drove up immediately following the accident, and protested against the idea of Hitt attempting to return to Earth alone in his pickup with his abnormal breathing condition.

Hitt drove off in his pickup, and Wilhite called the Earth Pump and Machine Company and reported Hitt's accident and the condition under which Hitt was attempting to return to Earth.

Gene and Bill Chaney, employees for the firm, left immediately to assist Hitt. His radio was on and they could hear his attempts to speak and finally heard the words, "Can't make it."

The Chaney's attempted to get his location but Hitt couldn't hear them. They found him as he pulled off the road near Nichols Gin.

They gave him mouth to mouth respiration as they drove to West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe where he remained hospitalized until Saturday, when he was dismissed and was allowed to return to work.

Clubs Net $66.00 From Salad Supper

Approximately $66 was netted at the salad supper Friday night at the school cafeteria by the TOPS Club and the Young Homemakers Club.

Of this $66 netted, the TOPS Club will receive $33, and the Young Homemakers Club will receive $33. Proceeds will be used for various projects throughout the year. A variety of delicious salads along with tea and coffee were prepared and served by members of the two local clubs.

something of that nature, but that is not the case in Dimmitt. They have a parking problem there and do not allow their students to leave the school. I talked with one of the board members again this week and he did say that the snack bar did offset some of the expense of the rest of the lunchroom and he felt it was well worth the time and effort and what it brought in to them. Mrs. Haberer paused and asked if anyone else had something to say. Busby asked, "What ways do you know that we can improve the lunchroom, what are some of them?" Mrs. Haberer replied, "Actually we felt that some of our menus were not according to the other menus. For instance we will let everybody else be the judge. We found the other schools had fried chicken, they had turkey, steak, and until we started looking into this thing we hadn't had any chicken."

"Are you sure," Busby asked. Mrs. Haberer said, "Would you like to question me further?" "I just want to know if you are sure," Busby replied. Mrs. Haberer said, "That's right, we hadn't had any chicken. Busby asked lunchroom supervisor, "Have we, Mrs. Upchurch?" "Well, we received our government chickens a week ago, she replied.

"We haven't had chicken previously," Busby asked. Armstrong, one of the board members requested Mrs. Haberer to just tell us now as we go along which one of these we're falling short on.

"For what," Mrs. Haberer asked.

"The ones we're falling short of you haven't told us as we go along the ones we're doing and the ones we're not, we would appreciate it very much if you'd tell us."

Mrs. Haberer said, "I think we'd like to ask for instance, has there been daily records kept for 3 years?"

"Yes mam, and a lot longer than that," came the reply. Bill Mann spoke up, "Let me add this, we couldn't get by without keeping them because we might have a state auditor. I don't believe that any school could get by without keeping them."

"Mr. Mann, when Mary Jones and I talked to you, you said that we did not keep daily records," replied Mrs. Haberer. Superintendent Mann said, "That would be almost like saying I didn't have a head because there's no reason to say that we didn't have daily records by Elvira. She has kept records as long as she's been here."

Don Layman spoke up saying, "I was also told by the same man, Mr. Bill Mann and Mrs. Upchurch, that there were no records kept."

Mrs. Upchurch, "Mrs. Haberer said, 'Also told me when I talked to her on the telephone that they did not have regular daily records.'"

Mrs. Upchurch said, "I want to deny that, I didn't tell him that because I've always kept records."

Bill Mann added, "Actually that is as common as anything. You'd have no reason not to do that. Probably every area school does it. Records are filled out every day."

He went on at length to say it was a necessity to keep records in order to get commodities.

Mrs. Haberer said, "Yes, that was why we were wondering why our school was different and didn't keep records." Mann replied, "I know that talking to these people you could get mixed up. He went on to describe at length the reason for keeping these records, and summed it up by saying there was no way around it."

Mrs. Haberer replied, "Yes, we remember asking you about that, Mr. Mann and you wasn't sure about when it was taken."

Weldon Barton asked the question, "How the records are kept, what the records consist of, number of students who eat or type of food served or what?"

Busby answered the question by saying, "No, it consists of how many students came through the lunch line and how many take milk and how many don't, how many adults come through and which of these take milk and which of these don't." Someone added, "And the amount of money?" Yes, he said, and the amount of money collected from them. He went on to describe the records kept, then asked if they would like to look at it. We'll get one.

Mrs. Upchurch brought in a report. Bill Mann described the necessity of keeping books, as just as common as could be in running an institution, etc.

Mrs. Haberer asked if there had been a bookkeeping change recently in the past month in the keeping of money and issuing lunch tickets, etc.

Mrs. Leon Dent, tax assessor and collector for the school, spoke up, "No there has not been a change. I have worked here for a year and a half and these reports have been brought to me regularly and I have used the same report, leap, ever since I've been here."

Mann spoke up saying, "I believe she's talking about Elvira and the elementary teacher. There has been some adjustment there, but I guess all the records are the same as for years."

"That's what I was wondering," Mrs. Haberer said, "I was told there was a recent change made in the method used."

The question was asked, "Who told you that?" She replied, "One of the faculty." Busby asked Mrs. Haberer to use names when she spoke of rumors someone told her. They could not act on gossip and that sort of thing but would need names when quoting these things.

Lynn Glasscock arose and addressed the president of the board saying, "I was told by Orville Cleavinger, one of the members of the Board, that when this thing first came up, he asked Mann about the records on the lunchroom and he said he didn't know where they were kept or how they were kept or what."

Cleavinger replied, "Lynn, I believe you must have misunderstood me, let me clarify, this was brought up, it wasn't asked by me, it was asked by another member of the board where the records are at the last meeting and Bill said I don't know where they are was all he said. The tax assessor-collector keeps them and I don't know where they are."

James Busby said, "I asked the question myself. That wasn't a matter of thinking anything was wrong. We have to see the records to see how we are coming out on feeding for 35 cents. Bill said they were in the tax office and that was where they should be so the matter was dropped."

Weldon Barton asked, "Is there a separate state fund kept for the lunchroom alone, and account that nothing goes into it but income from the lunchroom?" Busby replied, "Bill how many accounts do we have?" Mann said, "I can recall five right off. We have an operating fund, a lunchroom fund, and so on. The state has always required it be kept separate."

Barton asked, "Is it possible that the fund could be inefficient, I mean depleted, I mean if you weren't making any money, is it possible that fund wouldn't have any money in it?"

Mann told Barton, "We've always been in good shape." "In other words, Barton said, 'you've always made money off the 35 cent lunch?'" Mann said, "We've come out pretty good on 35 cent lunches until just here recently the whole thing hit us when state commodities were cut in about half from last year, and all foods have gone up tremendously."

"I'm sure it has, but did you make money in previous years that could carry you over this period without being in the red and exceeding your income?" Barton asked.

Mann said, "They came out about even," but went on to add that Sudan came out last year $2700 or $2800 in the red. They took that out of their tax money. He explained that Otton was about the same amount in the red, but he didn't know what they did, how they got out of it. He gave a report on another school being about 3000 in the red and thought they took it out of tax money. Mann went on to report that the local school broke about even."

From the audience came the question, "If ours were to come up in the red, where would we replenish the fund?" Mann explained it would either have to make up the difference out of charges in the lunches or take it out of the tax money.

Busby went on to explain it would be taken out of tax money if necessary, but their commodities had helped in bearing the expense of the lunchroom.

Mann named over several commodities, but the butter and cheese had been cut out this year. He added they got about 40 turkeys, and he hoped they were still out in the deep freeze, and he imagined they were, and they would be served when the menu committee saw fit to place them on the menu."

He went on to name the various ladies on the menu committee and described at length his feeling as to the lovely job he thought they were doing in planning of the meals."

Weldon Barton spoke, "While we are on the subject of the menu, do your records show what percent of the enrolled students eat the lunchroom menu, and what percent therefore bring your lunches?"

Mann said, "You mean what percent eat greens?"

"No," Barton explained, "I mean if 500 students file through here at lunch time, what percent of these eat in the lunchroom and what percent bring their lunch?"

"Well, we'd know how many eat, and we'd know how many were enrolled that day, but as far as how many bring their lunch, I don't think I would have that information. I know we have a certain percent."

"What percent in the past have eaten in the lunchroom, use a six month period or a year or as long as you want to, and tell me what percent have eaten in our lunchroom, Barton pursued farther."

Busby commented it ran about 650 at present. "I checked it recently."

Barton said, "650 are eating and how many are enrolled?" The enrollment figure it seems was 906.

Barton continued, "In other words, that would leave 256 who brought their lunches or either didn't eat."

EDITORS NOTE: Due to the lengthy four hour conversation, the entire meeting could not be set up in time to make the the deadlines. Also the space involved will of necessity, require it to be continued until next week.

14 GIANT SYNTHETICS PRODUCERS ARE TAKING COTTON'S MARKETS

HOW CAN 500,000 FARMERS FIGHT BACK?

The Farmers' Answer: 'Expand Research & Promotion'

With huge research and promotion expenditures, synthetic fiber firms rapidly are taking cotton's markets. As a result, the carryover is at an all-time record. Acreage is the lowest since 1872—down 30 per cent on the average for 1966.

But farmers have developed a way to fight back. It enables them to pool their resources to mount a hard-hitting research and promotion program to save cotton markets, acreage, and income.

Self-Help Plan Brings Beltwide Acclaim, Support

The farmer-originated plan gives growers an opportunity to vote, in a Beltwide referendum, on establishing a uniform assessment of $1.00 per bale for expanded research and promotion. Thousands of growers and 61 cotton organizations have endorsed this approach—overwhelmingly. The press is praising farmers for their efforts to help themselves.

We Compliment Cotton Farmers On Their Business Approach

Clearly, the plan is based on hard and sound thinking. All projects must be initiated by grower trustees elected by cotton producer organizations. Other provisions give equal assurance of farmer direction and control. Any individual farmer who does not want to participate can have his money refunded.

We recognize that cotton is the economic lifeblood of our business and our community. We are happy to offer any assistance we can give our farmer friends as they work for approval in the referendum.

Kress Takes 3A Championship 34 - 6

The 1966 football season came to an end for the Wolverines Friday night at Wolverine Stadium, with the Kress Kangaroos jumping into the Class A playoffs for the second straight year in a row.

The Kangaroos took advantage of every Wolverine miscue, turning them into touchdowns, and sending them down in defeat 34-6.

The Kangaroos scored first, with quarterback Dickie Jones, rolling to the right side of the line on a keeper play and going over from 2 yards out. Phil Bohner, the Kress kicking specialist, kicked the extra point.

After the kickoff to the Wolverines, a fumble in the backfield gave the ball to Kress and three plays later Phil Bohner, the Kress fullback, shot up the middle of the line for 5 yards and another touchdown. This time Bohner's kick was blocked.

On the second down after Kress kicked off to the Wolverines, Phillip Boyd intercepted a Messer pass on the thirty yard line and went scampering over untouched for the score. Again the kick by Bohner was good and Kress had the lead 20-0, with all three touchdowns being scored in 3 minutes and 27 seconds of the first quarter.

In the second quarter, quarterback Dickie Jones sneaked over from the 5 yard line on another keeper play for the Kress 4th touchdown, and Bohner's kick was no good. At halftime Kress had a nice lead of 26-0.

In the third quarter the Wolverines began to move the ball and on a handoff from Quarterback Messer to Armstrong, who in turn handed off to Randy Washington, then tossed a 40 yard pass to quarterback Doug Messer on the 3 yard line and went over untouched for the lone Wolverine touchdown of the night. The play had a lot of razzle-dazzle football action, and left Kress wondering just what happened. The pass for point after failed and the Wolverines had to settle for 6 points. Late in the third quarter, James Jackson, the big 212 pound reserve fullback, crashed over the middle of the line from 3 yards out and scored the final touchdown of the night for Kress. Instead of kicking the ball, Bohner elected to run the ball over for the final 2 points.

With the regular season over, the Kress victory entitled them to represent District 3A, in State playoff. Kress will play Spur for Bi-District honors in Lubbock on Friday.

Air Standards Hearing Set For January 5

AUSTIN--The Air Control Board set January 5 for public hearing on proposed regulations to control pollution from smoke and particulate matter. Tentative regulations would outlaw burning of burs, trash, lint and other wastes from cotton gins and require mechanical dust collectors for asphalt portable plants. They cover flues, grading of smoke density, combustion units and distances of pollution sources from neighboring property.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker and girls spent the weekend in Amarillo where they visited Mrs. J. L. Walker, who is a patient in the Amarillo Orthopaedic Hospital, following a recent heart attack. They also visited Angie and Shirley Walker while there.

Post Office To Help In Livestock Count

A number of patrons of the Earth Post Office will find livestock survey cards in their post boxes on November 20. "Information reported on these cards is used to set the yearly inventory of livestock and poultry on Texas farms," Postmaster Miller explains. Cards are distributed at random among patrons having livestock and poultry. "This means that not every box will get a card," Mr. Miller said. "For this reason, it's important for everyone who gets a card to return it filled out so that the USDA can get a true sample of the State's livestock holdings."

Facts and figures secured in this survey are the basis for the Texas and national pig crop report and inventories of the livestock and poultry on farms as of the first of the year. Stockmen and many others use this information in making business decisions. Survey results will be widely distributed through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, farm magazine, radio, and television.

County Cotton Acreage Upped 1600 Acres for 1967

Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. announced this week that Lamb County was among 22 counties within the 23 county High Plains Area to receive an increase in cotton acreage. Total base allotment for the 23 counties in 1967 comes to 2,165,872, as compared to 2,122,770 in 1966. Excepting Motley County, all counties in the area received slight increases in base acreage, and Motley County dropped only 126 acres. Lamb County's base 1967 cotton allotment has been set at 186,924 acres. This is an increase of 1,600 acres over this year.

Lamar Aten, County office manager for the Lamb County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, said State ASCS officials notified the office here that the county's projected yield for 1967 has been set at 570 pounds per acre, up from 540 pounds this year. The projected yield on some farms is considerably above 570 pounds and some much less than the average of 570 pounds. The national average is 545 pounds and the state average is 386. The projected yield is based on the production of cotton in 1963, '64, and '65. Next year 1966 will be added and 1963 will be dropped in arriving at the projected yields for 1968. Projected yields are used in determining diverted acreage and price support payments to farmers participating in the federal cotton program. With this increase in acreage and projected yields and assuming that all farmers in the county select the same program as last year, an added $549-931 will be added to the county's economy over this year. The "domestic allotment" for 1967 will be 65 percent of the effective allotment on individual farms, same as for 1966. Most farmers in the county reduced their plantings to the domestic acreage under the 1966 program, idling 35 percent of their effective allotments.

Aten stated that notices of allotments and projected yields for individual farms will be mailed to county farmers Tuesday. The total cotton and feed grain payments are over 70 percent complete. This includes the advance payments made in the spring. The total payments as of Tuesday were $10,839,432.65. Of this amount a total of $8,247,920.59 has been mailed since September 14. Aten said he expected by the end of this week, virtually all farmers in the county will have received their government program checks.

COTTON SEED seems to be reaching the sky at Barton Brothers Gin. The seed is piling up faster than it can be hauled to the oil mill.

25 percent from a month ago. Placements into Texas feedlots during October totaled 205,000 head. These placements are up 50 percent from October 1965 and up 53 percent from September 1966 placements. Marketing of fat cattle during October totaled 106,000 head. These marketings are 38 percent above October 1965 but 7 percent below September marketings.

Hightower Speaks at TS TA Meeting

The Lamb County Texas State Teachers Association met at the Sudan High School at 7 p. m. on Monday for a regular meeting and turkey dinner. Miss Barbara Wilson of Sudan provided a lovely piano solo from "Dr. Zhivago." The Efels, a group of folk singers from Sudan, also provided entertainment. Jack Hightower was guest speaker. He spoke on the main items that TSTA will bring before Congress in the way of legislation. The TSTA's proposed program was also reviewed. During the business meeting, Mrs. Evelyn Kiser of Littlefield gave a report from the House of Delegates meeting in Austin on November 3, 4, and 5. Turkey and all the trimmings was served to the approximately 220 members and guests attending. Approximately 30 attended the meeting from Springlake-Earth School.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Hitt were Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hitt, all of Post.

Permanent Press Available In Fabric Furnishings

College Station-Fabrics with unfailing memories offer a new dimension in styling for the decorative fabrics field, says Mrs. Jane Berry, housing and home furnishings specialist at Texas A&M University. Because of the application of permanent or durable press to the decorative fabric area, fabric furnishings are on the threshold of a revolution in design. Several decorative fabric firms currently experimenting with durable press in the home furnishings area anticipate that the process will open new and unexplored vistas for styling. The durable press process positively lives up to claims of absolutely no ironing after machine washing and drying.

Durable press makes its debut on the markets in the curtain and drapery field. Ruffled curtains and bedspreads will be the primary targets in the durable press collection. A 50-50 blend of polyester and rayon will be featured in a broadcloth.

Consumer acceptance of durable press in the home furnishings field is expected to be positive, and immediate. Before the innovation of durable press, homemakers have not reacted favorably in accepting ruffled bedspreads and curtains because of the care factor involved.

Now ideas for the use of durable press are popping up everywhere. A few of the possibilities include ruffles or pleated ruffles on curtains; draperies with cartridge or knife pleats; folding doors using fabrics that hold their shape; bedspreads and dust ruffles; sheets with accordion pleated accents; and Roman shades, shower curtains, lamp shades, table cloths, slip covers and upholstery. Permanent press fabric furnishings may cost slightly more, but they are anticipated to be worth the difference in easier maintenance and continued good looks.

Local Postmaster Announces Changes In Overseas Mailing

Postmaster, Harold Miller of Earth, Texas, today announced that henceforth all first class mail, personal sound recordings (voice letters), and parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and measuring not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined will be air lifted on a space available basis between the United States and all military post offices overseas.

Also, under Public Law 89-725--The Dulski Military Mail Act--which was signed by President Johnson on November 2, 1966, second class publications such as newspapers and magazines published weekly or more often, and featuring current news of interest to the military, will be airlifted from San Francisco to the armed forces serving Viet Nam.

Postmaster Miller explained that parcels weighing 5 pounds or less and not exceeding 60 inches in length and girth combined, paid at surface rates, will be moved by surface transportation within the United States from the points of mailing to the port of embarkation.

To speed up separation and delivery of these smaller parcels falling within this category, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien directed that all parcels be clearly marked upon acceptance at the post office with the letters SAM (surface airlift mail).

This will eliminate the task of reweighing and measuring the parcels at the San Francisco Concentration Center prior to the dispatch to Viet Nam or other overseas military post offices.

Postmaster Miller also re-mindful mailers that Christmas parcels weighing 5 pounds and under, though they are given airlift priority from San Francisco to Viet Nam on a space available basis, should be mailed no later than December 1.

Number Of Cattle In Feedlots Up

There were 608,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter market in Texas on November 1, according to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. This is 23 percent above a year ago and 13 percent above a month ago.

Feedlots of 1,000 or more capacity held 543,000 (89 percent) of the total being fattened for slaughter market. Of these 256 large feedlots, there were 192 that reported having cattle on feed November 1. This size group is up 22 percent from November 1965 and 19 percent from a month ago.

Feedlots with less than 1,000 capacity held 65,000 head. This size group is up 30 percent from a year ago and up 10 percent from a month ago. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Drake left last Tuesday for Mangum, Oklahoma where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perason. The foursome left for Camden, Arkansas to visit another sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lee. While there, Mr. Drake visited two of his nieces he had not seen for 25 years. They returned home Saturday.

STARS OF THE WEEK

BACK OF THE WEEK. The Springlake-earth coaching staff selected quarterback Doug Messer for the back of the week honor in the game against Kress Friday night. Doug scored the only touchdown for the Wolverines on a double reverse 40 yard pass from Randy Washington, the same play that worked so well in downing the Farwell Steers.

LINEMAN OF THE WEEK. For outstanding defensive work against the Kress Kangaroo, the Wolverine Coaching staff selected Danny Kelley, the 146 pound senior guard at lineman of the week. Danny did a terrific job, stopping plays up the middle, and forced the play to the outside. Danny though weighing only 146 pounds, is a very hard man to keep down and will always be trying to get to his opponent's back field.

Cotton Producers To Vote On Proposed Cotton Research and Promotion Order

Producers of upland cotton will vote December 5-9 to determine whether a research and promotion order should be issued for upland cotton, the U. S. Department of Agriculture announced today.

Officials of USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service said the referendum will be conducted by mail ballot through county ASCS offices in conjunction with the upland cotton marketing quota referendum, but in a separate ballot.

Approval by two-thirds of the producers voting, or by a majority of producers voting if that majority accounts for two-thirds of the cotton represented in the referendum, is necessary for the order to become effective.

Today's announcement followed USDA's final decisions of the provisions to be included in the proposed order and on the regulations to be used for the referendum.

The proposed cotton research and promotion program would be administered by a Cotton Board composed of members nominated by cotton producing organizations and selected by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The program would be financed through assessments of $1 per bale from upland cotton producers, to be collected by cotton handlers designated by the Cotton Board. Collections from any producer who did not wish to contribute would be refunded upon written application. Assessment would start at the beginning of the ginning season for the 1967 crop.

C&M's officials said producers are eligible to vote in the referendum if they were "engaged in the production" of the 1966 upland cotton crop during the calendar year 1966.

The term "engaged in the production" is defined to include planting an upland cotton crop even though the crop is not harvested if the failure to harvest is not caused by the neglect of the farmer.

Those sharing in an upland cotton crop or proceeds from it, on a farm as an owner, cash tenant, sharecropper, share tenant, or landlord of a share tenant (except for a standing rent, cash rent, or fixed rent tenant), shall also be considered engaged in the production of that crop.

In addition, owners or operators of a farm for which an acreage allotment for an upland cotton crop was established according to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, but on which that crop was not produced, shall generally be considered to be engaged in the production of that crop in the year in which that crop, if produced, would have been harvested.

This definition of "engaged in production" is also used in the marketing quota referendum regulation.

Each producer is entitled to only one "yes" or "no" vote in the referendum.

C & M's officials explained, however, that if it is necessary to calculate the volume of production by voters to determine the outcome of the referendum, county ASCS offices will make this calculation on the basis of their records of 1966 planted acreage and projected lint yield per acre for each farm.

A farmer with additional production in a county or state other than the county in which he is eligible to vote must establish that interest with his ASCS office prior to the beginning of the referendum in order for that production to be considered.

This order was proposed by the National Cotton Council. The legislation authorizing it was designed to enable cotton producers to engage in a comprehensive self-help program to strengthen cotton's competitive position and to maintain and expand domestic and foreign markets and uses for U. S. cotton.

USDA's final decision in favor of the order was based on the evidence developed at a two week public hearing in August and includes consideration of comments filed on the recommended decision published in the October 5 Federal Register.

A summary of the proposed cotton research and promotion order to be voted upon will be sent to each eligible voter along with his ballot. Complete copies of the order will be available at county ASCS offices.

County Has 7 Rural Accidents During October

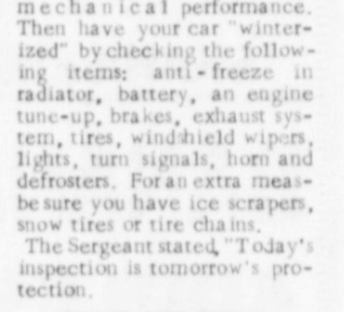

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 7 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of October, according to Sergeant Thurman Keffer, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in 1 death, 5 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $6575.00.

The rural accident summary for this county during the first ten months of 1966, shows a total of 92 accidents resulting in 3 persons killed, 50 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $63,545.

Get the jump on the winter months by having your vehicle safety inspected by an authorized garage to assure its safe mechanical performance. Then have your car "winterized" by checking the following items: anti-freeze in radiator, battery, an engine tune-up, brakes, exhaust system, tires, windshield wipers, lights, turn signals, horn and defrosters. For an extra measure sure you have ice scrapers, snow tires or tire chains.

The Sergeant stated, "Today's inspection is tomorrow's protection."

"Will the chairman of ticket sales please make his report?"

"ALL I KNOW IS WHAT I READ IN THE PAPERS"

America's best-loved humorist also was one of the best-informed persons in his time. Nothing, it seemed, escaped his notice. His comments on the passing scene were applauded and repeated by millions the world over. "All I know is what I read in the papers" became his trade-mark. Will Rogers recognized that newspapers, more than any other media, are the common source of information of all the people. The simple fact that everyone knew immediately what he was talking about provided an important basis for his fabulous popularity.

That same simple fact is just as true today as ever. If your advertising message is for all the people put it in YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER!
