

School Board

 calls.
 They discussed a private telephone for Supt. Mann. Barton suggested if he wanted one he had better start right away trying to get one as they are not available all the time.
 Ray Joe Riley asked if he needed it more now or in the fall. Riley made it clear he did not object if he needed it, go ahead. It would make the bill go up, but if you need it, you need it, he said.
 Dawson asked Supt. Mann if he received reimbursement on the telephone calls or travel expense as a member on the State Committee (Mann was appointed in February to the State Advisory team financing public education). Mann related, "Not really, but since there has only been one meeting there wasn't much involved."
 Washington jokingly said, "Don't guess you spent any school money on it, did you?"
 Riley spoke up to explain that as important as the committee is and since Mann would be looking out for this district, looks like there should be some sort of reimbursement.
 Supt. Mann said there were 22 members, composed of legislators and school men throughout the State.
 Dawson explained that as far as it is to Austin, they don't expect anyone, like any other businessman to stand his own expenses, do they? Mann replied that there just hasn't been much involved yet.
 The board went into a discussion of the current enrollment figures. They found there was little difference in last year at this period compared to this years figure of 759.

 Dawson asked that the agenda might be rearranged to discuss everything in the way of school business before going into the executive meeting since a News-Sun reporter, Polly Middleton, was present. The board agreed to a rearrangement of the agenda.
 The '72-'73 school calendar was discussed. A total of 180 days is all teachers can teach without extra pay. The calendar called for 183 days, the three additional days were added in case of bad weather next winter so they could dismiss if necessary and still get in 180 days of teaching. The calendar spring vacation date was set to be flexible in order to coincide with Texas Tech spring vacation.
 Kelley moved to accept the calendar with the two tentative dates, October 20 and the spring vacation, both termed flexible, and could be changed if necessary. Barton seconded the motion and it carried with a unanimous vote.
 The group studied with interest the luncheon financial report. Mann explained they made more money off free lunches than they do on those that were paid for.
 The educational secretary work shop in Austin was mentioned. The three or four day meeting in Austin was allowed only $75.00. This they agreed wasn't much but it was what the coaches were allowed when attending coaches school. They voted to send Mrs. Marvin Sanders, school secretary, to the secretaries work shop.
 Washington asked if the teachers salaries were always stretched out over the twelve month period. Mann told him it always was unless they requested it all to be paid within the ten working months, having a legitimate reason, otherwise, it was always spread monthly over the entire year.

 The group studied the budget. They were supplied information as to where the three teachers aids were working. Two aids spend full time in the elementary system and another one spends most of her time there, with some time spent in the junior high.
 Following the budget study the group went into the executive meeting.
 During the executive meeting the group hired a vocational ag teacher. The new ag teacher will assume his duties here on July 1. The new faculty member is Melvin Chisum from Flower Grove. He served as a teacher and coach at New Home for two years prior to moving to Flower Grove two years ago where he has served as vocational ag instructor.
 Chisum graduated from Texas Tech and was a member of the Tech rodeo team while attending college. He graduated from Tullia High School. He has done graduate work in feedlot practices and has a certificate to teach courses in feedlot practices. He has a variety of interest in agricultural practices.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chisum are the parents of one child.

Area Farmers To Be "Buggy"

An area of 2000 acres which includes the Halsell farms, Busby farms, Gene Templeton farm, Kenneth Sawyer farm, Jearl and J.B. James farm and possibly the Parish farms, has been selected for a controlled experiment to see whether or not a tiny little imported wasp can control the green bugs that plague grain producers.
 It is hoped to be proven whether beneficial insects can be used in the control of greenbugs and similar insects.
 This will be the first large scale release of beneficial insects on a serious field pest to be conducted in the United States.
 The insect to be used is a parasitic wasp commonly called the Braconid. The Braconid wasp is native and mummifies the greenbugs that normally infest fields in mid August. The wasps will be released in order to inoculate these sorghum fields with a wasp population earlier so that serious buildups of greenbugs cannot occur.
 Grown at Oklahoma State University in insecteries, the wasps will be air transported to Lubbock and released into selected fields.

 Two releases of 5,000 wasps per acre will be made, the first approximately four weeks after planting and the second approximately six weeks after planting. The releases will probably be made by hand, although there will be an experimental air release of the adult braconid wasp.
 The wasp attacks the corn leaf aphid or greenbug, lays its egg on its back, and as the egg hatches, it uses the greenbug as its food source. When it becomes an adult, it flies into the air and begins its hunt for additional greenbugs.
 A wasp is about the size of a fruit fly and is not the type that can cause any injury to humans.
 It takes about 14 days to complete the total cycle from the time the adult wasp emerges until it lays its egg and another adult wasp emerges. A wasp lives four to five days. During that time she will lay 200 eggs on as many greenbugs.

May 10 Set For Cloud Seeding

Farmers in the area were questioning officers of the Lamb County Better Weather, Inc. about hail they received Saturday. They were wanting to know why the planes were not on the job. The hail suppression and rain stimulation program will begin officially at midnight, May 10. A contract with Atmospherics, Inc. has signed.
 Plans call for the program to continue through November 1, but Lamb County lacks about $4,000 having enough money to support the program through harvest time. At the present time enough money has been paid in to allow the program to operate from May 10 until sometime after October 10. Officers of the Lamb County Better Weather, Inc. said they plan to beat the bushes until enough money is collected to carry the program through until the cut-off date.

 Lamb County Better Weather officers, Dale Stanley, Orville Cleavinger, Harvey Messamore, and Sandy Sanderson met with Thomas J. Henderson, president of Atmospherics, Inc., last week. An agreement was made to have one of three airplanes on the ground at Littlefield when conditions are favorable for hail bearing pop-up clouds which would be hard to detect on the radar unit at Plainview. The plane won't be permanently based in Littlefield, but will be sent there when weather conditions warrant it.

Sewing Classes To Be Held

To all interested adults, there will be an adult sewing class starting Monday, May 15, in the Homemaking Cottage at S-E School at 2:00 p.m. each weekday until school is out. If you are interested, please contact Mrs. Marie Slover at school, 257-3310 or home, 257-3446.

Mrs. L.T. Smith was reported to be feeling a little better Tuesday. She is a patient at South Plains Hospital in Amarst.

WILLIE WILBORN, JR., Selected as Series Honor Man

Willie Wilborn Honored

Willie Wilborn, a 1970 graduate of S-E High School was recently honored as an outstanding recruit of his platoon, then going on to be selected as Series honor man among all the graduating recruits in the 2009 Series of Company E, which is made up of four different platoons. This is quite an accomplishment as Willie was selected for having displayed the highest degree of skill, military knowledge and leadership potential. He met the high standards of physical training, marksmanship, infantry training, academic studies, practical work, drill and inspections.

Willie's commanding officer, E. G. Dering, stated, "In addition to learning so well the basic skills of a Marine, you have constantly demonstrated superior leadership, responsibility, and devotion to duty. These splendid qualities have distinguished you early in your Marine Corps career."

Willie was issued the distinctive Dress Blue Uniform and was presented with a wrist watch by the Leatherneck magazine.

PARTY LINE

Terrell Ott received a wonderful graduation present Tuesday evening. He was presented a beautiful yellow '72 Ford Torino from his parents. He drove over to get it as soon as school was out Tuesday evening.

E. K. Angeley is seriously ill in the West Plains Hospital in Maleshoe.

Mrs. Lottie Orteg is a patient in the West Plains Hospital in Maleshoe. She is suffering from high blood pressure.

CHRISTIAN LOVE

By DAVID HARTMAN

"...Does not hold grudges and will hardly even notice when others do it wrong." Do you hold a grudge against people? Why? Does it really do any good?

It seems to be human nature to strike back at those who hurt us. Sometimes it gets so bad innocent people get caught in the cross-fire and are hurt. Is a grudge really worth that?

Some folk are like the natives in Polynesia I read about recently. They keep some kind of reminder of their hatred. They suspend articles from the ceilings of their huts to keep alive the memory of wrongs against them. Some people nurse their grudge in order to keep it warm. They brood over the "dirt" done them so they can do "dirt" back. Under these circumstances it is impossible to forget wrongs committed against them.

If anyone had a right to hold a grudge it was a man named Jesus Christ. There were those who constantly tried to do him "dirt". He was falsely accused of a crime he didn't commit. He was executed in the style of a thief, murderer, or rapist.

For all they did to him he may as well have done everything in the book. Yet we hear him say, "Father, forgive them they don't know what they are doing." If Christ forgave his executioners shouldn't we forgive those who do less than that to us?

Genuine Christian love displaces personal grudges and wrongs we hold against one another. Under the light of God's love they dissolve away.

Former Lazbuddie Girl Dies In Wreck

Shelia Anise Kyle, 16, died Saturday night in a hospital in North Ridgeville, Ohio, from injuries received when she was struck by an auto earlier in the day.

Services were at 4 p. m. Wednesday at the Lazbuddie Baptist Church with Rev. Johnny Tims of Casper, Wyo., and the Rev. Dale Cain of the First Baptist Church of Falls, officiating. Burial was in the Lazbuddie Cemetery under the direction of Singleton-Ellis Funeral Home.

Miss Kyle was born in 1955 in Clovis, N. M., and moved to Ohio six years ago from Lazbuddie. She was a junior at North Ridgeville High School.

Survivors include her mother and stepfather, M. and Mrs. Tom Schleich of North Ridgeville, Ohio; her father, James Kyle of Big Spring; grandparents Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Steinbock of Lazbuddie and Jim Kyle of Clovis; a sister Tonya Schleich of North Ridgeville; and two brothers, Jimmy Kyle of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Byron Schleich of North Ridgeville.

Water Table Declines

Seventy three irrigation wells over the county were used in a test measurement and the Texas Water Development Board found that in a 10 year period from 1962 to 1972, water levels declined an average of 2.18 inches per year. The decline for 1971-1972 was 2.53.

Areas with the largest available water supply and consequently the largest pumpage, continue to experience the largest average decline of the water table.

Water declined in the wells up to 8.03 inches. A well along the Castro County line showed the decline of more than eight inches. A well about two and one-half miles north and seven east of Springlake showed a decline of almost seven inches the past year. The decline of the two wells for the previous 10 years was about four inches.

Mrs. Bonnie Haberer attended a party Tuesday evening for the women of the Christian Church in Maleshoe. The party was given for an outstanding member who is moving to Amarillo and was held in the home of Margaret Wright, west of Maleshoe. Bonnie felt honored to have been invited. After a delicious 6 o'clock dinner, the group was entertained by a guest speaker from Lubbock.

Bonnie had a lovely time at the party, but her high spirits were dampened when she started for home and found herself in the midst of the tornado which struck Maleshoe. After going around town because of blocked roads, she finally was on her way to her home, but found herself facing what looked like a river. Having to leave her car, she had started walking to the Gene Templeton home, but was picked up by a neighbor boy.

As she walked in her house, the telephone rang. It was her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. K. Angeley telling her that her brother O. K. Angeley of Cross Plains, who was a resident of Earth for many years, had been admitted to an Eastland hospital and was just as ill as E. K. who is a patient in the hospital at Maleshoe.

We hope things are looking better for Bonnie today!

WSCS Holds Last Session on Africa

The Women's Society of Christian Service met Tuesday morning at the church.

Mrs. J.J. Coker was in charge of the last session on the study of Africa. In her discussion based on the text book, she agreed that the needs of this great continent in the throes of emerging from colonialism and serfdom are so great that there is so little we can do to help except to cultivate a feeling of better understanding and compassion for their many problems.

Gayle Littleton brought a short article on "Politics in Africa" and "People of the City."

Barbara Lewis then presented some important "ifs" in African development.

Attending the session were: Mrs. Ida Allen, Mrs. W.P. Holland, Jr., Mrs. Doug Lewis, Mrs. J.A. Littleton, Jr., Mrs. J.L. Hinson, Mrs. Bessie Cearley, Mrs. Beula Coker, Mrs. Burt Leaverton, Mrs. Ray Ax-tell and Mrs. J.J. Coker.

Tender Loving Care is Necessary to Growth

It's common knowledge that when children don't eat enough, they don't grow properly. However, the reason for their inadequate food intake is frequently misunderstood, according to foods and nutrition specialist Sally Springer. "In certain circumstances, infants unexpectedly become dwarfed and remain grossly underweight, weighing perhaps as little as 15 pounds at 18 months instead of the normal 25 or 30 pounds," said Miss Springer, who works for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Although this type of condition has been observed and recorded for over 60 years, the simple reason for it has been overlooked, according to the specialist. "It has always been thought that the baffling starvation which occurs in children who are internally deprived is due solely to the lack of tender loving care, social contact, physical handling and sensory stimulation," Miss Springer said. "Recent observations, however, have shown, that lack of mothering by itself doesn't cause physical stunting and growth failure, unless adequate food is withheld, or less frequently, unless the child's appetite suffers."

vided a high level of fondling and handling and social contact in the form of talking and playing games. The amount of food eaten under these two types of mothering was also the same. Miss Springer pointed out that this is only one research report but the evidence suggests that whether or not infants gained weight appears to depend on whether or not they got enough to eat—not whether they got enough mothering. "This poses a new light on the causes of malnutrition during infancy," she said. "Further research in this area is now being conducted."

Earth Chapter 870, Order of Eastern Star, met Monday, May 8 at 8:30 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. Mrs. Johnny Murrell, Worthy Matron, presided over the meeting. After routine business was taken care of the people in the community who were ill were reported on. Sunday, May 7, was the birthday of the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Murrell, and she was presented

The Non-Phosphate Story

Confused about the phosphate versus phosphate-free laundry detergent controversy? If so, you're not alone. Various governmental bodies are, too. They weigh such problems as eutrophication, ecology, sewage systems and environmental factors. But we, as homemakers, are interested in the practical aspect of getting the family wash clean! The best approach is to use the phosphate-free products, of which there are a large variety available. They are relatively new and not extensively advertised, but they do the job. And they do it well! They bear the names of the store where you buy them, or they are national in scope, and clearly state phosphate-free on their label. For the most part, they have replaced the offending phosphate with washing soda, long a standby for getting clothes clean. "Consumer Reports" ran tests, using standard procedures, which have indicated that the phosphate-free products do the job as well — if not better — on some materials than the phosphate products. And if you're lucky enough to live in a softwater area or have a water softener, you will be delighted with the results. Even in hardwater areas, the results are comparable.

JOANN COKER will vie for State Honors in week-long competition this week-end, May 12, 13 in Austin in the Girls State Track Meet.

I want to thank my wonderful friends for their kindness and thoughtfulness during my illness and stay in the hospital. May God bless you.
Bruce Higgins

There is no way to describe in words how wonderful people have been during my illness and hospitalization first at Ada, Oklahoma, Paducah, then in the Dimmitt hospital. While in Paducah, Rev. and Mrs. Johnnie Williams, of Hamlin, came down to be with me and my family who had called in. Others from this area came and helped in so many ways. My heart is so full of thankfulness for the many prayers, cards, telephone calls, flowers, gifts, food and so many acts of kindness shown us each day. I am so thankful to be back home among these dear people. May God bless each of you, and may you feel his wonderful love as we have felt it during these days.

Drum Majors And Twirlers Chosen

Twirlers and Drum Majors were picked last Friday at S-E School.

The contestants auditioned before the student body and Dennis Teasdale, band director at Hale Center. Everyone who auditioned did a fine job and it was a difficult task, I am sure, to pick the winners. Chosen as drum majors for the 1972-73 school year were Renay James and Joe Herrera, Pat Cleavinger was picked as headtwirler and Shelly Gaston and Shella Lewis as twirlers.

Games Called

Violent weather caused the Little Dribblers basketball games to be called off after 3 quarters of play in the first game. The Orange Blossoms and Rambling Roses were playing an exciting game with the score 13-12 in favor of the Blossoms when someone notified us that a tornado had been sighted 5 miles west of Earth. Consequently, everyone there forgot about the ball game and leaving balls, shoes and any thing else that had been brought, headed for home.

Bluebells Win

The Bluebells won their first game Friday night by a score of 18-16. All the girls were playing good ball and it was a real exciting game. Sue Jones scored 8 points for the Bluebells, Jodie Daniels, 10, and they had 3 fouls.

For the Purple Orchids, Jeanne Hayden made 4, Kim Hayden, 8, and Kirby Clayton, 4. They had 1 foul called against them.

Susans Beat Blossoms

The Blackeyed Susans beat the Orange Blossoms Friday night by a score of 20-16.

The girls were all in fine form and played a very exciting game. Susan Clayton led the scoring for the Susans with 14 points, Lindsey Fields made 4 and Brene Below 2. They had 6 fouls.

For the Orange Blossoms, Kim Dent made 9, Rosie Lewis, 2, Vicki Freeman, 4, and Petra Lewis, 1. There were 10 fouls called against them.

Bonnets Over Roses 32-15

The Bluebonnets won again over the Rambling Roses by a score of 32-15.

Pam Eagle scored 27 of the 32 points, Kim Holder, 2, and Lurenda Bulls 3. There was 1 foul called against them.

For the Roses, Sue Bradley made 8 points, Pam Ott, 3, DeAnne Clayton, 3, and Rarae Winders, 2. The Roses were really after the ball as 10 fouls were called against them.

Ray Joe Riley Says Better Yields Helps All

Better yields of quality cotton not only can help bolster confidence of textile mills in the U.S. growers' ability to supply the market but can mean greater profits for producers, Ray Joe Riley, Hart, pointed out today.

Mr. Riley and Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, College Station, are co-chairmen for Texas in a Beltwide campaign to obtain "Better Yields of Quality Cotton for Profit and Market Growth."

Explaining how better yields of quality cotton can increase profits, Mr. Riley emphasized that:

Higher yields spread overhead costs and lower over-all costs. Example: With a yield of 450 pounds per acre, costs might approximate 32.2 cents per pound. Increasing yields to 550 pounds could drop costs to 27.2 cents.

Preservation of the quality in cotton assures a higher price and a satisfied buyer--an important point in contracting sale of the crop in advance.

A better yield in 1972 can increase the cotton farmer's "Yield for payment purposes" under the government farm

C of C Makes Plans For Rodeo

The directors of the Earth Chamber of Commerce met for their regular monthly meeting, May 5, at the Wolverine Drive Inn for breakfast. Plans were made for the Earth Rodeo, which will be held July 13-14-15.

The Chamber will be responsible for the three cash prizes for floats again this year. First place winner will receive $30, second-$20, and third-$10.

The Chamber will also furnish trophies for the riding poses. The first three places will be honored in the adult division and first place in the junior riding clubs. There will be first and second place cash awards for bicycle riders in two groups; one group of under nine and one over nine. First place in each group will receive $5, and second place, $2. It is hoped that there will be more interest shown in floats this year and there will be more entries. The Chamber will also pay for the programs for the rodeo.

Other business discussed was signs for the town. W. B. McMillan reported that the signs are still being worked on and would be reported on soon. A woman's auxiliary was discussed and W. T. C. C. is being contacted for literature on this organization.

Robert Gossett made the suggestion that the Chamber should have pamphlets on the manufacturing firms in the town and hand them out to interested persons. Doug Parish will investigate the possibility of these pamphlets and also small city maps of the town. It was suggested that the Chamber and the city work together on the maps.

The Chamber is working on new membership and seven new members had been signed by 10 a.m. It was decided that at least two or three persons who are not board members, will be invited to the Chamber breakfast each month.

The Chamber will have a listing in the Band Calendar again this year.

Prices on different kinds of blazers for the Chamber members are being investigated.

Present for the meeting were Tuffy Dent, presiding, Roger Haberer, Dale Riggs, Bill Scott, Harold Miller, Earl Jordan, Macky McCarty, Neil Pounds, W. B. McMillan, Robert Gossett, Doug Parish, and Zou Wilson.

program in 1973.

Good yields testify to sound management and facilitate financing. They evidence proven performance--a valuable asset where lending agencies are concerned.

Higher yields mean greater volume, increased efficiency, and lower costs of producing, processing, marketing--all factors in grower profits.

Why I Love America

The following are 50 word essays which Cub Scouts in Den 1 wrote to complete a requirement for the Bear Badge.

I love America because it is beautiful except California because it has too much pollution.

I love Arizona because it is hot.

I love New Mexico because they have a lot of Adobe houses.

I love Texas because I know a lot of people.

I love America because we are free.

by Loren Taylor

I love America because of its freedom and because there is a lot of great people in it. I especially like the people in my home town. They are all very nice and freindly.

I like my den mothers because they are very, very nice to all of us.

We have a great school here, too.

In case you don't know the name of my town, it is Earth, Texas.

by Melvin James

What I like about America is you can be what you want to be when you grow up. You can be a doctor, lawyer, store-keeper, farmer and best of all a rancher.

In America, a rancher can own his own cows and horses. The freedom to do these things is very important to me.

by Rex Fennell

I like America because it's clean. And the people in it are nice. And I know a bunch of people in it.

There are many things to do. And you can do what ever you want to do and where you want to do it.

by Michael McCarty

In America, I have the right to read newspaper. I have the right to worship and the right to own property.

America is pretty with its rivers and mountains.

In America, we can have friends of our own choice. I have the freedom to go to school, scouts, and other places.

There is plenty to eat.

by Tommy Hampton

I love America because of its freedoms. I have freedom of religion. This means I have the right to go to the church I want to. I have the right to assemble peacefully. This means that I can go to Cub Scouts and 4-H meetings.

I love America because I get to go to school to get an education and to play sports.

by Biff Belew

When you enter a wilderness area with your car, it makes good sense to carry an extra can of gas, a set of signalling flares, a spare fanbelt and fuse, and a first aid kit. If the area is dry, take plenty of water along

Area Students To Receive Degrees

Commencement exercises will be held May 13 at Texas Tech for students completing degree requirements this spring. Among this group are three area students, Mrs. Pansy Ruth Jean Byers of Earth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Been and wife of Ricky Byers, is receiving her degree in Home and Family Life. Receiving degrees in Math are Mr. and Mrs. Gary Dan Kelley. Gary Dan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kelley of Earth, and his wife, Judy, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard West of Sudan. Judy is a 1968 graduate of Sudan High School.

A total of 1,692 students in the six colleges, Graduate School and School of Law at Texas Tech University are candidates for degrees at the conclusion of the spring semester.

Of that total, 227 are candidates for graduate level degrees, including 194 candidates for the master's degree and 33 for the doctorate.

Forty-four students in Tech's School of Law are scheduled to receive diplomas.

Commencement exercises for all students completing degree requirements this spring are scheduled May 13 in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

Because no formal graduation exercises were conducted at the conclusion of the fall semester, students who qualified for their degrees in December 1971 are also invited to participate in the spring commencement. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. H. Guyford Stever, newly appointed director of the National Science Foundation, Washington, D.C.
