Realizing how frequently we are inclined to complain we wonder if somehow it becomes a way of life to look on the dark side of life and expect the worst.

Yet, how well we know that this action can only insure ourselves a drab, unhappy day.

Looking backward after the day is passed, many times we desire to live again the "Happiness of Yesterday," yet happiness had gone quietly unnoticed and unappreciated until "Today" produced less satisfactory conditions.

Why is it that a child must learn how to walk only once and for the rest of his life he knows how. Yet adults must learn over and over again that we live this day only once. Be happy this day and serve the Lord willingly and happily for there may never be another.

NOSIN

Bro, David Hartman and family will leave Earth Monday for Dallas for a few days, then on to Germany. There he will pastor the Rhine Valley Baptist Church at Walldorf, Germany.

To say we will miss them is indeed more than just a slight understatement. For we have truly, in the past five years, grown to feel the ties of love that bind Christians together.

We at the church have together faced troubles, heartaches and sorrow as well as happiness and rejoicing, in the years Bro, David has served as our pastor.

His love for the Lord always reflected in the kind tone of his voice, which seemed to still the distress or grief in those he ministered to. In 2 Corinthians 3:18 we find this scripture "We can be transformed that brightly reflect the Glory of the Lord, and as the Spirit of the Lord works within us, we become more and more like him."

This is the desire of every true Christian. We have not only seen numbers of his congregation grow, but we also observed our preachers growth along with the congregation.

The Lord has worked for Bro. David and Frankie in Germany, and we think he selected two of the most wonderful people to do his work there.

Although miles may separate friends and loved ones, it is reassuring to know, we, here at home, shall never forget the Hartman family who will be across the sea. But even greater is God's love, and God has called Brother David to Germany, and we can all be assured our Father will watch over HIS OWN.

NOSIN

I clipped this from an exchange paper. Thought I would pass it on as it induces food for thought.

WHAT'S YOUR TAG? I became aware of the "Label" when I lost a dear friend who embodied more virtues than one person has a right to have. And when I was explaining how I missed her to another friend, she interrupted to say, "You mean THE ONE WHO DRANK," What an epitaph!

The living have labels too. Haven't you heard a person's whole life, his labors, his civic duties, the family he raised, the weaknesses he overcame, the triumphs he knew, all summarized in one sentence, generally in a derogatory manner, "Isn't she the one with the squeaky voice?" "Isn't she the one who slapped the school teacher?" "Didn't his wife leave him?" There it is: one whole life marked through with a label.

The label was attached to something a person did; maybe it only took one second out of 40 years, but it gave him a tag. Do you know what YOUR label is?

Are 'Ghosts' Making Your Money Disappear?

COLLEGE STATION--is your money disappearing so fast you think ghosts must be haunting your pocketbook?

These ghosts won't knock on your door Halloween night--you'll have to hunt for them, one family resource management specialist contended this week.

She's Lynn Bourland, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"One of the fastest ways for a family to discover what's happening to the money is for everyone to keep a list of the money they spend for one month. Then follow these guides," the specialist suggested.

List the things bought that the family could have been just as happy without.

Circle items that could have been done or obtained with a resource other than money--traded, substituted, or made.

Underline things bought on impulse--those not planned or discussed with other members of the family.

Check items bought on credit that wouldn't have been bought if cash had been necessary. This does not include planned or emergency credit purchases.

"There may be other ghosts haunting your pocketbook, but count how many you've found with these guidelines," she said.

ALL THAT'S ON the grocery bill isn't food. Approximately $6.00 of every $20 supermarket bill is for non-food items that help keep a house in running order.

Gas Heating

Fresh, warm air gently circulating from floor to ceiling... so nice to take for granted. Comfort is clean gas heat.

And that dependable comfort is such a bargain here in West Texas. Though gas energy costs a little more than it use to, gas furnaces still cost less than one-third as much to operate as similar electric furnaces.

And at the same time you're saving money with gas heating, you can also have a warm feeling knowing that you're helping conserve energy. Gas heating uses only half as much energy as an electric system doing the same job.

Comfort, efficiency, and economy... you get it all with natural energy gas heating.

Junior High To Play Bovina Today

The junior high teams will play Bovina here today at 5 p.m. Following the games there will be a party for the teams in the school cafeteria. The Springlake-Earth-Hart junior high and junior varsity games previously scheduled for Thursday, October 31 has been rescheduled for Tuesday, October 29 at the Wolverine Stadium.

Olton Superstar

Nice, quiet, mannerly Danny Garcia is meaner'n a junk yard dog when he climbs into a boxing ring. Danny is twelve years old, weighs eighty pounds and has the appearance of nine million other healthy, normal twelve year olds but becomes a superstar when he climbs in through the ropes. His natural boxing ability and courage (called "guts" by some) have overcome all his opponents this season. The latest victory was an overwhelming decision over the veteran Joe Shipley of Levelland last Saturday at a boxing match in Levelland.

When the bell rang to begin the first round, the ring-wise Shipley ran to the center of the ring and landed a hard left to Danny's jaw. The large crowd of Levelland boosters, figuring the fight was just about over, cheered wildly. The force of that first punch would have ended the fight for most but what they didn't figure on was the determination and stamina of the Olton Superstar. Danny just shook his head, like a mosquito had bitten him, and balanced the budget with a screaming right that exploded on Shipley's jaw. Then he charged into that boy like a bull elephant with rights and lefts ripping like a buzz saw. The Olton fans went wild.

When the first round ended, I gave Danny some good advice such as "keep hitting him." Well, Danny followed that advice during the second round and uncorked with lethal left jabs and pile driver rights. He looked like a shopper during the first few minutes of opening day at a bargain basement sale. About this time it began to dawn on the large Levelland crowd that their fair haired boy might get whipped by this practically unknown boy in the baggy blue trunks. Now, I don't mean any discredit to Joe Shipley. He is also a great boxer and spunky as all get out. He has scored some impressive victories over some formidable opponents during the past few years. He just hadn't tangled with Dangerous Dan up 'til now. When the round ended, the Olton fans went wild.

Between the second and last rounds, I gave Danny some more brilliant advice. "Do the same thing you have been doing." He just grinned. He wasn't even breathing hard. When the bell clanged, Danny moved out with the force of a fast moving freight train and collided with Shipley. Shipley knew he had lost the first two rounds and must win now by a knockout. Garcia had different ideas and the two boys stood toe to toe putting on a spine-tingling performance of boxing and brawling. Garcia's guts (called courage by some) won out and the Olton fans went wild. (All three of us.)

Dick Watson and Wayne Phares are instructors for those who would like to learn the art of good boxing. Watson said they would be glad to have any Earth-Springlake boy join the group and learn the sport of boxing.

DESIGN FOR LIVING

Of the more than 150,000 people whose clothes catch fire each year - about 3,000 die!

Those dismal statistics should, however, be dramatically diminished with the increasing use of a new safety fabric.

A kind of nylon, DuPont's Nomex fiber is highly resistant to fire, flames and chemicals. So much so, it is used in space suits.

More down-to-earth uses include uniforms.

Local 4-H Write Theme on Club Work

By Jo Letta Schoenenberger

4-H is everyone working together as a group. Does everyone like 4-H? Yes, there are more than 2,285,000 boys and girls in 4-H.

Do adults like to be 4-H leaders? Yes, there is over 422,000 leaders in the United States 4-H Clubs.

What does 4-H do for us? It helps us learn different facts of life. It teaches us our duties in life.

4-H is good for us, we should plainly see. We learn to take care of animals, to cook, to sew and many other important things we need for life.

We learn to communicate with other people and to make friends. We learn to smile and when we smile it makes less troubles in the world.

This will help us in traveling to uncivilized parts of the world and to help them become civilized.

We may learn how our foreign countries have their 4-H Clubs.

Ghosts, and Little Children

Halloween is the season that celebrates fear. For many young children, Halloween is their first real experience with fright.

one family life education specialist pointed out this week. She's Dorothy Taylor, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"A baby or young child is protected as much as possible from fear-provoking stimuli. As his environment expands, he will face more things that will frighten him.

"As his intelligence develops, a child perceives and imagines threats in objects, situations and people that failed to disturb him previously. As a child grows his fears are more numerous and more intense," she explained.

Most fears are learned, according to Miss Taylor. Some come from a direct association or bad experience, while others are acquired from imagination or through conditioning (repetition of bad experiences.)

She pointed out that certain fears are characteristically found at certain ages and stages. Research indicates that there is no sudden shift from one kind of fear to another, but rather a gradual shift from specific fears to general ones.

"Very young children fear loud noises, animals, dark rooms, being alone and strange people, places and objects. Children two to six seem to fear more things than either babies or older children.

"The two to six-year-old is more capable of recognizing dangers. But unlike the older child, he is less capable of realizing that they may not be personal threats.

"Older children's fears are concentrated on fanciful, supernatural or remote dangers. They fear the dark, imaginary creatures, death, thunder and lightning, and characters recalled from stories. Older children also have fears related to self or status, failing, being ridiculed or being "different," she explained.

Fear is an emotion that is hard to handle. It occurs suddenly and unexpectedly. The child has no time to adjust to it.

However, not all fear is negative, the specialist pointed out. Normal fear serves as a warning of danger. Unfortunately, children learn to fear those things which are not dangerous, then fear inhibits action and experiences that might be useful and enjoyable, she said.

"Signs of fear which parents might observe in children during the Halloween season are retreat and withdrawal, imaginary ills and false complaints, quaking, shyness, worry and anxiety.

"Anxiety responses will probably be the easiest to identify. Depression, nervousness, irritability, restless sleep, quick anger, quick tears, and total dissatisfaction are signs of anxiety related to fear," Miss Taylor explained.

Turning to positive steps to reduce your children's fear, the specialist said, "If Halloween is a favorite season in your home, practice putting on costumes and playing in them. Talk about trick or treat activities, costumed children coming to the door and how to trick or treat.

Inconvenience Poll Won by Electricity

Most Americans say that shortages of electricity would inconvenience them even more than oil shortages.

A recent public opinion survey conducted nationwide by Roper showed that 84 per cent of those questioned ranked the inconvenience factor of oil cutbacks second, then grains, both items behind electricity.

Sixty-six per cent believe that too little is being done to increase the nation's energy supply, and many expressed support for energy conservation measures such as lowered thermostats, year-round daylight savings, and early closing hours for stores.

PERMIT AND ENCOURAGE children to verbalize their feelings, even when their ideas are different from your own.

12 Wrecks in County in September

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated 12 accidents on rural highways in Lamb County during the month of September, 1974, according to Sergeant Thurman Keefer, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person killed and five persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first nine months of 1974 shows a total of 82 accidents resulting in four persons killed and 49 persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for September, 1974, shows a total of 471 accidents resulting in 17 persons killed and 213 persons injured as compared to September, 1973 with 601 accidents resulting in 24 persons killed and 364 persons injured. This was 180 less accidents, seven less killed, and 151 less injured in 1974 at the same period of time.

The 17 traffic deaths for the month of September, 1974, occurred in the following counties; two each in Lipscomb, Moore Parmer, Haskell and Parker; and one each in Castro, Deaf Smith, Hartley, Oldham, Randall, Hale and Lamb.

Sweaters Wrap up Fall Fashions

Sweaters are back in fashion this fall, more popular than ever, one clothing specialist reported this week.

She's Marlene Odle, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"This fall's looks include cardigans and vests for misses; skivvies and vests for juniors; and cardigans and vests for men. The fabrics are knitted acrylics, polyesters, and wool blends. Colors are pastels, greens and rusts," she noted.

One sweater set can mix and match with tailored shirts and blouses, scarves, below-the-knee skirts and straight-legged pants," she suggested.

"The glitter sweaters with gold and silver metallic threads are popular for holiday wear, but are usually more expensive than the acrylic shell or cardigan. Try coordinating a new glitter sweater with last year's skirt for this year's holiday look," Miss Odle advised.

A plain pull-over turns into a dramatic top if it's made in a lacy, gauzey, pointelle or crochet style, she noted.

TREATING A CHILD as if he were a special person helps him feel good about himself.

Another current trend is the fur-trimmed jacket over every-thing. Wear it in place of a coat," she said.

Medicare Fraud Scheme Uncovered

The Newport Hospital and Clinic, Newport, Arkansas, and its former president, Dr. Thomas E. Williams, pleaded guilty Friday, October 5, in Federal Court at Little Rock. Dr. Williams faces a possible maximum sentence of fifteen years and a $30,000 fine. The hospital faces a possible $40,000 fine.

The fraud scheme involved adding an extra day of hospital care to bills submitted to Medicare. In addition, numerous personal expenses were included as hospital expenses which resulted in improper payment. For example, such things as a $2,500 diamond brooch, a $500 venison dish and tray and $432.45 chair were included as hospital expenses.

This is the first case of Medicare fraud directly involving a hospital that has been prosecuted in the five state Dallas region. A number of Medicare fraud cases against physicians and other providers of medical services have been prosecuted in recent years.

Clyde James, District Manager of the Lubbock Social Security District office stated that the majority of physicians, hospitals and other providers of health services are interested in providing quality health services file valid claims for reimbursement. Regrettably, there are a few individuals in any activity who will attempt to take unfair advantages. Mr. James suggests that any individual who is aware of irregularities in billing, charges or practices should contact the Social Security Office.

Aerosol Spray Bottles on the Way Out

Aerosol hair sprays may be on the way out, according to one authority.

"Reports of malfunctions and health hazards with aerosol sprays have caused the industry to turn to pump style bottles for hair spray," Mrs. Janice Carberry, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, noted.

She said that for years pump bottles were used for dispensing hair conditioners and setting lotions, but now they will be used for hair spray too.

"Hair sprays will have to be reformulated before they can be put into non-aerosol packages. Only 50 to 70 per cent of the spray is active ingredients—the rest is propellants. Ingredients in the pump style bottles can be totally active."

The cost of pump style sprays may be comparable to aerosols, but they will be more effective at holding the hair. That's because each pumping action will release more liquid and pure hair spray, she said.

Farmers' Records Key to Good '74 Census in Agriculture

The 1974 Census of Agriculture, the largest agricultural statistical project of the past five years, will begin in January. It will be conducted by the Bureau of the Census, part of the Department of Commerce's Social and Economic Statistics Administration.

From Alaska to Florida, from Maine to Hawaii, farmers and ranchers will receive census forms in the mail around the first of the new year. The report forms are to be filled out and mailed back promptly.

Farmers themselves have participated in deciding what information is collected in the census. Representatives of farm organizations such as the Farm Bureau, The Grange, Farmers Union, National Farmers Organization, and Farmers Co-operatives serve on the Advisory Committee that recommends to the Bureau the questions that should be included in the census.

Three kinds of information are requested about operations during 1974: first, a count of farm resources, number of farms, area of farm land, acres of cropland and pasture, number of each kind of livestock and poultry, number of persons working on farms, number of various kinds of farm equipment; second, a record of farm products produced and sold during 1974; and third, selected farming activities during 1974 such as number of days of off-farm work by the farmer, amount spent for farm labor, for custom work, for feed, for gasoline and oil.

To report this kind of information, a farmer will need to have a few simple records. The Census Bureau is urging each farmer to have his records of quantities harvested, products sold, major farm expenses and the like readily available so that he can easily and accurately fill out his census report when it comes.

It is from the Census of Agriculture, conducted every five years, that data are taken to form the basis for programs of the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Congressional farm legislation, farm organization policies, farm programs established and administered by State departments of agriculture, and many other services provided by colleges, business firms, manufacturers, publishers and broadcasters.

The Census of Agriculture is the only source of statistics on agriculture that are comparable from county to county nationwide. It is the sole source of comprehensive data tabulated for each State and for the U.S. for farms classified by size, tenure, type of organization, market value of products sold, and type of farm enterprise.

Every farmer's report is confidential by law. It may be seen only by sworn Census employees and may be used only for statistical purposes. The mail census method reinforces confidentiality. And it allows the farmers to complete his report at his convenience with accurate information from his records.

Look That Fish in the Eye

AUSTIN--"I don't buy fresh fish because I don't know what to look for and I'm afraid of getting a bad product."

Lay your fears to rest, homemaker. The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department's Seafood Marketing staff offers this advice on shopping for fish.

Fresh, good quality fish has several distinct characteristics, and one of them is lack of odor. If you can smell fish in the house before you see it then what you've bought is something less than fresh. Fresh seafood has only a mild, pleasant odor.

If it passes the sniff test, check to be sure that the flesh is firm and springs back when pressed slightly.

Look the fish in the eye--the eyes should be clear and bright and the fish should have that "just caught" look to it.

Filletlets or steaks should appear shiny and moist with no tears in the meat. These cuts of fish are the most popular market forms since they are 100 percent edible. Boneless filletlets take the worry out of serving seafood to children.

Serving allowances vary according to the form of seafood purchases.

As a general rule, allow one pound of whole fish for each person and one-third pound of filletlets and steaks per individual. Regardless of whether you prefer filletlets or whole fish, insist on good quality seafood and know quality when you see it.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rutherford last week was their daughter Mrs. Joe Fuller of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

JUNIOR SAUSEDA--No. 82 with arms raised says I don't believe it, I caught that 82 yard pass for a touchdown.

Date Set for Sandhill Crane Hunt

The Muleshoe, Texas Jaycees have scheduled their 12th Annual Sandhill Crane Hunt to be held October 26, 27; November 2, 3; November 9, 10, 1974.

The Muleshoe Jaycees have arranged again for land adjacent to the Muleshoe National Wildlife Refuge. This refuge is the oldest in the State of Texas, and during the winter months, there are as many as 100,000 sandhill crane wintering away from their Arctic breeding grounds.

The Muleshoe population represents the largest concentration of this species in the United States.

The Jaycees will also provide transportation to and from the hunting area. Shells and licenses will be available and the guides will leave the XIT Steak House, which is hunt headquarters, one and one-half hours before sunrise each day.

This year to give each hunter better hunting conditions and service the Jaycees will conduct the hunt on a reservation basis only.

The cost for the hunt are as follows: $7.00 per day; $10.00 per week end; $20.00 for all three week ends.

Deadline for reservations: Thursday prior to each week-end of the hunt.

A drawing from all registered hunters will be held following the final week end of the hunt for a new shotgun.

For more information or for reservations contact Carter Reed, 272-3879 or call the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, 272-4248.

Great Plains Funds Available

The Soil Conservation has funds available for long term conservation contracts under the Great Plains Conservation Program. These 3 to 10 year contracts must be written in the next two months.

Some of the conservation practices that can be cost-shared are parallel terraces, diversions, waterways, pasture planting, and irrigation pipelines. The cost-share rate varies with each practice.

The conservation practices that will be needed are determined by the soil types on each individual farm and the landowner's desires. Practices are scheduled over a period of years for the most practical and orderly completion of the contract.

Farmers and ranchers who are interested can get more details by contacting the Soil Conservation Service at the County Courthouse in Littlefield, Phone 385-4044.

HIGHER CLOTHING costs are due more to labor cost increases than to increased costs for energy and petroleum.

FRESH HAM is meat from the hind leg of pork which has not been smoked or cured. It tastes and looks more like a pork roast.

Christmas Seal Chairman Appointed

Kenneth Day board representative of the West Texas Area, American Lung Association from Lamb County has announced the appointment of Don Chastain as 1974 Christmas Seal Chairman.

Mr. Chastain is vice-president of Lubbock National Bank. He is the president of the Lubbock Optimist Club. As a member of the Chamber of Commerce, Chastain has served on the Convention Committee and the President's Ambassadors. He is well qualified to head the Christmas Seal Fund Drive having served on the YMCA Fund Raising Committee.

Having a personal interest in emphysema, Chastain said more than 300,000 Americans will learn that they have the disabling lung disease, and more than 21,000 will die from it during 1975.

Other New Year predictions for the nation's health released by the American Lung Association are:

*The taxpayer's bill for disability benefits for emphysema and other chronic respiratory diseases will total more than $400,000,000.

*More than 8,000 newborn infants will die of respiratory distress syndrome, including hyaline membrane disease.

*More than 246,000 acute respiratory diseases will be reported to physicians, an average of 1.2 per American for the year. These diseases will cause U.S. employees to lose more than 135,000,000 work-days.

*Breathing of 1,500,000 Americans will be crippled by emphysema, of 6,500,000 by chronic bronchitis and of more than 6,000,000 by chronic asthma.

*About 31,000 Americans will begin taking daily doses of anti-TB medicines, because they have new, active cases of TB. Fortunately, most of these TB patients will be cured without hospitalization. They will have to visit an out-patient clinic regularly. And, they won't be able to skip their pills for even one day, without jeopardizing their treatment.

*More than 200 million tons of pollutants in the form of waste gases and particles will be dumped into the air to threaten humans and animals and damage vegetation and buildings.

*About 300,000 persons will die from causes related to smoking and an estimated one million teenagers will take up the habit in 1975.

"These high tolls in illness and health must be reduced," Mr. Chastain said. "Each of us can help by supporting the work of the West Texas Lung Association. Answer your Christmas Seal letter. A contribution will help the Christmas Seal Association expand its year-round fight for life and breath."

Singing star, Vikki Carr is National Honorary Chairman of the 1974 Christmas Seal campaign.
