Davis And Sanderson Attend Youth Seminar At ORU

Guy Lynn Davis and Brian Sanderson attended a special Youth Seminar at Oral Roberts University in Tulsa Friday through Sunday.

During group sessions, requirements for admission to ORU were given.

A special program was presented by the World Action Singers and also Richard and Patti Roberts.

Davis reported that the University is very strictly disciplined. The boys wear ties and the girls wear dresses to their meals. The gates are locked at 11:30 p.m. nightly. "You would have to be a very dedicated person to attend ORU," Davis commented.

Oral Roberts gave several inspiring talks to the 600 young people who attended.

"The atmosphere at the campus was the warmest I've ever been in; you couldn't walk around without people shaking hands with you and introducing themselves. The campus is just beautiful," Davis added.

They also toured the ORU campus.

While there, the boys got to go into the Tower of Prayer.

CASTRO COUNTY FARM BUREAU delegates are shown as they registered for the 39th annual meeting of the Texas Farm Bureau held Nov. 12-15 in Houston. They are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hausmann.

Local Merchants To Host Open House

The merchants of Earth invite you, their customers, to a special Open House, Wednesday, December 6, from 10 a.
m. until 3 p.m.

This is the first time such an event of this type has ever been held in our community to draw families in to shop for their Christmas gifts and goodies.

The following participating merchants invite you to come in anytime from now through December 6 to register for the free gifts they will be giving away on December 6.

Christmas is a time of joy and good will and these local merchants are certainly spreading good will to all of their customers.

night to Sunday afternoon were their son, Dale, and family from Flagstaff, Arizona, and their daughter, Mrs. Butch Foreman and two children, Kelley and Toni of Andrews, who visited from Wednesday through Friday.

Local Students Entered In Wool Contest

Three Springlake-Earth students have entered the "Make It With Wool" Contest which will be Saturday, December 2 on the Texas Tech Campus.

Ranee Jones and Darla Dear are entered in the senior division and Alysne Slover is entered in the sub-deb division.

The girls will model fashions they have made themselves from 100% wool at 8 a.m.

After they model the garments, they will take them to the fitting room where they will be turned inside out and the judges will judge the sew-manship of the garment.

The grand finale will be held in the Ballroom of the Student Union at 2 p.m.

Seniors Honored With Dinner

The Springlake First Baptist Church honored the Seniors of Springlake-Earth High School with a dinner Wednesday, November 29 in the church Fellowship Hall.

The hall was decorated with the Senior Class colors of blue and silver.

The tables were covered in white with blue streamers down the center. The class motto, "Either we'll find a way or make one" was written on the streamers in silver glitter.
Blue candles encircled with white flowers were placed on the tables. The head table had a centerpiece of blue and white carnations, the Class flower. Blue napkins with "Seniors of '73" printed on them were used.

Special guest speaker, Dr.
Roy McClung from Wayland Baptist College, was introduced by Glen Smith, pastor of the Springlake Baptist Church.
Guy Lynn Davis, president of the senior class, expressed the class appreciation for the dinner.

Fried chicken, creamed potatoes, salad, cake and strawberries with whipped cream, tea and coffee were served to 53 seniors, their sponsors, Mrs.
Cecil Stover and Bill Anderson and special guests, Bill Mann, Ward Cooksey, and Dr. Tom Billier of Wayland.

Shower Honors Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hulcy

A wedding shower honoring Bryan and Judy Hulcy was given Wednesday morning, November 22 in the home of Mrs. Donald Kelley.

The guests registered with embroidery pencils on a bridal apron which was later presented to the bride. Since the bride was unable to attend, each guest wrote a telegram to the bride using the letters of the words, "Wedding Day."

The guests also compiled a list of helpful hints for the bride and groom.

The serving table was covered with a white cut work cloth. The centerpiece was a horn of plenty filled with fall leaves and bridal flowers. A miniature bride and groom on a pedestal was in front of the horn of plenty. Tall yellow candles were on either side of the centerpiece with yellow and gold streamers and wedding bells intertwined among the centerpiece.

Refreshments of coffee, hot spiced tea, and different kinds of breads and nuts were served from china and silver appointments.

Hostesses for the shower were: Mrs. R.S. Cole, Mrs. Phillip Haberer, Mrs. J.B. Thomas, Mrs. Guy F. Kelley, Mrs. Elton Schaefer, Mrs. M.E. Kelley, Mrs. Roney Smith, Mrs. Rex Clayton, Mrs. A.E. O'Hair, Mrs. David Hartman, Mrs. Weldon Barton, and Mrs. Donald Kelley.

UMYF PLANS TRIP

The UMYF met Sunday evening with their sponsor, Charles Dunnam, pastor of the Earth United Methodist Church.

The group decided to go to Lubbock next Sunday evening to attend a movie. Each member may bring a guest.

The UMYF is studying the Gospel According to Peanuts and they read a chapter from that book.

Those attending were Paige Gaston, Shelley Gaston, Colita Biles, Darlene Sulser, L'Anne Sulser, Vickie Wisian, Gena Wisian, Chuck Dunnam, Tracy Lee, Bobby Myers and JoAnne Coker.

Hausmanns Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hausmann, representing District 2, flew to Houston to attend the 29th annual Texas Farm Bureau Convention, held at the Rice Hotel in Houston, November 12-15.

Over 900 official voting delegates, representing most of the 207 organized county Farm Bureaus, adopted state policies and recommendations on national issues. Total attendance at the convention was more than 1,500.

Convention activities began on Sunday, November 12, with registration. Highlights of the day included a Discussion Meet and Talent Find competition for young people and a vesper service.

On Monday's agenda was the yearly administrative report by Executive Director Warren Newberry of Waco. TFB President J. T. Woodson of Gober brought the president's annual address. The convention's main address was delivered by Dolph Briscoe, Br., of Uvalde.

Other Monday activities included a ladies' luncheon and special conferences on Community Services, Young Farmers and Ranchers, Field Crops, Dairy, Rice, Natural Resources and Research and Education. The annual Queen's contest was held Monday evening.

Tuesday's activities began with a voting delegate breakfast and special conferences on Livestock, Cotton, Services, Poultry, Farm Labor, Wheat and Feed Grains, and Farm Bureau Women. The business session convened at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday with voting on resolutions sent in by county Farm Bureaus. The day's events culminated with the annual banquet that evening. Speaker was Marvin McLelland, "Sage of the Sand Hills," of Lexington, Mississippi.

The business session continued Wednesday with voting on resolutions. The convention concluded with the election of directors and the TFB president.

Guests in the Mike Wilson home of Springlake were the J. W. Dears, Wednesday after church services.

Men's Annual Thanksgiving Dinner Held

The men's annual Thanksgiving dinner, sponsored by the men's department of the First Baptist Church Tuesday, November 28, at the church fellowship where 75 women attended. The dinner is especially for the elderly widows of the city. Each lady in the party brought one or two guests. The menu consisted of turkey, stuffing and all the trimmings, a variety of salads and Mrs. Marvin Sanders served as mistress of ceremonies for the evening.

The invocation was given by Mrs. David Hartman.

Mrs. B. Campbell gave an inspiring account of the Sermon on the Mount from memory.

The ladies enjoyed an old fashioned sing song of favorite gospel songs led by Mrs. Sanders.

The guests enjoyed a visitation period while the hostesses cleaned up.

NOTICE

SCS Meets

There will be a wedding shower honoring Mrs. Terry Houchin, nee Renee Caldwell, Saturday, December 2 from 2-3:30 p.m. in the church of Christ fellowship hall.

Selections have been made at Sanders Lumber Co. and Howell's 216 Floral.

N. Kelleys Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. N. Ray Kelley were honored with an open house, Sunday, November 26, in honor of their golden wedding anniversary.

Hosting the party were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Lewis and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelley.

The couple was married November 26, 1922, at Erick, Oklahoma, and have resided in Earth 45 years. Kelley is a retired farmer.

Mrs. Norma Cotton, granddaughter of the couple, registered the approximately 150 guests.

The serving table was covered with a white lace cloth over gold satin.

The centerpiece was a beautiful arrangement of yellow roses and white mums in a lovely cut glass vase, an anniversary gift from Mr. and Mrs. Barry Lewis.

White tapers in golden candleholders flanked either side of the centerpiece.

The three tiered anniversary cake was decorated with yellow roses and topped with a lovely arrangement of wedding bells and gold wedding rings tied with satin love knots and the numeral "50" surrounded by white net.

Miss Becky Littleton, Miss Janice Miller, Miss Karen Armstrong and Miss Camille Haber served the cake and punch. The punch was served from a lovely, milk glass punch bowl on a gold base.

MR. AND MRS. N. RAY KELLEY

Coffee was served from a beautiful silver service which was an anniversary gift from the Jerry Kelley family.

Those assisting in other hospitality duties were Mrs. Clarence Kelley, Mrs. Pete O'Hair, Mrs. Marvin Sanders, and Mrs. Bobby D. Green, all nieces of the Kelleys; Mrs. Marshall Kelley, sister-in-law and Mrs. J. A. Littleton, Sr.

Those assisting with the serving duties were Mrs. J. A. Littleton Jr., Mrs. Harold Miller, Mrs. Roger Haberer, Mrs. Bob Armstrong and Mrs. Thurman Lewis.

Friends, other than Earth and Springlake, were registered from Amarillo, Tulla, Lubbock, Bovina, Hereford, Littlefield, Muleshoe, Ralls, Brownfield, Sherman, Ft. Worth, Plainview, Lockney, Seminole, Midland and Dimmitt.

Also there were those from Oklahoma City, Sayre and Erick, Oklahoma; Clovis, New Mexico, and Trinidad, Colorado.

Caldwell-Houchin Wed

Miss Renee Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Caldwell of Muleshoe, and Terry Houchin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Houchin of Earth, were united in marriage, Friday, November 24, in a beautiful candlelight double ring ceremony.

Bro. Leonard Tittle of Tulia, performed the double ring ceremony in the Muleshoe church of Christ.

Wedding music was provided by Jacques Baker, R.A. Bradley, Paul Scott, Mrs. Boone Allison, and Miss Becky Milner. Jacques Baker sang, "I Pledge My Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a lovely formal length, blue knit crepe gown. The bodice and sleeves were trimmed with accordin pleated ruffles.

The bride carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and pink rose buds around a light pink orchid with a deep pink center with pink and white streamers tied in love knots.

The maid of honor, Miss L. Donna Caldwell, sister of the bride, wore a deep pink formal length gown with an accordin pleated skirt. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and pink rose buds.

Jerry Houchin of Dallas, served his brother as best man. Ushers were Mark Clifton, nephew of the groom from Nigeria and Mike Wages of Earth.

The bride and groom repeated their wedding vows before an altar of white wrought iron candelabras with deep pink and white tapers. The candelabras were entwined with greenery and had light pink satin bows.

On either side of the candelabras were white baskets of pink and white gladioli with greenery and pink carnations intermixed.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Gene Caldwell, wore a garnet dress and coat ensemble; her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. C. L. Houchin, the groom's mother, wore a hot pink floor length dress with long sleeves and an accordin pleated skirt. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

Mrs. James Clifton, sister of the groom from Nigeria, registered the guests. The table was covered with a white cloth with an arrangement of pink carnations in a milkglass vase.

The bride's table was laid with white net over a pink cloth. The three tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink roses, and pink frosted punch were served from crystal and silver appointments. Serving were Miss Becky Milner and Miss Linda Middebrooks. Assisting with the serving were Miss Donna Howard and Miss Patti Murray.

For her wedding trip, the bride chose a black and white knit dress with a yellow weskit complimented by black knee boots. Her orchid corsage was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will reside in Lubbock.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended Eastern New Mexico University at Portales.

The groom is a 1970 graduate of Springlake-Earth High School and is presently a junior at Texas Tech.

Out of town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Don Houchin and family from Garland; Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Houchin and family from Del Rio; Miss Charla Ingram from Mesquite; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Terrell from Ranger; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Calhoun Jr., Midland; Mrs. Leonard Tittle, Tulia; Miss Jan Cleavinger and Miss Pat Cleavinger from Springlake; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ellis and family, Mrs. Claud Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dent and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Martin all from Earth.

PARTY LINE

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Criswell and family spent Thanksgiving Day in Clovis visiting relatives.

Stephens-Dunavant United In Marriage

Gloria Ann Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stephens of Springlake and Ralph Ronald Dunavant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Dunavant of Pittsburg, were united in marriage, Wednesday, November 22, at 7 p.m. in the Earth United Methodist church. Rev. Charles Dunnam performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Bob Belew provided wedding music on the organ and Mrs. Donald Clayton sang "Oh Promise Me" and "We've Only Just Begun."

The candlelight ceremony was performed before an altar centered with a fan shaped arrangement of pink carnations, white mums, and sprnger ferns. White wrought iron candelabras holding white tapers, featuring crystal prisms and pink and burgandy satin bows flanked the altar. Vases of pink carnations and ferns were on either side of the candelabras. The family pews were marked with pink and burgandy satin bows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a formal gown of white peau de sole fashioned with an empire bodice, featuring a sabrina lace trimmed neckline, studded with clusters of seed pearls. Venice lace inserts accented the wateau train which fell from the shoulders. Her bouffant veil of illusion fell from a pearl encrusted camelot head piece.

The bride carried a white lace covered Bible adorned with a cascade of pink and burgandy miniature carnations, baby's breath, and white organza and pearl streamers.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Danny Kelley, cousin of the bride. Bridesmaid was Lana McQueen of Lubbock and bridesmatron, Mrs. Gary Campbell of Sudan.

They were identical dresses of burgandy velvet featuring an empire bodice, accented with embroidered rose and organza trim. Their head pieces were matching burgandy velvet Dior bows. They carried lighted pink Victorian rose candles, accented by streamers of pink and American Beauty. The candles gave a lovely glow to the attendants' faces as they walked down the aisle.

Serving his nephew as best man was Bob Hurt of Pittsburg. Groomsmen were Danny Kelley, Muleshoe, and Mike Kerr of Abernathy.

Ushers were Randy Stephens, brother of the bride and Dixie Dunavant, brother of the groom.

The groomsmen and ushers wore tuxedos and pink ruffled shirts. Their boutonnières were burgandy carnations.

Tammy Davis and James Dunavant, brother of the groom, served as the candlelighters. The flower girl, dressed identical to the bridesmaids, was Tracy Evans, cousin of the bride, and Steven Washington and Laurel Gilliland, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearers.

Mrs. Jim Stephens, mother of the bride wore a beautiful pale pink dress with gold accessories. Her corsage was of burgandy miniature carnations.

The mother of the groom, Mrs. Sherwood Dunavant, chose a dress of burgandy with white accessories. Her corsage was of pale pink miniature carnations.

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall. The table was covered with a white floor length sheer dotted swiss cloth over white betonne.

The traditional three-tiered wedding cake, iced in white, featured clusters of dainty pink carnations and gold leaves. The top ornament was lace bells accented by pink and burgandy ribbons hanging from a stately Roman column. Gold candlesticks held frosted pink candles on either side of the cake.

Guests were served pink party punch and cake from gold and crystal appointments. Assisting with the hospitalities were Miss Patti Lane of Lubbock and Mrs. Phil Middleton of Midland.

Guests were registered by Miss Jamie Washington.

Pink rice bags tied with burgandy ribbon and gold ring favors tied with pink ribbon bearing the couples name printed in burgandy were presented to the guests on silver trays by Tammy Evans, Andrea Gillian and Samantha Tucker.

Background music during the reception was provided by Miss Becky Smith.

For their wedding trip to New Mexico, the bride chose a three piece velour suit, featuring a long skirt and a vest of burgandy and a pink blouse. Her corsage was of pink miniature carnations and white baby's breath, tied with a bow of burgandy satin ribbon.

A 1970 graduate of Springlake-Earth High School, the bride attended South Plains College in Levelland and Texas Tech. She is employed by Fikes, Inc. of Lubbock.

Dunavant is a graduate of Pittsburg High School and is a senior at Texas Tech majoring in physical education.

The couple is at home at 3102 4th St. Apt. 48 in Lubbock.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Lillie Harrigan, grandmother of the groom from Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Evans from Muleshoe, grandparents of the bride; A. B. Stephens of Tulia, grandfather of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunavant, Edinburg, Mrs. Bob Hurt, Pittsburg, Mr. and Mrs. William B.
