AAA Changes Are Explained

General crop or feed allotments—and the conservation payment on such crops as was the case this year—will be dropped in the 1942 government farm program, according to an explanation of the program given by County Agent W. B. Hooser this week.

A new type of payment will be made to replace the feed payment, it was explained. This payment will be made on the basis of 70 cents for each acre of land in cultivation exclusive of crop allotment land.

The 70-cents-an-acre payment will go to the person who does the work—either the landlord or the tenant. Should the tenant do all the work or hire it done, he will get all the money. Should the landlord do all the work or hire it done, he will get all the money.

The cotton conservation payment will be divided as in the past, however, with the landowner receiving one-fourth and the tenant three-fourths—the same as the division of the crop. This payment is the number of acres in cotton multiplied by the average yield per acre, all of which is multiplied by 1.25 cents. The 1.25 cents is the payment per pound made by the government.

To receive the cotton conservation payment in full, the farmer must plant at least 20 per cent of his cultivated acreage in one of the soil-conserving crops. This 20 per cent will naturally be a part of the acreage not included in cotton, and if the full 20 per cent does not fill the requirements under the program, then the cotton conservation payment will be reduced.

The payment which has been substituted for the feed allotment payment made in the past must be earned to receive the payment. A part of the land may be planted in feed, of which the landowner receives one-third and the tenant two-thirds, and the remainder should be planted in soil conservation crops.

These crops are any perennial legumes, such as alfalfa or clovers; biennial legumes, such as lespedeza or sweet clovers; sudan grass, millet, or annual ryegrass (for pasture); seeded cover crops of summer nonlegumes; summer-fallowed acreage protected; forest trees; Austrian winter peas; idle cropland on which approved terraces are constructed during 1942; and sweet sorghum, oats, rye, sudan grass, or millet, cut green for hay, provided a strip one rod wide is left standing between each 5-rod strip harvested.

Here is an illustration of how the new program works: Suppose a Hall Countian has 100 acres of cultivated land. Since wheat is scarce in this county, as are other alloted crops, only cotton allotments will be considered. On the average, the cotton allotment amounts to about 38 per cent of the total cultivated land. This would give the farmer 38 acres of cotton, leaving 62 to be used in planting feed and the 20 (Continued on page 5)

TAX COLLECTING BUSINESS GOOD

Delinquent and Current Collections in October Bring County $187, 621

One place which has been extremely busy during the past two months is the office of the county tax assessor-collector, J. M. Ferrel, where the largest collection of both current and delinquent taxes in a number of years has been made.

A total of $187,621.15 in delinquent and current taxes was collected during the month of October, Ferrel reported this week following a compilation.

The increase in business, which kept the members of the collector's staff working all days and part of the nights, was caused by the offer to pay delinquent taxes penalty and interest free. Current tax collections were also discounted 3 per cent during October, and a large number of citizens took advantage of this offer.

Payment of county taxes led in the amount collected. In this group, current tax collections were $36,565.65, and delinquent $27,640.58, Ferrel said.

Contract for REA Extension May Be Let December 15

Lenoir Urges Subscribers To Wire Homes; Material Shortage May Come

The contract for construction of the 186-mile extension to the lines of the Hall County Electric Co-Op will be let about December 15, T. E. Lenoir, supervisor, was informed by Carl C. Cox, REA engineer of Amarillo, this week.

The date for the letting of the contract is not definite as yet, Cox told Lenoir, but it is expected that the awarding will be made December 15.

The extension, which has been designated as the "C" line, will serve 475 members in Briscoe, Motley, Childress, Donley, and Hall counties.

Subscribers to the extension were urged this week by Lenoir to wire their homes immediately, and be ready to connect with the line as soon as it is completed. Material is becoming harder to obtain daily, Lenoir explained, and subscribers should not delay in getting the work done.

Communities to be served by the extension will be White Flat, Flatmot, and near Matador in Motley County; from Turkey to Quitaque in Briscoe County; Harrell Chapel and Gilpin in Childress County; Brice, Deep Lake, Friendship, Parnell, Brookhollow Country Club territory in Hall County; and Glib in Donley County.

Sister of County Residents Dies

Mrs. Florence H. Robinson, 74, sister of E. N. Hudgins of Memphis and Mrs. George R. Dickson of Brice and a former resident of Memphis, died Saturday morning in Fort Worth.

Services were held Monday morning in Fort Worth, and Hudgins and Mrs. Dickson attended the rites.

Mrs. Robinson had lived in Fort Worth most of the time since 1890. She lived in Memphis for about three years early in the 1900's.

Art Program to Be Given in City

Rev. Joe Findley, pastor of the First Christian Church, will be presented in an art program in the form of a silver tea at the church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, it was announced this week.

The public is invited to attend, it was explained. Rev. Findley will leave here January 1 for Canyon, where he has accepted a pastorate.

Tigers Whip Irish 19-6 to Win Title In Grid Contest

McLean Eleven to Meet Floydada in Bi-District Contest; Lefors Forfeits

It's all over now—this slappy race for the grid District 3-A football crown, and the McLean Tigers will represent the "best" of eight schools in the bi-district game with Floydada, champion of District 4-A.

The final decision as to which team would represent this district was made last Friday night, when the Tigers plastered a 19 to 6 defeat on the Shamrock Irish. The Tigers outplayed the Irish for the first two periods, kept up their fire almost through the third, and finally the Shamrock lads got marching in the fourth quarter to march down field for their lone marker.

The McLean-Shamrock tilt was not supposed to amount to much before last week, but the Lefors Pirates, after going through the season with a clean slate to annex their first district title, forfeited all conference games due to the ineligibility of their star back, Ralph Earhart. That left the title to be decided between the Irish (Continued on page 5)

Aged Memphian Is Struck by Auto

Mrs. T. H. B. Armstrong, aged Memphis resident, was injured Monday night when hit by a car driven by Leon Welch, Memphis youth, at 10th and Main streets.

Mrs. Armstrong was taken immediately to a local hospital for treatment. She was reported Tuesday as recovering rapidly, and was suffering only from several bruises and a strained back.

BUSINESS HERE REMAINS GOOD

Money-Spending Crowds Bring Back Memories of Good Old Days of 1929

Business was so good in most of the stores in Memphis last Saturday that by 7 o'clock at night one merchant was heard to say that he wouldn't care a bit if everybody in town went home right then.

His statement was only an indication of the booming business which hit the city—even better than the previous Saturday. On that date, most merchants experienced their best day (in cash taken in) since the grab-off-the-counter days back in 1929.

The crowds started hitting the city early Saturday morning, as the light rain and snow and sleet of the night before prevented cotton picking. And the crowds kept arriving throughout the day.

One merchant said that he didn't have to sell a thing all day long—the customers seemed so anxious to buy they just "took" the merchandise.

There were only brief let-ups in most of the business houses during the day, merchants reported. The entire floor space of dry goods stores, grocery stores, variety stores, and drug stores was taken up by customers most of the day.

Your Cigarettes And Gum to Lose Tin Foil Wrappers

Tobacco Industry May Use Cellophane in Packaging; Foil Production Reduced

Your cigarettes and your chewing gum will not be wrapped in tin or lead foil after March 15—that was decided Sunday by the Office of Production Management in Washington.

Also not to be wrapped in tin foil will be other tobacco products, candy, beverages, typewriter ribbons, films, and friction tape. Manufacturers of the foil have already been ordered to cut their production for such purposes to one-third the amount manufactured in the first three months of 1941, and after January 15, the manufacture will be prohibited entirely.

Then the cigarette, gum, etc., manufacturers have between January 15 and March 15 to use up what foil they have left, it was explained.

About 6,500 tons of lead are being used monthly in packaging such products, the OPM explained, and the demand for lead is steadily increasing in the defense program. Lead is widely used in defense production, and a part of this (Continued on page 5)

Just A Reminder, Kiddies, to Write Letters to Santa

Just a reminder, kiddies, that the time is here for you to write Santa Claus about what you want for Christmas.

The letters should be either mailed or brought to The Democrat office in the near future, so they can be published and then sent on their way to Santa.

Teachers who have their pupils write the letters in school classes are especially urged to get the letters in early—within the next week if possible.

The letters will be published in the two editions preceding Christmas.

20-DEGREE LOW RECORDED HERE

Total of 15,223 Bales of Cotton Ginned in County Prior to November 14

Striking with almost the suddenness of lightning, the predicted blizzard for this section hit Memphis last Saturday night shortly after 6 o'clock, drove home most of the shoppers, and continued through the night to give Hall County its first hard freeze of the year.

Low temperature of Saturday night was 21 degrees, the lowest the thermometer had fallen this fall. Sunday night, however, a 20-degree mark was recorded by J. J. McMickin, local weather observer, to set a new low for this fall.

The blizzard, which was predicted to hit Amarillo at about 3 o'clock, failed to stop at the northern city of the Panhandle, and arrived in Memphis on schedule.

A strong wind gave first notice of the blizzard, then sudden coldness, and finally a short-lived flurry of snow and sleet.

Friday night found some moisture falling, although it was recorded by McMickin as only a trace. The moisture, coupled with (Continued on page 5)

Hooser to Outline Food-for-Freedom Plan in Meeting

Cotton Marketing Quotas Also to Be Discussed in Sessions in Hall County

A series of meetings for Hall County farmers and landowners—to explain the Food-for-Freedom program and the coming cotton marketing referendum—will begin in the near future, County Agent W. B. Hooser said this week.

The main portion of each meeting will be devoted to discussion of the Food-for-Freedom program, Hooser explained, and the marketing quotas will also be discussed.

The quota referendum will be held throughout the nation Saturday, December 13, it has been announced. Farmers and landowners vote each year on whether to continue the quotas, and each year a great majority has approved the issue.

In voting, farmers are not deciding on whether the government will sponsor a farm program for 1942, the county agent emphasized. The program has already been announced, and will be in effect whether the marketing quotas are affirmed or not.

On the other hand, if the quotas are voted out, no loan by the government will be made on cotton, it was explained. The loan has enabled cotton producers to get a price somewhere near parity, since farmers have been able to hold their cotton until prices increase, it was explained.

Food-for-Freedom pledges are tied up directly with quotas, George Slaughter, chairman of the state AAA committee, said this week. If cotton acreage is held within circle of demand, extra acres will be available for commodities needed at home and by Britain. Any increase in surplus crops and decrease in deficient defense crops will cripple the whole national farm defense program.

The marketing quota system aims at dividing a limited market supply equally among cotton producers, Slaughter said.

Recreation Staff Meeting Scheduled

Staff members of the five recreation projects in this district will meet in Memphis next Wednesday for an all-day training program, Mrs. Roy Guthrie, Hall County supervisor, said this week.

Invited to attend are Pampa, Childress, Amarillo, and Borger. Pampa and Childress have already notified their intentions of attending.

Approximately 40 out-of-town guests are expected. New ideas of the recreation programs concerning athletics and sports, arts and crafts, and rhythmic activities will be discussed.

Hunters Donate Deer to Cafeteria

Two Memphians, M. C. Allen and C. S. Compton, donated half a deer to the Memphis High School cafeteria last week when they returned from a hunting trip in Southwest Texas, Mrs. Gene Barnett, county lunchroom supervisor, said.

The deer will be served sometime during the coming week, Mrs. Barnett said.

Mrs. A. J. Kinard, Former Resident, Dies at Wichita

Funeral Services Are Held From Baptist Church at Goodnight; Burial There

Mrs. A. J. Kinard, wife of the first mayor of Memphis and mother of D. L. C. Kinard and Alman A. Kinard of Memphis, died Sunday night at 8:15 o'clock in Wichita Falls, where she had been ill for some time.

Funeral services for Mrs. Kinard were held from the First Baptist Church at Goodnight Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. T. Gibson, pastor, assisted by Rev. S. F. Martin, Memphis Baptist pastor. Interment was in the Goodnight cemetery, King's Mortuary in charge.

Survivors include the two sons, D. L. C. and Alman A. Kinard, and one daughter, Mrs. D. M. Wiggins of El Paso.

Mrs. Kinard was 74 years and 17 days old at the time of her death. She was married to A. J. Kinard January 3, 1885, and the family moved to Memphis in September, 1896.

Mr. Kinard, who was in the mercantile business here, served as the first mayor of the city.

The family, with the exception of D. L. C. Kinard, moved to Goodnight in September, 1911. A. J. Kinard died January 26, 1914, at Goodnight, where Mrs. Kinard had made her home until her recent illness.

Active pallbearers were T. D. Wiggins of Canadian, and W. C. Milam, Byron Baldwin, Sam J. Hamilton, Frank Garrett, Irvin S. Johnsey, Jim Vallance, and Hollis Boren, all of Memphis.

Truck Overtakes On N. 10th Street

James N. Avance of Weslaco was painfully, although not seriously, injured early Monday morning when the produce truck in which he was riding overturned at the north end of 10th street as the truck entered the city limits.

J. J. Avance, father of the injured man, was driving, and James N. Avance was asleep in the back park of the truck.

As the truck approached the end of North 10th street, another car going north was entering the highway. To avoid hitting the car, the driver of the truck was forced to the left side of the sharp curve, and the truck turned over on its side.

James N. Avance was taken to a local hospital for treatment, and was reported as recovering rapidly Tuesday. He suffered only bruises.

PRE-SCHOOL PROGRAM TO BE SPONSORED

To cooperate with women who are forced to work during the fall days either in the fields or elsewhere, a pre-school program is to get underway for children from 3 to 6 years of age, inclusive, under the sponsorship of the WPA recreation project. The program will last from 8 in the morning to 5 o'clock in the afternoon each week day. Lunch will be served at 11 o'clock by the cafeteria at the school, and a tea party will be held at 4 each day. Children of working mothers are invited to participate, Mrs. Roy Guthrie project supervisor, said this week.

Geraldine Kinard to Be Wed To Ace Gailey December 27

Announcing the approaching marriage of her daughter, Geraldine, to Sergeant Ace Lee Gailey of Camp Bowie at Brownwood, Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard entertained with a candlelight tea at her home on Noel street from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gilliam of Waco and the nuptial vows will be taken December 27 at the First Baptist Church in Memphis.

Wearing a black taffeta formal with a multi-colored jacket, Mrs. Mac Tarver received the 125 guests who called during the afternoon and presented them to the receiving line composed of the honoree, Mrs. Kinard, and Mrs. Cearley Read Kinard, Abilene, sister-in-law of the honoree.

The bride-to-be was gowned in a red taffeta colonial model with long bodice and full skirt. The off-the-shoulder neckline was accented with an old-fashioned cameo worn on a black velvet ribbon. Her flower coronet was of red carnations. Wearing a corsage of salmon pink gladioli, the mother of the bride-elect wore a formal of steel blue satin. Mrs. C. R. Kinard was gowned in black crepe worn with gold jewel accessories and a corsage of gold chrysanthemums.

Chosen colors of the bride-elect, blue and white, dominated the floral and lighting arrangements used in the decorative schemes of the receiving rooms and table appointments. Screened in blue celophane, the windows and the blue globes in the chandeliers and tapers created a subdued ice-blue effect, reflecting a blue cast on the white garden chrysanthemums used throughout the house.

Mrs. Standlee Roberts played semi-classical piano selections throughout the calling hours. Mrs. R. S. Greene and Mrs. T. M. Harrison presided over the coffee and tea service from 3 until 4 o'clock and Mrs. W. Wilson and Mrs. S. T. Harrison poured the second hour. They were assisted in the dining room by Mrs. Don Wright and Mrs. Henderson Smith.

The floral centerpiece of the dining table was formed basically of giant chrysanthemums from which cascaded white satin streamers studded with miniature mums. White sandwiches shaped like wedding bells and hearts, cookies, mints, and frosted grapes carried out the selected colors in the refreshments course. On the dining table laid in an imported hand-made Cuban lace cloth, rested a white satin heart-shaped pillow edged in a tulle ruffle. Lying on the pillow was a wedding ring of feverfew to which an announcement was tied with tulle with the information "Jerry and Ace—December 27."

Receiving in the living room were Mrs. W. C. Dickey, Miss Dorotha Sue Fultz, Miss Tommye Noel and Mrs. T. L. Lewis. Mrs. George Short of Amarillo and Mrs. Lester Campbell presided at the register.

Wallace McElrath Has Accident
While cleaning the barrel of a small automatic rifle last week, Wallace McElrath leg just above the knee. The bullet caused a severe flesh wound, making it necessary to cut out the bullet on the opposite side of the knee. The safety valve on the gun was out of order, causing the accident. Wallace is recovering nicely and is able to walk without a crutch this week.

Farmers--Wire Your Homes For the R.E.A. Extension!

We have been informed by our engineer that the contract for the 186-mile extension to our electric lines will be let about December 15, although the date is not yet definite.

FARMERS, WIRE YOUR HOMES NOW. You can get the work done cheaper if you have it done as soon as possible, and it may be impossible within only a few weeks to get the necessary wire for the work.

The national defense program is already causing a shortage of wire and other necessary material, and if your home is not wired now, you may have difficulty in buying the material.

The new extension to the lines of the Hall County Electric Co-Op makes this organization a more-than-a-quarter-million-dollar firm, and you are a part of it. Our co-op will be one of the best in this section, and it will grow as you make it grow. Please cooperate with us and help build this organization to an even greater size.

WE WILL BE GLAD TO GIVE YOU ANY ADVICE YOU MAY WANT CONCERNING THE WIRING OF YOUR HOME.

MERRY CHRISTMAS?

TEXAS TRAFFIC WILL KILL 195

The grave diggers won't get much rest this Christmas season. Throughout December, State Police Director Homer Garrison predicted this week they'll dig an average of more than six graves a day for the torn and crushed bodies of persons killed in traffic collisions.

With traffic deaths for 1941 skyrocketing to an all-time high, Garrison foresaw a toll of 195 in Texas for December.

On the basis of a detailed statistical study which highway patrolmen will use as a guide in their accident prevention efforts, Garrison made these predictions:

Highway accidents will claim the lives of 115 persons, while 25 will be killed on county roads, 12 in towns of less than 5,000 population, and 43 in larger towns and cities. The highway and county road toll of 140 will aggregate 72 per cent of the total, which means that rural driving will be three times as dangerous as city driving. Seventy-seven persons will be killed in collisions involving two cars. But that's only 40 per cent of the total. Here's how the rest will die: pedestrian struck by car, 52; car ran off roadway, 25; auto struck fixed object, such as a bridgehead, 14; other auto collisions involving trains, street cars, bicycles, horse-drawn vehicles and animals, 27.

Tragedy will strike most frequently when people are having fun. Two out of every three of these 159 deaths will occur between 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 2 in the morning. The peak will be reached from 6 to 9 at night, when 54 will die in the rush of getting home from work and rushing to meet engagements on time.

As the month grows older and the Christmas spirit flames higher, the grave diggers will work faster and faster. In the first 10 days of December they'll dig 43 traffic graves. In the next 10 days it will be 53. And in the last 11 days, which includes Christmas and New Year's Eve, the number will be 99.

Driver-Less Auto Rolls Over Child

Kenneth Earl Voyles, 19-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Voyles of Lakeview, was painfully injured Tuesday about noon when the Voyles automobile began rolling and ran over the child.

The extent of the child's injuries had not been determined a short time after the accident. He was brought to a Memphis hospital.

The car, with no one in it, began to roll, and the small child was run over before he was able to move out of the way.

Good Food Sells Good Nutrition

Unless meals satisfy the appetites of hungry people and produce genuine satisfaction, they may go half eaten. So it takes appetizing food to sell good nutrition to a family and make eating fun.

Good cooking, skillful meal planning, and attractive serving all make eating fun, in the opinion of Hazel Phipps, Extension Service specialist in food preparation. To help homemakers plan meals more skillfully, she suggests use of the Texas Food Standard. It can be obtained free from county home demonstration agents or from the A. and M. College Extension Service at College Station.

Since many food values can be retained or lost in cooking, learning to prepare food properly is a primary responsibility for every homemaker. Here are some simple basic principles for successful cooking which help conserve food values and help make food taste better:

Use little water in cooking vegetables, and never add soda to the cooking water.

When most green vegetables are cooking, don't use a lid. Don't waste the liquid vegetables are cooked in. If it isn't served with the vegetables, use it in soups, sauces, or gravies.

Cook meats—and all other protein foods such as eggs, milk and cheese—at a moderate temperature.

Tender cuts of meat are cooked in an uncovered pan with no added water. Less tender cuts may be made more tender by cooking them slowly with added liquid in a covered pan. Tough meat may be made more tender by grinding.

A balanced ration fed according to transportation is the most economical method of producing milk. On good green pasture three pounds of grain per gallon of milk should be fed. With hay and silage as roughage, feed up to four pounds of grain per gallon.

favorable publicity, and she can use a lot of it.

I have been guessing Hall County will make 50 thousand bales of cotton this year, and my friends all say that the number will exceed that by 10 or 15 thousand. I hope they are right. But I still say that when the final count is made, the total will not reach 60 thousand.

Amarillo News: Circle 1 is to have a rummage sale. It will be held all day at 1200 — St.

I AM THANKFUL
By Democrat Staff Poet
Forgive me, dear Lord,
I know not how to pray;
But I too will be thankful
On this Thanksgiving Day.

I'm thankful for the air I breathe,
The trees and stars above;
I'm thankful that I can live
And have friends I can love.

And, O Lord, I am thankful,
Even though sometimes I'm wrong,
That I will have an honest judge
To place me where I belong.

per cent—or 20 acres—of soil conservation crops.

On the cotton land, productivity, for example, may be 150 pounds per acre. The cotton conservation payment then would be 38 times 150 times 1.25 cents, totaling $71.15. Of this, the tenant would receive three-fourths, and the landlord one-fourth.

Of the remaining 62 acres, 20 per cent or 20 acres must be in conformity with the soil-conservation program, or else all or a part of the cotton conservation payment will be withheld.

The 62 acres then can be planted 42 acres of feed and 20 acres of soil conservation crops.

The tenant will receive two-thirds of the feed, the landlord one-third.

For each of the 62 acres—providing the soil-building practices are carried out properly, 70 cents will be paid by the government. The person who does the work gets the money, or his prorated share if the work is divided.

It was pointed out that these payments are on the conservation program, and have nothing to do with the cotton parity checks, which are now being received at the county agent's office for 1941 cotton. The government has not announced whether parity payments will be made under the 1942 program.

Estelline Youth In '42 Who's Who

Bill Hinton, son of Mrs. Lorena Hinton of Estelline, and who will receive his bachelor of arts degree from Howard Payne College in June, is among students listed in the "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." The book will be released in January.

Hinton is a member of the H Club, president of the Senior class, member of the Student Council, president of the B. B. A. Club, and a football squadman.

In Estelline High School where he finished in 1938, Hinton participated in three sports, and was president of his Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes.

"Who's Who" is published each year, giving outstanding students recommendations to the business world and serving as a standard of measurement for students, it has been explained.

The two tables on the square last Saturday, one sponsored by the Delphian Club and the other by the 1913 Study Club, collected slightly more than $66.

Mrs. Thurman Hutchins, Estelline chairman, reported that she is continuing her work there and believes that the quota will be reached. O. E. Bevers, Lakeview chairman, made a similar report, as did Ozella Mitchell at Lesley.

the cool weather, was enough to stop cotton gathering, however.

The weather continued to be cold during Sunday, and the high for that day was 41 degrees. Monday and Tuesday turned out to be almost spring-like days, and cotton picking got underway again.

Most of the gins continued to be busy. A total of 15,223 bales had been ginned in Hall County prior to November 14. C. Lee Rushing, Department of Commerce agent, reported this week. At the same time last year, 16,445 bales had been ginned from the much earlier crop.

Estimates now range from 50 to 65 thousand bales for Hall County, with the majority of guessers estimating between 50 and 55 thousand.

and the Tigers, each of whom had lost only one game and that to Lefors.

Floydada, in the neighboring district, wound up its regular season undefeated and untied by downing Spur last week. The Tigers will meet the Floydada eleven for the bi-district title.

Up in the other half of the region, the former Memphis coach, Chesty Walker, led his Phillips

Blackhawks to their second district title in as many years. The Blackhawks went through their season with only one defeat, and that, strangely enough, by the McLean Tigers—the first game of the season for both teams.

The Hereford Whitefaces, also repeaters, came through with an unblemished fall record when they whipped the Canyon Eagles last week. The Whitefaces were District 1-A champs in 1940.

The Phillips eleven, host to Hereford in the bi-district match in 1940, will have to play on the Hereford gridiron this year, according to Interscholastic League rules. The game will be played Thursday afternoon.

The winner of the McLean-Floydada game will play the Phillips-Hereford winner for the regional title, which Phillips won last year by downing the Paducah Dragons.

The Lakeview Eagles, the only other District 3-A team in action last week, downed the Estelline Cubs to give the Eagles one of the best seasons in history. The Eagles, usually on the bottom rung of the ladder in the district, finished fifth this year—and counting in the game forfeited by Lefors, the Eagles all season won five, lost four, and tied one game.

The forfeit of all conference games by the Lefors Pirates changed up both the non-conference and conference standings. Here's the way they finally stacked up at the close of the season:

country's need must be imported. The tobacco industry uses about 85 per cent of the tin and lead foil consumed. A warning several months ago concerning the stoppage of use of the foil has caused the tobacco processors to study substitute wrappers.

Among other things, cellophane may be used, for this product is still available to tobacco industries. The use of cellophane is under government control, too, but no restrictions on its use by tobacco companies has been made.

Recent tests, it was explained, have shown that cigarettes packaged with cellophane lose nine per cent of their moisture within a certain period. With both the foil and the cellophane the loss is moisture was six per cent, and with only the foil, the loss was 38 per cent.

THIS TIME WE AGREE WITH WORLEY

LAST WEEK an editorial in The Democrat disagreed with Congressman Eugene Worley, but this week we are thoroughly in accord with his latest move—the introduction into the House of Representatives a bill to deal with labor leaders who are continually calling strikes in defense plants.

The bill is a companion bill to the one introduced in the Senate by Senator Tom Connally, also of Texas. It gives the President the power to take over the operation of any defense industry where a stoppage of production is impeding national defense, it "freezes" the terms and conditions of labor in a plant or mine taken over by the government (wages excepted), and it establishes a special wage board to adjust wage disputes and fix compensation when a majority of employees or their authorized representatives so petition the board.

"It is important that the government prevent the destruction of labor through over-zealous activities of some of its leaders as it is for the government to prevent the destruction of capital by its own hand," Worley said in presenting the bill to Congress.

"Both are necessary, both are essential, and harmony between the two must come about whether it be by mutual agreement or by the more stringent and drastic method of law. An immediate truce between the two forces must be made.

"Whatever might be the intentions of Mr. Lewis, be they good or bad, he is guilty at this moment of an unfortunate bit of timing with the result that he is neither serving the workers who follow him nor the country to whom he owes allegiance. I am convinced that he does not represent the great rank and file of patriotic American labor."

The proposals in the bill might not be perfect in all respects, Worley said, but certainly the bill is an honest and sincere effort to bring about an immediate cessation of civil warfare in our own backyard.

On this issue we certainly agree with our new Congressman from the Panhandle, and we hope that he will be able to convince other Congressmen to aid him in putting through this bill—or a similar one—to deal with those who would, intentionally or otherwise, hinder our national defense program.

IT DIDN'T LAST

TODAY—in Memphis at least—is Thanksgiving, and we are glad to know that the President has decided to go back to the traditional last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day in 1942.

The President's plan to make more days between Thanksgiving and Christmas may have been all right but, being a bit old-fashioned as are hundreds of other people, the idea never did suit us just right.

As many have pointed out, every day should be a day of thanksgiving, but the Thanksgiving holiday is taken only once each year—and it seems to us that it should fall the same time each year.

The confusion with two Thanksgiving days has been great. It has caused much trouble, and the old custom has been extremely hard to overcome—so hard, in fact, that the President's new date has taken hold in only a part of the nation.

Because of the two dates, some families have not been able to have their annual get-togethers. For example, a Memphis man has a daughter and a son in college—this year one was home last week and the other this week. That is confusing.

The greatest fault of the new date, however, has been in the effect the change has made on the meaning of Thanksgiving Day to many people. Some people have become disgusted and have decided not to observe either Thanksgiving Day. In other words, some people have lost the spirit of Thanksgiving Day—which is truly a sad result.

We can be relieved for next year, however, for the President has declared that only one will be proclaimed—and that one will be on the traditional date. If you are one of the old-line Thanksgiving Day observers and didn't like the change, then you may now rejoice.

Adventures of THE TOTTIES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE AND PASTE IN YOUR SCRAPBOOK)

The Thunder Man laughed long and loud, And said, "No wonder I am proud. You see, whenever thunder roars, Most everybody runs indoors." "I don't see why you think it's fun," Said Dotty, "to scare everyone. We will not beat drums any more. We'll let you make the thunder roar." "He led them to a little box And said, "I'm clever as a fox. Oh, you will be the first to kick When, once again, I prove I'm slick." "I'm going to make long streaks of light. I hope they won't fill you with fright." He held two wires real close and then The Totties were surprised again. For now the sparks began to fly Out into space, up in the sky. "Ho, ho!" the Thunder Man cried out. "There's lightning flashing all about."

NEXT WEEK: The Thunder Man makes it rain.
