Largest Name in Baseball, Feller Too Good to Be True

BY ART BRONSON

The 100 years baseball has played in America, no name has captured the public imagination as Rapid Robert Feller, the 21-year-old Iowa farm boy who is bidding to become the greatest pitcher the game has since he fanned 17 Philadelphia Athletics when only 17 old, the Cleveland Indian has been the subject of speculation. With every contest he pitched becomes more evident that Bob is just about too good to be true.

started developing control to go with his amazing speed and fine curve. Batters no longer are afraid he'll beam them with his high, hard one. Nor is the Iowa farm boy merely an arm pitcher. He's a keen student of batters' weakness and pitches with his head. His temperament is ideal. There's nothing of the prima donna about him and he's the pet of the entire Cleveland organization.

YOU OWE IT TO YOURSELF TO GET THE DETAILS!!!

An Official Announcement

OF A MODERN FUNERAL HOME IN MEMPHIS IN THE NEAR FUTURE BECAUSE—

The people of Memphis and surrounding territory have proven they need such an establishment. WHY? Why have our many friends supported our cause so strongly? Why have they traveled a distance of more than 24 miles to secure the services of the Womack Funeral Home? BECAUSE—Only the Womack Funeral Home offers a perfect tribute and a complete funeral service at a price you can afford to pay!

The Womack Burial Association was the first in this locality! Other associations are unable to offer the many benefits we can offer. We were the first to take care of the older people (86 years and up). Regardless of what you have heard, Womack's membership is a 3 to 1 ratio above any other association operating in this locality. BE WISE! WHO CAN STAND THE TEST?

The PROBLEM:
ELIMINATE the Burial Expense BOGEY with a Womack Burial Policy. Many families possessing the "So-called Complete Service Burial Policies" have met the financial Embarrassment and Humiliation which countless families will suffer that do not have a Womack Burial Policy. WHY? They have not fully investigated their burial protection, which Definitely takes care of their burial expense.

The SOLUTION:
SECURE A WOMACK BURIAL POLICY offering ladies' dress and shroud with all undergarments and hose; OR man's suit with all undergarments and hose. Appreciation cards to send friends that were most dear to you during misfortune. Printed funeral notices, notifying friends and acquaintances. Furnishing a Cherished Memories Book in leather binding and pulpit stand for carrying on of same. An Automatic Grave Closer, leaving the family with a perfect peace of mind. A new 1940 hearse and modernistic chapel tent, green grass, and all the very latest in equipment. And any other services that may be deemed necessary by the beneficiary in carrying out the desired wishes of the deceased. And many other minor details that other Associations add to the funeral bill, making additional burdens and expense.

The Womack Burial Association has secured better than 65% control of the burial and funeral business in this locality in less than 9 months. There must be a reason—the Association is owned, operated and controlled by young men with the future before them, serving with sympathetic understanding and assuming the responsibility of your loved ones with a sacred trust and confidence.

their loved ones to our local cemeteries. A 1940 AMBULANCE serving you promptly and efficiently is always at your command. This AMBULANCE was purchased from Memphis car dealers. Get the facts—we sell you protection that will not result in embarrassment and humiliation and will definitely take care of your burial expense.

NO LONGER NEED YOU WORRY
The Womack Funeral Home will protect you from the prevailing high prices of funeral services.

FACTS!
The Womack Burial Association is becoming one of the strongest Associations in the state. With another six months continued growth we will have an unbelievable membership.

The Womack Funeral home brings you many services that have never been known in this locality and yet you pay only the same. The Womack Burial Association has the ONLY policy that offers a complete funeral service. GRATEFUL ARE MANY FOR OUR THOUGHTFUL SERVICE

The Womack Funeral Home will open the most modern, up-to-date funeral home to be known in this locality. Your loved ones will be our sacred trust in our home-like environment—not as merchandise. We will spare no expense or details to bring modern funeral arrangements to Memphis and surrounding locality. Our display of caskets will be the largest and most complete in this vicinity. We will display a large selection of burial suits and dresses for our many policy holders to choose from. The Womack Funeral Home employs only professional embalmers with no interest in other merchandising plans.

The Womack Funeral Home has served countless hundreds during their suffering and need for care in going to the modern hospitals in Memphis. This funeral home has introduced the very latest in ambulance service and design. Many resent being carried to our modern up-to-date hospitals in a HEARSE that has carried

This announcement is official—it will require several months to fully materialize our move. We will spare no time in securing only the most modern up-to-date funeral home for our policy holders and friends.

IT IS TRUE! The Womack Burial Association and Womack Funeral home is founded upon a strong financial basis and opening modern homes in Memphis, Clarendon, McLean and retaining the Hedley Funeral Home. When all homes are completed, all merchandise purchased,—This institution will introduce funeral services on a plan that will be unbelievable, but can only be afforded by a strong association and a strong funeral home like Womack's.

DON'T WAIT! Purchase Womack Burial Protection at once! The unbelievable will begin when the Womack Funeral Home moves to Memphis and begins operations on the new great scale. This has been made possible by your good will toward the funeral home and the strong support of the Burial Association. Plan Ahead—thinking men and women—Play Safe! Continue your strong support toward this institution. Be with only the strongest!

DO YOU CLAIM that you would quit the appliance business if we had some dealers? Just what do you call live dealers? Aren't the Memphis dealers only alive when you have to resort to kinds of tricks to beat them out of business?

WAS YOUR HIGH RATES and monopolistic attitude the reason the City of Haskell is starting a new light plant in that city? How do you like the City of Haskell's new City Ordinance, allowing the city to fix rates on electric current in that town?
DID YOU KNOW that a Texas town recently had the Supreme Court uphold a City Ordinance taxing the utilities companies of their city 4% of their gross receipts for the use of their streets and alleys for poles, etc?
WHY AREN'T you satisfied with the sale of electricity alone? Did you know that if you run legitimate appliance dealers out of business that you are robbing the city of the taxes the dealers would pay? Don't you know that somebody will have to pay these taxes? ### What A County—It Walks and Talks—But What Is It?

When a strange animal is found in Hall County, and so strange that no one is able to identify it positively, well, that's something.

But it happened in Hall County last week when Mrs. Annie Lee Freel discovered the small animal in the Deep Lake community. No one was able to tell just exactly what it was.

The animal, according to the closest descriptions Mrs. Freel could find in a natural history book, is a ring-tailed mink. Ordinary encyclopedias seldom list this species, however.

The animal was brought to The Democrat office, and left on display for several days. It has since been disposed of.

In 1929, when moisture con- ditions were ideal, W. B. McQueen produced two bales of cotton to the acre on 40 acres of his 1,215- acre farm about five miles south- east of Memphis. "Last year, when dry weather resulted in probably the worst crops since 1896 in this area, I produced only 531-2 bales on 386 acres," McQueen said. "I am convinced now that farmers of this semi-arid area must con- serve every drop of the available moisture and put it to use in growing crops if they expect to make a living. "I thought this was the most beautiful country in the world when I moved here from Ellis County, Texas, 33 years ago," McQueen recalled. "The country was all range land then, and a heavy blanket of grass covered the rolling hills as far as the eye could see. "I saw the plow turn up the virgin sod on many thousands of acres, a lot of which never should have been put into cultivation, but I plowed up my share, too, for I now have 957 acres in crop land." The pioneer farmer recalled that he harvested many bumper crops during years of plentiful rainfall, but crops were short in dry years. Back in 1931, he be- came convinced that terraces might aid in keeping more water on his land and constructed a few structures. However, he con- tinued plowing rows straight up and down the slopes, while cot- ton, which does not resist erosion, was planted solid in fields. When the Soil Conservation CCC camp was established at Memphis in 1937 to demonstrate a complete program of erosion control methods, McQueen did not think much of the idea, he ad- mitted. "I didn't like the crooked-row method of farming with the point- rows," he said. "Neither did I care for strip cropping methods because after frost comes, leaves from the sorghum strips blow into the cotton and lower the quality. Another objection was that I did not have all the ma- chinery and equipment needed in carrying out the complete pro- gram." McQueen continued to use the same farming practices during the extended drought period when erosion by wind and water be- came a serious problem on many farms in the Memphis area as well as in a large portion of the Southern Great Plains. After the cotton harvest last fall, McQueen learned that other land no more fertile than his, but where complete soil and water conservation programs were being carried out, had produced as much as a third of a bale to the acre. He also observed that gullies were filling in on the land where terraces had been con- structed. It was then that he de- cided to seek assistance of the Soil Conservation Service tech- nicians at the CCC camp in es- tablishing a complete soil and water conservation program on his entire farm. During the winter construction of 50 miles of terraces was started and now is well underway. A plan of regulated grazing on the pasture land has been worked out and contour furrows will be constructed later. On severely eroded spots, 2,500 trees and shrubs are being planted to check soil losses and to aid in the prop- agation of wildlife. This year, cotton and grain sorghums will be planted in strip-crop pattern with the crops being rotated annual- ly. Terraces will be planted to sudan grass or other sorghums and border strips will be used to pro- tect the fields. "While erosion control prac- tices may require more time and labor, I am convinced that con- servation of available rainfall should bring yields that will more than offset any disadvantages and that there will be assurance of producing crops even in the dry years," McQueen said.

Junior High P-TA Members Present Varied Program

The regular meeting of the Junior High P-T. A. was held Monday, April 15. A short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. Emma Baskerville, after which the social science department under the direction of Mrs. Lon Montgomery and Mrs. L. G. DeBerry furnished the program for the afternoon.

Mrs. Montgomery addressed the group, bringing out the aims of social science in the school and making a few comparisons of the old and the new school. To illustrate some of the points brought out, a group of pupils presented an original "Dr. I. Q. Quiz" on Texas history. Later children from different sections entered and exhibited articles made both in and out of school, showing their creative ability.

The second part of the program was the presentation of an original play in two scenes, "Lilac Time in Texas," directed by Mrs. DeBerry. The cast included Helen Patrick, Mary Jean Sanders, Betty Jo Randolph, Louise Rogers, Ann Norman, James Morris, and Don Keith Holt. At the end of the first scene, June Joyce, Melba Lou Jameson, and Mary Jean Sanders gave several piano and vocal numbers.

The doors leading from the auditorium to the library were opened and the second scene, a garden party, was presented. Small girls in floor-length dresses, and boys and girls in typical Texas cowboy regalia grouped around vine and flower-crowned trellises, fences, and garden chairs, and sang Texas songs. Accordion music was furnished throughout the social hour by Louise Rogers, Mary F. Whaley, and Rayburn Jones.

In the center of the garden was a block office, colored red and bearing the letters P-T. A., furnished through the courtesy of the West Texas Utilities Company, from which punch was served by Doris Compton and Sylvia Nell Goodnight. Ann Norman and Gladys Jones Bowers served squares of cake with lavender-tinted icing. Between 50 and 60 guests registered.

Book Review Club Hears Story of 'Escape' at Session

Mrs. R. C. Holland reviewed in her usual refreshing manner Ethel Vance's "Escape," when the Current Book Review Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. W. C. Dickey with Mrs. J. A. Odum as co-hostess. The novel deals boldly with the tragic theme of political terrorism in a European country.

Mrs. Holland brought out the fact that an interesting feature of "Escape" is its two heroines, who can be described in current slang as glamour girls, glamour girls of middle age, and that they certainly have more of the specific quality so described than any younger heroine could show.

The speaker showed how in all respects this novel is irresistible to the popular taste, combining assured narration with enough anxious suspense, cruel opposition, and novelty of scene and color to keep the reader in a dither. Mrs. Holland stated that not since Vicki Baum's "Grand Hotel" have we had so lusty a hand at work on the continental scene and that in this case, we deal with a larger story of tragic elements and savage timeliness.

Members and guests present were Messdames W. C. Davis, John Deaver, F. N. Foxhall, H. B. Gilmore, Lynn Harris, H. T. Gregory, T. M. Harrison, Jack Jarrell, George Cullin, Charles Webster, L. B. Madden, C. C. Meacham, D. J. Morgensen.
