Quick start subdues Mules, 21-0

By RICK WHITE Managing Editor

Muleshoe never recovered from a pair of Dimmitt touchdowns in the first four minutes of the game and lost to the Bobcats, 21-0, in a District 2-3A contest Friday night at chilly Benny Douglass Stadium.

Joey Flores returned the opening kickoff 82 yards for a touchdown and Richard Ewing scored less than four minutes late to give the Bobcats a quick 15-0 lead.

Ewing, playing in his first game for Dimmitt after transferring from Plainview a couple of weeks ago, added life to a Dimmitt offense that has struggle all

The Bobcats (3-6, 2-2) came into the game with a district low 78 points.

Ewing gained 154 yards on 16 carries, mostly on sweeps to the wide side of the field where he could use his quickness.

"He didn't necessarily beat us," Muleshoe head coach Randy Adair said. "We played fairly well, but we can't spot a team a 15-0 lead. That's hard for us to recover from."

As usually in games involving struggling teams, early momentum plays a big role.

"We needed some good things to happen early," said Dimmitt head coach Danny Chisum, winning his first game against Muleshoe in three tries." We're a lot like Muleshoe in that it takes us a while to recover from our mistakes."

Jake Adair was the workhorse for the Mules (0-9, 0-4) on a night they lost star quarterback Daniel Garbarino just before the half with a sprained left knee.

Adair gained 123 tough yards on 30 carries against a small but extremely quick Bobcat defense. Garbarino, who gained 66 yards on eight carries and com-

"We knew coming in that if they were going to do any scoring, it was going to involve Garbarino in some way; passing or throwing," Chisum said. "We did aspretty good job of containing him.. But a couple of times he got loose and it scared us."

edge in total yards. Each team had 14 foirst downs.

After Flores return the opening kickoff for a touchdown, Muleshoe fumble on its first offensive play and the Bobcats took over at the Mules' 40-yard line. Ewing ran five times for 26 yards in the drive, beating Garbarino to the corner for the touchdown.

Muleshoe had a good chance to cut the lead in half on its next drive, moving 76 yards in nine plays before stalling at the Bob-

Garbarino's 34-yard run on a quarterback counter was the big play, but the senior quarterback couldn't find an open receiver on fourth down and the ball was batted down in the end zone.

Office is doing their job," said Mandy Brantly, Post Master for the Muleville Post Office. "We all got to write letters to be mailed to our friends," Brantly said. "Some of the other kids were so excited about the new Post Office, they were jumping up and down."

Barry Morris is a manager at Post Office, and also a member of the Post Office committee.

"I liked interviewing the people who wanted to work in the Post office best of everything we have done so far," Morris said. Morris, along with other Post Office managers and the Post Master, interviewed prospective student employees and evaluated them. Then the final hiring decisions were made by the faculty.

This process of hiring student employees was used for the bank and store also.

The fourth grade citizens of Muleville operate the Muleville Bank. Although it is a branch of Muleshoe State Bank, it looks more like a bank in the early 1900's. The building is gray, with black trim, and all four of the teller windows at the Muleville bank have thick the School Box. black bars.

Citizens of Muleville will be able to deposit money into personal savings accounts at the bank. The accounts will earn 5 percent interest monthly. Each depositor will be given personalized withdrawal slips. These slips may be used to withdraw money if it has been signed by the student and a parent. Bank statements will be mailed monthly to the depositors through the Muleville Post Office.

"We got to go practice at Muleshoe State Bank after school so we would know what to do," said Judy Marquez, a manager at Muleville Bank. "Doing the teller work is fun. I like counting the money," she

"It is fun being a bank manager, and next year i am going to try to work in the School Box," said Miquel Castorena, a fourth grader. "I just with they had started this when I was a third grader so I could have done it all," he said.

Students may use money they withdraw from the bank to purchase school supplies from the School Box.

The School Box is a store for citizens of Muleville to purchase school supplies. It resembles an old one-room school house. It is bright red with white trim, and has a window box full of country flowers. The School Box is operated by the fifth grade students.

"We keep track of inventory and order more when we need something. I guess our most important job as the managers is to count the money at the end of the day, and hope it comes out right," said Brennan Broyles, one of the managers of the School Box.

"We also have to make sure the clerks are doing their jobs, and if someone is absent, we have to cover for them," said Bailey Barrier, a manager of Muleville is a growing community. In the future, Muleville citizens plan to build a park by the Post Office. There are also plans for a cafe. The cafe will be located in the schools cafeteria. The fifth grade gifted and talented students will soon put the Muleville Express newspaper into circulation.

"This has been a lot of work for us. We have been meeting with the teachers once a week and making plans. We are learning a lot," said Gradee Adrian, chairman of the board of directors for Muleville, USA. "It's worth it, and it's fun."

Monetary support for the construction and operation of Mulesville was provided by the Muleshoe State Bank, the Muleshoe Rotary Club and the PTA.

Cable service lost just as switch made

By MARTHA TOLES FROST

City Editor

Mission Cable was finishing its service in Muleshoe about the time service was interrupted for cable TV watchers on the West side of town Tuesday night.

A blown fuse was the culprit again, according to Gloria Recio at Classic Cable, formerly Mission Cable.

October billings went out from Mission, but next month, checks will be made pay to the order of Classic Cable, according to Recio.

Technician Ralph Skaggs said service is expected to improve with the addition of pagers and cellular phones for technicians, who will be notified by a dispatcher when there is a problem that needs attention. Callers will be able to talk to a person, not an answering machine.

Recio said Classic Cable has bought a lot of area cable service companies and has not yet had time to evaluate all its holdings. She expects some channels will be dropped so others can be added, based on documented viewer preferences.

Wilson captures Week 9 of Journal Power Points

Purdy 2nd, Nelson takes third

The battle was tight in the Muleshoe Journal Power Points football contest for games of Oct. 28-30.

The top spot belonged to Barry Wilson of Rt. 3, Box 56, Muleshoe, who totaled 98 points for the week.

Wilson, like most contestants, unwisely trusted the suddenly unpredictable San Francisco 49ers with one of his high-point picks. He had a total of five incorrect choices, but the San Francisco game was the only high number choice of the bunch and he earned the $10 first prize, as well as a $10 gift certificate from Joe's Boot Shop. The luck was apparently with Wilson, because he failed to include his tiebreaker guesses.

Second went to John Purdy of 1805 Ave. D, Muleshoe, with 96 points for the week. Purdy also had five incorrect choices, including San Francisco-New Orleans. His other incorrect picks were just slightly higher than Wilson's. He hung in there for the $7.50 second prize however.

Phyllis Nelson of Rt. 2, Box 139, Muleshoe earned third place and $5. She had 93 points with seven incorrect choices

The luckiest contestant in the state of Texas was William Dungey, 65, of Copperas Cove, who won the $1,000 weekly prize. Dungey, a 65year-old retired trainer at Popeye's Fried Chicken, totaled 125 of 136 possible points.

"I took a chance on Carolina and I moved San Francisco down to a low line. Then I put all my faith in Baylor and Rice," said Dungey, who entered through the Copperas Cove Leader Press, circulation 2,200. It was the smallest circulation paper to have a statewide winner thus far. To date, readers at four weekly papers have won the grand prize in the nine weeks of the contest.

Muleshoe State Bank acquires two branches

Bank of America Texas and Muleshoe State Bank announced Nov. 1 they have signed a definitive agreement under which Muleshoe State Bank will acquire Bank of America's branches in Muleshoe and Farwell.

Completion of the transaction is subject to approval of applicable regulator authorities and is expected to close in early 1996. Terms were not disclosed.

Bank of America had previou$ly announced in August that it would sell its Muleshoe and Farwell branches to American State Bank of Lubbock. However, a subsequent offer by Muleshoe State Bank for the two branches was agreed upon by American State Bank and Bank of America.

American State Bank's acquisition of three other Bank of America branches in Floydada, Littlefield and Plainview will go forward as previously announced.

"We look forward to offering the same high-quality service to Bank of America's customers that we have provided to our customers in Muleshoe and Farwell," said Bob Finney, president of Muleshoe State Bank. "We are dedicated to making this transition a smooth one for the people of Farwell and Muleshoe."

Muleshoe State Bank has been a part of Bailey and Parmer Counties since 1914.

Bank of America Texas is a subsidiary of Bank America Corporation, which has more than 1,900 branches in ten western states. As of Sept. 30, Bank America had assets of approximately $229.9 billion and deposits of approximately $155.6 billion.

Bank of America Texas currently operates 243 branches in Texas and had assets of approximately $7.9 billion and deposits of approximately $6.8 billion of June 30, 1995.

Muleshoe State Bank has two offices, one in Muleshoe and one in Farwell; and is currently constructing a new facility at its Farwell office.

Pep starts presses rolling

By MARTHA TOLES FROST City Editor

PEP — Pep High School has just released its first school newspaper, "Pep Talk," edited by Kelly Jackson.

Pep students have submitted articles, editorials, features, original puzzles, cartoons, poetry and pictures for publication to Marilyn Huber, Pep's English teacher.

The school newspaper and the annual—both published by Huber's English class—are copied and distributed free to attending students.

Huber says that although the English department is getting a new computer and a better printer, the staff will continue to copy the paper for distribu-

The first issue contains a message from the director of the school, Fredda Schooler, and a movie review of "Pulp Fiction" by Donn Bundick, who also submitted a drawing of Pep High School's new look.

PEP — While sitting in class you've probably heard all the hammering and beating and cussing and wondered what is going on. Pep High has recently had the Bob Estep Construction Company come out and do some major remodeling.

They are connecting the two main buildings with Mrs. Schooler's and Mrs. Decher's office as the interior. There will also be a new lounge area and Coke and candy machines.

This project is running about $92,000 and should be complete mid-November. Mrs. Schooler said there were several reasons why the remodeling was done:

- More economical heating and air conditioning of the school. · A smoother running office, having the counselor near the
- school records. • Use of the counselor's former room as a GED testing room.
- · Allowing Mrs. Gandy's room to double as a classroom and nurse's office after a bathroom has been added.

Some remodeling will be done in Mr. V's Automechanics building by Mr. McCain's wood working classes.

All this remodeling is afforded by the $1 million received by Whiteface Independent School District this year and last year. I'm sure everyone will like it when it's finished!

Cotton market remains volatile

Cotton market attention remains divided between the potential size of the U.S. crop, overseas production and the current demand scenario as the market continues its roller coaster ride in search of a clear direction.

The most noteworthy news this week was the National Cotton Council's (NCC) report of September mill use which was slightly better than expected, but still well below the rate needed to reach USDA's current season forecast of 11.2 million bales.

U.S. textile mills in September used cotton at a seasonally adjusted annualized rate of 10.7 million bales, according to the council. September's seasonally adjusted annualized rate was up

.87 percent from the revised August figure of 10.6 million bales.

NCC economist Kevin Brinkley said the annualized figure was within market expectations and reflected a continuing weakness in cotton consumption.

"The cotton business is a little bit soft right now when you compare it to last year, and partly reflects a tight crop and a softness in the yarn market," he said.

Meanwhile, mostly dry weather conditions permitted much of the cotton belt to harvest satisfactorily, though early yields in Arizona and California are still disappoint-

According to USDA's U.S. Crop Condition and Progress

Report, the U.S. cotton harvest is ahead of the average for this time of year. To Oct. 22, half of the U.S. crop had been picked as compared to a fiveyear average of 48 percent.

JOTER'S GUIDE TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS TO BE CONSIDERED ON NOVEMBER 7, 1995

Prepared by the Free Market Foundation . P.O. Box 740367 . Dallas, TX 75374-0367

NUMBER	SUMMARY	Arguments For	Arguments Against —
1	Authorizes the Texas Education Board to issue $300 million in bonds to finance student loans. The amendment would increase the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board's bonding authority from $660 million to $960 million.	Could provide state loans to finance students' education with a program that is self-supporting. Bonds must be repaid by students so that no revenue is taken from the General Revenue Fund. This amendment attempts to extend the life of a program that currently makes loans available to approximately 20,000 students a year.	If approved, this amendment would authorize the sale and issuance of general obligation bonds (G.O. bonds). These bonds add to the state debt, and voters are not informed of the state's total bond indebtedness when they approve them. Also, the state is ultimately responsible for G.O. bonds if a student defaults payment.
2	Authorizes the Texas Legislature to exempt The Grand Lodge of Texas, a charitable organization, from property taxes. Some of their 916 lodges in Texas have been declared historical landmarks, which caused property values and property taxes to increase dramatically.	Would free up funds from The Grand Lodge of Texas to spend on other state charities. According to the Senate Research Center, the Masonic Fraternity spends more than $80 million annually on charity in Texas.	Considering the fact that there are 916 lodges in Texas, local governments would lose approximately $1 million from property tax revenues. Also, this unfairly allows only one type of charitable organization to be exempt from property taxes.
3	Authorizes the Texas Agricultural Finance Authority to use $200 million of the $500 million in bonds already authorized as part of the state's Farm and Ranch Land Finance Program. The $200 million would be used to guarantee loans to purchase farm and ranch land.	Would allow the Texas Department of Agriculture to provide farmers and ranchers with a more flexible finance program without having to authorize state debt. The program would use money that has already been authorized for agricultural use.	Although the $500 million for the state's Farm and Ranch Land Finance Program was authorized in 1985, it was never implemented. This proposal could continue a dangerous trend: taking money saved and spending it to expand an already existing program. Also, the state is ultimately liable for G.O. bonds.
4	Authorizes Texas homeowners to refinance their homes to pay off a tax debt owed to the Internal Revenue Service or, in the case of a divorce, to purchase a spouse's equity in the home.	Would bring the Texas Constitution in line with federal law. Also expands homeowners' rights to allow borrowing against home equity. Texas is the only state that does not allow homeowners to use home equity as collateral.	Would remove the protections from a forced sale of a homestead and could result in people losing homes against their will.
5	Authorizes the Texas Land Board to issue an additional $500 million in general obligation bonds to finance low-interest home loans for qualified Texas veterans.	Could help those who have served their country and state in the armed forces to secure a loan for a house. Voters already have approved $1.5 billion in bonding authority for this program.	Only benefits one segment of the population at the expense of all taxpayers. If participants in the program default on their loans, the state is ultimately responsible for the debt.
6	Exempts the surviving spouse of a senior citizen (if the surviving spouse is at least 55 years old) from property tax on a residence homestead.	Provides tax relief from ad valorem taxes for the spouse of an elderly citizen.	Only benefits one segment of the population at the expense of all other citizens who will have to compensate for lost tax revenue.

NUMBER	SUMMARY	Arguments For	ARGUMENTS AGAINST
7	Reduces the total bonding authority already granted for expenses related to the construction of the Superconducting Super Collider from $500 million to $250 million.	Could help reduce the state debt, and therefore, enable the state to achieve a higher bond rating. The United State Congress has eliminated funding for the Super Collider, so there is not need for further financing from the state.	Could prevent bonds from being issued to promote physics research at universities and other laboratories. The money was allocated for scientific research and since the federal government stopped the program, not the state, the money remains available.
8	Establishes provisions within the Texas Constitution to abolish the office of constable in three counties: Mills, Reagan and Roberts County. The amendment also would transfer the duties of the constable in these three counties to the county sheriff.	Could help these small counties streamline their governments and increase savings.	Would remove authority from voters to elect county officials.
9	Removes sanctions which prohibit the investment of money from the Texas Growth Fund in businesses with ties to South Africa.	Would remove sanctions, implemented in 1987, no longer necessary to protest South African apartheid government, which is now democratic.	Since the South African government is still volatile, money invested there would be at risk.
10	Abolishes the state treasurer's office, effective Sept. 1, 1996.	Will downsize government by preventing the duplication of many functions performed by both the Treasurer and the Comptroller's offices.	Would give management control over state revenues to one office and eliminate the checks and balances system. Mergers among state agencies have not always resulted in the desired financial savings. They can result in larger, less responsive bureaucracies.
11	Authorizes a landowner whose property was receiving an agricul- tural valuation to retain that valuation if the use of the land is changed from agriculture to active wildlife management.	Would protect the rights of property owners and would help preserve wildlife and endangered species by providing economi- cally feasible ways to restore and protect natural habitats.	This amendment could give landowners unfair tax breaks. It eliminates the use of previously productive land.
12	Authorizes the Texas Legislature, by general law, to exempt income-producing personal property and mineral interests from property taxes, if the property has a value insufficient to recover the administrative costs incurred in collecting taxes.	Would create a more efficient tax-collection policy.	Could provide a tax loophole for some personal property.
13	Authorizes local governments, at their discretion, to exempt commercial shrimp and fishing boats from property taxes.	Will assist communities dependent on the fishing industry to promote the local economy.	Would assist a special interest group by reducing tax revenue at the expense of the entire population.
14	Would raise the constitutionally designated property-tax exemptions for disabled veterans and their spouses and children.	Would bring tax relief to those who have served this country in the armed forces and their families.	Would assist a special interest group by reducing tax revenues at the expese of the entire population.

The Free Market Foundation provides this voter's guide in an attempt to help citizens cast a more informed vote. It is not an attempt to pass or defeat any of the proposed amendments. Duplication is encouraged. Special thanks to the Texas Conservative Coalition for background information.

POWER POINTS OFFICIAL RULES

Object of the game is to amass as many of the 136 possible points as you can. Simply review the week's schedule of games, listed on entry form, and decide which game you are surest of picking a winner point line. If that team wins its game that week, you win 16 points. Write the name of your second-surest vinner on the 15-point line, and so on down to the 1point line, which game you figure to be a toss-up. Next, fill in Tiebreaker 1, the total points scored by both teams in the week's Cowboys or Oilers game. If this step fails to produce a winner, the judges will apply Tiebreaker 2, total offensive yardage from scrimmage in this game. If a winner still doesn't emerge, a drawing will be held among those contestants still tied. Decisions of the judges are final. The weekly winner of the contest will receive $1,000.

No points are awarded on tie games or in case any game is not played for any reason during its scheduled week. 5. Entering POWER POINTS constitutes permission by contestant for his or her name and photograph to be used for news and reasonable promotional purposes at no charge.

Employees of this newspaper and their imme diate families are ineligible to participate No purchase necessary. Facsimile game entry forms will be accepted and are available at all outlets of participating co-sponsors. Enter contest by dropping entry form into POWER POINTS container at stroyed prior to grading. 11. Contestants must have reached the age of eight (8) years by the Sunday of any week's play.

MHS boosters reward spirit with trophy

The Muleshoe Athletic Booster Club invites all local businesses to participate in the support of our Muleshoe athletes.

In recent weeks, various business owners have shown their support by decorating their businesses, putting up signs, balloons, streamers, etc.

The Muleshoe Community Spirit Trophy is awarded each week to the best decorated business. A "traveling trophy" is displayed at the winning business for a week, and the winner's picture is published in the Muleshoe Journal.

At the end of the football season, an overall winner will be selected and that business' name will be engraved on the trophy. The business will also get to keep the trophy until next football season.

Recent winners of the trophy have been Dr. Tom Bond and Leal's Restaurant (twice). - Muleshoe C of C

Letter to the Editor

Reader disagrees with change in school song

Dear Editor:

I read with great dismay and concern Martha Frost's editorial and resounding support concerning the abandonment of the Watson Junior High School song, along with disregard for tradition and history, in the name of gender and modernization worries.

If all that was of concern was the "sexist" term of man or men, a very simple change to the word students or the like would have sufficed. This would have been a quiet, simple and effective solution for the alleged gender bias.

As I read the bulk of the article, it became clear there was an attempt to justify the overblown actions of students with administration and some teachers guiding the students into just saying "no" to the school song. Who really said "no," the adults or the students?

After teaching for several years at the junior high and high school levels, I really find it hard to believe that the students found the song "sexist." I would venture to say less than 50 percent of the students, male or female, could sing the school song, much less care what the words were.

It is also hard to believe that kids of this age would even care about such things if they were not being guided in that direction by adults with some agenda of their own.

I had two daughters who attended Watson Jr. High. I can not remember one time, in the six combined years they were enrolled, that the subject of the word man in the school song came up.

Webster's Seventh Collegiate Dictionary lists more than 10 definitions of man. All but one definition, which is "an adult male human," refer to the word man as a representation for the whole of the human race, of which I think women and men are both members.

The term, man, does include all students. Neither Webster's nor the American College Dictionary lists the definition of man as "a male gender type" first; it is listed third or fourth, respectively. Is it more effort to teach the students the true definitions than it is to get them to take action on incomplete and biased information, interpretations of definitions, or political correctness?

I have yet to grasp the need or relevance of the "tomboy" and "sissy" refer-

How To Get Everything That You Deserve

The large-lettered headline in and discovered that, according the full-page ad screamed from the last page of a recent edition of Newsweek, How To Get All The Money And Recognition You Deserve! I suppose the ad worked because it certainly caught my eye. My initial reactions were these:

Focus Faith Curtis

Shelburne

First (sorry, I can't help it-I'm an English major/editorial sort), I quarreled somewhat with their capitalization. (By the way, "quarrelled" is okay, too. Shoveled/shovelled. Signaled/signalled. Counseled/counselled. All okay. But compeled is wrong. Go figure.)

Second, I noticed immediately the somewhat smaller, but still large, letters indicating that their product has something to do with a "memory system." Other computer buffs will understand when I say that I immediately concluded that this was some computer company hawking RAM (random access memory) chips or some RAMexpanding program. Wrong to the ad, the common denominator of all the very highest achievers in business is "incredibly powerful memory."

Third, I read the finer print

Rats! So much for fame, fortune, and Fortune 500. With some dollars, I can fix my personal computer, but if business or professional success is absolutely dependent upon my personal memory, I'm a gnat's eyelash away from pauperdom.

Finally, it occurred to me that though a full-page ad in Newsweek is probably pretty pricey, I don't think it's a fraction as precious as the ad God took out in John 3:16: "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life.'

Seems pretty clear to me that God wants us to know that His Son went to a cross to be absolutely sure we don't have to get what we all deserve. Now that's a great promise! Pretty precious!

The company's probably partly right. Memory's worth something. They claim all the really successful business folks have great memories.

Oops. Did I already say that? Sorry. I, uh, didn't remember.

Curtis Shelburne is minister of the 16th & Avenue D Church of Christ in Muleshoe.

Precious

No price is too high to pay to protect the eyesight of ourselves and our children. Good eyesight is an absolute necessity in the earning of our livelihood, in the school work of our children, and in the enjoyment of all of life.

But there is another type of sight which in these times is often neglected - spiritual sight. We and our children need to be established and grounded in the love of God and His commandments, and to rely on Him. We need to meet His requirement of loving our neighbors as ourselves, thus making a better home life, community life and a better world. Psalms 34:8 reads, "O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in Him." Attend the church of your choice

The TOPS Pledge was recited and the fellowship song was sung. James led the group in prayer.

Loretta Lloyd, weight recorder, called the roll with 22 members answering with the amount they had lost or gained.

Minutes were read by Aurora Mata, secretary, and were approved as read.

Best loser for the week was Ruth Clements. First runnerup was Evelene Harris and Aurora Mata and Rose Sain were second runners-up.

Co-program director, passed out monograph exchange charts to each members present so that for a week they each can keep track of a balanced meal plan.

Group had a sing-along and the meeting was adjourned with the good night song.

ence. In whose mind or whose definition is it that interprets "tomboy" as acceptable and "sissy" as an insult?

I do believe the words people use have an impact on a person, male or female. Teaching girls that they are being excluded from the body of mankind by the use of the term man because the word does not meet someone's own personal agenda is wrong and condescending to individual intelligence.

The article goes on to say that there were other reasons beside gender bias indicating the song needed to be changed or replaced.

Ms. Frost passes judgment that "faithfulness" is archaic and a term most junior high students would not use to describe the loyalty to their school. If she is taken as correct, let's not teach our students alternative words and meanings that are considered or arbitrarily judged outdated and no longer used in common practice.

Applying this narrow and unfortunate attitude could save immense amounts of time by eliminating teaching of outdated materials. We can stop teaching Shakespeare, Plato, or reading the Bible. None of these are written in modern or common language forms.

The article goes rambling on about eternity and how there are junior highs in Heaven or the other place. Surely a person can know that this reference to eternity is an attempt to portray the loyalty to one's school as long as you are alive. I am a graduate of my home town high school, and I still take pride in my attendance there. I still want to see my school team win, U.I.L. academic teams come out on top, or see or hear anything about my school. Did anyone ever consider their junior high school to be in Heaven or the other place?

The old song is then degraded in the article for having words out of normal sequence. This complaint would do away with much of music and about half of all poetry. I guess the opinion of Ms. Frost is that our students just are not "with it" enough to understand a couple of words out of order. These students are sure in for a rude and sudden awakening the first time they read a contract, an insurance policy or serious literature.

Next in line for targeting is the phrase about standing in support of Watson Jr. High "in our junior high way." No, this is not less important than the "high school way" or the "senior citizen way" as intimated by Ms. Frost. It is the Watson Jr. High way, and hopefully we are teaching our students lessons and life skills in our jr. high that will make the Watson Jr. High way the outstanding way and the example for others rather than making it some insignificant political item to pit it against some other age group's way.

"Another downside of the song is its negativity" says Ms. Frost. She cites the example "Through the darkness we'll be faithful" and states the new song is more positive by telling the students they must "conquer" something. Students should be taught there is some darkness (trouble) in life and prepare them for it, not give them another crutch or excuse just because it is seemingly a more politically correct way of dealing with their problems verbally.

There is one positive note in all this. Ms. Frost does not express a want to have our school colors changed, although they are also a tradition and have been around for a while. You know though, while we're changing, black is somewhat dark, sinister, and not very cheery like pink, turquoise, or Barney purple...Well maybe not.

So now we are busting with pride that we are not going to ask men to take action. We are going to "Rise" asking the "NON-GENDER SPECIFIC UN-DERSTOOD SUBJECT" (You) to stride to victory.

A thank you to the eternal jr. high place, Heaven, previously referred to, that my daughters were gone before they became a "NON-GENDER SPECIFIC UN-DERSTOOD SUBJECT"

(You). I would much rather have them be the self-assured, self-confident, and informed young women (can I say women without offending someone?) that do not have to go around tearing down traditions and history to cement their place in society and elevate their own poor self image.

I believe our students have better things to do than get involved in Don Quixote campaigns fighting and flailing at windmill causes. Oh, is Don Quixote as an example too archaic or abstract for our students to understand? I don't think so if given the chance.

All of this change for the sake of change doesn't sound like a winner to me! Bobby Turner
