

Truman Asks Illini To Stop Big Business

Says American Consumer Being Nailed To Wall

CARBONDALE, Ill., Sept. 30. (AP)—President Truman asked Illinois workers today for Democratic votes to stop "big business" Republicans from continuing to "nail the American consumer to the wall with spikes of greed."

He offered them a choice between "another era of fear, under the Republican reactionaries" and "another era of hope with liberal democracy."

Mr. Truman prepared his remarks for delivery in the Southern Illinois University McClelland Stadium.

The President assailed the Republican-controlled 80th Congress as "the puppet" of big business and the real estate, power and grain speculators' lobbies and rapped its passage of the "reactionary Taft-Hartley Act" over his veto.

"Instead of improving the Wagner Act as I recommended," Mr. Truman declared, "they cut and hacked away at the workers' newly-won rights. The Taft-Hartley Act is the way backward, not the way forward. That's the Republican way."

"The big business Republicans have set an economic trap for the American consumer. They have baited the trap with glib assurances that everything will be all right if you just let nature take care of everything, and when they say nature, they mean themselves."

Dewey May Stress Foreign Policy Tonight

EN ROUTE WITH DEWEY TO SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 30. (AP)—A bi-partisan foreign policy anchored to "peace with honor" is expected to be Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's answer to the critical world situation.

Traveling toward Salt Lake City and his first major foreign policy statement of the campaign tonight, the republican presidential nominee had up-to-date information on the Berlin blockade crisis.

It came in a communication from John Foster Dulles, his foreign affairs adviser in Paris, before the candidate's train left Great Falls, Mont., last night.

Dewey's Salt Lake City speech, to be broadcast from 8:30 to 9 o'clock, central standard time, was not yet complete. But the New York governor gave some advance indication of his ideas in talks in Montana yesterday.

In Great Falls the Republican nominee told a crowd of 5,000 persons that "dark clouds of international misunderstandings" hang over the Paris meeting of the United Nations.

Asserting that the American people "are united," he said that "to talk in states must not misunderstand what is happening" in this country's presidential campaign.

In an indirect reference to President Truman, Dewey said: "They mustn't assume that because of a person in a position of high importance in the nation is going around preaching disunity, that we are in fact divided."

Red Soldiers Wound Two

BERLIN, Sept. 30. (AP)—Russia soldiers who made a foray into the U. S. sector of the city this evening shot and wounded two German civilians, American military police reported.

Particulars of the incident were not immediately available. U. S. authorities said American military police had intervened and that the incident is still under investigation.

Preliminary accounts said there were no American casualties.

Military police headquarters said its reports were that some armed Russians had entered the U. S.-occupied Borough of Lichtenrade. When an American patrol rushed up to investigate, these reports said, one of the Russians began to run and discharged his rifle, wounding the two Germans.

Theodore Roosevelt's Widow Dies At Home

OSTON BAY, N. Y., Sept. 30. (AP)—Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, 87, widow of the President, died today at her home, Sagamore Hill.

Mrs. Roosevelt had been in ill health for some time. A native of Norwich, Conn., she married Theodore Roosevelt in 1886.

U. N. Heads To Take Up Berlin On Monday

PARIS, Sept. 30. —The United Nations Security Council on Monday takes up the most explosive issue of its three-year history — the western charge that Russia threatens the peace of the world by her blockade of Berlin.

The council announced today that Chief U. S. Delegate Warren R. Austin will be in the chair as the October president when the session opens at 3 p.m. (8 a.m., CST.) However, the U. S. delegation said it expects Austin will step down when the case comes up and surrender the chairmanship to Argentina, next in line for it.

If the Russians try to bar the Berlin case from the agenda, Austin is reported planning to remain as chairman until the procedural battle is over. Seven votes are required to approve admission of an item, and the big-power veto does not apply.

The council's announcement came shortly after the east-west dispute on atomic controls went before the 58-nation political committee of the assembly. Austin, in a speech to the committee, reaffirmed United States' readiness to submit its atomic energy production to international control.

Austin said it was Russia's fault that international control of atomic weapons never came into being. He urged big-power co-operation on the atom and reasserted American support of the much debated Baruch plan for controls.

The American people, Austin declared, are willing to subordinate their plans and the future possibilities of atomic energy to international control because "they want peace."

But, he went on: "Fear has supplanted hope because the Soviet Union has insisted on placing its sovereignty athwart security for all."

"Our offer still stands," Austin said. "The atomic issue came up for debate on a Canadian demand that a workable control system be set up."

The important political committee of the UN General Assembly grappled with the atom as the Security Council prepared to face its greatest test.

Iran is a recognized strategic spot. It was the scene of a mis-fired Russian adventure of two years ago. Soviet occupation troops finally were pulled out of Iran's Azerbaijan province under pressure from the United Nations Security Council in a crisis somewhat similar to the present Berlin dispute.

One Moscow broadcast this week charged the Iranian government with failing to carry out an amnesty order freeing pro-Soviet leaders rounded up after the Russian troops withdrew. Another claimed that Iran is about to enter an Arab bloc which "will serve the interests of the Anglo-American monopolists of the Middle East." A third reported that danger of "famine" is increasing in Iran.

The pause in the further expansion of television broadcasting at this time finds a total of 123 stations authorized, of which 37 are actually on the air. The remainder hold construction permits and are in various stages of development.

FCC Chairman Wayne Coy told a news conference the suspension of further action on television applications will last "possibly six months."

During that period, Coy said, the commission will make a survey of results obtained to date, and consider revision of the existing engineering standards for television operations.

The chairman emphasized that any revision of operating standards will not affect the usefulness of any television set now on the market or in the hands of the public.

In response to a question, he said the prospective set-buyer would go ahead with a purchase with confidence.

Baby Found Dead Beneath Mother

READING, Pa., Sept. 30. (AP)—Four-week-old Dolores Heiga Lake was found dead beneath her mother, Mrs. Alfred Lake, Jr., who had fainted while holding the child, police reported.

Police said Mrs. Lake was found lying on the floor of her apartment at nearby Lenhartsville, Pa., yesterday by her sister-in-law, Dorothy Lake.

Propaganda Guns Of Reds Hammer Iran

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. (AP)—Moscow's propaganda guns are hammering so hard at Iran that American diplomatic authorities are wondering whether Russia is considering a new move in that part of the world.

Four Moscow radio broadcasts assailing the Iranian Government and criticizing conditions in the oil-rich Middle Eastern land were recorded in a single day this week by U. S. Government monitors. A secret "Azerbaijani democratic staff" joined in the anvil chorus with two additional verbal attacks.

The campaign has been going on for months, but it appears now to be increasing in intensity. In Iran itself there have been other signs of livelier Soviet interest. Hence the official speculation that Russia may try pressure in that area to divert attention from the Berlin crisis.

Red Bloc Solid At Bank Meet

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. —Despite Marshal Tito's personal troubles with Moscow, Yugoslavia is keeping a united front with the "faithful" Soviet satellites in the annual world bank and monetary fund meetings here.

The Yugoslav delegate is standing solidly with the Polish and Czech members on economic matters here just as his counterpart at the United Nations in Paris is joining with the Russians, Poles and Czechs on political matters.

Russia never has joined the bank or fund, but the other three nations in the past have pooled their votes to fill one of the 14 executive director posts. They were expected to do it again at director elections today.

Their solidarity was demonstrated for the second day running yesterday when they teamed in criticizing the bank's praise of the U. S. - financed Marshall Plan, along with its report that "political considerations" had ruled out loans to the Soviet satellite so far.

However, the main difference between the Eastern European bloc's performance in the meetings here and at Paris was pointed up by Bank President John J. McCloy. He stressed to reporters that their criticism was "not rasping—it was in good temper."

Wallace Doesn't Bother To Duck Eggs, Tomatoe Chunked At Him In Houston

HOUSTON, Sept. 30. (AP)—Henry Wallace didn't bother to duck as four eggs and two tomatoes crashed around him last night. Grinning through the uproar, he went on to deliver a speech before a mixed white-and-Negro audience estimated at 3,500.

The man who threw all—or nearly all—of the missiles said he is a merchant seaman from Kulpmont, Pa., named John J. Staskiel. He didn't hit Wallace once. Police took him outside and let him go.

Meanwhile, inside Houston's city auditorium, Wallace, Progressive Party candidate for President, was slashing away at racial segregation, Texas political leaders, big business, and the Truman administration.

Police estimated the size of the crowd. Contrary to Texas custom, whites and Negroes sat together. They were perhaps equal in number.

The people cheered Wallace and cheered Paul Robeson, the Negro singer. There was a booning section, too. Some people yelled things like "go back to Russia."

Today Wallace flies to El Paso. Tomorrow, Los Angeles. When Wallace was introduced the

Wants Body To Set Aside Black Ruling

By the Associated Press

Dan Moody, attorney for Coke Stevenson, said at Austin today that Stevenson would appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court in his hot fight against Lyndon Johnson for Democratic nomination to the U. S. Senate.

Moody, a former Texas governor, said Stevenson intends to file a motion in the U. S. Supreme Court asking that an unfavorable order by Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black be set aside.

Black last Tuesday stayed in injunction issued by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson which had prevented the name of Johnson from going on the general election ballot as the Democratic Party nominee. The effect of Black's ruling was to allow Johnson's name to go on the ballot and to halt an investigation of alleged vote fraud which Judge Davidson had launched in three South Texas counties, Duval, Jim Wells and Zapata.

Commenting on Black's ruling, Judge Davidson said in Dallas today: "The U. S. Supreme Court has altered my opinion, but it hasn't changed my mind."

Stevenson's appeal would be to the full supreme court. It meets next Monday.

Moody made his statement during an action before the Supreme Court of Texas. Attorneys for Johnson had asked the state court for permission to file a mandamus suit compelling the secretary of state to certify Johnson's name as the Democratic nominee.

But yesterday the office of Paul Brown, the secretary of state, sent out telegrams to all county judges of Texas, certifying Johnson as the nominee and ordering that his name be placed as such on the general election ballot in November.

Today Johnson's attorneys, in recognition of Brown's action, asked the State Supreme Court to "delay" action on their application.

Johnson won two smashing victories yesterday. His name was certified and the South Texas election investigation was called off.

Davidson, a little grey-haired jurist, commenting today said: "There is nothing further I can do in the case."

Davidson said the two federal commissioners he appointed to investigate voting in Jim Wells, Zapata and Duval Counties will report their findings to him Saturday.

Asked what, if anything, he could do about the findings, the jurist said: "Nothing."

Television Expansion Suspended By FCC

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission today announced that it is temporarily suspending approval of any new television stations in order to "polish" the service already authorized.

The action, effective immediately, freezes 302 pending applications for new video stations.

The pause in the further expansion of television broadcasting at this time finds a total of 123 stations authorized, of which 37 are actually on the air. The remainder hold construction permits and are in various stages of development.

Fort Worth Video On Air

FORT WORTH, Sept. 30. (AP)—Television, in a 50-mile area around Fort Worth, is no longer something folks just speculate about, it's on the air.

The first program of WBAP-TV, Texas' Pioneer Television Station, was produced last night.

Amon Carter, president of the Star-Telegram Co., Harold Hough, director of the company's television and radio stations, and George Cranston, station manager, inaugurated WBAP-TV.

A salute from the National Broadcasting Company was telecast, and news reels, commercials, and a full length film were shown.

WBAP-TV, 25th television station to go on the air, is the first to operate east of Los Angeles and south of St. Louis.

Hough said the radio and television plant associated with the Star-Telegram represents an investment of $1,400,000. Expenditure of about $2 million is planned before the plant is completed, he said.

Fort Worth test telecasts were reported well received from as far away as Henderson 155 air miles away, where a man rigged up an aerial on a water tower.

Appeals Court Decision Upholds Contest Of Vote

EASTLAND, Sept. 30. (AP)—The 11th Court of Civil Appeals held today in favor of County Judge A. E. Wilson, who contested the Democratic nomination of F. A. Loudermilk for the position in the Aug. 28 runoff primary.

The court upheld a decision by District Judge R. B. Cross of Gatesville throwing out 1,727 ballots and reversing the outcome of the race.

If finally upheld, invalidation of the ballots would add 466 votes to Lyndon B. Johnson's slim lead over Coke R. Stevenson in the Democratic senatorial race.

Wilson charged irregularities in the election. One charge was that Mrs. Hugh Y. Smith, a precinct judge, had delegated her authority to William J. Brewer.

MARSHAL MONTGOMERY . . . to greater field

Montgomery Named To Head Europe Forces

LONDON, Sept. 30. (AP)—The British cabinet today approved the selection of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery as head of a joint armed force of the five-power Brussels alliance.

A government source said the selection of Montgomery, chief of the British imperial general staff, will be announced soon in Paris by the five powers — Britain, France, the Netherlands, Luxembourg and Belgium. The informant said the choice was made by the defense ministers of the five countries at Paris early this week.

The five nations in the alliance at Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

The choice was reported to have been made during talks among the defense ministers of the five countries in Paris this week.

Montgomery presumably will resign as commander of Britain's army.

London newspapers earlier had predicted Montgomery would resign to take over the Western military command.

They said also that Gen. Alphonse Juin, French commander-in-chief in North Africa, will hold the five-power land command; British Fleet Adm. Lord Cunningham would lead the joint naval units and Royal Air Force Marshal Lord Tedder would be chief of the air forces.

Draft Board Classifies 22 In I-A Bracket

Thirty-nine registrants were classified, 22 of them I-A (available for service) at a meeting of the Tri-County Selective Service board Wednesday.

All those classified were 25-year-olds. Two others were put in the I-A class but were deferred temporarily due to their status as students. Here for the board session were T. A. Thigpen, Big Spring, chairman, and C. C. Hamilton, Lorraine. The Martin county member has not yet been named.

Already the board is target for a volley of communications citing why a particular registrant should not be classified I-A. Some have had physicians write their recollections of infirmities, but the most impressive one to date was the registrant who had nine children, worked 98 hours to earn $25 a week. Board members wondered if they might not do him a favor by putting him in I-A.

Those classified as I-A (available for service) were Alex Banks, Manuel Barrero, Francisco G. Martinez, Santiago M. Morales, Felix E. Saigado, Raul A. Torres, Francisco B. Andrade, William C. Kelsay, Prentiss Jones, Augustin Ayala, S. J. Brown, Edmond M. Herring, Max V. Caswell, Ascencion M. Ballas, Ascencion Badillo, Franco Peralas, Felipe R. Munoz, Luther Reyes, Pablo A. Torres, Edmund L. Wise, William H. Tryon, Carl C. Hamilton. Those with I-A (postponed, student, deferred) were William Scott, and Lawrence M. Dawson.

Other classifications were: 2-C (agricultural) William J. Watkins, Glaude H. Roberts, Thurston F. Taylor, Robert W. McAnnally, Genaro Moreno, James W. Winters; 3-A (dependents), Charlie D. Stokes; 4-C (alien) Socorro M. Luna; 4-F (physical disability) Wayne G. Plumlee, Francisco G. Salazar, Donald K. Schleiffarth, Donald H. Burrus, Arnauo C. Rodriguez, Willis D. Carter.

KASENKINA STORY

Rise Of Stalin And Five Year Plan Bring New Reign Of Terror To People

(This is the fifth installment of Mrs. Oksana Kasenkina's own story. In it, she tells of the methods used by the Red dictatorship to return school teachers to Communist ideology. She also shows how they were mobilized into shock brigades to conduct propaganda favoring the collectivization of the farms and take of the peasants and herds.)

By OKSANA S. KASENKINA Edited by Isaac Don Levine

A violent change came into our lives following the rise of Stalin to supreme power in 1928, the launching of the first Five-Year Plan, and the drive to collectivize the peasantry with fire and iron. It was as if a second revolution had struck us all. Only distant rumblings of the struggle for power in the Kremlin between Stalin and Trotsky and other factions, after the death of Lenin, reached us.

The era of the NEP—Lenin's New Economic Policy—was abruptly ended by Stalin. We had regarded our lot as hard and oppressive during that period, but we were soon to look back upon it as the years of relative safety and ease.

In the twenties there had been considerable recovery from the ravages of the revolution. Houses were put in repair, farm stock was replenished, and the limited private trade permitted under the NEP filled the markets with goods. Even if new clothes were scarce, the second-hand peddlers had a variety of garments for sale. My mother owned two Singer sewing machines, one of which was an in- machine, and for years our entire family was clothed by remodeling old clothes. A man's suit or top-coat would be converted into a boy's suit, then into a skirt or jacket, then into part of a quilt or bedspread. Every piece of cloth was used over and over again until it completely disintegrated.

With the coming of Stalin's plan of industrialization campaign, the acute scarcities in everyday goods were upon us again. Rigid rationing was introduced, and if one was fortunate enough to have a coupon for three years of material or for a pound of sugar in a government store, the purchaser would be forced to buy some other item which was usually unwanted, but of which there was a surplus in the store. In this manner we had to spend extra money from our meager earnings on such articles as phonograph records when we had no phonograph, or lampshades when we had no need of them.

At the same time, with the arrival of planning, the era of pandemonium in the schools was ended. My husband and I, together with all other teachers, had to go through another period of retraining. This time we were enrolled in the Lugansk Institute, a teachers' college in Czarist days, where we took special courses for four years. These courses, with the exception of our attendance for two months in the summer and for periodic oral examination, were conducted by correspondence. Although my husband was an instructor in physics and mathematics and I in natural science, our political re-education in harmony with Stalin's policies was compulsory.

The American teacher and wide- awake parent will be interested in the methods which we Soviet teachers were forced to pursue. During the first decade of Soviet rule, the educational system was based on the so-called "complex" method. It was a grotesque distortion of the American progressive idea of relating schooling to modern life, but under Russian conditions it was putting the cart before the horse. Marks and examinations were regarded as capitalist inventions.

In the teaching of botany, for instance, I had to experiment with food plants and flowers, with medicinal herbs and agricultural pests, so as to enable the students to carry the useful knowledge outside the school, to help their parents and the community. In theory, this might be useful in a highly developed civilization. In practice, under the primitive Russian way of life, it was a spree for the children and an ordeal for the teachers.

By the time my husband graduated from the Lugansk Institute in 1931—I got my diploma one year later—the "complex" method had been consigned to the scrapheap by Stalin's orders. Discipline was restored in the schoolroom. Instead of serving all the subjects in one educational stew, we returned to the time-honored system of teaching basic subjects separately. Stalin's new Commissar of Education for Soviet Russia, Bubnov, had come from the Red Army where he had established the propaganda and educational networks.

Stalin, however, did not abandon Lenin's maxim that education under the Soviets is a weapon in the hands of the Soviet state. Stalin improves upon it and made it our watchword that knowledge of the laws governing the proletarian revolution, the victory of Communism, must be regarded as a compulsory branch of science.

All this went hand-in-hand with the Five-Year Plan which, in turn, was linked with the drive to deprive the peasants of their private holdings and to force them into the kolkhoz system—collective farms. The vast majority of the peasants passively, and some actively, resisted the Communist campaign of expropriation and regimentation.

We teachers were ordered into shock brigades and mobilized to conduct propaganda in the villages in favor of collectivization. On paper this was to be accomplished by persuasion and education, on a voluntary basis. But the peasants just could not see the benefits of surrendering their strips of land and the produce of their own toll to state-managed farms run by Communist commissars.

I remember how sullen they were when we addressed them in the villages. We had been given explicit instructions to carry out. Our assignments were watched over by party officials. Yet when we painted to the peasants the made-to-order picture of the glowing future, in which mechanized agriculture would yield plenty for all, the peasants were more than skeptical.

"The more you work, the more you produce," one of them spoke up to me, "so don't don't hand us that fable!" The tillers of the soil just would not believe that there were any short-cuts to the abundant life.

The government soon had to resort to violence. The secret police, reinforced by special military units, was put in charge of grain collection, as the peasants hid their crops. The Soviet government, sorely in need of export goods to buy machinery abroad, thus denounced the countryside of its produce. While flamboyant posters in schools and on the streets proclaimed the approaching victory of socialism, the struggle for bread was once more felt in every home.

A new tide of terror began to grip the land, threatening the existence of every hard-working farmer, including the family of my father-in-law, Nikita Kasenkina. Copyright 1948 King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.

Pool Of Two Million Men Ready For Army

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. (AP) — A pool of more than 2 million young men is now available for drafting into the manpower-shy army.

That's the number of non-veteran, single men between 18 and 25 who signed up for the draft between Aug. 30 and Sept. 18. Selective Service headquarters said the registration of all men 18 through 25 totalled 8,584,963, but the big majority of those are ineligible. The total was about 1 million less than original estimates. While Selective Service said it believes few draft-age men ducked registration, the Federal Bureau of Investigation said it is checking "quite a few" cases of possible draft-dodging.

Greek Army Drives Guerrillas Back

ATHENS, Sept. 30. (AP) — The Greek army drove back a band of guerrillas attempting to raid and burn a village in stepped up sabotage attacks.

A communique said the Communist rebels were driven back from Nigrita, about 35 miles northeast of Salonika. Forty-three rebels were killed and six captured, while the loyalist side lost six soldiers and three civilians killed.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30. (AP) — The National Congress of Parents and Teachers today announced its 1949 convention will meet May 16 through 18 in St. Louis.

About 2,000 delegates and visitors are expected to attend. The congress' board of managers selected Long Beach, Calif., for the 1950 convention, the dates to be chosen later.

Farmers' Real Income Drops

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30. (AP) — Farmers' "real income" fell in 1947 for the first time since before World War II, an Agriculture Department specialist says.

The drop occurred despite record farm earnings last year. The report is made by Norman J. Wall of the department's bureau of agricultural economics. In an article on farmers' finances, he says:

"The year 1947 may mark an important turning point in the farmers' financial well-being. For the first time since before the war, farmers' real income decreased. "Since the beginning of 1948, prices paid by farmers have continued to increase more rapidly than prices received."

Wednesday Night Week Of Prayer Program Features Baptist Youth

First Baptist young people were in charge of the regular prayer meeting service held at the church Wednesday night under the sponsorship of the W.M.U. as a part of the current week of prayer program which will be completed Friday. Main topic of the evening was "Caution! Winding Roads Ahead." Mrs. B. T. Smith was the program director.

After the singing of two hymns, "To The Work" and "Old Road," Ruth Hobbs read the scripture selection, Luke 24:13-16 and 28-32. Phil Grozier gave a meditation entitled "The Road to Emmaus," which was followed with a discussion of the topic, "The Rural Road," by Martha Hobbs. "All Weather Roads and the Cooperative Program" was the subject chosen by Melba Preston. H. C. Mobley gave a presentation of the poem, "The House By The Side Of The Road." "Other Road Builders Have Paved The Way, Whither Have You Made A Road Today," was the title of a dialogue by Jean Meador. Wayne Williams led the closing prayer. During the week, the general theme has been "The Rehabilitation of Country Churches." Tuesday afternoon, the second session of the prayer series was held. After the opening hymn, "Road Builders," Mrs. L. M. Gary, Jr. read the scripture Acts 8:26-39, and discussed the topic "On A Desert Road." Mrs. Eddie Savage presented the topic, "The Road to Friendship." Mrs. Merrill Creighton chose the theme, "From Europe to America." "People Short of Their Goal" was the subject of Mrs. Bledsoe O'Brien. Mrs. W. J. Withers spoke on the topic, "Many Side Roads." Prayers were led by Mrs. Adams and Mrs. R. D. Ulrey.

Rhee McDonald-Brice Webb Marry Thursday, Tea And Breakfast Given

WINTERS, Sept. 30 (Spl)— Announcement of the engagement and approaching marriage of Rhee McDonald, daughter of Mrs. Minnie McDonald, and Brice Webb of Colorado City, was made at a breakfast in the home of the bride-elect's mother recently.

"Rhee and Brice, September 30." Plate favors were individual coverings of daisies and individual table centerpieces were of yellow daisies.

The lace-laid dining table was centered with an arrangement of yellow and white daisies. Other decorations consisted of white gladioli. Those attending were Mrs. Walker Morgan, Mrs. J. M. Chastain, Mrs. Fred Gray, Mrs. Jimmy Lankford of San Angelo, Mrs. Fred Poe, Mrs. Roy Young, Mrs. Gattis Neely and Mrs. Lloyd Baggett.

Miss McDonald is a graduate of the local schools and of the Shanon school of nursing in San Angelo. She did private duty nursing there from 1941 to 1947 when she became superintendent of Cowper Sanders hospital in Big Spring.

Guests for the breakfast were seated at quartet tables with place marks of handpainted cards fashioned as daisies, inscribed with

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

Many people have reported amazing results with this home recipe. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. Just go to your drug store and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcostrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic, from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back.

Blind Probate Judge Seeks High Office

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 30. (U)—A 41-year-old blind probate judge has been chosen by Rhode Island Democrats as their candidate for attorney-general.

William E. Powers won the nomination by a margin of better than 30 to 1 in yesterday's primary.

But politics are nothing new to Powers—a veteran of nine years in the state legislature.

And he brushes aside any sympathy on his blindness—an affliction since high school days when a wire he was attaching to a storage battery flew off while he was repairing a radio.

Powers went on to Boston University law school and graduated with honors.

His philosophy: "Don't feel sorry for us blind. Most of us are too busy with thoughts inside us to think about those things we aren't having."

New Dealer Slate Picked

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 30. (U)—Rhode Island Democrats, who boast they made gains in face of the nation-wide Republican trend two years ago, have picked a slate of New Dealers to lead them in this fall's election.

U. S. Sen. Theodore Francis Green and "Little Rhody's" two congressman—Aime J. Forand and John E. Fogarty—won renomination in yesterday's Democratic primary.

The 81-year-old Green was unopposed; Forand and Fogarty won by better than 20 to 1 margins.

Gov. John Pastore stepped into top spot on the Democratic state ticket without opposition. Pastore, who succeeded to the governorship when Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath resigned to become solicitor general and later senator, is seeking his second full term.

About 33 per cent of Rhode Island's Democratic voters—based on the 1946 Returns—turned out for the primary as compared with 53 per cent the Republicans mustered in their primary nine days ago.

While the democrats had better weather, there were fewer contests to attract the voters in the primaries—the first in this state's history.

Man Is Executed SHANGHAI, Sept. 30. (U)—Wang Hsia-Oh, former employe of the American owned Shanghai Power Co. was executed today for what was described officially as a "communist inspired" plot to sabotage the plant.

Half-Dozen Of 23 Unbeaten Prep 11's Foresee Trouble

AA Teams Lead City Brigades

Three games stand out in Texas schoolboy football this weekend, one of them figuring in the feud between the City and Class AA conferences.

A half-dozen of the 23 undefeated, untied teams in the state can see storm signals ahead. It is pretty certain that the list will be trimmed below 20 before the firing starts Saturday night.

There are 51 games in the two conferences; 30 of them inter-conference affairs. Five districts — four in Class AA — will have conference games.

To date this season Class AA is running ahead of the City Conference in the rivalry. Class AA teams have won 19 games against 15 for City Conference teams. There have been four ties.

The major game sends Jeff Davis (Houston) to Arlington Heights (Fort Worth). It is a City Conference intra-conference tilt matching undefeated and untied elevens.

Adamson (Dallas) of the City Conference plays at Class AA Marshall and Orange and Baytown get together in an intra-Class AA squabble. These games also send unbeaten teams against each other although Marshall and Baytown have been tied.

Three conference games are on the schedule in the San Antonio district of the City Conference — Champion Brackenridge meeting Lanier, Alamo Heights clashing with Burbank and Harlandale taking on San Antonio Tech. Odessa and Big Spring start the conference race in District 3 of Class AA. Stephenville and Claco get together in the District 7 campaign.

There are three inter-sectional games on this week's schedule with Forest of Dallas playing Poly of Mexico City at Dallas, Sam Houston (Houston) going to Lake Charles, La., and Bowie (El Paso) engaging Mesa, Ariz. Texas thus far this season has won five, lost two and tied one in inter-sectional play.

Moody Traded By Rebel Nine

Joe (L'I Abner) Moody, star rightfielder for the Odessa baseball Oilers last year, has been traded to the Louisville Colonels of the American Association by the Dallas Rebels.

Moody who hit .270 for the Oilers last season, was on loan to Odessa from Dallas.

Moody's batting average belies his value to the Oilers. He drove in 107 runs and clouted 24 homers for the second-place club.

Bob Ramsey, who spent last season with Lubbock, was traded to Louisville by Dallas along with Moody and Jerry Witte and L. D. Meyer, first baseman and second sacker, respectively. The Dallas club also gave up $10,000 in the deal.

Texas Christian is well equipped with football lettermen. Twenty-four of last season's 36 letter winners have returned plus three more from previous teams.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

Gordon (Moe) Madison, who would have had another season of high school athletic eligibility had not the interscholastic league thrown him a curve ball, is home, favoring a game leg.

Madison, a jarring back, was injured while performing for Eastern New Mexico college. Tiny Reid's old school, against Panhandle A&M last weekend. Reports from Portales say the Aggies were unnecessarily rough in that one. ENMC won, however, 20 to 0.

Madison is getting around on crutches. He doesn't know yet how long he'll be out of action.

B. B. Lees, another Big Spring boy who is playing for the Portales school, showed to great advantage in the Panhandle game. Despite the fact that he is only a freshman, B. B. ran, passed and kicked like a veteran. He is especially adept at quick kicking.

Pat Lamb and Jackie Barron, who went from here with Madison and Lees, also got into the game with Eastern New Mexico.

The Greyhounds play Sul Ross in Alpine this weekend. Big Springer will be playing against Big Springer in that one. Hal Battle and Frank Barton, who played together here in 1939 and '40, are with Sul Ross.

Another of the high school students whose job it is to cater to the football Steers needs is Bill Satterwhite (pictured). Bill played regularly with the Big Spring B team last year until he hurt his back. His doctor advised him to remain out of action but Bill wanted to stay in football in some capacity. He took the job as manager of the varsity squad and, in that capacity, handles a thousand and one details for the coaching staff.

TURNER NOW ATTENDING LOCAL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Delmar Turner, the big tackle who had enrolled at Eastern New Mexico college, is now attending Howard County junior college and will prove a valuable addition to Harold Davis' Jayhawk basketball team next winter.

Turner was All-District 3-AA last season.

COBB, LASWELL LOOM AS FUTURE STEER GREATS

Two of the Big Spring high school gridgers who will be heard from in 1949 are Robert Cobb, a B string back and Richard Laswell, a stellar lineman who is seeing a lot of action with the regulars as a tackle this year.

Cobb has shown a world of improvement in the first six weeks of fall training. He has shown an ability to do all things required of a back and do them well.

Laswell is growing like a weed. He may go over 200 pounds by next Autumn.

LEON LEPARD ATTENDING ACC ACADEMY

Leon Lepard, the local track ace who at one time was lined up to go to the University of Texas, is furthering his schooling at Abilene Christian college's academy and will do his collegiate running for the Wildcats.

He'll be tutored by Tonto Coleman, one of the very best track and field mentors now active in these United States. ACC annually lines up one of the best rounded track schedules of any team in the country.

Sysonby Mile To Citation

NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (AP) — Citation had better win all the money he can this year. In 1949, the handicappers are apt to hang anvils, kitchen sinks and other assorted weights around his neck in order to bring him back to other horses.

The Calumet Farm three-year-old champion collected $20,200 so easily yesterday that there ought to be a law against horses obtaining money by false pretenses.

Citation was just pretending to run most of the way in winning the Sysonby Mile at Belmont Park. He licked the stuffings out of five others, among them stable-mate Coaltown, Jockey Eddie Arcaro actually had Citation pulled up to a trot as he coasted under the wire four lengths to the good of C. V. Whitney's First Flight. Coaltown came up fast to grab third place, just half a length away from the Whitney filly.

Next comes the $100,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Saturday with another $75,000 or so depending on the number of starters. Eighteen were nominated for the two-mile test, but Citation's Sysonby performance probably has half of them already scared to venture from their barns.

It costs $1,000 to start in the Gold Cup, and with $20,000 to second, $10,000 to third, and $5,000 to fourth a few stout horses should come out and try.

That's what they did in the Sysonby—tried. Dixiana's Spy Song started with a bang and got out in front three of four lengths, while W. M. Jefford's Natches and Coaltown churned along in his wake. Citation was in no hurry. Eddie kept him under wraps some eight or nine lengths back until the far turn. Then Arcaro cut Citation loose. About midway in the bend for home he was up there in his accustomed front place.

YMCA To Show Bike Safety Film

"On Two Wheels," a safety picture for bike riders, is to be projected at the YMCA at 7:30 p. m. today.

The occasion will be the meeting of the H-Y club, but all high school boys are invited to be guests at the H-Y for the picture and other program details.

The film shows the younger generation taking bicycle traffic in its own hands and learning lessons in two-wheel safety. J. W. King, Jr., sponsor for the H-Y club, urged youths to witness the film because he feels it will be helpful in encouraging bicycle safety.

ALL-AMERICA — Charles (Choo-Choo) Justice, who missed the boost as a sophomore last year, is in line for All-America honors this season. The North Carolina half-back led the Tar Heels to a 34-7 victory over Texas university last Saturday.

Knott To Stage Night Opener

Knott Hillbillies will play their first six-man football game under lights on the home field Friday evening.

Homer Barnes, superintendent, said today that lights for the field have been installed and tested. Everything is in readiness when the Loop sextet from Gaines county moves into test the northern Howard county gridgers.

Last week Knott dropped a close one, 13-6, to the potent Union team of Dawson county. Union previously had nailed Ackerly and, with Flower Grove of Martin county, is regarded as a favorite to cop the District No. 5-B six-man title.

Tribe Idle Today As Yanks And Bosox Play 'Catch-Up'

Victory is a must today for the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees. They have to win in order to keep alive their slim mathematical chances of overhauling the front-running Cleveland Indians in the American League pennant race.

The Indians, two games ahead of the Red Sox and Yankees, are idle today. New York and Boston defeats would assure the Tribe of no worse than a tie for the crown. Should both the Yanks and Red Sox bow the Indians can clinch their first flag since 1920 by beating the Detroit Tigers Friday. All three of the contenders have three games to play.

Boston clashes with the seventh place Washington Senators in Fenway Park while the Yanks tackle the tough Athletics in Philadelphia.

Southpaw Mel Parnell (14-8) has been selected to face Washington's Early Wynn 8-13; for Boston, Parnell has been very effective against Washington, beating the Nats four times against only one loss.

Lefty Ed Loast (16-11) has drawn the starting assignment for the Yanks against the A's. Lou Brissie (14-10), brilliant rookie southpaw, will go for Connie Mack.

The Indians maintained their commanding two game bulge by defeating the Chicago White Sox, 5-2 yesterday. The Yanks downed the Athletics, 4-2 and the Red Sox turned back Washington, 5-1.

Clubs W. L. Pct To Play
Cleveland 35 56 .382 - 3
Boston 33 58 .363 - 2
New York 33 58 .363 - 2
While the battle to determine the American league's World Series entry raged, the National League's representative in the classic, the Boston Braves, suffered a severe jolt.

The Braves lost the services of Jeff Heath, their slugging outfielder, for the rest of the year. Heath broke his left foot sliding home in the sixth inning attempting to score from second base in a game against the Brooklyn Dodgers. Heath was batting at a .319 pace and had belted 30 homers. The Braves won the game, 4-3, when Sissy Siest singled in Phil Mason from second in the ninth. Johnny Sain went the distance to record his 23rd victory.

The booming bats of Joe Gordon and Ken Keltner brought Cleveland its 18th victory in its last 21 games.

Gordon drove in three runs with his 32nd homer and a double and Keltner punched in the other two with his 30th circuit blow and a two-bagger.

Bob Feller, with good support, went the route for Cleveland to post his 19th victory and seventh straight. He allowed ten hits, walked three and fanned three.

Leading 4-3 the Yanks almost blew the game in the bottom half of the ninth inning. Dimaggio dropped pinch-hitter Carl Scheib's fly ball to start the ninth. Rookie Bob Porterfield disposed of Eddie Joost but Barney McCosky followed with a double and Joe Page relieved Porterfield. Page walked Ferris Fain to load the bases and Allie Reynolds took over. Reynolds got the A's clean-up hitter, Hank Majeski, to ground into a game ending doubleplay.

Boston also had trouble knocking off the Senators. Righthander Ellis Kinder allowed the Senators 11 hits in staggering to his 10th victory.

Tied at 1-1 going into the third, the Red Sox tallied three times with the aid of two errors and four hits to forge ahead for keeps.

In the only other American League game Lefty Hal Newhouse turned in his 20th victory in pitching the Detroit Tigers to a 4-0 six hit conquest over the St. Louis Browns.

The Cincinnati Reds snapped their seventh place tie with Chicago by beating the Cubs, 5-3.

A scheduled first game of a day-night doubleheader between the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Cardinals in St. Louis was postponed because of rain but the night game was played with the Pirate winning, 2-1.

Herd And Broncs Stack Up Even In Overall Weights

Joe Coleman will bring a team here Friday night almost equal in weight but there the comparison between the Odessa Broncs and the Big Spring Steers ends.

The Broncs, defending champions in the District 3AA football wars, boast experience at nearly every position, whereas Coach Mule Stockton of the locals is having to use 'green' material at most posts.

Every sports oracle in the state is picking the Hoses to win by an overwhelming score and past games between the two elevens back them up. The Longhorns have not been able to register a win over the Steeds since 1939. The nearest they have come to victory since that time was in 1946, when he held the state-champions-to-be to a 12-0 count.

Last year, the Cayuses romped to a 40-0 victory in Odessa without working up a sweat.

In their assignments to date, the Odessans have tied Lubbock, 7-7, defeated North Side (Fort Worth), 20-7, and ran over El Paso 'high, 41-14. Big Spring surprises Cisco, 14-12, after losing its opening game to Brownwood, 32-0.

Odessa's starting line will average about 168 pounds, its backfield 158. The Big Spring forward wall averages about 164 while the secondary comes in at a bit less.

Additional injuries have been reported in the Odessa camp. Scarborough Hartley, starting center, sustained a broken finger in the El Paso game but will play here Friday. He didn't know he had the injury until four days after it happened.

Billy Nichols, quarterback, suffered a rib injury in practice Tuesday and Clyde Smith, reserve pivot man, hurt his leg but both will be ready to oppose the Steers Friday.

The Big Springers bid fare to be in good physical trim for the game, which opens the 3AA schedule for both teams.

A capacity crowd, biggest in two season for Steer Stadium, is expected. More than half the turnout may come from Odessa.

Chest Swings Into Planning For Drive That Can Succeed

After a delayed start, the Community Chest is now off to a fast start. In R. L. Tollett, president of the Chest, the organization has a capable and influential leader. Until now the Chest has functioned without officers, the incorporators having named a general campaign chairman last year and dispensed with election of an official slate because of the time element. It might be said that the Chest is only now swinging into a permanent organizational plan.

Even at this date there is yet time to set goals, name campaign leaders and build an effective plan and force for a drive that will reach into the innermost parts of the city.

Every year there is a chorus in favor of getting at the job and getting it over with inevitability, as the initial surge subsided, the effort has degenerated into a protracted appeal. This has been due largely to the failure (again due to pressure of time) to make the campaign all-inclusive.

There is every reason to believe that this year the Chest appeal will be broadened so that every citizen in Big Spring and Howard county will at least have an opportunity to understand, and if they are sold, to contribute to its support.

Last year little more than 800 people $28,500. That was far under the $35,000 objective. That objective, however, would have been easy to reach had contacts included four or five thousand people instead of 800. Whatever the goal of the Chest this year, it can be reached—and quickly—if enough people tackle the job.

Investment In Community's Future Commended To You

If you have noted the above editorial, you have a picture of an over-all agency conducting a financial campaign for several participating agencies.

One of them is the Girl Scout organization. Last year the Girl Scout organization had a capital improvement allotment from the Chest, but when the drive fell short so did the capital item. All available funds (and more too) were needed for operations.

Without fanfare or any specific program, a volunteer appeal has shaped up for contributions to the Girl Scout building fund. The Girl Scouts have a building located on property owned in the 1400 block on Lancaster street. It is, however, not in condition to be used. Thus it loses its real value to the organization. If it could be put into condition, three troops could use it at once and by alternating on various afternoons and evenings of the week, all the troops of the city could easily make use of the hut.

So far as we know, no one is going to knock on doors and ask individuals for contributions to this fund, but if any persons or firm has some funds which they can invest to good purpose in the community's future, we recommend this fund. The Girl Scouts have been more or less "orphaned" in Big Spring and that is not fair to us or them. Whatever else we have, nothing will be really solid without good women. The Girl Scouts can't guarantee any magic formula for producing genuine ladies, but they certainly have the program and the know-how for helping. You can help them by having a monetary part.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — HOW DID OUR relations with Russia reach the breaking point in Berlin?

The problem just came to a head at Berlin. But it's bigger than Berlin. It's as big as all Germany and the world.

It's simply that Russia is out to spread Communism and this country is trying to block it.

Except for Greece and Turkey, the Russians have managed to Communize all the countries of Europe east of Germany.

The rest of Europe would be easy pickings if the Russians could grab off Germany—or get the Germans to Communize their own country.

Russia's job would be faster and easier if she could get us to quit Berlin and Germany, or force us out in one way or another.

What's happening in Berlin is just the latest in a series of efforts by Russia to make it tough for the U. S. to stay in Germany.

The rest of Europe would be easy pickings if the Russians could grab off Germany—or get the Germans to Communize their own country.

Russia's job would be faster and easier if she could get us to quit Berlin and Germany, or force us out in one way or another.

What's happening in Berlin is just the latest in a series of efforts by Russia to make it tough for the U. S. to stay in Germany.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — HOW DID OUR relations with Russia reach the breaking point in Berlin?

The problem just came to a head at Berlin. But it's bigger than Berlin. It's as big as all Germany and the world.

It's simply that Russia is out to spread Communism and this country is trying to block it.

Except for Greece and Turkey, the Russians have managed to Communize all the countries of Europe east of Germany.

Mrs. Roosevelt Will Not Support Truman In His '48 Campaigning

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has indicated to friends she will not be speaking in support of President Truman's re-election.

This is going to be a big disappointment to Mr. Truman, for way back when the United Nations was first founded and he decided to appoint Mrs. Roosevelt as a delegate, he had in mind getting her support for his re-election. At least, he told Jimmie Byrnes, then secretary of state, that he hoped this would help keep the Roosevelt family in his camp.

Mrs. Roosevelt, however, has told friends that she will remain in Europe at the United Nations General Assembly until around Dec. 1, will take no part in the election campaign.

Note—Mrs. Roosevelt was privately opposed to Truman's re-nomination.

NAVY'S ONE-MAN LOBBY

The Navy has an unofficial press agent on its payroll who bombards editors and congressmen with letters, telling the Navy's side in its feud with the Air Force.

He is Hugh L. Hanson, 9,000-a-year, engineer for the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics. Allegedly as a "private citizen" he writes what the Navy would dare not say officially.

This one-man letter lobby, if it doesn't actually violate the Lobbying Act, certainly is contrary to Secretary of Defense James Forrestal's directive against bickering among the services. Yet Forrestal, instead of rebuking Hanson, has been conferring with him in private.

Hanson claims he composes the letters in his spare time, as "sort of a hobby." Yet the letters are filled with technical information that obviously requires on-the-job research. They are also turned out on such a mass scale that it would take considerable "spare time." In subject matter, the letters consistently hammer the Air Force and support the Navy line.

Hanson even went so far as to write Senators against appropriations for the Air Force's giant B-36 bombers. To Sen. Brien McMahon, Connecticut Democrat, he wrote: "I would greatly appreciate it if you would tell me why we are expending public funds on a bomber whose performance does not seem to be any better than aircraft available prior to the war."

Hanson gave his home address as Canaan, Conn.

However, in a letter to Sen. John Bricker, Ohio Republican, this Navy employe gave a different home address—this time, Columbus, O.

Note—Now Hanson has even started writing to the president.

LOUISIANA POLITICS

The Chicago Tribune carried banner headlines recently accusing the Truman administration of threatening Gov. Earl Long with income-tax prosecution if he didn't call a special session of the Louisiana Legislature to put Truman's name back on the ballot.

Real fact is that Gov. Long does have an income-tax case which has been hanging fire for some time, but his arm was not twisted into calling the special session. The amount of money involved is not great and there was never any question of criminal prosecution. However, when the U. S. treasury assessed a fraud penalty of $1,200 against Long some time ago, he howled like a stuck pig, said he didn't mind paying the penalty, but didn't want it labled a "fraud" penalty. The treasury is still dickering with him.

Reason for the rumor about the Truman administration bulldozing Long into calling a special session was the secret tactics of Peyton Ford, assistant to the attorney general, who eased into New Orleans very quietly and had someone else register for him at the Roosevelt Hotel. Ford, whose middle name is "secrecy," operated in such a hush-hush manner that everyone suspected the worst.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Sen. Owen Brewster of Maine spent $1,752 to print copies of his speech attacking Howard Hughes. That doesn't include secretarial service and mailing charges which the taxpayers paid for Brewster due to the fact that he has free franking privileges. . . . A long list of New Jersey lawyers have petitioned the Justice Department to investigate the very serious charges I have made against Congressman Parnell Thomas of New Jersey. . . .

Four days after he returns from the West, President Truman will hit the road again—in the opposite direction. This time he will speak in large eastern cities—Philadelphia, Oct. 6; Newark, N. J., Oct. 7; Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 8; Buffalo, the same day; Scranton, Pa., Oct. 9. Then back to the White House. . . . Winston Churchill will spend winter in Palm Beach. He will arrive in New York early in December to speak before the National Association of Manufacturers at the head south.

When President Truman received his typically Texas reception in San Antonio the other day, he was blissfully ignorant of the fact that Truman Democrats and Dixiecrats had staged a terrific battle over him just a short time before.

San Antonio gave Truman just about the biggest reception of his trip. But if he had come a little earlier he might have stepped into another battle of the Alamo.

A few weeks ago a lot of Texans said they wouldn't go around the corner to see Harry Truman. Regular Democrats were out to defeat him, and Jesse Jones' newspaper later did come out against him. But a group of Roosevelt Texans, led by Tom Miller of Austin, Maury Maverick, Woodville Rogers, and Bond Davis, all of San Antonio, led the fight for Truman and won.

They succeeded, among other things, in kicking out bitter anti-Trumanite Wright Morrow, a Democratic national chairman.

But by the time the Democrats met in San Antonio to prepare for Truman's visit, he was on the upgrade in popularity and even some of the Dixiecrats were ready to embrace him. In fact, the regulars didn't even admit County Chairman Bond Davis to their meeting to prepare for Truman's reception—until Mrs. Maury Maverick raised a rumpus about it.

So when the Truman special rolled into town his onetime critics were so full of honeyed phrases that Wright Morrow was right at the head table, smuggling up to the man he had cussed out in unprintable language.

VETERANS HOSPITAL PROBE

Rep. George Bender of Ohio is probing charges that Negro patients at the Tuskegee, Ala., veterans hospital are living in "filth and neglect."

Bender plans to get to the bottom of reports that the hospital's mental and nonmental patients are huddled together in the same wards; also that there are only 10 psychiatrists to care for 1,500 mental cases—about half the number needed for minimum requirements.

Another case deserving Bender's investigation is the condition of the white patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital at Perry Point, Md., a short distance from Washington.

Elizabeth Taylor Is Expected To Be Star

HOLLYWOOD — "In two or three years," said Wallace Beery "that little gal is going to be the biggest star in the movies."

"If MGM is smart, it'll pay her what she's worth," continued the usually unenthusiastic Beery. "She is really exotic. They call a lot of those old babes exotic, but this gal really fits the word. By the way, what's her name?"

I supplied it—Elizabeth Taylor. Beery is not sharp at remembering names, even with those (such as Liz) with whom he has appeared in films. But an old show business eye like his could not mistake the talent of the dark-haired young beauty.

There's news with Elizabeth these days, both concerning her skyrocketing career and her romance with an Army officer, Glenn Davis. So I deserted Beery and hastened to a stage where the actress was testing for her role in "Conspirators," in which she'll play Robert Taylor's wife.

Real Cop-And-Robbers Plot Tops Any Filmsters Think Up

Movie makers have cooked some fairly fancy cop-and-robbers plots in the last two decades but they'll have to step some to top actual events that took place in Brown county back in the days of national prohibition.

I was in the lower part of grade school at the time, not old enough to be afraid of the subtle goings-on, yet with enough age to appreciate the overt actions that took place.

My mother rented out a goodly portion of our large, two-story frame house in Brownwood. The income was nice and she wanted someone in the house with her while my dad, a traveling salesman at the time, was on the road.

Once she rented a room to a couple of nice looking fellows who said they were oilmen who had been sent to the area by their company. They expected their wives to join them soon. In the meantime, they needed temporary quarters.

Their credentials seemed authentic and their presence natural since that section of the country was experiencing an increase in petroleum activity at the time. Nothing looked suspicious until—

We noticed that they always carried a heavy arsenal with them when they left the house, their room was found completely ransacked one day when the house-

Chest

vation Army $10,000, local AA club $1,975. A provision of $1,300 is made for supplies and clerical expenses incidental to the fund campaign.

"Budgets of the various welfare agencies were scrutinized closely," the Chest committee reported. "We recommend reductions in some instances, and these were graciously accepted."

"It is felt that the $10,000 approved for the Salvation Army covers not more than what that organization actually must spend in its relief and youth welfare activities. The local Alcoholics Anonymous figure is lower than last year, and it is felt that contributions from friends and supporters of that group alone will more than provide what this worthy undertaking is asking. The Boy Scouts have labored under local deficit created by the failure of the Chest last year to make its goal, but it was felt that the request this year should not cover that sum, in as much as other organizations, too, did not receive what they budgeted last year. The YMCA's program will be enhanced by its own membership fee solicitations. The Girl Scouts modest request is the same as last year except for a $225 item to provide for improvements of the new hut that organization has acquired."

"None of the funds raised and distributed through the Community Chest go for capital expenditures by the welfare agencies, but are for operations and upkeep only. The Chest committee feels that these budgets are in keeping with the programs these agencies are undertaking for the good of our community, and it feels that the people of this community are going to respond generously to see that these without handicap."

City Featured In Publication

Big Spring—and Big Spring people—come in for an entire page in the current issue of the "Doings," a monthly paper published by E. J. Headlee, Denton, as his hobby.

Mr. Headlee is the father of Mrs. C. L. Rowe, Big Spring, and he summed his impressions of Big Spring and its developments on the basis of a recent visit here. He spoke of the banks, the hotels, the newspaper, water supply, highways and other facilities, and of the people whom he considered have made the city really distinctive. The "Doings," "unique" in journalistic annals, goes to friends of Mr. Headlee all over the world. It's done in a folksy, letter style.

Queen Rites Slated Friday

Services for Mrs. Nellie Queen, 51, who died Monday in Costa Mesa, Calif., will be held at 3 p. m. Friday at Nailey chapel with the Rev. James Parks, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist church, officiating.

The body, flown from Los Angeles to Dallas, will be returned here Friday morning aboard the T&P train.

Mrs. Queen is to be interred beside the grave of her husband, J. A. Queen, who died in 1937, and her son, J. D. Queen, who died in 1941.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Otha A. McRhea; three sons, Oney Queen, Monte Queen, Glenn Queen, all of Costa Mesa; and one brother, W. O. Hanshaw, Amarillo; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Owen; 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a. m. Friday at the home of Mrs. J. D. Jordan, Tom Buckner, Bo Buckner and Horace Beene.

SOIL CONSERVATION

Ranch Plan Meet Is Slated Friday

A ranch conservation planning meeting will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Joe Carter ranch seven miles northeast of Garden City. Carter announced this week. At the meeting the Martin-Howard Soil Conservation District program will be discussed and plans will be made for group action in planning and applying soil conservation measures on their ranches.

A tour of the Carter ranch will be made to study range conditions and measures needed to improve the kind and amount of grass growing on the range. Assistance will be furnished to the ranchers by the SCS.

Three irrigation planning meetings were also scheduled this week.

Seaboard Venture Nearing Pay Zone

Seaboard No. 2 Tora Campbell, east offset to the Vealmoor pool's most prolific well, was nearing the pay zone Thursday.

At 7,760 feet, it was expected momentarily to go into the Pennsylvania lime from whence four tests have now produced. Location is in the southeast corner of section 29-32-30, T&P. A mile and a quarter to the northwest, Seaboard No. 1 Clanton, just over the line in Borden county, was reaming to straighten hole at 5,100 feet.

Roy Townsend No. 5 Moran, southwest Scurry shallow venture, was completed for 144 barrels. Top of the pay was at 1,650 feet and bottom of hole at 1,717 feet. Location is in lot 4, Kirklund & Fields survey.

In southern Mitchell county Sun No. 2 Ellwood was past 8,571 feet in granite wash. Northeastern Sterling county's Ray Albright and Progress Petroleum No. 1 Parramore was below 8,334 feet. Humble No. 1 R. T. Foster was below 8,452 feet in lime and Humble No. 2-B Ellwood was at 6,410 feet in lime.

Suspect Transferred

Weldon T. Flowers has been transferred to the local jail from Lamesa to face charges of burglary. Flowers allegedly entered the All-American bus lines depot here several months ago and removed a safe.

C. J. Painter, district cooper in the Gay Hill soil conservation group, has had lines for terraces run on pasture land which he plans to put in cultivation. Painter will terrace the land before he breaks it out for farming. He is also building terraces on his pasture around a lake bed to keep water from running off his pasture and filling the lake. Terracing is only part of the coordinated soil conservation program followed by Painter in cooperation with the district.

Frank Lovelless, district supervisor in Zone III, recently cleared 2,000 pounds of sand dropped when the highway on the Big Spring Municipal Airport last August. Lovelless also has 500 pounds of side oats grama. He will make the seed available to farmers who have planned to plant grass on land retired from cultivation.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, Sept. 30 (AP)—The stock market edged into higher price ground today, gains ranging around a point, with most in fractional territory.

Total turnover was small although several substantial blocks of stock changed hands. General Electric, for instance, started the day on a 1,000-share deal and a similar block of General Motors appeared.

Today's improvement extended for the third session the recovery that followed Monday's sharp decline. Wall Street quarters didn't attach much significance to the move, though, in view of the limited turnover.

Plans for a charter presentation ceremony were developed at the first meeting of the Allied Youth post at the high school Thursday morning.

Date for the event has been set for Oct. 19, Billy Bob Watson, president has announced.

A membership campaign is to be conducted during next week with Allen Holmes as chairman. Sunday evening representatives from the post will be sent to local churches to explain the purpose of the Allied Youth, a national organization, devoted to promotion of wholesome non-alcoholic fellowship. Arath Phillips and Mrs. W. D. McNair are adult leaders for the group in Big Spring high school.

Burglary Trial Will Be Continued Here

Trial of Ralph R. Jacks, charged with burglarizing the Burton-Lingo Lumber company offices here, was to be continued in 70th district court at 1:30 p. m. today.

Jacks, the state claims, stole a quantity of paint brushes from that concern and later tried to sell them in Odessa.

The defendant was pleading his own case.

Don H. Glass entered a plea of guilty to the charge of forgery and received a two year suspended sentence in court proceedings this morning.

City Tables Bell's Rate Hike Request

Southwestern Bell Telephone company's application for a rate increase in Big Spring was tabled Tuesday afternoon when City Manager H. W. Whitney disclosed that total "book value" of telephone company properties here, as outlined in the application, exceeded tax valuation by $147,886.

HOOD REMOVES VOTE CHALLENGE

R. B. Hood's petition challenging the election of B. E. Freeman as Howard county tax collector-assessor was dismissed in 70th district court this morning on the motion of the plaintiff.

The application for dismissal caught the court by surprise, which was preparing to begin the case today.

Hood gave no reason for his action. His challenge to the election was entered Sept. 9. In the application, Hood had alleged that 118 votes cast in Precinct two were invalid.

In the August 29 run-off primary, Freeman had defeated Hood by a margin of two votes, 2529 to 2527. The totals remained unchanged after an official canvass.

Freeman had also led in the First Democratic Primary election in which the third man in the race, R. Lee Warren, was eliminated.

Freeman will take office Jan. 1. The position is now filled by Tom Rossion, who was named to fill the post following the death of John Wolcott earlier in the year.

Franklin Case Jury Dismissed

Broshay, Franklin, Austin Negro, must wait until the November term of 70th district court to learn his fate.

On trail for the murder of Arden Johnston, a white man, the 35-year-old ebony-skinned son of a Baptist preacher learned at 8:30 o'clock last night that a jury could not agree on whether to penalize or free him. Judge Cecil C. Collins dismissed the jurors.

District Attorney Martelle McDonald had asked that he be sent to the electric chair.

The jury deliberated five hours, 15 minutes before reporting to Judge Collins. They had retired at 3:15 o'clock following arguments of the counsel.

The testimony heard Tuesday morning, Franklin had alleged he was coerced into signing a confession. His defense claimed he had never been seen with Johnston, who died in a local hospital some three days later of injuries resulting from a fight which occurred in the vicinity of the Gregg street viaduct the night of last July 29.

Losses from livestock that reached markets dead, crippled, or bruised in 1947 were estimated at $25 million.

Chest Drive Plans Going In High Gear

Operation of the Howard County Community Chest was going into high gear Wednesday, with these developments:

At a meeting of the Chest board of directors Tuesday evening, R. L. Tollett, president of the Cosden Petroleum Corporation, was elected president of the Chest, and Lewis Price, manager of Hemphill-Wells Co., was named vice-president.

A budget committee of ten (with any six to constitute a quorum) was appointed.

Arrangements were made for this committee to meet tonight with representatives of various welfare agencies, hear their budget proposals, and arrive at an overall sum to be asked in the forthcoming Chest campaign.

Directors voted for the appointment of a general secretary-treasurer to serve for a nominal remuneration through the year. This officer will handle all financial and clerical details of fund raising and collection, and will employ what office help needed for the actual fund campaign.

The Chest's goal will be fixed soon after tonight's session, when the budget committee will decide to what extent it can assume fundraising obligations for such participating social service organizations as the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, Salvation Army and Alcoholics Anonymous.

General directors of the fund raising campaign then will be chosen, and a date set for the solicitation.

Tollett, in accepting the Chest presidency as successor to Ira L. Thurman, said it was his hope that all interests of the community would "join enthusiastically to make the campaign for this year a brief, intensive affair that will be concluded quickly as well as successfully."

Tollett and Price will serve on the budget group, along with G. H. Hayward, P. G. Malone, Ted O. Groebel, R. B. G. Cowper, C. S. Blomshield, K. H. McGibbon, R. W. Whipkey and J. H. Greene.

Bob Hodges copped first place in the Men's putting contest Tuesday night at the Big Spring country club, knitting together a fine score.

James Edwards finished in the runner up spot with 89 while Ray Snyder was third with 70.

Other competitors and their scores included: Al Bettley 71, Matt Harrington 72, Son Powell 78, Tommy Jordan 75, W. E. Ramsey 71, Marvin Miller 77, Frank McCleskey 80, Frank Morgan 74, Rayford Liles 81, Dr. J. E. Hogan 71.

Lois Hodges wound up first in Women's play with a 76, three strokes better than Dorothy Edwards. Bernice Jordan was "third with an 80."

Edith Liles had an 85, Pat Moon an 81, Thelma Howze 84, Marjorie Ramsey 89, Edna Mae Morgan 94 and Bobby Satterwhite 99.

Convict Picked Up

HUNTSVILLE, Sept. 29. (AP) — Prison officials announced that George Nance Beal, who escaped in May, 1945 after serving part of a 50-year term for robbery from Marion County, had been picked up by Garland police last night.

Mrs. James S. Parks conducted the joint installation of officers for the Barbara Reagan, Ruth and the Mary Martha classes at the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Carpenter, wearing a basic black dress, acted as model, and as Mrs. Parks added various accessories to be worn with the dress she emphasized that each additional piece was symbolic of the various officers duties and that unless each officer fulfilled her responsibility, the organization would never function with maximum force.

Those receiving the installation were Mrs. A. C. Kloven, teacher and Mrs. W. C. Robinson, president of the Ruth class; Mrs. H. W. McCannless, teacher, Mrs. V. H. Cowlin, president, Barbara Reagan class and Mrs. Wayne Williams and Mrs. J. L. Billings, president of Mary Martha class.

Mrs. Alton Underwood led the group singing "Send the Light" and "Take the Name of Jesus With You." Mrs. Theo Andrews paid tribute to the outgoing officers and welcomed the incoming officers into the organization.

Mrs. A. C. Kloven presided during the business session and led the opening prayer.

Mrs. Allison Muneke and Mrs. H. W. McCannless poured during the social hour. The centerpiece of the lace-laid table included a large arrangement of mari-golds, flanked with lemon and leaves. Two silver urns of tea and coffee were placed at either end of the table. Green tapers in crystal candelabra and tall-colored zinnias were placed at vantage points throughout the entertainment rooms.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE GOOD SLEEP

ST. CHARLES, Ill., Sept. 29. (AP)—Farmer Maurice Regnole is a sound sleeper.

"While he took a hard-earned night's sleep, his silo exploded. The blast blew off the silo roof—sent it soaring 50 feet—and bulged its concrete walls.

The silo collapsed onto the barn. The barn folded onto the feed shed. The feed shed knocked over the windmill. The windmill dropped onto the implement shed.

Blaming silage gas, Regnole told neighbors he had heard a slight noise during the night. But he didn't get out of bed to investigate.

And Now Flynn's Reported Happy

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 29. (AP)—"As happy as a pair of cooling doves." This is the marital status of Actor Errol Flynn and his wife, Nora, his studio reported yesterday.

The report followed by one day a statement the studio attributed to Mrs. Flynn that a serious domestic situation had developed.

Fair Weather Seen Over The Nation

CHICAGO, Sept. 29. (AP)—Another day of fair weather with temperatures in the 70's appeared likely for most of the country today.

Rain clouds which hovered over the Southeastern states for a few days moved into parts of the Midwest. Showers were reported today over parts of Ohio, Missouri, Indiana and Illinois. Light rain also fell in the Southern Rockies.

Postmaster Nat Shick might have blushed momentarily Wednesday morning had not pride in new services for patrons outweighed the inevitable.

Going on written directions alone, postal employees had "loaded" and set automatic stamp vending machines. Shick stepped up to try it.

Out came his one-cent stamps according to schedule. He dropped a nickel and a dime and out zipped five three-centers. Then he put in a coin for his airmail stamp, and right there the PM got shorted a five cent stamp.

But only one. The machine lacked a notch being set forward far enough. After that it clicked off the required stamps with unerring accuracy. The writer baited it with 15 cents and promptly got the correct amount of stamps.

This machine, located just to the left of the entrance into the lobby, is by no means the only addition to expedite postal service.

The parcel post window boasted a Pitney-Bowes stamp machine which eliminates the tearing and dampening of stamps in odd denominations. Once the package is weighed, the clerk simply sets the amount of postage on the machine, touches a trip and out comes the required postage on a precancelled, dampened sticker.

Not only does this save time at the window, for all the patron has to do is pay his money, but it also saves time for other clerks for there is no stamping or hand cancelling to be done. The machine also tamps large envelope covers.

For those who wonder what postage is required for a letter, Shick has installed a set of scales in the corner by the drop box with a notation of price per weight for first class pieces. The patron, having established whether (and how much) extra postage the letter requires, may then to the stamp machine and promptly get stamps. There's no waiting in line.

There's no beating the breast, either, when John Q. Public arrives at the postoffice five minutes after the stamp window has closed, or in dashing down late at night in quest of a stamp for a letter that just must go off. It's right there in the lobby.

Mitchum Pleads He's Not Guilty Of Drug Charge

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 29. (AP)—Robert Mitchum and two of his co-defendants pleaded innocent today to narcotics charges after his attorney failed in an attempt to have the indictment dismissed on a legal technicality.

Jerry Giesler, noted criminal lawyer representing Mitchum, asked dismissal with the argument that a portion of the indictment is not in the English language and is therefore unconstitutional.

He referred to the section which charged the defendants with possession and conspiracy to possess "flowering tops and leaves of Indian hemp (cannabis sativa)."

Mitchum, 31, actress Lila Leeds, 29, Dancer Vicki Evans, 25, and Robin Ford, 31, real estate man, are charged with possessing a drug weed popularly known as Marijuana.

Mitchum, well-groomed and wearing a blue sports coat and slacks, spoke a clear "not guilty" after his lawyer's arguments failed. Ford and the blonde Miss Leeds also pleaded innocent. Trial for the three was set for Nov. 27.

Supper Is Planned

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hale, who are moving to Childress, will be honored at a fellowship supper to be held at the Wesley Methodist church Thursday at 7:30 p. m. Representatives of the church have announced that all members are invited and are asked to bring a nickel and a dime and out zipped five three-centers. Then he put in a coin for his airmail stamp, and right there the PM got shorted a five cent stamp.

But only one. The machine lacked a notch being set forward far enough. After that it clicked off the required stamps with unerring accuracy. The writer baited it with 15 cents and promptly got the correct amount of stamps.

MUSICIANS LOOK FOR A SOLUTION TO CLOSED SEASON

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 29. (AP)—Members of Local 77, AFL-American Federation of Musicians, held a nine-hour meeting yesterday in an attempt to find a solution to the wage dispute which Philadelphia Orchestra officials said resulted in cancellation of the 1948-49 season.

Frank R. Luzzi, president of the local, would make no comment after the meeting. Orville H. Bullitt, president of the orchestra association, said he met with Luzzi yesterday but added nothing had been said or done "to change the picture."

Last Monday, the orchestra—due to open its season Friday—announced cancellation of this winter's concert. Orchestra officials said the action was decided on because of the union's demands that the minimum wage rate for orchestra players be raised from $110 a week to $125.

When informed of the cancellation, Luzzi said he had received "no counter proposals from the orchestra association. The union, he said, had made contract concessions on rehearsal time and radio and concert time.

Beta Sigma Phi Omicron Chapter Rush Week Activities Are Planned

Beta Sigma Phi Rush Week activities were discussed when the Omicron Chapter met at the Settles hotel Tuesday night. Activities will begin with a backward kid party to be held in the IOOF hall next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. The preferential tea is scheduled for October 17, the ritual of the jewels, banquet and dance, October 23. Emma Mae Carleton won the prize for the evening. Kate Irons directed the program for the evening. "Person Beautiful" was the topic of discussion. Mrs. Edith Murdock, guest speaker, discussed jewelry. She began her talk by telling of the origin of the wearing of jewelry during the primitive age and the purpose for wearing it. She continued by telling how the diamond became a love gift. She also gave the history of the Blue Hope diamond, which was found in 1812, and the origin of the wearing of jade and pearls. Mrs. Murdock closed her discussion by saying that "simplicity is the key note in selection of jewelry."

City Approves New Tax Assessments

Big Spring city commissioners Tuesday approved a tax roll which increases assessed valuation by $725,165 over last year's figures.

Of the increase, $483,620 is accounted for by real estate and $241,545 by personal property valuations.

Also passed was an ordinance levying city taxes for 1948 at a rate of $1.70 for each $100 valuation, the same rate used in 1947. The levy provides 95-cents for the interest and sinking fund and 75-cents for the general fund. The interest and sinking fund received $1.05 last year, while 75-cents went to the general fund. The division fluctuates each year according to demands of the interest and sinking fund.

Total levy, based on the new valuations, will be $187,196.82, representing an increase of $12,327.81 over last year.

In other business Tuesday, an ordinance providing expansion of corporate boundaries to include an area designated as Tract No. 3 in general extension plans, was read for the first time and approved. The ordinance was submitted after resident property owners in the tract filed a petition requesting the action. The area is north of Martha street, extending from present east boundary of the city to the county road east of the rodeo grounds. It embraces Bluebonnet and Highland additions as well as the rodeo grounds. Approval at three successive regular meetings is required before final adoption.

Commissioners instructed the city manager to proceed with zoning school area for traffic after a letter from the junior chamber of commerce was read requesting such action.

In a letter addressed to the commission, George Wallace, Jaycee president, advised that the newly organized junior patrol, which is sponsored by the Jaycees, needed clearly defined regulations in order to function properly. The Knights of Pythias lodge has agreed to purchase and erect special markers in the streets when the school zones are established, the letter stated.

A resolution endorsing a request for additional passenger train service here on the T&P was approved.

ACKERLY, Sept. 29. (Sp.)—Ackerly high school won first prize of $50 for sponsoring the best float in the Dawson county parade and fair in Lamesa Monday.

The theme of the float was based on the early day Indians. There were Indian chiefs, braves, maidens, paposes, tepees, pottery, and demonstrations of corn grinding and weaving.

C. L. Mitchell, Kennen Baggett, Kenneth Fraaks, Clint Lauderdale and June Gill led the parade on horseback.

Eylata Hatfield of Mineral Wells and Eldon Stump, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stump of Midland, were united in marriage in the First Methodist church in Midland Saturday evening.

The Rev. H. H. Hollowell, pastor of that church, read the ceremony. Mrs. Ross Payne acted as matron of honor and Ross Payne served as best man.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Midland.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Naymon and Wayne Hatfield of Mineral Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Leach and Billie House of Odessa and Mrs. Willard Knowlton and daughter, Fern.

Mrs. J. W. Graham and W. L. Graham were honored with a birthday dinner Sunday in the home of Mrs. J. T. Cook. Those attending were Mr. and

EISENHOWER SAYS FUN NECESSARY

NEW YORK, Sept. 29. (AP)—College students should have fun, says Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Columbia University president.

He told more than 1,200 students at an assembly yesterday.

"The day that goes by that you don't have some fun is not only unnecessary, but un-Christian. If you don't have it, you are not being true to yourselves."

Houston Fire Ruins Six Business Places

HOUSTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—A fire which swept six business places and destroyed the two-story brick building in the 500 block of Preston caused an estimated $224,500 damage, blanketed the downtown district with smoke and attracted a large crowd of spectators at 8:41 last night. Origin has not been determined.

Four firemen were injured and 100 occupants of the Buffalo Hotel adjoining were routed out of their rooms as smoke and threatening flames raged around it.

Blankenship chose as his subject, "The Glimmer-Aiken Committee," and reviewed some of the committee's findings among teachers, taxpayers and the study of the condition of school buildings.

Those attending were: Mrs. Kelley Lawrence, Ruth Beasley, Mrs. James Wilcox, Mrs. Ruth Burnam, Mr. Charles Watson, Mrs. K. H. McGibbon, Mrs. R. M. Price, Jr., Nell Brown, Mrs. Seth H. Parsons, Mary Miller, Mrs. Roy C. Anderson and Mrs. Gilbert Gibbs.

Cub Scout Pack To Be Reorganized

Plans for re-organization of a Cub Scout pack sponsored by the North Ward P-TA were made at a special meeting Tuesday night at the school.

Some 15 adults, 23 boys of Cub age and several of Scout age attended the session. A pack committee, composed of C. E. Suggs, chairman, Truett Thomas, Ennon Lovelady and J. D. Johnson, institutional representative, was selected.

Mrs. Steve Corcoran has accepted position as den mother for one den, and a committee is to arrange for others. On that committee are Mrs. Franklin Wilson, chairman, Mrs. Truett Thomas and Mrs. C. E. Suggs.

MADE HUMAN SKIN LAMP SHADES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. (AP)—Senate and Army investigators pushed a new inquiry today into the reduction of Ise Koch's life term sentence as a Nazi war criminal.

Unless further action is taken, the widow of the Buchenwald Prison Camp commandant may be released next year. Her term was cut to four years by a trial review board in Germany.
