Methodist Zone Meeting Here November 16th

A District meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society will be held in Eldorado November 16th. This meeting has been announced and postponed several times, but has been announced for the above date again by the district officers, and the local Church Ladies invite others of the city and community to come and listen to this religious program.

At the meeting November 16, the topic, "Woman's Place of Service in the Church," will set the theme of the meeting. Mrs. V. I. Pierce of Ozona will be pianist for the assembly, and Mrs. Jarvis from Eldorado will be leader. Director of the song service will be Mrs. Bryan McDonald of Ozona.

The Rev. W. H. Marshall of Eldorado will lead in prayer, and Mrs. E. E. Sawyer of Sonora will address the group on "Woman's Changing World." "Jesus' Attitude Toward Women" will be discussed by a Christoval delegate, and Mrs. Bob Weaver of Ozona will sing a vocal solo.

Mrs. S. M. Oglesby of Mertzon will discuss "Woman's Place in the Methodist Church," and Mrs. George Baker of Sonora will give a reading. Following the devotional by Mrs. H. E. Jackson, and a solo by Mrs. Mims Jackson of Christoval, the meeting will adjourn for lunch.

A song and prayer will open the afternoon session, and the Eldorado members will present a story, "The Fruit Line." One of the Mertzon delegates will give "A Tribute to a Great Woman," and Mrs. Batchelor will direct the council meeting. A prayer by the Rev. O. E. More-

Cecil Moore, who has won State Honors in the 4-H Club work, has been awarded a trip to Chicago in December. This picture shows him and his prize winning lamb at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show three years ago. In another column you will find a letter addressed to him informing him of his National Honor from the Santa Fe Railroad and Armour and Company.

Schleicher County is proud of Cecil and congratulate him for his excellent work and his fine winnings in the past and trust that his visit to Chicago will mean much to him and will be only one of the many good things in store for the boy who tries.

Our 4-H Boys have done as much if not more than all other in placing Schleicher County's productiveness in Stock Raising and Farming before a buying world. All can't be the winners of first prizes but all can be winners in the good work and for themselves. Congratulations to you Cecil.

UTAH MAKES THIRTY-SIX STATES FOR REPEAL

This week's election of several states on the wet and dry issue bring a sufficient number of states in to the wet column to repeal the 18th Amendment. The two Carolinas were the first two States to vote dry, but Pennsylvania, Ohio and Utah all fell into the wet parade and finished the needed 36 states for repeal.

FARLEY LOOSES MAYOR VOTE

James A. Farley looses his man in the New York Mayor's race. He was backing McKee, but the Republican candidate, LaGuardia, won the race even to the defeat of the strong Tammy Hall candidate O'Brien. New York State elects eight Republicans to fill the places now held by Democrats.

To-Winners of the Chicago Trip Offered by the Santa Fe Railroad and the Armour Co.,

You have been selected as one of the winners for the Chicago trip to attend the Boys' and Girls' 4-H Club Camp, December 3rd to December 9th. Please write me by return mail advising whether or not you can accept this trip.

Effort is being made to arrange to buy the boys hats this year, as has been the custom in the past, so please give me the size hat you wear as we will have the hats made for each individual boy. Don't guess at your hat size. If you don't know the exact size you wear, go to some hat store and get your exact measurement. I will write you again in a few days giving you detailed instructions as to where and when to meet the party and will also send you railroad fare. We will leave for Chicago about December 1st.

A few facts I would like for you to remember in making preparations for this trip are: 1. You will need a good overcoat without fail as the weather is sometimes below zero. 2. If you are planning to wear new shoes, be sure and get them in time to thoroughly break them in before you leave since there will be lots of walking to do in Chicago. 3. You will need one suit of clothes with suit and trousers to match to wear when attending banquets. 4. One pullman car will be chartered and we will put two boys in a lower berth as has been the practice in the past.

I will notify you in a few days if we are successful in buying the hats for the boys, in which case you do not wear a hat.

Yours very truly,
E. C. Martin,
State Boys' Club Agent.

LIONS LUNCHEON

WANTED—Crowds for three days at Lone Star Theatre to see—

"LADY FOR A DAY"

Distinctly in a class by itself as regards motion picture entertainment and possessing a story so universally appealing that it is impossible to predict anything but outstanding success for it, "Lady For a Day," the Columbia super-production starring Warren William with May Robson at the Lone Star Theatre Thursday Friday and Saturday.

"Lady For a Day" is like a fantastic fairy tale. Yet is it real and human. Its appealing humor and touching dramatic scenes make the laughs and tears blend wholesomely with an emotionally agitating effect that is at once over powering and heart-warming.

A revelation to picture audiences will be the magnificent performance of May Robson as "Apple Arnie." The complete cast from the star down deserves the highest praise for matchless, inspired performances.

NOVEMBER 10, 1933.

The cold spell Sunday caught many homes in Eldorado without stoves being put up. It was about the coldest spell this city has experienced this early in the memory of this writer. Fire was needed all last weekend and Sunday and Monday.

The Brady Bull Dogs defeated the Junction football boys in Saturday's game at Brady, 14-6. Eldorado beat Brady at Brady, 14-0. Now make your wise cracks about to-morrow's game at Junction between Eldorado and Junction. Junction and Rock springs tied; Eldorado defeated Rocksprings, 6-0; so if figures do not lie, Eldorado should win another ball game Saturday, Nov. 11. This is scheduled to be a real ball game with a small margin in favor of Eldorado.

Henry Ford comes out now and says to comply with the NRA or the law it will be necessary for him to lay off nine thousand men to comply with the 40 hour week law, and if we understand it he has always paid better wages than the NRA calls for. About the time Mr. Johnson gets one hard nut cracked another bobs up, but we will leave this with Peter Molyneaux and President Roosevelt to thrash out. The fish is getting too big for me to land.

Forrest Alexander and Glenn Ratliff spent last week end in Waco, attending the Baylor-T. C. U. Football Game Saturday. Glenn graduated from that school last year and went back for the home-coming this year. They were accompanied from San Angelo by Mrs. L. J. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Schuller were in the city Saturday visiting and trading.

Marvin McDonald was in from his stockfarm Saturday mingling with friends and trading.

ON TEXAS FARMS

By W. H. Darrow,
Extension Service Editor

Other things equal, good seed wins. Austin Bishop, Jr., Red River county 4-H club boy, picked more than a bale of cotton to the acre on three acres planted to pedigreed seed. His father made three-fourths of a bale planted on the same kind of land at the same time.

Something green from the garden was used on the dining table of the Ed Sklar home in Wharton county every day from late last fall until now with the exception of two weeks following last year's freeze. The gardener was Irene Sklar, president of the Muldoon 4-H club.

When half through terracing a field last year rain set in and prevented Oscar Mangold, Medina county farmer, from finishing the job. The rain was costly, the county agent says. The terraced land was the poor upland half of the field but it made 10 bushels more corn to the acre than the richer bottom land.

A one-section farm in Hale county made money for C. H. Day and sons last year, the county agent reports. With the help of 4 sons Mr. Day grew wheat, cotton, alfalfa, sudan, oats, barley and grain sorghums and balanced crops up with hogs, dairy cattle, baby beeves, and poultry. A garden and orchard helped, too.

Anything from bathroom fixtures to false teeth are bought with canned products in Tarrant county this year, according to reports of home demonstration club members. Plumbers, laundries, filling stations, news stands and dentists are among the concerns accepting pay in canned goods.

Otto Weinheimer, Gillespie county farmer, is among those who are getting paid off for several years' work in making improved pecans grow on native trees. He expects to gather from 4000 to 5000 pounds of paper shell pecans this fall.

POFITABLE INVESTMENT

Weatherford—Raising 101 RAISING CHICKENS A chickens from 125 eggs set is the record of Vera Mae McQueen, a 4-H club member of the Springcreek Club, she reports to Miss Janie Parks, Parker county home demonstration agent. "I set my first hens about the 1st of March," says Vera. "By the last of April I had the 125 set and 108 eggs hatched. I lost only 7 chickens out of the 108. Four of them drowned in the water tank, my little sister killed two, and the horse stepped on one. I have about 6 pans to feed in and 4 pans to water in. For an improvement I built a wire net pen to feed the baby chicks in and made larger coops set and 108 eggs hatched. I fed them plenty of milk. I have sold 35 of my chickens at 35c apiece and $33 worth of eggs from 25 hens since the first of January."

NOVEMBER 10, 1933.

WHAT ARE TAXES FOR?

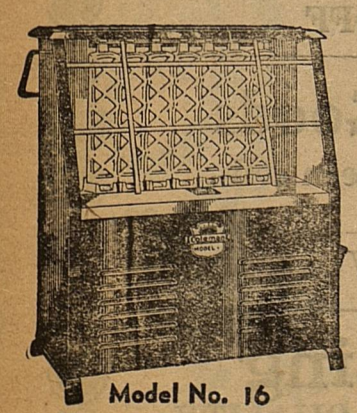

Taxes are a necessary device for securing many of the advantages of modern life. The savage has no government to do things for him; hence he pays no taxes. In every civilized country government does many things for the people for which they pay by means of taxes. Government is merely a form of cooperation. The payment of taxes may be considered as a form of cooperative buying.

What do we, the American people, buy with our tax money? The following shows this approximately up to 1932:

1. First, we pay our debts—18 cents out of every dollar goes to pay the interest and principal on local, state and federal government debts.
 2. Second, we educate our children—about 17 cents of every governmental dollar goes to pay for education, including Colleges and Universities. In 1929-30 approximately 27,000,000 young people attended public schools and colleges in the United States.
 3. Third, we build roads—16 cents of the government dollar goes to construct and maintain roads.
 4. Fourth, we provide for the common defense,—11 cents of each government dollar goes to pay for military and naval defense, protection against fire, theft, etc.
 5. Fifth, we pay for the direct expense of government—8 cents is required for this.
 6. Sixth, we promote social welfare—Charity, hospitals, public health, protection of the Indians, etc., calls for 7 cents of the government dollar.
 7. Seventh, we foster the nations economic development—7 cents out of the tax dollar is spent for conservation, reclamation, agriculture, etc.
 8. Eighth, we provide for former soldiers and sailors—this calls for 6 cents of our tax dollar.
- These eight items—debt, schools, roads, defense, general government, social welfare, economic development, and veterans' expense—are responsible for 90 per cent of all government costs. The remaining ten per cent is divided among a host of governmental services. The governmental dollar means the combined dollar spent by local, state and federal governments.
- Among federal government expenditures, the item of education ranks below all other items listed above for the federal government spends only 1-2 of one percent on education.—From N. E. A. Journal, Nov. 1933.

SPECTRES ON PARADE

One reason why there is less appreciation than there should be of the horror of our annual automobile death toll is that the accidents happen far apart geographically, and at intervals throughout the entire year so that the total of a single locality does not particularly disturb us. Again, few motorists, comparatively speaking, see an accident in which someone is killed or seriously injured.

It would be well for the public to put its imagination to work on this situation. Here's one way to do it. Suppose that you, and all the millions of other car-owners, could be seated in a tremendous reviewing stand. Marching by slowly in front of you are the 35,000 shrouded spectres of persons who were killed by automobiles last year. To each shrouded figure is clinging one or more bereaved relatives. The parade would take many hours to pass—a silent, marching line of lives that had been destroyed because some one was careless or reckless or incompetent.

The very unpleasantness of that illustration is what makes it valuable. The fact that only an infinitesimal proportion of the 35,000 victims are killed in your community doesn't make any difference. Nor does the fact that only a comparatively few deaths occur on a given day. Remember that each year sees hundreds of tragedies as horrible as those of the Titanic or the Akron—and they are all unnecessary.

Think of that long, horrible parade. And then decide what kind of a driver you will strive to be in the future.

Rev. J. D. McWhorter and wife, who have been visiting friends in our city and who preached at the Methodist Church Sunday morning, has gone to his appointment at Liberty Hill. They leave two children in our county, Miss Lucile, who teacher the Rudd School, and Jim, who is now working on the W. A. Davis ranch.

Prof. Tommy Redford was in from Bailey Ranch Saturday shaking hands with friends. He is regaining his strength again, although he did not look like he was ready for a prize fight.

W. H. Parker, for 21 years a business man in our city, was carried to San Angelo Saturday and placed in the St. John's Hospital. He had been ill several days before leaving for San Angelo.

He was accompanied to San Angelo by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. W. M. Davis and a nephew E. C. Parker. His many warm friends trust that he will speedily recover his health and be with us again by this weekend.

THE PAST AND THE FUTURE

The test of a financial institution, as James Rodman, President of the American Thrift Insurance Company, wrote recently, is not the ability to meet its obligations in normal times—but to do so when times are abnormal and financial conditions are without precedent. That is the test the life insurance industry has met the past three years, with an amazingly small record of failures. During those three years—1930, 1931, and 1932—the industry paid to the public the vast sum of $6,000,000,000. The magnitude of this sum may be appreciated in the light of the fact that the total income of the farming industry in 1932 was less than $5,000,000,000—and close to 50,000,000 people are dependent on the farms for their livelihood.

When the history of the depression is finally written, the chapter that deals with life insurance will be one of the brightest. The stock market broke wide open, and high-grade bonds dropped to unbelievably low levels—yet almost every insurance policy was met precisely as the contract stipulated. Banks failed, businesses went under, and thousands of persons had their savings swept away—with the exception of their life insurance investment, which was unimpaired. It's impossible to detail in statistics the poverty and the want that life insurance prevented during these years of crisis—it is sufficient to say that, without it, the country might very well have been swept by a panic without rival in history.

That's what life insurance has done in the immediate past. As for the future—well, a great many of our citizens have learned that it is the safest and best of all investments for the average person. Life insurance's greatest epoch is still over the horizon. —Industrial News Review.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

NOV. 6 - 13.

It costs $300 a year to keep a man in prison.
It costs $100 a year to keep a child in school.

Humanity is born again with each new generation of children. Let us start their lives on sound foundations.

The school is an extension of the home. The child's school home shows what the community has planned for his welfare. Let us build for our children school homes that are clean and safe, symbols of our hopes for them and our faith in the future of the community.

"We cannot afford to allow a dollar-minded minority to place on the shoulders of the poor the support of our public high schools."—J. W. Crabtree.

Education costs the American people only 1-7 as much as automobiles and luxuries.

"In a republic, public education is not a gift, not charity, not a contribution to the needs of the poor and unfortunate parents. Its purpose is to adjust growing citizens to a growing world. We educate not to relieve parents but to protect and perpetuate our investment in culture and civilization."—E. H. S.

I SEE THE BRIGHT LIGHTS—AND OTHER THINGS

Lois Whitley
The Girls Encampment at Dallas consisted of one very long building (about a block and a half long). The bedrooms fill the west end of the buildings. A spacious livingroom and office in the center, and the huge dining room is at the lower or east end. Three hundred and thirty girls were quartered comfortably in this building.

Among the most amusing things was the trip to the amusement park. The girls rode, tried, and went through everything from Hobby horses, crazy houses and small electric cars, to ferris wheels, educational exhibits and rockets. Most of us had pictures taken at a miniature "photo studio" and our silhouettes cut for the fun of seeing ourselves.

We visited the Zoo and enjoyed watching the monkeys, most of all. They had a swimming pool and the little monkeys would dive from a diving board in the most peculiar ways.

At the theatre many of us thought the play was over, when the intermission came, and were all in favor of going back to camp, we supposed one ending was as good as another. During the day and night police men were stationed at the encampment. I heard the following conversation between two girls, about twelve thirty one night.

"You know I think grey headed policemen best."

"Why," ask the other in a whisper?

"Cause they don't whistle just for the fun of whistling and you can sleep."

The scenes between Mineral Wells and Dallas are very attractive. We inspected Arlington Downs and saw some most beautiful horses. We also viewed (from afar) a famous night club. However, the most beautiful of all was "Lover's Retreat" a small river running through a wild tangle of cliffs, trees and rocks. It looked interesting to me.

On arriving home we were startled to hear that while at Dallas, all three hundred and thirty of us had been exposed to diphtheria. I think that was a good ending for a perfect trip—don't you?

NEW DRAPES FOR STAGE

The new drapes that were ordered three week ago have arrived.

The material is of Monk's cloth and a heavy basket weave. It is a natural color. It came in a 50 yard bolt and is 59 inches wide.

The drapes cover the two sides and back of the stage.

The work on cutting and sewing the drapes was done by Mesdames T. K. Jones, Doc Kerr, F. M. Bradley, Bert Page, Miss Chris Enoch and Miss Zimmerman.

This improvement was badly needed and it helps the appearance of the stage more than can be described.

E. STANFORD IS YOUNGEST PUPIL IN HIGH SCHOOL

Inez Cobb
Elizabeth Stanford is the youngest pupil in high school, having graduated from grammar school and entered high school at the age of twelve. She was thirteen November 2, 1933. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanford. Elizabeth is classified as a Freshman. She takes English I, History I, Algebra I, and General Science.

If she continues making a grade each year, she will graduate from high school at the age of sixteen.

The first six weeks she was listed among the highest 25 percent of all the students in high school.

GRADE 4A FURNISHES ASSEMBLY PROGRAM

Dorothy King
The assembly program Wednesday morning was very interesting. The Fourth grade had charge of the program. The first number was a dramatization of William Tell by a group of Fourth grade boys. Next was another dramatization of "Hetty," a story of the Revolutionary war written by S. F. Crompton.

Two Swedish folk dances were given by the following Fourth grade girls: Lois Carr, Frances Clark, Neva Jo Steward, Joycelyn Pruitt, Lou Ella Parrent, Hazel Ruth Rodgers, Veneta Davis, Katherine Moore, Mary Jo Rape, Dorothy Jean Burk, Mary Hoover and Kathleen Crosby. The first dance was "I See You" and "Beking." The second was an action song entitled "When I was a School Girl."

All parents are invited to attend the assembly programs.

FOOTBALL BOYS GET THE TREATS

Alton Page
Last Saturday the game between the Eagles and Rocksprings was in the Eagles favor. The Eagles defeated the Rocksprings boys 6 to 0.

Last Saturday before the game Shorty Doyle said, "That the football boys would get a free haircut if they won the game." Bill Davis also said he would give all the boys a tonic if they won the game.

Mrs. Tom Jones arranged for the boys to get in the show free Friday night. After the show Mr. Holt took all the boys to a drugstore and gave them all a good treat. It looks like the boys are gaining more friends. All I can see that is wrong, is, that they do not have enough friends.

JOKES

W. C. Parks: May I speak to Jack?
Miss Ford: Well I wish you and Jack would get your speaking over.
W. C.: We would, but you don't give us time.

Samuel Smith: Clemens, what do you do all the time?
Clemens: Aw, nuthin' but work.

Samuel: Do you have to work very much?
Clemens: Boy I say I do, I have to work one day out of nearly every month.

Loleete: Inez what do you think are the prettiest coats that they have now?
Inez: The wool sack.

Freshman: How could you tell that I was a Freshman Halloween night?
Toodle Spurgers: I could tell by your fins.

JOKES

Billie Kerr: "A pronoun's a word that stands for another."
Miss Allen: "Give me an example."

Billie: "Mary milked the cow."
Miss A.: "Where's the pronoun?"
Billie: "Well didn't the cow stand for Mary?"

"Are you laughing at me?" demanded Miss Norwood in her Spanish II Class.
"No," came the answer in chorus.

"Well," insisted Miss Norwood, "What else is there in the room to laugh at?"
Inez Cobb: Oh, Joe, I heard you had a powerful pair of binoculars. I am surely glad because I just love big strong men."

Mary Jess Koy, promising young biology student, has just discovered that the way to a man's heart isn't through his stomach.

SIXTH GOES WILD WEST

Since ranching is of vital interest to everyone in this district, the sixth grade class decided to work up a ranch project in Art Class. Each member brought to class pictures of ranch animals for patterns. Some pupils made cattle, horses, sheep and pigs. Others made cowboys. These were all made from stiff cardboard with stands on them to make them stand upright. One boy made a ranch house, another the windmill, and another the bunk house.

They arranged their ranch in a sand table putting in a few shrubs in the pasture. The project was a splendid representation of a real ranch, and the pupils thoroughly enjoyed working it up.

"EDUCATION"

By Bill Smith
Rev. L. E. Frazier gave a very interesting talk on "Education" at the School Auditorium last Friday, November 3. The talk was a very good one. The student body being a very interested audience.
The talk was a great help to the pupils because it was easy enough for any one in the grammar grades to understand. This being education week all over the states, we had a good start.
Brother Frazier is an excellent speaker and he knows how to choose his words to put the problem over in a big way. The talk was a benefit to all that heard it.
The students of the Eldorado

High School would be very glad to have him come back right soon.

Reverend Frazier stressed the importance of an education to the boy or girl of today and showed how necessary it was to have at least a high school education in order to be able to compete with others and to be able to use our greater amount of leisure time to an advantage. He showed how there was a fight being made on the American public school today by certain economics interests who do not want to pay taxes to support schools or any thing else worth while—how the selfish interests of a few persons were being allowed to tear down and weaken an institution that was the very foundation of American democracy. The thing for parents to do and for teachers to do is to awaken to the danger which the schools face and see that the schools are made better, instead of being weakened, was the conclusion of the speaker.

HIGH SCHOOL 4-H BOY WINS NATIONAL HONORS

Cecil Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moore, and a sophomore in the Eldorado High School recently received notice that he was one of the nineteen 4-H boys in Texas who was awarded a free trip to the International Live Stock Show in Chicago, December 1 to 10th. This trip is made possible by the Santa Fe Railroad Company. We are proud of the record of this Eldorado pupil and believe that the trip will be a great step in his education. We congratulate Cecil on this distinction and honor.

RED CHAIN Egg Mash

PUTS IN THE EGG BASKET

WHAT OTHERS PUT ON PAPER

A fair feeding test of RED CHAIN is the best way to clear up conflicting claims about egg mash. Talk is cheap—and anyone can find nice words in the dictionary. On paper most feeds claim "more eggs at less cost"—but RED CHAIN actually does what others claim to do!

Don't buy your egg mash for what it does on paper—buy it for what it puts in the egg basket...Feed RED CHAIN to your own hens and see the difference between claims and results.

It is the unequalled quality of RED CHAIN Egg Mash that makes it the cheapest egg producer—regardless of price.

IN OUR COUNTY

November 7th, 1933.
To The Eldorado Success,
Eldorado, Texas.

Dear Readers:—

Here's something a little more timely than I had expected to give you for this time,—so I will save the other for a later date, instead of taking up too much space.

On October 28th, there was held at Mayer No. 2 School, in our County, an entertainment in the nature of a carnival, stage show and dance. A conservative estimate would be that about 50 people attended,—most of them from Menard County, San Angelo and other outside points. I believe that it was a delightful affair and that all enjoyed themselves. Schleicher County (and Mayer No. 2 School District) welcomes and appreciates visitors—most of them—and we hope that they will come back again,—most of them.

During the entertainment a very active lady from Menard County, who was running one of the food stands, said to a lady from Schleicher County, "Well, I reckon that Leslie Jones is snooping around here to see how things are going on," (or words to that effect). And that was just about what he was doing: as a trustee of Mayer No. 2 school he believes that it is his duty to know something about what is going on in the way of school business and at the school-house.

As a trustee, I did not give permission for the affair to be held in the school-house, for the very simple reason that I can not recognize as a legal teacher the young lady who is acting as teacher for the so-called school (personally and unofficially I think it was all right provided that it had been properly supervised). It would appear, judging by press reports and a letter from the acting teacher, that permission for the affair was granted by one legal trustee and a lady living in Ohio. According to my understanding of the law (not "Jones" law) the lady in Ohio is not yet a legally qualified trustee. (If I am in error I would be glad to be so advised by letter so that I may make correction in these columns.) However, that point is not important in this discussion, so we will agree that the permission was given by one lady trustee and possibly by the lady in Ohio.

All right, folks, I have insisted that a lady in Ohio is not in a very handy position to KNOW what is going on in and around Fort McKavett, Texas,—except of course by hearsay. We will here let the ladies prove my point for me.

The entertainment on the 28th was, I believe, a very nice affair. Most of those present were ladies and gentlemen and children. But, as is often the case, there were some "drunks" permitted to be very much in evidence; three of them came under my personal observation and they were certainly disgusting. During the contest for the "most popular girl," where they paid a penny for each vote I think, these three individuals were staggering around the school-room, talking loudly and not too cleanly,—and they were much in evidence as the principal bidders. Later during the dance, I am told, that one of them was even a little louder than the others by asking repeatedly, "Who the—got my check?" (He had apparently given a check when he was bidding for the popular girl).

Now, I believe that drinking, like eating, comes under the heading of "Personal Rights."

Black-Draught Clears Up Sluggish, Dull Feeling

"I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation for a long time, and find it gives relief for this trouble," writes Mrs. Frank Champion, of Wynne, Ark. "I think it is good for spells caused from gas on the stomach. If I get up in the morning feeling dull and sluggish, a dose of Black-Draught taken three times a day will cause the feeling to pass away, and in a day or two I feel like a new person. After many years of use we would not exchange Black-Draught for any medicine."
P. S.—If you have children, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theford's Black-Draught.

I think that we should be permitted to eat and drink as we please. But when a person is such a hog that he drinks more than he can carry and be decent, he then becomes a nuisance to the ladies and gentlemen and innocent children around him and I believe that he should be moved out of the way until he can be decent,—and that no matter who he is.

Do you for one moment think that the lady in Ohio, who apparently aspires to the position of school trustee again, would approve of such disgusting things at a meeting in our school-house? I certainly do not think she would approve. But what does she know about what is going on down here. Of course she hears a plenty,—but what does she know to her own knowledge? Apparently she votes in blank by remote control through the other lady trustee. If the affair was given without her consent, we should know it and I will be glad to make correction.

This is only one example of 'trusteeing by remote control.' There have been many others. The affair on October 28th, was, I believe, a very nice affair, and under proper supervision the indecent members present could have been kept out of the school building at least. So far as I could see there was no supervision whatever.

Thanks for listening.
Sincerely,
H. Leslie Jones.

That Old Crazy Boy Says:

The conquest of duty, by which we not only do it, but enjoy doing it, counting the gains far greater than the losses, is an illustration of what the psychologists call selective attention. Some folks dwell upon the positive gains in right living others dwell upon the negative self-denials.

The reason a lot of people can not find Opportunity is it goes about disguised as Hard Work.

Do not let it be a secret that you are a soldier of Christ. Before passing judgement on a sermon be sure to try it out in practice.

Of course you know the reason the things I say sound so crazy is because I AINT got no sense. Thank you.
