Coldest Spell

Of Winter
Tuesday, after a lovely day for Christmas, the weatherman began to show his wintery appearance and by Wednesday morning the mercury was hanging around 27, which makes this about the coldest spell of the winter. The weather remaining dry in this section.

Mrs. A. P. Bailey is at present staying in Temple with her son, Payne, who has been moved from the hospital there out in town. Reports are, that he may be able to return home with her in about three more weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Martin, of McCamey, were here for the Christmas holidays visiting friends and relatives.

The Editor and tribe enjoyed a nice lot of fresh turnips grown on the W. E. Bruton farm, through the kindness of Mrs. Bruton.

Ray Willoughby of this city has leased the 17,000-acre John Bailey ranch in northeastern Crockett County from John Bailey for a period of years and bought 3,500 bred ewes and the cattle on the place, getting possession January 1. It is one of the best improved ranches in West Texas. Mr. Willoughby has also leased a 11,000-acre place 10 miles west of Granbury from D. C. Cogdell, and stocked it with lambs from his home ranch in Schleicher County. He leased about 12,000 acres 20 miles northwest of Fort Stockton, and in addition operates his home ranch near Eldorado.—San Angelo Morning-Times.

SCHLEICHER AND TOM GREEN COUNTIES PASSES AWAY

Calvin T. (Tobe) Sproul, one of Schleicher County's earliest settlers, coming to the Concho country in the early eighties, died at his home in Eldorado Friday December 22, 1933, having reached his 81st birthday and beyond.

Mr. Sproul was born in Austin March 26th, 1852, his parents having come to Texas from Virginia. He grew into manhood in the country between Austin and San Antonio being a cowboy of the day he grew up and worked cattle from Austin to the Rio Grande. He came to Tom Green in 1882, and it was the writers privilege to have known him since his arrival, in fact we are not just sure when we first knew him as we were so small, but to have known him is to admire him as he was a typical westerner and his home was always open to his friends and the wayfaring traveler from our earliest recollection until the end came. He is among the last few early day cowboys that gathered around the home of this writer's parents for the Christmas Holidays during the eighties and was a familiar character at most of the gatherings in our community, out of some 25 or 30 men there is only two or three left of the old timers.

He was married to Miss Nannie Evans at Christoval and to this union was born seven children, one died in infancy and the other six survive him together with his widow. He was a member of the Baptist Church and the funeral services were conducted from the Church at 2:30 Saturday December 23rd, with the Pastor Leon Frazier, assisted by Rev. W. H. Marshall and Rev. J. L. Ratliff, with the Eldorado Funeral Service in charge, and entombment in the Eldorado Cemetery in the presence of friends and all his children.

The pall bearers were D. E. DeLong, O. E. Conner, A. T. Wright, H. W. Finley, Joe Edens and R. M. Murray.

His children are Miss Ora Sproul, Robert Sproul and Bill Sproul of Eldorado; Mrs. Annie Knight, Sterling City; Mrs. Louise Bruton, Menard and Floyd Sproul, Sweetwater, Texas, all of which were with him and attended his last hours here. His nephew, Oscar Sproul and wife of Fort Davis were here for the funeral service.

When one has lived through the early days of the settlement of this section of Texas, he alone can only appreciate the Old Timers like Mr. Sproul. When he came to this section of the country it was an open range with but few homes and they were some distance apart and often such men as he were out on the range for months at a time with a wagon as headquarters. He has attended his last round-up. He has finished his last work in the bringing of civilization and homes to this section of Texas. He has saddled his last pony and crossed the great Divide to rest with his comrades and friends who have preceded him to that land where the true in heart and faithful meet to part no more. For the past five or six years Eldorado has had a funeral on Christmas Day. This year it was just before, but we have long since learned the old must die and the young may, so our departed friend at this season had lived far beyond the promised allotment for mankind. He has just past from suffering into that life promised in the good book for those who die in the Lord.

Senator Connally Urges Support Of President

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 23.—Calling upon all Texas Democrats to continue whole-hearted support of President Roosevelt and his recovery program, United States Senator Tom Connally, junior member of the upper House from Texas declared, in an interview here on the eve of his departure for Washington that the Roosevelt recovery program in nine months has "wrought an orderly revolution against economic distress and turned the tide of battle against economic chaos and bankruptcy."

"The people of Texas," Senator Connally declared, "have felt the beneficial effects of the Roosevelt program in fullest measure and, by reason of the state's standing as the first agricultural state of the nation, were among the first to benefit from the New Deal."

"The Roosevelt administration promised agricultural relief, and that pledge has been redeemed," said Senator Connally. "Cotton was selling at the lowest price in 40 years, wheat the lowest figure in 300 years, and agriculture, the basis of all our economic life, was virtually paralyzed."

"Cotton rose, from 6c on Mar. 15, to 10.6c on July 15; wheat rose from 34 5/8c to 68c in the same period. Texas received $277,384,000 for the 1933 cotton crop, as compared with $158,371,000 for the 1932 crop, including the millions of cash poured into the State in the plow-up campaign. This tremendous gain for Texas agriculture has not been restricted to farmers, of course, because every bank, every merchant, every holder of a farm note, and practically every individual in the State has felt the reviving effects of the farmers' rehabilitation."

"During the forthcoming session of Congress, there will be some sniping at the President and his recovery program," said Sen. Connally. "This will emanate from a few Republicans who hope to gain some advantage in the November general elections, and from a small number of disgruntled Democrats who hope to win for themselves some advantages in the July primary elections. Strange as it may seem, the President's farm relief legislation which has wrought such tremendous advantages to the farmers of this country, is opposed by some members of Congress, whose constituents have derived the greatest benefits therefrom."

"I think it no more than fair that the Democrats of Texas should demand and expect of their representatives in Congress 100 percent support for our great and wise leader, President Roosevelt, during the forthcoming session of Congress."

Political observers attached some significance to Senator Connally's interview as bearing upon the issues in the forthcoming primary contest in which Congressman At Large Joseph W. Bailey of Dallas, has announced he will seek to succeed Connally in the Senate. They pointed out that the farm relief legislation, which Connally supported and Bailey opposed in Congress, is likely to become the leading issue in the Senatorial contest, particularly in the rural sections of the State where farm relief has brought the tangible benefits outlined by Connally in the short space of nine months.

Pat Martin was in from the ranch Tuesday looking after business and trading.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown and family of Austin were visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bearce for the Christmas Holidays.

Bob Cats Lost To Dallas Tech

LIONS CLUB LUNCHEON

The Eldorado Lions Club met Wednesday for regular Luncheon, with quite a few members absent.

Visitors for the day was Jack Ratliff from Baylor University. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Blasienz of Calvert, Texas, Mrs. Lucile Walker of Abilene and Mrs. E. C. Hill, Mesdames Hill and Walker were on the program. Mrs. Walker singing, "Lassie O' Mine" and "Smilin' Through" with Mrs. Hill at the Piano.

Lion Jarvis was chairman of the meeting in the absence of Lion Holt, and Chairman Hill of this District announced that the District meeting was set at Junction on January 10th, 1934 at the noon hour.

About ten members said that they expected to attend and others that are away will likely go. Plans will be made there for the next two group meetings. The first will probably be held at Ozona and the next at San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hill had as their guests for the Christmas Holiday, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Goen of Tyler. Mrs. Goen is a sister of Mrs. Hill; Tom Blasienz, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Blasienz, of Calvert. Tom and Jerry are twin brothers of Mrs. Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Blasienz were on their honeymoon having just married on Friday before coming here. This annual Christmas fete has been going on for several years, one year here and the next at Calvert, but Tom says it will be every three years now as Jerry will come in for the third year's feast. It is real delightful when families can get together on annual occasions and live over their lives together again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bearce enjoyed having all their children home with them for the Holidays except Mrs. Irby Boynton, who lives in Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown of Austin; Mr. Lois Beavers and daughter, Miss Ouida of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith of Kerrville all visited here for the Christmas meal, and Richard and family were in from the ranch.

The "Pound Party"

Invitations were extended Monday to a large number of our citizens, of the younger set to attend a "Pound Party" at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alexander on Tuesday night.

We were some what jubious at first, as we were afraid we might get "pounded up," but on being assured that no bodily injury was likely we ventured out, arming ourself with a pound cake (of soap) on arrival we found quite a number present. We present ourselves and were requested to register our names and what we had brought (here we were into it again until we read the entry ahead it was cake, so we signed up and entered "cake" after our name. Then Miss Emma asked for the cake and then we had to produce our cake—of soap).

After the guests had all arrived their pounds were placed on the table in the dining room and all invited in to partake of the lunch provided. After partaking of the dainties, all enjoyed the arduous games and music until a late hour when, after bidding our hostess many pleasant returns, we departed for our homes.

Among those present and the jobs they brought were:

- W. N. Cozzens, crackers; Jud Jones, crackers and blackberries; J. E. Cozzens, cheese; Jemie Murphy, jelly cake; Ed Douglas, pecans; Myrtle Smith, caramel cake; Susie Cantrell, peaches; Cecil Elder, peaches; Pat Elder, crackers; Ed Cozzens, fruit; Mattie Bailey, strawberries; Beulah Saulter, cake; Leetie Anderson, orange cake; Lee, Mittie and Tommie Fields, caramel cake; R. L. Carothers, "cake"; Stella Bird, pineapple cake; Joab Campbell, spuds; Madie Bird, pineapple cake; Albert Wright, corn beef; Archie Wright, beans; Steve Wright, a new face; Scottie and Roxie Ingram, jelly cake; V. G. Tisdale, almonds; Maud Cozzens, orange and coconut cake; Lucetta McCleary, jelly cake; Bessie Holland, —; Lottie Hill, jelly cake; Joseph Elder, 1 lb nothing; Edgar Bird, blackberries.

Judge Bradley received a letter from Commissioner J. F. Runge who with his family are visiting Mr. Runge's parents at Corpus Christi. He writes that it might still be dry in Schleicher but there was plenty of water in that pond down there.

Rev. W. H. Marshall went to Temple Monday for a re-examination. He has been doing nicely since his last visit there and feels as well as he ever did and has gained several pounds in weight. He will return in time for the regular services Sunday.

DECEMBER 29, 1933.

Well you can get ready to begin writing 1934. You will probably need several days practice before you can get it perfect.

If you let the year get by without renewing your subscription to The Success you can begin the New Year right by doing so now.

The Christmas Holidays passed off with about as few drunks here as we have ever had. People are becoming wiser that booze neither makes a man money or friends.

Just one or two car wrecks and so far no one seriously injured in our city on Christmas Day.

THOUGHTS OF JERUSALEM

As Christmas passes and the old year gives way to the new, thoughts of Jerusalem, the Holy Land, appear in thousands of minds—and the sentiments those thoughts express are echoed in thousands of hearts. No place in the world, not even those imagined places beyond the atmosphere of the world we know, has exerted so strong and unfading an influence on the imaginations of mankind as has the Cradle of Christianity.

In Jerusalem, practically unchanged through nineteen hundred years, are the scenes that Christ knew. The age-old hills of Judea remain through time, as do the green pastures and still waters of Biblical significance. The Garden of Gethsemane is there, and the Cradle of Jesus. The River Jordan, by its name the mightiest of all the rivers of the world, flows on as ever, serenely to the sea. And in quiet Palestine are the streets and buildings that were old before the Christian calendar began. The Plain of Saron is still fruitful, and the rose of which Solomon sang in the most majestic of all poetry, blooms bravely. And there is Cana of Galilee, scene of the wedding feast, and Nazareth, where the carpenter who was to change all the civilized world, grew to manhood. Not an inch of earth but is rich in history, and in the lore of ages. Not a scene but brings to mind some stirring passage from the testaments.

No journey offers the traveler so much in historical importance, in the pleasures of meditation and study. It is a strange fact that but one in two hundred of the ministers who preach the gospel in this country, have ever visited Palestine. But one in thousands of their congregations have set foot on the ground that the prophets trod. Palestine is beside creed beside denominations—it embraces them all, and its history belongs to all. Those who are so fortunate as to go to it, once, twice or a dozen times, are to be envied.—Industrial News Review.

Many hearts are made glad on Christmas. Others are made sad on Christmas. The wedding bells ring merrily, the death bells toll out their mournful sound and the many accidents because of the Holiday glee brings untold sorrow. Yet behind it all there is a merriment that survives with most of us, and after all Christmas is a jolly good time in many instances wasted. Oh the good that could be done with the Christmas waste. People suffering on every hand. We should get the Christmas spirit, the Christ like living, be happy and pleasant our selves and live to make others happy.

The Christmas Holiday accidents over the United States were the largest in years, according to Press Dispatches. A total of 180 deaths reported, mostly from motor car accidents. Liquor and gas does not work together in the same car, especially when the man has the liquor in him and the car the gas. If the liquor was in the car and the gas in the man they might get by.

With this issue of The Success we greet our readers for the 27th consecutive year end as Editor of this paper, and it is the 34th year that it has greeted the people of this county. We trust we have measured up to the highest expectation of the people. We have stood for the better things in life against the wrong, have always been found on the moral side of every public question and not afraid to speak out for the cause of right over wrong.

We regret that this has not met the approval of all, such a thing is impossible. No man in public life can do so and why should we expect to, but we are thankful that most of our citizenship have voiced their approval, as our subscription list continues to grow inspite of the past three years of depression, and it is for this end we have survived. We can offer our advertisers the largest list of readers we have ever had during the 27 years we have published The Success and this is what advertisers want.

Those who read The Success want the news first. This we strive to give. It gets our first attention, then we appreciate the advertisements, and our readers are requested to encourage those that patronize these columns with their ads and show them that it is worthwhile to advertise their goods.

We have enjoyed a good business considering the condition of the country and the strenuous times we have passed through. Many businesses have come and gone during our 27 years. All save one has not survived, some have made good money, others have lost, the country is not to blame, in most cases it has been the individual.

We close this year 1933 with no regrets, conscious of the fact that a new day awaits us and that the future looks as bright as the noonday sun. We have finished our work of 1933, whether we failed or not, it can not be helped. We can not make the New Year full of bright spots and will strive to do so to the best of our knowledge and ability, with your help and cooperation it can and will be done. Any good honest citizen can read The Success if he wishes. We can make it possible for him to do so, why should he be without it? As we close this column for the week we also close it for the year. We wish each of you a Happy and Prosperous New Year—
 The Editor.

ON TEXAS FARMS
 By W. H. Darrow,
 Extension Service Editor

"People are crying that the depression is terrible, that they cannot get as much to eat as formerly. I believe if they will just grasp Opportunity by the horns and put forth every effort there is no reason for their pantry shelves to be empty their children crying for food and their husbands out of sort." So speaks Mrs. O. C. Barlow, a Kaufman county farm wife who has 984 quarts of fruits, vegetables and meats on her pantry shelves as a result of her work as a home demonstration club 4-H pantry demonstrator at Prairieville.

Twenty-eight Nolan county 4-H club boys put baby beeves on home grown rations of ground milo heads, bundle sorghum and cottonseed meal in November in preparation for a cattle show May 15th.

From a 2-acre pecan orchard put out 18 years ago, but which really started 7 years ago when he began top working unprofitable trees to improved varieties S. R. Buchanan of Saratoga Hardin county, has sold $200 worth of pecans and has several hundred pounds on hand to sell the county agent reports.

A local canning record has been established by Mrs. Y. R. Gaitner, home demonstration club 4-H pantry demonstrator in Johnson county. She has 1633 containers of food. Everything in the pantry was produced on the farm except 1-2-bushel of apples.

A small farm poultry flock, if properly managed, is still a good paying investment, says the county agent in Blanco county, who points to the year's records of four demonstrators. A total of 929 hens land an average of 157 1-2 eggs each at a feed cost of 4.5 cents per dozen. Total income per hen was 84 cents.

Marion county farmers are said by the county agent to be planting more home orchards this winter than at any time in 20 years.

Mrs. Lois Beavers and daughter Miss Ouida of Abilene were here for the Christmas Holidays visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bearce.

STATE HEALTH DEPARTMENT URGES REGULAR EXAMINATION

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 28.—At the close of the old year, and looking forward to 1934, Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer, reminds Texans that this is inventory time and that it is quite as important to "take stock" of one's physical assets and liabilities as it is of one's financial resources.

"We would not think of running our automobiles without having them thoroughly gone over, every now and then. But we neglect to have this very important thing done to the wonderful human mechanism we carry around with us in our bodies. We can buy spare parts for our automobiles—engines, batteries, wires, all the rest of the paraphernalia that goes into the making of a serviceable car, but when the heart, the kidneys, the nervous system, or other parts of the human machine show signs of wear and tear, we can't replace them with new ones. But we can find out how to take care of our human mechanism, so that we can conserve and prolong its usefulness.

"One of the best ways to do this is for each person to go to his or her doctor, at regular intervals, for a thorough medical inspection of the human machine. If a weak spot has developed in some part of the system very often the doctor can advise as to ways by which the encroaching weakness or disease can be checked. This will help in prolonging life and prolonging it for healthy usefulness.

"The boys and girls who are growing up today are getting accustomed to these periodical examinations through the regular inspections they have in school. And every young mother knows that the best way to keep her baby and her other young children well is by having them under regular medical supervision. So, it is the grown-ups who need this advice, and I urge each individual who has not had an examination recently to begin the New Year by following the custom of the wide awake motorist. Have him check up on all parts of the machine. Then do as he tells you to do."

ADMINISTRATION LIBRARY SHEEP AND GOAT BUILDING OF UNIVERSITY TO BE COMPLETED SOREMOOUTH VACCINE

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 18.—

With the allotment to The University of Texas of a loan and 30 per cent grant, totaling $1,633,000, for the construction of the final unit of the Administration-Library Building, which will replace the remaining part of the original Main Building, the rounding out of the great building program of the University is in sight. It is expected that construction will be started within six months and will require seventeen months. With equipment, this additional structure and the nine other buildings which were recently erected on the University campus will represent an investment well over $6,000,000. This is exclusive of landscaping, Memorial Gateway and other beautifications and ornamentalations, which when the program has been completed shall have cost an additional $400,000, or more.

Not a cent of money that has been and will continue to be used for these and other recent improvements has come from the taxpayers of Texas. The money has come from the sale of oil and grass from the land endowment of 2,000,000 acres which the University owns.

The legislature approved a plan whereby the Board of Regents would issue obligation bonds in the maximum amount of $1,200,000, secured by the unencumbered part of the available fund, that is, from grazing and other surface leases, which would be pledged as collateral with the Federal government to guarantee the repayment of the loan requested. The regents submitted originally a request for $2,800,000, of which $1,800,000 would be for the main building-library extension and $1,000,000 for four or five self-liquidating dormitories.

The most striking feature of the new administration-library building will be a tower of 31 stories or levels, to be used for book stacks, and perhaps some offices. The height of the tower will be 286 feet, including the elevation of the building upon which it will rest. The new addition is designed to house the offices of the president, comptroller, registrar, auditor and other administrative offices.

Got Over Weak, Painful Condition By Taking Cardui

"I was weak and run-down and suffered quite a bit with pains in my side," writes Mrs. Nick Baranco, of Beaumont, Texas. "I was nervous. I did not rest well at night, and my appetite was poor. My mother had used Cardui with beneficial result, so I decided to take it. I surely am glad I did, for it stopped the pain in my side and built up my general health. I took seven bottles in all." For over 50 years, Cardui has been helping women just as this Texas lady describes above. Cardui is sold at all drug stores.

By W. H. Dameron, Superintendent, Ranch Experiment Station, Sonora, Texas.

The Ranch Experiment Station between Sonora and Rock Springs manufactured and distributed during the year of 1933 to Texas ranchmen, 1,361,700 doses of soremouth vaccine for sheep and goats. Reports of the users of the product and examinations of large numbers of treated animals by the Experiment Station veterinarians show that the results secured with this vaccine were entirely satisfactory in warding off the disease of soremouth and its accompanying grievances as appear on the ranches.

In addition to making field observations, Station investigators, in response to reports of soremouth outbreaks, frequently occur after the lambs arrive at the feed-lot and progress of fattening is retarded some 2 or 3 weeks. Inspected 33,659 of these spring-vaccinated Texas lambs in the feed lots of Kansas and Colorado after they were shipped out this fall, and found that none of them had soremouth, whereas, of 15,450 head of non-vaccinated lambs in the same feed lots there were found 1,532 cases or a 10 per cent infection of soremouth. In the feed lots around Plainview, Texas, 2600 vaccinated and 1700 non-vaccinated lambs were examined. In the non-vaccinated group, 5 per cent of the lambs had sore mouth, while in the vaccinated group there was not a case of soremouth.

The soremouth vaccine was manufactured and distributed by the Ranch Experiment Station this year at the request of the ranchmen but more or less in an experimental way, so as to acquaint them with the product and the methods of handling it. Some vaccine above the amount specified was sent out with each order so that the ranchmen would have no difficulty in getting the number of doses requested on his order, in case he should use an excessive amount. It was also felt that for the first year of its use the vaccine should be distributed more or less in an introductory way so as to encourage its wide use and distribution when needed. For these purposes it was decided early in the season that the cost of the vaccine to the ranchmen should be at a minimum and the price was set at one-half cent per dose to defray the expense of manufacture and distribution. It is felt that its value and the methods of handling it have been well established.

The Experiment Station has been urged by the sheepmen to manufacture and distribute the vaccine for this coming year, which will be done. It will be necessary to raise the price to one cent per dose, beginning January 1, 1934. At this price the Station will be able to defray additional overseas expenses in the manufacture and distribution of the vaccine and at the same time conduct the regular experimental work without interruption.

The Ranch Experiment Station does not hesitate to encourage the use and wide distribution of this vaccine where soremouth has been prevalent. One cent per dose is in line with the cost of production and the cheapest insurance that sheepmen can buy to prevent an outbreak of this dreaded disease at the most critical time in the life of their lambs. Sheepmen are urged to place their orders early, and in writing as was done the past year. The dosage shipped in 1934 will be the exact amount ordered and growers should not figure on excess dosage such as was included with orders in 1933.

STABILITY THROUGH COOPERATION

In a brief address to the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, Francis V. Keesling, President of the American Life Convention, said: "Cooperation as I conceive it, relates to efforts to assure stability in our own business, and includes cooperation to insure the stability of all other business. . . . Only the most superficial consideration of the subject demonstrates that insurance is vitally related to business generally. In fact, real business stability demands that the business executive be concerned not only with the problems of other executives in his own line but as well must have a sympathetic and very positive interest in the troubles of executives in other lines of business."

Mr. Keesling's conception of life insurance is very progressive. Now, with the seeds of recovery sown, the value of life insurance working with other industries to promote sound business and governmental practices, becomes doubly important.

The American people have great faith in life insurance and listen eagerly to what men high in the industry say. As Mr. Keesling intimates, life insurance is and will be one of the greatest tools in building and maintaining stability.—Industrial News Review.

SILVER AND PROSPERITY

Proponents of monetization of silver are finding a steadily increasing number of allies among business men, economists, officials and the public generally.

This would be an excellent time for an unbiased survey of potential legislation toward that end. The uncertain monetary question is one of the most perplexing problems of the time and its early settlement is vital to recovery.—Industrial News Review.

THE MODERN SMALL HOME

The small home of the future will be a very different sort of a place than that of the past. It will offer, at a very moderate price, advantages, conveniences and comforts that were unknown even in the mansions of another time. It will be more attractive to the eye, and offer infinitely greater possibilities of originality in design and treatment. And, most important of all perhaps, it will provide the maximum of protection against fire, tornadoes, hurricanes and other destructive elements.

The objectives to be attained in the modern home, are low first cost, low depreciation, low maintenance and long-time economy. And for three and four or five thousand dollars, distinctive homes embracing all these features, may be had.

In the not-too-distant future there is going to be a residential building boom in this country. America is "short" thousands of homes—population drift, coupled with fire and obsolescence and other destroyers, have continued to increase the housing need at a time when building of all kinds has been at the absolute bottom. The wise home builder, using modern materials and methods, is going to get more for what he spends than the home builder of the past imagined would ever be possible.
