MEDITATIONS

By The Editor

There comes a time in the lives of all of us when we are put to task in trying to express to our fellow men and friends consolation in their dark hours of sorrow.

Few persons are gifted with conception of understanding of the feelings of friends. Still fewer are enabled to express sympathies in words and therefore have to magnify their sympathies by their deeds.

In our humble way, we would this week, like to dedicate this column to parents, and especially the mothers, of men in foreign service. Some of these splendid men are in the various theatres of war, some are prisoners, others are reported missing in action, while some have even paid the supreme price.

Friendships are drawn together more closely in instances when some of the loved ones are reported missing in action, or are taken prisoners. This is as it should be. Friendships are built by sacrifices and understanding of one another. Friends can offer one another the very thoughts that are sometimes needed to help in making dark hours a little lighter.

We would like to take this opportunity to pay a tribute to a fine Texas young man and his family this week, realizing that they are only one family in thousands who are experiencing such an ordeal.

Our thoughts and prayers are with First Lieut. Robert L. Taylor, who with his crew, are missing East of Hamburg, Germany in one of the recent aerial raids on that sector of enemy territory. Lieutenant Taylor and his family have been intimate friends of this family for years, sharing our sorrows and joys; helping us to endure in times when the shadow of death was lurking at our door.

This young man lacked but only a few days until he would have been able to come home for a visit with his loved ones. In a letter to us last week he expressed the degree of enthusiasm in which he was planning to visit in the states and with us, and then return to his post of duty, which he has expressed his thoughts time and again, as affording him an opportunity to fulfill his lifetime's ambition—flying; also defending his country. He had been awarded many medals, including the purple heart, after he was recently wounded in aerial combat.

For our consolation, and as consolation to his mother and family, along with other mothers and families, we would like to say that friendships should become closer, which they will if we but council in prayer and remember such scripture as this which we quote in conclusion:

"Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear."

J. B. Kidd Injured When Mount Falls

Tuesday morning, about 11 o'clock while attempting to head a herd of cattle, J. B. Kidd, foreman of the Thad Thomson ranch, was painfully injured when his horse slipped and fell when his feet struck rocks, throwing Kidd to the ground. Reports are that Kidd's head struck a rock and that he suffered a severe bruise on the arm and shoulder. He was brought to an Eldorado physician who said that although the bruises were painful and that the ranchman was suffering from shock his condition was not considered critical.

Hill Country Firemen To Meet Here In Feb.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sproul and Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie West were in Miles Tuesday of this week attending the Hill Country Firemen's Convention. They report a good meeting affording much information and also enjoyable addresses by Cong. O. C. Fisher and Representative Satterwhite. Bill says that the most enjoyable thing of the meet was the splendid chicken supper served in the evening.

The two local firemen extended the convention an invitation to meet in Eldorado in February, which invitation was accepted. Tentative date for the meet is the second Tuesday of the month. No doubt the local boys will have a well-arranged program that will afford the visiting firemen good entertainment as well as instructive fire-fighting information.

ATTEND SCOUT JAMBOREE IN JUNCTION

Scout Master Buster Gunn accompanied by Scouts Bill Lewis Humphrey, Bevard and Paul Keele, Ray Long, Howard Parker, Joe Chan Whitten and Billy Sam Breedlove spent Wednesday night and Thursday at Junction attending a Scout Jamboree. The boys participated in a water carnival and entered upon several other phases of Scout work which will add to their Scout classifications.

MATTHEWS TO UTOPIA; W. O. AKINS' MOVE HERE

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Matthews and children are to move to Utopia the first of next week where Mr. Matthews will assume duties of a store at the place.

Matthews is being replaced at the Red & White Store here by W. O. Akin, who is now employed as manager of the local market for Red & White. Mr. and Mrs. Akin and baby daughter are at home in the Bob Evans house. They formerly lived in Eden.

In a ruling received after a local committee presented a request to the War Production Board in San Antonio recently, and the Board in turn wired the Washington office in regard to the matter, the request for fire-fighting equipment was refused.

On the appointed committee was C. L. Meador, Jr., County Judge, who was solicited to act as head of the committee, and who in turn prepared a brief containing "approximate" damages suffered in the county by fires of various nature, and which fires at the time were being combated principally by volunteer firemen by very primitive means.

However, since the presentation of the request a truck has been placed in the county by the Army, which has, to a degree, relieved the situation considerably.

For information of those interested in the movement to secure the equipment that was deemed necessary to preserve range land in the face of the continued drought, and other property in the county the following brief presented in San Antonio by the committee is being published. Following this brief is the letter received by the committee from WPB, containing a stated opinion of an Army official:

ITEM B

Schleicher County, Texas a body incorporate and political, and a political subdivision of the State of Texas; hereby makes application for authority to purchase a new truck which is to be used in cooperation with the United States Government to fight and prevent grass and timber fires throughout this County.

The United States Government has located several practice bombing targets throughout this County, and flyers from the Post near San Angelo, Texas who bomb these targets continuously with practice bombs are missing targets and causing numerous grass fires at all hours of the day and night. Unless these fires are immediately extinguished they can cause considerable damage.

REVIVAL WORKERS ENTERTAIN LIONS'

While members of the local Lions club had lunch Wednesday noon, they were entertained by Mrs. Veola Short, who played the piano and rendered several solos. Immediately following the luncheon, Re. A. C. Douglas, Fort Stockton Methodist pastor, delivered an address to an attentive audience that later expressed their enjoyment of the talk.

The Rev. Mr. Douglas is a Lion and is in Eldorado doing the preaching at a revival being held at the local Methodist church. Mrs. Short, USO hostess of Wichita Falls, is choir director for the meeting, doing the work while on vacation from her duties at the club.

Rex McCormick In Hospital After Injury

Rex McCormick, Schleicher county rancher-farmer, is in a San Angelo Hospital suffering from injuries received Saturday morning of last week when a horse he was riding fell with him.

The accident happened when McCormick was riding at a fast rate of speed down a lane in his field going to a crew harvesting feed. Failing to notice a wire gate being closed, the animal ran into it, falling and throwing McCormick to the ground where he struck soft soil, which probably saved his life. He was brought to Eldorado for medical attention and later taken to a San Angelo Hospital where it was determined that he had suffered a light brain concussion, along with other severe bruises.

Reports at press time indicate that his condition is improving.

Soil Supervisors Met Monday

Supervisors of the Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District met Monday, August 9, in their regular monthly meeting. The group includes J. Forrest Runge, B. E. Moore, J. E. Spencer, all representing Schleicher County, and E. E. Foster, Jr., from Tom Green County.

The Supervisors approved 10 completed soil and water conservation plans which included 12,926 acres of farm and ranch land in Schleicher County and 230 acres in Tom Green County. Applications for planning assistance were approved on 12 farms and ranches in the District totaling 18,385 acres.

met Monday afternoon with the Schleicher County Commissioners Court to request the Court's assistance in making machinery available to farmers and ranchers for terrace construction. Mr. Runge, Chairman, pointed out that a total of 380 miles of terraces have been planned on 89 Schleicher County farms. At the present AAA payment of $42.24 per mile, more than $16,000, (Continued on Page Five)

SCOUT DRIVE NETS MORE THAN $200

Announcement was made this week that slightly over $200 was secure in the drive last Saturday for the Boy Scout finance fund. This fund will go toward carrying on scouting for another year in the Concho Valley District. Although the fund did not reach last year's figures more contacts were made, acquainting more persons with Scouting.

GROWS FINE TOMATOES

Some of the finest species of home grown tomatoes were brought to the Success office last week by Mrs. Rex McCormick. They were large in size, well formed and luscious to taste. Thanks, Mrs. McCormick.

City-Wide Clean-up Is Sought Immediately

Suggesting a city-wide clean-up campaign patterned after many other towns, members of the local Lions club in their weekly meeting Wednesday, stated the matter will be brought up at the next meeting and plans perfected to carry out a campaign for the clean-up.

This move is sorely needed in view of the fact that there is an epidemic of polio (infantile paralysis) over the entire continent, and many cases reported in adjoining counties and over the state. Although no cases are reported here, the clean-up, no doubt, would go far toward preventing the appearance of the disease in Eldorado. The prevention of the disease from striking any one individual would be well worth any effort and expense incurred in the move to remove rubbish, trash, weeds and foreign matter from lots over the town.

Assurance that any advance work done in connection with the move will be greatly appreciated by the club and citizens generally, is expressed by the publicity committee of the club; at the club, at the same time it will help insure the safety of the town from the dread disease. It is hoped that plans will be perfected immediately and work will start soon.

COFFEE SHOP BEING ENLARGED

Eldorado Coffee Shop is this week under going remodeling which, when completed will give much added space to the building and will enable the management to give better accommodations to if customers stated C. M. Weatherly this week.

A kitchen 14 by 15 feet is almost completed, the dining room wall will be moved over two and one-half feet the length of the room. Weatherly stated that he hope to have the work completed within a few days time, although the public is being served during the remodeling.

GULF STATION INSTALLS LUBRICATION SYSTEM

O. A. Harris, manager of the Harris Gulf Station this week announces the installation of a Lincoln Lubrication System. Harris stated that the new equipment will better enable him to care for the lubrication of vehicles. In another place in this issue The Success will be found a full page ad. explaining some of the features of this and other services of the institution which the readers are urged to read.

LARGE WATERMELON GROWN IN ELDORADO

Mrs. Jack Elder early this week was displaying a watermelon grown in the family Victory garden. The 42 pound mellow is just another example of what Schleicher country soil and good work will produce.

Buckles covered, prices reasonable.

STATISTICS DON'T TELL ALL

It is irritating to farmers to be informed by statisticians that agriculture is making a financial killing out of the war. If the statisticians would leave the city long enough to take a look at the way a farmer must try to operate under present conditions, they would go back and toss their statistics out of the window.

For example, a lot of ballyhoo has been published about the "flood" of men going back to the farms. One dairy farm was recently subjected to the flood—at seventy-five cents an hour per man. Two men, one a civil engineer professing to help the farmer in a pinch during harvest time, the other an ex-stevedore looking for easy money, went into the field to load hay. At the day's end they had arrived at the barn with one load. Two other loads had been dumped by the wayside, one through the front door of a grocery store. They were paid off. Net result: Twelve dollars in labor costs for a couple of tons of hay.

This is merely a sample. But it shows why the country is going to go hungry if the pencil pushers that make the rules don't quit writing fairy tales.

SAD COMMENTARY

Behind the official bickering and confusion revolving around controlled distribution of civilian necessities, a few facts are all too apparent to the retail merchant.

The public is warned not to pay more than "legal prices," indicating that where price tags do not jibe with the decreed legal price, something shady is going on. Consumers are led to believe that these legal prices are set by a simple procedure based on experience and knowledge of the problems; that all the merchant has to do is follow the law, like the driver of an automobile. Actually, about the only resemblance of "legal price" measures to other laws, is that the offender is subject to heavy fines and jail. Rationing and price laws have been imposed, not only with no precedent as a guide, but by men with little or no practical knowledge of retail distribution. The advice of the merchants has seldom been sought in the formulation of the rules under which they must operate. As a result, the controls are cumbersome, vague, and often unworkable. Infractions have been unavoidable, in spite of the best efforts of the merchants, who fully realize that wartime controls are necessary.

It is a sad commentary on the situation when a representative of one of the nation's leading chain store systems feels impelled to point out that: "Retailers are fully as patriotic, in the main, as those who have been giving them the dictator runaround. Retailers are paying higher taxes. They are contributing generously to every phase of the war effort, with money, time and energy." He could also have pointed out that without the full support of retailers, the price and rationing laws would collapse. Yet, retailers have been treated with suspicion and distrust by the very officials whose dependence upon the distribution industry is second only to that of the consuming public.

Success in anything establishes itself through service and perishes through abuse.

I Give You Texas

By BOYCE HOUSE

Michael Angelo said, "Genius is the capacity for taking infinite pains." But the paradox loving Bernard Shaw said, "Genius is the infinite capacity for giving pain." And Edison declared, "Genius is 10 per cent inspiration and 90 per cent perspiration."

Found this in a Texas home town weekly:

"Do you think the radio will ever take the place of newspapers?"

"No; for one thing, you can't swat flies with a radio."

San Angelo is not surpassed by any Texas city in its pronounced personality. Your columnist has visited San Angelo nearly 50 times but I am always thrilled anew by the sight of the big, white hats, the sound of the boot heels on the concrete and the feel of the brisk breeze sweeping across the wide main street. The city and its environs are richly endowed with scenery—two mountains, three rivers and Blondy Cross, the sports writer.

If you are an old-time Texas League fan, you remember "Bad News" Jim Galloway, who used to bust fences when he was starring with Dallas and Wichita Falls. I see him every once in a while—he has an important position with one of the State departments. Everybody thinks he got his nickname from the fact that when he came to bat, it was "bad news" for the pitcher. But a friend says it really started before Galloway ever began playing baseball.

He had a job away from home (according to the story) and, being homesick, he had a friend to send him a telegram that one of the folks back home was sick. His employer let him off; so, later, Jim decided to try it again—and again it worked. But he tried it so many times that, no matter why he went into the office, the "boss" would look up and say, "What's the bad news, Jim, this time?"

Which was your favorite kind of candy when you were a lad: a "wine-ball" or a "jaw-breaker?" Let me hasten to add for the benefit of the uninitiate that there was no wine in the former (it derived its name from the transparent red color) and that the latter actually broke no jaws but would have if you had tried to chew it instead of letting it dissolve in your mouth—a process which took only about two hours.

Because he scaled the walls of the fortification at Kasba-Mehdia, French Morocco, and from that hazardous position diverted the attention of the enemy with his rifle fire, enabling our troops to enter through the main gates of the fort, Pfc. C. L. Mohler was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. He risked his life for you. How many more Bonds and Stamps can you afford, to help him? Figure it out yourself.

Two hours after the ill-fated destroyer Hammann was sunk, her skipper, Comdr. Arnold Ellsworth True, was rescued from the water and found to be supporting two enlisted men. He himself was so exhausted that he did not realize both men were dead. Comdr. True, who was awarded the Navy Cross and the Distinguished Service Medal for heroism, typifies the spirit of our men in arms. They give to the limit of their endurance. Do YOUR part! Buy more War Bonds and Stamps!

The Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded Staff Sgt. Doyle Kimmerly of Huntington, Texas, for manning a sub-machine gun and returning the fire of low-flying enemy planes during the Jap attack on Hickam Field. When his ammunition was gone he ran from the cover of his truck to get more, and kept firing until the truck was bombed. He showed bravery beyond the call of duty. Figure out for yourself how much you can invest in War Savings beyond what you are doing now.

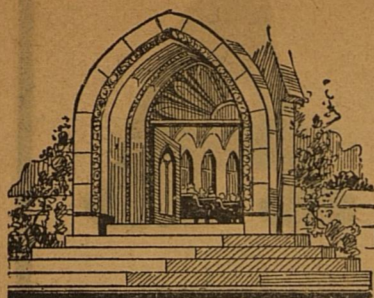

Although wounded by a Jap's vicious hooked bayonet in hand-to-hand combat on Guadalcanal, Marine Pfc. Harold Pazofsky of Brooklyn, N. "The Church With A Friendly Welcome"

J. M. Hays, Pastor

Even with all of the unusually warm weather all of our services have been well attended with the greatest of interest.

We had the largest attendance Sunday in Sunday School that we have had for several Sundays and we had a good attendance in our Training Union too. In fact all of activities have been carried on with increased attendance and the best of attitude and a growing interest on the part of all of our people.

We had four additions to our membership Sunday and Sunday night. One of these came as a candidate for baptism and we had the baptismal service Sunday night. We are grateful for such splendid services as we enjoyed the past week end, and hope we can continue with the power of the Lord upon all of our work.

We are happy that the Methodist Revival is going on and making the progress and reaching the people that it is; and we feel this special effort on the part of the Lord's people will be greatly blessed, and not only their own good church with their membership will be helped in a marvelous way, but the entire town and community will feel the influence.

Since our nation is "Christian" in Name I wonder if you are doing all you can to make it "Christian" in truth and reality. Our many soldiers are doing the job and doing it well, and winning the battles on the front in all places across the seas, but while they are away doing the fighting for you and me I wonder if we are keeping up the front at home. The foundation on which our nation is built is the great principles of religion and christian teaching that were taken from the Bible. This is the question we would do well to ask ourselves. Are we doing our best to support the great causes and institutions that we have inherited from those who have gone before? The Old proverb, "right will win" is not true unless we help to build a trellis for right to climb on. It will help very little for our armies and other forces to win our battles on foreign soil and during the same time for us here at home to lose the battles of moral and religious living. No individual or community can do their best or make the best achievements unless they recognize God and give Him a place in their lives and activities. Good religious characters and worth while lives do not grow up by accidents but they are only by God loving and God fearing parents who teach their children the way of morals, christianity, and integrity. We cannot do the average thing and expect the best. But to reap the best results we must do and be the best.

We are grateful for the fine attendance at our monthly officers and teachers Sunday School meeting Friday night. I feel that such meetings are very worth while and from the attendance, others feel the same way.

The W. M. U. met in the regular Bible study meeting last Monday. Mrs. Montgomery the Bible study leader was present, after her trip to California, and as usual led the group in a most interesting study. We owe much to this auxiliary for their constant effort in our church work. And no doubt, it is the fine training that they have done on the past that makes our church as missionary as it is. We know there is no organization in our church any more faithful to their work and place they have in our church life than our Women's Missionary Union.

May I insist that everyone find his or her place in Sunday School and Church Sunday.

is available to these 89 farmers if terraces can be completed by December 1, 1943. This cash benefit is in addition to the principal benefit— increased production through holding soil and moisture— which on the Spur Experiment Station over a 14 year period averaged $6.21 more per acre per year than did "straight row" farming.

The Commissioners Court agreed to make available some equipment which is not being used on road work at present, provided a plan for operating, servicing, and maintaining equipment could be worked out.

Completed conservation plans were approved by the District Supervisors on the following farms and ranches:

able damage to range and timber lands located in this County.

So far since practice bombing has started over these targets approximately 20,000 acres of valuable grazing land, 500 head of sheep, and 10 miles of range fences have been destroyed by these fires. Numerous other fires have also been started from other sources.

This County does not own any fire fighting equipment of any kind and is dependent on assistance from volunteer fire fighters who have nothing other than primitive means in combating fires of this nature.

The United States Government maintains at least one truck at the Post near San Angelo, Texas which is 50 to 75 miles away from the various parts of the County where these fires may start and due to the great number of alarms which occur in this area this truck maintained by the post is unable to reach fire and extinguish same before considerable damage is done.

Schleicher County is primarily a stock raising country upon whose grazing lands thousands of head of cattle, sheep and goats are almost entirely dependent for their subsistence on grasses grown on these ranges, and owing to the shortage of protein feed, should these ranges be destroyed it is doubtful whether enough feed could be purchased or provided to save this livestock which is so vitally needed as food for the Armed and civilian forces of this Country, thereby hampering the war effort, and causing almost certain losses in the above food supply.

Diligent search has been made in this area and in San Antonio, Texas for a used truck that would be in condition to mount this equipment upon, and so far have found none available.

We are of the opinion however, that a used truck would be a waste of time and money owing to the strenuous use this truck would be subjected to. On account of the rough roads and terrain of this Country a new truck would even have to have extra spring and frame reinforcement in order to properly stand up under the above circumstances. This truck will be subject to call on a 24 hour a day basis.

For the above reasons we respectfully ask that upon receipt of authority from the War Production Board to purchase fire fighting equipment to be mounted on this truck that the office of Defense Transportation grant us authority to purchase a new truck for fire fighting purposes in Schleicher County, Texas.

Respectfully submitted
C. L. Meador Jr.,
County Judge.

Mr. C. L. Meador
City of Eldorado
Schleicher County
Eldorado, Texas

Dear Mr. Meadors:

Reference is made to your request for permission to purchase fire fighting equipment.

We have received a reply to our wire to Washington in your behalf which states in part that "Fire Equipment Controlling Division will not wire authority without stronger evidence of necessity. Why no aid from Army? Applicant should obtain Army endorsement if possible."

We contacted Col. Palmer, Commanding Officer of the San Angelo Army Air Force Bombardier School who advised us that the fire to which you refer occurred last year and not within the last few days.

He further stated that there are two sets of fire fighting apparatus available at Eldorado and Barnhart, and another set will be available at Spring Valley.

In view of the foregoing information, we feel that there will be no need for additional equipment at this time, particularly in view of the fact that equipment is or will be available in three locations. We have been assured by Col. Palmer that unless something unforeseen happens, this equipment should be able to take care of your situation.

Yours very truly,

MOVING TO JUNCTION

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Jacoby and family are this week moving to their ranch, some 22 miles southwest of Junction to make their home. The Jacoby's have been residents of Schleicher County for twenty years and have made their home for the past ten years on the Tom Henderson ranch. Mr. Jacoby, stated to a Success reporter this week, that he had purchased the property near Junction some three years ago.
