On The DIVIDE

BUY A POPPY!

Next Saturday, members of the Girl Scouts will sell poppies in Eldorado, under the auspices of the American Legion Auxiliary. A portion of the proceeds will go to benefit the local Scout organization, some to the Auxiliary work and some to the disabled soldier whose willing hands made the tiny replicas of the "flower of Flanders Field."

If we could but gaze behind the scenes and see those ex-soldiers—the flowers of American manhood in 1917-18—as they worked away at reproducing the poppy, we'd likely breathe a prayer of thankfulness that our fate has not been as theirs. We'd willingly buy one tiny flower, at least, knowing that a small portion of our money would go to help someone who "gave his all" in a conflict that was ironically called "a war to end wars."

These boys left home and loved ones, sailed away to the tune of blaring drums and patriotic speeches proclaiming them heroes, but they returned to spend their remaining days in a veterans hospital—all but forgotten!

And as they toil away on a little paper flower, no doubt their minds and thoughts are retrospective—in the past, for, surely, their future isn't something to look upon with thanksgiving! Once they were as healthy, as happy, as carefree as we are today.

"Buy a poppy, Mister?" To many Schleicher county men these words will bring memories of war-torn France. And those of us who remained at home can paint a mental picture, pathetic though it be, of an ex-soldier toiling away at a tiny work table, reproducing a tiny red flower that grows over many American boys' graves in France.

Buy a poppy Saturday!

THE VALUE OF CHURCH ATTENDANCE

It seems that we need to think more of this subject today than we do. There are so many different attitudes people take toward church attendance.

Some say we would not live in this community if you take the church away; and yet they never go and support the services with their presence. Maybe they do go during the revival season, or on some, although rare occasion.

Then there are those who really get blessings from attendance at the church services. Let us think of the blessings that come to those who faithfully attend the services of some church:

First, information is given from the Book of all books, which really helps him to be a better person. There is more joy in living right than there is in living wrong; therefore, he receives more joy out of life when he attends regularly the services of some church.

Second, inspiration comes to people when they are informed as to the will of God, see others striving to do the will of God. Then when others see you go to church they are inspired to go; (See No. 1 Last Page)

Junction Eleven Lose Fierce Battle To Local Warriors

In a game packed with thrills coming from hard tackles, hard blocks, fumbles, good passing, poor passing, good generalship, and poor generalship, the Eldorado Eagles won a well deserved victory over the Junction Eagles last Friday afternoon, in spite of the statistics showing Junction a big advantage in first downs with 12 to 5.

All of Junction's first downs were wasted short of the goal, while Eldorado, playing smart football throughout, only needed a few plays for the two touchdowns they got over. In spite of unusually long distance kicking by McKay, the kicking of Meador stood out because of his ability to place them and keep the Junction team in a hole most of the afternoon. The first touchdown came as a result of a smart pass play from Williams to Bryant that netted 25 yards and carried the ball to the 11, where Williams put it over in two plays.

The second touchdown came when Coffey attempted a wing pass in the shadow of his goal and Meador ambled in to take it over standing up.

A play by play account of the game:

Eldorado kicked to Junction's 10 and McKay returned to the 27. Couldn't make yardage, so kicked to Eldorado's 44. Eldorado penalized 5 yards for offense. Meador kicked to Junction 19, from where Junction made first down, then fumbled and Eldorado recovered. Williams tossed a pass to Bryant for 25 yards and first down on Junction's 11. Williams made first down on the one foot, from where he went over for the touchdown. Meador kicked extra point. Meador kicked off to (Continued on page 5)

Livestock Moved To Market Points By Local Ranchmen

Movement of livestock is still brisk in this county, according to reports of those who have been making hauls for local ranchmen. Among the recent hauls made by A. J. Burk Truck Line are the following:

Three trips were made to the Fort Worth market taking a load of cattle for Tom Davis of Sonora, two loads of cows for Tom Russell and 2 loads of yearlings for Mrs. Frank Reynolds.

This week, 65 head of calves were hauled to the Eldorado stock pens for Pat Martin. They were sold to Mr. Joseph of Whitewater, Kans.

110 calves were hauled for Tom Russell that went to Jim Phillips of San Angelo.

On Tuesday a double of lambs were hauled for Jess Koy and 80 head for Aaron Stewart to Amos Womble, buying for John Clay & Co.

Pleas of guilty were entered in County Court here Tuesday by M. Perez and Sylvestre Vasquez, both charged with possession of stamped malt liquor. They were tried on charges of maintaining a nuisance and were fined $47.75 each.

Six other cases were tried in county court during this week, one for speeding, one for "hot checks" and three civil cases.

Bids For Building Of New Water System To Be Received

Further steps toward securing a municipally owned water and sewer system for Eldorado were taken this week when members of the City Council began advertising for bids for the construction of this plant. The notice to bidders is appearing in this week's issue of The Success.

Bids will be received at the office of the City of Eldorado until 2:00 p. m., November 22, after which they will be publicly opened and read.

The order for bids specifies that the prevailing rates of wage must be paid on these projects. Plans and specifications for the new water and sewer system were made by Koch & Fowler, engineers of Dallas.

It is the plan of the Council to pass an order authorizing the issuance of sewer revenue bonds in an amount not to exceed $35,000 and waterworks revenue bonds not to exceed $85,000 for the construction of this new system.

There are 592 books in the library now. Sixteen new books have been added recently. The librarian has cleaned 310 books, 140 books have been mended and others will be reconditioned soon. The Commissioners Court pays for materials required for this work.

The three clubs sponsoring the library are responsible for purchasing books. The committee appreciates the $5 donated by the Lions Club, also the promise of $5 from each of the three clubs. More new books were ordered this week.

A nominal charge of 10 cents (See No. 4, Last Page)

Veterinarian In County This Week To Test Cattle

Dr. J. O. Whitehead, veterinarian for the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry, has been in Schleicher county all of this week making tuberculin tests of cattle. This is a retest for the purpose of recrediting the county for another three-year period.

Tests of cattle were made over the county some four years ago, it was stated, and Dr. Whitehead is "spot testing" this week instead of again making a county-wide test.

Dr. Whitehead stated that he is receiving wonderful cooperation from this county during this week, and tests have been made rapidly and systematically. Livestock owners have shown a desire to have their cattle recredited for another period.

Tests which are being made (See No. 2 Last Page)

Lions Club To Send Delegate To Highway Meeting

Realizing the value which an east and west highway would have to this county, members of the Eldorado Lions Club have voted to wholeheartedly support efforts to secure this proposed road.

A committee composed of J. A. Whitten, W. O. Alexander and A. D. Richey was appointed Wednesday to get in touch with county officials and make arrangements to appear before the state highway commission at their next regular meeting. This committee is authorized to select a delegate to this meeting, his necessary expenses being paid by the club.

The club also voted to provide meals at the high school for underprivileged children during school days, these children who are in need of this support to be determined by the school authorities.

About twenty members were present at this meeting.

CEMETERY DEBT FOR ADDITION IS PAID IN FULL

The debt against the Eldorado Cemetery Association, which was made for the purchase of a ten-acre addition to the cemetery, bought from J. Keeney, has been paid in full, and the note is now in possession of R. A. Evans, president of the association.

Paying of this note, which was dated in 1934, clears the association of all debt, and Mr. Evans stated that all money collected from any source will be used in maintenance and upkeep of the cemetery.

Paintings Show Splendid Work Of Art Students

The office of Wm. Cameron & Co. is a veritable art gallery this week, with the many beautiful paintings of local art students arranged attractively along the walls and fixtures. This office is used to display the work of local artists in celebration of National Art Week.

There are over eighty pictures in all, and all have been painted by local people. There are flower scenes, ranch scenes, scenes of wild life, mountain streams, etc., all a unique collection which reveals that Schleicher county has some real artists.

Many people are visiting the display, and all are agreeably surprised at the splendid work shown. Included in the exhibit is a group of fourteen pictures painted by Hensel Matthews, Jr., 10 year old boy, who is the youngest to have pictures on display. P. W. Hazelwood has several exhibitions of his work.

A visit to this exhibit will reveal to you many beautiful scenes, pictures which these people have spent months in painting.

CURING ACCIDENT REPEATERS

Automobile accident repeaters can be cured. That is the gist of an article in Public Safety, by Edward L. Yordan, describing the results of a corrective system applied last year by Registrar of Motor Vehicles in Massachusetts to 500 drivers selected as possessing the worst accident records in Commonwealth.

Every one of these drivers had been involved in a number of accidents. One man, for instance, had injured several pedestrians by striking them with the right side of his car. Tests disclosed a weakness in his right eye, which was corrected with glasses. Another driver had had his car rammed three times from the rear. Tests showed his brake reaction to be exceptionally fast and he was advised to watch out for the car in the rear when making sudden stops. So it went with all 500. At the end of the test instruction period, the 500 accident repeaters were allowed to drive again. Eight months later the Registrar assembled their records. The 500 had driven an aggregate of more than 3, 250,000 miles in that period. Not one of them had become involved in a serious accident. Only three of them had had any accidents at all.

The facts speak for themselves. Enforced education can cure the great bulk of the drivers who are today responsible for major and minor accidents. In relation to the vast savings in life and property involved, the cost to states and cities would be infinitesimal. Every motor vehicle department should be authorized by the legislature to adopt, as a consistent policy, some such corrective system as that experimented with in Massachusetts. Today, in most states, offending drivers are permitted to go out and repeat their errors. That is largely responsible for our soaring death and accident toll.

HOW TO ELIMINATE HOME FIRE HAZARDS

The National Board of Fire Underwriters has just released a bulletin entitled, "what to look for in Dwelling House Inspections. While the bulletin is specially designed for firemen, the advice it gives can easily be followed to advantage by home owners.

Items to be checked from outside the house include: 1. Condition of roof. Old or warped roofing collects sparks. 2. Condition of chimneys. Loose bricks open joints, cracks, improper supports, etc., present obvious dangers. 3. Condition of the yard. Dry grass, leaves, papers and other combustible accumulations constitute a serious fire hazard to adjacent places. 4. Condition of garages and sheds. Cleanliness and good maintenance are essential precautions. 5. The storage of hazardous materials such oil and kerosene.

Inside the house a thorough fire inspection must include the checking of accumulated waste and discarded materials; storage of fuel; the condition of furnaces stoves and other heating appliances; possible defects in inside chimneys, fire stops, etc.

The citizen who is uncertain as to hazards and their elimination can get the necessary information from the National Board of Fire Underwriters, 85 John Street, New York, or can doubtless obtain the assistance of local fire marshals. Periodic inspection by owners would unquestionably prevent the great majority of the dwelling fires which destroy millions of dollars in property values and take hundreds of lives annually.

CARLOADINGS INCREASE

Santa Fe Railway System carloadings for the week ending October 23, were 26,313 compared with 25,546 for the same week in 1936. Received from connections 7,772 cars, compared with 6,838 for the same week last year. Total cars moved were 34,085 compared with 32,384 for the same week 1936. The Santa Fe handled a total of 32,773 cars in the preceding week of this year.

"THE REST OF THE RECORD"
BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

As I write this column the special session has been over two days. I regret exceeding the unfortunate outcome of the thirty-day meeting of the legislators. The sad and pitiful part of it is that nothing was done to help the needy people, the blind and our underprivileged children—notwithstanding repeated exhortations and warnings. Not only that, but Texas will lose several million dollars of Federal funds to carry on his program.

The people are confused and indignant over the outcome. Certain groups such as the representatives of special interests apparently are well contented with the report brought me at the close of the Legislature by the Senate notification committee, which advised me rather gleefully they "had done their work well."

The question uppermost in the minds of the people, however, is "Who, or what, is to blame for these lamentable conditions resulting in the failure to provide funds for the social security program?"

Conflicting statements have been issued since the session by certain senators and house members. Some of the people are unable to fix clearly the responsibility. Why?

The present two-house system of the Legislature is made to order for sly manipulation and buck passing by shrewd parliamentarians. This is not the first session to end with each house blaming the other. The difference is that with the changing and complex problems of recent years this condition has grown worse. Not all the members of either house are to be condemned, yet, the good, the patriotic the diligent, the sincere members often find themselves condemned along with reactionaries and demagogues.

Lawyers will tell you that delay and time are the greatest aids to a man charged with crime. Delay and time are likewise the most powerful weapons that can be employed to defeat progressive legislation. Under our present legislative system these weapons are readily available and freely employed.

During the past session the people have witnessed a strange situation. The special session was called for the purpose of raising revenues for the needy. A powerful minority group declared no taxes were necessary and employed every artifice possible to defeat the purpose of the session. Certain newspapers criticized the call and advocated no taxes.

Now that the session has ended we find that the spokesmen for the same minority group and for the same newspapers criticize the legislature for not passing a tax bill—the very thing they said should not be done.

I shall have more to say later concerning this session.

The untimely death of Judge O. S. Lattimore shocked the entire state. The beloved judge had served with outstanding distinction on the Court of Criminal Appeals for many years. Friends and close associates, as well as admirers from all walks of life, testified to the love and esteem in which Judge Lattimore was held as they solemnly gathered to pay final tribute to this distinguished son of Texas.

Faced with appointment of his successor, I chose Harry N. Graves of Georgetown who resigned from the Legislature to accept the judgeship. He is one of the noblest characters I have ever known. Courageously and unselfishly, Judge Graves has served the people of his district and state for many years. He is preeminently qualified for this great office and while I regret his patriotic service in the legislature will be ended, I felt that his outstanding service and character should be rewarded.

The appointment of a member

When You Need a Laxative

Thousands of men and women know how wise it is to take Black-Draught at the first sign of constipation. They like the refreshing relief it brings. They know its timely use may save them from feeling badly and possibly losing time at work from sickness brought on by constipation.

If you have to take a laxative occasionally, you can rely on of the Legislature to a judgeship was not without precedent. From the Forty-fourth Legislature, I selected Sarah Hughes of Dallas to fill a vacancy as district judge. She became the first woman judge in the history of Texas and her splendid record as district judge has won the admiration and acclaim of the Dallas bar.

Thirteen Days Off

Everybody likes a holiday, but does everybody know how many there are and when they come? Three state celebrations are scheduled during the year: Texas Independence Day on March 2, San Jacinto Day on April 21, and Texas Pioneers' Day on August 12. But the national holidays are more numerous. These ten include New Year's Day, Washington's birthday and Arbor Day on February 22, Jefferson Davis' Birthday on June 3, Independence Day on the Fourth, Labor Day in September, Columbus Day October 12, Armistice Day on November 11, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Mrs. W. E. Bruton, Winner In Home Food Supply, Tells Of Her Demonstration

Mrs. W. E. Bruton, First place winner in the County in the Home Food Supply Demonstration, tells the following story of her demonstration:

"The pantry I had to begin with on Oct. 1st, 1937 was shelves I had built on the north and east walls of my garage about 30 feet from my kitchen door.

I kept canned products, canning equipments, and most of my staples placed here and there in the garage as my kitchen was entirely too small to store these in it. This caused many, many trips each day and especially on canning days.

I made hundreds of steps backward and forward for jars, equipments, etc.

When we planned our new kitchen I decided to build in a way to save steps as much as possible, and to do so I planned my pantry to be built inside the house and even better inside the kitchen. It is located on the east end of my kitchen which is eighteen feet long.

My pantry is eight feet long, eight feet high, and two feet deep. Has six shelves, eight by two feet. These shelves are painted also the inside is painted white to aid in light and cleanliness.

It is well ventilated, dry, clean dark, free from odor and cool. It is so constructed that the cool air which is stored up under the house is drawn slowly through the pantry, keeps the food in the pantry at approximately the same temperature all the time.

The heat from the kitchen does not effect the pantry as there are four doors and two windows to let the warm air pass out. Two to the south, one to the east, and one to the north, one window on the north and one on the west.

My old garden is forty by sixty feet, with eight hundred square yards being added this year.

Inside my garden is located a dirt tank about 90 feet square. To improve our storage we built a rock wall three and one half feet high, this wall cost about twenty four dollars.

On two sides of the tank we Try it! Thousands of women testify Cardui helped them. Of course, if it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician have pipes through the dam for irrigating purposes.

We also irrigate from the stand pipe at the windmill and a small upland tank with hose.

I have about one hundred and eight feet of tiling which I made on two sides of the tank.

I have obtained all my vegetables from this garden, that I have canned except my peas and corn and a part of greens which we grew in the field.

My Containers are all glass jars in pints and quarts.

They are labeled with 4-H labels giving my name, name of club and products. My pantry is so arranged that meal planning is so much easier than in my old pantry because the general food division suggest the daily food need of my family as the top of my pantry is warmest and the bottom coolest. I have used the following arrangements:

Top shelves: Preserves, Jelly and Jam.

Second shelf: Pickles and relishes.

Third shelf: canned fruit.

Fourth: Tomatoes and fruit juices.

Fifth: Leafy green and yellow vegetables.

Sixth: Meats and miscellaneous.

In the lower part of my budget according to non-productive months. I have planned for five months allowing seven servings per week of each as I have five to plan for most of the time. Products which I have canned are as follows:

Green leafy and yellow vegetables, 193 quarts; other vegetables, 198 qts.; Tomatoes, 161; Meat, 165; Preserves, Jelly, Jam 67; Miscellaneous, 139 quarts; Cured Meat, 553; Lard, 42 gal. I estimate the value of these to be $311.00.

My cost was as follows: Tank improvement, $24.00; Pantry, $21.70; Fruit, $12.71; Equipment, $7.81; Total $66.22.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS
BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

AUSTIN.—"Who killed the Cock Robin tax bill?" was the favorite topic of conversation in Austin this week, in the wake of the special session, which ended without any action toward raising revenue.

The record is fairly clear. The House and Senate conferees wrote an omnibus bill, increasing tax rates on natural resources, corporation franchises, public utility gross receipts, cement manufacture, and stock and commodity exchanges, which would have yielded between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 of new revenue. It allocated funds as follows:

For old-age assistance $300,000 from additional revenue provided the general fund, plus $1,600,000 to pay off the loan of the pension fund from a Dallas bank.

For teachers retirement fund, $750,000.

Aid to needy blind, $300,000.

Aid to dependent children $750,000.

The bill would have re-allocated school funds—after this year—back to the one fourth provided by the constitution, leaving undisturbed the larger school revenues for this fiscal year, to insure payment of the $22 per capita apportionment.

It eliminated entirely the $5,000,000 reduction in appropriations which the Senate had passed, and it also eliminated the provision in the House bill demanding that the ability of children to support their parents should not be taken into consideration in determining the eligibility of the old folks for pensions. That provision proved the stumbling block that killed the bill, when the House, on motion of Bryan Bradbury of Abilene, voted to instruct its conference committee to stand pat and demand its conclusion.

Reliberalization Rejected

This would have thrown the old age pension rolls wide open again, and the Senate conferees declined to accept it. Efforts to get the House to withdraw from its position failed utterly, when the "pensions for everybody" bloc joined by the "no taxes" group, resulted in a clear majority and voted to stand pat.

A record vote was had on motion of Bond, of Fairfield, to instruct the House conferees to sign the conference report. It was defeated, 56 to 75. "No" votes were: Adkins, Alexander, Amos, Bell, Boethel, Boyer, Bradbury, Burton, Callan, Carsow, Cathey, Celaya, Colquitt, J. C. Davis, M. M. Davis, Davison, Dean, Derden, Dickison, Dollins, Donaghey, England, Felty, Fielden, Fox, Fuchs, Gibson, Hankamer, Hanna, Hardin, C. L. Harris, Fred Harris, Hartzog, Hefflin, Huddlesten, Jackson, B. T. Johnson, S. A. Jones, W. Jones, Kieth, Kenyon, King, Knetsch, Lanning, Leyendecker,

Lucas, Mann, McConnell, McFarland, McKee, McKinney, Monkhouse, Morse, Nicholas, Oliver, Tolbert Patterson, Petsch Pope, Ragsdale, Reader, Jasper Reed, Rhodes, Rutta, Scheunemann, Sewell, Skaggs, Stinson, Tennant, Thornton, Vale, Waggoner, Weldo, Westbrook, Winfree. Absent were Anderson, Cagle, Farmer, Herzik, Keefe, Little, Loggins, London, McDonald, Metcalfe, Newton, Palmer, Shell, H. Smith, Morris, Stevenson and Tennyson. All others voted "aye."

Pension Outlook

Some reduction in pension payments during the next few months may result, although little credence is placed in the statements made while the session was on that pensions might be suspended. These are regarded as being made largely for political effect, and few believe the politicians will go so far as to cut off the only means of existence of 113,000 old people, even to carry a political point. The bank holding the State's notes for the $1,600,000 borrowed earlier, has indicated its willingness to work with the Board of Control in handling the debt on some extension basis. Meanwhile members of House and Senate and the Governor were continuing their exchange of publicity shrapnel, seeking to lay the blame for failure of the session on each other. Sen. Will D. Pace of Tyler pointed out clearly how the professed friends of needy aged are using them as a political football, when he said:

"The Senate backed down from its economy amendment that would have saved the taxpayers $5,000,000 and provided more than $2,000,000 for old age pensions and we had a right to think the House would take the rest of the bill. Those who are entitled to pensions would receive much larger amounts if it were not for the avarice of those not entitled to them, who want the law thrown open so they can get money that rightfully belongs to the needy. If the pension rolls were cleared of imposters, the aged who are entitled to help would get more of it, and it is to their interest to be against a reliberalization of the law."

Wait For Verdict

Meanwhile, two groups were anxiously awaiting news of the attitude of the folks back home. They were the special interest lobby and the politicians. The lobby was divided in its opinion. The conference bill carried moderate in tax increases, and some of the lobbyists feel it would have been better to take reasonable tax increases. Now they feel pretty certain the fight must be waged all over again in February, or March, at another session. This could have been avoided, some feel, for at least another 14 months until the next regular session, if the conference

For Good Roads

Appointment of Datus E. Proper of San Antonio as executive manager of the Texas Good Roads Association has been announced by the board of directors. Mr. Proper succeeds Col. Ike Ashburn of Houston who has served as executive manager since organization of the Association.

Mr. Proper will assume his new duties Nov. 1. Headquarters of the Association will be moved from Houston to San Antonio. Other offices will be maintained in Dallas and Austin.

The newly elected manager comes with a splendid understanding of the problems of highway construction and financing. He has spent many years in related phases of highway construction and for the past several years has been vice president and sales manager of The Uvalde Rock Asphalt Co. Mr. Proper long has been in accord with the objectives of the Association, namely, the preservation of revenues collected from the motoring public for highway construction and maintenance. These objectives will be reurged actively in all parts of the state he said.

bill had passed. Others, cheered by their success in cutting down the Governor's $15,000,000 tax plan to $4,000,000 believe they have less to fear in future sessions.

Whether Allred will seek a third term was the subject of many rumors. Some had it the Governor might try it, on a unicameral legislature issue. There was even a rumor that Sen. Tom Holbrook, the Galveston conservative, who led the economy fight, might be a candidate. But the political results of the session will only be apparent when the sentiment of the folks back home is thoroughly sounded out.

the opponents' 4 yard line. McKay got away to the 26 for a first down. After failing on the next series of downs McKay kicked to the Eagle's 12. Williams stopped at line of scrimmage.

me. Meador kicked to their 40. End of first quarter.

Junction failed to make yardage on next series, so McKay kicked over goal line. Starting on the 20 Meador made 4 yards oftackle, then kicked to Junction's 43. Junction with Coffey pounding the line made a first down. McKay was stopped by Bruton and Friess on an attempted cut-back, but Coffey kept on pounding until he made another first down on Eldorado's 29. With Coffey still breaking thru left guard and left tackle they made another first down on the 19. The Eagles were then penalized 5 yards for offside, placing the ball on their 14. Junction tried 4 straight line plunges with Coffey carrying three of them, but McGinnes, Edmiston, and Williams stopped up the left side of the line, so that they only got to the 9 yard line in four plays. From here Meador got off a partially blocked kick to the 25 yard line where Junction started pounding back toward their goal. McKay made 8 yards then McKay lost 2, then made the half ended.

Meador kicked off to the 15 where Loeffler received and took it back to the 25 and was hit so hard by Jack Jones that he fumbled, but the ball was recovered by Junction. Junction was offside, so Eldorado kicked again, with Meador making a smashing tackle when Coffey returned to the 20. Junction made a first down on line plays and an end run, but fumbled and Eldorado recovered. The Eagles, with Williams carrying made a first down, but couldn't go any farther, so Meador kicked out on Junction's 10. Junction kicked back to our 40, and Bob Williams ran it back to the 49. On an attempted flat pass to Friess the throw was short and Loeffler intercepted to run it back to our 30. Edmiston broke through to spill McKay for a three yard loss. McKay attempted a pass that was intercepted by Jones to pull us out of this hole. Williams made one yard, then caught Junction napping with a quick-kick over their heads to the 12. Meador intercepted Coffey's flat pass for a 15 yard unobstructed gallop to the goal line. The try for the point failed. Meador kicked to McKay on the 10. McKay ran it back to the 35 where George Williams tackled him so hard that the ball shot up into the air and was recovered by an Eagle. Junction was penalized 15 yards for roughing Nicks. Williams made 5 yards oftackle. Williams went to 8 yard line of cut-back. Meador made it to the 5. The Eagles were penalized 5 for off-side. Meador stopped. Williams got back to the 5. Williams stopped. His pass to Meador short. Ball goes over to Junction on downs. McKay made 8 yards on a left end cut-back. McKay passed to Kirkpatrick for 1st down. McKay was set back when he failed to get his pass off. Coffey made 8 on off-tackle play. Junction fumbled but recovered. McGinnes broke through and stopped McKay. McKay punted out on 45. B. Williams made 7 yards. Meador made 2, then Nicks shook loose for one of the prettiest runs of the game and a gain of 25 yards. Eagles were penalized 5 for off-side. Nicks made 8 more as game ended with ball on Junction's 9 yard line.

Time was when you called the fellow who filled your fuel tank and checked your oil a "pump monkey". Nine times out of ten, he looked the part. But those days, as the saying goes, are gone forever. In Humble service stations, you'll find neatly uniformed representatives of the company, carefully trained in the service of your car, thoroughly competent to give you expert advice on its care. Their merchandise — Humble motor fuels, motor oils, and other Humble products — is plainly labeled and guaranteed as to quality; their service is a by-word among Texas motorists. These days, there are no "pump monkeys" in the Humble picture; that's a good reason why so many folks stop for service where they see the Humble sign!

therefore, others are blessed when you go to church. More young people would go to church if they could see their parents, teachers and friends enjoying the services.

Third, salvation comes to many who attend the services of the church. Very few people we know who are saved unless they attend church. Paul said: "So faith cometh by hearing and learning by the word of God." Jesus said: "Let him that heareth come."

If you are not regular in church attendance, suppose you try it out. See if you don't get a blessing. Go to the church of your choice. Surely you will be welcomed.

TALON QUEEN TO BE CROWNED IN CEREMONY SATURDAY NIGHT

Bingo Stand To Be Attraction Also Numerous Side Shows and Food Counter

The Coronation of the Talon Queen and the annual Carnival, to be given Saturday November 6, is to be the biggest event of its kind this year. Elaborate plans have been made for the Coronation of the Queen. The stage is to be decorated more beautifully than last year. The spotlight, handled by Mr. Riddle, will add beauty to the event. The Coronation will be somewhat like it was last year, with the participants in the Queen Contest and four other girls selected from the class. The Queen will probably be escorted by the most popular boy. He will probably be elected this week. The event will be held in the auditorium as it was last year. The Coronation and the carnival will be held rain or shine.

Jack Meador, who is attending Texas University at Austin, spent the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Meador.

Armistice Day Program Given By Self Culture Club

Dickens gave a brief outline of the Presidents Message; the benefits to Texans of the Big Bend Park; and the benefits to be obtained by members who attend the Texas Federation meeting. An incident relating to the First Armistice was the subject of the Roll Call. Mrs. Joab Campbell gave a brief story of several songs which were popular during the World War, then led the club in singing a number of them. Armistice Day was discussed by Miss John Alexander. The American Legion—what it is and what it is doing was explained by Mrs. B. J. Montgomery. A Gold Star Mother was the subject of Mrs. Bill Davis' paper. Mrs. Reuben Dickens gave an appropriate reading.

At the close of the program, the club stood for a moment in silent tribute to those khaki-clad boys who served their country during the World War and in special remembrance of Bev McCormick, who was killed in action Nov. 2, 1918. Mrs. Campbell dismissed the club by prayer.

Refreshments were served to nineteen members and Miss Margaret Steward, an honorary member.
