Boy Scouts Return From Philmont Ranch

Eight-four miles in seven days! That's the mileage chalked up by Bill Cheek and Wilson Humphrey at Philmont Scout Ranch during the ten days they were there taking in the Kit Carson Trek—and it was all hiking.

The Trek took them through the spectacular beauty of the New Mexico Rockies, over the 11,600-foot Clear Creek Mountain, and to the Tooth of Time and Comanche Peak.

The two from Eldorado were part of the outfit that was made up from the 23½ counties of the Concho Valley Council, consisting of 12 Scouts and three advisors, Harold Freese and Lawrence Nichols of Sonora, and John Dagen of the San Angelo Boy Scout office.

All the Scout skills of trail cooking and housekeeping were put into use on the Trek. Each Scout carried bed roll, food, and personal belongings on his back. Camp was made at a different place each night, and food supplies were replenished from the base camps located along the trail.

From Clear Creek mountain, where they camped one night, the Scouts could see into Colorado. They reported the odd experience of seeing the sun rise before 4:00 in the morning when they camped out on mountain tops.

Deer and buffalo were in abundance along the trail, and both Eldorado Scouts brought back awards for Nature, Camping, and Conservation, which called for learning and identifying the trees, plants, flowers, and wildlife seen along the trail. In addition they are the first from here in several years to get the Philmont emblem to wear on their uniforms.

The Cimarron area was at one time the scene of extensive mining development. The remains of these old mines are still in evidence on the Ranch. At the site of the old Cypfer's Mine, Scouts saw a museum which had been set up. It contained miners' equipment and tools, and other relics of the mining era.

Kit Carson's cabin is also a museum and has been rebuilt and restored by the Scouts.

From the time the Texas Scouts reported into Ranch headquarters, and at the various base camps, they met groups from all over the United States. Minnesota and Chicago groups were there for the 23-day Wagon Trail, and an Iowa group reported in 12 hours late because of bus trouble.

A gift to the Boy Scouts from Waite Phillips, Oklahoma oil man, Philmont has a staff of around 500. The Villa Philmont, as Mr. Phillips called his mansion, is a part of Ranch headquarters near Cimarron.

When asked Tuesday, the day they got back, if they would try to make Philmont again next year, Humphrey and Cheek said they would like to, but that it was too early to tell anything definite. They did say, however, that the trip was well worth the time and effort, and that they could see why Philmont has been called Senior Scouting's Opportunity for High Adventure in the Rockies.

Schleicher County Oil News

Two more producers, the ninth and tenth, have been added to the Huldale-Strawn field of Central North Schleicher County, 10 miles north of Eldorado. American Republics Corporation No. 2 H. F. Thomson, 646 feet from north and 2,054 feet from west lines of section 82, block TT, TCRR survey, was completed for a daily flowing potential of 117.80 barrels of 38.8-gravity oil.

This new oiler was completed on a one-quarter-inch choke from perforations at 5,763-5,778 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 492-1. Tubing pressure was 200 pounds.

The other new oiler is The Ohio Oil Company No. 7 H. F. Thomson, 467 feet from the most southerly north line and 2,140 feet from the most westerly west line of section 81, block TT, TC survey.

It is a one-location east extension to the field. It was finished for a daily flowing potential of 487.32 barrels of 38.4-gravity oil and no water. The potential was based on an actual six hour flow through a one-quarter-inch choke.

Gas-oil ratio was 597-1. Tubing pressure was 700 pounds and production is from perforations between 5,725 and 5,745 feet.

The pay section was topped at 5,485 feet and porosity was found at 5,659 feet. Elevation is 2,284 feet.

Ohio No. 10 Thomson, another Huldale project is coring below 5,670 feet in lime. This venture topped the lime at 5,540 feet. Porosity was found at 5,582 feet. Elevation is 2,214 feet. A previous core showed good possibilities of this test making an oil well.

Location is 467 feet from west and 2,574 feet from north lines of section 81, block TT, TC survey.

Other projects in the Huldale-Strawn field and latest reports on each are: Ohio No. 6 Thomson, drilling 4,674 feet in lime; Ohio No. 11 Thomson, drilling 707 in lime; American Republics No. 3 Thomson, drilling below 3,965 feet in lime and shale; and Delta Gulf Drilling Company No. 2-B Thomson, waiting for cement to cure on five and one-half-inch oil string cemented at 5,743 feet.

In the Huldale North-Lower Canyon field Sinclair Oil and Gas Company is still installing pump on its No. 1 Davis Estate so that a completion can be made.

Sunray Oil Corporation No. 1 T. C. Meador, North-Central Schleicher County Ellenburger wildcat is drilling below 4,284 feet in lime and shale.

Ohio No. 1-E Baugh, Strawn wildcat in North-Central Schleicher County, seven miles northeast of Eldorado, is at total depth of 2,086 feet in shale running intermediate casing.

As soon as cement cures plug will be drilled out and the hole deepened toward its 5,900-foot contract depth.

Stanolind Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Williams, wildcat in Northwest Schleicher County, is at plugged back total depth of 1,259 feet waiting for orders. This test will probably be plugged and abandoned. Operator has failed to develop production after several swabbing and bailing tries.

MIAS AMIGAS GIRLS TAKE MOVING PICTURES, RE-LIVE OLD TIMES HERE, COLLECT SCHLEICHER CO. HISTORY

Mrs. C. C. West's home provided the setting for the opening business session of Mias Amigas, which met Thursday and Friday in Eldorado for the 21st time.

Josephine Murchison Hill called the meeting to order. After routine business matters had been disposed of, there was discussion concerning the club's cooperation with the School Homecoming group. The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Bertha, Coralie and Agnes, served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Before leaving the West place, pictures were made of the group at the front of the house. From there the members went to the banquet room of the Memorial Building, where chicken dinner was served to members and guests. The tables were arranged in a U shape, and floral decorations were summer flowers provided by the social committee.

At 3:00 Thursday afternoon, the out-of-town girls were hostesses at a tea in the main room of the Memorial Building. There was a display at this time of data, pictures, and other material collected for the Pioneer program.

Others joined with members that night in listening to the Pioneer program, at which Will Whitten was master of ceremonies. About 20 subjects concerning the county were treated by the various people who took part in this program, and this material is being assembled to be placed on file.

Available for the day were valuable pictures, copies of old newspapers, and handiwork of other days, all of which contributed to the success of the program.

The closing business session Friday morning was held in the banquet room of the Memorial Building, with Mrs. Hill again in the presiding officer's chair. Mrs. Nan Alexander Montgomery offered prayer, and the club rendered the club song led by the composer, Lucille Hill Walker. Closing business concerned votes of thanks, consideration of the project of getting the historical reports bound into permanent form, and receiving of the nominating committee's slate of new officers, as follows:

President, Josephine Murchison

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker were his brother Clarence Parker and son of California. Clarence had just returned from Korea, and was visiting his mother Mrs. Jess Walker of London and other Texas relatives in addition to Earl and family. The Parkers and their guests spent one day at London with Mrs. Walker and the group were joined there by another brother, Melvin and his wife and son of Arizona.

Hill;
Sec.-Treas., Ida Conner Neill;
1st vice, Essa Alexander Hoover (program chairman);
2nd vice, Lummie Pelt Whitten (hospitality);
3rd vice, Nan Alexander Montgomery (social).
Historian, Ruth Baker.
This list of officers was accepted by the group.

At this meeting, the chair appointed Mattie Whitten Royster, Essa Hoover and Ruth Baker to work with the school Homecoming committee. Mrs. Walker was appointed chairman of the out-of-town tea for next year, and a committee was also appointed to repair the fountain in the courthouse yard.

The newest member, Adah Riedelle West Bowder, had driven from Tennessee to attend this year's meeting. She brought her movie camera and took pictures of the group at the fountain in the courtyard—and it is hoped that these will be shown next year, and that the taking of these pictures will be an annual affair.

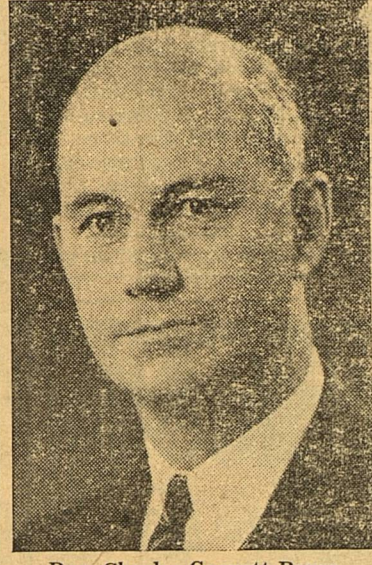

Among those attending were: Mrs. Estelle Elder Nations, Mrs. Bertha West Elder, Mrs. Mary Parker Davis, Mrs. Olga Benton Meador, W. F. Meador, Mrs. Edith Moore Meador, Mrs. Pearl Bailey Nixon, Mrs. Annie Marie Doty Perner, Mrs. Lummie Pelt Whitten;

Rev. Charles Garnett Bruce

NEW PASTOR TAKES OVER FOR PRESBYTERIANS

Rev. Charles Garnett Bruce, recently elected pastor, arrived in Eldorado last week, and preached his first sermon at the First Presbyterian Church here on Sunday.

Rev. Bruce came to Eldorado from Kenedy where he had been pastor for about two years. Prior to that he was located at Johnson City, Tenn., where he served as superintendent of Home Missions over a large area. Still earlier in his career he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Danville, Ky., and ministered to the students of Center College. Under his ministry there a $50,000 sanctuary was completed.

During his recent pastorate at Kenedy, Rev. Bruce represented the Presbyterian Church as a member of the Western Section of Presbyterian and Reformed churches in Canada and Buck Hill Falls, Pa., and will be one of the two principal representatives from the Synod of Texas through the term of 1957.

Rev. Bruce received his college work at Southwestern Presbyterian University at Memphis, and his theological work at the Presbyterian Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

Rev. and Mrs. Bruce have two sons, Carl, 18, who is now a student at Schreiner Institute in Kerrville, and Robert, 13, who is in Eldorado with his parents.

Rev. Bruce announces the following services for the coming Sunday:

Sunday School at 10:00.
Communion service at 11:00.
Evening worship at 7:45.

Material Placed On Ground For Hwy. Warehouse

A few loads of cement tile have been placed by the Highway Dept., on the grounds which they leased from the county at the beginning of this year. It is understood that the Department will construct a warehouse and fence in the three acres, and that eventually they will establish one of their foremen here as a permanent resident. The Highway Dept. has crews that construct buildings of this sort, and there is no report available at this time when construction will commence.

The land which the county owns lies east of the railroad track on the Menard highway.

The county leased a 3-acre tract to the Highway Dept. and retained adjoining land for their own use. The county also expects to build a barn, and they will probably use the same style of construction used by the state.

Road News
We are informed that grading has been completed on the Crockett county gap of FM highway No. 33, which will eventually connect Eldorado with Big Lake. Base material will be applied next week and after that the black top.

It is not likely that the road will be finished in July, an official reported.

FORMER GROCER A. D. RICHEY DIES, IS BURIED HERE

A. D. Richey, former Eldorado businessman, veteran of World War I, Mason, and member of the American Legion, died Friday morning at Fort Sam Houston Hospital, San Antonio.

The body was brought overland from the hospital, arriving here Friday night. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 5:00 at the Ratliff Funeral Home, conducted by the Rev. Clifford Nelson, First Baptist pastor, and Rev. Roy Shilling, Methodist pastor. A choir sang Old Rugged Cross and Rock of Ages. Burial was in the family lot in the Eldorado Cemetery beside the body of his wife, who died in September, 1946.

The flag used in the services was presented to the family at the cemetery.

Pallbearers were Payne Robinson, Tom Alexander, Clyde Keeney, Don McCormick, Ray Boyer, and J. C. Joiner.

Here for the funeral from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Lee Richey of Ft. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Richey of Talpa, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre of Veribest, Mrs. Ira Hale and son of Miles, Mrs. Ralph Davis of Talpa, and Mr. and Mrs. Bloodworth and son of Big Spring, and others.

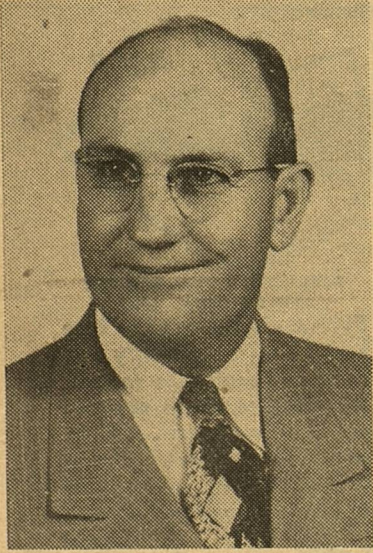

Angus D. Richey was born October 5, 1888, at Ross. He served in World War I. He established his own grocery store in Eldorado, moving here in 1930, and closing out the store five or six years ago.

His Self Serve store was located in his own building, now occupied by Frozen Foods, and he also owned and operated a store in Sonora, living in that city for about two years while he looked after both businesses. Later his Eldorado store was moved to a McWhorter building.

In 1928, Mr. Richey was married to Olive Beard, who came to Texas from Tennessee. She died in September, 1946, and was buried in the local cemetery. The couple had no children.

Mr. Richey was in failing health at the time he closed his store here. He had disposed of most of his property in Eldorado, except the 13 lots of the old gin site. He also owned property, both city and rural, in and near Talpa. During the years of his semi-retirement, he spent his time at the hospital, and at Talpa and Eldorado.

He is survived by a brother, E. H. Richey, and two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Davis and Mamie Richey, all of Talpa.

STOP THESE INVADERS!

The boll weevil and other cotton insects in 1950 robbed Texas cotton farmers of 948,712 bales of cotton and 396,746 tons of cottonseed, the National Cotton Council points out in commenting on the final 1950 crop report of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

In monetary value, the Council estimates these losses amounted to more than $221,000,000 or an average of about $1270 per Texas cotton farm.

Our national need for cotton is urgent, the Council reminds in calling on cotton farmers to do everything possible to meet the 16-million-bale goal set for this season by the Department of Agriculture. A 26.9 per cent reduction from the full yield, such as occurred in the 1950-51 season due to insect damage, could seriously jeopardize this goal.

To realize the high yields necessary for maximum cotton production, farmers are urged to follow closely their state cotton insect control recommendations.

Cotton Defoliation Idea Advanced

COLLEGE STATION—Chemical defoliation of cotton may be worth the cost and effort regardless of whether the harvest is to be by hand, by picking machines or by mechanical strippers.

Removal of the leaves exposes all bolls to sunlight and air current so they dry rapidly and open quickly. This often allows the cotton to be picked two weeks earlier.

Defoliation may be beneficial in the control of cotton insects—cutting down on leaf worm and aphid infestations, reducing boll weevil populations and permitting early stalk destruction for pink boll-worm control.

"Apply defoliant when the youngest bolls expected to make cotton are 25 days old," advises F. C. Elliott, cotton specialist for the Texas Extension Service. "Defoliant should be applied ten days or two weeks before the intended picking date."

Use of defoliant is recommended only when plants are wet with dew or when adequate dew is forecast. Elliott cautions that the dust must remain in moisture on the leaf for at least two hours. Four or more hours of moist exposure is preferred.

Calcium cyanamide and monosodium cyanamide are two recommended dust defoliant. Calcium cyanamide, sold under the trade name "Aero Cyanamid, Special Grade," should be applied at the rate of 30 to 40 pounds per acre. Twenty-five to 35 pounds per acre is recommended for monosodium cyanamide sold as "Aero Sodium Cyanamid Dust (X-10)."

Spray defoliant may be used in the absence of dew and when the air is extremely dry. However, Elliott warns that thorough coverage of the cotton plants is essential for good results.

Good defoliation can be obtained with six or eight pounds per acre of spray defoliant sold under the trade names—"Shed-A-Leaf," "Ortho C-1, Liquid Defoliant," "Aero Cyanate Weed Killer" and "Dow Defoliant." One to four pounds of "Niagrathal DF Spray" per acre or 5 to 15 pounds of "Sodium Cyanamide, Soluble Grade (X-5)" may be used.

For ground spraying Elliott recommends dissolving the above rates in 10 to 25 gallons of water, depending on the type of sprayer used and the size of the cotton plants. Thorough coverage of the plants is essential. This means going to the field with enough water. Under most conditions 25 gallons of water per acre will be necessary. For airplane spraying, dissolve the recommended pounds of material in an equal number of gallons of water.

PLAY IT SAFE—DANGER LURKS IN SWIMMING HOLE

COLLEGE STATION—The old "swimming hole" provides welcome relief from the heat of summer but if the rules of water safety are ignored by the swimmer, results can be disastrous.

The number of swimming casualties, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer and member of the State Farm Safety committee of Texas, is directly in proportion to the care that is exercised by those who participate in water sports. He points out that there are seven cardinal safety rules and offers them to those who will be visiting their favorite swimming pool, lake, river or beach this summer.

Never swim alone or in unfamiliar water and don't try to swim long distances, especially in cold water, unless followed by at least two people in a boat. Ulich says never to dive into water until you are sure that no under-water obstructions are present. Don't go into the water for at least one hour after eating and don't stay in the water after you become tired or cold.

He says the careful sportsman will never take a chance with a small boat in rough water. And last but not least in importance, he adds, don't move around or "cut-up" when out in a small boat. Entire groups have drowned as a result of a careless act on the part of just one member of a boating party.

Practice safety whenever you are in or around water. Don't ruin your picnic, summer camp, or vacation, warns Ulich, by forgetting even for a moment that water sports can be dangerous.

Mrs. Roy Davidson, Fay McAlpine, and Jane Mund spent the weekend in Ft. Stockton.

State Fair Plans New Agricultural Show

A unique, new type of Agriculture Show—more of a spectacle than an exhibition—will be presented at the 1951 State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 6-21.

A "Storybook of Texas Agriculture" will tell the glamorous true story of how the soil of Texas is tilled to produce the necessities—and many luxuries—of life.

The mammoth free show in the Agriculture Building will portray agricultural products of prime importance in each of the 14 Extension Districts of the Texas A&M College System.

In 14 colorful sets, simulating giant-size pages of an open book, the story of each district will be told with three-dimensional effect. The districts are the Panhandle, South Plains, Rolling Plains, North Texas, Northeast Texas, Big Bend, Edwards Plateau, Heart of Texas, Piney Woods, Central Texas, Hill Country and Winter Garden Area, South Texas, Gulf Coast and Rio Grande Plains.

The plot for the "Storybook" has been furnished by the people of Texas through their endeavors in growing cotton, fruits and vegetables, harvesting grass and grain crops, breeding and marketing poultry and livestock, and converting products for home consumption.

The "Storybook" material has been compiled and edited by Ray W. Wilson, the fair's agriculture manager, in collaboration with Texas A&M district agents in agriculture and home economics, county and home demonstration agents, and farm and ranch leaders.

Live animals, animated figures, drawings, miniature farm homes and buildings, models and mannequins, and actual farm products will be used to create an impression of reality in the sets. In triangular panels between sets, color photographs will be enhanced by spectacular lighting effects.

Three additional sets will depict the work of 4-H Club members, Negro Extension workers and Future Farmers of America.

The featured display in the center of the Agriculture Building will be a huge turntable with a relief map of Texas showing the cities and physical characteristics of each district. Fourteen islands will rise from the map, delineating their chief products. A huge ledger on the turntable will denote the far-reaching importance of agriculture in Texas economy.

How many "Independence Days" have we left?

"We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed . . ."

Immortal words from the Declaration of Independence, adopted on the first 4th of July, just 175 years ago.

THESE WORDS are the stones upon which man built history's greatest work—the United States of America. Remember them well!

" . . . all men are created equal . . ." That means you are as important in the eyes of God as any man ever brought into this world. You are made in His image and likeness. There is no "superior" man anywhere.

" . . . they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights . . ." Here is your birthright—the freedom to live, work, worship and vote as you choose. These are rights no government on earth may take from you.

" . . . That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men . . ." Here is the reason for and the purpose of government. Government is but a servant—not a master—not a giver of anything.

" . . . deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed . . ." In America, the government may assume only the powers you allow it to have. It may assume no others.

From Concord to Korea, your kinsmen have fought and died for the principles of America's Declaration of Independence: belief in God . . . belief in the God-given rights of man . . . belief that man is more important than government . . . belief in the vital need for morality in all man does.

But on this Independence Day, as never before, these beliefs are in deadly peril. There are people in America who would deny your God-given rights, who prefer expediency to morality, and who would make government the master—not the servant—of man. These people are the advocates of an all-powerful, all-providing socialistic government to control your destiny from cradle to grave.

The time has come to answer them with your own "Declaration of Independence" . . .

Declare that government is responsible TO you—rather than FOR you.

Declare that freedom is more important to you than "security" or "survival."

Declare again that the rights God gave you may not be taken away by any government on any pretext.

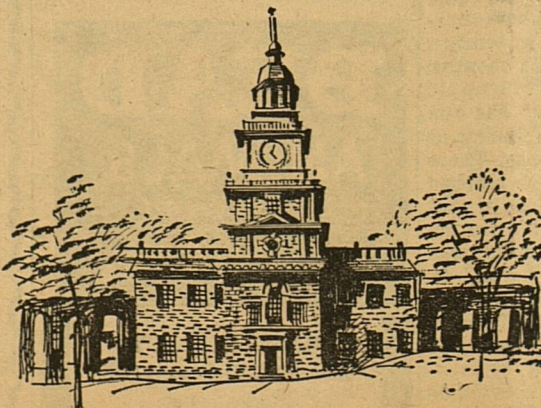

Our founding fathers accepted the truths of America's Declaration on faith alone. Today, our nation is proof—absolute and irrevocable—that these truths work. They are the last great hope for the protection of human civilization.

FREEDOM NEEDS YOU

On this 175th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, help give the day the spiritual, religious meaning it had to the founding fathers.

Renew your faith and allegiance to the immortal truths stated in the Declaration. Make them an active part of your thinking, your acting, your voting.

Pray for help in maintaining man's closeness to God, in preserving man's God-given rights and responsibilities against those who would make you dependent upon a socialistic, all-powerful government.

" . . . we need only to recall that the substance of (America's) formula is continuous, strict and closely guarded limitations upon the power of government. Neither the peril of war nor the promise of welfare must ever serve to relax any item of this formula . . ."

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

Our WASHINGTON Letter
STILL DRAGGING its feet, after six months of the present session, the House last week finally passed a Mexican labor bill which is designed to effectuate the agreement between this country and Mexico whereby Mexican laborers may be processed and permitted to enter the United States on a temporary basis to do agricultural work.

A provision in a companion Senate bill, previously passed, made it a felony for an employer to hire a Mexican national illegally in this country, if the employer could have found out or should have suspected that the employee was unlawfully in the United States. The House by a vote of two and one-half to one defeated a similar provision offered as an amendment to the House bill. The House and Senate versions of the labor bill are now being considered by a Conference Committee, and it is hoped an acceptable compromise can be agreed upon shortly.

STOPPING off in Washington for a brief tour of the capitol and city on last Friday was a large delegation of Texas Lions Club members, en route back to Texas from the International convention in Atlantic City. How's Business?

By Roger W. Babson

Business Holding Steady

Business has been holding on an even keel for the past three months in spite of all the confusion, chaos and irregularities at Washington and throughout the land. What peacetime production has lost, has been picked up by defense activities through the production of war material. While shortages in many basic commodities are beginning to be felt in certain areas, they have not as yet had their full effect. Whether or not defense production, plus peacetime production, will be able to keep the total volume of business up at its present level, remains to be seen.

The volume of business, as measured by my Composite Business Chart, is 27% above normal, the same as it was last month; and only one point below what it was in May. Historically, the volume of business reached its high point of 38.9% above normal in January of 1943. This was an all-time high in the history of production in the United States. From that point the volume of business gradually and conservatively declined step by step for a period of three and one-half years and reached a low point for this era of 2% above normal in March of 1946. The rebound was rapid. Thirty per cent above normal was reached by September, 1946, a period of only six months.

From September of 1946 up to the present time business has run at a very high level, stabilizing at around 30% above normal. There was a decline in 1949 that reached as low as 10% in November of that year; but from there again the recovery was rapid. Business was back at the 30% above normal figure in a period of seven months and has hovered around that figure ever since. While this was going on there were strikes and work stoppages. That business has been able to maintain these high levels shows that the productive power of this nation is fundamentally sound. If Russia and the enemies within our borders would only let us live in peace, the United States could almost feed and clothe the entire world!

Pointers On The New Draft Law

AUSTIN—The draft law, scheduled for expiration July 9, has been extended in amended form to July 1, 1955, Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director, reminded Texas people today.

General Wakefield noted the following important changes in the Selective Service act:

1. Men inducted will serve for 24 months as compared to 21 under the old law. Males must register at the age of 18, as formerly.

2. Men are liable for induction at age 18½ instead of 19. No man below 19 can be inducted so long as a board has eligible older men.

3. Physical and mental standards for service have been lowered, with the result that some men now classified IV-F will be found suitable for I-A.

4. The present strength of the armed forces, approximately 3½ million, can be raised to 5 million men.

5. Except for cases of extreme hardship, a man may not be deferred for dependency on the basis of a wife alone.

6. Men now or hereafter deferred on educational, occupational, farming, or dependency grounds will remain liable for service until age 35. Men not deferred are liable only to 26th birthday.

7. Conscientious objectors to military service shall be ordered by local boards, subject to regulations prescribed by the President, to perform civilian work in the national interest for 24 months.

8. Men entering the service by way of a draft board are obligated to serve six years in the reserves after discharge.

9. High school students will be deferred until graduated, until they attain age 20, or until they fail school work.

10. Some college students may be deferred on the basis of class standing during last completed school year, or on the basis of a government sponsored test. The local board is not bound to defer on the basis of this information, but can defer on consideration of it. Some other college students may be deferred on a less competitive basis.

11. No inducted man may be assigned overseas until he has had four months training.

12. All enlistments in the armed forces, reserve and regular, which expire after July 9, may be extended by the President for one year. No person shall have his enlistment extended a second time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lum Burk and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rountree spent the Fourth in Brady attending the Jubilee.

POST - SCRIPT

T. H. Alexander has completed a new 12 by 14 wash house near his residence. The new building, which replaces the one destroyed by fire, is all made of tile and concrete and is fireproof throughout.

The two new houses on Figure 3 Ranch are now being painted, and will probably be completed in a few weeks.

Cramer Sofge, proprietor of Doe's Place, is doubling the size of his residential quarters at the rear of his store by putting on an addition at the north side of the building. Work has been under way for a week or more.

Those who have paid city deposits recently on rental units in Eldorado include:

Herbert Dorch, now with Ohio, in Earl Parker house.

Roy Brannon, Humphrey apartment.

Clarence Wilson, Woodward house.

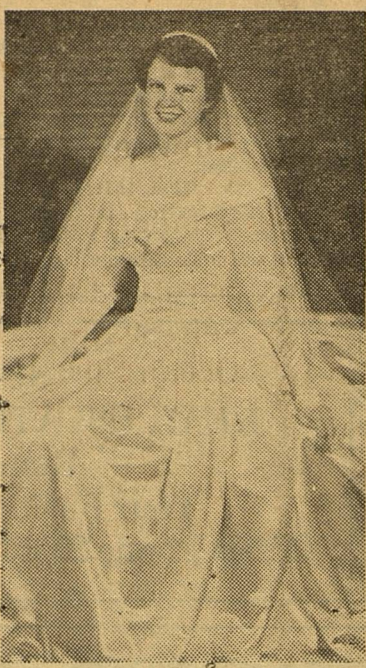

W. L. Wilson, Mrs. Mercer's apartment.

L. M. Hill, with Delta Gulf, new renters in Lefty Reynolds' house.

The city street men will be out Friday and Saturday, spraying the streets and alleys of the city with DDT. This is done each summer by the city, in an attempt to control breeding of flies and mosquitoes. They'll start Friday morning, and will work as much of the day Saturday as is necessary to complete the job.

Another project in the planning stage concerns Eldorado city paving, which needs some patching jobs. The city is working on a contract with the city manager of Sonora for leasing of their equipment for re-topping of some of the paving of Eldorado streets. We don't know when this job will start, but it will be soon, we understand.

As far as the Success crew can learn there was only one accident for Schleicher County during the holidays. C. L. Martin's 1949 Ford was badly damaged in a wreck Monday near Abilene. The Martins were on their way to Wichita Falls when they met a truck loaded with metal, a piece of which fell off and dropped in the path of their car, wrecking it. The couple were not hurt, and they waited until repairs could be made—then they continued on their way to Wichita Falls to visit a daughter.

Mrs. Fred L. Speck

Fred L. Speck Weds Mary Sue Chilton In Formal Ceremony

In a formal ceremony in the chapel of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary Friday, June 22, Mary Sue Chilton became the bride of Fred L. Speck. The Rev. C. Ellis Nelson officiated, using the double ring ceremony, before an altar decorated with white glads, palms, and candelabra with candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace T. Chilton Sr., of Austin, former San Angelo residents. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Speck of Schleicher County.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce C. Foster of Houston, sister of the bride, and Mary Lee Lowitz of Austin was bridesmaid. The bride was given in marriage by her father. For the ceremony she wore a gown of candlelight satin, with molded bodice and illusion yoke. The skirt had a chapel-length train. Her veil of illusion fell from a cap of Chantilly lace, with edging of seed pearls, and her bouquet was of white orchids, white carnations and white stephanotis.

Best man was Henry Speck of Eldorado and ushers were James Hugh Connor of Daingerfield, Robert Lee Chilton, and C. L. Smith of Austin.

A reception was held in the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house.

For traveling the bride wore a silk suit in frosty pink, with white starched lace hat and white orchid corsage.

The couple went on a honeymoon trip to Monterey, Mexico, after which they returned to Austin where they live in an apartment. The groom will receive his degree at the end of the summer term at the University. The bride, who also attended the University, is employed as secretary for a shipping firm there. They expect to visit in Eldorado soon.

Relatives from Schleicher attended the wedding and reception.

Mrs. James Alderman Is Shower Honoree

Honoring Mrs. James Alderman, the former Margaret Hicks, women of the WSCS entertained with a gift tea Saturday afternoon in the reception rooms of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Orval Conner presided at the guest register, and Mrs. S. D. Harper and Mrs. Luke Thompson served punch and cake. The table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of pink roses.

The high school sextette sang two numbers. Girls who sang were Myrta Bob Harper, Lola Beth Ballew, Carolyn Ratliff, Helen Morgan, Glen Richburg, who also played the piano, and Margaret Ellen Edmiston.

Present, in addition to local relatives and friends, were two from out of town, the honoree's mother-in-law and her maid of honor, Mrs. Alderman and Mrs. Dale Dallas of San Angelo.

Complete sets of china and silver and many other gifts were displayed on long tables in the reception rooms.

The couple were married here on June 16. They spent the weekend in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hicks.

Pat Joiner spent the Fourth attending the Jubilee at Brady.

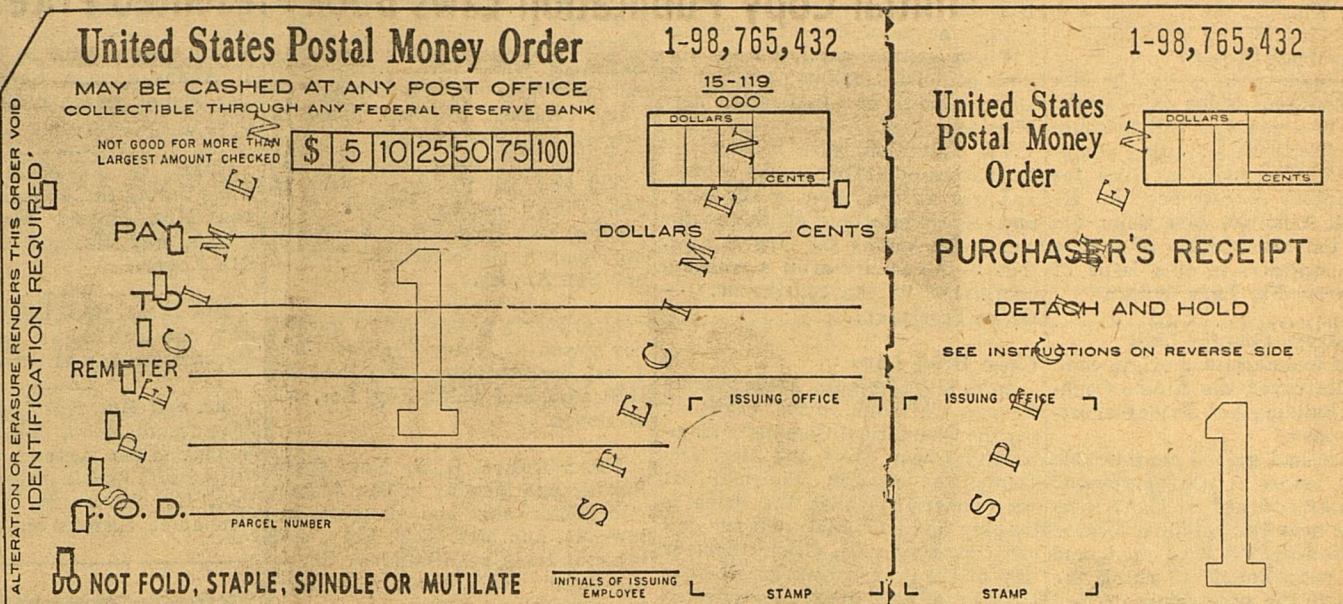

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews, Mrs. C. W. Galbraith, and Tony and Rony Kerr went to Camp Allison on Tuesday, returning home on the afternoon of the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wiedenmann and Sam A. Whitten and Bill McCravy attended the rodeo at rodeo at Rocksprings on the Fourth.

Mrs. Forrest Runge and daughter Mae have gone on a trip to Alabama, where they will attend the wedding of a relative.

Patrons of more than 42,000 Post Offices found the new and more convenient money order available Monday morning, July 2, 1951. Principal changes in the new money order system will make it possible to have a money order cashed at any of the nation's post offices or it may be collected through any bank in the same manner as the depositing or cashing of a check.

The new money order appears in the form of a punched card instead of the customary paper slip and purchasers will fill out the same form and pay the same fee as has been required in the past.

The regulation that money orders must be cashed at specific post offices has been eliminated. Under the old system, it will be recalled a money order had to be cashed in the office to which it was issued. If it was cashed at a post office in another city an additional fee was charged.

Pasture And Brush Control Stressed

COLLEGE STATION—Improvement and maintenance of established pastures and recovery of the state's range land from nonforage growths are more closely associated in Texas than in other states because both are basic to problems in animal grazing. In order to identify and delimit the duties in these related fields at the A&M College Extension Service is served both by a pasture and a range specialist.

Working mainly within areas of permanent or converted grazing lands, the pasture specialist by demonstrational teaching, tours and other proved methods during 1950 sought to place pastures among farm cash crops. Among effective means to this end he encouraged the use of quality fertilizers, especially when seeding, and field trials of adapted varieties of grass. In connection with the latter, the specialist acted on behalf of the Texas Agricultural Experiment station in distributing sprigs of coastal bermuda grass to more than 300 farmers in 71 counties.

During the year more than 70 pasture tours, instigated largely by county agricultural agents and other organizations identified with agriculture, were made with average attendance of about 50 persons. Fully one third of the formal tours were followed by night meetings for discussion of pasture problems and showing of appropriate colored slides.

An irrigation pasture management school was taught at Lubbock from June 26 through July 11 with 19 county or assistant county agricultural agents completing the course. A pasture management school also was conducted within the year at Lufkin with 25 agents or assistants attending. During the course students were taken on tours of seven Experimental substations. Meanwhile the specialist attended or participated in programs of several meetings within or beyond the state devoted to phases of agriculture.

Texas ranges are native pastures and the grass which finds foothold there has to strive for survival against the uncertainties of moisture and the creeping invasion of brush. According to the Extension Service range specialist about 65,000,000 acres of Texas range land are infested with mesquite and other varieties of noxious shrubs. The primary problems of management include brush invasion, overgrazing, lack of appreciation by ranchmen for a coordinated range management program and other situations demanding reform. Despite the formidable array, county agricultural agents under the leadership of the range specialist are attacking the problems principally through demonstrations.

In the field of brush control 1,321 demonstrations involving 402,512 acres were conducted in 126 counties, including mesquite work alone in 63 counties. Of this number, 16 county agricultural agents tested a new type hormone, 2, 4, 5-T ester, by hand methods using cut surface, trunk and foliage treatment. A total of 604 demonstrations in proper stocking involving 2,000,000 acres were conducted in 111 counties, while 1,314,000 acres in 126 counties furnished the operating field for demonstrations in deferred or rotating grazing for range recovery on behalf of 550 operators. More uniform distribution or livestock on ranges has followed construction of numerous wells and earthen tanks. At the same time fences have been built so that ranges can be utilized more uniformly and, accordingly, better managed. Meanwhile, agents supervised 1,610 range seeding demonstrations on 181,247 acres.

During the year county agricultural agents trained 4,200 4-H Club boys in 127 counties in plant and grass identification. Teams from 104 counties took part in 259 contests, while 36 range demonstration teams gave 86 performances on range management practices and principles, and 335 club boys in 56 counties carried range management demonstrations.

Four years ago a range school for county agents was set up with the aid of the Range and Forestry Department of the A&M College. The 1950 class brought to about 100 the number of agents who have attended. Agents studied range plants, ecology, plant succession and plant management in the field, information important to the ranchmen and farmers they serve.

A notice, advertising for bids on the construction of such a building, appears in this issue of the paper. —Big Lake Wildcat.

Fire Destroys Country Club

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the Alpine Country club building last Friday shortly after noon.

Values Highest In 20 Years

Pecos County's taxable valuation will exceed $50,000,000 in 1951 for the first time in nearly 20 years—since the flush days when the Yates pool was in the midst of its greatest development.

This appeared certain last week when the Commissioners' Court of Pecos County sat as a board of equalization and heard the complaints of property owners and gave final approval to the valuations provided through assessments on general property and the schedule of values provided on oil and gas properties, and railroads and utilities as submitted by Thomas Y. Pickett & Co., valuation engineer for the county. —Fort Stockton Pioneer.

REA Project Delayed

News was released this week by Tom Hurd, manager of the Rio Grande Electric Cooperative, Inc., that only fifty-five percent of the members along the proposed rural electric lines have signed their 5-year guarantee. He further advised that the longer it takes to get the required applications signed, the longer it will take to get construction under way.

It was hoped that there wouldn't be too much delay in signing the applications due to possible difficulties which may be encountered in connection with the obtaining of construction materials. Materials are not hard to get at the present time and if all the applications are signed, construction could begin with 90 or 120 days, Hurd stated. —Sanderson Times.

Property Valuations Upped

Property Valuations for tax purposes in Crockett county for 1951 will be nearly a million dollars above the total for the previous year, or approximately 22 3-4 millions of dollars, following action of a final board of equalization here Monday.

The valuation raise affected oil companies operating in the county, and was agreed upon by the court and representatives of the major companies having the largest holdings in the county after a morning conference at the courthouse. —Ozona Stockman.

Asks Less Water Consumption

Mayor Ike Hallman and members of the city council this week called on all Menard residents to hold use of water to a minimum.

The council is asking the cooperation of all persons. Hallman said people are especially asked to water their lawns as little as possible.

He pointed out that the request is not made because of a shortage of water, but because the capacity of the filtering tanks at the local water works is not sufficient to handle the amount of water presently being used. —Menard News.

Lift Up Your Heart

Faith of Our Fathers

"One hundred and seventy five years ago our fathers signed with their own blood our declaration of freedom, and then went forth to pay the price of their blood to secure this freedom. About the only thing they had was their faith, but the kind of faith they possessed could not be denied of God, or resisted by their enemies. I say that we are sadly in need of that type of faith today in all realms of our life.

They had a deep faith in a principle. That principle was freedom. A new word then and very precious. An old word now, but still precious to many enslaved souls today. They believed a man should be free in mind, in body, and in soul. Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness wasn't merely oratory to color a campaign speech. It was an ideal worth fighting for and dying for. They had faith in a great ideal.

They had faith in a future. A future that held greatness because they were a great people. People who had no fear of an ocean and a wilderness. Men whose spirits could not be dampened by hunger or poverty. A land that was abundant in its productivity, and entrancing in its expanse, and breath taking in its beauty. They seemed to sense the greatness under God that awaited them.

They had faith in God. This was seen in every settlement for they built first after their home a house to worship God in. This was seen in the life of great men like Adams, Washington, Jefferson, who sought in all their ways divine guidance from an omnipotent God. This is seen in every home graced with Bible and a family altar. The Book the children used to read was God's Holy Word. The book they used to learn how to live was God's Holy word. They had faith in God. The same faith today will settle our individual, social, national, and international problems today. We dare America to try formula 1776.

Range Field Day Planned For 27th

FREDERICKSBURG—The July 27th date for the Range Conservation Field Day is drawing near. This Field Day is sponsored each year by the Association of Hill Country Soil Conservation Districts, at present composed of 12 Districts in the Hill Country and the Edwards Plateau. The Association was organized on a non-profit basis early in 1950 for the express purpose of promoting range conservation.

Each year the Association sponsors a Range Conservation Field Day in one of the member Districts to demonstrate the benefits derived from the establishment of good range management practices such as complete deferments from grazing from spring to frost and proper utilization of the forage during the grazing period. This year the Field Day will be held on July 27th in the Pedernales Soil Conservation District north of Johnson City and about 5 miles west of Round Mountain on the Sandy Road.

Realizing that the rancher must know his grasses before he can successfully manage them for maximum production, the Association voted to include a range management contest as part of this year's Field Day. The contest will consist of the identification of 30 plants (3 points each), telling whether each plant is an annual or perennial (1 point) and whether it is better for cool season's use or warm season's use (1 point). A total score of 150 points is possible. If the identification of the plant is wrong the total score (5 points) for that plant is lost. Only the common name of the plant will be required.

One grass may be staked more than once; for instance, little bluestem may be staked with seed heads, without seed heads, or closely grazed.

Only landowners or operators and their wives may enter, either individually or in teams, and they need not be District cooperators. Each team must be composed of 3 members of a small neighbor conservation group and cannot be composed of the 3 best men from throughout a Soil Conservation District.

There is no limit to the number of individual entries, but only 5 teams may enter from each District. This means that an elimination contest may be necessary in some Districts to select the 5 teams to represent that District in the Association contest on July 27th. Supervisors and Association committee members are not excluded from entering the contest since the grasses to be identified will be selected by disinterested people and no one will have any inside information.

Troy Foster of Willow City, chairman of the Range Management Contest Committee, stated recently that arrangements will soon be completed for the prizes to be awarded the winners. Separate prizes will be given to the conservation group winners and individual winners.

Farmers and ranchers have only three weeks in which to prepare for the contest. A sample list from which the 30 plants used in the contest will be selected can be secured from your local Soil Conservation Service office or your local Supervisor. Study up on your grasses and win one of these fine prizes for yourself or your conservation group. And remember ladies, this contest is for you as well. So show that husband of yours that you know something about grasses too.

A waste of pennies...

Probably you know a farmer in your community who uses electricity in many different ways, both in the house and on the farm. His bill may be two or three times what yours is.

Probably you say, "I wish I could afford it. He has the money to be able to buy the electric equipment and pay those big bills each month."

You may be putting the cart before the horse. That farmer is making money through the use of electricity, not wasting it on electricity. He is using electricity to free him from chores for more important work. He is using it to prepare and preserve his output so that he can get top prices. He is using it to cut his labor costs.

His wife uses electricity for all of these purposes and also to add a note of luxury and comfort to their home and life. But the luxury is just a by-product. The primary purpose of their use of electricity is making money, not spending it.
