Road Work On At North Edge Of Town

Workmen and their heavy equipment from the Brown construction company were at work this week on the north city limits of Eldorado, and on north as the initial phase of work on the 8½-mile stretch of the San Angelo highway, which is being completely rebuilt and partially re-routed.

The by-pass roads from the north city limits, east to Cramer Sofge's and west to the Mertzon highway, have already been paved and workmen were erecting "highway 29 detour" signs near the post office Tuesday.

These detour routes will be used when the blocks of the highway in Eldorado are closed to traffic for widening and rebuilding.

The heavy scoops were busy Tuesday scraping out the east bar ditch north of McCormick's store and on out to Joe Wagley's place, a distance of about a mile. This will become the detour road for through traffic, in addition to the by-passes to Sofge's and the other one west to the Merton road.

October is understood to be the target date for completion of this project.

Republicans To Form County Organization

A barbecue and a speaker from State Headquarters are being scheduled to kick off a county Republican organizational meeting here at 7:30 next Wednesday, July 17, according to an announcement on page 3 of this issue by the Republican county chairman, Ford Oglesby, Jr.

Jim Waters of Republican State Headquarters in Houston will be the speaker at the meeting here which will feature a barbecue at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Dyer on the Menard highway. The announcement goes on to extend an invitation to all residents of the county who are interested in responsible government.

As the Presidential election year approaches, Republicans have already selected San Francisco as the location for their national convention, which will open on July 13, 1964. Nationwide opinion polls show that Senator Goldwater of Arizona is now the leading choice for the presidential nomination — especially among Texas Republicans.

What one whole year will do to Goldwater's political fortunes remains to be seen, but for the present it has created a surge of activity among Texas Republicans, and the fact that an organizational meeting is already scheduled in Eldorado shows that the interest is getting down to the grass roots.

News of the Sick

Brian Edmiston, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Orval Edmiston of Eldorado, underwent knee surgery yesterday morning in the Shannon hospital. Brian's knee was injured recently when he was kicked by a bull. He will be confined in the hospital for a few days.

Leslie Woullard returned home Sunday from Shannon hospital where he underwent surgery on July 2nd. He has already resumed his hiking but on a more moderate scale.

New Babies

Dr. and Mrs. John Dennis Blackburn are parents of their third son born the Fourth of July in a Dimmitt hospital. Grandparents are Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Dyer of Eldorado.

The new baby weighed 8 lbs. 13 oz.

The Blackburns have two other sons, John Dennis, 4, and David, 2½ years old.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Robbins of Buffalo Gap, Texas, a son, named Dalton Otis Robbins, Jr., weighing 9 lbs. 4 oz., who arrived at 8:27 a.m. July 4th.

Grandparents are Mrs. Edith Robbins of Austin and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Eldorado.

Mrs. Robbins is the former Pat Phillips.

Post Script

What was the rainfall here in this county during July, 1938?

The Success has been running a schedule from time to time of rainfall records from 1936 up to the present, which was compiled by the Agent's office from records at the court house.

Now comes Jack Elder who claims we are all wet—or not wet enough—about the figure for July, 1938, which is given as 1.90 in.

That is the month, Jack says, that they used boats to ferry the mail across a lake on the road between here and Sonora, and that there was something like 25 inches of rain in that month alone.

That's about seven years before our time here and we are in no position to defend or deny any of these figures. But there should be plenty of people here who do remember the occasion. What's your verdict?

On Monday while I was working around the type cases I looked down and there was a nice (?) real live snake about 14 inches long! He immediately slithered back toward the wall and disappeared. Must be a little hole in the plaster where it joins the floor. Now when anything falls on the floor and rolls under the cabinet I'm afraid to reach in after it.

Now, I suppose somebody is going to accuse me of seeing things. Maybe I shouldn't have printed this.

With our subscribers: Mrs. W. G. McAlpine is a new subscriber at 422 No. Madison in San Angelo.

Stuart Williams is now getting the Success at 1957 Wychwood Drive in Abilene.

Mrs. M. J. Cunningham, the former Betty Mae Doyle, has a new address in Dallas, 10171 San Juan.

We are putting the postal "ZIP code" numbers on addresses of our out-of-town subscribers as they become available. Our distant readers may drop us a card giving it.

Dr. Gibson Loses Son In Accident July 4th

DR. WELDON B. GIBSON

Mrs. Mattie Cozzens received word this week that her nephew, Dr. Weldon B. (Hoot) Gibson, had lost his elder son, Arthur, 19, when he fell from a cliff in Monument Valley, Arizona, on the Fourth of July.

In addition to his parents, the dead youth is survived by a 16-year-old brother. The body was to be cremated and the ashes returned to California, according to report received here.

Dr. Gibson grew up here in Eldorado and graduated from the local high school in 1934. He graduated from Washington State College in 1938 and in 1940 received the degree of Master of Business Administration from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business, and the Ph. D. degree in December, 1949.

During World War II, Dr. Gibson served in the Air Force, attaining the rank of colonel.

He has been associated with the Stanford Research Institute at Menlo Park, California, since 1947, and is presently associate director.

Dr. Gibson and his family reside at 515 Chaucer Street in Palo Alto, California. The Gibson family have visited in Eldorado occasionally in recent years, and he spoke at the school homecoming one year.

Little League Season Closing This Week

Only two more games remain to be played in the Little League summer series here. Red Sox and Tigers play tonight (Thursday), and Friday finds White Sox crossing bats with the Cougars in the final game of the season.

Normally there would be a Saturday championship game between the winners of the first and second halves of the season. But this year finds the Christoval Cougars winners of both halves, so there will be no play off.

Results of the past four games are as follows:

Friday

Red Sox vs. Cougars

The first game Friday night saw the undefeated Cougars sail past the Red Sox in a 7-1 victory for the Cougars. Jimmy Mercer scored the lone run for the Red Sox.

The pitchers for the Red Sox were Davis, Sykes, and Jarrett. Mike Stewart and Nicky Menchaca pitched for the Cougars.

White Sox vs. Tigers

The second game of the double-header Friday night fans witnessed the defeat of the White Sox by the Tigers.

The Tigers had a team batting average of .687 nearly every man getting a hit or scoring a run.

The Whites put up a valiant struggle.

Monday

The Red Sox started off hitting Monday night when they opened the games against the White Sox, and it looked as if they were going to redeem themselves after trailing all season. The first three batters got safe hits and they pulled in three scores. But when they took the field the White Sox ran away with the game. They ran in 9 scores in the first, and 11 in the second inning. Red Sox used four pitchers who allowed 13 bases on balls.

White Sox	9	11	1	0	21

Tuesday

Early in the season the Tigers and Cougars played a hard-fought 6-to-6 game. Everybody expected something of the same when they met again Tuesday, but this time the Tigers lost their rabbit foot. They were roundly defeated 16 to 8 with the Cougars leading all the way.

County-Wide Picnic Planned July 19 by H.D.

A county-wide picnic has been planned by Home Demonstration clubs for the evening of July 19.

It will be held on the spacious grounds of the Charles Wimer home which is located at the Northern Natural Gas Co. plant in the Reynolds community.

The Wimers have invited not only Club families but the entire county to come, bring a picnic lunch and share the fun of the occasion together.

Last year the picnic was a community affair with more than 100 people in attendance.

Because everyone seemed to enjoy it so much the Reynolds Home Demonstration Club and the Wimers said at the time—

"Now next year we will invite everybody," and that is what they are doing.

Remember the date: Friday, July 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the Wimer home, and come.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and family spent from Wednesday night until Sunday morning at Lubbock where they visited their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Johnson.

Nugent was introduced by Eldon Calk, program chairman. C. J. Hahn presided. Guests at the meeting were Neil Tarver of San Angelo and Joe Wagley and

Home Demonstration Agent's Column
By MRS. VIDA KREKLOW

On Wednesday, July 10, the first yeast bread work shop for the county was held in the foods section of the High School Home Economics department.

Members of the Young Home Makers Home Demonstration club made up the roll of this first group.

More workshops are scheduled for the week of July 15 to 19 and if you would like to observe or take part in a session all you have to do is call 22592 and state your preference of days. A work shop will be held on July 16, 17, 18, and 19, beginning at 9:30 a.m. each morning.

You do not have to be a club member to be welcomed. Everyone is. Call for a letter of directions and a reservation.

One of the breads which will be made is the popular sweet bread of Denmark called

Danish Kringle
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 1/2 tsp. sugar
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup soft shortening (part butter or margarine)
1/2 cup milk, scalded
1 egg, separated
1/4 cup warm water (110-115 F.)
1 pkg. active dry yeast
Measure flour, sugar, salt and butter into bowl; blend well. Cool milk slightly, then stir in egg yolk. Pour into bowl with first ingredients. Add yeast to warm water, and let stand a few minutes. Add to all other ingredients, mixing thoroughly. Scrape down dough from sides of bowl (it will be very soft). Cover tightly and chill 2 to not more than 48 hours in refrigerator. Prepare fillings before shaping kringles. Divide dough into two parts. Take out one part and return other half to refrigerator. Beat egg white.

Grease two baking sheets. Cover board with cloth and rub flour well into cloth to prevent dough from sticking. Roll dough into a 6x18 inch rectangle. Spread 3-inch center strip with half of beaten egg white; then with filling. Fold over one side of dough and then the other with 1 1/2-inch lap to cover filling. Pinch dough to close the fold. Pick up kringle carefully and arrange on baking sheet in oval or horseshoe shape, closing ends for the latter. Shape second kringle as first. Cover and let rise in warm place 30 to 45 minutes or until dent remains when finger is pressed gently on side of dough and dough is no longer cold. Bake in moderately hot oven (400 F.) for 20 to 30 minutes, or until golden brown. Spread with sugar icing while hot. Cut in wedges to serve. Makes 2 dozen servings.

Pecan Filling
1/4 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup chopped pecans.
Cream butter and sugar until fluffy; spread, then sprinkle with nuts.

Date Pecan Filling
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup finely chopped dates
1/2 cup finely chopped pecans.
Sprinkle sugar; then dates and pecans.

Almond Paste Filling
1/4 cup soft butter
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1/2 cup almond paste.
Cream butter and sugar until smooth and fluffy. Add almond paste and mix until smooth.

Apple Pecan Filling
1/2 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup finely chipped apples
1/2 cup finely chopped pecans.
Sprinkle sugar; then apples and pecans.

Raisin Filling
2 tsp. butter
1/4 cup brown sugar (packed)
1 cup raisins
2 tsp. almond extract.
Cream butter and sugar well; add raisins and almond extract. (Soak raisins beforehand to plump them.)

Prune Filling
1 1/2 cups chopped stewed prunes
3 tsp. lemon juice
1/2 tsp. grated lemon peel
1/4 cup sugar.
Blend before spreading mixture.

Plain Icing
1 cup sifted confectioner's sugar
1/2 tsp. milk

Capt. Wright Retires

Wash., D. C.—Capt. Archie Taylor Wright, Jr., USN, 51, retired here from the Navy July 1, after 30 years service at 17 sea and shore commands. Capt. Wright, a World War II veteran who holds the Bronze Star, is a native of Eldorado, Tex. He attended Texas A&M a year before going to the U. S. Naval Academy, Annapolis. Commissioned in 1933, he served in cruisers and battleships in the Pacific Fleet until July 1941, when he returned to the Academy as a seasoned seamanship instructor. In 1943 he went aboard the cruiser USS MILWAUKEE for a tour as navigator, first in the Mediterranean then the Pacific. He earned his Bronze Star in the Philippines during the Leyte Gulf operations of 1944. After the war his duty alternated between fleet ship commands and shore assignments in Washington, D. C. He has just completed 3½ years here as Chief of Staff, Potomac River Naval Command which coordinates the Navy's local affairs in the capital area. He is married to the former Miss Adelle Livingston of Orangeburg, S.C. Capt. and Mrs. Wright plan to remain in Washington at their home at 4829 Fort Sumner Drive. They have three children: Suzanne, 20, Archie Taylor III, 17, and Harriet, 11. During his last assignment, Capt.

Peace Corps Tests Are Set For July 20th

Another Peace Corps placement test will be administered at more than 800 post offices and college campuses beginning at 8:30 a.m., local time, on July 20th, including room 324, Federal Building, in San Angelo. The non-competitive test must be taken by anyone interested in becoming a Peace Corps Volunteer. This will be the last testing opportunity for persons who hope to enter training for a Peace Corps assignment in September or October. Those selected for training will spend 10 to 12 weeks on a college campus or at a Peace Corps camp in Puerto Rico, studying the language, history and culture of their host country, and American affairs. Volunteers agree to serve two years in the Peace Corps, including training time. The minimum age for Volunteer service is 18. There is no upper age limit.

Home Is Place For Caution To Avoid Accidents

Austin.—The old man had been high on a ladder, pruning a pecan tree. Suddenly he was lying helpless on the ground, vulnerable to the ladder as it crashed down on his head. He's still hospitalized. The price he paid for his back-yard tree-pruning venture: both heels crushed, a broken vertebra, and a deep gash in his head. What prompted him to undertake so difficult a task when he was so obviously ill-equipped to handle it? There is no firm answer to the question. The incident is just one of thousands which kill and maim and cripple people throughout Texas and the rest of the nation each year. Accidents, as of this moment, stand as the fourth leading cause of death among all age groups in Texas and the United States as a whole. Even more grim is the fact that of the 5655 accidental deaths of all types registered in Texas last year, one-fourth occurred in the most cherished of all places — the victim's home. Thorough studies into the nature of accidents show that very few happen by pure chance. They happen because a starway was improperly lighted, because an electrical circuit was overloaded, because a threshold strip wasn't tacked down tight, because the rung of a ladder was loose, because an insecticide was carelessly stored, because someone was smoking in bed; because of an endless variety of human failings. The National Safety Council defines accident statistics as "a single human tragedy multiplied to the point of indifference." The definition is an apt one, since accidents have become commonplace in the pattern of modern life. Children and older people are most susceptible. Current national statistics show that 15,000 children are killed and 16,500,000 are injured each year. Persons 65 years old and over compose 9% of the population; yet this age group experiences 74% of all fatal falls and 28% of all deaths from fire and explosion. There is no reason to believe the pattern of fatal home accidents this year will vary greatly from the 1962 pattern when 1384 Texans met untimely death thusly: Fires and explosions killed 423; falls from different levels killed 310; 180 died of falls from the same level; 83 were accidentally shot; 79 suffocated; 54 were poisoned by solids or liquids; 43 were poisoned by gases or vapors; 18 were burned to death by hot substances; and 194 died from accidents of an unspecified nature. These figures can only be altered by massive demonstrations of public caution, stimulated by carefully organized, continuous programs of home safety in which the whole community is involved.

Our WASHINGTON Letter By Congressman O. C. FISHER

While the sponsors of rigid civil rights legislation are basing much of the appeal on unemployment among negroes, that argument is not valid in government employment. According to the 1960 Census, negroes represented about 11% of our population. In June, 1962, negroes held 13% of all federal jobs, 9.1% of all "white collar" jobs and 15.1% of all postal jobs. Here in Washington, negroes held 22.8% of all government jobs. The 1963 Fiscal Year, which ended last week, resulted in another deficit year to the tune of $8 billion. Indications are that during the current Fiscal Year the deficit will be even higher. Despite this fact, pressures are mounting on Capitol Hill for Congress to increase spending for expanded welfare and other similar purposes. The civil rights contest is supposed to trigger a massive negro march on Washington in August. The latest reports here are that up to 300,000 demonstrators will participate. Some of the leaders have indicated they plan to strong-arm their way into the very floors of the House and Senate while they are in Washington. Spearheaded by Martin Luther King and A. Philip Randolph, these agitators are calling this one an "emancipation march." They are also encouraged by Congressman Adam Clayton Powell who has boasted that the colored people now have the white people in this country "on the run." The big battles in Congress during this session are yet to be fought. An intensified drive for socialized medicine, a half billion dollar mass transportation aid plan for the big cities, federal aid to education, a domestic Peace Corps, an expanded WPA program, and a multitude of others, are on tap, yet to be debated and be disposed of. The big battle, however, will probably be over the civil rights proposals, almost sure to provoke a filibuster in the Senate. The Administration has now moved from tax legislation to civil rights as the number one nation's problem. In any event, it looks as if the Congress will be in session until long after frost this Fall.

Improvements in the highway have been made when they were needed, by means of cooperation between the Texas Highway Department and the New Mexico State Highway Department. Texas prepared the plans, let the contract, and New Mexico paid directly to Texas contractors the cost of the improvement. However, recent law changes in New Mexico may preclude this procedure in the future. The story of Cordova Island, while lacking the excitement of controversy, is no less rich in Texas history. The island—technically an enclave—consists of 385 acres, or about one-half square mile, and adjoins U. S. Highway 80 on the north side of the Rio Grande. It is used for farming and has few inhabitants. Article 27 of the Mexican constitution prevents Mexico from selling the land to the United States.

Boy Scouts Are At Camp With Fred Watson as counselor, the five Boy Scouts pictured elsewhere in this Success issue left Sunday afternoon to spend this week at Camp Sol Mayer near Ft. McKavett. Byron Woolsey is camp director. Tonight, Thursday, is designated as parents' visiting night and several from here will visit the camp late in the day. Some parents will take picnic lunches and others will buy their evening meal in the camp dining hall. They will be guests at the camp fire after dark. Friday night will be the final night of camp and the camp fire then will be highlighted by the "tap-out" ceremony for candidates for the Order of the Arrow, the national Scout honorary organization for outstanding campers. The week will conclude with serving of the noon meal on Saturday, after which the Scout campers will return to their respective homes. Girl Scouts from here who recently attended Camp Jo-Jan-Van in Real county were Linda Derrick, Libby Preston and Arlene Hartgraves. Mrs. Ruby Fowler left Tuesday to return to her home in El Paso after visiting here nearly two weeks and attending the Mias Amigas meeting here and the DeLong reunion at Christoval.

TALES OF TEXAS HIGHWAYS

Austin.—Did you know you can drive on U. S. Highway 80 in El Paso, Texas and see Old Mexico with one eye and New Mexico with the other? It's true. The Texas Highway Department recently explained two of Texas' strangest "tall tales."

Old Mexico is an island of land bordered by U. S. 80, and New Mexico is a section of that highway, but they both lie within the heart of El Paso—giving El Paso a claim that no other city in the country can rival! It has a foreign country and another state right within its city limits. These tall tales are rooted in Texas history, dating back to the 1800's when the rampaging Rio Grande wandered hither and yon causing boundary disputes and settlements galore between Mexico and the United States. Cordova Island is the story of peaceful negotiation, but the story of the New Mexico highway is a story of controversy that was carried clear up to the Supreme Court of the United States. You have to watch closely, or you might blink and miss the moment when you cross state lines in El Paso. But if one follows U.S. Highway 80 along the Rio Grande, going northwest from the business district, he will cross 1,222 feet or about one-fourth mile, of the state of New Mexico before he reaches the north city limits of El Paso.

A road has existed here as a wagon trail since before recorded history. In 1898 El Paso county designated the road as a county road because the road was assumed to be entirely in Texas, as the recognized boundary between Texas and the Territory of New Mexico was the center of the existing river. The road was topped with tar and gravel in 1911, and four years later this was replaced with concrete, expanding the road from 14 feet wide to 18 feet wide. In 1924, the Texas Highway Department took over maintenance of the road as a part of State Highway 1. New Mexico became a state in 1912. It immediately filed suit to determine the location of the Rio Grande River in 1852. After years of testimony and Master of Chancery findings, the U. S. Supreme Court made its final ruling in 1928. The court appointed a surveyor to delineate and mark by monuments the center of the 1852 river. It was found the average width of the river was about 300 feet. By 1930, the surveying work was completed, showing that about 1,222 feet of the road actually was in New Mexico. The markers in the pavement on the state line still exist today.

WHAT BIRD IS THIS?

Some birds are well-loved because of their extreme adaptability to mankind. Of these the Purple Martin is perhaps the best-known. The Martin, a swallow, is easy to find in towns wherever man has thought to build a home for it.

The Purple Martin (Progne subis) is a member of the family Hirundinidae which includes the 75 species of swallows in the world. Of these, nine have been seen in Texas and six in the immediate area of Tom Green and Schleicher counties. The six found in this area are the Tree Swallow, the Bank Swallow, the Rough-winged Swallow, the Barn Swallow, the Cliff Swallow, and the Purple Martin. The first four of these six are usually seen in migration and the last two are known to breed in appropriate places, the Cliff Swallow under bridges and the Martin in houses built by the residents for that purpose. In Texas, the Martin breeds in localized areas except in the extreme west and the southernmost parts of the state. In migration, it may be seen throughout the state. So, America is its winter home.

The largest swallow of the United States, the Purple Martin, may measure as much as 8 1/2 inches. The male is a beautiful blue-black color and is very shiny. The female, in contrast, is a dull grayish color with a light breast. The Martin's graceful usually circular flight is typical of the swallows although its rather noisy, rich voice departs from the typical swallow characteristic. Its notched tail and long wings, which extend back beyond the tail, are also characteristic of the swallow family.

In the past there was a more pragmatic reason than beauty for acceptance of the Martin. The Martin is a vicious defender of his home, and will go so far as to fight off crows and hawks. For that reason, poultry owners once kept a colony of Martins near their poultry yards to fend off the avian predators which they presumed did them much harm. Thus for once, man was able to make use of nature's balance by placing a defender in nature against a possible enemy. Even more important to man are the dietary habits of the Purple Martin. Its main food consists of wasps and other flying insects which it catches on wing.

The Martin offers a good opportunity for observing birds to anyone with interest enough to provide him with a proper housing space. Martin houses can be bought for hundreds of dollars or built just as well for nothing from scrap wood. There are a few specifications which should be met for the most promising results. For the safety of the Martin, the house should be placed on a pole about 15 to 20 or more feet above the ground. Plenty of porch space must be provided, as the Martin, like other swallows, has weak feet and can not fight off his enemies well unless he has firm ground under him. Each unit in a Martin house should be about a six-inch cube with a two to two and a half inch entrance. The whole house should be easy to take down and put up; for it should be cleaned at least once a year, as cleanliness is requisite for good housing. It is a good idea to store the house during the winter. There are many other helpful hints for Martin fans, and an excellent commentary on the subject may be found in John K. Terres' book, Songbirds in your Garden, published by Thomas Y. Crowell Company. This book is, in fact, a good reference for anyone interested in attracting birds to his lawn or garden.

The Purple Martin is a beautiful, easily attracted, and charming back-yard bird. If you want to have fun with nature, a Martin house is one of the best places to start. But if, when you first put your Martin house up, nothing happens, do not be discouraged. The Martins may take a while to find it and to investigate before they settle down to nest and to be watched as they perform their beautiful and charming antics in the air.

GET READY FOR CHRISTMAS!

It's never too early to do your Christmas (or birthday or Mother's day, or Easter or anniversary) shopping, according to two Eldorado ladies who are busy selling the "world's finest coat hangers" for the benefit of the West Texas Therapy Center of San Angelo. The coat hangers are "something special," according to Mrs. Jess Koy and Mrs. P. F. Case. The sturdy, large size aluminum hangers are decorated with an attractive gold finish and are available for $1.00 each.

Many of the hangers already have been sold and have turned out to be one of the handiest items for hanging men's suits, good dresses, and other clothing items which do not make out too well on the standard wire-type hangers. "These hangers make ideal gifts for friends and family," Mrs. Koy and Mrs. Case report. "Persons interested in ordering these hangers should call us and we'll be happy to deliver them personally to the buyer." Orders may be placed by phoning Mrs. Koy at Eldorado 21039 or Mrs. Case at Eldorado 25014. All proceeds from the sale of the hangers will be used to support the West Texas Therapy Center, which serves a large area, including Eldorado.

Farmers of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District are beginning to learn by actual experience what Coastal Bermudagrass will do here. The question as to what kind of yield can be expected here will soon be answered. From the standpoint of how much hay coastal bermuda will produce, more will be known at the end of this year. Little will be learned this year about the grazing potential since little grazing will be done this year.

The first planting of coastal bermuda in the Eldorado-Divide S. C. D. is now being cut and baled on Pat and Wallace Joiner's farm. The first 14 acres cut and baled made 1400 bales averaging about 50 pounds per bale. Part of the 14 acres had lots of johnsongrass that had made good growth along with the bermuda grass. The high yield was due in part to the fact that the cutting was about two weeks late and also to the rank johnsongrass. The Joiners expect this cutting to be about 1/3 more than a normal cutting.

The Joiners sprayed the 41 acres of bermuda last year during the months of July, August, and the first five days in September. There was very little moisture in the soil while grass was being sprayed. Each patch was irrigated as soon as the spraying was completed.

Weeds and undesirable grasses, competing with the bermuda, has been one of the major problems. Last year sheep was used to help control the weeds and other plants that were not wanted. This year the weeds and grasses were controlled by shredding and poisoning.

The bermuda grass has been watered twice this year. "If we had not received the good rains in May, we would have needed to water three times," Wallace stated. Approximately 800 gallons of water per minute is pumped into the earthen ditches. With about 1/4 of the water being lost in the ditches and other inefficiencies, the remaining 600 gallons applied on four acres for 12 hours would be approximately 16 acre inches of water. This would be an application of water 4 inches deep in each acre. The Joiners are convinced that to get good yields, the bermuda must be watered when it needs water, and the amount of water to supply its needs to the next irrigation must be applied. This is borne out by a small patch that was watered only once. The Joiners expect the yield from this patch to be at least 1/3 less than that which was watered twice.

The bermuda grass has been fertilized each time just prior to irrigation. The rate of application was 50 pounds of nitrogen and 46 pounds of phosphorus per acre each application. The fertilizer was applied with a broadcast type distributor which distributes the fertilizer evenly on top of the grass. The comparison of plants growing on the border ridges where no fertilizer was applied, and the plants in the fertilized area, show clearly that the fertilizer has been beneficial. Samples of the bermuda grass hay will be tested to determine if the right amount of fertilizer was applied to obtain high protein hay.

To date the Joiners are well pleased with their Coastal Bermuda. After explaining their experience with coastal bermuda to Lloyd B. Johnson of the Soil Conservation Service, Wallace stated, "We have still got a lot to learn about bermuda grass. However, it appears that with good management from every standpoint, bermuda grass will do good in Schleicher county."

Exhibits Grand Champion Fleece At Sonora

WILLIAM EDMISTON with the grand champion fleece he exhibited in the Wool and Mohair Show at Sonora in June. —Staff photos

William Edmiston exhibited the grand champion fleece at the 26th annual Wool and Mohair Show, June 11-13 at Sonora. The fleece was a 12-month yearling ewe fleece. William won the yearling ewe class and showed against all yearling and aged classes for champion. He then showed against all classes and breeds for the grand champion fleece. 458 entries of fleeces were exhibited at the show.

All fleeces were judged on length of staple, uniformity of fiber, yield, luster, weight fleece, character, preparation and strength of fiber.

William's fleeces won top honors at the local show, May 29th, placing 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th. He also exhibited the top group of four fleeces for the county.

At the district show held at Menard May 29th, William exhibited champion yearling fleece and placed two other fleeces in this class.

Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar remarked that the practice of using "grassroots" committees of citizens interested in education "has been the lifeblood of this agency." But he discouraged suggestions that volunteer help be used if committeemen are willing to pay their own travel expenses. He said such a practice would go against the Legislature's intent and cause committees to be dominated by the special-interest groups.

Riders in appropriations bills are written at the bottom of budgets for individual state agencies. It is not unusual for such riders to go unnoticed, by the lawmakers, especially when voting on bulky budget bills.

Pool Halls Get New Status

Townpeople who have had trouble in the past trying to set curfews on pool halls, because the pool parlors were illegal, can look to one bright side of a law that will become effective on Aug. 23. City governments then will be able to set curfews because on that date the pool halls will become legal operations in Texas.

Another Junior College?

Board of Education has authorized a Travis County junior college election.

But it turned down an application for a Scurry-Fisher County junior college. Turndown came after a committee said the oil-rich area could afford a college, but could not dig up enough students to meet state board requirements.

In its refusal report the committee, headed by former State Senator Penrose Metcalfe of San Angelo, implied that the board may change its criteria for establishing junior colleges after the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond the High School makes its recommendations in August of 1964.

Currently, the board requires proof that taxpayers in the district can support a public junior college. But it also requires a minimum of 500 students.

Redistricting Suit Set

Talk of a special legislative session perked up as a federal court in Harris county set a September 23 hearing of a Republican-sponsored congressional redistricting lawsuit.

Texas' 58th Legislature tried to set a formula for congressional redistricting. But a token bill died in the final minutes of the session. Some who opposed it said they would rather let the federal courts settle the matter. Others said they would rather meet in a special session than leave it to federal judges.

State Democratic Chairman Eugene Locke of Austin has asked the court to dismiss the G.O.P. Suit.

Veterans Land Brings $$$$

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler said the sale of 82 tracts of forfeited veterans land (totaling 2,223 acres) was "gratifying", since it brought in more than the state's original investment plus taxes paid since forfeiture.

The block of tracts in Zavala, Maverick and Hidalgo counties brought $211,753.84. This included $155,001 for an 886-acre unit in Zavala county which Grady Claude Hogue of Cisco won after some spirited bidding.

Tight Little Island

State Highway Department has discovered an island of Mexico in the heart of El Paso.

Highway department claims that there is a quarter-mile section on U. S. Highway 80 in El Paso where you can drive through Texas and see Old Mexico with one eye and New Mexico with the other eye.

Department says Cordova Island became a Mexican oasis in the Texas city of El Paso under the Guadalupe Hidalgo Treaty of 1848. Treaty provided that artificial changes in the Rio Grande's course would not affect Cordova Island's boundary. Now that the meandering river has changed its course the island is surrounded by American soil.

Migrant School Experiment

Five school districts will be able to take part in a pilot program of six-month school sessions for the children of migrant workers during the 1963-64 school year. That is if the Texas Education Agency can find five districts that can handle the program.

San Benito and Edinburg school districts are ready to participate.

McAllen and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo districts are readying proposals to submit to the State Board of Education.

Pilot program would be an experiment. Hope is to solve the problem of educating children of migrant laborers who are on the move so much that their youngsters miss almost as much school as they attend.

Farm Road Mileage Extended

State Highway Commission has approved construction of more than 1,000 new miles of farm-to-market roads in 172 counties at a cost of some $24 million.

Completion of the 1963 F-M road program would bring the state's F-M system to more than 37,000 miles. That's just 13,000 miles short of the commission's ultimate goal of 50,000 miles. Most of the farm roads have been built since 1949.

State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer linked development of the system to burgeoning city growth in the state. "Farms and cities will always be inter-dependent," he

More Workers Working

Texas Employment Commission reports that 3,567,700 out of the state's estimated 10,317,000 population were employed by someone other than themselves during the month of May.

Number of employed was way up from April's 3,542,200.

So too was the estimated population of the state. Population in April was figured as 10,297,000.

Thirty day gain in population was 20,000 persons. Employment increased by 25,500 persons.

Austin.—County tax assessor-collectors are meeting here to try to untangle the poll tax puzzle.

It seems that the Legislature created a snarl which will hit the county tax assessor-collectors about October 1. That's the date when people begin paying poll taxes and getting exemption certificates.

In a special election on November 9, voters will decide whether or not they want to repeal the poll tax as a prerequisite to voting.

If they repeal it, a new law will go into effect, setting up a 25c registration fee.

To make matters more complicated, the November 9 vote really would not repeal the poll tax. In theory, it still would be due and payable. But not many are expected to pay the tax if the voting privilege is removed from it.

If the tax assessor-collectors solve their problem this fall, by waiting until after November 9 to fill out and mail poll tax receipts, they may face another crisis in the spring. This because 36 states already have passed a proposed amendment to the U. S. Constitution outlawing the poll tax as a requirement for voting for president, vice president, U. S. senators and congressmen.

In January, Arizona and South Dakota legislatures will meet and if they pass the amendment, it could be carried to law. In that event, a provision by the Texas Legislature would set up a system by which voters would apply to their harrassed county tax assessor-collectors for special registration certificates—at no charge—to vote on races involving only federal offices.

Citizens Committees Come To End
A legislative "rider" in the 1964-65 state budget bill prohibits payment of travel expenses to members of the citizens' advisory committee which meets with the State Board of Education.

This has caused the board to bid goodbye to the system which Herbert O. Willborn of Amarillo calls "one of the strengths of this administration."

Corvair 700 Club Coupe

The hardest part about parking a Corvair is finding a nickel

That may be a slight overstatement, but such jauntiness comes easily when you're a Corvair owner.

And you can usually back it up—as easily as you can back up a Corvair. You'll find yourself doing that occasionally, if only to adjust the brakes—they're self-adjusting. That's all there is to it, and that's a good example of how delightfully easy Corvair is to own, drive and maintain.

But since we began by talking about driving, let's stick with that awhile. A large factor in the fun of driving a Corvair is the location of its engine in the rear. Why the rear? It gives Corvair extra traction on any road surface. It provides a nearly flat floor for more useable interior space. Best of all, it produces steering so light, so responsive, you wonder why no other American-made car thought of it.

Corvair's engine is also air cooled, we might add, which means there's no antifreeze or water for you to add. Ever.

All that pleasure from something so practical almost makes you think Corvair is unique among American cars. Which isn't surprising, because it is!
