Something new in our advertising columns is the annual county statement which appears in this issue of the Eldorado Success, on page six. Readers will remember that the statement for the fourth quarter had appeared in the preceding issue.

It has long been a policy to publish the quarterly statement, but this year the Commissioners Court authorized the publication of the annual statement also.

We urge readers to study the report, as it has been compiled by the county treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Parker.

A drop in temperature and a snow measuring from 2 to 5 inches over the county made the news in Schleicher County Tuesday night and Wednesday. Icy roads made driving difficult. As the snow was quite wet, it was doubly welcomed by farmers and ranchers of the county.

Schleicher Still On Drouth Feed Program

County Judge W. R. Bearce has received the following telegram granting Schleicher County a 60-day extension in the drouth emergency feed program:

"Hon W R Bearce County Judge Schleicher County: Governor Shivers has asked me to tell you that the US Dept. of Agriculture has approved his recommendation and that of the USDA state drouth committee that your county be granted a sixty-day extension in the drouth emergency feed program. FHA county committees are authorized to accept applications. We hope this will work out to the benefit of the farmers and stockmen in your area.—William L. McGill, State Coordinator."

Cotton Producers Urged To Use Or Return Acre Allotments

College Station, Texas cotton farmers can plant more acres of cotton in 1956 than was harvested in 1955 if they make full use of the State's allocated acreage.

The Texas Stabilization and Conservation Committee points out that the 1956 cotton acreage allotted to Texas producers is 7,410,893 acres. Final figures released by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on the 1955 cotton crop shows that 6,860,000 acres were harvested in the state.

All farms in the state eligible for a cotton allotment have been assigned an acreage for 1956 plantings. The State committee urges all producers who do not intend to plant their allotted acreage to contact the local ASC office and return to the county committee any cotton acreage not to be planted. It can then be reallocated to producers in the county who have asked for additional acres. A final date has been set in each county for turning in the acres which will not be planted.

If the intentions not to plant are not known and the acreage not reallocated, the county loses the acreage and the farm gets no credit on its historical base. Acreage can be returned on both a temporary and permanent basis. A full explanation, says the state committee, can be obtained from the local county committee or from officials in the county ASC office.

Donna Beth McCormick and her room mate, Beth Shilling of Mission, formerly of Eldorado, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Don McCormick to Eldorado, this being a pre-exam period at the University where the girls are Freshmen. On Saturday they visited in Big Lake and attended the tournament, and on Sunday Mrs. McCormick drove the girls back to Austin, returning to Eldorado Monday. Beth is planning to transfer to the college at Edinburg at mid-term.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Yardley have bought the residence formerly owned by Pete Beaty, near the depot, and plan to move back to Eldorado after a year's residence in Midland.

Now in operation in the county clerk's office is a new Photostat machine, which is used for making copies of documents for recording in the office.

The machine arrived during the Christmas holidays and was recently put into operation. It copies documents at the rate of one page a minute, which has been pointed out as a time and labor saving feature, in addition to doing away with human errors involved in having copies made on a typewriter.

The Photostat was ordered for the office some time ago. An identical machine is being installed in the clerk's office in Ozona.

MESQUITE CONTROL DEMONSTRATION IS PRESENTED

Chemical control of mesquite was demonstrated on the C. R. Keeney farm, highway 33, using 2, 4, 5, T and CMU.

Three methods of applicators were used, a 1% 2, 4, 5, T in diesel oil was demonstrated with the hand sprayer, bazooka and soil injector.

CMU was used in water and applied with the same applicators as 2, 4, 5, T. CMU pellets were also broadcast on a mesquite plot to check the possibilities of CMU used in this method.

Now is the best time for producers to kill mesquite with chemicals, and especially to clean fence rows of cultivated fields.

The hand sprayer with 1/3 cup of 2, 4, 5, T and one gallon of diesel oil will do the trick. Spray the trunk about one foot from the ground, and let the oil and chemical run down to the bud zone.

The cost is a little over half of the cost of using kerosene. Spraying of mesquite with chemicals is used only while the mesquite is in the dormant stage. 2, 4, 5, T is not to be used after crops are planted because of the danger of killing cotton. If the plot is at least two miles away from cotton it is fairly safe to use 2, 4, 5, T and CMU. Producers are advised to check the herbicide laws when crops are growing.

Range Management Popular Program With Texas Ranchmen

College Station. A year end summary made by Range specialists A. H. Walker and G. O. Hoffman of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service shows that despite the continuing drought ranchmen made substantial progress in improving their ranges and facilities during 1955.

The specialists report that general range conditions improved about 10 per cent during the year. Cattle and sheep numbers held fairly steady while the number of goats increased about a quarter million head. Due primarily to their use for brush control.

Range management demonstrations, supervised by county agents, numbered 4,200 and involved more than 4,600,000 acres. Also 11,497 operators in 210 counties were given assistance on range management problems. Some 1,200 meetings and 165 special field days held during the year were attended by 43,750 ranchmen.

The specialists estimate that almost $3 million in additional income to Texas ranchmen resulted from the management changes made by ranch operators as a result of these additional efforts. Ranch operators added 6,684 new watering facilities during year as an aid toward getting better livestock distribution and more uniform utilization of forage on their ranges.

The youth of the state also enrolled in 4-H range demonstrations in increasing numbers. More than 2,200 individuals and 40 teams were given training in range improvement work. A week long camp for outstanding 4-H range demonstrators was conducted and plans are to make it an annual affair.

The specialists and county agents used the newspapers, farm magazines, radio and television outlets along with exhibits and visual aids to tell their stories. Walker and Hoffman together made 207 visits to 117 counties and trained 762 agents during the year. The seventh range school was conducted during the past summer with the maximum of 20 agents attending.

1956 Poultry Outlook Given By Economist

College Station. The over-all demand for eggs and poultry is expected to remain good for 1956 but supplies of red meats which compete with poultry are expected to be high and prices lower, says John McHaney, economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

From the production standpoint, McHaney says 1956 should be another year of record or near-record proportions for eggs, broilers and turkeys. Intentions of turkey breeders, shown by an October USDA survey, indicated that about 13% more breeder hens would be kept nationally while Texas breeders indicated they would keep about 30% more hens than last year.

Generally, says McHaney, the price situation during the past year has been favorable. Net income from farming, however, has continued to decline and farmers are looking for enterprises to bolster their returns. Poultry makes a natural choice for 1956, because of favorable recent experiences and lower feed prices.

Feed supplies are very large and presently both feed grain and vegetable proteins are costing less than a year ago. Chances are good, says McHaney, that poultry rations will average a little lower in 1956. Other production costs are not expected to change very much.

Prices for eggs through most of 1956 are likely to average slightly lower than in 1955. Broiler prices, because of more production and competition from other meats, are also expected to average a little lower for the year.

The inefficient poultry producer may find the going rough in 1956 for competition within the industry is keen. The secret of success is to produce a quality product in quantity and at a low unit cost. Management thus becomes even more important, says the economist.

Thought For The Week Ministerial Alliance

"Prayer"

Someone has said that prayer is "A golden river at whose side some die of thirst while others kneel and drink." If the reader is in the habit of prayer he will say to himself, perhaps, "How true is this saying?" If the reader does not pray much he is not likely to read this but if so he will do well to pray regularly. PRAY where you are. God is present and he hears. PRAY simply and naturally as to the friend that he is. PRAY remembering all the blessings God has given you. PRAY for a more Christ-like life. PRAY for forgiveness for the many things that you have done which are unworthy of a Christian. PRAY for others that they may find the help they need. PRAY—above everything else that God's will may be done in you. When you do this regularly you are going to find your place in the denomination of your choice in the Church of the Loving God. What a deep joy will be yours when you do. —James L. Spencer.

The other two legs should be mirror images of the leg shown; i.e., the 1 1/2-inch cut should be in the right front face and the 3/8-inch cut in the left front face. If the legs are properly notched, the 2 1/4-inch braces will fit flush at each end and the 5/2-inch braces will project 1/2 inch from the faces of the legs at front and rear. Bore 3/8-inch holes for the carriage bolts through the braces and legs with a No. 7 auger bit. Space holes as shown to avoid conflict between holes at right angles. Assemble frame with carriage bolts. Center top boards on frame and fasten with two 20-penny common nails into the frame at each end of each board. The bench can be varnished or left natural. Shelves or a storage cabinet can be added beneath if desired.

Officers Installed by Presbyterian Men At Regular Meeting

There were 18 in attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Club Monday night in the church dining room. Joe Edens, chef for the evening, was assisted in serving the dinner by Marvin McAngus.

A highlight of the evening's program was installation of the following new officers: Walter Warren, president; Wilson Page, vice president; Roy Collins, sec. treas.; councilmen at large, A. G. McCormack and Pete Ringle.

The visiting minister, Rev. Felix Keys, pastor of Ballinger Presbyterian Church, formally presented to the club their charter, officially giving recognition to the group as an organized Presbyterian Men's Club.

Rev. Keys gave an address on the proposed state financial drive for $5,525,000, mainly for educational institutions of the church, and the church extension program. He gave an over-all picture of the plans for the educational institutions, and mentioned the plan to combine the two Latin American schools at Kingsville into a co-educational college, in which all students work their way.

Wilson Page and S. E. Jones were appointed on an invitation committee to arrange a supper, which will be served to the men's church clubs of the town and any other men who would like to attend. The event is set for March 19, at which time Dr. Andrew Edington, president of Schreiner, will speak.

PARIS BURNHAM CAMERON MANAGER

PARIS BURNHAM

Home Improvement To Be Observed Throughout Year 1956

Paris Burnham, manager of Wm. Cameron & Co. has announced that his company will participate in Operation Home Improvement, the gigantic national program to make 1956 "Home Improvement Year."

As its part in the unprecedented program, the Cameron Company will step up its efforts to be of service to homeowners here with the desire to make better homes of the houses they live in.

The program was initiated by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to encourage home improvement throughout the year—and to make it easier for homeowners to obtain the materials and services that go into home improvement. Hundreds of leading manufacturers and trade associations, as well as many thousands of local businessmen in every part of the country, have joined in the effort.

The Hon. Albert M. Cole, top housing chief in the Federal Government, pointed out—in proclaiming Home Improvement Year on January 16—that home improvement is a "sound investment in America's future." He went on to explain that home improvement bolsters the economic and social well-being of the community and the nation, in addition to providing comfort, pleasure and beauty for the family.

Mrs. Olson Honored At Going-Away Coffee Last Thursday

Mrs. Eldon Calk and Mrs. Sam Ezell entertained 30 callers at a coffee at the Calk home Thursday morning, honoring Mrs. Phil Olson, who was leaving soon with her family to make her home in New Orleans. The calling hours at this going-away coffee were 9:30 to 10:30. Mrs. P. S. Dudley, mother of the honoree, and Mrs. Edward Meador, her sister, were also in the house party.

Mrs. Olson was presented with a corsage of pink carnations, and the hostesses wore smaller corsages of white cut flowers. The table, which was laid with a white crocheted cloth, was centered with a pot plant of azaleas, decorated with a streamer with the message "Good Luck" in gold letters. The pot plant was later presented to the honoree as a going away gift.

Doughnuts, coffee and party knick-knacks were served to the visitors.

MRS. OCHSNER RESIGNS

Mrs. L. D. Ochsner last month resigned from her position in the local bank, but remained on the job until Mrs. A. G. McCormack could return to her old place. The Ochsners have as a guest their son George, who has been employed with Rotary Engineers, near Sacramento, California, where flood conditions practically closed down the project. This week he has been at Killeen, visiting his brother John and his wife, and upon his return home will enroll again at Texas Tech. Another guest in the home was Mr. Ochsner's mother, Mrs. George Ochsner who has gone to Crosbyton to visit another son, L. C., who is L. D.'s twin brother, and who is progressing nicely after his heart attack over a month ago; she expects to visit a daughter in Arkadelphia, Ark., before returning to her home at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Tea Party Honors Helen (Bunny) Lester On Third Birthday

Honoring her daughter, Helen (Bunny) Mrs. Bill Lester entertained nine visiting girls with a tea party at her home.

The children spent some time coloring in books which the hostess had given them, then they played with their dolls.

At the tea party which followed, the hostess served a sandwich plate, followed with ice cream and individual cup cakes iced in blue and topped with a lighted blue candle. Favors were bracelets.

The tea hours were from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Bunny was three years old.

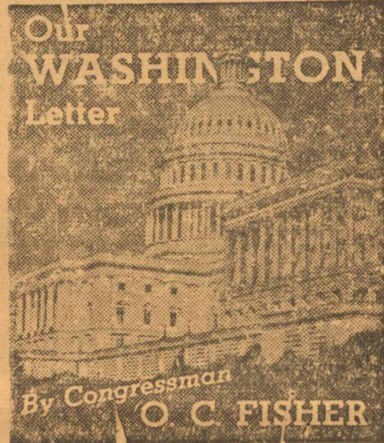

Visitors were Claudia Meador, Marla Warren, Janie Shugart, Jeanette Mowrey, Lesa McAngus, Peggy Hill, Jean Newport, Vicki Preston and Dale Montgomery.

TUESDAY BRIDGE MEETS

Mrs. Bob Sykes was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge Club with a luncheon and afternoon of bridge at her ranch home in the Toenail Community. Included with the three tables of players were three guests, Mrs. Jim Martin, Mrs. Sam Ezell and Mrs. Jack Mowrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Stokes have moved here from Henderson, and have taken up temporary residence in Keno's Motel until the weather moderates and they can move to the W. M. Patterson house, which they have rented. Mr. Stokes is with Pan Am. The couple have one young child.

Budget, taxes, farm plans, highways, schools, immigration, the gas bill, are among topics high on the agenda for the 2nd session of the 84th Congress, now getting under way.

The President's state-of-the-union message touched on all of them. For the third time since 1930 the budget is due to be balanced by July 1; every other year has seen the outgo exceed the intake. If the Congress is willing to cut nonessential spending, despite the pressures the budget can be balanced, moderate tax relief can be voted, and a billion dollars or so can be applied to the $280 billion public debt.

Last year a political move was made to give taxpayer, and each dependent, credit for $20 on income tax. The cost would have been 2½ billion per year. Had that attempt prevailed, there would be little chance for a balanced budget this year, no chance for further honest tax reduction, and certainly no possibility of paying anything on the debt. Fortunately for our country, that move did not prevail.

Incidentally, there is some encouragement in the fact that the leaders who favored the phony tax cut last year are now urging caution in the application of similar reductions this year—thus admitting the fallacy of the prior position.

Actually tax reduction is a delusion if in order to have it the resulting loss in revenue has to be made up in borrowed money and a corresponding increase in the public debt. Under these conditions, tax reduction is really tax postponement—just passing the added burden on to our children and grandchildren to pay.

So there is some encouragement in the appearance of a more responsible attitude toward our fiscal problems. Tax relief is badly needed and it can be had on a sound basis if Congress will trim the fat out of foreign aid and other appropriations and practice some common sense economy this year.

The Senate will tackle the House-passed natural gas bill soon, and the House will take up the Federal aid bill for school construction. Already Adam Powell of Harlem has claimed he has the votes to add an amendment which would withhold any funds to a school where segregation is practiced. If such an amendment is adopted the bill will, of course, be killed, either in the House or the Senate.

calves on the ground are like MONEY IN THE BANK

It costs a lot of money to keep a cow. A lot of that money is lost if she fails to settle or drops small, weak calves that die or develop into "tail-enders."

BIG CROPS of husky calves are a must, if a fellow is going to make money ranching. This is especially true when the price of cattle is off.

Your range needs help. It takes more than grass alone to give your cows what they need to grow and drop the kind of calves that will bring top prices next fall.

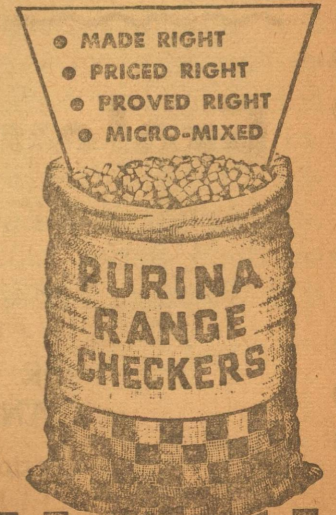

PURINA RANGE CHECKERS have proved their worth in research tests and on thousands of ranches. This favorite range supplement has what it takes. Cattle love Checkers, do well on them. Cows stay up in good shape at calving time, have lots of milk for the calves, too.

Feed for big calf crops the Purina Way. Purina Range Checkers can help you keep your operation on the profit side of the ledger.

Austin. Insurance firms of all types are feeling the effect of the public's reaction over the failure of U. S. Trust & Guaranty Co. There appears to be a public wariness of insurance salesmen at the moment.

Steps are being taken to re-sell the public on the insurance business. One such move was an offer on the part of 28 legal reserve companies to "take over" the life insurance policies of defunct concerns. Thus they would protect policy holders from loss of their life insurance.

To date no policy holder in any legal reserve life insurance company in Texas has suffered any loss. Nevertheless the companies are feeling the pinch of the adverse publicity.

J. Ralph Wood, president of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co., was one of the 28 executives who presented the "guarantee" proposal to the insurance commission. "We want to protect the good name of Texas insurance companies," Wood stated, "and also protect the innocent life insurance policy holders."

J. Byron Saunders, chairman of the insurance commission, said, "I am happy to learn of the project. It is a most laudable step. It will help relieve much public anxiety and concern."

In other developments, the insurance commission moved to force a change in management of the John K. Wilson Mutual Aid Association of Princeton; while the state obtained court orders to shut down the American Atlas Corporation and J. A. Irwin, Inc., of Dallas.

Meanwhile investigations continue by the Texas State Senate's investigating committee concerning all details of the collapse of the U. S. Trust & Guaranty Co., whose president A. B. Shoemaker, shot himself when the firm went under recently.

Sen. William S. Fly of Victoria is the new chairman of the investigating group. Fly was named to the post by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey after Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston resigned when the committee voted to go into a closed session—"to avoid improperly divulging facts for the benefit of offenders."

In the opinion of the new chairman, there is a place for both open and closed meetings. "But executive sessions should be held only under unusual and extraordinary conditions," Fly stated.

Checks unearthed in U. S. Trust files by State Auditor C. H. Cavness reveal the names of six legislators or ex-lawmakers who have received pay from the now-closed firm. But Cavness has not been able to learn who received $50,550 in cash withdrawals, most of which were made during the time the 1955 Legislature was in session.

Another Cavness revelation was payment of $115,499 to Kamin Advertising Agency. Cavness said it was a Houston firm which handled the Drew Pearson television program in which the news commentator told his listeners, "You can put your trust in U. S. Trust." Of the $115,499, a total of $95,992 was paid in 1955.

Giles Goes To Huntsville When the prison doors opened Monday morning in Huntsville, Bascom Giles was there awaiting the start of his term in the penitentiary. He left Austin alone, by car, sometime after midnight Sunday and drove to Huntsville, to turn himself in. The unexpected move on the part of the former State Land Commissioner was made to avoid any further publicity.

Clint Small, attorney for Giles, released the following statement which had been prepared by Giles just before his departure for Huntsville:

"I have to the best of my ability made amends to the state in a material way. I want to state that so far as I am aware, no other state official or employee was involved in any of the transactions for which I was convicted." He added, "I wish to thank from the bottom of my heart those friends who have been kind and sympathetic with my family and me during the past troubled year. I deeply regret the embarrassment and heartaches caused my friends and coworkers."

Water Problems Studied To conserve water, Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson recommends the proration of water much the same as oil is now prorated. He made his recommendation at a meeting of the Texas Water Resources Committee. At the same session members of the Brazos River Authority said that in some years as much as 600,000 tons of salt and other chlorides are washed into Possum Kingdom Reservoir. Suggested was a dam to block off a salt flat in Northwest Texas and permanently impound the flow of brine springs and the run-off from the area. This would prevent intrusion of 200,000 tons of salt a year into the Brazos reservoirs and stream flow. BRA's aim is a six-dam program costing $17,000,000.

Yarborough Honored Austin Atorrey Ralph W. Yarborough, 1954 candidate for governor, has been named to membership on the national legal committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was recommended for the appointment by Ted C. Connell of Killeen, Texas VFW Department Commander.

Military Discharges More Texans were discharged from military service in 1955 than were drafted or volunteered. A total of 46,545 entered service while 54,499 were discharged. Draftees totaled 7,954, as compared with 38,591 volunteers. Nearly four out of every ten men examined were turned down.

DODGE ANNOUNCES HIGH PERFORMANCE SPORTS MODELS

New, high performance Dodge "D-500" sports models were announced today by Parker Motor Co., Dodge dealer here. The new "D-500" models feature a 260-h.p. engine, 12-inch brakes, and a lowered chassis with a sport type suspension. These models are in current production and several hundred have been built.

The "D-500" models are regularly available in three body types—The Coronet two-door sedan, Custom Royal two-door Lancer and Custom Royal convertible. However on special order other body styles may be obtained.

The engine is of the double rocker arm, hemispheric combustion type, and boasts a compression ratio of 9.25 to 1. The air cleaner is of the low restriction type, and the four barrel carburetor has been modified with larger venturi. The intake manifold has an enlarged throttle bore. The engine displacement is 315 cubic inches.

A choice of two camshafts is available. One with 252-degree intake, 252-degree exhaust and 30-degree overlap provides maximum torque throughout the speed range, with little or no loss at high speeds. This, the engineers are quick to point out, is accomplished by employing more rapid opening of the valves. A second camshaft with 280-degree intake, 270-degree exhaust and 60-degree overlap, is available for maximum high speed operation.

tures a double breaker distributor, with ballast coil, and short reach, special heat range spark plugs.

The entire chassis has been lowered one and one-half inches to provide a lower center of gravity. Heavy duty rate springs and shock absorbers are employed, as well as 12" heavy duty brakes. The suspension system has been modified to provide greater rigidity when cornering—as is essential for a maximum performance vehicle of this type.

A complete range of axle ratios will be available for use on these models.

Health Letter

Austin. Mental disorders today represent a real problem, and it is estimated that more than 50% of all hospital beds are filled by persons suffering from mental or nervous diseases, declares Dr. Henry A. Holle, commissioner of health.

It thus appears that modern civilization is exacting a terrific toll. High speed living, with its cruel demands upon nature, is responsible for a large part of the trouble. The fact is that significant percentage of the patients entering hospitals for mental disorders are there because of organic or toxic causes.

For example, general paresis is the cause of one-fiftieth of the mental troubles in males now entering mental hospitals. This condition is an organic disease of the brain due to the germ responsible for syphilis. It is a preventable disease. Early and effective treatment of acquired syphilis will block the end results of general paralysis in the insane.

The excessive use of alcohol is responsible for a number of mental disorders, at least in males. Alcohol and syphilis combined are responsible for approximately one-fifth of all hospitalized insanities. Nevertheless, improper living habits continue to impair mental health in many people. Insufficient sleep, neglect of bodily care and an over forcing of nervous energy are the pitfalls to avoid in this connection.

Nature demands that her fundamental laws be at least reasonably observed. A constant outraging of the physiological economy takes its toll not only in bodies but in minds also. Mental illness and lesser nervous disorders could be spectacularly reduced if this fact were more generally respected. Training for mental health must be started in childhood as that is the time when prevention of emotional disturbance and promotion of sound emotional health can be accomplished most easily.

Hybrid Lambs Offer Prospect Of More Meat, Wool Production

College Station. Hybrid lambs promise ranchmen increased efficiency in the production of meat and wool. Representing two and three-way crosses of different high-quality purebreds, Beltsville hybrids have far outclassed their parent stock in production and in reduced mortality.

The hybrids are crosses of purebred Hampshires, shropshires, Merinos and Southdowns. Commercial growers, however, can produce vigorous hybrid lambs by crossing their own grade flocks with high-quality purebreds of another breed.

Results of tests, showing improvement in production and lower mortality rates, cover two-way crossbreds observed over a seven-year period and three-way crosses tested for four years. Comparison was based upon the mortality rate of the lambs, and the "production index" of each ewe. This index indicates the ewe's producing ability in terms of weaned weight of lambs and weight of yearling fleeces.

The average production index of three-way-cross lambings was 74.4 compared with 62.0 for the purebred flocks used in this cross. Crossbreds showed an average increase of 20.6 percent in the total production as compared with the purebreds. The three-way-cross lambs showed 38 per cent lower mortality than the purebred lambs in these tests.

During seven years of testing the two-way-cross lambs, the ewes showed an average production index of 67.8 when bred to rams of other breeds. This is compared to an index of 58.1 for similar purebred ewes bred to rams of their own breeds. The hybrids showed an increase of 16.7 per cent in the total production as compared with the purebreds. Lamb mortality was 31.4 percent lower in the hybrids of this group.

Start Tax Records Now For Use Next Year

There is no time like the present, while last year's tax problems are fresh on your mind, to start a procedure that will aid you with next year's income tax calculations. That is to maintain a record of your income and outgo. Such a record can be simple and brief but it may save you tax dollars.

The average man who works for a wage or salary doesn't have to concern himself about keeping books and records—at least so he thinks. His employer keeps a reliable record of his earnings and Uncle Sam looks primarily to the employer for information on his earnings and for the withholding of various taxes out of his wages.

But whether or not you run a business of your own, you have a partner who each year is claiming a substantial interest in your personal income. And the law requires that you keep books for him in case he ever asks for an accounting.

Perhaps you own your home or are paying it out in installments. It's likely that some day you may sell that house. When you do you will want to be able to prove whether you realized a gain or a loss on that sale. If a gain in capital resulted, it probably will add to your income tax. If a loss was suffered, it probably will reduce your income tax.

You may have made certain capital improvements on the house while you lived in it, but unless you can show what out-of-pocket expense you incurred while making them, you may not get credit for them in your cost basis so as to prove that you had no capital gain or that you had a loss.

Or perhaps you received that little summer cottage on the lake as a gift from your father. If you ever sell it, you should be able to show Uncle Sam not only the cost of improvements you made on it while you owned it, but also what its fair market value was at the time Dad gave it to you.

It may be that you are receiving an annuity on an insurance policy. If so, do you know how much that policy costs you and how much of that cost you have recovered tax-free to date?

There are many kinds of transactions you enter into that may some day affect the computation of your personal income tax. The best proof of the cost of anything you've purchased is a receipted bill or canceled check. If one of these pieces of evidence relates to any transaction that may affect your income in later years, it's a good idea to keep it. Your "partner" may some day ask to see it.
