COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

With the passage of the farm bill, the "Agricultural Act of 1956" farmers will be asking many questions that cannot be answered at this time. A vast amount of details of administering the law will be issued as rules and regulations by the Department of Agriculture through the Commodity Stabilization Service, state and county ASC committees, and other departmental offices.

The act contains five sections, each treating a major subject; namely: (1) Soil bank, which is a new approach to the farm problem, is a supplement to the acreage allotments and marketing quotas of existing laws and is two distinct programs—the acreage reserve and the conservation reserve program. Payments for the nation will be 750 million for the acreage reserve and 450 million for the conservation reserve.

The purpose of the soil bank is to:

1. Protect and increase farm income.
2. To protect soil, water and forest and wildlife resources from waste and depletion.
3. To protect interstate and foreign commerce from the burden of excessive supplies of agricultural commodities.
4. To provide for the conservation of resources and an adequate balanced and orderly flow of agricultural commodities in national and foreign commerce.

National commodity rates have been announced to be used in computing payments for land placed in reserve for 1956, as follows:

Corn ----- .90 per bu
Cotton ----- .15 per Lb
Wheat ----- 1.20 per bu.
Rice ----- 2.25 per cwt

Assuming an average cotton yield of 200 lbs., the per-acre payment will be $30.00.

It is not yet known whether the acreage yield factor will be based on individual farm yields or county wide acreage.

What land can be placed in the acreage now? Apparently any land which has an allotment not planted; or, any land planted but which will be plowed under, mowed, or cut to prevent maturing by a date that will be set by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The County ASC committees will handle the program.

Please do not place an undue burden on the ASC office manager, or committee about the soil bank program before procedures are perfected.

Bluestone may be successfully used to clear water troughs, ponds or reservoirs of green scum. Leaflet No. 5 for correct dosages is on file at the county agent's office.

Drillers have moved away from the Nick Jurecek well—it's a small one—have been cleaning out a Leonard Lloyd well to acidize in the hope of making a producer out of it. . . have been reaming the Ed DeLong well on which there is not as yet any report.

Irrigation farmers have been fighting weeds which are about under control, are thinking of poisoning, and with crops that look good, are so far rather inclined to be optimistic.

Workers and equipment from Hayden Sales of Junction are expected to arrive any day to start work on excavating for the new swimming pool in west Eldorado. The firm was awarded the contract following voters' approval earlier this spring of a $35,000 bond issue. City employees are working over the sewer line which will be used.

In a notice, appearing on page 6 in this newspaper, the City of Eldorado is calling a bond election for Tuesday, June 26th for the purpose of voting on $87,000 worth of refunding bonds and $175,000 worth of new bonds.

It is explained that these are strictly revenue bonds, to be paid for from revenue from the gas, water and sewer systems of the city. The bond issue will in no way affect taxes.

There will be on display, probably somewhere in the business district, a master map, showing all improvements scheduled. An Austin firm has been working with the city council in making of a survey and designing of the plan, and the group have been consulting with the State Fire Insurance Co.

The master plan includes sewer laterals in various populated parts of town—among these are an extension southeast of the City Hall, an extension in the West Addition, an extension in the Keeney addition, and others.

A principal improvement would be the stabilizing of the water pressure in the present lines through a series of loops, and addition of a 30,000 gallon storage tank. This would lower the fire insurance rate. It would also enable the city to set up a system whereby there would be continuous chlorination.

Among water loops proposed are an area extending two blocks west of the school; an area from Kenneth Cheek's corner, an extension to corner of Derrick-Page Addition and looping back to a corner at Mrs. J. B. Christian's; an extension from the new well northeast a half block, then turning northwest to a point near No. 2 well and tying back into the system; an extension from same point, running northeast to northwest corner of block 32, then along Dorris Avenue to the alley back of J. D. Ramsey's and tying in with the present system; an extension from the northwest corner of A. J. Atkins' house, going along Calendar Avenue southeast to Sofge's station and courts.

It is expected that the amount voted for water improvements would leave some surplus for future expansion.

The map which will be on display will mark all improvements plainly, so that the voters may know what extensions are to be made.

Thought For The Week

Ministerial Alliance

By PERRY COX

In many of our churches this week, a Vacation Bible School is being held for children ages 3 to 16. Each year these schools require much hard work, prayer, and personal dedication on the part of each worker. Some may question the feasibility of so much time and effort being spent on so few number of children, for such a short time during the summer months. Our first reaction to such a program may be that so much effort is just a waste of time, energy, and expense.

To some who may have this philosophy, let me use my own personal experience. As a boy one of my fondest recollections of summer activity was the annual Vacation Bible School. Even till now I can remember things that happened years ago in Bible School in my home town. Those who put in so much labor for me years ago will never know the lasting impressions which they helped to instill in my mind. I shall always be grateful for their efforts, and I owe much of my Christian experiences to them.

Vacation Bible school puts into practice the words of Jesus, "Suffer the little Children to come unto me." Certainly it has as its goal to "Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old he will not depart from it." (Proverbs 22:6)

Supervisors of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation district met Friday, June 1, in their regular monthly meeting.

After taking care of routine business in the office the supervisors and Bill Rountree, work unit conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service, assisting the district, took off for Mertzton to look at a trial plot of neat plowing, and reseeding work on mesquite.

Harvey H. Nessmith, Jr., work unit conservationist at Mertzton, met us at the plot and gave the group an explanation as to the work that had been done.

We found that the native grasses were still alive and doing pretty well in spite of the fact that not much rain had been received. Tabosa grass seemed to be suffering from the root plowing more than any of the grasses. The group saw quite a few young seedlings of Blue Panicum which had been planted during the root plowing work.

Supervisors plan to take a trip to the Sonora Experiment Station on their July monthly meeting. They plan to study and observe the rotation and deferred grazing set-up that Leo Merrill is carrying out at the station.

Ford Oglesby said the other day that his stock were doing mighty well as he was giving them plenty of room. Said he hadn't received much rain thus far this year. Ford said he hadn't fed his lambs at all last winter and they sheared a little better than nine pounds of wool each. He said it was surprising what they could do if you gave stock a little room.

Hot Weather A Threat To Quality Of Eggs

College Station—When daytime temperatures hit 90 degrees, egg quality will hit the skids unless egg producers make some changes in management practices, says Kermit Schlamb, extension poultry marketing specialist.

From now until cool weather in the fall, refrigeration is a must if high egg quality is to be maintained. Schlamb says that 55 degrees F. is the optimum temperature for maintaining proper egg environment. Too, eggs must be gathered more often during hot weather with three times a day gathering as a minimum.

Low quality is costly to producers selling on grade. "A" quality eggs of similar size normally bring four to six cents a dozen more than B quality eggs. Eggs can be properly cooled for as little as 10 cents a case.

Adequate cooling, points out the specialist, is no substitute for frequent marketings. Even with good refrigeration, eggs should be delivered to the grading station either twice or three times a week.

Good cooling, says Schlamb, means getting the animal heat out of the egg in the shortest time possible and at the lowest cost. A cooling unit containing a tray for holding wire baskets with space underneath for storing eggs in cases is the most desirable cooling equipment. Added egg income from the use of such a unit will soon retire its cost.

Important bills to watch are those dealing with the Supreme Court's novel "Pre-emption Doctrine." The Court now holds that if the Congress enacts a law on a subject also dealt with in State laws, the latter are nullified. Under that theory, state sedition laws, labor relations laws, etc., are automatically quashed by laws on such topics enacted by Congress, even though the federal laws do not so state such to be the intention of Congress.

Pending bills simply provide that if Congress intends to nullify state laws it should say so and not have its intent presumed by the Courts; preserving, however, the supreme authority of Federal Courts, in case of conflict between State and Federal laws.

Hearings on these bills have been held in both House and Senate, but committees are dragging their feet on reporting them for floor action. Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) and other left-wing groups bitterly oppose this proposal, as indeed they do all efforts to restrict the encroachment of the Federal government upon states' rights.

A major remodeling job on the front of the U. S. Capitol has just been authorized. Long a subject of lively controversy, it now looks like the east front of the Capitol will be extended about 36 feet into the Capitol Plaza. Actually, in 1863 when the last major work was done on the building, the architect drew plans to correct what he called "an architectural error," and also to provide more space inside. The Civil War held up the job. In 1904 one bunch of architects called for a 36-foot extension, another for 12 feet.

Nothing came of that, and the controversy simmered until the mid-30's, when the House failed to go along with the Senate on a proposed expansion. The same thing occurred in 1949. But this year agreement has been reached and it looks like the 90-year tussle is about to be settled.

Pricklypear Studied At Barnhart Station

College Station.—Pricklypear density has increased on all pastures of the Barnhart Range Station during the 18 years that studies dealing with grazing and pricklypear spread have been under way. A sixfold increase has occurred in some pastures, says Gerald W. Thomas and Robert A. Darrow of the department of Range and Forestry of the Texas A&M College system.

The research workers found response of pricklypear to grazing variable. On areas in poor condition in 1938, plants increased rapidly even under very light stocking rates. Soil characteristics appear to influence pricklypear numbers more than does grazing treatment. Dry lakebed areas on the station support higher densities of the plants than do the tabosa flats or the better-drained, ridge top soils.

During the 18-year period, the 16 pastures of the 3,160 range station, were grazed at different rates of stocking, at various seasons of the year and with different combinations of sheep and cattle. Pear increased under all rates of stocking as well as within livestock enclosures. Grazed pastures generally had more pear than did protected areas.

Because pricklypear replaces more desirable types of vegetation on the range, the research workers say that many ranchmen are concerned about its spread. Pear serves as an emergency feed during drouth, but the plants are widely distributed by the grazing animals.

Thomas and Darrow conducted during 1954-55 tests to compare the cost and effectiveness of grubbing versus chemicals for control. They found grubbing to be cheaper and survival of plants 7 months after treatment about the same for both methods. Chemical treatment, from the standpoint of grass recovery, is superior because the plants are killed in place with little soil disturbance and the dying plant protects the small grass seedlings, they say.

Details of the studies are given in Progress Report 1873 which is available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Publications Emphasize The Importance Of Water To High Plains

College Station.—Two recently released Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publications deal with research studies on subjects vital to farmers and ranchmen on the High and Rolling Plains of Texas.

Bulletin 828, titled, "Changes in Investment and Irrigation Water Costs, Texas High Plains, 1950-54" contains a wealth of information on what is happening in this great agricultural producing area. The authors, W. F. Hughes, Agri. Research Service USDA and A. C. Magee, Department of Agri. Eco. and Sociology, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, say expanded development and water use has caused a decline in regional water levels, caused pumps to be lowered and well performance to drop and thus overall materially increasing the investment and cost of irrigation water. Information on how these and other problems are being met are discussed.

The second publication is MP-154, "Farming and Ranching Risk as Influenced by Rainfall." The authors, R. J. Hildreth and Gerald W. Thomas are members of the staffs of the Departments of Agricultural Economics and Sociology and Range and Forestry of the Texas A&M College system.

They have made a detailed study of weather records from 31 locations scattered over the High and Rolling Plains. Some of the records go back for 89 years while others are for much shorter periods. The authors believe that farmers and ranchmen can take several steps which will aid in meeting weather risks.

By studying the occurrence and range of past weather variations, they can predict better the probability of future drouths and their severity, as well as the possibility of good years, and can adjust some farm and ranch operations to fit these constantly changing conditions, say the authors.

Both publications are available from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Guests for a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Jones Jr., were Mrs. Bob Kokernut and children of Johannesburg, Africa. The Kokernut family, who have been visiting in Sonora, start back to Johannesburg this week end for another two years.

A. F. TRAINING CHANGES

M-Sgt. Paul W. Vorhes, Air Force recruiter of San Angelo, announced this week a change in recent Air Force policy reducing the basic policy phase at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, to four weeks instead of the previous twelve. This is to enable enlistees to enter technical training schools sooner and get on the job as rapidly as possible.

Many young men, and particularly high school graduates, of the West Texas area, are taking advantage of the fine technical training offered by the Air Force while discharging their required military obligation, Sgt. Vorhes pointed out.

Rambouillet Sale Is Set For Next Week

The 20th Annual San Angelo Registered Rambouillet Ram Sale will be held June 14 through 16 at the San Angelo Fairgrounds. Twenty-two registered breeders have consigned 278 head of top-quality rams to this sale sponsored by the American Rambouillet Sheep Breeders association.

All rams are to be in the barns by Thursday, June 14th, at 8:00 a.m.

The sale proper starts Saturday morning, June 16, at 10:00 a.m. with Lem Jones as auctioneer.

The sale is managed by a committee of leading Texas breeders whose chairman this year is Clyde Thate of Burgett. Committee members include John Williams of Eldorado. Consignors of stock include Mrs. Mary Davis Coupe of Eldorado with six head.

Entomologists Declare War On House Fly

College Station.—As warm weather begins in earnest, an all-out effort should be made to control the population of house flies in dairy barns. Texas A&M entomologists have been conducting a series of experiments for the purpose of finding more effective controls of the flies.

Experimentation with various insecticides began in 1953, states Manning A. Price, assistant professor, department of entomology, Texas A&M college. Several different insecticides were used with different methods of application in determining most effective control. Treated strings suspended from ceilings, syrup baits and residual sprays were all considered.

Results indicated residual sprays to be most satisfactory, while diazinon, malathion and chlordion were the most effective materials used. To determine the most effective of these insecticides and most satisfactory concentration, experiments were conducted near College Station in 1955. Results were based on average number of days protection given by each application at various concentrations of each insecticide.

The insecticides were used as wettable powders and emulsions at various concentrations, says Price.

Malathion emulsifiable concentrate diluted to two and 1/2 and five per cent gave protection for 47 and 87 days, respectively. Diazinon as a 1/2 of one and one per cent wettable powder gave protection for 87 and 73 days, respectively. As an emulsifiable concentrate diluted to 1/2 of one and one per cent diazinon gave 74 and 48 days protection, respectively.

Diazinon was used at one per cent concentration only in barns where sanitation was extremely poor and where there were numerous fly breeding areas.

Chlordion emulsifiable concentrate at 1/2 of one per cent averaged 20 days protection.

The considerable variation in number of days of control in individual barns resulted from differences in extent of sanitation and presence of adjacent areas for suitable fly breeding. Price states. In barns of poor sanitation, adjacent to suitable fly breeding areas, effectiveness of the control was understandably lower than in barns of good sanitary conditions.

Cleanliness of dairy barns, good sanitation practices in fly breeding areas, and effective control measures will greatly decrease this year's fly population.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell and two children of San Angelo, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lloyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Lum Burk have as guests this week Mrs. Burk's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wheeler of Strawn and her sister Mrs. Irene Inman of Abilene. This is the Wheeler's first visit here since 1928. They were visiting here the night the Roy Andrews business block burned!

Deep Tillage, Pasture Burning No Aid To Moisture Penetration

College Station.—Moisture infiltration into the soil, an important factor in crop and pasture production in limited rainfall areas of the Great Plains, evidently is unaffected by deep tillage and adversely affected by burning over native grasses, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Jack Barton, extension soil and water conservation specialist, says the results of tests conducted in Kansas in 1952 disagree with a widely held theory that deep tillage with chisels and subsurface sweeps improves soil-moisture storage. Neither the amount of moisture infiltrated nor the yields of wheat produced was improved by deep tillage in these tests. Soil types studied included a fine sandy loam with a distinct plow pan, a silty clay loam with a tight subsoil, a clay loam and a very fine sandy loam with a clay pan.

Barton says the research workers also found that when native bluestem pastures were burned over, the soil quickly lost its ability to absorb or take in large amounts of water. Under conditions of simulated rain, unburned bluestem pastures absorbed water at a steady rate for nearly 80 minutes. Water absorption by burned-over soil dropped before the end of 20 minutes.

Very dry unburned pasture sod absorbed 4.6 inches of moisture in the first 10 minutes and 4.4 inches for each succeeding 10-minute period until after the end of 70 minutes. Similar but burned-over sod absorbed 4.7 inches of moisture in the first 10 minutes, 3.4 inches the second 10 minutes and only 3 inches in the third 10 minute period.

While pasture burning is not a common practice in most sections of Texas, Barton points out that the Kansas tests should further strengthen the case against pasture burning and the need for protecting pastures against fires of all kinds.

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Menees the last few days included Mr. Menees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Menees of Wasco, California; Mrs. Menees' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Newton of Brownwood; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith of Fort Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Menees of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McMillan of San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Libburn Hazelwood and three children of Temple spent the weekend here visiting relatives and attending the wedding of Mrs. Hazelwood's mother.

J. D. Meador and children and his mother, Mrs. T. Meador, of Corpus Christi, who is staying here with the family, have returned from a visit in Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. Dahse and two daughters of Orange Grove, are here to visit Mrs. Dahse's parents Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Powell.

Mrs. Roy Rowntree of Figure Three Ranch, spent a few days last week with two sisters in Brownwood.

Fort Worth.—The second largest run of sheep of the year arrived at Fort Worth Monday when more than 16,500 head arrived. Trade was fairly active and prices were generally steady on all kinds, quality considered. A large portion of the receipts were spring lambs and a big percentage of that class were in just fairly fat condition. Slaughter spring lambs topped at $23, and shorn old crop slaughter lambs topped at $22.

Hogs were steady to 50 cents higher and choice meat type hogs topped at $16.50 to $17. Sows were strong to 50 cents higher at $10 to $13.50. Less desirable weights and grade sof butcher hogs scored $13 to $16, and pigs sold around $11 to $13. Stags sold around $5 to $7.

Fed steers and yearlings were mostly steady, some spots stronger to the shipper and independent packer trade. Cows and bulls were strong, spots 25 cents higher. Slaughter calves were fully steady to strong, and stocker and feeder cattle and calves were strong to 50 cents higher. Stocker trade was again active from the start.

Some observers are predicting smooth meat type hogs will be selling at 90% of parity by the Fourth of July. This theory is based on the fact that feed prices are higher and feed supplies will remain "tight" until the new corn crop, and the fact that recent surveys indicate lower numbers of hogs than had been predicted earlier. Rising feed costs are knocking some speculative hog feeders out of the business.

Howard Parker has moved from Lubbock to Odessa, where he has accepted another position. He spent the weekend here with his mother, Mrs. Mabel Parker, and reported for work on Monday.

RAMSEY STRESSES WATER CONSERVATION

San Augustine. Soil and water conservation and greater protection for Texas families through good services and stability in government are the major issues on which Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey will campaign for re-election this summer.

Ramsey, who is touring the state preparatory to officially opening his campaign, said, "Soil is the storehouse of agriculture and industry. Water is the key to both."

"People throughout Texas have made great strides in soil and water saving practices in the past 10 years," he added. "The state must give full assistance to equitable plans for conservation at the local level if we are to maintain a sound economy and reach our true potential."

Mrs. Geneva Wade Installed Worthy Matron Of Order Eastern Star

In an impressive ceremony with Mrs. Edwin Childers as installing officer, Mrs. Geneva Wade took her place as new worthy matron of the Order of the Eastern Star, Chapter 140. The new worthy patron is Fred Watson. These two succeed the outgoing worthy matron and worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ashmore.

For the occasion the hall committee had decorated the hall and reception rooms with summer flowers. Yellow mums, the worthy matron's color for the year, were the table center piece; the social committee served pineapple sherbet and white cake squares.

Other elective officers in addition to those mentioned above were: Mrs. Glenn McDonald, associate matron; Winford Schuller, associate worthy patron; Mrs. J. D. Ashmore, secretary; Mrs. Wm. Rountree, treasurer; Mrs. Norman Hodges, conductress and Mrs. John Luedecke, associate conductress.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Biggs were in San Angelo to attend the wedding Friday night of their nephew, Harold Lloyd Biggs. They were met there by their son Glenn and his wife of Waco, who accompanied them home to spend the weekend.

HIGGINS - PERRY WEDDING HELD SUNDAY MORNING

In an impressive ceremony during the church service at the Eastside Baptist Church Sunday morning, Miss Willa Higgins, fourth of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Higgins, became the bride of Jerry Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Perry of Port Barre, Louisiana. The Rev. Joe Dossett, pastor of the Eastside Church, of which both of the young people have been members, officiated with the double ring ceremony.

For her wedding the bride wore the traditional white satin with lace overskirt. The fitted top was fashioned with cap sleeves and low neck with scallop trim. Her white veil fell from a half-hat of white satin.

She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid with streamers of orchid satin ribbon.

The couple's only attendants were the bride's sister Claudine and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Harlow of Oklahoma City. Mrs. Harlow wore white satin with a white overskirt trimmed with rhinestones, and her corsage was of pink carnations. Miss Sue Henry played the wedding music.

Following the church service about 25 relatives, members of the wedding party, and friends, attended a dinner given by the bride's parents at their home.

The couple then left on a wedding trip to Buchanan, Galveston, and Port Barre, after which they will start housekeeping at Claude, where the groom is employed with Pohly Exploration.

The bride is a graduate of Eldorado High school with the Class of 1956. The groom, who also graduated from high school here, attended Howard Payne a year, then started to work for Pohly, moving with the crew to Sheffield, Abernathy and Claude.

Among those from out of town here to attend the wedding were Jerry Caldwell of Sweetwater, Mrs. John Brown and several relatives from Brownwood, Ann Henderson of McCamey, Jody Minnicks of Soonra, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Harlow and baby Pamela of Oklahoma City, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Gausemeier of San Angelo.

tion program. Texas Highway Department officials are frankly jubilant. They are poised to begin letting contracts Aug. 1, using the new supply of federal funds. "We will be scraping the bottom of the barrel in the July letting," said State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer. Greer said the new law would mean a minimum increase of $57,000,000 a year in federal road building aid to Texas—or double the present amount.

He called it "the most far-reaching piece of highway legislation yet enacted." He predicted an era of unparalleled development. Gov. Allan Shivers was less enthusiastic. He charged turning a state function over to "bungling bureau cracy" made it unduly costly. His objection was to the provision giving the Secretary of Labor, rather than the states, power to set wages on all contracts. "This means a third less highway mileage than the people would otherwise get," said Shivers.

"Tax money always dwindles in value," said the governor, "when it is sent to Washington for processing and returned to the states."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Moore of San Antonio visited during the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Moore. They also visited their son Sonny who spent the second semester here and has returned to Waco for summer work at Baylor.

Mrs. Ruth Danford has returned from a week's visit with her daughter Mrs. Gerald Nicks and her family at Marfa.

Here for the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baker are their daughter Doris, Mrs. L. O. Tomlinson and son Tommie of San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Sauer and Mrs. Hannah Baethge made a business trip to Doss, visiting there Saturday and Sunday. The Sauers' grandson Dwain drove for them.

The Elton McGinnes family attended a reunion at Hico during the weekend.

A visitor in the home of his aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Jack I. Mowrey is Derek Blevins, age 1½ years, who is here while his parents are on vacation. The family live at Killeen.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson of San Angelo visited in the Rutha

Boyer home and took their son Mack back with them after his visit with his grandmother.

Visitors in Eden with their brother and son, Clyde Estes from Saturday to Monday morning were Mrs. Hattie Stanford and her mother Mrs. J. E. Estes.

IT'S SWITCHCRAFT

— that's what it is!

You'll see when you try Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflow!

IT TAKES a new word to describe the magic at your command when you drive a '56 Buick — with the newest transmission of them all.

It's full power go-ahead on the instant. You can get where you were just looking in a shaved second's time — with the most modern and most thrilling surge of safety acceleration in the land today.

It's smoothness, too. Complete freedom from the "bump" and lag of gears shifting. Only with Dynaflow can you go winging away with so smooth a sweep.

And only with a '56 Buick can you enjoy Dynaflow's newest marvel. It's something the engineers call "double regeneration." Lets you start off like an Olympic sprinter, with the pedal pressed just an inch or less. (And driving that way, you get better gas mileage.)

There's more big news, too, that goes with this new Buick magic. And that covers a lot more than styling.

Sure — you'll like the graceful new beauty of the V-shaped prow and sweep-ahead look. And you'll like the extra room inside.

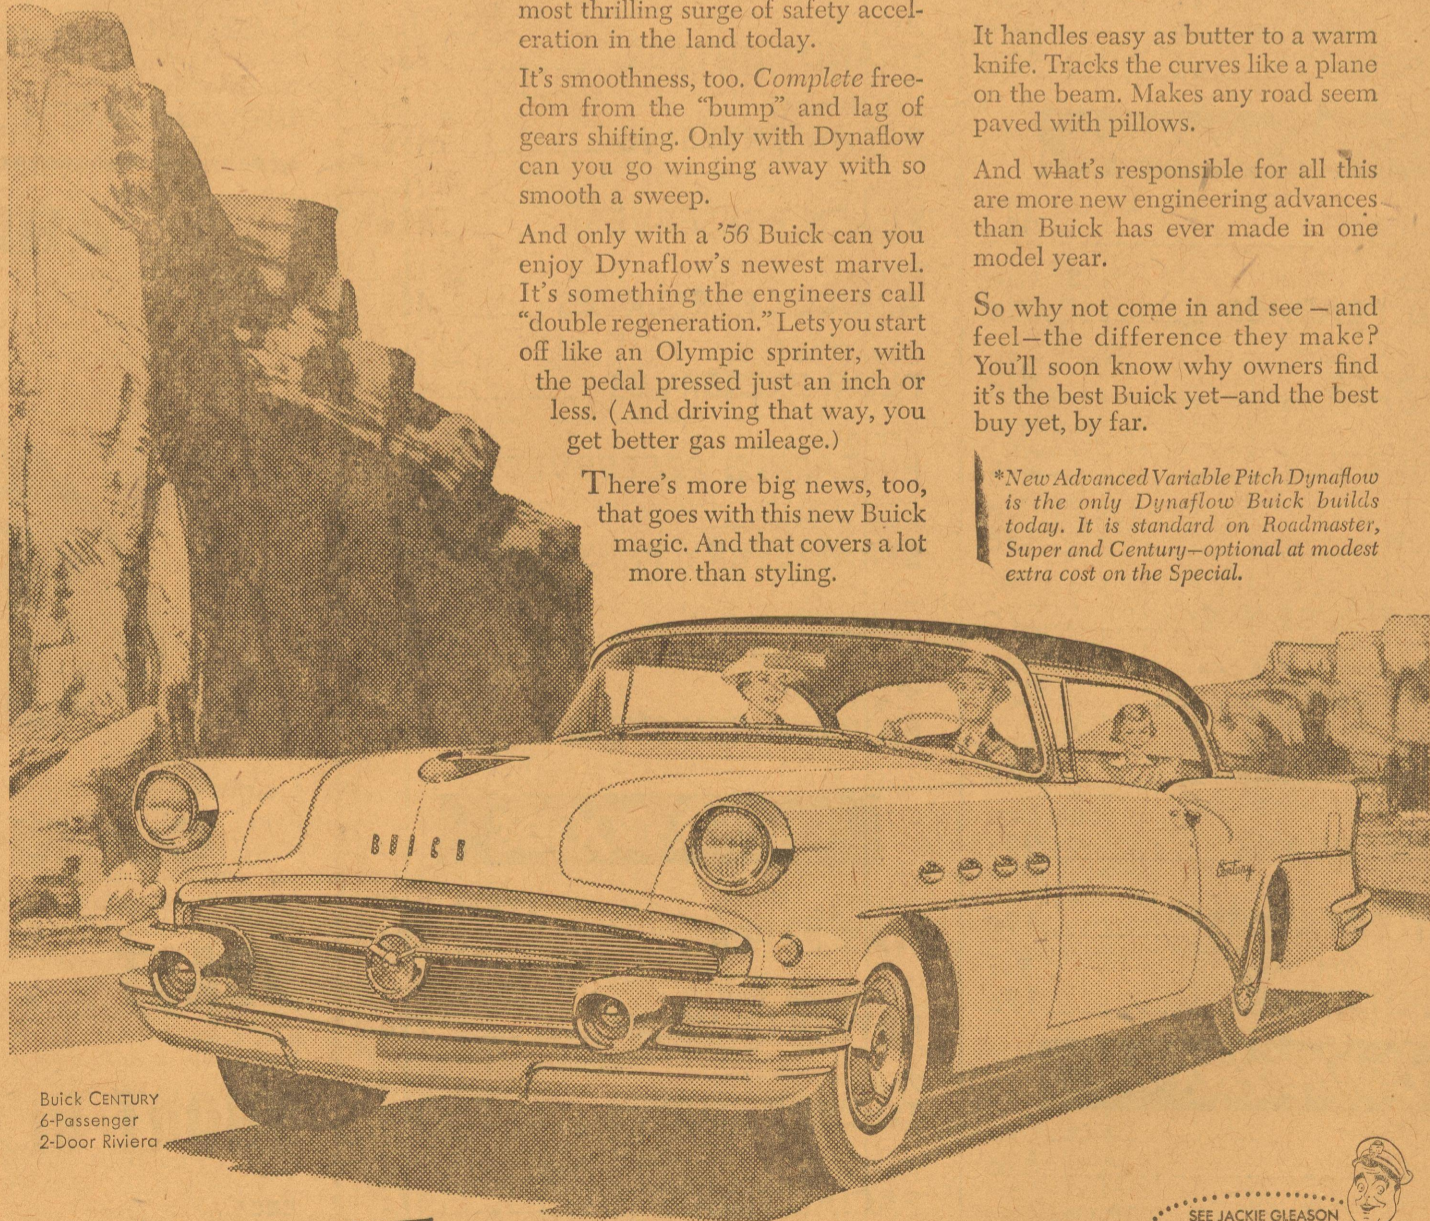

But as you drive you'll find that this Buick responds with the new might of a big, record-powered V8 engine of 322-cubic-inch left.

It handles easy as butter to a warm knife. Tracks the curves like a plane on the beam. Makes any road seem paved with pillows.

And what's responsible for all this are more new engineering advances than Buick has ever made in one model year.

So why not come in and see — and feel — the difference they make? You'll soon know why owners find it's the best Buick yet — and the best buy yet, by far.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.*

CONCHO AND CHESTNUT — SONORA, TEXAS

Austin.—Nearly 100,000 young Texans take off their mortar boards and roll up their sleeves this week. Analysts predict that figures, when complete, will show a record number of diplomas and degrees awarded this year.

Texas Education Agency pegs public high school graduates at between 64,000 and 65,000. Degrees being conferred by state-supported colleges and universities are estimated by the Texas Legislative Council at 20,000. Private and church-supported schools swell the graduate rolls several thousand more.

Awaiting these young people, said commencement speakers, is unprecedented opportunity. Examples of the '56 high school graduate's future, as outlined by an Austin speaker: (1) a longer life span—44 years ahead for boys, 49 for girls; (2) higher earnings averaging a quarter million dollars apiece; (3) less work, dwindling to a 30-hour week and (4) ever-increasing ease and leisure as technology advances.

Concrete evidence of the speakers' promises is the job placement story. University of Texas Student Employment Bureau reports five to ten job offers per graduate at better than ever salaries. Personnel in some deans' offices speak wearily of the impossibility of coping with the year-end flood of would-be employers. High school officials say many graduates began work between their last exam and commencement night.

Mixed Reaction to Highway Bill A zonzanza or a blunder—Texans are in disagreement as to which term applies to the new federal highway bill.

Senate passage of the bill left only a few details to be ironed out in House-Senate conference before sending the measure to the President. Final enactment will set into motion a 13-year, $51-Billion interstate highway construction program.
