After making their home in several communities, the Taylors moved to Eldorado in 1933, where they built a home and several rent houses, and have lived here continuously since that time.

In the year of 1917 Mrs. Taylor joined the Congregational Methodist Church, and has been a faithful worker in the church for 49 years. She and Mr. Taylor took active part in establishing the Congregational Methodist Church, and in constructing the new church building in the west part of town.

U. S. Sen. Price Daniel still held a small lead over Ralph Yarborough for the Democratic nomination as governor of Texas after official canvasses by county Democratic executive committees throughout Texas Tuesday. ## Ministerial Alliance Receives New Member At Monday Meeting

At the regular meeting of the Ministerial Alliance Monday morning in the study of the Methodist Church, Rev. Alanson Brown, pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, was received into membership.

A resolution of esteem was adopted for Rev. Perry Cox, who is leaving this weekend to enter Seminary in Fort Worth, and who presented his resignation as a member of the Alliance.

The group worked on the schedule for the chapel services at school for the new year, and also worked out the program for the Thought for the Week which is published in Success.

It was decided to endorse the PTA president's suggestion to hold the PTA meeting on Halloween, Wednesday evening, and to help stress the religious background of Halloween at this program.

To Be Competitors Again In November

Dwight D. Eisenhower

Adlai Stevenson

LeRoy Hanusch has completed surface hole for an oil test at Tom Henderson's ranch, and has moved out to Mrs. C. M. Reynolds' place to ream out the hole in the new irrigation well there.

—ps—

Autumn is in the air. Two Eldorado churches, Presbyterian and Methodist, are moving their evening services up to 7:30, starting next Sunday night. Other churches may be doing so soon. Everyone remarks about the cooler weather and the earlier arrival of dusk these nights.

—ps—

The new Sinclair gasoline plant is now in operation, but the crew are still at work eliminating the bugs. There seem to be lots of places where troubles may develop when a new plant starts up, and it will take some time to eliminate trouble spots.

Meanwhile new families continue to come in, and the housing situation is getting back to normal.

—ps—

Mr. and Mrs. Joe West and children, Deborah Sue, age seven, and Kathy Lynn, age five, arrived here Monday from Casper, Wyoming, and are new renters in the Leonard Wilson house. The two girls have been visiting relatives in Oklahoma since June, and Mr. West, who had been on the job with Sinclair before arrival of his family, drove up after them late last week.

Bobby Williams' sow, an FFA project, recently had a litter of 17 pigs. Though there are only 15 left since two died, those who have seen them feed say their fight for food is quite a sight—they describe it as a free-for-all!

Among new families here are J. R. Strickler, to Sweatt house; C. L. Mackey, Mattocks house; and Hubert E. King, in Riley house.

—ps—

A crew of about 15 men was busily engaged yesterday pouring cement in the floor of the new county swimming pool. From now on the work will begin to show up fast.

E. H. Sweatt, sheriff, and John Williams, commissioner, both came out second-best when the Democratic run-off primary totals were posted here Saturday night.

Sweatt, with 445 votes, trailed 83 votes behind Orval Edmiston, who won with 528. The total vote in this contest was 973, a slight increase over the July primary when 948 votes were cast.

The figures for July were: Sweatt 414; Edmiston 413; Joiner 121. Comparing still farther, we find that in 1954 a total of 1101 votes were cast in this race and Sweatt received 587 and Edmiston 514.

Sweatt has been sheriff of Schleicher County since 1941 except for the 2-year term of 1947-49.

Commissioner

The race for commissioner of precinct No. 1 was confined entirely to the Memorial building, or voting box No. 1. In this race we find that 40 votes less were tallied than in July. At that time it was: Williams 262; Halbert 234; Harris 208—making a total of 704.

In the run-off here Saturday, Halbert apparently picked up most of the Harris votes and came up with a total of 364 to 280 for Williams—the total vote being only 664.

This is 171 votes less than were counted in this race two years ago. In 1954 there were 835 votes, with Williams getting 432, and Halbert 403.

Governor

In the race for Governor, Schleicher county gave its majority to Price Daniel, who received 511 votes to 440 for Yarborough. In the first primary Schleicher's biggest vote went to "Pappy" O'Daniel, but he was a poor third in the state as a whole.

For Attorney General, this county gave a whopping total of 654 votes to Will Wilson, and only 285 to Tom Moore. Here are the county totals:

Governor
Price Daniel .....	511
Ralph Yarborough .....	440
Attorney General
Will Wilson .....	654
Tom Moore .....	285
Sheriff
Orval Edmiston .....	528
E. H. Sweatt .....	445
Commissioner 1
A. J. Halbert .....	364
John Williams .....	280

OVER ONE THOUSAND YEARS OF CHURCH SERVICE REPRESENTED HERE

Unusual statistics were brought out when 18 members and guests of the Mothers class of the First Baptist Sunday school were entertained recently in the home of Mrs. Carl Stevens. One item of note was that the combined ages of the members totaled 1297 years, and another was that their church membership and religious service added up to 1024 years. Features of the social hour were the recounting of conversion and baptismal experiences by the various members. While a few reported being baptised in church baptistries most recounted their baptising in historic creeks and rivers and well-known tanks, ponds and other spots related to Texas church history. The afternoon was a time of nostalgic reminiscence and was enjoyed by all.

In addition to Rev. Clifton Hancock, who greeted the guests, the above picture shows; seated: Mrs. Frank Webb, Mrs. R. A. Evans, Sr, Mrs. Ira McDonald, Mrs. J. D. Ramsey, Mrs. W. O. Alexander, Mrs. J. S. Hudson, Mrs. J. H. Wagley, Mrs. Mattie Bruton, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. J. A. Whitten; (Standing): Mrs. A. J. Henry, Mrs. Marion Wade, teacher, Mrs. Mattie Cozzens, Mrs. J. H. Luedecke, Mrs. J. D. Ashmore, Mrs. W. N. Ramsay, Mrs. Frank Kinsler. Several others who attended are not shown.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

I wish to take this opportunity of expressing my appreciation to the people of Eldorado for their hospitality and friendliness to me during the past fourteen months. It has been a distinct privilege to have had fellowship with the members of First Baptist Church and with each and every resident in this city. Three members of Eldorado's Troop 18 were among the 52 Scouts and Explorers from over the 23 1/2-county Concho Valley Council who were initiated into the Order of the Arrow, the national Scout camping honorary, last week end at Camp Sol Mayer. Jim Runge, Herman Walker Jr., and Ernest K. Nimitz were accompanied to the camp by Bill Gunstead, a long-time Scouter and Arrowman.

The three new Arrowmen were elected to this honor by the local troop while in camp earlier in the summer, and are the first from here in three years to receive the honor, Sherrill Dannheim having been received into the honorary in 1953 at Camp Fawcett.

The candidates spent the first night in the open, each tending a campfire all night which he started with two matches, and the following day was spent working around the camp on improvement projects. At the Saturday night campfire each new member received the colorful red and white arrow sash.

Ernest K. Nimitz, at 15, is an Explorer in the troop, and has attended a National Jamboree and a Philmont expedition. Walker and Runge are Scouts in the troop and each holds the First Class rank.

Program	7:15

This Wednesday night we begin our Wednesday night family night supper and program. During the summer months we changed to Sunday nights with a vesper service following the supper. Beginning Wednesday we will have the regular suppers on the first Wednesday of each month and a program that will be of interest to each member of the Church. This does not exclude our friends; they are always welcome.

We call your attention to the change in evening worship hour. It has been eight o'clock during the summer months but beginning next Sunday it will begin at 7:30. The sun sets at about that time.

This is the month when all organizations get back into action, some having taken a recess for the summer months. We hope to accomplish much more during this school year.

The Irvin Munds learn that their son Jack will receive his wings at graduation exercises in Laredo in September, and that he will go to Moody AFB in Georgia for further training after his graduation.

Prominent Rancher Dies On Saturday Buried In Christoval

H. C. Williams, member of an old ranch family, whose ranch home in Tom Green County is located on the Angelo highway near the Schleicher County line, died of a heart attack early Saturday morning in San Angelo. He had been seriously ill since Thursday. His death was thought to have been caused by injuries which he received in a fall from a windmill two months before his death.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at 9:30 in Christoval Methodist Church and burial was in Christoval Cemetery, with the Masonic Lodge conducting graveside rites. Pallbearers were Fred Gifford, Robert Holland, J. L. Murray, Urban Welch, Herbert Mims, and Frank Chapple.

Williams was born in Fort Worth 63 years ago, and moved to Christoval with the family in infancy. He was a World War 1 veteran, a Methodist and a member of the Christoval Masonic Lodge and of the Suez Shrine Temple.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. A. B. Crosby Jr., of Christoval, three sisters, Mrs. Bud Hall, Ethel Williams and Mrs. E. C. Wilson, all of Christoval, and two grandchildren.

A number from this county attended the funeral Sunday morning.

R. J. Page made a business trip to Dallas Monday. Mrs. Page accompanied him to Brady and spent the day with Bert Page.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton McGinnes and family have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe at Lamesa and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McGinnes at Crosbyton. They were accompanied home by their children Wayne and Linda who had been visiting out-of-town relatives.

Mrs. C. M. McWhorter and her sister Miss Kitty Buchanan have been visiting this week in San Antonio.

Arriving here Monday night was Mrs. Helen Beach of New London, Connecticut, who is here for an indefinite stay with her son Russell and his family.

Luke Thompson Jr. and his family spent the weekend in Claude with relatives.

Bert Page, who is undergoing treatment in Brady Hospital, spent several hours here Saturday. After voting and visiting home folks he accompanied James and his wife back to Brady. He is somewhat improved.

Rev. and Mrs. Jack Oglesby of Fort Worth spent the weekend with the former's brother Sam Oglesby and Mrs. Oglesby.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips and children were in Abilene Friday attending the graduation exercises at ACC, John being a member of the summer graduating class. Others attending included Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Barbee of Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Phillips of Seminole. There were 93 summer graduates.

Anita Runge, who has been vacationing at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Runge, has returned to her work with Talon Educational Service. Last week she was working in Atlanta and this week is in South Carolina.

Mrs. Forrest Runge and son Jim left Monday for Austin to visit Mae Runge, who will accompany them home to attend Trudy Gaynor's wedding, at which she will be a bridesmaid.

Guests recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Parker were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Huddleston, Mrs. O. L. Burk and Cecil Huddleston of Ballinger, Miss Effie Parker of San Antonio, H. M. Anderson of Big Lake, W. E. Anderson of Dallas, and Margaret Lane, Mrs. O. V. Moore and Mrs. Alma Lane of Carrizozo, New Mexico.

P-TA Executive Board Meets Here Monday

The executive board of the Eldorado Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting of the year in the Memorial Building at 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 27. Discussion of future plans to be presented to the entire membership of the organization for approval was the main point of business. There were 15 members present including Mrs. Ed Meador, president; Mrs. Edwin Jackson, vice-president; Mrs. Richard Preston, program chairman; Mrs. E. C. Peters, membership chairman; Mrs. William Jarrett, finance chairman; Mrs. Carroll Ratliff, parliamentarian; Mrs. James Page, historian; T. E. Holcomb, school supt.; Charles Love, elementary grades principal; Mrs. Roy Collins, publicity chairman; Mrs. Jess Blaylock, publications chairman; Mrs. Arch Mittel, budget chairman; Mrs. Jerroll Sanders, home and family life chairman; Mrs. W. F. Wyatt, health chairman. Mrs. Bill McCravey, hospitality chairman, was out of town and that group was represented by Mrs. Carroll Sproul.

The plan of the year's programs was presented to the board as given in last week's Success. Mrs. Peters stated that at the opening day of school, September 4th, her committee will have tables in the foyer of the auditorium to register any interested person in our local Parent Teacher organization. It is hoped that every person will realize the need that the P-TA has for them in order to present an effective program, as well as the benefits which they will derive from their relations as members. National and Texas P-TA publications will also be on display for the benefit of any who might desire to subscribe.

It was decided that the principle project of the organization will be the establishing of another scholarship to be given to a student of Eldorado High school entering the teaching profession. Since the P-TA is a non-commercial organization the plans are to have one finance project for the year which will be the annual Halloween carnival.

Later in the school year, plans are being made for various study groups to be organized for the purpose of helping parents meet many problems that present themselves in the various phases of school life from the elementary grades up through high school.

The room mother representative chairmen, Mrs. Patton Enochs, elementary grades, and Mrs. Andy Nixon, high school, will be contacting many mothers to see if they will serve as room mothers for the ensuing year.

As every taxpayer in Schleicher County is interested in the school as the building of our community, it is hoped that each and every one will join the organization which strives through united effort to secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

Texas / Underground Water Grows Short

An underground desert is in the making in Texas which may eventually swallow such cities and towns as Amarillo, Dalhart, Plainview, Lubbock and Muleshoe. These population centers are located atop a vast formation of moisture-laden sands from which water is being pumped at a faster rate than nature can replenish it. The situation was created by nature and aggravated by man.

These sands of the Ogallala formation depend partly upon rainfall and the water and snow sheds of the Colorado and New Mexico mountains to replenish the underground flow. For several years, snow in these sister states has been insufficient to feed the formation at a rate greater than water usage.

The sand strata is thick in some places, thin in others. In some sections of the Texas Panhandle, the saturated thickness of sand is 50 and 60% less than a short six years ago.

The boom in irrigation on the High Plains sparked the increase in water consumption. Municipal supplies account for only about 15% of water withdrawals. Records show that of all water pumped since 1938, over 60% of it was used since 1950, due mainly to an expansion in irrigated acreages.

Irrigation cannot be called the "culprit" in this case, however. Rather, it is merely the victim of a natural situation-drouth. Weather conditions have failed to keep our water supply in balance during a period of great demand by farmers.

The lowering water tables are a matter of concern in other sections of the state, also. Natural springs in Central and South Texas are at their lowest ebb or have ceased flowing altogether for the first time in the history of white settlements.

Comal Springs in the San Marcos and New Braunfels area ordinarily flows about 317 cubic feet of water per second. Early this summer, the spring went dry for the first time.

Barton Springs in Austin, a natural water source that fluctuates rapidly with rains, was producing only 12 cubic feet per second in late August. Its usual flow varies between a maximum of 180 cubic feet to a minimum of 51½ cubic feet according to seasonal changes.

Primarily, Texas' greatest need is rain—in the state and on the watersheds of the Continental Divide. Secondly, the state needs comprehensive soil and water conservation measures which will keep the water in the vicinity in which it falls.

Surface tanks, small check dams and storage dams in the small streams and rivers, coupled with soil conservation work in the fields will help save our precious water, and aid in replenishing the underground supply.

Mike Moore is spending the week in Big Spring with relatives. His sister Christy is visiting the latter part of the week in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bauguess have moved to Arlington, where Mr. Bauguess will do carpentering. Later he expects to start work with Consolidated.

Miss Chris Enochs has as guests her foster daughter, Mrs. Bob Sewell and daughter Nancy of Oakland, California. Mrs. Sewell will be remembered here as the former Margaret Powers.

Junior McLaughlin and James Clark have returned from Phoenix, Arizona, where they visited Mrs. Max Henry's sister Mrs. Foyle Wilde and family. They drove a car there for Mrs. Foyle and drove back her station wagon. They arrived back home Tuesday evening.

Vaccination for smallpox and diphtheria is compulsory for all beginning students (first graders). No child will be admitted to the first grade who does not present evidence of having received these shots—a smallpox within the past four years, and diphtheria in the last year and a half. Birth certificates will be required of all first grade students who did not present same in pre-registration.

Student insurance will be available again this year for all students at the rate of $2 each for this school year. This insurance becomes effective when the $2 is paid to the teacher. Each child will be given a form to bring to the parent which should be read carefully and signed by the parent if child is to be insured. School officials prefer payment by check as this assures parent a returned receipt which will not be lost by child. The school is not selling this insurance, but is endorsing it and making it available for those who want it. This insurance is to be in by Friday, Sept. 14th. The coverage is for 12 months in any school sponsored activity. It also covers all athletics with the exception of high school football.

With this year's growing season nearly gone the farmers of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation district have the prospect of making little or no crops.

This year, as in the past dry years, crops immediately above level closed end terraces and those in the lakes are the only ones that will pay to harvest. In spite of the fact that Truett Stanford has received only 6 inches of rain this year, he still expects to make a quarter bale of cotton to the acre. The 65 acres of cotton which Truett has left lies immediately above his terraces and in his lakes. He estimates that the lakes benefiting from outside water will make half bale per acre.

Truett received 3 inches rain on the 30th of April. This rain came fast and hard. Despite the intensity most of the water was held by the level closed-end terraces. The lakes were filled with water that escaped the terraces and by runoff from adjoining pastures.

Truett planted his crop following the three-inch rain of April

About 70 people attended the Alexander family reunion recently at Richards Park in Brady. Attending from here were Ray Alexander and family, James and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Alexander and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Alexander.

30th. By June 5th he had received an additional 3 inches of rainfall.

"I could have made a 1/2 bale or more to the acre had I got a good rain as late as the 20th of July," Truett states. He adds that, "if I had not had terraces the only crop I would be making would be in the lakes."

This locality is fairly well sold on terraces. Most farmers in this district realize that for good sound water conservation a system of terraces can't be beat. Every year farmers are able to point out that terraces have proven to be their most profitable soil conservation practice. When crops are made during these dry years they are invariably made on terraced fields.

Since we are getting close to the end of this growing season, farmers should begin planning to build up the terraces that are now in use and complete the terracing of unterraced fields this fall. For assistance in planning and laying out terraces contact your local County ASC office and the Soil Conservation Service.

Fault Finding

A little girl was making faces at a bulldog. When her mother asked her about it, she said, "Well, he started it!" No doubt the little girl was right because it isn't any trouble for a bulldog to make an ugly face. But the bulldog probably didn't do it intentionally. And even if he did, the little girl did not gain anything by competing with him in making faces.

Finding fault in others is about the easiest thing we do. It doesn't require any talent, any self-denial, any brains, or any character. Fault finding is a destructive habit and reveals a low moral level of living. Emerson said, "If you would lift me you must be on higher ground." The fault finder cannot lift; he can only pull others down.

But we are usually eagle-eyed to see another's faults and deformity. Jesus asked, "Why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? If we even admit to any specific sin, we still maintain that it is only a mote in our eye but that it is a beam that is in our brother's eye. We confess our little faults only in order to persuade other people that we have no great ones.

And how terrible do these sins appear to us that we have not committed. A very wise man would always reply when he heard any person being loudly condemned: "Yes, that does seem very bad to me, because that's not my way of sinning."

How irritating it is to have an unfriendly person meddling in your personal life, but how lovely it is to know that someone has a personal interest in you! Tolerance comes, not from malice or mere indifference, but from genuine sympathy. How absurd it is to pass over all the valuable parts of a person and dwell on his faults!

Actually, we ourselves are not free from faults. But when we overcome our faults our lives become more productive of good, as a field becomes more fertile when the weeds are plowed under. Not only can our faults be uprooted but also can be choked out by good deeds. "Overcome evil with good." Do not think of your faults, and even less of the faults of others. Look for the good and the strong. Rejoice in it and imitate it, and your faults will drop off in due season, as leaves fall from a tree.

There is an old saying that we should speak only good of the dead. But why is this not true concerning the living? And why should praise wait for death?

—R. Russell Heaner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Parrent and Fern have moved from the Jeff Enochs house on E. Brooks Ave. to the M. H. Woodward house on E. Hill Avenue.
