Directors Accept Plans For New CoOp Building

The directors of the Southwest Texas Electric CoOp met April 4 and accepted tentative plans for the proposed new office building, which is scheduled to be built at an estimated cost of $90,000.00.

The new building will be located on lots across from the telephone office, which the CoOp acquired some time ago. The architect, Donald R. Goss, of San Angelo is working on blue prints to be submitted to bidders at a later date.

Plans call for an office building containing 9,556 sq. feet of floor space. This will house offices for five employees, the manager and directors' offices, line superintendent, and other employees.

A warehouse will connect on the rear of the office structure and a vehicle shed will make an L addition to the warehouse. A customer parking area will be paved in front of the building.

No date has been set for submitting bids on the project but it is expected that construction can begin this year.

P-TA In Regular Meeting Tuesday

The P. T. A. met at the school auditorium Tuesday evening with about 100 present; some of whom were students in the adult education classes.

Parents of pre-school children had been urged to attend this meeting and A. M. Whitis and C. T. Humphries presented the program on preparing pre-school children for entering school in the fall.

The final meeting of the PTA will be held next Tuesday, April 14, at which time the new officers will be installed. Mr. Whitis will report on his recent trip to San Francisco where he attended the school supervisors congress.

After the PTA meeting and the adult education classes Tuesday, the groups joined for a social hour in the home making room. Cake and coffee were served.

Butlers Move To California

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Butler left Friday for Altadena, California, where they will make their home with their daughter, Mrs. H. Gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler moved to Schleicher county in 1921 from McCullough county and he engaged in farming for many years. He operated a trucking business shortly before retiring several years ago. They have four girls and six boys, most of whom received their education in the Eldorado schools.

Last week about 60 people attended a going-away party in their honor at the Memorial building. The evening was spent singing old songs. Mrs. Marion Wade and Miss Coralie Spinks of Menard were at the piano. Guests were here from Menard and Sonora in addition to the many local friends. Mrs. Butler was presented with a watch and he was given a billfold.

Their daughter, Mrs. Gold, drove them to her home in California, by car.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Carroll and Vicki of Ozona visited with relatives here Sunday until noon. After lunch they were accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hazelwood, and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hazelwood, who spent the evening in Ozona.

Oil News

Oil activity in the county continues to decline and an eight-day production schedule has been recommended by Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson for the month of May. This is the same allowable production in force this month.

El Paso No. 1 Sheen on the third test run last Tuesday between 4,033-4,075 feet, recovery was 89,000 cu. ft. of gas daily. They are coring below 4,139 feet, in lime.

Chambers, Kennedy, Ashmund & Ashmund, and Hilliard No. 1 Mary Robinson waiting on cement after completing drilling contract. On the last drill stem test recovery was more than 3,000,000 cu. ft. of gas per day.

Pan American No. 1 Mittel drilling at 3,997 feet in lime and shale.

Sheriff Warns Against Dealing With Swindlers

Sheriff Orval Edmiston called attention to the many swindles now being carried on all over this section of the state. One of the most recent cases here in the county occurred when two men posed as cleaners of septic tanks and were charging exorbitant prices for their work. Their charge was about $200.00 for a job on which reliable workers would charge $35.00.

Termite exterminators also have been working this section for some time and are not to be confused with reliable operators in this business. Sheriff Edmiston has asked that any suspicious workers or contractors of any kind be investigated and that his office be called before signing any contract to have work done.

Widows are approached more frequently than others by all types of swindlers. Some of the schemes being worked in this section are by so-called gas inspectors, termite exterminators, house painters, sellers of religious material, and men wanting to put new roofs on dwellings and barns.

Schleicher Shut-In Gassers to Be Tied In to the Pioneer Gathering System

UPON APPROVAL by the Federal Power Commission, Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., a subsidiary of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, will make additions to its present gathering system to enable it to take gas from Atlantic Refining Company's wells in the Buckhorn field in Schleicher County.

Employee Duties Outlined As New City Year Starts

REMODELING

Workmen have been busy this week taking out all the old fixtures at the Eldorado Drug, and installing new ones. New shelf units and gondolas or "islands" are already in evidence, as is the completely renovated and rearranged prescription department.

Plans for an open house of some sort, will be announced later, according to the proprietor, Eldon Calk.

BEVERLY McELROY HAS SKIN GRAFT

Beverly McElroy, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Biggs, underwent surgery for a skin graft in the Clinic-Hospital in San Angelo Friday. She had received severe burns on a heater in the home some weeks ago. She is doing nicely.

New Babies

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Redford of Warrensburg, Missouri, are parents of a daughter born March 24. She weighed 8 lbs. 13 oz. at birth and is their first child.

Among the grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Redford of Hamilton. The new baby is the third great-grandchild of Mrs. John Luedicke.

A son weighing 6 lbs. 14 oz. was born March 30 in Midland to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Percy. The new baby, Edwin Ray Percy, has the same birthday as his great-grandfather, Freeman Yardley of Eldorado.

Post Office Crew Now Re-Organized

New jobs and a new employee were in evidence this week at the Eldorado post office.

As announced last week, C. T. Waller has succeeded Jack Ratliff as letter carrier on the county's only rural route, and Bernard Carr is on the job as acting postmaster.

Mr. Carr has stated that he appreciates all the kindness and consideration that has been extended him, and that he will try to give the same good service to which postal patrons have become accustomed. Other members of the post office force include Mrs. Lois Etheredge, who is now regular clerk; and Rony Kerr, who is a temporary substitute.

The newest member of the regular force is Gus Love, who started work this week as a temporary substitute. Mr. Love has been employed by Fambrough Chevrolet Co. as salesman, and is the owner of considerable city rent property.

Those mentioned work more or less steadily at the post office. In addition Mrs. Elizabeth Elder works on week-ends when called upon.

Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., Amarillo, Texas, has announced, according to Burton P. Smith, President, the signing of a gas purchase contract between Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., and Atlantic Refining Company covering the purchase of gas from Atlantic wells in the Buckhorn field in Schleicher County, Texas.

The gas purchased by Pioneer Gathering System, Inc. is to be produced from wells which have been heretofore shut-in for lack of an available market.

Pioneer Gathering System, Inc., a subsidiary of Pioneer Natural Gas Company, is already buying gas in this area and delivering it to Permian Basin Pipeline Company in Schleicher County.

To tie in Atlantic's wells to its present gathering system, Pioneer Gathering has made application to the Federal Power Commission for the construction of 6.5 miles of 4½-inch pipeline, purchase meter stations and a dehydration plant.

Construction is expected to begin as soon as a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity is granted by FPC.

Offsets Predicted

There are three Humble-Spencer wells in the Buckhorn field, one Atlantic-Roberts well, and one on Robert Nixon, drilled by Hunt.

According to men connected with the industry, there will be several forced offsets to these wells as soon as the gathering system is in operation.

April 15 Deadline For Inspection Stickers

Major Wilson E. Speir, regional commander, Department of Public Safety, Midland, issued the following order to all enforcement personnel under his command: "Enforcement of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Law will begin immediately after April 15, 1958."

Captain Ray B. Butler, Texas Highway Patrol of Midland, said, "Patrolmen are instructed to arrest anyone who operates a motor vehicle after the April 15 deadline who does not have displayed a valid inspection sticker in the proper place on the vehicle."

Captain Butler reminded all motorists who have not had their vehicles inspected to do so as soon as possible to avoid the chance of having to pay a fine and to avoid the inconvenience of long lines during the last days of the inspection period.

"About one out of every five vehicles have not been inspected for the current year and there remains only about ten working days in which to secure inspection stickers before the deadline," Cap. Butler reminded.

"Enforcement of the registration has already started and Patrolmen are finding an unusually large amount of motor vehicles with expired license plates on them," Butler said.

Howard Payne College Choir Coming Next Week

Leaders in the Eldorado First Baptist church announce an outstanding musical event which will take place at their church next Thursday night, when the Howard Payne A Capella choir from Brownwood will perform here.

The choir, which is under the direction of Charles F. Wootton, is on a tour of West Texas, and their concert here will start at 7:30. The public is invited to attend.

All-District Basketball Banquet Will Be Held Here Tomorrow

The Eldorado Lions club will sponsor a banquet for members selected for the all-district basketball first and second teams, their school administrators, and coaches. All the members of the Eldorado team have been invited to the affair which will take place in the Memorial Building Friday (tomorrow) night at 8:00 p.m.

Guests will be here from Menard, Junction, Sonora, and Ozona, the schools of District 8-A.

Ed Meador will be master of ceremonies and Charlie Trigg will introduce the speaker for the evening. He is Polk Robison of Texas Tech and in addition to his speech he will show a film.

The invocation will be given by Rev. J. L. Spencer. Tom Ratliff will present the award for best sportsmanship and T. P. Robinson, Jr. will present the all-district awards.

About 40 guests are expected. This is Eldorado's last year in District 8-A. Next fall the town will be in 6-B with Robert Lee, Bronte, Trent, Lorraine, and Harnleigh. The change was brought about by a decline in the enrollment in the high school here.

Tomorrow night's banquet is the meeting for this week of the Lions club. There was no regular meeting of the club yesterday.

The first all-district basketball banquet was held a year ago with Eldorado as the host town.

Buying at Home

is much like The Golden Rule

Everybody Recommends It for Everybody Else

But... the sad fact that some folks who preach buying at home don't practice it much, doesn't keep it from being a wise habit. There always will be people who regularly stand in their own light, even when they know better.

Unlike The Golden Rule, the principle of buying at home has few moral aspects. It's just a matter of good hard dollars and cents, and fuller living.

Because somebody else does... or doesn't... is no good reason to give away what is ours.

Yet that is just what we're doing when we spend our money off somewhere else, with the excuse that our neighbors are doing it.

Let's quit watching them, and examine our own habits, reminding ourselves selfishly that of each dollar we spend, nearly one-third goes to pay for community progress and upkeep.

But it's no soup in our pot, no schools for our kids, no churches for our souls, nor increment for our property, if it is some other community.

Thought For The Week
Ministerial Alliance

Prayer is the "Christian's vital breath." Without prayer, aspiration for holiness dies; activity becomes vain, beating of the air; and testimony either turns to repetition of worn-out phrases or is silenced. Prayer is the upreach of the soul of man in adoration, worship, thanksgiving, petition, supplication, and intercession. But it is a disappointing experience if it does not establish communion with God in the response of his Spirit is as real as the yearning of the human heart. Jesus said, "Men ought always to pray, and not to faint." And Paul exhorted, "Pray without ceasing." No posture of the body is even suggested. Prayer born of humility, dependence upon God, and inadequacy of human resources is urged as a necessity for the nourishment of the spiritual life of man.—Henry Mills.

BACK TO THE BIBLE

To members of the Lord's Body, The Church, the Lord said, "Love not the World, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world the love of the Father is not in him." I Jno. 2:15. Read verses 16 and 17.

Brother: Where does the usual "Picture Show," the average "Television Program," and the many "Athletic Contest Programs" belong? Are they not among the things that appeal to the "lust of the flesh," the "lust of the eye," or the "pride of life"? Read Ro. 8:5-13. Do the things mentioned above belong to "the things of the flesh" or to "the things of the Spirit"?

Again the Lord said, "Be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye move what is that good and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Ro. 12:2.

Brother: As members of the Lord's church, we are stewards of God. All we have, both time and money, belongs to God. When we are called to give an account of our "Stewardship," will we be found guilty of wasting our Lord's goods? See Lk. 16:1. "Think on these things."

Price Bankhead Minister

George Ochsner of Midland was a week end visitor in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ochsner. Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Scherz and child-rend of Sonora.

Visiting here during the Easter holidays in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baker were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ratliff of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shugart and family of Ft. Stockton.

Guarding Tomorrow's Freedom

How to maintain a lasting peace . . . how to preserve full employment . . . how to ward off recession . . . how to keep our high standard of living. Those are problems which continually face the Government of our country.

Tomorrow they may blaze into issues that must be solved by the factions and interests that make up our democracy. Each of these factions and interests will demand to be heard — and they will be heard.

The press of America will report and comment on what each and every party to an issue has to say. The public will know what is going on.

It is only thus that the best interests of America can be served over and above the interests of any one faction or any limited-interest group.

This vital function can be performed only by a press that is free to write and free to publish the story of national issues, unfettered by dictation from any source.

Today's freedoms can be secured and tomorrow's freedoms guarded only by a press that owes allegiance to no ogre of tyranny bent upon shaping our destiny to suit its own ends.

If the press of America is, in a real sense, to remain the guardian of our future, we must preserve the freedom it possesses today.

Prevent, Rather Than Cure, Soil Compaction

College Station.—Excessive use of heavy machinery in farming operations tends to pack certain types of soil into unproductive hardpans or to form hard layers of soil just below plow depth, says Jack Barton, extension soil and water conservation specialist. This condition cuts the soil's ability to absorb water at the surface as well as slows the permeation into the subsoil. Too, adds Barton, in some cases normal root development of planted crops is restricted.

Once soils become compacted, the hard layers must be broken by subsoiling, deep tillage or plant roots. But prevention is still the best way to deal with the problem, says Barton.

He says machine operations should be delayed if the soil is wet. Damage is frequently done shortly after rainy spells when farmers become alarmed about the lateness of the season or vigorous growth of weeds in cultivated crops. The soil's resistance to compaction can be increased by adding to its organic matter content through rotation with grass or pasture plants. Too, cover crops can be grown in off seasons and turned under as green manure before cultivated crops are planted.

Barton suggests developing a minimum tillage system for the farm. That is, tilling the soil as little as possible. This, he says, requires judgement on the part of the operator but points out that local county agents can offer advice about practices adapted to the area.

For those who already have compacted soil, research is developing machinery and other means to meet the problem more effectively, under varying conditions. More attention to this problem is needed, says Barton, if we are to avoid permanent and serious injury to some of our best soils.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tiny Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Terramycin has proved to date the most effective anti-biotic in the prevention and treatment of many diseases, and has held its own in increased weight of all animals and poultry when fed at nutritional levels. For instance, terramycin, when fed to cattle, will give 8% more weight on 8% less feed. It is the only anti-biotic approved for use in feed to reduce the incidence and severity of bloat.

Cattle that are to be shipped may be fed terramycin as an effective prevention against shipping fever. It has high appetite appeal for calves. It helps them get started on regular feed much faster.

Terramycin has been found effective against 100 different diseases of livestock and poultry—and is free from undesirable side effects.

Cotton growers should treat their planting seed to obtain better stands and avoid replanting.

Seed treatment stops seed-borne diseases such as anthracose (which causes seedling damping off and boll-rot), ascochyta (which causes wet weather blight), and angular-leaf-spot (which causes seedling blight and opens the door to boll-rot).

It also protects seedlings from certain soil-dwelling diseases which may cause seed rots, sore-shin, and damping off. Such losses are greatest when cool, rainy weather delays emergence. Acid-delinted seed is especially susceptible to these diseases and benefits greatly when treated.

The most common cause of seedling loss from untreated seed is anthracose. This disease may rot seedlings before emergence, or cause one-sided brownish spots on newly emerged plants. It seldom produces visible signs on older plants until bolls are formed.

Loose and covered kernel smut, seed rot, and seedling blight are among the diseases controlled by proper seed treatment of grain sorghums. These diseases do not show until the kernels of grain begin to develop.

Some of the materials used for seed treatment are: cerasan 100, cerasan 200, panogen 15, dow 9-b, pmaa, captan, agrox and cerasan-m.

It's time to garden. There is time to grow a money-saving, nutritious home garden which will be a practical accomplishment for the home gardener. A few tips for warm weather gardens are: (1) Treat all seeds chemically to insure high germination because of excessive moisture this spring. (2) Use recommended fertilizers. (3) Plant only adapted seed varieties. (4) Conserve and utilize space. Manage your plans and space to produce higher yields with less work. (5) Stagger plantings to have highest quality all summer long.

Black rot and other diseases are beginning to make their appearance on some fruits and especially roses at this time of the year. To combat this disease and other similar diseases use bordeaux mixture or febam. Sprays, due to high winds, will be more effective than dusts. Apply as directed on the bottle or package.

Aphids will be plentiful around the home this month on roses, fruit trees and shrubs, especially if April and May are dry months. When aphids are present use BHC, Black Leaf 40 and soap, wettable parathion, or lindane. Follow directions on the package or bottle of the product bought.

Any car will last you a lifetime, if you're careless enough.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKLG'W

Safety is no accident. Safety depends on doing the smart thing. Safety is a selfish thing because it is a form of self protection and self preservation.

Part of the make up of safety is prevention; part is knowing what to do in case of accident or disaster.

 These thoughts were brought out at a training meeting on family preparedness given at the court house Tuesday afternoon, Apr. 1. Jack Logan and L. D. Mund from the Southwest Texas Electric Co. Inc., demonstrated the newest methods now being used in emergencies connected with drowning, electrocution, bleeding, shock and burns. Fifteen Home Demonstration club women, two visitors and two men from Turkey attended the meeting. Incidentally the visitors from Turkey were very interested and were delighted that they were invited.

But back to the preparedness meeting. Two women from each club will conduct meetings for their clubs during the month of April based on the material given at the training meeting. Attend one of these meetings. We are all candidates for an unexpected accident. It could be in the home or on the road. One person or a whole town could be involved. It could be a child bitten by a rattlesnake or a tornado which touched hundreds. I wish I could guarantee everyone who learns even one thing at these meetings that it would be wasted information, but unfortunately we never know how or when we might have to use our training.

 It has been estimated that mechanical dishwashing saves the average home maker 365 hours per year and not only is a disliked task greatly lessened but dishes are washed hygienically clean. And best of all for the women—statistics show that men like to wash dishes when they can do them mechanically.

 Electronic cooking it on its way. Today's models of stoves are expensive, but just look at what they will do: A five-pound roast is ready to eat in 25 minutes. Bacon is crisp in less than two minutes. And you can cook in the finest china or on a paper plate. It is going to be something to watch come in, the age of electronic cooking.

 An emotionally mature teenager is the dream of every parent and the hope of every teacher or other person who works with him. Emotional maturity is not exactly easy to define, but in general the stable, healthy person has these characteristics:

1. He can love someone besides himself.
2. He can accept disappointment.
3. He can cooperate with others.
4. He can judge a situation as it is, not as he wants it to be.
5. He is self-reliant.
6. He makes effective use of his abilities.

Check yourself first, and then apply the measure to anyone else you'd like.

 Spring and picnics and potato salad go together naturally it seems. It is a fact that cold salad is more logical to make ahead of time and take with you, but just for a change try this one to be eaten at home—and hot:

Hot Potato Salad
 Get these things together:
 3 cups diced, raw potatoes.
 4 slices bacon; ¼ cup finely chopped onion.
 1 tablespoon flour; 1 teaspoon powdered, dry mustard.
 1 teaspoon salt; 1 tablespoon sugar; ½ cup water.
 1 egg, well beaten; ¼ cup vinegar.

To make: cook potatoes in small amount boiling, salted water until tender. Drain potatoes. Cook bacon until crisp. Remove from pan and chop. Using 2 tablespoons bacon fat, cook onions until golden. Blend flour, mustard, salt and sugar into fat. Stir in the water and boil for two minutes. Add about 2 tablespoons hot mixture to beaten egg, then stir in rest of mixture. Add vinegar and reheat. Pour the hot dressing over hot potatoes. Mix in chopped bacon. Serve hot. This is an old fashioned kind of salad, and used before the day of mayonnaise dressing popularity.
