The Commissioners Court in their regular meeting Monday completed plans for opening the swimming pool. Miss Jimmie Dell Williams who is a student in the University of Texas, was hired for the summer to take care of the concession stand at the pool and conduct the business of selling tickets and take care of other business in operating the pool. She will work from 2:00 p. m. until 7:00 p. m.

David Kuykendall was hired to do all outside work at the pool and act as life guard. Both of these new employees graduated from Eldorado high school last year.

The pool will be opened June 1 for the summer. It will be open every day except Monday from 2:00 p. m. until 7:00 p. m., and Kuykendall will take care of all arrangements for parties or groups who wish to use it at other hours.

Soil Cons. Trip Taken By Ministerial Alliance

The Eldorado Divide Soil Conservation District conducted members of the Ministerial Alliance on a field trip in the county Monday from 9:00 a. m. until noon. The trip was planned by local Soil Conservation office personnel. The group observed terrace systems, moisture penetration checks, infiltration of water, Madrid clover planting, and saw different range conditions of several pastures. There was a discussion of range conditions as a result of mesquite infestation, weeds, and prickly pear.

The tour was taken in connection with National Soil Stewardship Week which began May 11 and ends May 18.

More Funds Requested In Local Cancer Drive

In the Cancer Drive here this week, the Boy Scouts collected a total of $178.00 Monday evening in a house-to-house canvass. Twenty-five Scouts under the direction of Billy Frank Blaylock, completed their work in two hours. Members of drive committee have expressed their appreciation to the Scouts and their leaders who took part in the drive.

Mrs. Jack Mowrey, co-chairman, stated that funds are still needed and will be accepted at the Eldorado Drug or the Clinic if there are still those that wish to donate to this very worthy cause.

Local Airport To Be Paved; Lighting, Fencing To Follow

An all-weather runway—long regarded as a "must" for Eldorado—has finally gotten past the talking stage, and will soon be a reality, as a result of action taken by the Schleicher Commissioners Court in their regular session here Monday.

Following a lengthy discussion in which a number of interested citizens took part, the commissioners voted Monday to carry out the airport improvements without delay until they are completed. This means completing the caliche strip which is well under way, then adding a gravel sub-base and finally completing the strip with two coats of asphalt. The run-way will be 50 feet wide and 3150 feet long. The paving job will cost about $4,500.

Among those working for this improvement, and appearing before the commissioners Monday, was E. H. Topliffe, chairman of the transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce. A flyer himself, Mr. Topliffe has worked for some time on this project. He has also secured lighting equipment which will be installed on the field when the paving is completed—thus providing for night-time landings. Other improvements call for fencing the strip by the city and county.

Adapting the airport to all-weather and night-and-day use is a major project for this year. Because of level terrain and absence of hills and treacherous air currents, it is predicted that the Eldorado airport will become one of the more popular ones in this West Texas area

VISITOR FROM INDIA TAKEN ON TOUR OF THE COUNTY

Chuni Lal Bhatia gave an interesting talk on the subject of his native India last Thursday morning when he was feted with a coffee at the Memorial building. He has been in the United States three months on the point four program and is studying soil conservation as practiced in this country.

He cited the great advances made in the last ten years in India in the fields of electronics, education, and all phases of modern day living.

Thursday afternoon he visited the D. C. O. Wilson ranch to observe game native to this section. He also was conducted through the Rancho Station, and visited several ranches and farms in the county.

Highlights of his talk were the absence of divorces in his country, low rate of crime, and his explanation of the reasons his countrymen do not eat beef.

He pointed out that the three great religions practiced in India were Moslem, Hindu and Christianity. He was a Hindu.

There was a round table discussion after his speech.

Mr. Bhatia was very complimentary about his trip to Schleicher county at the end of his tour over the country. He remarked that it was the most interesting of any he had had since coming to the United States. Bill Rountree conducted him on the tour and arranged the schedule for the day which was a well-filled program.

Junior - Senior Banquet Staged Saturday

(By Faculty Member)

Eldorado's Memorial building was transformed into a beautiful garden of roses Saturday, May 10, as the Junior class entertained the Seniors with the annual Junior Senior banquet and Prom.

The guests entered the building through a rose covered archway which was supported on either side by a trellis and white picket fence. A larger trellis on the opposite wall banked with roses of different colors was the perfect background for a romantic setting as couples posed for pictures. White wrought iron garden furniture, bird cages, and a bird bath enclosed by another rose covered picket fence completed this spot of interest.

The south stage was enhanced for this gala occasion with a large wishing well which was covered with fieldstone crepe paper and was made more beautiful with the use of sprays of climbing roses and choice greenery. A dipper which hung by a miniature rope was used to serve the guests as they came to the well to receive punch from the ice surrounded punch bowl later in the evening. A white iron flower cart was used in the decoration.

Throughout the building pastel colored trees were adorned with dogwood and wisteria blossoms. The banquet was served to the ninety guests as they were seated at card tables which surrounded the walls of the building, allowing the center to later be sufficient for the dance floor. Eight junior high school girls, dressed in costume resembling roses, served the salad plate to the guests.

Master of ceremonies, Joe Ray Stanford, gave the welcome and Senior Voy Mitchell, the response. Entertainment consisted of songs rendered by several Junior girls and a devotion of friendship which was read by Jeannie Mund and Myrta Ann Topliffe. Juniors and Seniors participated in this beautiful and touching symbolism.

The other individuals who were invited to attend were the high school faculty and their spouses and the school trustees and their wives. Sammy Daulong's orchestra provided the music for the prom which followed the banquet.

Needless to say, this was one of the great highlights of both junior and senior years. Many persons of the community loaned properties, gave roses, and supported the class in this undertaking. Many thanks go to several junior parents who gave unselfishly of their time and talents.

As we look back on this occasion much sentiment and appreciation was manifested reminding all who were present that we have almost completed another year of school which leaves memories impressed upon each but especially upon those who will soon be leaving the halls of Eldorado High School.

Records Advised On Extra Farm Expenses

College Station.—Unpredictable Texas weather has brought heavy rains and low soil temperatures making it necessary for many farmers to replant this spring.

Two management precautions should be observed by such farmers who want to make maximum profits, points out C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

First, he advises, take time to find good quality seed. Don't stake the rest of your season's investment on questionable seed stock. Purchase seed bearing the certified blue tag, giving assurance of highest quality.

The next suggestion Bates gives is to keep records of these added expenses. These abnormal expenditures may be deducted on income tax, but verification may be necessary. Keep an account of such expenses in a record book. Too, invoices may be kept to provide a "double check."

Spend some time on your farm records every week, advises Bates, and make certain no deductible expense items are overlooked.

Soil Stewardship Week

reminds us anew of the interdependence of soil and water on the economy of this Southwest Texas area.

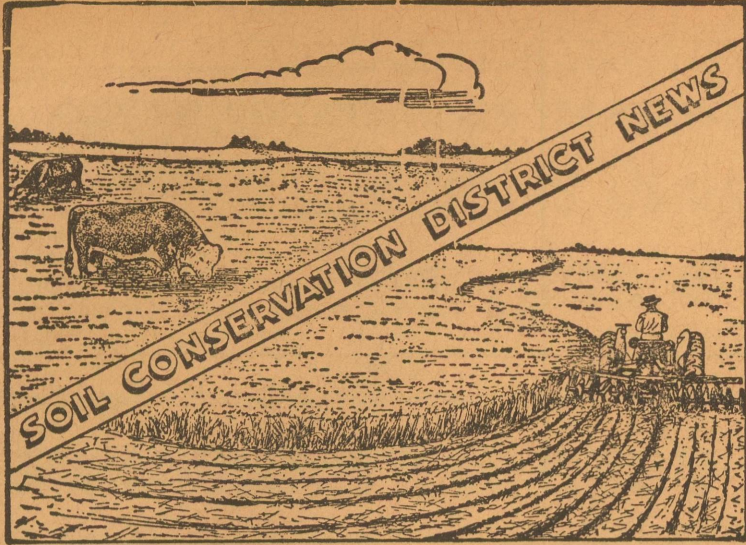

We have solid confidence in the future of America and in the future of our area because we Americans are just plain solid people. We're blessed with that rare combination of a strong agricultural economy, joined together in a free society that is on the march. There is purpose and determination—not fear and despair—in the American reaction to a temporary slowdown of the greatest economic system since the beginning of history.

We met the recent challenge of the years of drouth. Now the grassroots people of this community and area will work their way out of this so-called setback because they are true Americans whose background and tradition is built on confidence in their way of life. There is a new sense of purpose about America today. It will improve the climate of business which in turn will spell real, true prosperity for us all.

We extend greetings to all members of the Eldorado-Divide Soil Conservation District during this Soil Stewardship Week.

Two good crops of cover crops have been grown by Truett C. Stanford on the same land during the last two years. Truett has a good crop of Austrian winter peas where he grew a good crop of Chinese red peas last summer.

The two crops of peas were planted to add organic matter to the soil, protect the land from wind and water erosion, and help open the soil so it will take more moisture. The Austrian winter peas have furnished good soil protection from both wind and water erosion. The organic matter that will be returned to the soil will help keep the soil open so it will take moisture faster.

To determine the amount of green weight produced per acre the peas were weighed from an area on both crops of peas. The green weight of the Chinese red peas was 6,274 pounds per acre. This was considered a good yield since the crop received very little rain after it came up. The green weight on the Austrian winter peas was 12,477 pounds per acre. This was from an area above a terrace which received benefit from water held by the terrace. There were no checks made on the Austrian winter peas not benefitted by the terraces. There is definitely a difference in the peas on the two different areas. Stanford estimates the peas benefitted by terraces to be twice as good as those not benefitted by terraces. He stated, "About half the field is as good as the area that produced 12,477 pounds per acre."

The peas were planted on land that was in the Acreage Reserve Program last year and is also in the program this year. Stanford feels that this is one of the best opportunities he has ever had to grow a soil building crop.

The need for a cover crop for soil and moisture conservation has long been recognized by most farmers of the Eldorado-Divide S. C. D. These two crops along with guar appear to have answered the question as to what can be grown in this locality as a summer legume.

Now is the time to begin planting summer legumes. Most fields have enough moisture to get the legume crops up to a start and carry them a while without any more rain. Those planting the summer legumes applicable to this area can receive assistance from the A. S. C. office on a cost share basis for seed purchased.

For further information and assistance in planting legumes, contact the local Soil Conservation Service technicians assisting the District.

INDUSTRIAL MOVIE IS RELEASED BY OHIO

Findlay, Ohio.—The Ohio Oil Company recently released for public showing its latest motion picture, "You Decide." The film, a new departure in industrial sponsored moving pictures, uses a quiz show format to tell how American business meets its responsibilities.

The 28-minute color film invites the viewer to take a seat on the Board of Directors of Ohio Oil and make decisions along with management.

"You Decide" asks two main questions: "Does a large company have social responsibilities? Is it good business to be a good citizen?" To both, the film answers along with the audience, "Yes." The motion picture also points out that in modern big business, over half the time of management is taken with "people" decisions—more time on "humanology" than technology.

World's only retractable hardtop

Why people who love CONVERTIBLES buy FORD

Only Ford lets you choose from a steel-top convertible or a fabric-top beauty. Who else but Ford... world's largest convertible maker... could offer you two different kinds of convertibles. There's the fabric-top Ford Sunliner and the steel-top Ford Skyliner. They're both styled and powered in the Thunderbird tradition.

Nowhere else can you find so much convertible for so little money. Take the Ford Sunliner for example. A comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices shows it's America's lowest-priced convertible. As for the Skyliner, it's the world's only 2-in-1 fine car... a snug steel-top and a breezy convertible. Just touch a button. The all-steel top vanishes into the rear deck... and you're sitting pretty in the smartest convertible ever.

So if you're the sun-worshipping type, better see your Ford Dealer and get all the reasons why Ford outsells its nearest competitor in convertibles by a whopping 2-to-1 margin!

The careless beekeeper and the unthinking insurance buyer often have one thing in common. They may be most vulnerable where they least expect it. A homeowner may buy fire insurance on his property and think he is fully protected. But disaster asks no questions before it strikes.

A tornado, hurricane, or hailstorm is indifferent in its course and may leave your home severely damaged whether you have complete protection or not.

Consult your local, capital stock insurance agent for a complete analysis of all your insurance needs. He can make sure there are no unguarded areas in your program, and he represents sound capital stock insurance companies, the standard bearers of reliable protection.

To File Tax Suits
In a special called meeting of the McCamey city council Wednesday night of last week, John A. Menefee was authorized to file approximately 40 suits against delinquent tax property owners.

Menefee stated he planned to file the delinquent tax suits with the County Clerk before the end of this month. Defendants of the delinquent taxes will be cited by publication, starting some time in June.—The McCamey News.

Regional V. P.
Mrs. Coralie Meinecke, manager of the Crockett County Abstract Co., of Ozona, was recently elected regional vice president of the Texas Title Association, a statewide organization of abstract and title company executives. Mrs. Meinecke will head Region 5, the largest region in the state, embracing nearly thirty West Texas counties. She was elected at the recent state convention of the Association held in Brownsville.—The Ozona Stockman.

To Be Ordained
Two Sonora students at Episcopal seminaries have received their post-ordination assignments as deacons-in-charge of Texas parishes.

Lea Roy Aldwell will serve as deacon-in-charge of St. Mary's Church, Eldorado, while Clay T. Puckett has been assigned as a deacon-in-charge of St. Thomas' Church, Corpus Christi. The two will be ordained in special ceremonies to be held at St. John's Church here in early July.—Sonora Devils River News.

Consider Tax Raise
An increase in the tax rate from $1.50 to $2 on the $100 valuation is being considered by the City Commission of Alpine to avoid long-term bond issues. New budget for the City and the proposed tax hike will be discussed at the regular meeting of the commission.—The Alpine Avalanche.

Work Under Way On Menard Hospital
The echo of hammers and saws at work on the Menard County Hospital this week is encouraging to all who have waited and worked so long for the many hurdles to be passed. A new spirit seems to pervade the town.

This new spirit has been manifested by a number of cash gifts to help further the project. Some of these gifts were large in amount, some large only in the sense of the sacrifice made by the donor.—The Menard News.

Pool Opens At Bronte
Aubrey Denman has announced that the Bronte swimming pool will open at 4:30 p. m., Thursday, May 15. Admission prices will be the same as last year: 15 cents for students, 35 cents for adults and $5.00 for a season ticket.—The Bronte Enterprise.

Water Works In Operation
The city water in the new City of Sterling City, water department was turned on last week.

The water system was financed with bond issues—one for $80,000 in tax bonds and $80,000 in revenue bonds last year. The well is located on Jeff Davis' place west of the city limits.

The city hopes to get enough customers to pay the bonds off in an orderly fashion. So far there are 75 customers on the water system, said city secretary Ethel Murrell.—Sterling City News-Record.

Bank Sold
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin announced Saturday the purchase of the Commercial Bank (unincorporated) by Ed H. Winton, Jr., C. Victor Thornton and Lloyd Thornton, all of Fort Worth. Mr. Winton has resigned as assistant vice president of Continental National Bank of Fort Worth and has moved to Mason this week to assume active management of the bank. His wife, the former Jo Alice Evans, of San Angelo, and their two children will follow soon.—Mason Co. News.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Taylor and son spent the week end in Coleman visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Thomas.

Post Script

In a letter to the newspapers of his district, Congressman O. C. Fisher has the following to say this week:

"May 7 marked the deadline for candidates to apply for places on primary ballots. Naturally I am pleased that I am unopposed, and I want to take this occasion to express my gratitude to my friends for this expression of approval and confidence in the manner of my attempt to represent you in Washington. It makes one feel very humble and grateful."

In regard to last week's story on the 1923 Senior class's production of "Where East Meets West," we are told that a good crowd of about 400 people attended.

Travelers Return From S. America

Mrs. W. L. McWhorter, Mrs. W. T. Whitten and Bob McWhorter returned yesterday from an extended tour of South America.

In some places they sensed the unrest and hostile attitude of South Americans toward our nation, but had an enjoyable trip. They were especially impressed by the fine air service and luxurious planes provided for air travel. Most of the pilots were English, Canadians or Americans, with the Dutch piloting their own planes with flights originating in their country.

They found a scarcity of automobiles in every city except Caracas, Venezuela, where cars were cheaper for the natives to buy and where the country was found to be very rich with an economy built on oil production.

Those nations of South America that resented our government policies were Argentina, because the United States does not import as much of their beef products as they expect; Brazil, because we do not pay the price they want for their coffee; and Venezuela because the United States has sharply cut oil imports from that country.

Food in South America was found to be fairly good in quality and about the same price as in the United States except in Caracas where hamburgers were $2.00 each and all other food very expensive.

The Eldorado tourists found most of the places they visited very similar to towns in Old Mexico. They stated that they were glad to be home again after being away a month.

REYNOLDS - ALEXANDER H. D. CLUB MEETS
The Reynolds Alexander Home Demonstration club met Tuesday, May 13 at the home of Mrs. G. Hartgrave. Ten members and Mrs. Kreklow were present.

The club voted to give $4.00 to help a 4-H club boy or girl to go to camp this summer. It has been decided that it is best for a boy or girl to earn most of the cost of going to camp, as it gives them a feeling of satisfaction, and the experience of saving money for the things they want.

Mrs. Kreklow gave a most interesting demonstration on making the best of ones good looks.

After the demonstration the guests were served coffee and lemonade.

YOUTH PHASE OF EXTENSION SERVICE NOW IN 50th YEAR

College Station.—Fifty years ago an event took place in Jack county which establishes the youth phase of Agricultural Extension Service work in Texas. The occasion was the organization of the first boys' corn club in the state by a county agent and resulted from the failure of an adult corn show in 1907.

The late Tom Marks was the county agent and the remark, "You can't teach old dogs new tricks," prompted Marks to come up with the statement—"Then I'll start with the pups"—and that is exactly what happened. He enrolled 25 boys and by demonstrations taught them the latest practices then known in corn production. The corn show held in Jackboro in the fall of 1908 in the caboose of a train proved Marks' point that farm youth could put into practice the better known methods of production.

This method of teaching among the rural youth of Texas is now in its 50th year and is known over the world as 4-H club work. The first of many special observances, honoring the pioneer workers, the members and leaders of the early day clubs, will come during the annual 4-H Club Roundup scheduled for June 10-12 at Texas A&M college.

While the major emphasis and activities of the 1958 Roundup will be devoted to determining state winners in 22 different judging and team demonstration contests, plans are being perfected to initiate a series of observances to carry recognition and attention to the importance of 4-H club work. The theme of the Roundup and for the activities to follow in the counties will be, "Learn Today—Lead Tomorrow."

Total attendance at Roundup, according to Extension Service officials, will approximate 2,200 with 4-H members making up a majority. Others attending will be county extension agents, adult 4-H leaders and friends of 4-H, parents, representatives of the news media and others.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cales visited their daughter, Janice in Waco last Friday and Saturday. They spent Saturday evening and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sparks in Dublin. Mrs. Cales is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Sparks.

Billy Wade of Sonora visited his mother, Mrs. Ovid Wade, on Mother's Day.

COUNTY AGENT'S COLUMN

by Tim Godwin

Schleicher County Agricultural Agent

Farmers receive their lowest price for oats during the harvesting season and highest price during the winter. The highest average price received by farmers for oats in December and January during 1948-57 was 95 cents per bushel, average price for Texas. Oats harvested at 15% moisture will lose 3.5 per cent of their weight when the grain dries to 12 per cent moisture.

Approximately 1 1/4 cubic feet of space is required for storage of a bushel of oats and the number of bushels a bin will hold is equal to the number of cubic feet in the bin multiplied by eight-tenths.

It will be only a matter of a few days until cotton farmers will be applying insecticides, for early season control of aphids, cotton fleas or thrips. With warm weather the appearance of the third leaf of cotton appears in 8 days after emergence and the fourth leaf 9 days later. The four leaf stage is the time to start early season control of cotton insects unless a heavy infestation of thrips are found earlier as in 1957.

The cotton fleahopper should be active this year. All the host plants of the fleahopper were here in abundance, horse mint, goatweed, prime rose and a host of others. With these plants drying during the month of May, cotton farmers can expect the cotton fleahopper to migrate to the more succulent cotton.

This being the case the sprayer should be thoroughly checked and cleaned and in good working condition. Be sure and check the pump and see that 60 pounds of pressure is available. The sprayer must develop 60 pounds of pressure to effectively control cotton insects.

Be sure you know by trial how much water your sprayer uses per acre, using three nozzles per row. This is important as the amount of spray or dust is expressed in pounds and amount of concentrate per acre.

4-H and FFA boys have been very successful in range judging the past week. The Schleicher county team placed 1st and 4th at the San Angelo Junior College

Homemaking Classes Of Eldorado High School Give Style Show Recently

On May 1, the homemaking classes of Eldorado High school presented in a style show the dresses which they made at home and in class. The theme of this style show was "Hatbox Fashions" which was displayed by one large hatbox from which the models appeared and by smaller hatboxes set about the stage. The 36 girls from the three classes were judged for their sewing ability, the fitness of the garment, and their modeling.

The judges were Mrs. Forrest Runge, Mrs. Jo Ed Hill, and Helen Kay Taylor. The first prizes, carbon paper and tracing wheels, were awarded to Ruth Parker, Ann Blair, and Judy Kay Nixon; the top girls of each class. Elaine Whitten, Mary Ann Nixon, and Joy Dodd were awarded rippers as second prizes. Secret pin cushions were given to Linda Jones, Kay Thomerson, and Jo Lawrence.

The other models were: Sandra Alcorn, Sandra Norman, Arlene Harris, Kay Mason, Darla Jones, Linda Sofge, Emma Lou Menees, Judy Wyatt, Becky Mund, June Williams, Sara Raibourn, La Nell Reynolds, Janis Sofge, Linda Nixon, Diane Thomas, Judy McGregor, Ruth Williams, Genelle McCalla, Donna Childress, Linda Love, Sammie Mayo, Frankie Jeffrey, Janice Meador, Martha Graham, Vera Fay Powell, Shirley Carroll, Pat Phillips, Gayle Woodward.

Following the style show, refreshments of punch and cookies were served in the homemaking department. Miss Dana Owens is the homemaking teacher and director of the style show.

and Tom Green county soil district supervisors range judging contest. Ernest K. Nimitz was high individual of the contest making 274 points out of a possible 300. Judge Whitten was 5th high individual of the contest. Charles West and Ernest Nimitz had a perfect score on grass identification.

Members of the first place team were Dick Runge, Judge Whitten, Ernest Nimitz and Farris Nixon. Members of the fourth place team were James Sallee, Charles West, Jerry Thomerson and Jerry Don Johnson.

You will be reading in national magazines this summer about trading stamps; in fact, you may expect whole pages of advertisements about saving stamps, because trading stamps are a subject of great public interest. Many studies are going on by research groups, which claim that the housewife who tends to save stamps is the most careful shopper, etc. There are many angles that will be interesting study.

Many species of ants can be found in the home. They nest in the wall, behind baseboards, in furniture, almost anywhere. Inside the home use a household spray containing 3% chlordane or 0.5 per cent dieldrin where ants are noticed, giving particular attention to drainboards, window sills, door thresholds and pantry shelves.

Around the foundation wall apply and treat all nests found in the yard. Use 10% chlordane, 2% dieldrin or 5% heptachlor dust. If an emulsion spray is used, follow directions on the label.

While others may side-track your ambitions not a few times, remember that discouragement most frequently comes from within.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

By MRS. VIDA KREKUCW

I made this meat loaf not long ago and found it just about right in every detail. To my mind meat loaf should be good either hot or cold. It should be firm enough to slice but not too solid. Even though the 1/2 pound ground pork called for would be good, having none on hand, I used all ground beef and it was good. Make up a double or triple recipe and freeze a part of it.

Meat Loaf

1 pound ground beef.
1/2 pound ground pork.
1 egg, slightly beaten.
2 cups canned or cooked tomatoes.
1 cup non-fat dry milk solids.
2 cups coarse, dry bread crumbs.
2 tbsps finely chopped onion.
1 1/2 teaspoon salt.
1/8 teaspoon dry mustard.

Place all ingredients into a bowl in order given. Mix well. The mixture will be sticky. Shape into a loaf in a shallow pan. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees for about 1 1/2 hours. Serves 8.

And while we are cooking, here is another perfectly delicious cookie recipe. Edith Runge brought these cookies to a senior class picnic the other night and so many people asked for the recipe that I told her I would put it in the paper and save making so many copies. This is the recipe and the name is very appropriate.

Dream Bars

1/2 cup butter—cream
1/2 cup brown sugar, add slowly to creamed butter, beat until well mixed.
1 cup flour; mix with butter and sugar.

Press the mixture into an 8-inch by 14-inch, well buttered, pan. Bake from 12 to 15 minutes at 300 degrees.

While baking above mixture beat 2 eggs, add slowly 1 cup brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup broken pecan meats and 1 can coconut, which is 1 1/4 cups. Pour this mixture over the baked crust and continue baking for 25 to 30 minutes in a slow oven, from 200 to 250.

To further gild the lilly, mix up this topping and pour over the hot mixture:

1/2 cup confectioners sugar
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoons lemon juice
Grated rind of one lemon.
Dash of salt (little shaker). Mix together and spread over cookies, cut cookies while warm. Place under lock and key if they are for something special.

Everyone is interested in the Home Demonstration club programs for the month of May. The name of the demonstration is called "Making the best of your good looks" and is primarily centered toward good grooming and the art of using cosmetics to the best advantage. Working on the theory that the greatest beauty is that of a natural girl or woman, these statements about cosmetic selection are aimed at giving the most help to someone who wants to know.

1. Foundation preparations, powder and lipstick must contain a trace of the same underlying tone of the skin. In the March meetings we determined whether pink, blue or ochre (ivory, cream or olive) were predominant colors in a person's skin.

2. For greatest enhancement, the foundation should be tinted to a shade that is neither darker nor lighter than your skin and it should match the intensity of the skin. For example, a pale foundation would not make a dark skin appear fair, but sickly. On a fair skin a dark base looked clownish.

3. Face powder should match the foundation.

4. Rouge and lipstick must match.

Still referring to color types, in March we found that a great many of us, I was one, fell in to the classification of the American type.

You are the American type, if you have:

Ochre undertones in your skin.
Light or medium-brown hair.
Blue, gray, green, hazel or light brown eyes.

The rouge and lipstick selection for the American type would run in color through the vivid red, tangerine and true reds.

The color education simply is this: by knowing your basic skin color one would know whether to buy pink, blue reds, geranium, clear corals or rosy tones of lipstick and rouge. Each mentioned is good for one type or the other.

If you have a good color eye, do this to help you determine your basic skin color: Stand in daylight with a piece of dead white paper in your hand and place it against the inside of your wrist. You will see that in comparison with the white of the paper, your skin's undertones appear decidedly pink, or ochre, or blue in cast. Pink or ochre undertones place you in the warm color types; blue tints classify you among the cool color types. It actually makes no difference as to which type you fall into—the important thing is to use cosmetics in keeping with your color needs.

TODAY'S BEST BUY-TOMORROW'S BEST TRADE

You get more wagon for your money today... more money for your wagon tomorrow!

Any way you look at it, you can't find a better wagon buy than Plymouth! So big—it carries more, does more, provides more room for family fun. So beautiful—just look at those long, years-ahead lines. So economical—Plymouth is priced right in the low-price "3", yet you can't buy a bigger wagon at any price. And further proof: Plymouth beat every car in the low-price class in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run; Plymouth's second consecutive victory!

Get the biggest wagonload of value at a price far lower than you would expect. See your Plymouth dealer today.

FIVE BIG REASONS WHY YOUR NEXT WAGON SHOULD BE A PLYMOUTH

- Biggest of the low-price "3". Big as wagons costing thousands of dollars more. You can't buy a bigger wagon at any price!
- Holds so much more than the "other two". Over 7 cu. ft. extra passenger and cargo space. Optional "secret" luggage compartment available in 6-passenger models.
- Rear-facing 3rd seat. Folds flush into floor. You don't store it outside when it's not in use. Easy to enter, has convenient back step.
- Disappearing rear window. Rolls down into the one-piece tailgate. Doesn't jut out. Only on Plymouth wagons in the low-price "3".
- Torsion-Aire Ride at no extra cost. Only Plymouth has it in the low-price "3". No sidesway on turns... no nose-dive on stops.

They don't come any bigger than Plymouth station wagons

BACK TO THE BIBLE

How Readest Thou?

"Verily, verily, I say unto you. The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God. And they that hear shall live." Jno. 5:25.

Neighbor, if the Lord, in the above passage, don't teach that salvation is conditioned, and the condition is, "That the sinner must hear Christ," then what does it teach?

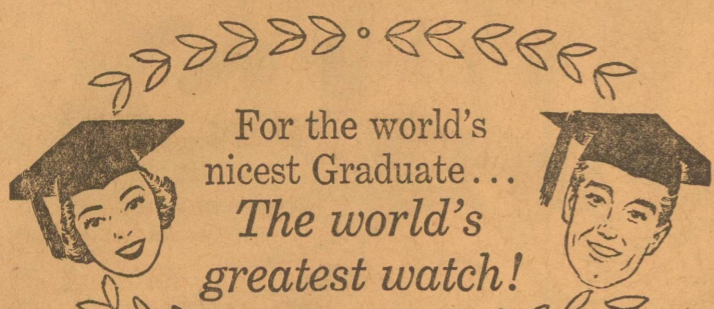

Again, "Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Mt. 7:21.

Question, "If Christ did not mean that man MUST DO the will of God in order to enter the Kingdom of heaven: will someone please tell us what Christ did mean?" My fellow man, we can change our way of living, but we can't change the word of the Lord. Come to the Church of Christ one block west of courthouse and hear the gospel preached like it reads in your Bible.

Fire Razed Businesses 35 Years Ago This Week

(Ed. note: It has been 35 years now since fire razed several businesses on the corner now occupied by the First National Bank of Eldorado.)

(from the Success, May 18, 1923)

Between four and five o'clock Friday morning, the Ben Hext business house was discovered on fire, originating in the southeast corner of the building and soon swept the entire building. Nothing was saved from the building; this building was valued at about $1,200 with $600 insurance.

The Tailor Shop owned by Joe Williams was valued at $800 besides about 32 suits of clothes that were consumed in the flames; no insurance.

The Barber Shop was owned by H. T. Finley and was valued at about $800 and a total loss, no insurance; the flames swept next to E. H. Sweatt saddle shop. This building was just built and Mr. Sweatt's loss was about $300, no insurance; the flames next spread to the Haynes' confectionery, owned and operated for 20 years by Mrs. E. C. Haynes. She reports her loss to be about $8,000, no insurance; the Haynes building and the building occupied by the El Dorado Hardware Co., joined; the hardware building was owned by the First National Bank of El Dorado and John W. O'Neill, of San Angelo, valued at about $1,500, with some insurance. Mr. Hill reports that the Hardware's loss was about $6,000, this loss partially covered by insurance; some goods were saved from the Hardware and Haynes building, also a machine and two saddles from the Sweatt building.

The origin of the fire is unknown. From reports of men who first discovered it, the flames started in southeast; this corner was used to hang clothes in, also had a small table in it.

It is not known whether the fire started on inside or outside of building. Men at the phone office were up at four o'clock and saw no signs of fire; the fire was discovered by these same men at four-thirty and by daylight the entire half block was smoldering in ashes.

The high wind from the south blew fired shingles across the street and for awhile the block opposite the fire was threatened.

Those burned out will re-enter business, some to rebuild. The Hardware was building at time of fire; at present they are located in Hoover building.

Mrs. Haynes was selling goods by nine o'clock in the Keele-Keeney building across the street.

Mr. Finley was offered the first chair in the City Barber Shop and will work there until he gets back in business.

E. H. Sweatt has bought a building and will move it to the block burned and remodel it. Joe Williams will temporarily move in with Mr. Sweatt.
